PROXY STATEMENT FOR SPECIAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS

IBERIABANK CORPORATION

PROSPECTUS

COMMON STOCK

To the Stockholders of Gibraltar Private Bank & Trust Company:

Merger Proposal Your Vote Is Very Important

You are cordially invited to attend a special meeting of the stockholders of Gibraltar Private Bank & Trust Company (Gibraltar) to be held on February 22, 2018 at 10:00 a.m., local time, at 55 Alhambra Plaza, Coral Gables, Florida 33134. At the special meeting, holders of Gibraltar common stock will be asked to consider and vote upon a proposal to adopt and approve an Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of October 19, 2017 (the merger agreement), entered into by and among Gibraltar, IBERIABANK, a wholly owned subsidiary of IBERIABANK Corporation, and IBERIABANK Corporation, and the merger contemplated by the merger agreement, pursuant to which Gibraltar will merge with and into IBERIABANK (the merger). In addition, holders of Gibraltar common stock will be asked to approve the adjournment, postponement, or continuation of the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies in favor of adoption and approval of the merger and the merger agreement.

If the merger is completed, each outstanding share of Gibraltar common stock will be converted into the right to receive 1.9749 shares of common stock of IBERIABANK Corporation, plus cash in lieu of any fractional share interest of IBERIABANK Corporation common stock. Under the terms of the merger agreement, the exchange ratio may be adjusted in certain circumstances depending on the daily volume weighted average trading prices of IBERIABANK Corporation common stock over a ten day trading period ending on the business day prior to the closing of the merger. However, even with such adjustments to the exchange ratio, the maximum value of the merger consideration to be received by a holder of Gibraltar common stock is $187.3785 per Gibraltar share, and the minimum value is $138.4997 per Gibraltar share (subject to IBERIABANK Corporation s right to terminate the merger agreement if the measurement price is below $61.88 on the trading day immediately prior to the closing date; See The Merger Agreement Termination, beginning on page 61). Based on the closing prices of IBERIABANK Corporation common stock on the NASDAQ Global Select Market on October 18, 2017 (the last trading day before public announcement of the merger agreement) and January 17, 2018 (the most recent practicable date before the mailing of this proxy statement/prospectus), the value of the merger consideration represented approximately $158.1895 and $163.1267, respectively, for each share of Gibraltar common stock. You should obtain current stock price quotations for IBERIABANK Corporation common stock, which trades on the NASDAQ Global Select Market under the symbol IBKC.

Gibraltar's board of directors has unanimously approved the merger agreement and determined that the merger and the merger agreement are fair to and in the best interests of Gibraltar and its stockholders. Gibraltar's board of directors unanimously recommends that holders of Gibraltar common stock vote FOR the adoption and approval of the merger and the merger agreement and FOR the proposal to adjourn the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional votes in favor of the adoption and approval of the merger and the merger agreement.

The merger cannot be completed unless the proposal to adopt and approve the merger and the merger agreement is approved by the affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares of Gibraltar common stock.

Your vote is important. Whether or not you plan to attend the special meeting of stockholders, please take the time to vote by either submitting your proxy online or by telephone, or by completing the enclosed proxy card and mailing it in the enclosed envelope as soon as possible to make sure your shares are represented at the special meeting. If you sign, date and mail your proxy card without indicating how you want to vote, your proxy will be counted as a vote FOR the adoption and approval of the merger and the merger agreement and FOR the proposal to adjourn the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional votes in favor of the adoption and approval of the merger and the merger agreement. The failure to vote by not submitting your proxy and not attending the special meeting and voting in person will have the same effect as a vote against the adoption and approval of the merger and the merger agreement. Submitting a proxy now will NOT prevent you from being able to vote in person at the special meeting.

The attached proxy statement/prospectus provides you with detailed information about the proposed merger. It also contains or references information about IBERIABANK Corporation and Gibraltar and related matters. You are encouraged to read the proxy statement/prospectus carefully. In particular, you should read the Risk Factors section beginning on page 17 for a discussion of the risks you should consider in evaluating the proposed merger and how it may affect you. You can also obtain information about IBERIABANK Corporation from documents that have been filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission that are incorporated in the proxy statement/prospectus by reference.

On behalf of the board of directors, I thank you for your prompt attention to this important matter.

Sincerely yours,

Chairman

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE MERGER AND THE SPECIAL MEETING

The following are some questions that you may have regarding the merger and the special meeting, and brief answers to those questions. Gibraltar Private Bank & Trust Company, which we refer to as Gibraltar, and IBERIABANK Corporation advise you to read carefully the remainder of this proxy statement/prospectus because the information contained in this section does not provide all of the information that might be important to you with respect to the merger and the special meeting.

Q: What is the merger?

A: Gibraltar, IBERIABANK, a wholly-owned subsidiary of IBERIABANK Corporation, and IBERIABANK Corporation have entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of October 19, 2017 (which we refer to as the merger agreement), pursuant to which Gibraltar will merge with and into IBERIABANK, with IBERIABANK being the surviving entity in the merger and Gibraltar ceasing to exist. IBERIABANK is a commercial bank headquartered in Lafayette, Louisiana, and a wholly owned subsidiary of IBERIABANK Corporation.

For ease of reference, we refer to the merger of Gibraltar with and into IBERIABANK as the merger. A copy of the merger agreement is attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Appendix A.

Q: Why am I receiving this proxy statement/prospectus?

A: In order to complete the merger, Gibraltar's stockholders must vote to adopt and approve the merger and the merger agreement. Gibraltar is sending these materials to holders of its common stock to help them decide how to vote their shares of Gibraltar common stock with respect to the proposal to adopt and approve the merger and the merger agreement and other matters to be considered at the special meeting.

This document constitutes both a proxy statement of Gibraltar and a prospectus of IBERIABANK Corporation. It is a proxy statement because the board of directors of Gibraltar is using this document to solicit proxies from its stockholders to vote on the adoption and approval of the merger and the merger agreement at a special meeting of stockholders and your proxy will be used at the special meeting or at any adjournment or postponement of the special meeting. It is a prospectus because IBERIABANK Corporation will issue shares of its common stock to Gibraltar stockholders as consideration to be provided in the merger, and this prospectus contains information about that common stock.

This proxy statement/prospectus contains important information about the merger, the merger agreement, the special meeting of Gibraltar's stockholders and other related matters, and you should read it carefully. The enclosed voting materials for the special meeting allow you to vote your shares of Gibraltar common stock without attending the special meeting in person. Your vote is important, and we encourage you to submit your proxy as soon as possible.

Q. What are Gibraltar stockholders being asked to vote upon?

A. Gibraltar is proposing to be acquired by IBERIABANK Corporation through a merger transaction. As part of the overall transaction, the holders of Gibraltar common stock are being asked to consider and vote on the following proposals:

Proposal One: to adopt and approve the merger and the merger agreement, pursuant to which Gibraltar will merge with and into IBERIABANK, a wholly owned subsidiary of IBERIABANK Corporation, with IBERIABANK being the surviving entity following the merger (which we refer to as the merger proposal); and

Proposal Two: to approve the adjournment of the Gibraltar special meeting to a later date or dates, if the board of directors of Gibraltar determines it is necessary or appropriate to permit solicitation of additional proxies if there are not sufficient votes at the time of the Gibraltar special meeting to constitute a quorum or to adopt and approve the merger proposal (which we refer to as the adjournment proposal).

No other business may be conducted at the special meeting.

Q. What does the Gibraltar board of directors recommend?

A. The Gibraltar board of directors recommends that holders of Gibraltar common stock vote FOR the adoption and approval of the merger proposal and FOR the approval of the adjournment proposal.

Table of Contents

Q. How will my shares be voted at the special meeting?

A. At the special meeting, the officers named in your proxy card will vote your shares in the manner you requested if you properly signed and submitted your proxy. If you sign your proxy card and return it without indicating how you would like to vote your shares, your proxy will be voted as Gibraltar's board of directors recommends, which is FOR the adoption and approval of the merger proposal and FOR the approval of the adjournment proposal.

Q: When do you expect the merger to be completed?

A: IBERIABANK Corporation and Gibraltar currently expect to complete the merger in the first quarter of 2018, assuming all of the conditions to completion of the merger have been satisfied or waived. However, because the fulfillment of some of the conditions to the completion of the merger are not entirely within our control, we cannot assure you of the actual timing.

Q: Will I be able to sell the shares of IBERIABANK Corporation common stock that I receive in the merger?

A: Yes. The shares of IBERIABANK Corporation common stock to be issued in the merger will be registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the Securities Act), and listed for quotation on the NASDAQ Global Select Market.

Q. Who is entitled to vote at the special meeting?

A. All holders of Gibraltar common stock who held shares at the close of business on the record date (January 8, 2018) are entitled to receive notice of and to vote at the special meeting provided that such shares remain outstanding on the date of the special meeting.

Q. What constitutes a quorum for the special meeting?

A. Stockholders representing at least a majority of the shares entitled to vote at the special meeting must be present at the special meeting, either in person or by proxy, for there to be a quorum at the special meeting. Abstentions will be included in determining the number of shares present at the meeting for the purpose of determining the presence of a quorum.

Q. Will Gibraltar be required to submit the merger proposal to its stockholders even if Gibraltar's board of directors has withdrawn, modified or qualified its recommendation?

A.

Yes. Unless the merger agreement is terminated before the special meeting, Gibraltar is required to submit the merger proposal to its stockholders even if Gibraltar's board of directors has withdrawn or modified its recommendation.

Q: What do I need to do now?

A: You should carefully read and consider the information contained in or incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus, including its appendices. After you have carefully read this proxy statement/prospectus, please follow the instructions on the proxy card to submit your proxy online or by telephone. If using mail, indicate on your proxy card how you want your shares to be voted and then sign and mail your proxy card in the enclosed prepaid return envelope as soon as possible. This will enable your shares to be represented and voted at the special meeting whether or not you attend. You may still attend the special meeting and vote in person even after you return the proxy card.

Q: Can I attend the special meeting and vote my shares in person?

A: Yes. All Gibraltar stockholders of record as of the close of business on January 8, 2018 are invited to attend the special meeting. Stockholders of record as of such time can vote in person at the special meeting whether or not they have previously executed a proxy card.

Whether or not you intend to be present at the special meeting, you are urged to submit your proxy online or by telephone, or sign, date and return your proxy card promptly. If you are then present and wish to vote your shares of common stock in person, your original proxy may be revoked by voting at the special meeting.

Table of Contents

Q: Can I change my vote after I have submitted by signed proxy card?

A: Yes. You can change your vote after you have submitted your proxy by:

providing a written notice bearing a date later than the date of your proxy card to the Corporate Secretary of Gibraltar, stating that you revoke your proxy;

signing and delivering a new proxy card to the Corporate Secretary of Gibraltar, at 55 Alhambra Plaza, Coral Gables, Florida 33134, relating to the same shares and bearing a later date (any earlier proxies will be revoked automatically);

submitting a new proxy through the internet or by telephone at any time before the closure of the internet and telephone voting facilities; or attending the special meeting and voting in person (any earlier proxy will be revoked by your vote in person). However, simply attending the special meeting without voting will not revoke your proxy.

Q: What happens if the merger is not completed?

A: If the merger is not completed, Gibraltar's stockholders will not receive any consideration for their shares of Gibraltar common stock in connection with the merger. Instead, Gibraltar will remain an independent, privately held company. In addition, if the merger agreement is terminated in certain circumstances, a termination fee may be required to be paid by Gibraltar. For a complete discussion of the circumstances under which a termination fee will be required to be paid, see "The Merger Agreement Termination Fee" beginning on page 62.

Q: Should I send in my stock certificates now?

A: Please do not send your stock certificates with your proxy card. Instructions for surrendering your Gibraltar stock certificates in exchange for the merger consideration will be sent to you later if the merger is completed.

Q: Whom should I call with questions?

A: You should direct any questions regarding the special meeting of stockholders or the merger to Michael C. Sontag, Corporate Secretary of Gibraltar, at (305) 476-1982.

What Gibraltar's Stockholders Will Receive Upon Completion of the Merger (page 48)

If the merger proposal is adopted and approved at the special meeting and the merger is subsequently completed, on the effective date of the merger, each outstanding share of Gibraltar common stock will be converted into the right to receive shares of IBERIABANK Corporation common stock, as follows:

Edgar Filing: IBERIABANK CORP - Form 424B3

1.9749 shares of IBERIABANK Corporation common stock for each share of Gibraltar common stock outstanding immediately prior to the merger, which may be adjusted prior to the closing date of the merger as described in this proxy statement/prospectus, rounded to the nearest ten-thousandth of a share (the exchange ratio), and cash (without interest) payable with respect to any fractional share of IBERIABANK Corporation common stock; or if the measurement price (defined below) is greater than $94.88 per share, then the exchange ratio will be adjusted to equal the quotient obtained by dividing $187.3785 by the measurement price; or if the measurement price is less than $70.13 per share, then the exchange ratio will be adjusted to equal the quotient obtained by dividing $138.4997 by the measurement price.

Table of Contents

The term measurement price is defined in the merger agreement to be the arithmetic mean of the daily volume weighted average trading prices of IBERIABANK Corporation common stock on the NASDAQ Global Select Market (as calculated by Bloomberg Screen AQR) on each of the ten trading days ending on the business day prior to the closing date of the merger.

IBERIABANK Corporation will not issue any fractional shares of its common stock in the merger. Instead, a stockholder who would otherwise have received a fractional share will receive an amount in cash rounded to the nearest whole cent. This cash amount will be equal to the measurement price multiplied by the fraction of a share (rounded to the nearest whole cent) of IBERIABANK Corporation common stock which such stockholder of Gibraltar would otherwise be entitled to receive, after aggregating all IBERIABANK Corporation common stock held by such stockholder of Gibraltar.

The following table provides examples of how the exchange ratio and the value of the implied merger consideration to be received in respect of each share of Gibraltar common stock may change depending on the measurement price. The range of average prices set forth in the following table has been included for representative purposes only. Neither Gibraltar nor IBERIABANK Corporation can assure you as to what the measurement price will be at or following the time of the merger.

Hypothetical Measurement Price of IBERIABANK Corporation Common		Implied Merger Consideration Value Received in Exchange
Stock	Exchange Ratio	Per Gibraltar Share*
$100.00	1.8738	$187.3785
$98.00	1.9120	$187.3785
$96.00	1.9519	$187.3785
$94.89	1.9747	$187.3785
$94.88	1.9749	$187.3785
$88.00	1.9749	$173.7912
$82.51	1.9749	$162.9490
$76.00	1.9749	$150.0924
$70.13	1.9749	$138.4997
$70.12	1.9752	$138.4997
$68.00	2.0368	$138.4997
$66.00	2.0985	$138.4997
$64.00	2.1641	$138.4997

* Cash will be paid in lieu of any fractional share of IBERIABANK Corporation common stock.

The actual measurement price may be outside the range of the amounts set forth above, and as a result, the actual exchange ratio per share of IBERIABANK Corporation common stock may not be shown in the above table. However, even with such adjustments to the exchange ratio, the maximum value of the merger consideration to be received by a holder of Gibraltar common stock for each share of Gibraltar common stock is $187.3785, and the minimum per share value of the merger consideration is $138.4997 (subject to IBERIABANK Corporation's right to terminate the merger agreement if the measurement price is below $61.88 on the trading day immediately prior to the closing date; See The Merger Agreement Termination, beginning on page 61).

The hypothetical measurement price of IBERIABANK Corporation common stock, assuming the merger was consummated as of January 17, 2018 (the most recent practicable date before the mailing of this proxy statement/prospectus), was approximately $79.45. If this were the measurement price, you would receive 1.9749 shares of IBERIABANK Corporation common stock for each share of Gibraltar common stock owned by you. Before deciding how to vote, you should obtain more recent market prices of IBERIABANK Corporation common stock, which trades on the NASDAQ Global Select Market under the symbol IBKC.

What Will Happen to Outstanding Gibraltar Stock Options (page 49)

In connection with the completion of the merger, each outstanding stock option to acquire shares of Gibraltar common stock (which we refer to as a stock option) that is unexercised at the effective time of the merger will be cancelled in exchange for the right to receive a single lump sum cash payment equal to the difference between the per share merger consideration and the exercise price of the stock option. The amount paid to cancel the stock options will not reduce the merger consideration to be received by Gibraltar stockholders in the merger. See The Merger Agreement Treatment of Gibraltar Stock Options and Restricted Stock Awards, beginning on page 49.

What Will Happen to Outstanding Gibraltar Restricted Stock Awards (page 50)

Each award of Gibraltar restricted common stock that is outstanding immediately prior to consummation of merger will be fully earned and vested and holders of each share of common stock issued pursuant to the Gibraltar restricted stock award will be entitled to the same treatment as each share of Gibraltar common stock under the merger agreement.

Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger (page 43)

It is a condition to completion of the merger that IBERIABANK Corporation and Gibraltar receive legal opinions from each of Simpson Thacher & Bartlett LLP and Broad and Cassel LLP, respectively, to the effect that the merger will qualify as a tax-free reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (which we refer to as the Code), for United States federal income tax purposes. The opinion will not bind the Internal Revenue Service, which could take a different view.

Generally, for United States federal income tax purposes, you will not recognize gain or loss as a result of the exchange of your shares of Gibraltar common stock pursuant to the merger, except for cash received in lieu of a fractional share of IBERIABANK Corporation common stock. WE RECOMMEND THAT GIBRALTAR STOCKHOLDERS CONSULT THEIR OWN TAX ADVISORS FOR AN UNDERSTANDING OF THE TAX CONSEQUENCES THAT MAY BE PARTICULAR TO SUCH STOCKHOLDER.

You should read The Merger Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger starting on page 43 for a more complete discussion of the United States federal income tax consequences of the merger. Tax matters can be complicated and the tax consequences of the merger to you will depend on your particular tax situation. We strongly urge you to consult your tax advisor to fully understand the tax consequences of the merger to you.

The board of directors of Gibraltar has unanimously approved the merger agreement. The board of directors of Gibraltar has determined that the merger and the merger agreement are fair to and in the best interests of Gibraltar and its stockholders and unanimously recommends that holders of Gibraltar common stock vote FOR the adoption and approval of the merger proposal.

Opinion of Gibraltar's Financial Advisor (page 30 and Appendix C)

In connection with the merger, Gibraltar's financial advisor, Sandler O'Neill & Partners, L.P. (which we refer to as Sandler O'Neill) delivered a written opinion, dated October 16, 2017, to Gibraltar's board of directors as to the fairness, from a financial point of view and as of the date of the opinion, to the holders of Gibraltar common stock of the exchange ratio in the merger. The full text of Sandler O'Neill's opinion is attached as Appendix C to this proxy statement/prospectus. The opinion outlines the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken by Sandler O'Neill in rendering its opinion. Holders of Gibraltar common stock are urged to read the entire opinion carefully in connection with their consideration of the proposed merger.

The opinion was directed to Gibraltar's board of directors in connection with its consideration of the merger agreement and the merger and does not constitute a recommendation to any stockholder of Gibraltar as to how any such stockholder should vote at any meeting of stockholder called to consider and vote upon the approval of the merger agreement and the merger. Sandler O'Neill's opinion was directed only to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the exchange ratio to the holders of Gibraltar common stock and does not address the underlying business decision of Gibraltar to engage in the merger, the form or structure of the merger or any other transactions contemplated in the merger agreement, the relative merits of the merger as compared to any other alternative transactions or business strategies that might exist for Gibraltar or the effect of any other transaction in which Gibraltar might engage.

Gibraltar will hold a special meeting of its stockholders on February 22, 2018, at 10:00 a.m., local time, at 55 Alhambra Plaza, Coral Gables, Florida 33134. At the special meeting of stockholders, holders of Gibraltar common stock will be asked to vote to adopt and approve the merger proposal and to approve the adjournment proposal.

You may vote at the special meeting of stockholders if you owned shares of Gibraltar common stock at the close of business on the record date, January 8, 2018. On that date, there were 1,411,645 shares of Gibraltar common stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the special meeting of stockholders. You may cast one vote for each share of Gibraltar common stock you owned on the record date.

Even if you expect to attend the special meeting of stockholders, Gibraltar recommends that you promptly submit your proxy online or by telephone, or complete and return your proxy card in the enclosed return envelope.

Stockholder Votes Required (pages 23 and 24)

Stockholders representing at least a majority of the shares entitled to vote at the special meeting must be present at the special meeting, either in person or by proxy, for there to be a quorum at the special meeting. All shares of Gibraltar common stock present in person or represented by proxy, including abstentions, will be treated as present and entitled to vote for purpose of determining the presence or absence of a quorum for all matters voted on at the special meeting.

Approval of the merger proposal requires the affirmative vote of the holders of at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares of Gibraltar common stock voting together on the merger proposal. Because the required vote to adopt and approve the merger proposal is based on the number of shares of Gibraltar common stock outstanding, a failure to vote, an abstention will have the same effect as a vote AGAINST the proposal to adopt and approve the merger proposal.

Approval of the adjournment proposal requires at least a majority of Gibraltar common stock votes cast at the special meeting. A failure to vote or an abstention will not be considered to be a vote that was cast, and will have no effect on this proposal.

As of the record date, the directors and executive officers of Gibraltar had or shared the right to vote 277,735 shares of Gibraltar common stock. This represents approximately 19.67% of the total number of shares of Gibraltar common stock entitled to be voted at the special meeting. On October 19, 2017, each member of the board of directors of Gibraltar entered into a voting agreement with IBERIABANK Corporation and IBERIABANK, pursuant to which each such director agreed, among other things, to vote the shares of common stock over which they have voting power

FOR the adoption and approval of the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, and the other proposals to be considered at the special meeting, subject to certain exceptions. The voting agreements also contain certain restrictions on the transfer of shares of common stock by each such director. These individuals have agreed to vote their shares of common stock FOR the adoption and approval of the merger proposal, subject to certain limited exceptions. In addition, Gibraltar currently expects that each of its executive officers who are not directors will vote their shares of Gibraltar common stock FOR the adoption and approval of the merger proposal even though such persons have not entered into an agreement requiring them to do so.

Dissenters Rights of Appraisal (page 46)

As a holder of Gibraltar common stock, you have the right under federal law to dissent from the merger and have the appraised value of your shares of Gibraltar common stock as of the date on which the stockholders meeting authorizing the merger was held paid to you in cash. The appraised value may be more or less than the value of the shares of IBERIABANK Corporation common stock and cash stockholders of Gibraltar will receive for their Gibraltar shares in the merger.

In order to dissent, you must carefully follow the requirements of Section 214a(b) of Title 12 of the United States Code, including (i) voting AGAINST the adoption and approval of the merger proposal or providing Gibraltar with a written notice at or prior to the special meeting that states that you will exercise your right to dissent if the Gibraltar stockholders adopt and approve the merger agreement and the merger is completed, and (ii) making a written request to IBERIABANK for payment of cash equal to the value of your dissenting shares at any time before thirty days after the date of completion of the merger. The steps for perfecting your right of dissent are summarized under the caption

The Merger Dissenters' Rights of Appraisal, beginning on page 46. The statutory and regulatory provisions pertaining to dissenters' appraisal rights are attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Appendix D and the summaries of those provisions in this proxy statement/prospectus should be read in conjunction with, and are qualified by, those provisions of Title 12 of the United States Code.

Table of Contents

If you intend to exercise dissenters' appraisal rights, you should read the statutory and regulatory provisions governing dissenters' appraisal rights carefully and consult with your own legal counsel. You should also remember that if you return a signed proxy card, but fail to provide instructions as to how your shares of Gibraltar common stock are to be voted, you will be considered to have voted in favor of the adoption and approval of the merger proposal. In that event, you will not be able to assert dissenters' appraisal rights.

Interests of Certain Gibraltar Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger (page 41)

In considering the recommendation of the board of directors of Gibraltar to adopt and approve the merger proposal, you should be aware that certain of the directors and executive officers of Gibraltar have financial and other interests in the merger that may be different from, or in addition to, the interests of Gibraltar stockholders generally.

These interests include:

certain Gibraltar executive officers have rights to compensation in connection with the merger under existing Gibraltar compensatory arrangements;

Gibraltar will purchase a continuation of its current director and officer liability insurance coverage for a period of up to six years after the merger for acts and omissions occurring before the merger. IBERIABANK Corporation has also agreed to indemnify the directors and officers of Gibraltar for six years following the merger with respect to matters occurring at or prior to the merger;

the directors of Gibraltar have been invited to become members of the Miami-Dade Advisory Board of IBERIABANK Corporation following the merger;

the vesting of all Gibraltar stock options will be accelerated, and all outstanding and unexercised Gibraltar stock options that are outstanding immediately prior to the consummation of the merger will become fully vested and exchanged for a cash payment at the consummation of the merger in accordance with the merger agreement; and any restricted stock awards (including those held by the directors and executive officers) that are outstanding immediately prior to the consummation of the merger will be fully earned and vested and holders of each share of common stock issued pursuant to the Gibraltar restricted stock award will be entitled to the same treatment as each share of Gibraltar common stock under the merger agreement.

For a more complete discussion of these interests, please read the section titled "The Merger Interests of Certain Gibraltar Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger," beginning on page 41.

Regulatory Approvals Required for the Merger (page 45)

Subject to the terms of the merger agreement, both IBERIABANK Corporation and Gibraltar have agreed to use their reasonable best efforts to prepare as promptly as practicable all documentation, to effect all filings and to obtain all regulatory approvals necessary to complete the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and comply with the terms and conditions of such approvals. The Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (which we refer to as the Federal Reserve Board) and the Louisiana Office of Financial Institutions (which we refer to as the Louisiana OFI) must each approve the merger, and the New York State Department of Financial Services and the Florida Office of Financial Regulation must each be given notice of the merger. IBERIABANK Corporation filed the required applications and notices in November 2017. Although IBERIABANK Corporation does not know of any reason why it would not be able to obtain the necessary regulatory approvals in a timely manner, IBERIABANK Corporation cannot be certain when or if it will receive them or, if received, whether they will contain terms, conditions or restrictions not currently contemplated that will be detrimental to it or have a material adverse effect on it or its subsidiaries after completion of the merger, or otherwise contain a burdensome condition (as defined in the merger agreement). For more information regarding the regulatory approvals to which completion of the merger is subject, see The Merger Regulatory Approvals Required for the Merger, beginning on page 45.

Conditions to Complete the Merger (page 61)

Completion of the merger depends on a number of conditions being satisfied or waived, including the following:

Gibraltar stockholders must have adopted and approved the merger proposal by the requisite vote in accordance with the merger agreement and applicable law;

holders of not more than 10% of the Gibraltar common stock shall have exercised their statutory dissenters rights;

all requisite regulatory approvals and consents must have been obtained (i) on terms and conditions that would not impose any burdensome condition and (ii) without any governmental entity with jurisdiction over IBERIABANK Corporation or its subsidiaries having advised any of them of its determination to impose a restriction or requirement in the future, in connection with or as a result of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger, which upon compliance therewith would constitute a burdensome condition, and all waiting periods required by law must have expired;

the absence of any order by a court, or similar action by a regulatory authority or other governmental entity that enjoins or prohibits the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement;

the registration statement covering the IBERIABANK Corporation shares to be issued pursuant to the merger agreement shall have become effective under the Securities Act of 1933 and no stop order for the registration statement shall have been issued and no proceedings for that purpose shall have been initiated by the SEC;

the shares of IBERIABANK Corporation common stock to be issued in the merger must be approved for listing on NASDAQ, subject to official notice of issuance;

the receipt by IBERIABANK Corporation and Gibraltar of opinions from Simpson Thacher & Bartlett LLP and Broad and Cassel LLP, respectively, to the effect that for United States federal income tax purposes the merger will be treated as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code; and certain other conditions customary for agreements of this sort, such as the accuracy of representations and warranties subject to the materiality standards set forth in the merger agreement and the compliance in all material respects with all agreements between the parties and deliver of specified certificate.

