Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On July 28, 2015, Cytec Industries Inc., a Delaware corporation (the Company or Cytec) entered into the Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement), by and among Solvay SA, a public limited company organized under the laws of Belgium (Parent or Solvay), Tulip Acquisition Inc., a Delaware corporation and a wholly-owned subsidiary of Parent (Merger Subsidiary), and the Company. Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, Merger Subsidiary will be merged with and into the Company (the Merger), with the Company surviving as a wholly-owned subsidiary of Parent (the Surviving Corporation).

In connection with the Merger, each outstanding share of the common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of the Company (the Company Stock), other than shares held by the Company, Parent or any subsidiary of the Company or Parent and shares with respect to which appraisal rights are properly demanded and not waived, withdrawn or lost, will be converted into the right to receive $75.25 in cash, without interest.

The proposed merger has been unanimously approved by the Boards of Directors of the Company and Parent. The completion of the Merger is subject to certain customary conditions, including, among others (i) adoption of the Merger Agreement by the Company's stockholders, (ii) the absence of any law or order prohibiting the consummation of the Merger, (iii) expiration of the applicable waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvement Act of 1976 and receipt of certain other competition law approvals and (iv) the conclusion of a review by Committee on Foreign Investment in the United States pursuant to Section 721 of the Defense Production Act of 1950, as added by the Exon-Florio Amendment of 1988 and as amended by the Foreign Investment and National Security Act of 2007. In addition to customary conditions in favor of both parties regarding the accuracy of the other party's representations and warranties (subject to customary materiality qualifiers) and the other party's compliance with its covenants and agreements contained in the Merger Agreement (subject to customary materiality qualifiers), Parent's obligations to complete the Merger are also subject to the conditions that there be no event or occurrence that would reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the Company, the receipt of approval from the Defense Security Service of the U.S. Department of Defense and the absence of written objection from the Directorate of Defense Trade Controls of the U.S. Department of State. Completion of the Merger is expected to occur in the fourth quarter of 2015.

Each of the Company, Parent and Merger Subsidiary has made customary representations and warranties in the Merger Agreement. The Company has also agreed to various customary covenants and agreements, including, among others, and subject to certain exceptions, to conduct its business in the ordinary course of business between the execution of the Merger Agreement and closing of the Merger and not to engage in certain specified types of transactions during such period. Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, the Company is permitted to pay regular quarterly dividends in an amount not to exceed $0.125 per share.

In addition, the Company will be subject to customary no-shop restrictions on its ability to solicit alternative acquisition proposals from third parties and to provide information to, and engage in discussions with, third parties regarding alternative acquisition proposals. The no-shop provision, however, is subject to a customary fiduciary-out provision which allows the Company, under certain circumstances, to provide information to and participate in discussions with a third party with respect to an unsolicited alternative acquisition proposal that the Board of Directors reasonably believes is or could reasonably be expected to, if consummated, result in a transaction more favorable to the Company's stockholders from a financial point of view than the transaction contemplated by the Merger Agreement, if the Board of Directors determines in good faith, after consultation with outside legal counsel, that failure to do so would be reasonably likely to be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties under Delaware law. The Company also agreed that the Board of Directors would recommend that the Company's stockholders vote in favor of the approval and adoption of the Merger Agreement.

The Merger Agreement contains specified termination rights, including the right for each of the Company and Parent to terminate the Merger Agreement if the Merger is not consummated by January 28, 2016 (subject to one automatic three-month extension if all of the conditions to closing, other than the conditions related to obtaining certain governmental approvals, have been satisfied). The Merger Agreement also provides for other customary termination rights for both Parent (including if the Board of Directors of the Company changes its recommendation in respect of the Merger) and the Company, and further provides that the Company would be required to pay Parent a termination fee equal to $140 million following a termination in certain circumstances. The termination fee is payable if either the Company or Parent terminates the Merger Agreement because the Company's stockholders do not approve the Merger Agreement and (A) prior to such termination, but after the date of the Merger Agreement, an alternative acquisition proposal has been publicly announced or otherwise communicated to the Board of Directors of the Company or to the Company's stockholders and (B) within 12 months following such termination the Company enters into, recommends or consummates an alternative acquisition proposal. The termination fee is also payable if Parent terminates the Merger Agreement because the Board of Directors of the Company changes its recommendation in respect of the Merger (whether in connection with a superior proposal or an intervening event) or fails to reaffirm its recommendation at Parent's request after receipt or public announcement of an alternative acquisition proposal), or if Parent terminates the Merger Agreement because the Company intentionally and materially breaches its obligations under the Merger Agreement with respect to the Company stockholder meeting or third party acquisition proposals. Finally, the Company must also pay the termination fee if it terminates the Merger Agreement because the Board of Directors changes its recommendation with respect to the Merger in order to enter into an alternative acquisition agreement with respect to a superior proposal.

