Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On October 23, 2012, PolyOne Corporation (PolyOne), 2012 RedHawk, Inc., a wholly owned subsidiary of PolyOne (Merger Sub), 2012 RedHawk, LLC, a wholly owned subsidiary of PolyOne (Merger LLC), and Spartech Corporation (Spartech) entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement) pursuant to which Spartech will be merged with and into Merger Sub (the Merger), with Spartech to be the surviving corporation in the merger (the Surviving Corporation) and a wholly owned subsidiary of PolyOne, which is expected to be immediately followed by a merger of the Surviving Corporation with and into Merger LLC (the Subsequent Merger), with Merger LLC to be the surviving entity in the Subsequent Merger.

Pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement, at the effective time of the Merger, each issued and outstanding share of Spartech common stock will be canceled and converted into the right to receive consideration equal to $2.67 in cash and 0.3167 PolyOne common shares. In the aggregate, PolyOne will issue approximately 9.9 million of its common shares and pay approximately $84,000,000 in cash to Spartech shareholders. PolyOne intends to finance the cash portion of the purchase price as well as the repayment of certain debt of Spartech through a combination of cash on hand and new long-term debt.

The closing of the Merger is expected to occur during the first quarter of 2013, subject to the satisfaction of customary closing conditions, including, among other things: (1) the adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement and the Merger by Spartech's stockholders; (2) receipt of required regulatory approvals; (3) the absence of certain legal impediments preventing the consummation of the Merger; (4) the effectiveness of the registration on Form S-4 to be filed by PolyOne relating to the PolyOne common shares to be issued in the Merger; (5) the expiration or termination of the applicable waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended; (6) the approval by the New York Stock Exchange of the listing of PolyOne common shares issuable to Spartech stockholders under the Merger Agreement; (7) the delivery of opinions from counsel to PolyOne and counsel to Spartech to the effect that the Merger will be treated as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

Each of PolyOne and Spartech has made representations, warranties and covenants in the Merger Agreement. Spartech's covenants and agreements include, among other things: (1) subject to certain conditions, to conduct its business in the ordinary course of business during the period between the execution of the Merger Agreement and the completion of the Merger; and (2) not to solicit or initiate discussions with third parties regarding alternative transactions and to respond to proposals regarding such alternative transactions only in accordance with the terms of the Merger Agreement. PolyOne's covenants and agreements include, among other things: (1) to conduct its business in the ordinary course of business during the period between the execution of the Merger Agreement and the completion of the Merger, subject to certain conditions; and (2) to prepare and file with the SEC a registration statement on Form S-4 to register the securities issuable to Spartech stockholders under the Merger Agreement.

The foregoing summary has been included to provide investors and security holders with information regarding its terms and is qualified in its entirety by the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 2.1 and is incorporated herein by reference. Except for its status as a contractual document that establishes and governs the legal relations among the parties with respect to the transactions described therein, the Merger Agreement is not intended to be a source of factual, business, or operational information about the parties. The representations, warranties, and covenants contained in the Merger Agreement were made only for purposes of that agreement and as of specific dates, were solely for the benefit of the parties to that agreement, and may be subject to limitations agreed among those parties, including being qualified by confidential disclosures among those parties. Instead of establishing matters as facts, the representations and warranties may have been made to allocate risks contractually among the parties, including where the parties do not have complete knowledge of all facts. Furthermore, those representations and warranties may be subject to standards of materiality applicable to the contracting parties that differ from those applicable to investors. Accordingly, investors and security holders should not rely on representations, warranties, covenants, or any descriptions thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts or condition of the parties.