We cannot be certain when, or if, the conditions to the merger will be satisfied or waived or whether or not the merger will be completed.

Agreement to Not Solicit Other Offers (page 58)

Gibraltar has agreed not to solicit, initiate, endorse, or knowingly encourage or facilitate any inquiries, proposals or offers from third parties regarding acquiring Gibraltar or its businesses. In addition, Gibraltar has agreed not to enter into or participate in any negotiations with any person concerning any proposals from third parties regarding acquiring Gibraltar or its businesses and has agreed not to provide any non-public information to any person relating to any proposals from third parties regarding acquiring Gibraltar or its businesses. However, if Gibraltar receives an unsolicited bona fide written acquisition proposal from a third party prior to the adoption and approval of the merger proposal by Gibraltar's stockholders, Gibraltar may participate in discussions with, or provide non-public information to, such third party if, among other steps, Gibraltar's board of directors concludes in good faith that the proposal is or is reasonably likely to lead to a superior proposal to the merger. For more information, see The Merger Agreement Agreement to Not Solicit Other Offers, beginning on page 58.

Termination of the Merger Agreement (page 61)

The merger agreement may be terminated at any time by IBERIABANK Corporation or Gibraltar prior to the consummation of the merger under the following circumstances:

by mutual written consent;

if the merger shall not have been completed on or before October 19, 2018, unless the failure of the merger to be completed by that date is due to the failure of the party seeking to terminate the merger agreement to comply with any provision of the merger agreement;

if any court of competent jurisdiction or other governmental entity shall have issued a judgment, order, injunction, rule or decree, or taken any other action restraining, enjoining or otherwise prohibiting any of the transactions and such judgment, order, injunction, rule, decree or other action shall have become final and nonappealable;

if the adoption and approval of the merger proposal is not obtained at the Gibraltar stockholders' meeting, or at any adjournment or postponement thereof, at which a vote on the adoption and approval of the merger proposal was taken;

if any governmental entity that must grant a required regulatory approval has denied approval of the consummation of the transactions by final, nonappealable action of such governmental entity;

subject to cure rights, if the other party shall have breached or failed to perform any of its representations, warranties, covenants or other agreements contained in the merger agreement, which breach or failure to perform, either individually or in the aggregate, would result in the failure of any of the conditions to close; and if the other party has experienced, or is reasonably likely to experience, a material adverse effect, which is not remedied or cured within thirty days after notice of intention to terminate is given by the terminating party, which notice shall specify the nature of the matter or matters constituting such material adverse effect and which are the basis of such intention.

In addition, the merger agreement may be terminated by IBERIABANK Corporation in the following circumstances:

if prior to obtaining the adoption and approval by Gibraltar's stockholders of the merger proposal, Gibraltar's board of directors (i) fails to recommend in this proxy statement/prospectus that Gibraltar's stockholders adopt and approve the merger proposal or makes an adverse recommendation change with respect thereto or (ii) materially breaches certain of its obligations to call and hold the special meeting of Gibraltar's stockholders for the purpose of voting upon the adoption and approval of the merger proposal and its obligation not to solicit other offers;

if a tender offer or exchange offer for 20% or more of the outstanding shares of Gibraltar common stock is commenced (other than by IBERIABANK Corporation or its subsidiaries), and Gibraltar's board of directors recommends that the stockholders of Gibraltar tender their shares in such tender or exchange offer or otherwise fails to recommend that such stockholders reject such tender offer or exchange offer within ten business days;

if any action has been taken or any law has been enacted, entered, enforced or deemed applicable to the transactions, by any governmental entity, in connection with the grant of a requisite regulatory approval or otherwise, which imposes any burdensome condition, or if any governmental entity with jurisdiction over IBERIABANK Corporation or its subsidiaries have advised any of them of its determination to impose a restriction or requirement in the future, in connection with or as a result of the transactions, which upon compliance therewith would constitute a burdensome condition, and so long as the time periods for appeals and request for reconsideration has run; and if the measurement price is below $61.88 on the trading day immediately prior to the closing date.

Termination Fee (page 62)

If the merger is terminated pursuant to specified situations in the merger agreement, including circumstances involving alternate acquisition proposals or changes in the recommendation of Gibraltar's board of directors, Gibraltar may be required to pay a termination fee to IBERIABANK Corporation equal to $9.2 million (which we refer to as the termination fee). Gibraltar agreed to this termination fee arrangement in order to induce IBERIABANK Corporation to enter into the merger agreement. The termination fee requirement may discourage other parties from trying or proposing to combine with Gibraltar before the merger is completed.

Amendment, Waiver and Extension of the Merger Agreement (page 63)

IBERIABANK Corporation, IBERIABANK and Gibraltar may jointly amend the merger agreement, and each of IBERIABANK Corporation and Gibraltar may waive its right to require the other party to comply with particular provisions of the merger agreement. However, the parties may not amend the merger agreement after Gibraltar's stockholders adopt and approve the merger proposal if the amendment would legally require further adoption and approval by Gibraltar's stockholders without first obtaining such further adoption and approval.

Table of Contents

IBERIABANK Corporation and Gibraltar may, by mutual agreement, also change the method or structure of effecting the combination of IBERIABANK and Gibraltar, as long as any such change does not alter or change the amount or kind of consideration received by Gibraltar's stockholders in exchange for each share of Gibraltar common stock, materially impede or delay the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement or adversely affect the United States federal income tax consequences of the merger to Gibraltar's stockholders.

Differences in Rights of Stockholders (page 67)

As a result of the merger, stockholders of Gibraltar will become shareholders of IBERIABANK Corporation. Following the merger, stockholders of Gibraltar will have different rights as shareholders of IBERIABANK Corporation due to the different provisions of governing documents and the governing law of Gibraltar and IBERIABANK Corporation. The rights of Gibraltar stockholders after the merger who continue as IBERIABANK Corporation shareholders will be governed by Louisiana law. The different shareholder rights are explained more fully in Comparison of Stockholder Rights on page 67.

Accounting Treatment of the Merger (page 46)

The merger will be accounted for as a purchase for financial reporting purposes.

- (2) Shares used for book value purposes are net of shares held in treasury as of December 31, 2014, 2013 and 2012.
- (3) With the exception of end-of-period ratios, all ratios are based on average daily balances during the respective periods.
- (4) Tangible calculations are considered non-GAAP measures that eliminate the effect of goodwill and acquisition-related intangible assets and the corresponding amortization expense on a tax-effected basis where applicable.
- (5) Tangible book value per share, return on average tangible common equity and tangible operating efficiency ratio (TE) are determined by methods other than in accordance with GAAP. IBERIABANK Corporation's management uses these non-GAAP financial measures in their analysis of its performance. These measures typically adjust GAAP performance measures to exclude the effects of the amortization of intangibles and include the tax benefit associated with revenue items that are tax-exempt that, in management's opinion can distort period-to-period comparisons of IBERIABANK Corporation's performance.

This proxy statement/prospectus presents non-GAAP financial measures because IBERIABANK Corporation's management believes such presentations provide useful supplemental information that is essential to a proper understanding of the operating results of IBERIABANK Corporation's core businesses. These non-GAAP disclosures should not be viewed as a substitute for operating results determined in accordance with GAAP, nor are they necessarily comparable to non-GAAP performance measures that maybe presented by other companies. Reconciliations of GAAP to non-GAAP disclosures are included in the tables below:

On October 18, 2017, the business day immediately preceding the public announcement of the merger, the closing price of IBERIABANK Corporation common stock as reported on the NASDAQ Global Select Market was $80.10 per share. Based on the closing price on January 17, 2018 of $82.60 per share of IBERIABANK Corporation common stock and assuming an exchange ratio of 1.9749 shares of IBERIABANK Corporation common stock for each share of Gibraltar common stock, the equivalent per share market value of each share of Gibraltar common stock to be exchanged for IBERIABANK Corporation common stock would be approximately $163.13 per share (IBERIABANK Corporation common stock price of $82.60 times the exchange ratio of 1.9749).

There is no established public trading market in which shares of Gibraltar common stock are regularly traded, nor are there any uniformly quoted prices for shares of Gibraltar common stock. As a result, there are no recent arm's length transactions by which to determine a market value of the shares. Gibraltar does not currently pay dividends on its common stock.

The market value of IBERIABANK Corporation's common stock to be issued in exchange for shares of Gibraltar common stock upon the completion of the merger will not be known at the time of the Gibraltar special meeting. The above table shows only historical information. Because the market price of IBERIABANK Corporation common stock will likely fluctuate prior to the merger, this information may not provide meaningful information to Gibraltar's stockholders in determining whether to adopt and approve the merger proposal. Gibraltar stockholders are encouraged to obtain current market quotations for IBERIABANK common stock and to review carefully the other information contained in this proxy statement/prospectus or incorporated by reference in this proxy statement/prospectus. For more information, see Where You Can Find More Information, beginning on page 79.

The holders of IBERIABANK Corporation common stock receive dividends as and when declared by IBERIABANK Corporation's board of directors out of statutory surplus or from net profits. Following the completion of the merger, subject to approval and declaration by IBERIABANK Corporation's board of directors, IBERIABANK Corporation expects to continue paying quarterly cash dividends on a basis consistent with past practice. The current annualized rate of distribution on a share of IBERIABANK Corporation common stock is $1.48 per share.

RISK FACTORS

In addition to the other information contained in or incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus, including without limitation, IBERIABANK Corporation's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2016, and subsequent Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q, you should carefully consider the following risk factors in deciding whether to vote to adopt and approve the merger proposal.

Risks Associated with the Merger

Fluctuations in the trading price of IBERIABANK Corporation common stock within a certain range will change the value of the shares of IBERIABANK Corporation common stock that you receive in the merger.

If the measurement price of IBERIABANK Corporation common stock is greater than or equal to $70.13 or less than or equal to $94.88 per share, the exchange ratio will equal 1.9749 shares of IBERIABANK Corporation common stock for each share of Gibraltar common stock. Within that range of values, because the number of shares of IBERIABANK Corporation stock you will receive will not change, the value of the shares received will vary with the market price for IBERIABANK Corporation common stock. If the measurement price of IBERIABANK Corporation common stock is higher than this range, then the value of the merger consideration to be received by you in the merger will be a maximum of $187.3785, and if the measurement price is below this range, then the value of the merger consideration to be received by you in the merger will be a minimum of $138.4997, per share of Gibraltar common stock (subject to IBERIABANK Corporation's right to terminate the merger agreement if the measurement price is below $61.88 on the trading day immediately prior to the closing date; see The Merger Agreement Termination, beginning on page 61).

The market price of IBERIABANK Corporation's common stock used for the calculation of the measurement price may vary from the price of IBERIABANK Corporation's common stock on the date the merger agreement was executed, on the date of this proxy statement/prospectus and/or on the date of the Gibraltar special meeting as a result of various factors that are beyond the control of IBERIABANK Corporation and Gibraltar, including but not limited to general market and economic conditions, changes in our respective businesses, operations and prospects, and regulatory considerations. In addition to the adoption and approval of the merger proposal by Gibraltar stockholders, completion of the merger is subject to satisfaction of other conditions that may not occur until after the Gibraltar special meeting. Therefore, at the time of the Gibraltar special meeting you will not know or be able to calculate the precise value of the consideration you will receive at the effective time of the merger. You should obtain current market quotations for shares of IBERIABANK Corporation common stock, which are listed on the NASDAQ Global Select Market under the symbol IBKC.

The market price of IBERIABANK Corporation's common stock after the merger may be affected by factors different from those affecting the shares of Gibraltar or IBERIABANK Corporation currently.

Upon completion of the merger, holders of Gibraltar common stock will become holders of IBERIABANK Corporation common stock. IBERIABANK Corporation's business differs from that of Gibraltar, and, accordingly, the results of operations of the combined company and the market price of the combined company's shares of common stock may be affected by factors different from those currently affecting the results of operations of each of IBERIABANK Corporation and Gibraltar.

The integration of the operations of IBERIABANK and Gibraltar may be more difficult than anticipated.

The success of the merger will depend on a number of factors, including (but not limited to) IBERIABANK and IBERIABANK Corporation's ability to:

timely and successfully integrate the operations of IBERIABANK and Gibraltar;

retain key employees of IBERIABANK and Gibraltar;

maintain existing relationships with depositors in Gibraltar to minimize withdrawals of deposits prior to and subsequent to the merger;

maintain and enhance existing relationships with borrowers to limit unanticipated losses from loans of Gibraltar;

Table of Contents

control the incremental non-interest expense from the Gibraltar acquisition to maintain overall operating efficiencies;

compete effectively in the communities served by IBERIABANK and Gibraltar and in nearby communities; and manage effectively its growth resulting from the merger.

Acquisitions or mergers entail risks that could negatively affect the operations of IBERIABANK and IBERIABANK Corporation.

Acquisitions and mergers, particularly the integration of companies that have previously been operated separately, involves a number of risks, including, but not limited to:

the time and costs associated with identifying and evaluating potential acquisition or merger partners;

difficulties in assimilating operations of the acquired institution and implementing uniform standards, controls, procedures and policies;

exposure to asset quality problems of the acquired institution;

IBERIABANK Corporation's ability to finance an acquisition and maintain adequate regulatory capital;

diversion of management's attention from the management of daily operations;

risks and expenses of entering new geographic markets;

potential significant loss of depositors or loan customers from the acquired institution;

loss of key employees of the acquired institution; and exposure to undisclosed or unknown liabilities of an acquired institution.

Any of these risks could result in unexpected losses or expenses and thereby reduce the expected benefits of the acquisition. Also, IBERIABANK Corporation may issue equity securities, including common stock, preferred stock and securities convertible into common stock in connection with future acquisitions, which could cause ownership and economic dilution to the current shareholders of IBERIABANK Corporation (or to the shareholders of IBERIABANK Corporation at that time). Prior to the completion of the pending acquisition, IBERIABANK and Gibraltar have operated and will operate as separate entities. IBERIABANK's and IBERIABANK Corporation's failure to successfully integrate these and future acquisitions and/or manage its growth could adversely affect its business, results of operations, financial condition and future prospects.

Holders of Gibraltar common stock will have less influence as shareholders of IBERIABANK Corporation than as stockholders of Gibraltar.

Holders of Gibraltar common stock currently have the right to vote in the election of the board of directors of Gibraltar and on other matters affecting Gibraltar. Based on the number of shares of IBERIABANK Corporation common stock outstanding on January 17, 2018 and the shares expected to be issued in the merger, the stockholders of Gibraltar as a group are expected to own approximately 4.92% of IBERIABANK Corporation's common stock immediately after the merger. When the merger occurs, each Gibraltar stockholder that receives shares of IBERIABANK Corporation common stock will become a shareholder of IBERIABANK Corporation with a percentage ownership of the combined organization much smaller than such stockholder's percentage ownership of Gibraltar. Because of this, prior holders of Gibraltar common stock will have less influence on the management and policies of IBERIABANK Corporation than they now have on the management and policies of Gibraltar.

Certain directors and officers of Gibraltar have interests in the merger that may be different from, or in addition to, the interests of non-director or non-management stockholders.

Some of the directors and officers of Gibraltar have interests in the merger that may be different from, or in addition to, the interests of stockholders of Gibraltar generally. These interests exist because of, among other things, existing employment and change in control severance agreements with Gibraltar, ownership of stock options and rights to indemnification and directors and officers insurance for a limited time (at current levels) following the merger. The directors of Gibraltar have been invited to join IBERIABANK Corporation's Miami-Dade Advisory Board following the merger. These interests and arrangements may create potential conflicts of interests. Although the members of each of the IBERIABANK Corporation and Gibraltar board of directors knew about these additional interests and considered them, among other matters, when they approved the merger agreement and the merger, you should be aware of them and understand that some of the directors and officers of Gibraltar will receive payments in connection with the merger that you will not receive.

For a more complete discussion of these interests, see "The Merger - Interests of Certain Gibraltar Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger," beginning on page 41.

The fairness opinion received by the Gibraltar board of directors from Gibraltar's financial advisor prior to the signing of the merger agreement does not reflect changes in circumstances since the date of such opinion.

Prior to execution of the merger agreement, the Gibraltar board of directors received a fairness opinion from Gibraltar's financial advisor, Sandler O'Neill & Partners, L.P. (Sandler O'Neill). Gibraltar has not obtained an updated fairness opinion as of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus. Changes in the operations and prospects of Gibraltar or IBERIABANK Corporation, general market and economic conditions and other factors that may be beyond the control of Gibraltar and IBERIABANK Corporation may alter the value of Gibraltar or IBERIABANK Corporation, or the prices of shares of Gibraltar common stock or IBERIABANK Corporation common stock by the time the special meeting takes place or by the time the merger is completed. Sandler O'Neill's opinion does not speak as of the time the merger will be completed or as of any date other than the date of such opinion. Because Gibraltar does not anticipate asking its financial advisor to update its opinion, the October 16, 2017 opinion does not address the fairness of the merger consideration, from a financial point of view, at the time the merger is completed. The opinion is included as Appendix C to this proxy statement/prospectus.

For a description of the opinion that Gibraltar received from its financial advisor, please refer to "The Merger - Opinion of Gibraltar's Financial Advisor," beginning on page 30. For a description of the other factors considered by Gibraltar's board of directors in determining to approve the merger, please refer to "The Merger - Gibraltar's Reasons for the Merger; Recommendation of the Gibraltar Board of Directors," beginning on page 28.

The merger will not be completed unless important conditions are satisfied.

Specified conditions set forth in the merger agreement must be satisfied or waived to complete the merger. If the conditions are not satisfied or waived, to the extent permitted by law, the merger will not occur or will be delayed and each of IBERIABANK and Gibraltar may lose some or all of the intended benefits of the merger. For a description of these closing conditions, please refer to "The Merger Agreement - Conditions to Complete the Merger," beginning on page 61.

The merger is subject to the receipt of consents and approvals from governmental entities that may delay the date of completion of the merger or impose conditions that could have an adverse effect on IBERIABANK Corporation.

Before the merger may be completed, various approvals or consents must be obtained from governmental entities. Satisfying the requirements of these governmental entities may delay the date of completion of the merger. In addition, these governmental entities may include conditions to the completion of the merger or require changes to the terms of the merger. While IBERIABANK Corporation and Gibraltar do not currently expect that any such conditions or changes would result in a material adverse effect on IBERIABANK Corporation, there can be no assurance that they will not, and such conditions or changes could have the effect of delaying completion of the merger or imposing additional costs on or limiting the revenues of IBERIABANK Corporation following the merger, any of which might have a material adverse effect on IBERIABANK Corporation following the merger.

Termination of the merger agreement could negatively impact Gibraltar.

If the merger agreement is terminated, there may be various consequences. For example, Gibraltar's businesses may have been impacted adversely by the failure to pursue other beneficial opportunities due to the focus of its management on the merger, without realizing any of the anticipated benefits of completing the merger. Also, Gibraltar will have incurred substantial expenses in connection with this contemplated transaction without realizing the benefits of the merger. If the merger agreement is terminated and Gibraltar's board of directors seeks another merger or business combination, Gibraltar's stockholders cannot be certain that Gibraltar will be able to find a party willing to pay the equivalent or greater consideration than that which IBERIABANK Corporation has agreed to pay in the merger. In addition, if the merger agreement is terminated under certain circumstances, including circumstances involving a change in recommendation by Gibraltar's board of directors, Gibraltar may be required to pay IBERIABANK Corporation a termination fee equal to $9.2 million.

If the merger is not completed, IBERIABANK Corporation and Gibraltar will have incurred substantial expenses without realizing the expected benefits of the merger.

Each of IBERIABANK Corporation and Gibraltar has incurred and will incur substantial expenses in connection with the negotiation and completion of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, as well as the costs and expenses of filing, printing and mailing this proxy statement/prospectus and all filing and other fees paid to the SEC in connection with the merger. If the merger is not completed, IBERIABANK Corporation and Gibraltar would have to recognize these expenses without realizing the expected benefits of the merger.

The termination fee and the restrictions on solicitation contained in the merger agreement may discourage other companies from trying to acquire Gibraltar.

The merger agreement contains provisions that make it more difficult for Gibraltar to sell its business to a party other than IBERIABANK Corporation. These provisions include a general prohibition on Gibraltar's solicitation of any acquisition proposal or offer for a competing transaction, the requirement that Gibraltar pay a termination fee equal to $9.2 million if the merger agreement is terminated in certain circumstances and the requirement that Gibraltar submit the adoption and approval of the merger proposal to a vote of Gibraltar's stockholders even if Gibraltar's board of directors changes its recommendation in favor of the adoption and approval of the merger proposal in a manner adverse to IBERIABANK Corporation. For more information, see The Merger Agreement Agreement to Not Solicit Other Offers, The Merger Agreement Termination Fee and The Merger Agreement Stockholder Meeting, beginning on pages 58, 62 and 60, respectively.

These provisions might discourage a third party that might have an interest in acquiring all or a significant part of Gibraltar from considering or proposing that acquisition, even if that party were prepared to pay consideration with a higher per share value than the proposed merger consideration. Furthermore, a potential competing acquiror may propose to pay a lower per share price to Gibraltar's stockholders than it might otherwise have proposed to pay because of Gibraltar's obligation, in connection with termination of the merger agreement under certain circumstances, to pay IBERIABANK Corporation a $9.2 million termination fee.

Gibraltar will be subject to business uncertainties and contractual restrictions while the merger is pending.

Uncertainty about the effect of the merger on employees and customers may have an adverse effect on Gibraltar. These uncertainties may impair Gibraltar's ability to attract, retain and motivate strategic personnel until the merger is consummated, and could cause customers and others that deal with Gibraltar to seek to change existing business relationships with Gibraltar. Experienced employees in the financial services industry are in high demand, and competition for their talents can be intense. Employees of Gibraltar may experience uncertainty about their future roles with the surviving corporation until, or even after, strategies with regard to the combined company are announced or executed. If strategic Gibraltar employees depart because of personal issues relating to the uncertainty and difficulty of integration or a desire not to remain with the surviving entity, Gibraltar's business following the merger could be harmed. In addition, the merger agreement restricts Gibraltar from making certain acquisitions and taking other specified actions until the merger occurs without the consent of IBERIABANK Corporation. These restrictions may prevent Gibraltar from pursuing attractive business opportunities that may arise prior to the completion of the merger. See The Merger Agreement Conduct of Business Pending the Merger, beginning on page

The shares of IBERIABANK Corporation's common stock to be received by Gibraltar's stockholders as a result of the merger will have different rights from shares of Gibraltar common stock.

Following completion of the merger, Gibraltar's stockholders will become shareholders of IBERIABANK Corporation, and their rights as stockholders will be governed by Louisiana law and IBERIABANK Corporation's charter and bylaws. There will be important differences between your current rights as a stockholder of Gibraltar and the rights to which you will be entitled as a shareholder of IBERIABANK Corporation. For a discussion of the different rights associated with IBERIABANK Corporation's common stock and Gibraltar's common stock, see Comparison of Stockholder Rights, beginning on page 67.

Each stockholder of record as of that time is entitled to one vote for each share held on each proposal to be considered at the special meeting.

Voting Rights, Quorum Requirement and Vote Required

The presence, in person or by properly executed proxy, of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Gibraltar common stock, is necessary to constitute a quorum at the special meeting of stockholders. All shares of Gibraltar common stock present in person or represented by proxy, including abstentions, will be treated as present and entitled to vote for purposes of determining the presence or absence of a quorum for all matters voted on at the special meeting.

Adoption and approval of the merger proposal requires the affirmative vote of the holders of at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares of Gibraltar common stock. Because the required vote to adopt and approve the merger proposal is based on the number of shares of Gibraltar common stock outstanding, a failure to vote or an abstention will have the same effect as a vote AGAINST the proposal to adopt and approve the merger proposal.

Approval of the adjournment proposal requires a majority of votes cast at the special meeting. A failure to vote or an abstention will not be considered to be a vote that was cast, and will have no effect on this proposal.

Shares Held by Directors and Officers; Voting Agreements

As of the record date, directors and executive officers of Gibraltar had or shared the right to vote 277,735 shares of Gibraltar common stock. This represents approximately 19.67% of the total number of shares of stock entitled to be voted at the special meeting.

Table of Contents

On October 19, 2017, each member of the board of directors of Gibraltar entered into a voting agreement with IBERIABANK Corporation and IBERIABANK, pursuant to which each such director agreed, among other things, to vote the shares of common stock over which they have voting power FOR the adoption and approval of the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, and the other proposals to be considered at the special meeting, subject to certain exceptions. The voting agreements also contain certain restrictions on the transfer of shares of common stock by each such director.

In addition, Gibraltar currently expects that each of its executive officers who are not directors will vote their shares of Gibraltar common stock FOR the adoption and approval of the merger proposal even though such persons have not entered into an agreement requiring them to do so.

When considering Gibraltar's board of directors' recommendation that you vote in favor of the adoption and approval of the merger proposal, you should be aware that certain of the directors and executive officers of Gibraltar have interests in the merger that may be different from, or in addition to, the interests of Gibraltar's stockholders generally. For more information, see The Merger Interests of Certain Gibraltar Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger, beginning on page 41.

THE MERGER

The description of the merger in this section in this proxy statement/prospectus describes the material information about the merger; however, it does not purport to be complete and may not contain all of the information about the merger that may be important to you. It is qualified in its entirety by reference to the merger agreement, which is attached to this proxy statement/prospectus (without exhibits) as Appendix A hereto and incorporated herein by reference.

General

On October 19, 2017, IBERIABANK Corporation, IBERIABANK and Gibraltar entered into the merger agreement. Pursuant to the merger agreement, Gibraltar will merge with and into IBERIABANK, a wholly owned subsidiary of IBERIABANK Corporation, with IBERIABANK as the surviving entity.

Upon completion of the merger, each share of Gibraltar common stock will be converted into the right to receive 1.9749 shares of IBERIABANK Corporation common stock. This exchange ratio is subject to adjustment depending on the measurement price of IBERIABANK Corporation common stock. If the measurement price is greater than $94.88 per share, each outstanding share of Gibraltar common stock will be converted into the right to receive a number of shares of IBERIABANK Corporation common stock equal to the quotient obtained by dividing $187.3785 by such measurement price. If the measurement price is less than $70.13 per share, each share of Gibraltar common stock will be converted into the right to receive a number of shares of IBERIABANK Corporation common stock equal to the quotient obtained by dividing $138.4997 by the measurement price. Cash will be paid in lieu of any fractional share of IBERIABANK Corporation common stock. See The Merger Agreement Conversion of Gibraltar Common Stock, beginning on page 48.

For additional and more detailed information regarding the legal documents that govern the merger, including information about the conditions to the merger and the provisions for terminating or amending the merger agreement, see The Merger Agreement, beginning on page 48.

Background of the Merger

As a part of the ongoing consideration and evaluation of Gibraltar's long-term prospects and strategies, Gibraltar's board of directors and senior management regularly reviewed and assessed the business strategies and objectives of Gibraltar. These evaluations and strategic discussions have focused on, among other things, the business environment facing financial institutions in general and smaller, Florida-based institutions such as Gibraltar in particular, as well as the then-current regulatory environment and the pace of consolidation in the financial services industry. With the goal of enhancing value for Gibraltar's stockholders, the board of directors and senior management considered various strategic opportunities and challenges, and considered various strategic options potentially available to Gibraltar, such as organic growth, a business combination involving Gibraltar and one or more financial institutions, a capital raise, and a possible sale of Gibraltar to a larger financial institution.

To that end, on February 12, 2013, Gibraltar engaged Sandler O'Neill, an investment bank with significant expertise in financial institutions, as Gibraltar's financial advisor to provide advice on such strategic options and directed Sandler O'Neill to contact various parties, selected by management and Sandler O'Neill after consultation with the board of directors and based on their assessed ability and level of interest in a potential transaction with Gibraltar, to discuss potential strategic options for Gibraltar. Following Sandler O'Neill's engagement and as part of that process, various parties, including IBERIABANK Corporation, were contacted by Sandler O'Neill to consider all of the various strategic options.

On May 9, 2014, Sandler O'Neill, on behalf of Gibraltar, entered into a confidentiality and non-disclosure agreement with IBERIABANK Corporation regarding a potential combination with Gibraltar. IBERIABANK Corporation reviewed certain information about Gibraltar. IBERIABANK decided not to proceed with full due diligence at that time based on then strategic priorities and other considerations, but Adolfo Henriques, Gibraltar's Chairman, remained in periodic dialogue with Daryl G. Byrd, IBERIABANK Corporation's President and Chief Executive Officer, and John R. Davis, IBERIABANK Corporation's then-Director of Financial Strategy, Mergers and Acquisitions and Investor Relations, over the course of the next three years. During this period, Gibraltar also executed confidentiality agreements with a number of other financial institutions and provided non-public information to those institutions. Several of those institutions made initial acquisition proposals but none led to final proposals or the signing of a definitive agreement.

On June 26, 2017, the OCC terminated its Consent Order with Gibraltar relating to certain compliance matters. Thereafter, Gibraltar and IBERIABANK Corporation engaged in further discussions regarding a potential business combination, and on August 17, 2017, IBERIABANK Corporation submitted a letter to Mr. Henriques containing proposed preliminary terms for a potential merger transaction, which terms contemplated the acquisition of Gibraltar for an equity value in the range of $230 million to $250 million with consideration to be paid in the form of IBERIABANK Corporation common stock and with a fixed exchange ratio (except to the extent IBERIABANK Corporation's common stock price increases or decreases by 15% from the agreed-upon value, in which case the exchange ratio would fluctuate and the value to Gibraltar's stockholders would become fixed). The letter additionally contemplated that the parties would enter into a 60-day exclusive negotiation period.

Following discussions among the parties, on August 21, 2017, Sandler O'Neill communicated telephonically to Mr. Henriques revised preliminary terms proposed by IBERIABANK Corporation for a potential merger transaction, which revisions contemplated a 40-day exclusivity period and the discussion of mutually agreeable arrangements for employee retention in light of a transaction. Mr. Henriques had extensive discussions with Sandler O'Neill regarding other possible opportunities, and agreed with Sandler that the terms outlined by IBERIABANK Corporation presented the best alternative for Gibraltar's shareholders. Mr. Henriques convened a conference call with the board on the same day and, after a discussion regarding the revised preliminary proposed terms and the likelihood of other opportunities, the board unanimously approved exploring the transaction on the terms that had been outlined, and approved entering into an exclusivity agreement with IBERIABANK Corporation.

On August 22, 2017, IBERIABANK Corporation presented a written proposal in the form of a letter of intent to Gibraltar confirming the terms of a potential merger of Gibraltar into IBERIABANK that had been orally discussed. On August 25, 2017, Gibraltar and IBERIABANK Corporation entered into an exclusivity agreement whereby Gibraltar agreed to allow IBERIABANK Corporation to conduct due diligence for a period of 40 days (subject to possible extension), during which time Gibraltar would negotiate exclusively with IBERIABANK Corporation regarding a possible acquisition.

Gibraltar received a due diligence request list from IBERIABANK Corporation on August 22, 2017 and proceeded to provide substantially all the information that was requested. IBERIABANK Corporation commenced its due diligence review. The parties had frequent discussions, and requests for clarification and additional information were timely responded to or provided. These discussion and requests continued throughout the entire due diligence period.

On September 14, 2017, Gibraltar received a draft merger agreement from IBERIABANK Corporation. The terms of the merger agreement were within the parameters of the proposal. Mr. Henriques met with representatives of Broad and Cassel LLP, outside counsel to Gibraltar (which we refer to as Broad and Cassel), on September 26, 2017 to discuss the merger agreement. On September 28, 2017, representatives of Broad and Cassel provided comments to the merger agreement to representatives of Simpson Thacher & Bartlett LLP, outside counsel to IBERIABANK Corporation (which we refer to as Simpson Thacher). Later that day, representatives of Broad and Cassel and Simpson Thacher conferred by telephone regarding these comments. Issues under discussion included the representations and warranties to be given by Gibraltar in the merger agreement, certain covenants governing the conduct of Gibraltar's business after signing the merger agreement and before closing, whether Gibraltar would have the right to terminate the merger agreement in the event of a substantial decline in the price of IBERIABANK Corporation common stock, and the circumstances under which a termination fee would be payable by Gibraltar.

On September 29, 2017, Sandler O'Neill provided to IBERIABANK Corporation a reverse due diligence request list.

On October 6, 2017, IBERIABANK Corporation requested and was granted an extension of the exclusivity period until October 22, 2017. Counsel to IBERIABANK Corporation also on October 6, 2017 provided Gibraltar's counsel with a revised draft of the merger agreement and counsel to each party conferred by telephone to discuss the merger agreement.

On October 9, 2017, Gibraltar's executive management again met with outside counsel to undertake an additional review of the merger agreement, including the representations, warranties and covenants. Gibraltar and Broad and Cassel also commenced preparation of the disclosure letter that Gibraltar was to deliver in conjunction with the execution of the merger agreement.

On October 11, 2017, Sandler O'Neill on behalf of Gibraltar, and IBERIABANK Corporation, entered into an amendment to their existing confidentiality and non-disclosure agreement to facilitate the sharing of non-public information regarding IBERIABANK Corporation requested by Gibraltar. Thereafter, on October 12, 2017, representatives of IBERIABANK Corporation, Gibraltar and its financial and legal advisors held a reverse due diligence conference call. Representatives of Broad and Cassel, Gibraltar management and Sandler O'Neill were also provided access to a data room containing the documents and information delivered by IBERIABANK Corporation in response to the reverse due diligence request list of September 29, 2017.

Also on October 12, 2017, representatives of Simpson Thacher provided a draft form of voting agreement for execution by the Gibraltar directors in connection with the merger agreement to representatives of Broad and Cassel. On that same day, representatives of Broad and Cassel sent to representatives of Simpson Thacher an initial draft of the disclosure letter to be delivered by Gibraltar in conjunction with the merger agreement. Additional drafts to Gibraltar's disclosure letter were circulated to IBERIABANK Corporation during the next week. Representatives of Broad and Cassel provided initial comments on the form of voting agreement to representatives of Simpson Thacher on October 13, 2017.

Thereafter, the parties continued to have additional discussions and continued to negotiate and finalize the merger agreement and the other transaction documents.

On October 14, 2017, representatives of Broad and Cassel received an updated draft merger agreement from representatives of Simpson Thacher, which Broad and Cassel then distributed to all the members of Gibraltar's board of directors.

On October 16, 2017, the board of directors of Gibraltar held a meeting to consider the proposed transaction with IBERIABANK Corporation. At this meeting, the board received presentations from representatives of Broad and Cassel and Sandler O'Neill, and discussed the proposed transaction with senior management. Representatives of Broad and Cassel also reviewed with the directors their fiduciary duty to Gibraltar's stockholders under applicable law and reviewed the terms and conditions of the merger agreement, the merger and the voting agreements to be signed in connection with the merger agreement. Representatives of Sandler O'Neill reviewed the financial aspects of the proposed merger and rendered to Gibraltar's board an opinion, dated October 16, 2017, that, as of such date and subject to the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered, and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken by Sandler O'Neill as set forth in such opinion, the exchange ratio in the proposed merger was fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of Gibraltar's common stock. Following a substantive discussion among members of Gibraltar's board of directors, including consideration of the factors described under Gibraltar's Reasons for the Merger; Recommendation of the Gibraltar Board of Directors below in this proxy statement/prospectus, Gibraltar's board of directors unanimously determined that the merger agreement and the merger were advisable and in the best interests of Gibraltar and its stockholders, approved and adopted the merger agreement and the merger, and recommended that the merger agreement and the merger be submitted to Gibraltar's stockholders for approval, subject to finalization of all provisions of the merger agreement and completion of Gibraltar's and IBERIABANK Corporation's disclosure letters.

On October 17, 2017, the IBERIABANK Corporation board of directors met and approved the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, subject to finalization of all provisions of the merger agreement and completion of Gibraltar's and IBERIABANK Corporation's disclosure letters.

On October 17, 18, and 19, 2017, additional and final revisions to the merger agreement and form of voting agreement were circulated between Gibraltar and IBERIABANK Corporation and their respective counsel, and to Gibraltar's directors, which drafts addressed, among other things, the treatment of Gibraltar's restricted stock awards and the representations and warranties of Gibraltar. Representatives of Broad and Cassel communicated by email and telephone with the directors regarding these revisions. Further and final revisions to Gibraltar's disclosure letter were also provided to IBERIABANK Corporation.

On October 19, 2017, Gibraltar, IBERIABANK Corporation and IBERIABANK signed the merger agreement and the Gibraltar directors, IBERIABANK Corporation and IBERIABANK signed the voting agreements. IBERIABANK Corporation issued a press release announcing the transaction that afternoon.

Gibraltar's Reasons for the Merger; Recommendation of the Gibraltar Board of Directors

Gibraltar's board of directors has determined that the merger is fair to, and in the best interests of, Gibraltar's stockholders. In approving the merger agreement, Gibraltar's board of directors consulted with Sandler O'Neill with respect to the financial aspects of the merger, and with its outside legal counsel as to its legal duties and the terms of the merger agreement. In arriving at its determination, Gibraltar's board of directors also considered a number of factors, including the following:

Gibraltar's board of directors' familiarity with, and review of information concerning, the business, results of operations, financial condition, competitive position and future prospects of Gibraltar;

the current and prospective environment in which Gibraltar operates, including national, regional and local economic conditions, the competitive environment for banks, thrifts and other financial institutions generally, the increased regulatory burdens on financial institutions generally, and the trend toward consolidation in the banking and financial services industry;

the results that Gibraltar could expect to obtain if it continued to operate independently, and the likely benefits to stockholders of that course of action, as compared with the value of the merger consideration offered by IBERIABANK Corporation;

the prior efforts made to find an acquisition partner, and the likelihood that a more favorable acquisition proposal would be forthcoming;

the reputation and financial condition of IBERIABANK Corporation and IBERIABANK, IBERIABANK's recent acquisitions and expansion in the Florida market, and the trading history of the IBERIABANK Corporation common stock;

the financial presentation, dated October 16, 2017, of Sandler O'Neill to the Gibraltar board of directors and the opinion, dated October 16, 2017, of Sandler O'Neill to the Gibraltar board of directors as to the fairness, from a financial point of view and as of the date of the opinion, to the holders of Gibraltar common stock of the exchange ratio in the merger, as more fully described below under Opinion of Gibraltar's Financial Advisor ;

that structure of the transaction as a stock-for-stock merger following which Gibraltar's existing stockholders will continue to participate in the future success of the combined company, and that the shares of IBERIABANK Corporation common stock to be received in the transaction are publicly traded on the NASDAQ Global Select Market;

the merger agreement provides Gibraltar stockholders with some protection from a decline in the trading price of the IBERIABANK Corporation common stock;

the treatment of the merger as a tax-free reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code with respect to the Gibraltar common stock exchanged for IBERIABANK Corporation common stock;

that a merger with a larger company would provide the opportunity to realize economies of scale, increase efficiencies of operations and enhance the development of new products and services;

the likelihood that IBERIABANK Corporation will be able to obtain all required regulatory approvals in a timely manner, based on Gibraltar management's discussions with IBERIABANK Corporation; and the terms and conditions of the merger agreement, including the parties' respective representations, warranties, covenants and other agreements, the conditions to closing, including a provision that permits Gibraltar's board of directors, in the exercise of its fiduciary duties, under certain conditions, to furnish information to a third party that has submitted an unsolicited proposal to acquire Gibraltar.

Gibraltar's board of directors also considered potential risks relating to the merger, including the following:

the regulatory and other approvals required in connection with the merger and the possibility that such regulatory approvals may not be received in a timely manner and may include the imposition of unacceptable conditions;

the potential for diversion of management and employee attention, and for employee attrition, during the period prior to the completion of the merger and the potential effect on Gibraltar's business and relations with customers, service providers and other stakeholders, whether or not the merger is completed;

certain provisions of the merger agreement prohibit Gibraltar from soliciting, and limit its ability to respond to, proposals for alternative transactions;

Gibraltar's obligation to pay IBERIABANK Corporation a termination fee of $9.2 million in certain circumstances, as described under "The Merger Agreement - Termination Fee," beginning on page 62, may deter others from proposing an alternative transaction that may be more advantageous to Gibraltar's stockholders;

that Gibraltar's directors and executive officers may have interests in the merger that are different from, or in addition to the interests of Gibraltar's stockholders generally, including financial interests that are the result of existing compensation arrangements with Gibraltar, and the manner in which those interests would be affected by the merger;

the requirement that Gibraltar conduct its business in the ordinary course and the other restrictions on the conduct of Gibraltar's business before completion of the merger, which may delay or prevent Gibraltar from undertaking business opportunities that may arise before completion of the merger; and the other risks described under "Risk Factors" beginning on page 17, and the risks of investing in IBERIABANK Corporation's common stock identified in the Risk Factors sections of IBERIABANK Corporation's periodic reports filed with the SEC and incorporated by reference herein.

The discussion of the information and factors considered by Gibraltar's board of directors is not exhaustive, but does include the material factors considered by Gibraltar's board of directors in approving the merger. The above factors were not presented in any order of priority. In reaching its determination, the Gibraltar board of directors did not assign any relative or specific weights to different factors, and individual directors may have weighed certain factors differently than other directors.

Gibraltar's board of directors acknowledged there can be no assurance about future results, including results expected or considered in the factors listed above. However, Gibraltar's board of directors concluded the potential positive factors outweighed the potential risks of completing the merger. Based on the reasons stated, Gibraltar's board of directors determined that the merger is in the best interest of Gibraltar's stockholders, and therefore the board of directors of Gibraltar unanimously approved the merger agreement and the merger.

Opinion of Gibraltar's Financial Advisor

Gibraltar retained Sandler O'Neill & Partners, L.P. (which we refer to as Sandler O'Neill) to act as an independent financial advisor to Gibraltar's board of directors in connection with Gibraltar's consideration of a possible business combination. Gibraltar selected Sandler O'Neill because Sandler O'Neill is a nationally recognized investment banking firm whose principal business specialty is financial institutions. In the ordinary course of its investment banking business, Sandler O'Neill is regularly engaged in the valuation of financial institutions and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions and other corporate transactions.

Sandler O'Neill acted as an independent financial advisor in connection with the proposed transaction and participated in certain of the negotiations leading to the execution of the merger agreement. At the October 16, 2017 meeting at which Gibraltar's board of directors considered and discussed the terms of the merger agreement and the merger, Sandler O'Neill delivered to Gibraltar's board of directors its oral opinion, which was subsequently confirmed in writing, to the effect that, as of October 16, 2017, the exchange ratio provided for in the merger agreement was fair to the holders of Gibraltar common stock from a financial point of view. The full text of Sandler O'Neill's opinion is attached as Appendix C to this proxy statement/prospectus. The opinion outlines the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken by Sandler O'Neill in rendering its opinion. The description of the opinion set forth below is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the opinion. Holders of Gibraltar common stock are urged to read the entire opinion carefully in connection with their consideration of the proposed merger.

Sandler O'Neill's opinion speaks only as of the date of the opinion. The opinion was directed to Gibraltar's board of directors in connection with its consideration of the merger agreement and the merger and does not constitute a recommendation to any stockholder of Gibraltar as to how any such stockholder should vote at any meeting of stockholders called to consider and vote upon the approval of the merger agreement and the merger. Sandler O'Neill's opinion was directed only to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the exchange ratio to the holders of Gibraltar common stock and does not address the underlying business decision of Gibraltar to engage in the merger, the form or structure of the merger or any other transactions contemplated in the merger agreement, the relative merits of the merger as compared to any other alternative transactions or business strategies that might exist for Gibraltar or the effect of any other transaction in which Gibraltar might engage. Sandler O'Neill did not express any opinion as to the fairness of the amount or nature of the compensation to be received in the merger by any officer, director or employee of Gibraltar or IBERIABANK Corporation, or any class of such persons, if any, relative to the compensation to be received in the merger by any other stockholder, including the merger consideration to be received by the holders of Gibraltar common stock. Sandler O'Neill's opinion was approved by Sandler O'Neill's fairness opinion committee.

In connection with its opinion, Sandler O'Neill reviewed and considered, among other things:

a draft of the merger agreement, dated October 14, 2017;

certain publicly available financial statements and other historical financial information of Gibraltar that Sandler O'Neill deemed relevant;

certain publicly available financial statements and other historical financial information of IBERIABANK Corporation that Sandler O'Neill deemed relevant;

certain internal financial projections for Gibraltar for the years ending December 31, 2017 through December 31, 2021, as provided by the senior management of Gibraltar;

such other information, financial studies, analyses and investigations and financial, economic and market criteria as Sandler O Neill considered relevant.

Sandler O Neill also discussed with certain members of the management of Gibraltar and its representatives the business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects of Gibraltar and held similar discussions with certain members of the management of IBERIABANK Corporation and its representatives regarding the business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects of IBERIABANK Corporation.

In performing its review, Sandler O Neill relied upon the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial and other information that was available to and reviewed by Sandler O Neill from public sources, that was provided to Sandler O Neill by Gibraltar or IBERIABANK Corporation or their respective representatives, or that was otherwise reviewed by Sandler O Neill, and Sandler O Neill assumed such accuracy and completeness for purposes of rendering its opinion without any independent verification or investigation. Sandler O Neill relied on the assurances of the respective managements of Gibraltar and IBERIABANK Corporation that they were not aware of any facts or circumstances that would make any of such information inaccurate or misleading. Sandler O Neill was not asked to and did not undertake an independent verification of any of such information and Sandler O Neill did not assume any responsibility or liability for the accuracy or completeness thereof. Sandler O Neill did not make an independent evaluation or perform an appraisal of the specific assets, the collateral securing assets or the liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of Gibraltar or IBERIABANK Corporation or any of their respective subsidiaries, nor was Sandler O Neill furnished with any such evaluations or appraisals. Sandler O Neill rendered no opinion or evaluation on the collectability of any assets or the future performance of any loans of Gibraltar or IBERIABANK Corporation. Sandler O Neill did not make an independent evaluation of the adequacy of the allowance for loan losses of Gibraltar or IBERIABANK Corporation, or of the combined entity after the merger, and Sandler O Neill did not review any individual credit files relating to Gibraltar or IBERIABANK Corporation. Sandler O Neill assumed, with Gibraltar's consent, that the respective allowances for loan losses for both Gibraltar and IBERIABANK Corporation were adequate to cover such losses and would be adequate on a pro forma basis for the combined entity.

In preparing its analyses, Sandler O'Neill used certain internal financial projections for Gibraltar for the years ending December 31, 2017 through December 31, 2021, as provided by the senior management of Gibraltar. In addition, Sandler O'Neill used publicly available consensus mean analyst net income estimates for IBERIABANK Corporation for the year ending December 31, 2017 and mean analyst consensus earnings per share and balance sheet estimates for IBERIABANK Corporation for the years ending December 31, 2018 and December 31, 2019, as confirmed by the senior management of IBERIABANK Corporation, as well as estimated long-term earnings per share and balance sheet growth rates for the years ending December 31, 2020 and December 31, 2021 and estimated dividends per share for the years ending December 31, 2017 through December 31, 2021, as provided by the senior management of IBERIABANK Corporation. Sandler O'Neill also received and used in its pro forma analyses certain assumptions relating to purchase accounting adjustments, cost savings and transaction expenses as well as net income estimates for Gibraltar for the three quarters ending December 31, 2018 and the years ending December 31, 2019 and December 31, 2020 with a long term estimated earnings growth rate for the years thereafter, as provided by the senior management of IBERIABANK Corporation. With respect to the foregoing information, the respective managements of Gibraltar and IBERIABANK Corporation confirmed to Sandler O'Neill that such information reflected (or, in the case of the publicly available consensus mean analyst net income, earnings per share and balance sheet estimates referred to above, were consistent with) the best currently available projections, estimates and judgments of those respective managements as to the future financial performance of Gibraltar and IBERIABANK Corporation, respectively, and the other matters covered thereby, and Sandler O'Neill assumed that the future financial performance reflected in such information would be achieved. Sandler O'Neill expressed no opinion as to such information, or the assumptions on which such information was based. Sandler O'Neill also assumed that there had been no material change in the respective assets, financial condition, results of operations, business or prospects of Gibraltar or IBERIABANK Corporation since the date of the most recent financial statements made available to Sandler O'Neill. Sandler O'Neill assumed in all respects material to its analysis that Gibraltar and IBERIABANK Corporation would remain as going concerns for all periods relevant to Sandler O'Neill's analysis.

Sandler O'Neill also assumed, with Gibraltar's consent, that (i) each of the parties to the merger agreement would comply in all material respects with all material terms and conditions of the merger agreement and all related agreements, that all of the representations and warranties contained in such agreements were true and correct in all material respects, that each of the parties to such agreements would perform in all material respects all of the covenants and other obligations required to be performed by such party under such agreements and that the conditions precedent in such agreements were not and would not be waived, (ii) in the course of obtaining the necessary regulatory or third party approvals, consents and releases with respect to the merger, no delay, limitation, restriction or condition would be imposed that would have an adverse effect on Gibraltar, IBERIABANK Corporation or the merger or any related transaction, (iii) the merger and any related transactions would be consummated in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement without any waiver, modification or amendment of any material term, condition or agreement thereof and in compliance with all applicable laws and other requirements, and (iv) the merger would qualify as a tax-free reorganization for federal income tax purposes. Finally, with Gibraltar's consent, Sandler O'Neill relied upon the advice that Gibraltar had received from its legal, accounting and tax advisors as to all legal, accounting and tax matters relating to the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. Sandler O'Neill expressed no opinion as to any such matters.

Sandler O'Neill's opinion was necessarily based on financial, economic, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to Sandler O'Neill as of, the date thereof. Events occurring after the date thereof could materially affect Sandler O'Neill's opinion. Sandler O'Neill has not undertaken to update, revise, reaffirm or withdraw its opinion or otherwise comment upon events occurring after the date thereof. Sandler O'Neill expressed no opinion as to the trading value of IBERIABANK Corporation common stock at any time or what the value of IBERIABANK Corporation common stock would be once it is actually received by the holders of Gibraltar common stock.

In rendering its opinion, Sandler O'Neill performed a variety of financial analyses. The summary below is not a complete description of the analyses underlying Sandler O'Neill's opinion or the presentation made by Sandler O'Neill to Gibraltar's board of directors, but is a summary of all material analyses performed and presented by Sandler O'Neill. The summary includes information presented in tabular format. In order to fully understand the financial analyses, these tables must be read together with the accompanying text. The tables alone do not constitute a complete description of the financial analyses. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex process involving subjective judgments as to the most appropriate and relevant methods of financial analysis and the application of those methods to the particular circumstances. The process, therefore, is not necessarily susceptible to a partial analysis or summary description. Sandler O'Neill believes that its analyses must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of the factors and analyses to be considered without considering all factors and analyses, or attempting to ascribe relative weights to some or all such factors and analyses, could create an incomplete view of the evaluation process underlying its opinion. Also, no company included in Sandler O'Neill's comparative analyses described below is identical to Gibraltar or IBERIABANK Corporation and no transaction is identical to the merger. Accordingly, an analysis of comparable companies or transactions involves complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in financial and operating characteristics of the companies and other factors that could affect the public trading values or merger transaction values, as the case may be, of Gibraltar and IBERIABANK Corporation and the companies to which they are being compared. In arriving at its opinion, Sandler O Neill did not attribute any particular weight to any analysis or factor that it considered. Rather, Sandler O Neill made qualitative judgments as to the significance and relevance of each analysis and factor. Sandler O Neill did not form an opinion as to whether any individual analysis or factor (positive or negative) considered in isolation supported or failed to support its opinion, rather, Sandler O Neill made its determination as to the fairness of the exchange ratio on the basis of its experience and professional judgment after considering the results of all its analyses taken as a whole.

In performing its analyses, Sandler O Neill also made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, business and economic conditions and various other matters, many of which are beyond the control of Gibraltar, IBERIABANK Corporation and Sandler O Neill. The analyses performed by Sandler O Neill were not necessarily indicative of actual values or future results, both of which could be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by such analyses. Sandler O'Neill prepared its analyses solely for purposes of rendering its opinion and provided such analyses to Gibraltar's board of directors at its October 16, 2017 meeting. Estimates on the values of companies do not purport to be appraisals or necessarily reflect the prices at which companies or their securities may actually be sold. Such estimates are inherently subject to uncertainty and actual values may be materially different. Accordingly, Sandler O'Neill's analyses do not necessarily reflect the value of Gibraltar common stock or the prices at which IBERIABANK Corporation common stock may be sold at any time. The analyses of Sandler O'Neill and its opinion were among a number of factors taken into consideration by Gibraltar's board of directors in making its determination to approve the merger agreement and should not be viewed as determinative of the exchange ratio or the decision of Gibraltar's board of directors or management with respect to the fairness of the merger. The type and amount of consideration payable in the merger were determined through negotiation between Gibraltar and IBERIABANK Corporation.

Summary of Exchange Ratio and Implied Transaction Metrics. Sandler O'Neill reviewed the financial terms of the proposed merger. Subject to certain adjustments, as more fully described in the merger agreement, at closing, each share of Gibraltar common stock and common stock equivalents issued and outstanding prior to the effective time, except for certain shares of Gibraltar common stock as specified in the merger agreement, will receive 1.9749 shares of the common stock of IBERIABANK Corporation. Based on 1,411,645 shares of Gibraltar common stock and common stock equivalents issued and outstanding, as of June 30, 2017, the 10-day volume weighted average closing price of IBERIABANK Corporation common stock ended October 13, 2017 of $82.50 and a per share exchange ratio of 1.9749, Sandler O'Neill calculated an implied transaction price per share for Gibraltar common stock of $162.93 and an aggregate implied transaction value of approximately $234.9 million. Based upon historical financial information for Gibraltar as of or for the last twelve months (LTM) ended June 30, 2017 and estimated net income for the years ending December 31, 2017 and December 31, 2018, as provided by Gibraltar senior management, Sandler O'Neill calculated the following implied transaction metrics.

The terminal values were then discounted to present values using different discount rates ranging from 9.0% to 15.0% which were chosen to reflect different assumptions regarding required rates of return of holders or prospective buyers of Gibraltar common stock. As illustrated in the following tables, the analysis indicated an imputed range of values per share of Gibraltar common stock of $64.27 to $136.33 when applying multiples of earnings per share, and $93.27 to $206.63 when applying multiples of tangible book value per share.

This analysis resulted in the following range of per share values for Gibraltar common stock, applying the price to 2021 earnings per share multiples range of 15.0x to 25.0x referred to above and a discount rate of 12.90%.

Sandler O'Neill also considered and discussed with the Gibraltar board of directors how this analysis would be affected by changes in the underlying assumptions, including variations with respect to net income. To illustrate this impact, Sandler O'Neill performed a similar analysis assuming IBERIABANK Corporation's net income varied from 15% above estimates to 15% below estimates. This analysis resulted in the following range of per share values for IBERIABANK Corporation common stock, applying the price to 2021 earnings per share multiples range of 14.0x to 21.5x referred to above and a discount rate of 10.84%.

Sandler O'Neill noted that the net present value analysis is a widely used valuation methodology, but the results of such methodology are highly dependent upon the numerous assumptions that must be made, and the results thereof are not necessarily indicative of actual values or future results.

Pro Forma Merger Analysis. Sandler O Neill analyzed certain potential pro forma effects of the merger. In performing this analysis, Sandler O Neill utilized the following information and assumptions: (i) the merger closes in the first quarter of 2018; (ii) certain purchase accounting adjustments, cost savings and transaction expenses, as well as net income estimates for Gibraltar for the three quarters ending December 31, 2018 and the years ending December 31, 2019 and December 31, 2020 with a long term estimated earnings growth rate for the years thereafter, as provided by the senior management of IBERIABANK Corporation, and (iii) publicly available consensus mean analyst net income estimates for IBERIABANK Corporation for the year ending December 31, 2017 and mean analyst consensus earnings per share and balance sheet estimates for IBERIABANK Corporation for the years ending December 31, 2018 and December 31, 2019, as confirmed by the senior management of IBERIABANK Corporation, as well as estimated long-term earnings per share and balance sheet growth rates for the years ending December 31, 2020 and December 31, 2021 and estimated dividends per share for the years ending December 31, 2017 through December 31, 2021, as provided by the senior management of IBERIABANK Corporation. The analysis indicated that the merger could be dilutive to IBERIABANK Corporation's earnings per share (excluding one-time transaction costs and expenses) for the year ended December 31, 2018, accretive to IBERIABANK Corporation's earnings per share for the years ended December 31, 2019 and December 31, 2020, and dilutive to IBERIABANK Corporation's estimated tangible book value at close.

In connection with this analysis, Sandler O Neill considered and discussed with the Gibraltar board of directors how the analysis would be affected by changes in the underlying assumptions, including the impact of final purchase accounting adjustments determined at the closing of the transaction, and noted that the actual results achieved by the combined company may vary from projected results and the variations may be material.

Sandler O Neill's Relationship. Sandler O Neill acted as Gibraltar's financial advisor in connection with the merger and will receive a fee for its services in an amount equal to 0.95% of the aggregate purchase price up to $136,826,000, plus 1.50% of the amount by which the aggregate purchase price exceeds $136,826,000, subject to a minimum fee of $1,250,000, which fee at the time of announcement of the merger agreement was approximately $2.8 million. Sandler O Neill's transaction fee is contingent upon consummation of the merger. Sandler O Neill also received a fee for rendering its opinion in an amount equal to $250,000, which fairness opinion fee will be credited in full towards the fee becoming due and payable to Sandler O Neill on the day of closing of the merger. Gibraltar has also agreed to indemnify Sandler O Neill against certain claims and liabilities arising out of Sandler O Neill's engagement and to reimburse Sandler O Neill for certain of its out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with Sandler O Neill's engagement. Sandler O Neill has not received any compensation for any other investment banking services provided to Gibraltar in the two years preceding the date of Sandler O Neill's opinion. In the two years preceding the date of Sandler O Neill's opinion, Sandler O Neill has provided certain investment banking services to, and received fees from, IBERIABANK Corporation. Most recently, Sandler O Neill acted as co-lead manager in connection with IBERIABANK Corporation's $506.3 million follow-on offering of common stock, which closed in March 2017, and as co-manager in connection with IBERIABANK Corporation's $292.9 million follow-on offering of common stock, which closed in December 2016, for which Sandler O Neill received aggregate fees of approximately $1.7 million. In the ordinary course of Sandler O Neill's business as a broker-dealer, Sandler O Neill may purchase securities from and sell securities to IBERIABANK Corporation and its affiliates. Sandler O Neill may also actively trade the equity and debt securities of IBERIABANK Corporation or its affiliates for Sandler O Neill's own account and for the accounts of Sandler O Neill's customers.

Certain Financial Forecasts

Gibraltar does not, as a matter of course, publicly disclose forecasts or internal projections because of, among other things, the inherent difficulty of accurately predicting financial performance for future periods and the risk that the underlying assumptions and estimates may prove incorrect. However, Gibraltar provided to IBERIABANK

Corporation and Sandler O'Neill a summary of certain limited unaudited financial forecasts that were prepared on a standalone basis, without giving effect to the merger. These financial forecasts are being provided below solely to give Gibraltar's stockholders access to the financial forecasts that were provided to Gibraltar's board of directors, IBERIABANK Corporation and Sandler O'Neill in connection with the proposed merger.

The selected financial forecasts described below were not prepared with a view toward public disclosure or compliance with published guidelines of the SEC, the guidelines established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants for Prospective Financial Information, or U.S. generally accepted accounting principles. Neither Gibraltar's independent registered public accounting firm, nor any other independent accountants, have compiled, examined or performed any procedures with respect to the financial forecasts included below, nor have they expressed any opinion or any other form of assurance on such information or its achievability, and they assume no responsibility for, and disclaim any association with, the financial forecasts. Furthermore, the financial forecasts does not take into account any circumstances or events occurring after the date it was prepared.

You are strongly encouraged not to place undue reliance on the financial forecasts provided below, as they are subjective in many respects and thus are susceptible to multiple interpretations and periodic revisions based on actual experience and business developments. The financial forecasts described below are forward-looking statements, made on a variety of estimates and assumptions with respect to industry performance, general business, economic, regulatory, market and financial conditions and other matters, all of which are inherently uncertain and difficult to predict and many of which are beyond Gibraltar's control. Multiple factors, including those described under Special Note Regarding Forward-Looking Statements, beginning on page 81, could cause actual results to differ materially from such forecasts, and the financial forecasts should be read with caution.

The inclusion of the financial forecasts in this proxy statement/prospectus should not be regarded as an indication that any of Gibraltar, IBERIABANK Corporation or their respective affiliates, advisors or representatives considered or consider the financial forecasts to be necessarily predictive of actual future events, and the financial forecasts should not be relied upon as such. None of Gibraltar, IBERIABANK Corporation or their respective affiliates, advisors or representatives can give any assurance that actual results will not differ from the financial forecasts, and none of them undertakes any obligation, or intends, to update or otherwise revise or reconcile the financial forecasts to reflect circumstances existing after the date such information was prepared or to reflect the occurrence of future events even in the event that any or all of the assumptions underlying the financial forecasts are shown to be in error. None of Gibraltar, IBERIABANK Corporation or their respective affiliates, advisors or representatives makes any representation to any stockholder regarding the financial forecasts.

In light of the foregoing, and considering that the Gibraltar special meeting will be held several months after the financial forecasts was prepared, as well as the uncertainties inherent in any forecasted information Gibraltar's stockholders are cautioned not to place unwarranted reliance on such information. The following financial projections were prepared by Gibraltar's management and were reviewed by the Gibraltar board of directors and Sandler O'Neill and, with respect to data for 2017, IBERIABANK Corporation, in connection with the proposed merger:

In addition, Sandler O'Neill used and relied upon publicly available consensus 2017 and 2018 EPS and income street estimates for IBERIABANK Corporation, which were discussed with management of IBERIABANK Corporation, in performing the selected companies analysis and the relative contribution analysis in connection with Sandler O'Neill's opinion.

Interests of Certain Gibraltar Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger

Certain Gibraltar directors and executive officers have financial and other interests in the merger as individuals in addition to, or different from, their interests as stockholders of Gibraltar. Gibraltar's board of directors was aware of these interests and considered them in its decision to approve the merger agreement. These interests are discussed below.

Restricted Stock Awards. Gibraltar established an equity incentive plan pursuant to which it has granted restricted shares of Gibraltar common stock to its directors, executive officers and key employees. Under the terms of the merger agreement, outstanding and unvested restricted shares of Gibraltar common stock granted under Gibraltar's equity incentive plan, whether or not vested, will become fully earned and vested as of the effective date of the merger and each such restricted share of Gibraltar common stock will be entitled to the same treatment as each share of Gibraltar common stock under the merger agreement.

Stock Options. Pursuant to its 2016 Equity Plan, Gibraltar has granted options to purchase shares of Gibraltar common stock to its executive officers and key employees. Under the terms of the merger agreement, outstanding and unexercised options to purchase shares of Gibraltar common stock granted under the 2016 Equity Plan, whether or not vested and exercisable, will become fully earned and exercisable as of the effective date of the merger. Each outstanding stock option that is unexercised at the effective time of the merger will be cancelled in exchange for the right to receive a single lump sum cash payment from Gibraltar based upon the difference between the total value of the merger consideration per share of Gibraltar common stock and the exercise price of the stock option. Each of the officers and key employees of Gibraltar that hold stock options are expected to receive the following estimated cash payments in exchange for the cancellation of their options (such amounts are based upon a hypothetical measurement price of $80.15, which is the closing share price of IBERIABANK Corporation on October 19, 2017, the date the merger agreement was signed):

Name	Amount
Executive Officers:
Luis Castillo	$ 282,817
Sara Christie	$ 565,633
Angel Medina ⁽¹⁾	$ 2,082,533
Jean - Pierre Mucha	$ 282,817
Robert Regolizo	$ 565,633
Claudia Rupner	$ 282,817
Michael Sontag	$ 565,633

(1) Also a member of Gibraltar's board of directors.

Employment Agreement. Gibraltar has an employment agreement with Mr. Medina. Under this agreement, if Mr. Medina is terminated without cause in the event of a change in control, he is entitled to receive: (i) a pro-rated annual bonus; and (ii) an amount equal to two times his annual base salary plus the most recent annual bonus, payable in a single lump sum within 60 days following Mr. Medina's date of termination. Under this provision, the payment due to Mr. Medina if terminated in an event of a change in control would be $1,320,000 and the applicable prorated portion of $160,000 based on the date of the change in control. The agreement also provides that if Mr. Medina is retained for a period of up to six months after the change in control date, he may terminate his employment and receive a termination payment if any of the following occurs: (a) he is assigned inconsistent duties with his position, (b) the employer has reduced his compensation, (c) he has been required to relocate more than 50 miles from the office in which he is based on the change in control date, or (d) the employer failed to continue in effect any benefit to which Mr. Medina was entitled on the change in control date. A change in control as defined under Mr. Medina's employment agreement includes the completion of the merger with IBERIABANK Corporation.

Indemnification. IBERIABANK Corporation has agreed that for a period of six years from the effective date of the merger it shall indemnify and hold harmless each of the current or former directors, officers, or employees of Gibraltar, or any of its subsidiaries, to the fullest extent permitted by the current provisions regarding indemnification contained in Gibraltar's articles and bylaws, arising out of matters existing or occurring at or prior to the effective date.

Directors and Officers Insurance. IBERIABANK Corporation and Gibraltar have agreed that for a period of six years following the effective date of the merger, IBERIABANK Corporation shall maintain Gibraltar's current directors and executive officers liability insurance; however, IBERIABANK Corporation is not required to spend annually in the aggregate an amount exceeding 150% of Gibraltar's aggregate premiums for such management liability insurance for its 2017 fiscal year; if the limit is reached, IBERIABANK Corporation is to purchase as much comparable insurance as is available within the limit.

Appointment to the Advisory Board. IBERIABANK Corporation has invited each Gibraltar non-employee director to join, as of the effective date of the merger, IBERIABANK's Miami-Dade Market Advisory Board. IBERIABANK's Miami-Dade Market Advisory Board will meet on a regular basis as determined by the market president and its purpose will be to advise IBERIABANK as to its market areas and customers. Each of these directors who accepts the invitation will become members of the appropriate advisory board and will receive a fee of not less than $500 per meeting attended for three years' service in such capacity.

IBERIABANK Corporation's Reasons for the Merger

IBERIABANK Corporation's reasons for entering into the merger agreement include:

the opportunity to bolster IBERIABANK's presence in the Florida markets;

the opportunity to enhance IBERIABANK's capabilities to serve clients in private banking, residential lending and wealth management;

the opportunity to market IBERIABANK's broader product suite and drive deeper product penetration within Gibraltar's client base;

the opportunity to increasingly support Gibraltar's clients and prospects with IBERIABANK's larger balance sheet; and the opportunity to invest IBERIABANK Corporation's capital in a transaction that is expected to be earnings accretive in 2019 and 2020.

IBERIABANK Corporation's board of directors approved the merger agreement after IBERIABANK Corporation's senior management discussed with its board of directors a number of factors, including those described above and the business, assets, liabilities, results of operations, financial performance, strategic direction and prospects of Gibraltar. IBERIABANK Corporation's board of directors did not consider it practicable to, and did not attempt to, quantify or otherwise assign relative weights to the specific factors it considered in reaching its determination. IBERIABANK Corporation's board of directors viewed its position as being based on all the information and the factors presented and considered by it. In addition, individual directors may have given different weights to different information and factors.

Management and Operations After the Merger

Upon the closing of the merger between Gibraltar and IBERIABANK, the separate existence of Gibraltar will cease. There will be no change in the boards of directors or executive officers of IBERIABANK Corporation or IBERIABANK in connection with the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Under the terms of the merger agreement, the articles of association and bylaws of IBERIABANK will be the articles of association and bylaws of the combined entity which will retain the name of IBERIABANK. IBERIABANK, as the resulting entity, will continue to operate under the policies, practices and procedures currently in place. Upon completion of the merger, all assets and property owned by Gibraltar will become immediately the property of IBERIABANK.

Voting Agreements

On October 19, 2017, each member of the board of directors of Gibraltar entered into a voting agreement with IBERIABANK Corporation and IBERIABANK, pursuant to which each such director agreed, among other things, to vote the shares of Gibraltar common stock over which it has voting power in favor of the adoption and approval of the merger agreement and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, against other acquisition proposals and against any other action or agreement that, to such director's actual knowledge, would be reasonably expected to result in a material breach of the merger agreement by Gibraltar or prevent, materially impair or materially delay the completion of the merger. As of January 8, 2018, the record date for the special meeting, the directors who entered in the voting agreements in the aggregate owned 277,635 shares, or approximately 19.67% of the outstanding shares of Gibraltar common stock entitled to vote at the special meeting. The voting agreements also contain certain restrictions on the transfer of shares of common stock by each such director. The voting agreements will terminate upon the earlier of the completion of the merger, and the termination of the merger agreement in accordance with its terms.

The foregoing description of the voting agreements does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of such agreements, a form of which is attached hereto as Appendix B to this proxy statement/prospectus, which you should read in its entirety.

Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger

The following summary describes the anticipated material United States federal income tax consequences of the merger to U.S. holders (as defined below) of Gibraltar common stock. The following summary is based upon the Code, its legislative history, existing and proposed regulations thereunder and published rulings and decisions, all as currently in effect as of the date hereof, and all of which are subject to change, possibly with retroactive effect. Any such change could affect the accuracy of the statements and conclusions set forth in this discussion. We have not addressed in this proxy statement/prospectus any tax considerations under state, local and foreign laws, or federal laws other than those pertaining to income tax, or federal laws applicable to alternative minimum taxes.

For purposes of this discussion, we use the term "U.S. holder" to mean a beneficial owner of Gibraltar common stock which is:

an individual citizen or resident of the United States;

a corporation (or other entity taxable as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes) created or organized under the laws of the United States or any of its political subdivisions;

a trust that (1) is subject to the supervision of a court within the United States and the control of one or more U.S. persons or (2) has a valid election in effect under applicable U.S. Treasury regulations to be treated as a U.S. person; or an estate that is subject to U.S. federal income taxation on its income regardless of its source.

This discussion addresses only those holders of Gibraltar common stock that hold their Gibraltar common stock as a capital asset within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Code and does not address all the U.S. federal income tax consequences that may be relevant to particular holders of Gibraltar common stock in light of their individual circumstances or to holders of Gibraltar common stock that are subject to special rules, such as:

financial institutions;

pass-through entities or investors in pass-through entities;

insurance companies;

mutual funds;

tax-exempt organizations;

dealers or brokers in securities or currencies;

persons that hold Gibraltar common stock that are subject to the alternative minimum tax;

persons that immediately before the merger owned at least 5% of Gibraltar common stock;

persons who exercise dissenters' rights;

securities traders that elect to use a mark to market method of accounting;

persons that hold Gibraltar common stock as part of a straddle, hedge, constructive sale or conversion transaction;

regulated investment companies;

real estate investment trusts;

Table of Contents

persons whose functional currency is not the U.S. dollar;

persons who are not citizens or residents of the United States; and holders who acquired their shares of Gibraltar common stock through the exercise of an employee stock option or otherwise as compensation.

If a partnership or other entity taxed as a partnership holds Gibraltar common stock, the tax treatment of a partner in the partnership generally will depend upon the status of the partner and the activities of the partnership. Partnerships and partners in such a partnership should consult their tax advisors about the tax consequences of the merger to them.

The actual tax consequences of the merger to you may be complex and will depend on your specific situation and on factors that are not within our control. You should consult with your own tax advisor as to the tax consequences of the merger in your particular circumstances, including the applicability and effect of the alternative minimum tax and any state, local or foreign and other tax laws and of changes in those laws.

Tax Consequences of the Merger Generally

The merger is intended to qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. Accordingly, the material U.S. federal income tax consequences will be as follows:

no gain or loss will be recognized by IBERIABANK Corporation or Gibraltar as a result of the merger;

except as discussed below with respect to cash received instead of a fractional share of IBERIABANK Corporation common stock, under Cash Received Instead of a Fractional Share of IBERIABANK Corporation Common Stock, no gain or loss will be recognized by U.S. holders of Gibraltar common stock on the exchange of Gibraltar common stock for IBERIABANK Corporation common stock pursuant to the merger;

the aggregate basis of the IBERIABANK Corporation common stock received by a U.S. holder of Gibraltar common stock in the merger (including fractional shares of IBERIABANK Corporation common stock deemed received and redeemed as described below) will be the same as the aggregate basis of the Gibraltar common stock for which it is exchanged; and the holding period of IBERIABANK Corporation common stock received in exchange for shares of Gibraltar common stock (including fractional shares of IBERIABANK Corporation common stock deemed received and redeemed as described below) will include the holding period of the Gibraltar common stock for which it is exchanged.

If a U.S. holder of Gibraltar common stock acquired different blocks of Gibraltar common stock at different times or at different prices, such U.S. holder's holding period and basis will be determined separately with respect to each block of Gibraltar common stock.

Completion of the merger is conditioned on, among other things, the receipt by Gibraltar and IBERIABANK Corporation of legal opinions from Broad and Cassel LLP and Simpson Thacher & Bartlett LLP, respectively, each dated as of the closing date of the merger, that for U.S. federal income tax purposes the merger will be treated as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. These opinions will be based on certain assumptions and on representation letters provided by Gibraltar and IBERIABANK Corporation to be delivered at the time of closing. Although the merger agreement allows each of IBERIABANK Corporation and Gibraltar to waive this condition to closing, neither IBERIABANK Corporation nor Gibraltar currently anticipates doing so. Neither of the tax opinions will be binding on the Internal Revenue Service. Neither IBERIABANK Corporation nor Gibraltar intends to request any ruling from the Internal Revenue Service as to the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger and there is no guarantee that the Internal Revenue Service will treat the merger as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code.

Cash Received Instead of a Fractional Share of IBERIABANK Corporation Common Stock

A U.S. holder of Gibraltar common stock who receives cash instead of a fractional share of IBERIABANK Corporation common stock will be treated as having received the fractional share pursuant to the merger and then as having exchanged the fractional share for cash in a redemption by IBERIABANK Corporation. As a result, such U.S. holder of Gibraltar common stock will generally recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount of cash received and the basis in his or her fractional share interest as set forth above. The gain or loss recognized by the U.S. holders described in this paragraph will generally be capital gain or loss, and will be long-term capital gain or loss if, as of the effective date of the merger, the U.S. holder's holding period for the relevant shares is greater than one year. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to limitations.

You are urged to consult with your own tax advisors about the particular tax consequences of the merger to you, including the effects of U.S. federal, state or local, or foreign and other tax laws.

Backup Withholding and Information Reporting

Payments of cash in lieu of a fractional share to a U.S. holder of Gibraltar common stock pursuant to the merger may, under certain circumstances, be subject to information reporting and backup withholding unless the holder provides proof of an applicable exemption or, in the case of backup withholding, furnishes its taxpayer identification number and otherwise complies with all applicable requirements of the backup withholding rules. Any amounts withheld from payments to a U.S. holder under the backup withholding rules are not additional tax and generally will be allowed as a refund or reduction of the U.S. holder's U.S. federal income tax liability, provided the required information is timely furnished to the Internal Revenue Service.

This discussion does not address tax consequences that may vary with, or are contingent on, individual circumstances. Moreover, it does not address any non-income tax or any foreign, state or local tax consequences of the merger. Tax matters are very complicated, and the tax consequences of the merger to you will depend upon the facts of your particular situation. Accordingly, we strongly recommend that holders of Gibraltar common stock consult their tax advisors with respect to the application of United States federal income tax laws to their particular situations as well as any tax consequences arising under the United States federal estate or gift tax rules, or under the laws of any state, local, foreign or other taxing jurisdiction or under any applicable tax treaty.

Regulatory Approvals Required for the Merger

Before IBERIABANK and Gibraltar may complete the merger, they must obtain regulatory approval from certain regulatory authorities as summarized below. Gibraltar, IBERIABANK Corporation and IBERIABANK have agreed to use their reasonable best efforts to cooperate and use all reasonable best efforts to prepare as promptly as possible all documentation to effect all filings and to obtain all permits, consents, approvals and authorizations of governmental entities that are necessary to consummate the merger, and will make all necessary filings in respect of those regulatory approvals as soon as practicable but in no event later than thirty days following the date of the merger agreement. This includes providing notice of the merger to the New York State Department of Financial Services and the Florida Office of Financial Regulation, and obtaining the approval of the Federal Reserve Board and the Louisiana OFI.

IBERIABANK filed the required applications with the Federal Reserve Board and the Louisiana OFI in November 2017. As of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, IBERIABANK has not received the required regulatory approvals. IBERIABANK Corporation is not aware of any other material governmental approvals or actions that are required prior to the merger other than those described below.

Federal Reserve Board

The merger is subject to the prior approval of the Federal Reserve Board under Section 18(c) of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act. In making its determination, the Federal Reserve Board must consider, among other factors, the financial and managerial resources and future prospects of the existing and resulting institutions, the convenience and needs of the communities to be served and the risk to the stability of the United States banking or financial system.

The Federal Reserve Board must also consider the records of IBERIABANK and Gibraltar in meeting the needs of the community under the Community Reinvestment Act of 1977, as amended (which we refer to as the CRA), including their CRA performance ratings, and it must take into consideration the conformity of the proposed transaction to applicable law, regulation and supervision policies. In addition, the Federal Reserve Board must take into consideration the effectiveness of IBERIABANK and Gibraltar in combatting money laundering activities. The Federal Reserve Board shall not approve a merger if it would result in a monopoly or if it would otherwise substantially lessen competition or in any other manner restrain trade in any section of the United States, unless the Federal Reserve Board finds that the anti-competitive effects of the merger transaction are clearly outweighed in the public interest by the probable effect of the merger transaction in meeting the convenience and needs of the communities to be served.

Table of Contents

In connection with its review, the Federal Reserve Board provides an opportunity for public comment on the application and is authorized to hold a public meeting or other proceeding if the Federal Reserve Board determines that would be appropriate. IBERIABANK and Gibraltar may not complete the transaction before 30 calendar days following the Federal Reserve Board's approval of the transaction or, if the Federal Reserve Board has not received any adverse comments from the Attorney General of the United States concerning the competitive effect of the transaction, such shorter period of time as the Federal Reserve Board may permit, with the concurrence of the Attorney General, that does not end sooner than 15 calendar days following the Federal Reserve Board's approval.

Louisiana Office of Financial Institutions

The merger is subject to approval of the Louisiana OFI. The merger will become effective when the merger agreement has been filed with and recorded by the Commissioner.

New York State Department of Financial Services and Florida Office of Financial Regulation

Under applicable state law relating to interstate branching activities of an out-of-state bank, IBERIABANK must satisfy certain statutory notice requirements in order to maintain branches located in both Florida and New York that have been acquired through an acquisition transaction.

Resale of IBERIABANK Corporation Common Stock; Stock Exchange Listing

The issuance of shares of IBERIABANK Corporation common stock to stockholders of Gibraltar under the merger agreement will be registered under the Securities Act of 1933 and the shares will be freely tradable by such shareholders for purposes of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (which we refer to as the Securities Act), and the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (which we refer to as the Exchange Act). However any shareholder who becomes an affiliate of IBERIABANK Corporation after consummation of the merger must abide by certain transfer restrictions under the Securities Act. This proxy statement/prospectus does not cover resales of IBERIABANK Corporation common stock received by any affiliate upon completion of the merger, and no person is authorized to make any use of this proxy statement/prospectus in connection with any resale.

Following the merger, the shares of IBERIABANK Corporation common stock will continue to trade on NASDAQ under the symbol IBKC.

Accounting Treatment

IBERIABANK Corporation will account for the merger using the acquisition method of accounting. Under this accounting method, IBERIABANK Corporation would record the acquired identifiable assets and liabilities assumed at their fair market value at the time the merger is complete. Any excess of the cost of Gibraltar over the sum of the fair values of tangible and identifiable intangible assets less liabilities assumed would be recorded as goodwill. Based on the closing stock price of IBERIABANK Corporation common stock on January 17, 2018 of $82.60, management of IBERIABANK Corporation estimates that the aggregate value of the merger consideration would be approximately $230 million. Utilizing information as of September 30, 2017, estimated goodwill and other intangibles would total approximately $121.3 million. IBERIABANK Corporation's reported income would include the operations of Gibraltar after the merger. Financial statements of IBERIABANK Corporation after completion of the merger would reflect the impact of the acquisition of Gibraltar. Financial statements of IBERIABANK Corporation issued before completion of the merger would not be restated retroactively to reflect Gibraltar historical financial position or results of operation.

Dissenters Rights of Appraisal

Under OCC regulations, Gibraltar stockholders who dissent from the merger may receive in cash the value of their Gibraltar shares if they comply with the requirements of 12 U.S.C. § 214a as if Gibraltar were a national bank. The required procedure set forth in 12 U.S.C. § 214a must be followed exactly or any dissenters of appraisal rights may be lost. The information set forth below is a general summary of dissenters rights of appraisal as they apply to Gibraltar stockholders and is qualified in its entirety by reference to 12 U.S.C. § 214a which is attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Appendix C. Also included in Appendix D is an excerpt from the Comptroller s Licensing Manual on Business Combinations, adopted by the OCC, describing the methods used by the OCC to estimate the value of shares when requested to do so by a dissenting stockholder.

Voting Procedure

In order to be entitled to exercise dissenters' appraisal rights, a holder of shares of Gibraltar common stock which are outstanding and are entitled to be voted at the special meeting of stockholders must vote such shares AGAINST the adoption and approval of the merger proposal by the holder of such shares, or must give written notice to Gibraltar at or prior to the special meeting of stockholders that such stockholder dissents from the merger and the merger agreement. Thus, any Gibraltar stockholder who wishes to dissent and executes and returns a proxy in the accompanying form or votes at the special stockholders' meeting must vote AGAINST the adoption and approval of the merger proposal. If the stockholder does not return a proxy or provide written notice of dissent, or returns a proxy without voting instructions or with instructions to vote FOR or ABSTAIN with respect to the adoption and approval of the merger proposal, or votes in person at the special stockholders' meeting FOR or ABSTAIN with respect to the adoption and approval of the merger proposal, the stockholder will lose any dissenters' appraisal rights associated with those shares.

