Rule 13d-1(b)

Rule 13d-1(c)

Rule 13d-1(d)

- * The investor acquired 250,000 shares of the company on March 18, 2016, through a distribution from a trust controlled by independent trustees. Those shares have been held for investment purposes. The investor has made additional purchases of shares of the company for investment purposes at various times since then, when share prices were considered attractive. Most recently, the investor made purchases of 10,000 shares each on November 17 and December 8, 2016. The investor has become aware of an announcement by the issuer that it repurchased 400,000 shares of its common stock on August 16, 2016. On that date the investor held 286,425 shares, representing 4.95% of the outstanding shares prior to the repurchase, and 5.32% of the outstanding shares following the repurchase. The investor understands that this event did not result in an obligation to file Schedule 13G since it did not involve a purchase by the investor. However, the purchases of additional shares in November and December did create the obligation to file. The investor became aware that his ownership level exceeded the reporting requirement only following the purchase in December 2016, and has proceeded promptly thereafter to prepare and file this Schedule.

The remainder of this cover page shall be filled out for a reporting person's initial filing on this form with respect to the subject class of securities, and for any subsequent amendment containing information which would alter the disclosures provided in a prior cover page.

The information required in the remainder of this cover page shall not be deemed to be filed for the purpose of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (Act) or otherwise subject to the liabilities of that section of the Act but shall be subject to all other provisions of the Act (however, see the Notes).
