Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On August 31, 2011, Discover Financial Services wholly-owned subsidiary, Discover Bank ( Discover ), and Citibank, N.A. ( Citi ) entered into an Asset Purchase Agreement, pursuant to which Discover agreed to purchase approximately $2.5 billion of private student loans from Citi for a purchase price equal to 99% of the outstanding aggregate principal and accrued interest balance of the purchased loans (excluding certain charged-off loans) through the closing date. The transaction is expected to close on or around September 30, 2011, subject to customary closing conditions. Citi will continue to service the loans for a transitional period after the closing.

Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure.

Discover plans to fund the portfolio purchase through existing liquidity and current funding channels. The transaction is expected to generate earnings accretion of approximately $.07 per share in 2012.

Approximately 80% of the portfolio consists of school-certified loans issued to four-year college or graduate student borrowers. The remainder of the portfolio is comprised of primarily private consolidation loans and professional study loans, such as for medical residency and bar study. The average FICO score on the portfolio is 740. Approximately 80% of the loans are in active repayment, and nearly 70% are cosigned.

The information contained in this Item 7.01 of this Current Report on Form 8-K is furnished pursuant to Item 7.01 of Form 8-K and shall not be deemed to be filed for purposes of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, or otherwise subject to the liabilities of that section, nor shall it be deemed incorporated by reference in any filing under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, except as shall be expressly stated by specific reference in such filing.

This Current Report on Form 8-K contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Such statements are based upon the current beliefs and expectations of Discover's management and are subject to significant risks and uncertainties. The transaction is subject to closing conditions and there can be no assurance that it will close. The following factors, among others, could cause actual results to differ materially from those set forth in the forward-looking statements: unexpected difficulties or delays in executing the proposed transaction; Discover's ability to execute on expense-reduction initiatives; the impact of current, pending and future legislation, regulation and regulatory and legal actions, including new laws and rules related to student loans, financial regulatory reform and bankruptcy, on Discover's ability to execute its business strategies and engage in certain business activities; the actions and initiatives of current and potential competitors; and Discover's ability to manage its credit risk. The forward-looking statements speak only as of the date of this Current Report on Form 8-K, and there is no undertaking to update or revise them as more information becomes available. Additional factors that could cause Discover's results to differ materially from those described in the forward-looking statements can be found under Risk Factors and Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations in Discover's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended November 30, 2010 and Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended May 31, 2011, which are filed with the SEC and available at the SEC's internet site (<http://www.sec.gov>).
