Item 5.04. Temporary Suspension of Trading Under Registrant's Employee Benefits Plan.

On August 14, 2015, Clearwater Paper Corporation (the Company) sent a notice to participants in the Clearwater Paper 401(k) Plan and the Clearwater Paper Represented 401(k) Plan (collectively, the Plan), including the Company's directors and executive officers pursuant to Section 306 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 and Regulation BTR thereunder, informing them of an expected trading blackout period under the Plan as a result of a change in the recordkeeping service provider under the Plan.

Effective October 1, 2015, Fidelity Investments became the new 401(k) recordkeeping service provider for the Plan, replacing Mercer. As a result of this change, participants in the Plan were unable, during the blackout period specified by law, to direct or diversify investments in their individual accounts, obtain a loan from the Plan, or obtain a distribution from the Plan. The blackout period applied to all Plan assets, including Company shares held by the Plan. The blackout period began at 4:00PM Eastern Time on September 24, 2015 and ended at approximately 11:00AM Eastern Time on October 23, 2015. The blackout period coincided with a no-trading period applicable to all directors and officers of the Company under the Company's Insider Trading Policy and accordingly the Company's directors and officers were unable to, and did not, trade in the Company's securities during the blackout period applicable to Plan participants.

Any inquiries with respect to the blackout period can be directed to Linz Philips, the Company's Vice President, Total Rewards at:
