1. Plan Description

General Description

The following description of the L-3 Communications Corporation Amended and Restated 2009 Employee Stock Purchase Plan (the Plan) provides only general information. Participants should refer to the Plan document for a more complete description of the Plan's provisions. Should there be a conflict between the general information below and the Plan document, the Plan document takes precedence. The Plan was approved by the stockholders of L-3 Communications Holdings, Inc. (L-3 Holdings) on April 28, 2009 and became effective on July 1, 2009. The Plan replaced the L-3 Communications Corporation Employee Stock Purchase Plan that was adopted in 2001. As a result, no subsequent options to purchase shares of L-3 Holdings' common stock (Stock) have been or will be granted under its prior employee stock purchase plan.

The Plan is an employee stock purchase plan that allows participants to purchase Stock of L-3 Holdings through payroll deductions. The Plan's fiscal year ends on December 31 and is divided into two six-month periods (Offering Periods) for the purpose of stock offerings under the Plan. The Offering Periods begin on the first trading day on or after January 1 and July 1 and end on the last trading day on or before June 30 and December 31 and represent the periods during which participants' payroll deductions are accumulated. The participants' accumulated payroll deductions as of the last trading day of each Offering Period (Exercise Date) are used to purchase shares of L-3 Holdings' Stock at an amount equal to 95% of the fair market value of the Stock on the Exercise Date (or 85% of fair market value for offering periods prior to January 1, 2011). Fair market value is defined as the average of the highest and lowest sales price of a share of Stock per the New York Stock Exchange on the Exercise Date.

After adjustment for the shares issued under the 2001 Employee Stock Purchase Plan, the total number of shares originally authorized for issuance under the Plan is 7,421,259 shares. For the years ended December 31, 2012, 2011 and 2010, the Plan issued 665,070 shares, 868,480 shares and 1,012,418 shares of Stock, respectively. Effective July 17, 2012, L-3 Holdings completed the spin-off of its subsidiary, Engility Holdings Inc. (Engility), to L-3 Holdings' shareholders. As a result of the spin-off, the remaining shares of Stock available for future purchases by Plan participants was adjusted based on a conversion ratio of 1.043678. Accordingly, the total number of shares authorized for issuance under the Plan following the spin-off is 7,634,201. At December 31, 2012, 5,088,233 shares of Stock were available for future purchases by Plan participants.

For the Offering Periods ended December 31, 2012 and 2011, accumulated Plan participants' payroll deductions in the amount of $18,429,724 and $23,320,295, respectively, have been recorded as a contribution receivable. At December 31, 2012, participants' accumulated payroll deductions amounted to the equivalent of 256,426 shares of Stock, which were purchased subsequent to December 31, 2012. The shares of Stock purchased by the Plan subsequent to December 31, 2012 had a closing market value of $19,647,360 as of the Exercise Date.

The Plan is neither qualified under Section 401(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, nor subject to any of the provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA). Fidelity Stock Plan Services, LLC is the recordkeeper of the Plan and Fidelity Brokerage Services, LLC is the custodian of the participants' brokerage accounts.

Eligibility and Participation

Generally, all employees of L-3 Communications Corporation (L-3 or the Company), or of certain subsidiaries or affiliates of L-3, are eligible to participate in the Plan except for employees of business units included in the Engility spin-off, whose participation in the Plan ended on June 29, 2012. L-3 has the discretion to designate whether particular subsidiaries or affiliates of L-3 will participate in the Plan. L-3 may also adopt rules regarding the administration of the Plan to conform to local laws or to enable employees of the Company or certain subsidiaries or affiliates to participate in the Plan. Under certain circumstances, these rules may take precedence over other provisions of the Plan, except for certain provisions which may not be superceded, including with respect to the maximum discount at which Stock may be purchased and the maximum dollar amount of payroll deductions or contributions that may be used to purchase Stock under the Plan.

Notes to Financial Statements

Employees who have (or whose participation in the Plan would result in them having) 5% or more of the total combined voting power or value of all classes of L-3 Holdings' stock may not participate in the Plan. Additionally, no employee may be granted an option to purchase more than $25,000 worth of Stock under the Plan in any calendar year (based on the fair market value of the Stock at the time the option is granted).

Eligible employees may enroll in the Plan at any time. Once an election is made, the participant will automatically participate in all subsequent offering periods at the elected contribution rate, unless the participant (1) makes a new election or (2) withdraws from an Offering Period or from the Plan in accordance with the procedures set forth in the Plan document.

Stock Purchases

On the Exercise Date, the amount of each participant's accumulated payroll deductions is applied towards the purchase of the maximum number of whole and fractional shares of Stock, determined by dividing the participant's total contribution by 95% of the fair market value of the Stock on the last day of the Offering Period (or 85% of fair market value for offering periods prior to January 1, 2011). Purchased shares of Stock are issued by L-3 Holdings to the custodian of the participants' brokerage accounts. The custodian maintains an individual account for each participant and tracks whole and fractional shares purchased and sold attributable to each participant account.

Participant Contributions

Participants may elect to have 1% to 10% of their compensation (as defined in the Plan) deducted on an after-tax basis for the purchase of Stock, provided that these payroll deductions do not exceed $21,250 in a calendar year. Generally, participants may not make any separate contributions into their accounts, except during an approved leave of absence if certain conditions are met. During each offering period, a participant may elect to make one increase and/or one decrease to the rate of payroll deductions. A participant may also elect to withdraw from participation in the Plan at any time. An election to withdraw from participation or to increase or decrease the payroll deduction rate shall become effective as soon as administratively feasible following the date of such election.

Subject to local law requirements, interest is not accrued or paid on participants' accumulated payroll deductions. Subject to local law requirements, the Company may use the payroll deductions for any corporate purpose, and the Company has no obligation to segregate employees' payroll deductions from any other funds of the Company or to hold funds representing the same pending the application thereof to the purchase of shares at the Exercise Date in accordance with the Plan.

Participant Accounts

The assets held in each Plan participant's individual account are not included in the Plan nor in the Plan's financial statements. When Stock is distributed to each participant's individual account, the participant may elect to retain or sell the Stock at his or her discretion. Stock sale transactions are not included in the Plan's Statements of Changes in Assets.

Participant Withdrawal

Plan participants may withdraw from the Plan by decreasing their payroll deduction rate to zero during an Offering Period. Upon such withdrawal from the Plan, participants may elect to receive reimbursement of all of their accumulated payroll deductions during the current Offering Period, provided that the election is made no later than two weeks prior to the Exercise Date. In the event that the participant does not give proper instructions to request reimbursement in a timely manner, the participant's accumulated payroll deductions will be used for the purchase of shares of Stock on the Exercise Date. A participant who withdraws from participation during an Offering Period may not participate in the Plan until the next Offering Period.

Participant Termination

Participants who terminate their employment relationship with the Company (and with all designated subsidiaries and affiliates that participate in the Plan) are not eligible to continue participation in the Plan. All payroll deductions accumulated during the Offering Period through the date of such termination of employment are refunded to the employee or, in the event of the employee's death, to the employee's beneficiary. After a participant's termination of employment, the custodian shall continue to maintain the participant's account until such time as the participant sells or withdraws all shares in their account.

Plan Termination and Administration

The Board of Directors of L-3 Holdings may terminate the Plan at any time, provided that no such termination may, without the consent of an employee then having an option under the Plan to purchase Stock, adversely affect the rights of such employee under such option. The Plan is administered by the Benefit Plan Committee (the Committee). The Committee has the authority to interpret the Plan, to adopt rules and make determinations that are necessary or advisable for administering the Plan and to delegate some or all of its authority to one or more employees or officers of the Company.
