September 30, 2016, Ultragaz's EBITDA totaled R$ 433 million. During 2016, Ultragaz reported 31% EBITDA growth year-on-year. In the same period, Liquigás has also been presenting even higher earnings growth.

Ultragaz strategy relies on differentiation based on innovation, offering customers greater convenience and a better value proposition. This differentiation is materialized through initiatives such as the Ultragaz Connect application, Vale Gás, the partnership with the Km de Vantagens loyalty program and the Ultrapronto concept. Additionally, in the bulk segment, Ultragaz offers tailor-made solutions that enhance its customer's energy source towards the LPG use.

The Transaction will allow Ultragaz's strategy based on differentiation and operational excellence, as well as its investment capacity, combined with Liquigás' quality assets and reseller's network, to provide significant efficiency gains, such as in logistics, in administrative management and in operating practices, resulting in better services and benefits for consumers, resellers and the society as a whole.