Parent has obtained a conditional bridge debt financing commitment (the Commitment) for the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, the aggregate proceeds of which, together with Parent's existing cash on hand, the Company expects will be sufficient for Parent and Merger Subsidiary to pay the aggregate merger consideration and all related fees and expenses. The Company expects that Parent will replace some or all of the facility to be provided under the Commitment prior to the closing with permanent financing. Consummation of the Merger is not subject to a financing condition.

Remedies of specific performance and damages (which may be determined by reference to the total amount that would have been recoverable by the Company's stockholders) in the event of a knowing and intentional breach of the Merger Agreement by Parent or Merger Subsidiary or fraud are available to the Company, in addition to any other remedy available at law or equity.

The representations, warranties and covenants of the Company contained in the Merger Agreement have been made solely for the benefit of Parent and Merger Subsidiary. In addition, such representations, warranties and covenants (a) have been made only for purposes of the Merger Agreement, (b) have been qualified by confidential disclosures made to Parent and Merger Subsidiary in connection with the Merger Agreement, (c) are subject to materiality qualifications contained in the Merger Agreement that may differ from what may be viewed as material by investors and (d) have been included in the Merger Agreement for the purpose of allocating risk among the contracting parties rather than establishing matters as facts. Accordingly, the Merger Agreement is included with this filing only to provide investors with information regarding the terms of the Merger Agreement, and not to provide investors with any other factual information regarding the Company or its business. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations and warranties may change after the date of the Merger Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in the Company's public disclosures. The Merger Agreement should not be read alone, but should instead be read in conjunction with the other information regarding the Company that is or will be contained in, or incorporated by reference into, the Forms 10-K, Forms 10-Q and other documents that the Company files with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC).

The foregoing description of the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby does not purport to be complete and is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by, the full text of the Merger Agreement attached hereto as Exhibit 2.1, which is incorporated herein by reference.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This Current Report on Form 8-K and the other documents referenced therein may contain certain forward-looking statements (including forward-looking statements within the meaning of the US Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995) with respect to the financial condition, results of operations and business of Cytec Industries Inc. (Cytec) and certain plans and objectives of the Board of Directors of Cytec. All statements other than statements of historical or current facts included in this Current Report on Form 8-K are forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements often use words such as anticipate , target , expect , estimate , intend , plan , goal , believe , will , would , could or other words or terms of similar meaning. Such statements are based upon our current beliefs and expectations and are subject to significant risks and uncertainties. Actual results may vary materially from those set forth in the forward-looking statements.

Although Cytec believes the expectations contained in its forward-looking statements are reasonable, it can give no assurance that such expectations will prove correct. Such risks and uncertainties include: risks and uncertainties related to the proposed transaction with Solvay and Tulip Acquisition Inc. including, but not limited to: the expected timing and likelihood of completion of the pending merger, including the timing, receipt and terms and conditions of any required governmental approvals of the pending merger that could cause the parties to abandon the transaction, the state of the credit markets generally and the availability of financing, the occurrence of any event, change or other circumstances that could give rise to the termination of the merger agreement, the possibility Cytec's stockholders may not approve the merger, the risk that the parties may not be able to satisfy the conditions to the proposed merger in a timely manner or at all, risks related to disruption of management time from ongoing business operations due to the proposed merger, the risk that any announcements relating to the proposed merger could have adverse effects on the market price of Cytec's common stock, and the risk that the proposed transaction and its announcement could have an adverse effect on the ability of Cytec to retain and hire key personnel and maintain relationships with its suppliers and customers, and on its operating results and businesses generally. Cytec undertakes no obligation to correct or update any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise. Additional information on factors that may affect the business and financial results of the company can be found in the filings of Cytec made from time to time with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC"). Unless indicated otherwise, the terms "Cytec," "Company," "we," "us," and "our" each refer collectively to Cytec Industries Inc. and its subsidiaries.