Written Demand

Furthermore, in order to preserve his or her dissenters' appraisal rights, a Gibraltar stockholder must make a written demand upon IBERIABANK for payment of cash equal to the value of such dissenting shares at any time before thirty days after the date of consummation of the merger, accompanied by the surrender of the stock certificates representing such dissenting shares. The demand must be addressed to IBERIABANK, 200 West Congress Street, Lafayette, Louisiana 70501; Attention: Robert Worley, and the demand must be received by IBERIABANK at any time before 30 days after the date of completion of the merger. A vote AGAINST the adoption and approval of the merger proposal does not, by itself, satisfy the written demand requirement.

Valuation of Shares and Payment

The value of the dissenting shares of Gibraltar common stock would be determined as of the date on which the special stockholders meeting to adopt and approve the merger proposal was held, by a committee of three persons. The committee would be comprised of one representative selected by the majority vote of the dissenting stockholders entitled to receive the value of their shares, one representative selected by the directors of IBERIABANK and the third representative selected by those two representatives. The valuation agreed upon by any two of the three appraisers would be the value used for payment to the dissenting stockholders.

OCC Appraisal and Reappraisal

If within ninety days from the date of the consummation of the merger, for any reason one or more of the appraisers are not selected, or the appraisers fail to determine the value of the dissenting shares, any interested party may request in writing an appraisal of the dissenting shares from the OCC. In addition, if the value decided by the three-person committee of appraisers is not satisfactory to a dissenting stockholders who has requested payment, such stockholder may within five days after being notified of the appraised value of his or her shares appeal to the OCC. The OCC will then conduct a reappraisal of the dissenting shares of the appellant.

In order for the OCC to conduct such an appraisal or reappraisal, OCC regulations require that the parties, including Gibraltar and IBERIABANK, agree that the OCC's appraisal will be final and binding and on how the total expenses of the OCC will be divided among the parties and paid to the OCC.

The OCC values the stock as of the date that the stockholders meeting was held authorizing the transaction. The OCC normally will not apply certain minority discounts to the fair valuation of the dissenting shares of stock, but may apply a market discount due to the lack of marketability for stock that is closely held or has a limited trading history. After reviewing the particular facts in each case and the available information on a dissenting shares, the OCC selects an appropriate valuation method typically either based on the shares market value, investment value, and adjusted book value or combination of methods, to determine a fair estimate of the shares value. The OCC s valuation methods in connection with merger transactions typically do not include consideration of purchase premiums in arriving at the value of shares.

The foregoing summary of such rights is qualified in its entirety by reference to Appendix D attached to this proxy statement/prospectus. If you fail to comply strictly with these procedures you will lose your dissenters appraisal rights. Consequently, if you wish to exercise your dissenters appraisal rights, we strongly urge you to consult a legal advisor before attempting to exercise your dissenters appraisal rights.

THE MERGER AGREEMENT

The description of the merger agreement in this section in this proxy statement/prospectus describes the material terms of the merger agreement; however, it does not purport to be complete and may not contain all of the information about the merger agreement that may be important to you. It is qualified in its entirety by reference to the merger agreement, which is attached to this proxy statement/prospectus (without exhibits) as Appendix A hereto and incorporated herein by reference.

Structure of the Merger

Pursuant to the merger agreement, Gibraltar will merge with and into IBERIABANK, a wholly owned subsidiary of IBERIABANK Corporation, with IBERIABANK as the surviving entity. Each share of Gibraltar common stock will be converted into the right to receive 1.9749 shares of IBERIABANK Corporation common stock, subject to adjustment depending on the measurement price of IBERIABANK Corporation common stock. Cash will be paid in lieu of any fractional share of IBERIABANK Corporation common stock. See Conversion of Gibraltar Common Stock below.

As a result of the merger, the separate corporate existence of Gibraltar will cease and IBERIABANK will succeed to all the rights and be responsible for all the obligations of Gibraltar. Upon consummation of the merger, the board of directors and executive officers of IBERIABANK shall consist of those persons serving as directors and executive officers of IBERIABANK prior to the merger.

However, before the completion of the merger, Gibraltar, IBERIABANK Corporation and IBERIABANK may modify the method of effecting the business combination contemplated by the merger agreement if and to the extent they deem such a change to be desirable, so long as (1) any such change does not affect the United States federal income tax consequences of the merger to holders of Gibraltar common stock and (2) no such change shall alter or change the amount or kind of the consideration to be issued to holders of Gibraltar common stock pursuant to the merger agreement or materially impede or delay consummation of the merger.

Conversion of Gibraltar Common Stock

If the merger proposal is adopted and approved and the merger is subsequently completed, at the effective time of the merger, each outstanding share of Gibraltar common stock that was outstanding immediately prior to such effective time will be converted into the right to receive shares of IBERIABANK Corporation common stock. The exchange ratio (the precise number of shares of IBERIABANK Corporation common stock to be received for each share of Gibraltar common stock) will depend on the measurement price of the IBERIABANK Corporation common stock. The term measurement price is defined in the merger agreement to be the arithmetic average of the daily volume weighted average trading prices of IBERIABANK Corporation common stock on the NASDAQ Global Select Market (as calculated by Bloomberg Screen AQR) on each of the ten trading days ending on the business day prior to the closing date of the merger.

If the measurement price is greater than or equal to $70.13 per share or equal to or less than $94.88 per share: The exchange ratio will equal 1.9749 shares of IBERIABANK Corporation common stock for each share of Gibraltar common stock.

If the measurement price is greater than $94.88 per share: The exchange ratio will be adjusted to equal the quotient obtained by dividing $187.3785 by the measurement price.

If the measurement price is less than $70.13 per share: The exchange ratio will be adjusted to equal the quotient obtained by dividing $138.4997 by the measurement price.

Table of Contents

The following table provides illustrative examples of how the exchange ratio and the implied value of the merger consideration may change depending on the measurement price of the IBERIABANK Corporation common stock. The range of measurement prices set forth in the table has been included for representative purposes only and the number of shares you receive for each of your shares of Gibraltar common stock will be based on the actual measurement price. Neither Gibraltar nor IBERIABANK Corporation can assure you as to what the market price of the IBERIABANK Corporation common stock to be issued in the merger will be at or following the time of the exchange. The actual measurement price may be outside the range of the amounts set forth above, and as a result, the actual exchange ratio may not be shown in the above table.

* Cash will be paid in lieu of any fractional share of IBERIABANK Corporation common stock.

The hypothetical measurement price of IBERIABANK Corporation common stock, assuming the merger was consummated as of January 17, 2018 (the most recent practicable date before the mailing of this proxy statement/prospectus), was approximately $79.45. If this was the actual measurement price, you would have received 1.9749 shares of IBERIABANK Corporation common stock for each share of Gibraltar common stock owned by you. Before deciding how to vote, you should obtain more recent prices of IBERIABANK Corporation common stock, which trades on the NASDAQ Global Select Market under the symbol IBKC.

IBERIABANK Corporation will not issue any fractional shares of its common stock in the merger. Instead, a stockholder who would otherwise have received a fractional share will receive an amount in cash, without interest, rounded to the nearest whole cent. This cash amount will be equal to the measurement price multiplied by the fraction of a share (rounded to the nearest whole cent) of IBERIABANK Corporation common stock which such stockholder of Gibraltar would otherwise be entitled to receive, after aggregating all IBERIABANK Corporation common stock held by such stockholder of Gibraltar.

The exchange ratio was arrived at through arm's-length negotiations between Gibraltar and IBERIABANK Corporation. The merger agreement provides that, if IBERIABANK Corporation effects a stock dividend, reclassification, recapitalization, split, or combination of the shares of IBERIABANK Corporation common stock, an equitable adjustment to the exchange ratio will be made.

Treatment of Gibraltar Stock Options and Restricted Stock Awards

Stock Options

At the effective time of the merger, each stock option to purchase shares of Gibraltar common stock granted under the Gibraltar stock option plan agreements, whether vested or unvested, that is outstanding and unexercised immediately prior to the effective time will cease to represent a right to acquire Gibraltar common stock and will be cancelled and converted into the right to receive in cash an amount (subject to required tax withholdings if applicable), equal to the difference between (i) the product of the exchange ratio and the measurement price, and (ii) the exercise price to purchase the Gibraltar common stock underlying such Gibraltar stock option, it being understood that any Gibraltar stock option with an exercise price greater than the per share merger consideration shall not be entitled to receive any consideration in respect of such Gibraltar stock option or the termination and cancellation thereof.

Restricted Stock Awards

At the effective time of the merger, each award of Gibraltar restricted common stock subject to vesting, repurchase or other lapse restriction granted under the Gibraltar equity plan, whether time-vesting or performance-based, whether vested or unvested, that is outstanding immediately prior to the effective time, will be fully earned and vested and holders of each share of common stock issued pursuant to the Gibraltar restricted stock award will be entitled to the same treatment as each share of Gibraltar common stock under the merger agreement.

Closing and Effective Time of Merger

The parties expect that the merger will be consummated in the first quarter of 2018, or, if delays occur, as soon as possible after the receipt of all regulatory and stockholder approvals, all regulatory waiting periods expire and all other conditions to the completion of the merger have been satisfied or waived. For more information, see Conditions to Complete the Merger below. However, neither IBERIABANK Corporation nor Gibraltar can guarantee when or if the merger will be completed. If the merger is not consummated by October 19, 2018, the merger agreement may be terminated by either Gibraltar or IBERIABANK Corporation, subject to certain exceptions. For more information, see Termination below.

The merger will become effective as of the date and time as set forth in the certificate of merger to be issued by the Louisiana OFI. The closing of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement will occur at 9:00 a.m., Eastern Time, on the last business day of the calendar month following the month in which the last of the conditions set forth in the merger agreement is satisfied or waived, or another date or time mutually agreed in writing by the parties.

Conversion of Shares and Exchange of Certificates; Withholding and Dividends and Distributions

The conversion of Gibraltar common stock into the right to receive the merger consideration will occur automatically at the effective time of the merger. At or promptly after the effective time of the merger, IBERIABANK Corporation will deposit (or cause to be deposited) with its exchange agent evidence of shares of IBERIABANK Corporation common stock in book-entry form (or, at IBERIABANK Corporation's option, stock certificates) and the estimated amount of cash to be paid in lieu of fractional shares of IBERIABANK Corporation common stock. The exchange agent will facilitate the payment of the merger consideration to the holders of certificates representing shares of Gibraltar common stock.

Letter of Transmittal

As promptly as practicable after the effective time of the merger, and in any event within five business days thereafter, the exchange agent will mail to each holder of record of Gibraltar common stock immediately prior to the effective time of the merger a letter of transmittal and instructions on how to surrender shares of Gibraltar common stock in exchange for the merger consideration the holder is entitled to receive under the merger agreement.

If a certificate for Gibraltar common stock has been lost, stolen, or destroyed, the exchange agent will issue the merger consideration upon receipt of (1) an affidavit of that fact by the claimant and (2) if required by IBERIABANK Corporation or its exchange agent, the posting of a bond in an amount as IBERIABANK Corporation or its exchange agent may determine is reasonably necessary as indemnity against any claim that may be made against it with respect to such certificate.

After completion of the merger, there will be no further transfers on the stock transfer books of Gibraltar of shares of Gibraltar common stock that were issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger.

Fractional Shares

IBERIABANK Corporation will not issue any fractional shares of IBERIABANK Corporation common stock in the merger. Instead, a stockholder of Gibraltar who otherwise would have received a fraction of a share of IBERIABANK Corporation common stock will receive an amount in cash rounded to the nearest whole cent. This cash amount will be determined by multiplying (i) the arithmetic mean of the daily volume weighted average trading prices of IBERIABANK Corporation Common Stock on the NASDAQ Global Select Market (as calculated by Bloomberg Screen AQR) on each of the ten trading days ending on the business day prior to the closing date of the merger by (ii) the fraction of a share (rounded to the nearest cent) of IBERIABANK Corporation common stock which such stockholder of Gibraltar would otherwise be entitled to receive, after aggregating all IBERIABANK Corporation common stock held by such stockholder of Gibraltar.

Withholding

IBERIABANK Corporation and the exchange agent will be entitled to deduct and withhold from any merger consideration or any payments due to holders of Gibraltar equity awards, cash in lieu of fractional shares, cash dividends or distributions payable, or any other amounts otherwise payable pursuant to the merger agreement to any holder of Gibraltar common stock or Gibraltar equity awards the amounts they are required to deduct and withhold under the Code or any provision of state, local, or foreign tax law. If any such amounts are withheld and paid over to the appropriate governmental authority, these amounts will be treated for all purposes of the merger agreement as having been paid to the holder of Gibraltar common stock or Gibraltar equity awards from whom they were withheld.

Dividends and Distributions

No dividends or other distributions declared with respect to IBERIABANK Corporation common stock will be paid to the holder of any unsurrendered certificates of Gibraltar common stock until the holder surrenders such certificate in accordance with the merger agreement. After the surrender of a certificate in accordance with the merger agreement, the record holder thereof will be entitled to receive any such dividends or other distributions, without any interest, which had previously become payable with respect to the whole shares of IBERIABANK Corporation common stock that the shares of Gibraltar common stock represented by such certificate have been converted into the right to receive under the merger agreement.

Representations and Warranties

The representations and warranties described below and included in the merger agreement were made only for purposes of the merger agreement and as of specific dates, may be subject to limitations, qualifications, or exceptions agreed upon by the parties, including those included in confidential disclosures made for the purposes of, among other things, allocating contractual risk between IBERIABANK Corporation, IBERIABANK and Gibraltar rather than establishing matters as facts, and may be subject to standards of materiality that differ from those standards relevant to investors. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations and warranties may change after the date of the merger agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in public disclosures by IBERIABANK Corporation.

Therefore, the representations and warranties and other provisions of the merger agreement or any descriptions of those provisions should not be read alone or relied upon as characterizations of the actual state of facts or condition of IBERIABANK Corporation, IBERIABANK or Gibraltar or any of their respective subsidiaries or affiliates, without considering the foregoing. Instead, such provisions or descriptions should be read only in conjunction with the information provided elsewhere in this proxy statement/prospectus and in the documents incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus. For more information, see Where You Can Find More Information, beginning on page 79. IBERIABANK Corporation will provide additional disclosure in its public reports to the extent it is or becomes aware of the existence of any material facts that are required to be disclosed under federal securities law and that might otherwise contradict the representations and warranties contained in the merger agreement and will update such disclosure as required under federal securities laws.

Certain representations and warranties of the parties are qualified as to knowledge, materiality or material adverse effect. For purposes of the merger agreement, a material adverse effect, when used in reference to Gibraltar or IBERIABANK Corporation, means (1) any event, change, circumstance, occurrence, effect or state of facts that (A) is or would reasonably be expected to be materially adverse to the business, assets, liabilities, condition (financial or otherwise) or results of operations of such person and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, or (B) prevents or materially impairs the ability of such person to consummate, or prevents or materially delays the closing of the merger or any of the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement or would reasonably be expected to do so, or (2) only in the case of Gibraltar, the commencement of, or threat in writing, by a governmental entity with jurisdiction over banking activities of a claim, suit, action or proceeding against Gibraltar.

For the purposes of determining the existence of a material adverse effect with respect to Gibraltar for purpose of clause (1) of the foregoing definition of material adverse effect, none of the following events, changes, circumstances, occurrences, effects or states of fact will constitute or be taken into account in determining whether a material adverse effect has occurred or would reasonably be expected to occur to the extent:

generally affecting banks or the economy or the financial, securities or credit markets, including changes in prevailing interest rates, currency exchange rates, price levels or trading volumes in the United States or foreign securities markets;

any outbreak or escalation of hostilities or declared or undeclared acts of war or terrorism (other than any of the foregoing that causes any damage or destruction to or renders physically unusable or inaccessible any facility or property of the Bank or any of its Subsidiaries);

reflecting or resulting from changes in law or U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (which we refer to as GAAP) or regulatory accounting requirements or published interpretations thereof, in each case after the date of the merger agreement, generally affecting banks; or demonstrably resulting from the announcement or pendency of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

However, with respect to the matters described in the first, second and third bullets above, such event, change, circumstance, occurrence, effect or state of facts may be taken into account to the extent it has a disproportionately adverse effect on Gibraltar and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, as compared to similarly situated banks.

For the purposes of determining the existence of a material adverse effect with respect to IBERIABANK Corporation for purpose of clause (1) of the foregoing definition of material adverse effect, none of the following events, changes, circumstances, occurrences, effects or states of fact will constitute or be taken into account in determining whether a material adverse effect has occurred or would reasonably be expected to occur to the extent:

affecting banks, bank holding companies or financial holding companies, or the economy or the financial, securities or credit markets, including changes in prevailing interest rates, currency exchange rates, price levels or trading volumes in the United States or foreign securities markets;

any outbreak or escalation of hostilities or declared or undeclared acts of war or terrorism (other than any of the foregoing that causes any damage or destruction to or renders physically unusable or inaccessible any facility or property of IBERIABANK Corporation or any of its subsidiaries);

reflecting or resulting from changes in law or GAAP or regulatory accounting requirements or published interpretations thereof, in each case after the date hereof, generally affecting banks, bank holding companies or financial holding companies;

demonstrably resulting from the announcement or pendency of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement;

any failure by IBERIABANK Corporation to meet published or unpublished revenue or earnings projections or budgets or any decrease in the trading or market price, or change in trading volume, of IBERIABANK Corporation's capital stock;

any downgrade in rating of any debt or debt securities of IBERIABANK Corporation or any of its subsidiaries; or any legal claims asserted or other action, suit, claim or proceeding by any holder of shares of IBERIABANK Corporation common stock arising out of or relating to the merger agreement.

However, with respect to the matters described in the first, second and third bullets above, such event, change, circumstance, occurrence, effect or state of facts may be taken into account to the extent it has a disproportionately adverse effect on IBERIABANK Corporation and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, as compared to similarly situated banks, bank holding companies or financial holding companies. In addition, with respect to the matters described in the fifth and sixth bullets above, the facts and circumstances giving rise to such failure, decrease, change or downgrade that are not otherwise excluded from the definition of a material adverse effect with respect to IBERIABANK Corporation pursuant to the other clauses thereof may be taken into account in determining whether there has been a material adverse effect with respect to IBERIABANK Corporation.

All representations and warranties of the parties terminate upon the consummation of the merger.

Conduct of Business Pending the Merger

Restrictions on Gibraltar

The merger agreement contains various restrictions on the operations of Gibraltar before the effective time of the merger. In general, and subject to other specified exceptions, without the prior written consent of IBERIABANK Corporation (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed), the merger agreement obligates Gibraltar to, and to cause each of its subsidiaries to:

carry on its business in the ordinary course consistent with past practice;

preserve its relationships with customers, suppliers and others having business dealings with it.

In addition, Gibraltar has agreed that, subject to certain exceptions, without the prior written consent of IBERIABANK Corporation (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed), it will not, and will not permit any of its subsidiaries to, among other things:

Restrictions on IBERIABANK Corporation

The merger agreement contains various restrictions on the operations of IBERIABANK Corporation before the effective time of the merger. In general, and subject to other specified exceptions, without the prior written consent of Gibraltar (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed), the merger agreement obligates IBERIABANK Corporation to:

use commercially reasonable efforts to preserve intact its business organization, maintain in effect all permits existing as of the date of the merger agreement; preserve its assets, rights and properties in good repair and condition; and preserve its relationships with customers, suppliers and others having business dealings with it.

In addition, IBERIABANK Corporation has agreed that, subject to certain exceptions, without the prior written consent of Gibraltar (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed), it will not, and will not permit any of its significant subsidiaries to, among other things:

amend, authorize or propose to amend its articles of association or bylaws (or similar organizational documents) in a manner that would adversely affect the holders of Gibraltar common stock (upon their acquisition of IBERIABANK Corporation common stock) relative to other holders of IBERIABANK Corporation common stock;

knowingly take, or knowingly omit to take, any action that would, or is reasonably likely to, prevent or impede the merger from qualifying as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code or any action that is reasonably likely to result in any of the conditions to consummation of the merger not being satisfied in a timely manner, in each case except (with prior notice to Gibraltar) as may be required by applicable law; or

Employee Matters

Each individual who is an employee of Gibraltar or its subsidiaries as of the closing of the merger (whose employment is not specifically terminated upon the closing) will become an employee of IBERIABANK Corporation or IBERIABANK (each such employee referred to as a continuing employee) at the effective time of the merger. At the effective time, each continuing employee will be entitled to aggregate target cash compensation opportunities and employee benefits (other than with respect to equity-based, change in control, or transaction-based compensation or benefits, defined benefit pension benefits or retiree health or welfare benefits) that are substantially comparable to those provided to such employees as of immediately prior to the effective time. All continuing employees will be given credit for service at Gibraltar or its subsidiaries for all purposes (but not for pension benefit accrual purposes) under IBERIABANK Corporation's benefit plans to the same extent each such employee was entitled to credit for such service under a similar Gibraltar benefit plan. Additionally, continuing employees will be immediately eligible to participate, without any waiting time, in IBERIABANK Corporation's benefit plans and all pre-existing conditions exclusions and actively-at-work requirements IBERIABANK Corporation's benefit plans providing medical, dental, pharmaceutical, vision or similar benefits will be waived for continuing employees and their dependents to the same extent as under similar Gibraltar benefit plans. Unless IBERIABANK Corporation requests otherwise prior to the merger date, Gibraltar will terminate any 401(k) defined contribution plan maintained by Gibraltar or its subsidiaries as of or immediately prior to the effective date of the merger.

Table of ContentsEfforts to Complete the Merger; Regulatory Approvals Required for the MergerGeneral*

Gibraltar, IBERIABANK Corporation and IBERIABANK have agreed to use their reasonable best efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all actions that are necessary, proper or advisable under the merger agreement and applicable laws to consummate and make effective the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement as promptly as practicable, including using reasonable best efforts to resist, contest or defend any lawsuits, claims or proceedings (including administrative ones) challenging the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement or the completion of the merger, and using reasonable best efforts to seek to have vacated, lifted, reversed or overturned any decree, judgment, injunction or other order (whether temporary, preliminary or permanent) that is in effect that could restrict prevent or prohibit the consummation of the merger. However, neither IBERIABANK Corporation nor its affiliates is required to take any action, or commit to take any action, or agree to any condition or restriction, in connection with obtaining or complying with any required regulatory approval that would reasonably be expected to, individually or in the aggregate, have a material adverse effect on the business, financial condition, properties, assets, liabilities or results of operations of (x) Gibraltar and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, or (y) IBERIABANK Corporation and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, following the consummation of the merger (which we refer to as a burdensome condition).

Regulatory Approvals

Gibraltar, IBERIABANK Corporation and IBERIABANK have agreed to use their reasonable best efforts to cooperate and use all reasonable best efforts to prepare as promptly as possible all documentation to effect all filings and to obtain all permits, consents, approvals and authorizations of governmental entities that are necessary to consummate the merger, and will make all necessary filings in respect of those regulatory approvals as soon as practicable but in no event later than thirty days following the date of the merger agreement. The required regulatory approvals include the approval of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System and the Commissioner of the Office of Financial Institutions of the State of Louisiana, as described in The Merger Regulatory Approvals Required for the Merger, beginning on page 45. The merger cannot be completed until such approvals have been obtained and applicable waiting periods have expired. IBERIABANK Corporation and IBERIABANK cannot assure that there will not be any litigation challenging the approvals. IBERIABANK Corporation and IBERIABANK also cannot assure that the United States Department of Justice or any state attorney general will not attempt to challenge the merger on antitrust grounds, or what the outcome will be if such a challenge is made.

Agreement to Not Solicit Other Offers

Pursuant to the merger agreement, Gibraltar has agreed to, and has agreed to cause its subsidiaries and their respective representatives to, (1) immediately cease and cause to be terminated all existing discussions or negotiations with any person conducted prior to the date of the merger agreement with respect to any acquisition proposal, (2) terminate access to any physical or electronic data rooms relating to any potential acquisition proposal, (3) request the prompt return or destruction of all confidential information previously furnished in connection with any potential acquisition proposal and (4) not terminate, waive, amend, release or modify any provision of any confidentiality or standstill agreement relating to any acquisition proposal to which it or any of its affiliates or representatives is a party, and shall enforce the provisions of such agreement.

Pursuant to the merger agreement, an acquisition proposal means, other than the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, any inquiry, proposal or offer with respect to a, or any, tender or exchange offer to acquire 20% or more of the voting power in Gibraltar or any of its subsidiaries, any inquiry, proposal or offer with respect to a merger, consolidation, share exchange or other business combination involving Gibraltar or any of its subsidiaries or any other inquiry, proposal or offer to acquire, license, lease, exchange or transfer in any manner 20% or more of the voting power in (whether by purchase of newly issued or outstanding shares of the Gibraltar common stock or securities convertible or exchangeable for shares of Gibraltar common stock whether or not such securities are currently exchangeable or convertible), or 20% or more of the business, revenue, net income, assets or deposits of, Gibraltar or any of its subsidiaries, in each case, whether in one or any series of related transactions and whether from one person or any group of Persons (as defined under Section 13(d) of the Exchange Act).

Table of Contents

In addition, until the merger is completed or the merger agreement is terminated, Gibraltar has agreed that it will not, and will cause its subsidiaries, and its and their directors, officers and employees not to, and will use and cause its subsidiaries to use their reasonable best efforts to cause their respective other representatives not to, directly or indirectly:

solicit, initiate, endorse or knowingly encourage or facilitate (including by way of furnishing non-public information) any inquiry, proposal or offer with respect to, or the making or completion of, any acquisition proposal, or any inquiry, proposal or offer that is reasonably likely to lead to any acquisition proposal;

enter into, continue or otherwise participate in any discussions or negotiations regarding, or furnish non-public information or data or afford access to the business, directors, officers, employees, properties, facilities, assets, contracts, books or records of Gibraltar or any of its subsidiaries in connection with any acquisition proposal;

approve or recommend any acquisition proposal; or approve or recommend, or propose publicly to approve or recommend, or execute or enter into any letter of intent, memorandum of understanding, agreement in principle, acquisition agreement, merger agreement, option agreement, joint venture agreement, partnership agreement or other agreement constituting or related to, or which is intended to or is reasonably likely to result in, any acquisition proposal.

However, if prior to the adoption and approval of the merger proposal by Gibraltar's stockholders, Gibraltar receives an unsolicited written acquisition proposal that Gibraltar's board of directors believes in good faith to be bona fide and that did not result from a breach of the provisions of the merger agreement described above, (2) Gibraltar's board of directors determines in good faith (after consultation with outside counsel and its financial advisor) that such acquisition proposal constitutes or is reasonably likely to lead to a superior proposal, and (3) Gibraltar's board of directors determines in good faith (after consultation with outside counsel) that the failure to take the actions described below would be reasonably likely to violate its fiduciary duties under applicable law, then Gibraltar may and may authorize its subsidiaries and its and their representatives to:

furnish non-public information to such person to the person making such acquisition proposal pursuant to a confidentiality agreement containing terms substantially similar to, and no less favorable to Gibraltar than, those set forth in the confidentiality agreement between it and IBERIABANK Corporation, provided that Gibraltar must concurrently provide IBERIABANK Corporation any non-public information concerning Gibraltar or its subsidiaries that is provided to any person and that was not previously provided to IBERIABANK Corporation; and participate in discussions or negotiations with the person making such acquisition proposal and such person's representatives regarding such acquisition proposal.

