Item 9.01 Financial Statements and Exhibits.

(b) Pro Forma Financial Information

As described above, on May 9, 2013, the Company completed the sale of its Performing Loans with an aggregate net carrying value of $15.1 million, including accrued interest and loan servicing advances, for cash proceeds of $18.9 million, resulting in a $3.8 million gain on sale to be recognized in the second quarter. The remaining residential real estate loans have been reclassified as held for sale in the second quarter, from held for investment at March 31, 2013. The Performing Loans were held through our Signature Special Situations operating segment.

Had the Performing Loans been sold as of December 31, 2011, operating revenues of Signature Special Situations for the year ended December 31, 2012 would have been reduced by $4.0 million related to interest income ($2.2 million) and change in market valuation allowance ($1.8 million) recognized on the loans sold. Operating costs for loan servicing-related expenses would have been reduced by $39 thousand in the year ended December 31, 2012. Net loss and loss from continuing operations would have increased by $4.0 million, or $0.04 per share, for the year ended December 31, 2012.

Had the Performing Loans been sold as of December 31, 2012, cash and cash equivalents would have increased by $18.9 million, from the net cash proceeds; loans receivable, net due within one year and loans receivable, net would have decreased by $0.5 million and $14.4 million, respectively, for the carrying value of the loans sold; other current assets would have decreased $0.2 million, for accrued interest and loan servicing advances on the loans sold; and equity would have increased by $3.8 million, for the gain on sale, to $62.0 million.

The pro forma adjustments described above are presented for illustrative purposes only and are not necessarily indicative of the financial position or results of operations for future periods or the results that would have been achieved if the sale of the Performing Loans had been consummated on the dates indicated. The unaudited pro forma financial information does not reflect any adjustments for nonrecurring items. In the opinion of management, all adjustments necessary to present fairly the unaudited pro forma financial information have been made. The unaudited pro forma financial information should be read in conjunction with the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2012 and its subsequent filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission.
