GUGGENHEIM INVESTMENTS LAUNCHES CURRENCYSHARES® SINGAPORE DOLLAR TRUST

FXSG is the first Singapore Dollar ETP in the market

New York, NY, February 13, 2013 Guggenheim Investments, the investment management division of Guggenheim Partners, announced today the launch of the first Singapore Dollar exchanged traded product (ETP), CurrencyShares® Singapore Dollar Trust (NYSE Arca: FXSG).

CurrencyShares® Singapore Dollar Trust seeks to provide institutional and retail investors a cost-effective way to gain exposure to the Singapore dollar. The unique CurrencyShares® structure provides pure exposure to the Singapore Dollar by holding actual foreign currency deposits, not derivative instruments. In addition to pure exposure, CurrencyShares® investing advantages include transparency, potential tax efficiency, trading flexibility, accessibility and liquidity.

We're pleased to continue to expand our CurrencyShares® line-up, and believe that the short-term tactical and long-term strategic opportunities in Singapore make it attractive," said William Belden, managing director and head of product development at Guggenheim Investments.

CurrencyShares® Singapore Dollar Trust provides investors an opportunity to potentially capitalize from the Singapore economy and positive movement in the Singapore dollar.

Singapore, often referred to as the "Switzerland of Asia," is a major banking center that attracts wealth from across the Asia-Pacific due to its independence and solid financial balance sheet.¹ Additionally, Singapore has a strong economy with a real growth rate of 4.9% in 2011², and is one of only two Asian-Pacific countries to have AAA credit ratings (Australia is the other) from the major credit rating agencies, including Fitch, Moody's and Standard & Poor's.

The currency market, one of the largest and most liquid with $4 trillion traded daily³, can provide investors a way to diversify cash allocations and hedge exposure to certain markets. Currency, when used as an asset class, also has the potential to offer low correlations to equity and fixed income asset classes, which may help lessen portfolio volatility.

Guggenheim Investments is an innovative leader in currency products, launching the nation's first currency exchange traded product - CurrencyShares® Euro Trust (NYSE Arca: FXE). The firm offers the industry's largest line-up of currency ETPs, which consists of nine currency products. Collectively, the Guggenheim Investments CurrencyShares® line-up represents $1.9 billion in assets as of 12.31.2012.

CurrencyShares® are subject to risks similar to those of stocks and may not be suitable for all investors. The value of the shares of each CurrencyShares® Trust relates directly to the value of the foreign currency held by the particular Trust. This creates a concentration risk associated with fluctuations in the price of the applicable foreign currency. Accordingly, a decline in the price of that currency will have an adverse effect on the value of the shares of the particular CurrencyShares Trust. Factors that may have the effect of causing a decline in the price of a foreign currency include national debt levels and trade deficits, domestic and foreign interest rates, investment and trading activities of institutions and global or regional political, economic or financial events and situations. Investors should consider the investment objectives, risks, charges and expenses of these products carefully before investing. The prospectus pertaining to each product contains this and other information about the product. Please read the applicable prospectus, including the Risk Factors section, carefully before you invest. Shares can be bought and sold through a broker and the purchasers or sellers may have to pay brokerage commissions in connection with the transaction. Investment returns and principal value will fluctuate so that shares may be worth more or less than original cost. Shares may only be redeemed directly from the Trust by Authorized Participants via baskets (as defined in the prospectus). There can be no assurance that an active trading market for the shares will develop or be maintained. The CurrencyShares Trusts are not investment companies registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940.