Pursuant to the merger agreement, a superior proposal means an unsolicited bona fide written acquisition proposal that the Gibraltar board of directors determines in good faith (after consultation with outside counsel and its financial advisor), taking into account all legal, financial, regulatory and other aspects of the proposal and the person (or group of persons) making the proposal (including any break-up fees, expense reimbursement provisions and conditions to consummation), (A) if consummated would be more favorable to the stockholders of Gibraltar from a financial point of view than transactions contemplated by the merger agreement (including taking into account any adjustment to the terms and conditions proposed by IBERIABANK Corporation in response to such proposal), (B) is not subject to any financing or other material contingency (other than the receipt of necessary regulatory approvals) and (C) if accepted, is reasonably likely to be completed on the terms proposed on a timely basis.

Change in Board Recommendation

Except as expressly permitted by the merger agreement, neither the Gibraltar board of directors (nor any committee thereof) may:

withhold or withdrawn (or modify or qualify in any manner adverse to IBERIABANK Corporation) the recommendation of the Gibraltar board of directors that Gibraltar's stockholders adopt and approve the merger proposal (referred to as the board recommendation), or publicly propose to do any of the foregoing; fail to include the board recommendation in this proxy statement/prospectus; or adopt, approve, recommend, endorse or otherwise declare advisable the adoption of any acquisition proposal.

Table of Contents

The actions described in the bullet points above are referred to in this proxy statement/prospectus as an adverse recommendation change.

However, before Gibraltar's stockholders adopt and approve the merger proposal at the special meeting, Gibraltar's board of directors may make an adverse recommendation change provided that:

Gibraltar gives IBERIABANK Corporation at least ten business days' prior written notice of its intention to make an adverse recommendation change and specifies in reasonable detail the basis giving rise to its determination to take such action (including, in the event such action is taken by Gibraltar's board of directors in response to a superior proposal, the latest material terms and conditions of (including a copy of the most recent proposed acquisition agreement, if any), and the identity of the third party making, any such superior proposal, or describe in reasonable detail such other event or circumstances);

After providing such notice and prior to making an adverse recommendation change, during the ten business day period referred to above, if requested by IBERIABANK Corporation, Gibraltar and its representatives must engage in good faith negotiations with IBERIABANK Corporation and its representatives to enable IBERIABANK Corporation to revise the terms of the merger agreement in such a manner that (1) in the case of a superior proposal, it would cause such proposal to no longer constitute a superior proposal or (2) in any other event, it would not reasonably be likely to violate the fiduciary duties of Gibraltar's board of directors to continue to recommend the merger proposal as the merger agreement is so amended or modified (provided that in no event shall Gibraltar be obligated to enter into any such amendment or modification of the merger agreement); and at the end of such ten business day period, Gibraltar's board of directors, after consultation with its outside counsel and its independent financial advisor, again determines in good faith that (1) in the case of a superior proposal, it continues to constitute a superior proposal and (2) in any event, it would reasonably be likely to violate the fiduciary duties of the Gibraltar board of directors under applicable law to continue to recommend the merger proposal.

Any amendment to the financial terms or any other material change to the terms of a superior proposal will require Gibraltar to deliver a new notice of adverse recommendation change and to comply with the requirements in the bullets above, provided that the subsequent notice period will only be five business days instead of ten business days.

Stockholder Meeting

Gibraltar has agreed to hold a meeting of its stockholders for the purpose of voting upon the adoption and approval of the merger proposal as promptly as reasonably practicable. Gibraltar's board of directors has agreed to take all action necessary to obtain from its stockholders the vote required to adopt and approve the merger proposal, including by recommending to its stockholders (and including such recommendation in this proxy statement/prospectus) that they adopt and approve the merger proposal. Gibraltar must adjourn or postpone such meeting if there are insufficient shares of Gibraltar common stock represented (either in person or by proxy) to constitute a quorum necessary to conduct the business of such meeting, or if on the date of such meeting Gibraltar has not received proxies representing a sufficient number of shares necessary for adoption and approval of the merger proposal, and subject to the terms and conditions of the merger agreement, Gibraltar is required to continue to use all reasonable best efforts to solicit proxies from stockholders in favor of the vote required to adopt and approve the merger proposal.

However, if Gibraltar's board of directors has made an adverse recommendation change as permitted by the merger agreement as described above, then Gibraltar may (but shall not be required to) submit the merger proposal to its stockholders without recommendation (although the resolutions approving and adopting the merger proposal may not be rescinded or amended) and may communicate the basis for its lack of a recommendation to its stockholders in this proxy statement/prospectus or a supplemental amendment hereto to the extent required by law. Notwithstanding any adverse change of recommendation, unless the merger agreement has been terminated in accordance with its terms, Gibraltar is required to call a meeting of its stockholders and to submit the merger proposal to a vote of such stockholders.

Certain Additional Covenants

The merger agreement also contains additional covenants, including, among others, covenants relating to the filing of this proxy statement/prospectus, obtaining required consents, the listing of the shares of IBERIABANK common stock to be issued in the merger, access to information, public announcements with respect to the transaction contemplated by the merger, and advise of changes, litigation and claims.

Table of Contents

Conditions to Complete the Merger

The respective obligations of IBERIABANK Corporation, IBERIABANK and Gibraltar to complete the merger are subject to various conditions. The conditions include the following:

Gibraltar stockholders must have approved and adopted the merger proposal by the requisite vote in accordance with the merger agreement and applicable law;

holders of not more than 10% of the Gibraltar common stock shall have exercised their statutory dissenters rights;

all requisite regulatory approvals and consents must have been obtained (i) on terms and conditions that would not impose any burdensome condition and (ii) without any governmental entity with jurisdiction over IBERIABANK Corporation or its subsidiaries to have advised any of them of its determination to impose a restriction or requirement in the future, in connection with or as a result of the transactions, which upon compliance therewith would constitute a burdensome condition, and all waiting periods required by law must have expired;

the absence of any order by a court, or similar action by a regulatory authority or other governmental entity that enjoins or prohibits the transactions;

the registration statement covering the IBERIABANK Corporation shares to be issued pursuant to the merger agreement, of which this proxy statement/prospectus is a part, shall have become effective under the Securities Act of 1933 and no stop order for the registration statement shall have been issued and no proceedings for that purpose shall have been initiated by the SEC;

the shares of IBERIABANK Corporation common stock to be issued in the merger must be approved for listing on NASDAQ, subject to official notice of issuance;

the accuracy of the representations and warranties of the other party contained in the merger agreement as of the date on which the merger agreement was entered into and as of the date on which the merger is completed (except to the extent such representations and warranties speak as of an earlier date), subject to materiality standards provided in the merger agreement (and the receipt by each party of an officer's certificate from the other party to such effect);

the performance by the other party in all material respects of all obligations required to be performed by it under the merger agreement at or prior to the date on which the merger is completed (and the receipt by each party of an officer's certificate from the other party to such effect); and the receipt by such party of an opinion of legal counsel to the effect that, on the basis of facts, representations and assumptions set forth or referred to in such opinion, the merger will be treated as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code for United States federal income tax purposes.

The parties may waive conditions to their obligations unless they are legally prohibited from doing so. Stockholder approval and regulatory approvals may not be legally waived. Neither IBERIABANK Corporation, IBERIABANK nor Gibraltar can provide assurance as to when or if all of the conditions to the merger can or will be satisfied or waived by the appropriate party. As of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, neither party has reason to believe that any of these conditions will not be satisfied.

Termination

The merger agreement may be terminated at any time prior to the closing, before or after the adoption and approval of the merger proposal by Gibraltar stockholders, for various reasons, including the following:

by the mutual written consent of Gibraltar and IBERIABANK Corporation;

by either IBERIABANK Corporation or Gibraltar, if the merger shall not have been completed on or before October 19, 2018 (which we refer to as the outside date), unless the failure of the merger to be completed by that date is due to the failure of the party seeking to terminate the merger agreement to comply with any provision of the merger agreement;

by either IBERIABANK Corporation or Gibraltar, if any court of competent jurisdiction or other governmental entity shall have issued a judgment, order, injunction, rule or decree, or taken any other action restraining, enjoining or otherwise prohibiting any of the transactions and such judgment, order, injunction, rule, decree or other action shall have become final and nonappealable;

by IBERIABANK Corporation or Gibraltar, if the stockholder adoption and approval of the merger proposal is not obtained at the Gibraltar stockholders' meeting, or at any adjournment or postponement thereof, at which a vote on the adoption and approval of the merger proposal was taken;

by IBERIABANK Corporation or Gibraltar, if any governmental entity that must grant a required regulatory approval has denied approval of the consummation of the transactions by final, nonappealable action of such governmental entity;

by IBERIABANK Corporation or Gibraltar, if the other party shall have breached or failed to perform any of its representations, warranties, covenants or other agreements contained in the merger agreement, which breach or failure to perform, either individually or in the aggregate, (A) would result in the failure of any of the conditions to close and (B) cannot be or has not been cured or has not been waived by the earlier of (1) October 19, 2018 and (2) thirty days after the giving of written notice to the other party of such breach or failure;

by IBERIABANK Corporation, if Gibraltar or its board of directors (or any committee thereof) has (A) effected any adverse recommendation change, (B) failed to recommend the merger and the adoption and approval of the merger proposal by the stockholders of Gibraltar, (C) materially breached its obligations not to solicit any other acquisition proposals in any respect adverse to IBERIABANK Corporation or (D) materially breached its obligations under the merger agreement to call, give notice of, convene and hold a special meeting of Gibraltar stockholders to adopt and approve the merger proposal;

by IBERIABANK Corporation, if a tender offer or exchange offer for 20% or more of the outstanding shares of Gibraltar common stock is commenced (other than by IBERIABANK Corporation or its subsidiaries), and Gibraltar's board of directors recommends that the stockholders of Gibraltar tender their shares in such tender or exchange offer or otherwise fails to recommend that such stockholders reject such tender offer or exchange offer within ten business days;

by IBERIABANK Corporation, if any action has been taken or any law has been enacted, entered, enforced or deemed applicable to the transactions, by any governmental entity, in connection with the grant of a requisite regulatory approval or otherwise, which imposes any burdensome condition, or if any governmental entity with jurisdiction over IBERIABANK Corporation or its subsidiaries have advised any of them of its determination to impose a restriction or requirement in the future, in connection with or as a result of the transactions, which upon compliance therewith would constitute a burdensome condition, in either case notwithstanding IBERIABANK Corporation's compliance with the terms of the merger agreement to use commercially reasonable efforts to conduct its business in the usual, regular and ordinary course of business consistent with past practice, and so long as the time periods for appeals and request for reconsideration has run;

by IBERIABANK Corporation or Gibraltar, if the other party has experienced, or is reasonably likely to experience, a material adverse effect, which is not remedied or cured within thirty days after notice of intention to terminate is given by the terminating party, which notice shall specify the nature of the matter or matters constituting such material adverse effect and which are the basis of such intention; or by IBERIABANK Corporation, if the measurement price is below $61.88 on the trading day immediately prior to the closing date.

Effect of Termination

If the merger agreement is terminated, it will become void and have no effect and the parties will be relieved of all obligations and liabilities, except that (1) each party will remain liable for any liabilities or damages out of its intentional breach of any provision of the merger agreement and (2) designated provisions of the merger agreement will survive the termination, including those relating to payment of the termination fee and the confidential treatment of information. For purposes of the merger agreement, an intentional breach means a material breach that is a consequence of an act undertaken by the breaching party with the knowledge (actual or constructive) that the taking of such act would, or would reasonably be expected to, cause a breach of the merger agreement.

Termination Fee

Gibraltar will pay to IBERIABANK Corporation a termination fee of $9.2 million (referred to as the termination fee) if the merger agreement is terminated in the following circumstances:

In the event that prior to the termination of the merger agreement, an acquisition proposal (whether or not conditional) or intention to make an acquisition proposal (whether or not conditional) shall have been made directly to Gibraltar's stockholders or otherwise publicly disclosed or otherwise communicated or made known to senior management of Gibraltar or its board of directors and (A) either (1) thereafter the merger agreement is terminated by either party because the merger has not been completed prior to the outside date, (2) thereafter the merger agreement is terminated by either party because the special meeting to adopt and approve the merger proposal (including any postponements or adjournments thereof) concludes without obtaining the required Gibraltar stockholder vote to adopt and approve the merger proposal or (3) thereafter the merger agreement is terminated by IBERIABANK Corporation as a result of a breach of the merger agreement by Gibraltar that would constitute the failure of a closing condition and that has not been cured during the permitted time period, or by its nature cannot be cured during such period, and (B) prior to the date that is fifteen months after the date of such termination, Gibraltar enters into a definitive agreement or consummates a transaction with respect to an acquisition proposal (whether or not the same acquisition proposal as referred to above), then Gibraltar will, on the earlier of the date it enters into such definitive agreement and the date of consummation of such transaction, pay IBERIABANK Corporation, by wire transfer of same day funds, the termination fee (provided that for purposes of the foregoing, all references in the definition of acquisition proposal to 20% will instead refer to 50%).

In the event that the merger agreement is terminated by IBERIABANK Corporation because Gibraltar or its board of directors (or any committee thereof) has (A) effected any adverse recommendation change, (B) failed to recommend the merger and the adoption and approval of the merger proposal by the stockholders of Gibraltar, (C) materially breached its obligations not to solicit any other acquisition proposals in any respect adverse to IBERIABANK Corporation or (D) materially breached its obligations under the merger agreement to call, give notice of, convene and hold a special meeting of Gibraltar stockholders to adopt and approve the merger proposal.

In the event that the merger agreement is terminated by IBERIABANK Corporation because a tender offer or exchange offer for 20% or more of the outstanding shares of Gibraltar common stock is commenced (other than by IBERIABANK Corporation or its subsidiaries), and Gibraltar's board of directors recommends that the stockholders of Gibraltar tender their shares in such tender or exchange offer or otherwise fails to recommend that such stockholders reject such tender offer or exchange offer within ten business days.

Amendment, Waiver and Extension of the Merger Agreement

The merger agreement may be amended or modified at any time, before or after the adoption and approval of the merger proposal by the stockholders of Gibraltar, by mutual agreement, except that after the adoption and approval of the merger proposal by Gibraltar's stockholders, there may not be, without further adoption and approval of such stockholders, any amendment or modification of the merger agreement or any portion thereof that requires further adoption and approval under applicable law.

At any time prior to the effective time of the merger, the parties may, by action taken or authorized by their respective board of directors, to the legally allowed, (a) extend the time for the performance of any of the obligations or acts of the other parties, (b) waive any inaccuracies in the representations and warranties of the other parties set forth in the merger agreement or any document delivered pursuant to the merger agreement or (c) subject to applicable law, waive compliance with any of the agreements or conditions of the other parties contained in the merger agreement. Under federal law, the stockholders of Gibraltar must approve any amendment to the merger agreement except as expressly authorized by such stockholders in connection with approval of the merger.

Fees and Expenses

IBERIABANK Corporation, IBERIABANK and Gibraltar will each pay their own costs and expenses in connection with the merger and the transactions contemplated thereby.

VOTE ON ADJOURNMENT OF THE SPECIAL MEETING

If, at the special meeting, the number of shares of Gibraltar common stock present or represented and voting in favor of the adoption and approval of the merger proposal is insufficient to constitute a quorum or to adopt and approve the merger proposal, Gibraltar intends to move to adjourn the special meeting in order to solicit additional proxies for the adoption and approval of the merger proposal.

In order to allow proxies that have been received by Gibraltar at the time of the special meeting to be voted for an adjournment, Gibraltar has submitted to its holders of common stock for their consideration the question of adjournment if necessary or appropriate to solicit additional proxies to adopt and approve the merger proposal.

If it is necessary to adjourn the special meeting, no notice of the adjourned special meeting is required to be given to stockholders, other than an announcement at the special meeting of the hour, date and place to which the special meeting is adjourned.

The board of directors unanimously recommends that holders of Gibraltar common stock vote FOR the approval of the adjournment proposal.

COMPARISON OF STOCKHOLDER RIGHTS

As a result of the proposed merger, holders of Gibraltar common stock will be exchanging their shares of a federal savings bank governed by the Home Owners Loan Act of 1933, as amended (the HOLA), applicable OCC regulations and the federal stock charter and bylaws of Gibraltar, for shares of IBERIABANK Corporation, a Louisiana corporation governed by the Louisiana Business Corporation Act (the LBCA) and IBERIABANK Corporation s articles of incorporation and bylaws. The below summary of the LBCA does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the LBCA. Certain differences exist between the rights of Gibraltar stockholders and those of IBERIABANK Corporation shareholders. The material differences are summarized below.

The following discussion is necessarily general; it is not intended to be a complete statement of all differences affecting the rights of shareholders and their respective entities, and it is qualified in its entirety by reference to the LBCA and the applicable provisions of federal law, as well as to the articles of association and bylaws of Gibraltar and the articles of incorporation and bylaws of IBERIABANK Corporation, as applicable.

IBERIABANK Corporation s articles of incorporation and bylaws contain a number of provisions relating to corporate governance and rights of shareholders that might discourage future takeover attempts. As a result, shareholders who might desire to participate in such transactions may not have an opportunity to do so. In addition, these provisions will also render the removal of the board of directors or management of IBERIABANK Corporation more difficult.

The following description is a summary of the provisions of IBERIABANK Corporation s articles of incorporation and bylaws, Gibraltar s federal stock charter and bylaws, and certain provisions of Louisiana and federal law, as applicable. IBERIABANK Corporation has previously filed copies of its articles of incorporation and bylaws with the SEC. See Where You Can Find More Information, beginning on page 79, for information regarding how to review a copy of these documents. Copies of Gibraltar s federal stock charter and bylaws are available upon request.

Authorized Capital Stock

IBERIABANK Corporation. IBERIABANK Corporation s articles of incorporation authorize the issuance of 100,000,000 shares of common stock, par value $1.00 per share. As of January 17, 2018, there were 53,869,053 shares of IBERIABANK Corporation common stock issued and outstanding and 1,542,200 shares of common stock of IBERIABANK Corporation were reserved for issuance pursuant to IBERIABANK Corporation s employee benefit and stock option plans. IBERIABANK Corporation s articles of incorporation authorize the issuance of 5,000,000 shares of preferred stock, par value $1.00 per share, of which 13,750 shares were issued and outstanding as of January 17, 2018.

Holders of IBERIABANK Corporation common stock are entitled to one vote per share for all purposes. They are entitled to such dividends, if any, as may be declared by the board of directors in compliance with the provisions of the LBCA and the regulations of the appropriate regulatory authorities and to receive the net assets of the corporation upon dissolution. Holders of IBERIABANK Corporation common stock have no preemptive or conversion rights and are not subject to further calls or assessment. There are no redemption or sinking fund provisions applicable to IBERIABANK Corporation common stock. The outstanding shares of IBERIABANK Corporation common stock are, and the shares to be issued in connection with the merger will be, when issued, fully paid and nonassessable. IBERIABANK Corporation shareholders do not have cumulative voting rights in the election of directors.

IBERIABANK Corporation s board of directors may authorize the issuance of authorized but unissued shares of IBERIABANK Corporation s common stock without shareholder approval, unless such approval is required in a particular case by applicable laws or regulations. The authorized but unissued shares of IBERIABANK Corporation common stock will be issuable from time to time for any corporate purpose, including, without limitation, stock splits, stock dividends, employee benefit and compensation plans, acquisitions, and public or private sales for cash as a means of raising capital. These shares could be used to dilute the stock ownership of persons seeking to obtain control of IBERIABANK Corporation. In addition, the sale of a substantial number of shares of IBERIABANK Corporation common stock to persons who have an understanding with IBERIABANK Corporation concerning the voting of such shares, or the distribution or declaration of a common stock dividend to IBERIABANK Corporation shareholders, may have the effect of discouraging or increasing the cost of unsolicited attempts to acquire control of IBERIABANK Corporation.

IBERIABANK Corporation also is authorized to issue preferred stock from time to time in one or more series with such designations, powers, preferences and rights as the IBERIABANK Corporation board of directors may from time to time determine. The IBERIABANK Corporation board of directors can, without shareholder approval, issue preferred stock with voting, dividend, liquidation and conversion rights that could dilute the voting strength of the common stock. The board of directors of IBERIABANK Corporation represents that it will not, without prior shareholder approval, issue any series of preferred stock for any defensive or anti- takeover purpose, for the purpose of implementing any shareholder rights plan or with features specifically intended to make any attempted acquisition of IBERIABANK Corporation more difficult or costly. Subject to these limitations, the board of directors may issue preferred stock in connection with capital raising transactions, acquisitions, and joint ventures and for other corporate purposes that may have the effect of making such an acquisition more difficult or costly, as could also be the case if the board of directors were to issue additional shares of common stock.

Gibraltar. Gibraltar's federal stock charter authorizes the issuance of 10,000,000 shares of common stock, par value $0.01 per share. As of January 8, 2018, there were 1,411,645 shares of Gibraltar common stock issued and outstanding and 51,000 shares of common stock of Gibraltar were reserved for issuance pursuant to Gibraltar's employee benefit and stock option plans. Gibraltar's articles of incorporation do not authorize the issuance of shares of preferred stock.

Holders of Gibraltar common stock are entitled to one vote per share for all purposes. They are entitled to such dividends, if any, as may be declared by the board of directors in compliance with the provisions of the HOLA and applicable OCC regulations and to receive the net assets of the corporation upon dissolution. Holders of Gibraltar common stock have no preemptive or conversion rights and are not subject to further calls or assessment. There are no redemption or sinking fund provisions applicable to Gibraltar common stock. The outstanding shares of Gibraltar common stock are fully paid and nonassessable. Gibraltar stockholders do not have cumulative voting rights in the election of directors.

Gibraltar's board of directors may authorize the issuance of authorized but unissued shares of IBERIABANK Corporation's common stock without shareholder approval, unless such approval is required in a particular case by applicable laws, rules or regulations. The authorized but unissued shares of Gibraltar common stock may be issuable from time to time for any corporate purpose, including, without limitation, stock splits, stock dividends, employee benefit and compensation plans, acquisitions, and public or private sales for cash as a means of raising capital. No shares of Gibraltar common stock (including shares issuable upon conversion, exchange, or exercise of other securities) may be issued, directly or indirectly, to officers, directors or controlling persons of Gibraltar other than as part of a general public offering or as qualifying shares to a director, unless such issuance has been approved by a majority of the total stockholder votes eligible to be cast at a meeting of Gibraltar stockholders.

Amendment of Charters and Bylaws

IBERIABANK Corporation. No amendment to the articles of incorporation of IBERIABANK Corporation will be made unless it is first approved by a majority of the board of directors and thereafter by the holders of a majority of the shares entitled to vote generally in an election of directors, voting together as a single class, as well as such additional vote of preferred stock issued and outstanding, as may be required by the provisions thereof. The affirmative vote of the holders of at least 75% of the shares entitled to vote generally in an election of directors, voting together as a single class, as well as such additional vote of preferred stock issued and outstanding, as may be required by the provisions thereof, is required to amend charter provisions relating to the number, nomination, election and removal of directors; preemptive rights; personal liability, indemnification, advancement of expenses and other rights of officers, directors, employees and agents; meetings of shareholders and shareholder proposals; and amendment of the articles and bylaws.

The articles of incorporation of IBERIABANK Corporation provide that the board of directors or shareholders may amend the bylaws. Action by the board requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors then in office. Action by the shareholders requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares entitled to vote generally in the election of directors, as well as additional vote of preferred stock issued and outstanding; provided that the affirmative vote of 75% of the shares is required to amend bylaws relating to meetings of the board of directors.

Gibraltar. No amendment to the federal stock charter of Gibraltar will be made unless it is first proposed the Gibraltar board of directors, preliminarily approved by the OCC, and thereafter approved by the stockholders of Gibraltar common stock by a majority of the total votes eligible to be cast at a meeting of Gibraltar stockholders. An application to the OCC would be required to amend the charter of Gibraltar in a manner that would render more difficult or discourage a merger, tender offer, proxy contest, the assumption of control of Gibraltar, or the removal of incumbent management, or if the proposed amendment involves a significant issue of law or policy. In other instances, Gibraltar must notify the OCC of a proposed charter amendment at least 30 days before the proposed amendment is to be mailed for consideration by Gibraltar's stockholders.

The affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of the total voters eligible to vote at a legal meeting of Gibraltar's stockholders, unless a higher vote is otherwise required, is required to amend Gibraltar's charter.

Bylaw amendments must be approved by either a majority vote of the board of directors or a majority of the votes cast by Gibraltar stockholders at a duly called meeting of Gibraltar stockholders. An application to the OCC would be required to amend the bylaws of Gibraltar in a manner that would render more difficult or discourage a merger, tender offer, proxy contest, the assumption of control of Gibraltar, or the removal of incumbent management, or if the proposed amendment involves a significant issue of law or policy. In other instances, Gibraltar must notify the OCC of a proposed amendment to the bylaws at least 30 days before the effective date of the proposed amendment.

Directors and Absence of Cumulative Voting

IBERIABANK Corporation. IBERIABANK Corporation's articles of incorporation provide that the number of directors shall be as specified in the bylaws. Currently, the bylaws specify 11 members. The directors do not need to be shareholders of IBERIABANK Corporation.

The board of directors is divided into three classes. The members of each class will be elected for a term of three years and only one class of directors will be elected annually. Thus, it would take at least two annual elections to replace a majority of IBERIABANK Corporation's board of directors. Further, the bylaws impose notice and information requirements in connection with the nomination by shareholders of candidates for election to the board of directors or the proposal by shareholders of business to be acted upon at an annual meeting of shareholders.

There is no cumulative voting on directors. With cumulative voting, a shareholder has the right to cast a number of votes equal to the total number of such holder's shares multiplied by the number of directors to be elected. The shareholder has the right to cast all of such holder's votes in favor of one candidate or to distribute such holder's votes in any manner among any number of candidates. Directors are elected by a plurality of the total votes cast by all shareholders. With cumulative voting, it may be possible for minority shareholders to obtain representation on the board of directors. Without cumulative voting, the holders of more than 50% of the shares of IBERIABANK Corporation common stock generally have the ability to elect 100% of the directors. As a result, the holders of the remaining common stock effectively may not be able to elect any person to the board of directors. The absence of cumulative voting, therefore, could make it more difficult for a shareholder who acquires less than a majority of the shares of common stock to obtain representation on IBERIABANK Corporation's board of directors.

The provisions regarding election of IBERIABANK Corporation's directors are designed to protect the ability of the board of directors to negotiate with the proponent of an unfriendly or unsolicited proposal to take over or restructure the company by making it more difficult and time-consuming to change majority control of the board, even if holders of a majority of the capital stock believe that a change in the composition of the board is desirable. These requirements are intended to help ensure continuity and stability of management and policies and facilitate long-range planning.

The bylaws of IBERIABANK Corporation provide generally that vacancies on the board of directors (including any vacancy resulting from an increase in the authorized number of directors, or from the failure of the shareholders to elect the full number of authorized directors) may be filled by the affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining directors for an unexpired term; provided that the shareholders will have the right at any special meeting called for that purpose prior to an action by the board of directors to fill the vacancy.

