SAFE HARBOR STATEMENT UNDER THE PRIVATE SECURITIES
LITIGATION REFORM ACT OF 1995

This document, and oral statements made with respect to information contained in this communication, contain certain forward-looking information about Anthem, Inc. ( "Anthem" ), Cigna Corporation ( "Cigna" ) and the combined businesses of Anthem and Cigna that is intended to be covered by the safe harbor for Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Forward-looking statements are statements that are not generally historical facts. Words such as "anticipate(s)", "intend", "estimate", "project" and similar expressions (including the negative thereof) are intended to identify forward-looking statements. These statements include, but are not limited to, statements regarding the merger between Anthem and Cigna, the combined company's expected future performance (including expected results of operations and financial guidance); the combined company's strategy and plans; statements about regulatory and other approvals; synergies from the proposed transaction; the combined company's investment grade ratings; the closing date for the proposed transaction; financial projections and estimates and their underlying assumptions; expectations with respect to future operations, products and services; and statements regarding future performance. Such statements are subject to uncertainties, many of which are difficult to predict and generally beyond Anthem's and Cigna's control, that could cause actual results and other future events to differ materially from those expressed in, or implied or projected by, the forward-looking information and statements. These risks and uncertainties include: those disclosed in public filings with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC"); those relating to the proposed transaction, as disclosed in SEC filings; increased government participation in, or regulation or taxation of health benefits and managed care operations, including but not limited to, the impact of the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act and the Health Care and Education Reconciliation Act of 2010, or Health Care Reform; trends in health care costs and premium rates including regulatory approval for and implementation of such rates; our participation in the federal and state health care markets; we have experienced and continue to experience challenges due to implementation of initial and phased-in provisions of Health Care Reform; our mix and volume of business, particularly in Individual and Small Group markets, that could negatively impact the adequacy of premium rates and which may not be sufficiently offset by the risk apportionment provisions of Health Care Reform; our ability to contract with providers consistent with past practice; our reduced enrollment, as well as a negative change in our health care product mix; risks and uncertainties regarding Medicare and Medicaid compliance with the complex regulations imposed thereon and the funding risks with respect to revenue received from