Gibraltar. Gibraltar's charter provides that the number of directors shall be as specified in the bylaws, but shall not be fewer than five nor more than fifteen. Currently, the bylaws specify 10 members. The directors do not need to be stockholders of Gibraltar.

A director elected to fill a board vacancy shall serve until the next election of directors by the stockholders.

Removal of Directors

IBERIABANK Corporation. IBERIABANK Corporation's articles of incorporation and bylaws provide that any director may be removed, with or without cause, only by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of IBERIABANK Corporation entitled to vote.

Gibraltar. Gibraltar's bylaws provide that any director may be removed for cause at a meeting of stockholders called expressly for that purpose, by a vote of the holders of a majority of the shares then entitled to vote at an election of directors. If less than the entire board is to be removed, no one of the directors may be removed if the votes cast against the removal of such director would be sufficient to elect a director if then cumulatively voted at an election of the class of directors of which such director is a part.

Limitations on Director and Officer Liability

IBERIABANK Corporation. IBERIABANK Corporation's articles of incorporation provide that a director or officer of the company will not be personally liable for monetary damages for any action taken, or any failure to take any action, as a director or officer except to the extent that by law a director's or officer's liability for monetary damages may not be limited. This provision does not eliminate or limit the liability of the company's directors and officers for (a) any breach of the director's or officer's duty of loyalty to the company or its shareholders, (b) an intentional infliction of harm on the corporation or its shareholders, (c) a violation of Louisiana R.S. 12:1-833 (relating to unlawful distributions), or (d) an intentional violation of criminal law. This provision may preclude shareholder derivative actions and may be construed to preclude other third-party claims against the directors and officers.

Gibraltar. Gibraltar's charter and bylaws do not limit the personal liability of directors or officers for monetary damages. Under federal law, a director or officer of Gibraltar may be held personally liable for monetary damages in any civil action by, on behalf of, or at the request or direction of the FDIC acting in connection with a conservatorship or receivership of Gibraltar, for gross negligence or any similar conduct or conduct that demonstrates a greater disregard of a duty of care than gross negligence, including intentional tortious conduct.

In addition, under federal law, Gibraltar is generally prohibited from making any payment (or any agreement or arrangement to make any payment) for the benefit of any director or officer to pay or reimburse such person for any liability or legal expense with regard to any administrative proceeding or civil action instituted by any federal banking agency which results in a final order or settlement pursuant to which such person is assessed a civil money penalty, is removed from office or prohibited from participating in the conduct of the affairs of Gibraltar, or is subject to a cease and desist action with respect to Gibraltar.

Table of ContentsIndemnification

IBERIABANK Corporation. Generally, under Sections 12:1-851 through 12:1-859 of the LBCA, a corporation may indemnify a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation (or a person who is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise) against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by the person if he acted in good faith and, with respect to actions in an official capacity, in a manner he reasonably believed to be in the best interests of the corporation, or, with respect to actions in an unofficial capacity, at least not opposed to, the best interests of the corporation and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. A corporation may not indemnify a director or officer in any proceeding with respect to conduct for which the director or officer was adjudged liable on the basis of receiving a financial benefit to which he or she was not entitled, whether or not involving action in the director's or officer's official capacity.

In the case of an action brought by or in the right of a corporation, the LBCA permits a corporation to indemnify a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation (or a person who is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise) against expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred by him in a proceeding if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the corporation. The LBCA bars indemnification of directors and officers for settlement payments in a derivative suit, absent court approval.

The indemnification provisions of the LBCA require indemnification of any present or former director or officer of a corporation for expenses incurred in connection with the proceeding if such person was wholly successful, on the merits or otherwise, in defense of any action, suit or proceeding, that he was a party to by virtue of the fact that he is or was a director or officer of the corporation. This limitation does not limit IBERIABANK Corporation's right to permissibly indemnify a director or officer with respect to expenses of a partially successful defense of any claim, issue or matter.

The articles of incorporation of IBERIABANK Corporation provide that IBERIABANK Corporation shall indemnify to the fullest extent permitted by law, any person who is or was a director or officer of IBERIABANK Corporation, who was or is made a party to, or is threatened to be made a party to, any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, including in actions or suits by or in the right of IBERIABANK Corporation, by reason of such service or the fact that such person is or was serving as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation or organization at the request of IBERIABANK Corporation against costs, charges, expenses, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by such person. This indemnification is conditioned upon the director or officer having acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interest of IBERIABANK Corporation and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, having no reasonable cause to believe that his or her conduct was unlawful. Advancement of expenses is conditioned upon a director or officer undertaking to repay such expenses if it is ultimately determined that such person was not entitled to indemnification. In addition, the LBCA requires that an advance of litigation expenses be made to a director or officer only upon a written affirmation of his good faith belief that he has met the relevant standard of conduct or that the proceeding involves only duty of care claims from which he has been exculpated.

The rights of indemnification provided in the articles of incorporation are not exclusive of any other rights which may be available under the bylaws, any insurance or other agreement, by vote of shareholders or directors (regardless of whether directors authorizing such indemnification are beneficiaries thereof) or otherwise. In addition, the articles of incorporation authorize the company to maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the company, whether or not the company would have the power to provide indemnification to such person. IBERIABANK Corporation maintains directors and officers insurance consistent with the provisions of the articles of incorporation. By action of the board of directors, the company may create and fund a trust fund or other fund or form of self-insurance arrangement of any nature, and may enter into agreements with its officers, directors, employees and agents for the purpose of securing or insuring in any manner its obligation to indemnify or advance expenses provided for in the provisions in the articles of incorporation and bylaws regarding indemnification. These provisions are designed to reduce, in appropriate cases, the risks incident to serving as a director, officer, employee or agent and to enable the company to attract and retain the best personnel available.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to IBERIABANK Corporation's directors, officers, and controlling persons pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, IBERIABANK

Corporation has been advised that, in the opinion of the SEC, such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person in a successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, IBERIABANK Corporation will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to the court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

Gibraltar. The charter and bylaws of Gibraltar do not expressly provide for indemnification of Gibraltar directors and officers. Under federal law, Gibraltar may make or agree to make reasonable indemnification payments to a director or officer with respect to an administrative proceeding or civil action initiated by a federal banking agency only if Gibraltar's board of directors, in good faith, determines in writing after due investigation and consideration that the director or officer acted in good faith and in a manner he/she believed to be in the best interests of Gibraltar and that the payment of such expenses will not materially adversely affect Gibraltar's safety and soundness; the indemnification payments are not otherwise prohibited under federal law; and the director or officer agrees in writing to reimburse Gibraltar for any portion of the indemnification payments which subsequently become prohibited under federal law. A director or officer requesting indemnification payments from Gibraltar in connection with an administrative proceeding or civil action initiated by a federal banking agency may not participate in any way in the board's discussion and approval of such payments, except that such director or officer may present his or her request to the board and respond to any inquiries from the board concerning his or her involvement in the circumstances giving rise to the administrative proceeding or civil action. In the event that a majority of the members of the board of directors are named as respondents in an administrative proceeding or civil action and request indemnification, the remaining members of the board may authorize independent legal counsel to review the indemnification request.

For actions not initiated by a Federal banking agency, Gibraltar is required to indemnify any person against whom an action is brought or threatened because that person is or was a director, officer, or employee of Gibraltar for any amount for which that person becomes liable under a judgment in such action and reasonable costs and expenses, including reasonable attorney's fees. For a director or officer of Gibraltar to be entitled to such indemnification, final judgment on the merits of the action must be in his or her favor, or otherwise a majority of the disinterested directors of Gibraltar must determine that he or she was acting in good faith within the scope of his or her employment or authority as he or she could reasonably have perceived it under the circumstances and for a purpose he or she could reasonably have believed under the circumstances was in the best interests of Gibraltar or its stockholders. In addition, Gibraltar must give the OCC at least 60 days' notice of its intention to make such indemnification.

If a majority of the directors of Gibraltar concludes that a person ultimately may become entitled to indemnification under applicable federal law, the directors may authorize payment of reasonable costs and expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees, arising from the defense or settlement of such action. Before making advance payment of expenses, Gibraltar must obtain an agreement that Gibraltar will be repaid if the person on whose behalf payment is made is later determined not to be entitled to such indemnification.

Federal law authorizes Gibraltar to obtain insurance to protect it and its directors, officers, and employees from potential losses arising from claims against any of them for alleged wrongful acts, or wrongful acts, committed in their capacity as directors, officers, or employees. However, Gibraltar may not obtain insurance which provides for payment of losses of any person incurred as a consequence of his or her willful or criminal misconduct.

Special Meetings of Stockholders

IBERIABANK Corporation. Pursuant to the articles of incorporation, except as otherwise required by law and subject to the rights of the holders of any class or series of preferred stock, special meetings of the shareholders may be called only by the board of directors, chairman of the board, president or holders of at least 50% of the shares entitled to vote. The LBCA provides that a Louisiana corporation shall hold a special shareholder meeting if shareholders holding at least 10% of all votes entitled to be cast on an issue deliver an appropriate written demand.

Gibraltar. Under the bylaws, special meetings of the stockholders for any purpose or purposes, unless otherwise prescribed by OCC regulations, may be called at any time by the Chairman of the Board, the President or a majority of the board of directors. In addition, a special meeting of the stockholders must be called by the Chairman of the Board, the President or the Secretary upon the written request of the holders of not less than one-tenth of all the outstanding capital stock of Gibraltar entitled to vote at the meeting. Such written request must state the purpose or purposes of the meeting and must be delivered to the home office of Gibraltar addressed to the Chairman of the Board, the President, or the Secretary.

Consent of Stockholders

IBERIABANK Corporation. Under the LBCA and the articles of incorporation, the consent in writing of shareholders to authorize corporate action, signed by all of the shareholders having voting power on the particular question, is sufficient for the purpose, without necessity for a meeting of shareholders.

Gibraltar. Under the bylaws, the consent in writing of stockholders to authorize corporate action, signed by all of the stockholders having voting power on the particular question, is sufficient for the purpose, without necessity for a meeting of stockholders.

Stockholder Nominations

IBERIABANK Corporation. IBERIABANK Corporation's articles of incorporation establish advance notice requirements for shareholder proposals and the nomination (other than by or at the direction of IBERIABANK Corporation's board of directors or one of its committees) of candidates for election as directors. A shareholder of IBERIABANK Corporation wishing to nominate a person as a candidate for election to the board of directors must submit the nomination in writing at least sixty days before the one year anniversary of the most recent annual meeting of shareholders, together with (a) as to each person the shareholder proposes to nominate, and as to the shareholder submitting the notice, (i) their names, ages, business and residence addresses, (ii) principal occupation or employment, (iii) stockholdings, and (iv) other information required by SEC proxy rules; and (b) to the extent known, (i) the name and address of other shareholders supporting the nominee(s), and (ii) their stockholdings. Nominations that are not made in accordance with the foregoing provisions may be ruled out of order. In addition, a shareholder intending to make a proposal for consideration at a regularly scheduled annual meeting that is not intended to be included in the proxy statement for the meeting must notify IBERIABANK Corporation in writing at least sixty days before the one year anniversary of the most recent annual meeting of the shareholder's intention. The notice must contain: (a) a brief description of the proposal and the reasons for conducting such business at the annual meeting, (b) the name, address and stockholdings of the shareholder submitting the proposal and other shareholders supporting the proposal, and (c) any financial interest of the shareholder in the proposal.

In accordance with SEC Rule 14a-8 under the Exchange Act, shareholder proposals intended to be included in the proxy statement and presented at a regularly scheduled annual meeting must be received by IBERIABANK Corporation at least one hundred and twenty days before the anniversary of the date that previous year's proxy statement was first mailed to shareholders. As provided in SEC rules, if the annual meeting date has been changed by more than thirty days from the date of the prior year's meeting, or for special meetings, the proposal must be submitted within a reasonable time before IBERIABANK Corporation begins to mail its proxy materials.

The procedures regarding shareholder nominations provide IBERIABANK Corporation's board of directors with sufficient time and information to evaluate a shareholder nominee to the board and other relevant information, such as existing shareholder support for the nominee. The procedures, however, provide incumbent directors advance notice of a dissident slate of nominees for directors, and make it easier for the board to solicit proxies resisting shareholder nominees. This may make it easier for incumbent directors to retain their status as directors, even when certain shareholders view the shareholder nominations as in the best interests of IBERIABANK Corporation or its shareholders.

Gibraltar. Gibraltar's bylaws establish advance notice requirements for stockholder proposals and the nomination (other than by or at the direction of Gibraltar's board of directors or one of its committees) of candidates for election as directors. A stockholder of Gibraltar wishing to nominate a person as a candidate for election to the board of directors must submit the nomination in writing to the Secretary of Gibraltar at least five days prior to the date of the annual meeting. However, if the nominating committee of the Gibraltar board of directors shall fail or refuse to deliver its written nominations to the Secretary of Gibraltar at least 20 days prior to the date of the annual meeting, nominations for directors may be made at the annual meeting by any stockholder entitled to vote and shall be voted upon.

In addition, any stockholder may make any other proposal at a regularly scheduled annual meeting, but unless the stockholder proposal is stated in writing and filed with the Secretary of Gibraltar at least five days before the annual meeting, such proposal shall be tabled for action at an adjourned, special, or annual meeting of the stockholders taking place 30 days or more thereafter.

Table of ContentsAction on Plan of Merger or Share Exchange

IBERIABANK Corporation. The LBCA provides that a plan of merger or share exchange must be approved by the board of directors and submitted to the shareholders for their approval. Unless the articles of incorporation or the board requires a greater vote, the plan of merger or share exchange must be approved by at least a majority of the votes entitled to be cast on the plan, and, if any class or series of shares is entitled to vote as a separate group, the approval of each such separate voting group by at least a majority of the votes entitled to be cast on the matter by that group. The articles of incorporation of IBERIABANK Corporation do not require a greater vote.

Gibraltar. Under OCC regulations, Gibraltar's charter and its bylaws, a plan of merger or share exchange must be approved by the board of directors and submitted to the stockholders for their approval. Unless a greater vote is required, the plan of merger or share exchange must be approved by at least a majority of the votes entitled to be cast on the plan, and, if any class or series of shares is entitled to vote as a separate group, the approval of each such separate voting group by at least a majority of the votes entitled to be cast on the matter by that group. Pursuant to OCC regulations, a merger of Gibraltar into a state bank such as IBERIABANK, among other state-chartered entities, must be approved by the holders of at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares of each class of its capital stock. Gibraltar stockholders who dissent from such a merger may receive in cash the value of their shares if they comply with certain requirements, as described under the caption "The Merger Dissenters' Rights of Appraisal," beginning on page 46.

Change of Control Provisions

IBERIABANK Corporation. Subject to various exceptions, the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956 (the "BHCA") and the Change in Bank Control Act, together with related regulations, require Federal Reserve Board approval prior to any person or company acquiring control of a bank holding company. Control is conclusively presumed to exist if an individual or company acquires 25% or more of any class of voting securities of a bank holding company. Control is also presumed to exist, although rebuttable, if a person or company acquires 10% or more, but less than 25%, of any class of voting securities and either:

the bank holding company has registered securities under Section 12 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "1934 Act"), or no other person owns a greater percentage of that class of voting securities immediately after the transactions.

IBERIABANK Corporation's common stock is registered with the SEC under Section 12 of the 1934 Act. Federal Reserve Board regulation establish a procedure to challenge a rebuttable presumption of control.

The LBCA repealed the control share acquisition statute under the prior Louisiana Business Corporation Law which was replaced by the LBCA, as well as that Act's air price business combination statute.

Gibraltar. The HOLA requires any savings and loan holding company, as defined in the HOLA, to obtain the approval of the Federal Reserve Board prior to the acquisition of more than 5% of Gibraltar common stock. Any person, other than a company, is required to provide prior notice to the OCC to acquire 10% or more of Gibraltar common stock under the Change in Bank Control Act. Any company holding more than 25% of Gibraltar common stock, having the power to elect a majority of Gibraltar's directors or is otherwise determined by the Federal Reserve Board to exercise a controlling influence over Gibraltar, is subject to regulation as a savings and loan holding company under the HOLA. The HOLA also prohibits non-financial commercial firms from acquiring control of Gibraltar.

Gibraltar would also be subject to such approval and notice requirements for any acquisition by Gibraltar of shares of another savings association. If Gibraltar were to acquire more than 25% of another saving association's common stock, the power to elect a majority of another saving association's directors or is otherwise determined by the Federal Reserve Board to exercise a controlling influence over another savings association, Gibraltar would be subject to regulation as a savings and loan holding company under the HOLA.

Gibraltar must provide 30 days prior notice to the OCC to establish a new subsidiary, acquire control of an existing company or conduct a new activity through an existing subsidiary. Gibraltar must also conduct any activities of the subsidiary in compliance with regulations and orders of the OCC. The OCC has the power to require Gibraltar to divest any subsidiary or terminate any activity conducted by a subsidiary that the OCC determines to pose a serious threat to the financial safety, soundness or stability of the savings association or to be otherwise inconsistent with sound banking practices.

Table of ContentsAppraisal Rights

IBERIABANK Corporation. Under the LBCA, shareholders of IBERIABANK Corporation do not have any rights of appraisal or dissent the right of appraisal or dissent so long as the shares of IBERIABANK Corporation common stock are either: (a) a covered security under Section 18(b)(1)(A) or (B) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or (b) traded in an organized market and has at least 2,000 shareholders and a market value of at least $20 million, exclusive of the value of such shares held by IBERIABANK Corporation's subsidiaries, senior executive officers, and directors and by beneficial shareholders and voting trust beneficial owners owning more than 10% of such shares.

Gibraltar. A summary of appraisal rights available to holders of Gibraltar common stock can be found under the caption "The Merger Dissenters' Rights of Appraisal," beginning on page 46.

Stockholders' Rights to Examine Books and Records

IBERIABANK Corporation. Pursuant to the LBCA, upon written notice of a demand to inspect corporate records, a person or group of persons who are and have been shareholders of record of at least 5% of the outstanding shares of any class for at least six months is entitled to inspect corporate records at any reasonable time, assuming such demand is in good faith and for any proper and reasonable purpose. If IBERIABANK Corporation refuses to permit the inspection, the shareholder may file a civil action requesting a court order to permit inspection. The court will grant the order if it finds the shareholder qualified and is requesting the records in good faith and for a proper purpose.

Gibraltar. Under Gibraltar's bylaws, a list of stockholders entitled to vote at each meeting of stockholders must be made at least 10 days before each such meeting, and kept on file at the home office of Gibraltar. The list of stockholders entitled to vote is subject to inspection by any stockholder at any time during usual business hours, for a period of 20 days prior to each stockholder meeting (or, if the record date established is less than 20 days prior, such lesser period beginning the day following the record date).

Capital Distributions

IBERIABANK Corporation. The LBCA permits distributions (which include share repurchases and dividends other than liquidating dividends) to be made by a corporation so long as (1) it can pay its debts as they become due in the ordinary course of business and (2) its total assets are not less than its total liabilities. Whether a distribution is permissible will be measured essentially at the earlier of the date of the payment (or, for payment pursuant to a promissory note, the date of the delivery of the note) or the date the shareholder ceases to be a shareholder.

Gibraltar. OCC regulations impose limitations upon all capital distributions by Gibraltar, such as cash dividends, payments to repurchase or otherwise acquire its shares, payments to stockholders of another institution in a cash-out merger and other distributions charged against capital. OCC regulations require Gibraltar to file an application for approval of a capital distribution if Gibraltar were to not be eligible for expedited treatment of its filings with the OCC; if the total amount of all Gibraltar's capital distributions, including the proposed capital distribution, for the applicable calendar year exceeds its net income for that year to date plus retained net income for the preceding two years; if Gibraltar would not be at least adequately capitalized, as determined under the OCC's Prompt Corrective Action capital requirements following the distribution; or if the proposed capital distribution would violate any applicable statute, regulation, or regulatory agreement or condition.

If Gibraltar is not required to file an application, it may still be required to give the OCC notice of a capital distribution if Gibraltar would not be well capitalized, as determined under the OCC's Prompt Corrective Action capital requirements following the distribution; or if the proposed capital distribution would reduce the amount of or retire any part of Gibraltar's common stock or retire any part of debt instruments such as notes or debentures included in capital, other than regular payments required under a debt instrument.

The application or notice, as applicable, must be filed with the OCC at least 30 days before the proposed declaration of dividend or approval of the proposed capital distribution by its board of directors.

The OCC may prohibit a proposed dividend or capital distribution that would otherwise be permitted if it determines that following the distribution, Gibraltar would be undercapitalized, significantly undercapitalized, or critically undercapitalized, as determined under the OCC's Prompt Corrective Action capital requirements; the proposed distribution would raise safety or soundness concerns; or the proposed capital distribution would violate any applicable statute, regulation or regulatory agreement or condition.

You are urged to read those documents carefully. Authorized Capitalization

As of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, IBERIABANK Corporation's authorized capital stock consists of:

100,000,000 shares of common stock, par value $1.00 per share; and

5,000,000 shares of serial preferred stock, par value $1.00 per share.

As of January 17, 2018, there were 53,869,053 shares of IBERIABANK Corporation common stock outstanding and 2,615 holders of record of IBERIABANK Corporation common stock. As of that date, 3,200,000 depositary shares, which represent fractional shares of IBERIABANK Corporation's Series B Non-Cumulative Perpetual Preferred Stock, and 2,300,000 depositary shares, which represent fractional shares of IBERIABANK Corporation's Series C Non-Cumulative Perpetual Preferred Stock, were issued and outstanding.

Upon completion of the merger, IBERIABANK Corporation would have approximately 56,656,910 shares of common stock issued and outstanding. This amount, which may vary as of the actual closing date, was calculated by adding the aggregate number of shares of IBERIABANK Corporation's common stock expected to be issued in the merger (approximately 2,787,857 using an assumed exchange ratio of 1.9749) to the 53,869,053 shares of IBERIABANK Corporation common stock issued and outstanding as of January 17, 2018.

Common Stock

Voting Rights. Holders of IBERIABANK Corporation common stock are entitled to one vote per share on all matters submitted for action by IBERIABANK Corporation's shareholders. The holders of IBERIABANK Corporation common stock do not have cumulative voting rights in the election of IBERIABANK Corporation's directors. Accordingly, the holders of more than 50% of the shares of IBERIABANK Corporation common stock can, if they choose to do so, elect all the directors of IBERIABANK Corporation. In such event, the holders of the remaining shares of common stock would not be able to elect any directors of IBERIABANK Corporation.

Dividend Rights. Holders of IBERIABANK Corporation common stock are entitled to receive ratably dividends if, as and when dividends are declared from time to time by IBERIABANK Corporation's board directors out of funds legally available for that purpose, after payment of dividends required to be paid on outstanding preferred stock, if any. In addition, the terms of the IBERIABANK Corporation's outstanding junior subordinated debt securities prohibit it from declaring or paying any dividends or distributions on outstanding capital stock, or purchasing, acquiring or making a liquidation on such stock, if IBERIABANK Corporation has elected to defer interest payments on such debt.

Liquidation Rights. Upon IBERIABANK Corporation's liquidation, dissolution or winding up, any business combination or a sale or disposition of all or substantially all of IBERIABANK Corporation's assets, holders of IBERIABANK Corporation's common stock would be entitled to receive ratably assets available for distribution to shareholders after payment of liabilities and accumulated and unpaid dividends and liquidation preferences on outstanding preferred stock, if any.

Other Matters. Holders of IBERIABANK Corporation common stock have no preemptive or conversion rights and are not subject to further calls or assessment by IBERIABANK Corporation. There are no redemption or sinking fund provisions applicable to IBERIABANK Corporation's common stock. All outstanding shares of IBERIABANK Corporation's common stock, including the shares of common stock to be issued in the merger, are fully paid and non-assessable.

Preferred Stock

Shares of IBERIABANK Corporation preferred stock may be issued with such designations, powers, preferences and rights as the IBERIABANK Corporation board of directors may from time to time determine. Subject to certain representations, the IBERIABANK Corporation board of directors can, without shareholder approval, issue preferred stock with voting, dividend, liquidation and conversion rights that could dilute the voting strength of the holders of the common stock and may assist management in impeding an unfriendly takeover or attempted change in control. The IBERIABANK Corporation board of directors has issued shares of Series B Non-Cumulative Perpetual Preferred Stock as well as Series C Non-Cumulative Perpetual Preferred Stock. Under the terms of the Series B and Series C preferred stock, IBERIABANK Corporation is prohibited from paying dividends on its common stock unless all full dividends for the latest dividend period on all outstanding shares of Series B and Series C preferred stock have been declared and paid in full or declared and a sum sufficient for the payment of those dividends has been set aside.

Section 2.2 Conversion of Bank Common Stock. At the Effective Time, by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of the Bank, Purchaser, Purchaser Bank or the holders of any shares of capital stock of the Bank, Purchaser or Purchaser Bank:

(a) Each share of Bank Common Stock, par value $0.01 per share (the Bank Common Stock), issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (other than (i) any Dissenting Bank Shares (as hereinafter defined) and (ii) any shares of Bank Common Stock to be canceled in accordance with Section 2.2(c)) shall thereupon be converted automatically into and shall thereafter represent the right to receive, subject to the other provisions of this Article II, 1.9749 of a share (the Exchange Ratio) of common stock, par value $1.00 per share, of Purchaser (the Purchaser Common Stock), and subject to payment of cash in lieu of fractional shares of Purchaser Common Stock as provided in Section 2.4.

(b) As used in this Agreement, the term Measurement Price means the arithmetic mean of the daily volume weighted average trading prices of Purchaser Common Stock on the NASDAQ Global Select Market (as calculated by Bloomberg Screen AQR using reported trading prices between the hours of 9:30 AM Eastern Time and 4:00 PM Eastern Time) on each of the ten (10) trading days ending one (1) Business Day immediately prior to the day of the Effective Time. The Exchange Ratio is subject to further adjustment as set forth below:

(i) if the Measurement Price is greater than $94.88 per share, then the Exchange Ratio shall be adjusted to equal the quotient (rounded to the nearest ten-thousandth of a share) obtained by dividing $187.3785 by the Measurement Price; or

(ii) if the Measurement Price is less than $70.13 per share, then the Exchange Ratio shall be adjusted to equal the quotient (rounded to the nearest ten-thousandth of a share) obtained by dividing $138.4997 by the Measurement Price.

(c) Each share of Bank Common Stock owned or held by Bank or Purchaser or any of their respective wholly owned Subsidiaries at the Effective Time (other than shares held in trust accounts or otherwise held in a bona fide fiduciary or agency capacity that are beneficially owned by third parties other than the Bank or Purchaser and shares held, directly or indirectly, by Bank or Purchaser or any of their respective Subsidiaries and acquired upon exercise of rights in respect of debt arrangements previously made in good faith) shall automatically be canceled and retired and shall cease to exist, and no consideration shall be delivered in exchange therefor.

(d) If at any time during the period between the date of this Agreement and the Effective Time, any change in the outstanding shares of capital stock of Purchaser shall occur (or for which the relevant record date will occur) as a result of any reclassification, recapitalization, stock split (including a reverse stock split) or subdivision or combination, exchange or readjustment of shares, or any stock dividend or stock distribution with a record date during such period, the Exchange Ratio shall be equitably and proportionately adjusted, if necessary and without duplication, to reflect such change.

Section 2.3 Exchange and Payment for Bank Common Stock.

(a) At or promptly after the Effective Time, Purchaser shall deposit (or cause to be deposited) with an exchange agent designated by Purchaser and reasonably acceptable to the Bank (the Exchange Agent) evidence of shares in book-entry form (or stock certificates (a Certificate) at Purchaser's option) representing the aggregate number of shares of Purchaser Common Stock into which shares of Bank Common Stock have been converted in accordance with Section 2.2, plus cash in lieu of fractional shares in accordance with Section 2.4. All shares of Purchaser Common Stock deposited with the Exchange Agent pursuant to this Section 2.3(a) shall hereinafter be referred to as the Exchange Fund . The Exchange Fund shall not be used for any purpose other than to fund payments due pursuant to Sections 2.2, 2.4 or 2.5, except as provided in this Agreement.

(b) As soon as reasonably practicable after the Effective Time (and in any event within five (5) Business Days thereafter), Purchaser shall cause the Exchange Agent to mail or deliver to each holder of record of (i) an outstanding Certificate or outstanding Certificates that immediately prior to the Effective Time represented outstanding shares of Bank Common Stock (Bank Certificates) or (ii) uncertificated shares of Bank Common Stock represented by book-entry (Book-Entry Bank Shares) which, in each case, were converted into the right to receive the Purchaser Common Stock with respect thereto pursuant to Section 2.2, (A) a letter of transmittal in customary form (which shall specify that delivery shall be effected, and risk of loss and title to the Bank Certificates or Book-Entry Bank Shares held by such Person shall pass, only upon proper delivery of the Bank Certificates to the Exchange Agent or, in the case of Book-Entry Bank Shares, upon adherence to the procedures set forth in the letter of transmittal, and shall contain such other provisions as Purchaser or the Exchange Agent may reasonably specify) and (B) instructions for use in effecting the surrender of Bank Certificates or Book-Entry Bank Shares in exchange for the Purchaser Common Stock payable with respect thereto pursuant to Section 2.2. Upon surrender of a Bank Certificate or Book-Entry Bank Share to the Exchange Agent, together with such letter of transmittal, duly completed and validly executed in accordance with the instructions thereto, and such other documents as the Exchange Agent may reasonably require, the holder of such Bank Certificate or Book-Entry Bank Share shall be entitled to receive in exchange therefor the Purchaser Common Stock for each share of Bank Common Stock formerly represented by such Bank Certificate or Book-Entry Bank Share (subject to deduction for any required withholding Tax), and such Bank Certificate or Book-Entry Bank Share shall forthwith be canceled. In the event that any Purchaser Common Stock is to be paid to a Person other than the Person in whose name any Bank Certificate is registered, it shall be a condition of payment that the Bank Certificate so surrendered shall be properly endorsed (or accompanied by an appropriate instrument of transfer) and otherwise in proper form for transfer, that the signatures on such Bank Certificate or any related stock power shall be properly guaranteed and that the Person requesting such payment shall pay any transfer or other Taxes required by reason of such payment to a Person other than the registered holder of such Bank Certificate or establish to the satisfaction of Purchaser and the Exchange Agent that such Taxes have been paid or are not applicable. Until surrendered as contemplated by this Section 2.3, each Bank Certificate or Book-Entry Bank Share shall be deemed at any time after the Effective Time to represent only the right to receive, upon such surrender or transfer, the Purchaser Common Stock, plus cash in lieu of fractional shares in accordance with Section 2.4, payable in respect of shares of Bank Common Stock theretofore represented by such Bank Certificate or Book-Entry Bank Shares, as applicable, pursuant to Section 2.2, without any interest thereon.

(c) All shares of Purchaser Common Stock issued, including any cash paid in lieu of fractional shares, upon the surrender for exchange of Bank Certificates or Book-Entry Bank Shares in accordance with the terms of this Article II shall be deemed to have been paid in full satisfaction of all rights pertaining to the shares of Bank Common Stock formerly represented by such Bank Certificates or Book-Entry Bank Shares. At the Effective Time, there shall be no further registration of transfers on the stock transfer books of Purchaser of the shares of Bank Common Stock that were outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time. If, after the Effective Time, Bank Certificates are presented to Purchaser or the Exchange Agent for transfer or transfer is sought for Book-Entry Bank Shares, such Bank Certificates or Book-Entry Bank Shares shall be canceled and exchanged as provided in this Article II, subject to applicable Law in the case of Dissenting Bank Shares.

(d) The Exchange Agent shall invest any cash included in the Exchange Fund as directed by Purchaser; provided, that no such investment or losses thereon shall affect the Purchaser Common Stock or any cash in lieu of fractional shares payable to holders of Bank Certificates or Book-Entry Bank Shares entitled to receive such consideration, and Purchaser shall promptly provide additional funds to the Exchange Agent for the benefit of holders of Bank Certificates and Book-Entry Bank Shares in the amount of any such losses to the extent necessary for payment of the Purchaser Common Stock. Any interest or other income resulting from such investments shall be paid to Purchaser or as directed by Purchaser.

(e) Any portion of the Exchange Fund (and any income earned thereon) that remains unclaimed by the holders of Bank Certificates or Book-Entry Bank Shares for nine (9) months after the Effective Time shall, to the extent permitted by applicable Law, be paid to Purchaser or as directed by Purchaser, and any holders of Bank Certificates or Book-Entry Bank Shares who have not theretofore complied with this Article II shall thereafter look only to Purchaser (subject to abandoned property, escheat or other similar Laws) for payment of the Purchaser Common Stock with respect to shares of Bank Common Stock formerly represented by such Bank Certificate or Book-Entry Bank Share, in each case without interest thereon.

(f) None of Purchaser, Purchaser Bank, the Bank, or the Exchange Agent or any other Person shall be liable to any Person in respect of shares of Purchaser Common Stock, any dividends or distributions with respect thereto, or any cash in lieu of fractional shares, in each case properly delivered to a public official pursuant to any applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar Law.

(g) If any Bank Certificate shall have been lost, stolen or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit, in form and substance reasonably acceptable to Purchaser, of that fact by the Person claiming such Bank Certificate to be lost, stolen or destroyed and, if required by Purchaser or the Exchange Agent, the posting by such Person of a bond in such amount as Purchaser or the Exchange Agent may determine is reasonably necessary as indemnity against any claim that may be made against it or Purchaser with respect to such Bank Certificate, the Exchange Agent will deliver in exchange for such lost, stolen or destroyed Bank Certificate the Purchaser Common Stock payable in respect thereof pursuant to this Agreement.

(h) Each of Purchaser and the Exchange Agent shall be entitled to deduct and withhold from the consideration otherwise payable to any holder of shares of Bank Common Stock or otherwise pursuant to this Agreement such amounts as Purchaser or the Exchange Agent are required to deduct and withhold with respect to the making of such payment under the Code, or any provision of state, local or foreign Tax Law. Any amounts that are so deducted and withheld shall be paid over to the appropriate taxing authority by Purchaser or the Exchange Agent and shall be treated for all purposes of this Agreement as having been paid to the Person in respect of which such deduction and withholding was made. Notwithstanding the foregoing, (i) each holder that is to receive a distribution pursuant to this Agreement will have the sole and exclusive responsibility for the satisfaction and payment of any such withholding Tax obligations imposed on Purchaser by any Governmental Entity on account of such distribution and (ii) no distribution will be made to or on behalf of such holder pursuant to this Agreement unless and until such holder has made arrangements satisfactory to the Purchaser and the Exchange Agent for the payment and satisfaction of such withholding Tax obligations.

Section 2.4 Fractional Shares. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Article II, no fractional shares of Purchaser Common Stock will be issued pursuant to the Merger. Instead, Purchaser will pay or cause to be paid to the holder of any shares of Bank Common Stock that would, pursuant to this Article II, otherwise be entitled to receive fractional shares of Purchaser Common Stock an amount in cash, rounded to the nearest cent and without interest, equal to the product of (x) the fraction of a share to which such holder would otherwise have been entitled (after taking into account all shares of Bank Common Stock owned by such holder at the Effective Time to be converted into Purchaser Common Stock) and (y) the Measurement Price.

Section 2.5 Distributions With Respect to Unexchanged Shares. No dividends or other distributions with respect to shares of Purchaser Common Stock issuable with respect to shares of Bank Common Stock with a record date on or after the Effective Time shall be paid to the holder of any unsurrendered Bank Certificates or Book-Entry Bank Shares until those Bank Certificates or Book-Entry Bank Shares are surrendered as provided in this Article II. Upon surrender, there shall be issued and/or paid to the holder of the shares of Purchaser Common Stock issued in exchange therefor, without interest, (the dividends or other distributions payable with respect to those shares of Purchaser Common Stock with a record date on or after the Effective Time and a payment date on or prior to the date of this surrender and not previously paid.

Section 2.6 Dissenting Shares. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, shares of Bank Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time that are held by any holder who is entitled to demand and properly demands appraisal of such shares of Bank Common Stock pursuant to 12 C.F.R. §552.14 (Dissenting Bank Shares) shall not be converted into the right to receive the Purchaser Common Stock, unless and until such holder shall have failed to perfect, or shall have effectively withdrawn or lost, such holder's right to appraisal under applicable Law. If any such holder fails to perfect or withdraws or loses any such right to appraisal, each such share of Bank Common Stock of such holder shall thereupon be converted into and become exchangeable only for the right to receive, as of the later of the Effective Time and the time that such right to appraisal has been irrevocably lost, withdrawn or expired, the Purchaser Common Stock in accordance with Section 2.2, plus cash in lieu of fractional shares in accordance with Section 2.4. Bank shall serve prompt notice to Purchaser of any demands for appraisal of any shares of Bank Common Stock, attempted withdrawals of such notices or demands and any other instruments received by Bank relating to rights to appraisal, and Purchaser shall have the right to participate in and direct all negotiations and proceedings with respect to such demands. Bank shall not, without the prior written consent of Purchaser, make any payment with respect to, settle or offer to settle, or approve any withdrawal of any such demands. In the event that after the Effective Time a dissenting stockholder of the Bank fails to perfect, or effectively withdraws or loses, such holder's right to appraisal and of payment for such holder's shares, Purchaser shall issue and deliver Purchaser Common Stock plus cash in lieu of fractional shares in accordance with Section 2.4 to which such holder of shares of Bank Common Stock is entitled under Section 2.2 of this Agreement upon surrender by such holder of the Bank Certificate(s) representing shares of Bank Common Stock held by such holder in accordance with Section 2.3.

Section 2.7 Treatment of Bank Stock Options and Other Equity-Based Awards of Bank.

(a) At the Effective Time, each option to purchase shares of Bank Common Stock granted under the Bank Equity Plans, whether vested or unvested, that is outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (each a Bank Stock Option) shall cease to represent a right to acquire shares of Bank Common Stock and shall be converted automatically into a cash payment by the Bank (subject to required tax withholdings) in an amount equal to the difference between (i) the product of the Exchange Ratio (as may be adjusted) and the Measurement Price (Per Share Consideration), and (ii) the exercise price per share (the Option Payment), it being understood that any Bank Stock Option with an exercise price greater than the Per Share Consideration shall not be entitled to receive any consideration in respect of such Bank Stock Option or the termination and cancellation thereof. Prior to the receipt of the Option Payment and at the Effective Time, each holder of a Bank Stock Option shall execute a cancellation agreement, in a form reasonably acceptable to Purchaser and the Bank. Immediately prior to the Effective Time, the Bank shall deliver the Option Payment to the holders of the Bank Stock Options. The Bank shall take all actions necessary (including adopting any necessary resolutions with respect to the Bank Stock Option), to effect the foregoing.

(b) At the Effective Time, each award of restricted Bank Common Stock subject to vesting, repurchase or other lapse restriction granted under a Bank Equity Plan (each, a Bank Restricted Stock Award), whether time-vesting or performance-based, whether vested or unvested, that is outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time, shall vest at the Effective Time and holders of each share of Bank Common Stock issued pursuant to the Bank Restricted Stock Award shall be entitled to receive the consideration set forth in Section 2.2 of this Agreement. The Bank shall take all actions necessary (including adopting any necessary resolutions with respect to the Bank Restricted Stock Award), to effect the foregoing.

ARTICLE IIIREPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES OF THE BANK

Except as disclosed in the disclosure letter delivered by the Bank to Purchaser prior to the execution of this Agreement (the Bank Disclosure Letter) (which sets forth, among other things, items the disclosure of which is necessary or appropriate either in response to an express disclosure requirement contained in a provision hereof or as an exception to one or more representations or warranties contained in this Article III, or to one or more of the Bank's covenants contained herein, provided, that disclosure in any section of the Bank Disclosure Letter shall apply only to the indicated Section of this Agreement except to the extent that it is reasonably apparent on the face of such disclosure that such disclosure is relevant to another Section of this Agreement and provided, further, that notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, the mere inclusion of an item in the Bank Disclosure Letter as an exception to a representation or warranty shall not be deemed an admission that such item represents a material exception or material fact, event or circumstance or that such item has had or would have a Bank Material Adverse Effect), the Bank represents and warrants to Purchaser as of the date of this Agreement and as of the Closing (except to the extent made only as of a specified date, in which case as of such date) as follows:

Section 3.1 Organization, Standing and Power.

In addition to and without limiting the generality of the foregoing, during the period from the date of this Agreement to the Closing, except as set forth in Section 5.2 of the Purchaser Disclosure Letter or as specifically required by this Agreement, Purchaser shall not, and shall not permit any of its Significant Subsidiaries, without the Bank's prior written consent, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed, to:

Section 5.3 No Solicitation by the Bank.

(a) The Bank shall not, and shall cause its Subsidiaries and its and their directors, officers and employees not to, and shall use and cause its Subsidiaries to use their reasonable best efforts to cause their respective other Representatives not to, directly or indirectly, (i) solicit, initiate, endorse, or knowingly encourage or facilitate (including by way of furnishing non-public information) any inquiry, proposal or offer with respect to, or the making or completion of, any Bank Acquisition Proposal, or any inquiry, proposal or offer that is reasonably likely to lead to any Bank Acquisition Proposal, (ii) enter into, continue or otherwise participate in any discussions or negotiations regarding, or furnish to any Person any nonpublic information or data or afford access to the business, directors, officers, employees, properties, facilities, assets, contracts, books or records of the Bank or any of its Subsidiaries to any Person in connection with any Bank Acquisition Proposal, (iii) approve or recommend any Bank Acquisition Proposal or (iv) approve or recommend, or propose publicly to approve or recommend, or execute or enter into any letter of intent, memorandum of understanding, agreement in principle, acquisition agreement, merger agreement, option agreement, joint venture agreement, partnership agreement or other agreement (each, a Bank Alternative Acquisition Agreement) constituting or related to, or which is intended to or is reasonably likely to result in, any Bank Acquisition Proposal (other than a confidentiality agreement permitted by the terms of this Section 5.3(a) as described below). Without limiting the foregoing, it is agreed that any violation of the restrictions set forth in the preceding sentence by any Representative of the Bank or any of its Subsidiaries shall be a breach of this Section 5.3(a) by the Bank. The Bank shall, and shall cause each of its Subsidiaries and their respective Representatives, to, (A) immediately cease and cause to be terminated all existing discussions or negotiations with any Person conducted heretofore with respect to any Bank Acquisition Proposal, (B) terminate access to any physical or electronic data rooms relating to any potential Bank Acquisition Proposal, (C) request the prompt return or destruction of all confidential information previously furnished in connection therewith and (D) not terminate, waive, amend, release or modify any provision of any confidentiality or standstill agreement relating to any Bank Acquisition Proposal to which it or any of its Affiliates or Representatives is a party, and shall enforce the provisions of any such agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if at any time following the date of this Agreement and prior to obtaining the Bank Stockholder Approval, (1) the Bank receives an unsolicited written Bank Acquisition Proposal that the Bank Board believes in good faith to be bona fide, (2) such Bank Acquisition Proposal was not the result of a material violation of this Section 5.3(a), (3) the Bank Board determines in good faith (after consultation with outside counsel and its financial advisor) that such Bank Acquisition Proposal constitutes or is reasonably likely to lead to a Bank Superior Proposal and (4) the Bank Board determines in good faith (after consultation with outside counsel) that the failure to take the actions referred to in clause (x) or (y) of this Section 5.3(a) would be reasonably likely to violate its fiduciary duties under applicable Law, then the Bank may (and may authorize its Subsidiaries and its and their Representatives to) (x) furnish non-public information with respect to the Bank and its Subsidiaries to the Person making such Bank Acquisition Proposal (and its Representatives) pursuant to a customary confidentiality agreement containing terms substantially similar to, and no less favorable to the Bank than, those set forth in the Confidentiality Agreement; provided, that any non-public information provided to any Person given such access shall have previously been provided to Purchaser or shall be provided to Purchaser prior to or concurrently with the time it is provided to such Person and (y) participate in discussions or negotiations with the Person making such Bank Acquisition Proposal (and such Person s Representatives) regarding such Bank Acquisition Proposal.

(b) Neither the Bank Board nor any committee thereof shall (i)(A) withhold or withdraw (or modify or qualify in any manner adverse to Purchaser) the Bank Recommendation (or publicly propose to do any of the foregoing), (B) fail to include the Bank Recommendation in the Proxy Statement or (C) adopt, approve, recommend, endorse or otherwise declare advisable the adoption of any Bank Acquisition Proposal (each such action set forth in this Section 5.3(b)(i) being referred to herein as a Bank Adverse Recommendation Change). Notwithstanding the foregoing, at any time prior to obtaining the Bank Stockholder Approval, the Bank Board may, if the Bank Board determines in good faith (after consultation with outside counsel) that the failure to do so would be reasonably likely to violate its fiduciary duties under applicable Law, taking into account all adjustments to the terms of this Agreement that may be offered by Purchaser pursuant to this Section 5.3(b), make a Bank Adverse Recommendation Change; provided, that the Bank shall not make any Bank Adverse Recommendation Change unless (A) the Bank shall not have breached this Section 5.3 in any material respect and (B) if and only if:

(i) the Bank shall give Purchaser at least ten (10) Business Days prior written notice of its intention to take such action, which notice shall specify in reasonable detail the basis for the Bank Adverse Recommendation Change, and if the proposed Bank Adverse Recommendation Change is in response to a Bank Superior Proposal, such notice shall specify the material terms and conditions of any such Bank Superior Proposal, including the identity of the party making such Bank Superior Proposal and contemporaneously provides an unredacted copy of the relevant proposed transaction agreements with the party making such Bank Superior Proposal (or if there is no such proposed agreement, a written summary of the material terms and conditions of the Bank Superior Proposal);

(ii) after providing such notice and prior to effecting such Bank Adverse Recommendation Change, the Bank negotiates, and causes its Representatives to negotiate, in good faith with Purchaser during such notice period to the extent Purchaser wishes to negotiate, to enable Purchaser to revise the terms of this Agreement such that (A) in the case of a Bank Superior Proposal, it would cause such Bank Superior Proposal to no longer constitute a Bank Superior Proposal or (B) in any other event, the failure to effect a Bank Adverse Recommendation Change would not be reasonably likely to violate the Bank Board's fiduciary duties under applicable Law; and

(iii) the Bank Board, following the final such ten (or five, as applicable) Business Day period (as described below), again determines in good faith, after consultation with such outside legal counsel and such independent financial advisor, that (A) if the proposed Bank Adverse Recommendation Change is in response to a Bank Superior Proposal, such Bank Acquisition Proposal nonetheless continues to constitute a Bank Superior Proposal and (B) failure to take such action would be reasonably likely to violate their fiduciary duties to the Bank and the Bank stockholders under applicable Law.

In the event of any change to the price or any other material change to the terms of such Bank Superior Proposal, the Bank shall, in each case, be required to deliver to Purchaser a new written notice, the notice period shall recommence and the Bank shall be required to comply with its obligations under this Section 5.3 with respect to such new written notice, except that the deadline for such new written notice shall be reduced to five (5) Business Days (rather than ten (10) Business Days referenced in clause (i) above).

(c) In addition to the obligations of the Bank set forth in Sections 5.3(a) and (b), on and after the date hereof, the Bank shall promptly (and in any event within twenty-four (24) hours of receipt) advise Purchaser orally and in writing in the event the Bank or any of its Subsidiaries or their respective Representatives receives (i) any Bank Acquisition Proposal, (ii) any proposal, offer or inquiry or request for information with respect to, or that could reasonably be expected to result in, a Bank Acquisition Proposal or (iii) any request to engage in discussions or negotiations that are reasonably likely to lead to, or that contemplate or relate to, an actual or potential Bank Acquisition Proposal, in each case which notice shall include a summary of the material terms and conditions of such Bank Acquisition Proposal or request, the identity of the Person making any such Bank Acquisition Proposal, inquiry, offer, proposal or request for information and a copy of any Bank Acquisition Proposal, inquiry, offer, proposal or request for information made in writing (and any proposed agreements related thereto) and a summary of the terms and conditions of any Bank Acquisition Proposal, inquiry, offer, proposal or request for information not made in writing. The Bank shall keep Purchaser informed (orally and in writing) in all material respects on a timely basis of the status (including after the occurrence of any material amendment or modification) of any such Bank Acquisition Proposal or request and shall provide Purchaser with copies of all material documentation and correspondence related thereto. Without limiting any of the foregoing, the Bank shall promptly (and in any event within 24 hours) notify Purchaser orally and in writing if it determines to begin providing non-public information or to engage in discussions or negotiations concerning a Bank Acquisition Proposal pursuant to Section 5.3(a) or (b) and shall in no event begin providing such information or engaging in such discussions or negotiations prior to providing such notice.

(d) The Bank shall not, and shall cause its Subsidiaries not to, enter into any Contract with any Person subsequent to the date of this Agreement that prohibits the Bank from providing the information contemplated by this Section 5.3 to Purchaser or otherwise limits or impairs the Bank's or its Subsidiaries' or their respective Representatives' ability to comply with their respective obligations in this Section 5.3.

(e) For purposes of this Agreement:

(i) Bank Acquisition Proposal means, other than the Transactions, any inquiry, proposal or offer with respect to a, or any, tender or exchange offer to acquire 20% or more of the voting power in the Bank or any of its Subsidiaries, any inquiry, proposal or offer with respect to a merger, consolidation, share exchange or other business combination involving the Bank or any of its Subsidiaries or any other inquiry, proposal or offer to acquire, license, lease, exchange or transfer in any manner 20% or more of the voting power in (whether by purchase of newly issued or outstanding shares of the Bank Common Stock or securities convertible or exchangeable for shares of the Bank Common Stock whether or not such securities are currently exchangeable or convertible), or 20% or more of the business, revenue, net income, assets or deposits of, the Bank or any of its Subsidiaries, in each case, whether in one or any series of related transactions and whether from one Person or any group of Persons (as defined under Section 13(d) of the Exchange Act).

(ii) Bank Superior Proposal means any unsolicited bona fide written Bank Acquisition Proposal (with the percentages set forth in the definition of such term changed from 20% to 50%) that the Bank Board determines in good faith (after consultation with outside counsel and its financial advisor), taking into account all legal, financial, regulatory and other aspects of the proposal and the Person (or group of Persons) making the proposal (including any break-up fees, expense reimbursement provisions and conditions to consummation), (A) if consummated would be more favorable to the stockholders of the Bank from a financial point of view than the Transactions (including taking into account any adjustment to the terms and conditions proposed by Purchaser in response to such proposal pursuant to Section 5.3(b) or otherwise), (B) is not subject to any financing or other material contingency (other than the receipt of necessary regulatory approvals) and (C) if accepted, is reasonably likely to be completed on the terms proposed on a timely basis.

Section 5.4 Preparation of Registration Statement and the Proxy Statement; Bank Stockholders' Meeting.

(a) As promptly as practicable following the date of this Agreement, the Bank shall prepare the Proxy Statement and Purchaser shall prepare and file with the SEC the Registration Statement, in which the Proxy Statement will be included as a prospectus. The Bank shall furnish all information concerning itself and its Affiliates to Purchaser, and provide Purchaser with such other assistance, as may be reasonably requested in connection with the preparation, filing and distribution of the Registration Statement. Purchaser will advise the Bank, promptly after it receives notice thereof, of any request by the SEC to amend the Registration Statement or comments thereon and responses thereto or requests by the SEC for additional information and Purchaser shall use its reasonable best efforts to respond (with the assistance of the Bank) as promptly as practicable to any comments of the SEC with respect thereto. Purchaser shall use its reasonable best efforts to have the Registration Statement declared effective under the Securities Act as promptly as practicable after such filing and to keep the Registration Statement effective as long as is necessary to consummate the Merger and the other Transactions. The Bank will cause the Proxy Statement to be mailed to the Bank's stockholders as promptly as practicable after the Registration Statement is declared effective under the Securities Act. Purchaser shall also take any action required to be taken under any applicable state securities Laws in connection with the issuance of Purchaser Common Stock in the Merger, and the Bank shall furnish all information concerning itself and its stockholders as may be reasonably requested in connection with any such action.

(b) Purchaser will advise the Bank, promptly after it receives notice thereof, of the time when the Registration Statement has become effective or any supplement or amendment has been filed, the issuance of any stop order, the suspension of the qualification of Purchaser Common Stock issuable in connection with the Merger for offering or sale in any jurisdiction, or any request by the SEC to amend the Registration Statement or comments thereon and responses thereto or requests by the SEC for additional information.

(c) If prior to the Effective Time any event occurs with respect to the Bank, Purchaser or any Subsidiary of the Bank or Purchaser, respectively, or any change occurs with respect to information supplied by or on behalf of the Bank or Purchaser, respectively, for inclusion in the Registration Statement that, in each case, is required to be described in an amendment of, or a supplement to, the Registration Statement, the Bank or Purchaser, as applicable, shall promptly notify the other of such event, and the Bank and Purchaser shall cooperate in the prompt filing with the SEC of any necessary amendment or supplement to the Registration Statement and, as required by Law, in disseminating the information contained in such amendment or supplement to the Bank's stockholders.

(d) The Bank shall, as promptly as reasonably practicable after the date the Registration Statement is declared effective, take all action necessary, including as required by and in accordance with applicable Law, the Bank Charter and the Bank Bylaws to duly call, give notice of, convene and hold a meeting of its stockholders (the Bank Stockholders Meeting) for the purpose of obtaining the Bank Stockholder Approval. Except in the case of a Bank Adverse Recommendation Change specifically permitted by Section 5.3(b), the Bank, through the Bank Board, shall take all action necessary to (x) recommend to its stockholders that they approve and adopt this Agreement, the Merger and the other Transactions, (y) include such recommendation in the Proxy Statement and (z) solicit the Bank Stockholder Approval. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Bank agrees that its obligations pursuant to the first sentence of this Section 5.4(d) shall not be affected by the commencement, public proposal, public disclosure or communication to the Bank or any other Person of any Bank Acquisition Proposal or the occurrence of any Bank Adverse Recommendation Change. The Bank shall adjourn or postpone the Bank Stockholders Meeting if, as of the time for which such meeting is originally scheduled there are insufficient shares of the Bank Common Stock represented (either in person or by proxy) to constitute a quorum necessary to conduct the business of such meeting, or if on the date of such meeting the Bank has not received proxies representing a sufficient number of shares necessary to obtain the Bank Stockholder Approval, and subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the Bank shall continue to use all reasonable best efforts to solicit proxies from its stockholders in favor of the Bank Stockholder Approval. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, unless this Agreement has been terminated in accordance with its terms, the Bank Stockholders Meeting shall be convened and this Agreement shall be submitted to the stockholders of the Bank at the Bank Stockholders Meeting for the purpose of approving this Agreement and nothing contained herein shall be deemed to relieve the Bank of such obligation. In addition to the foregoing, the Bank shall not submit to the vote of its stockholders any Bank Acquisition Proposal in addition to or in lieu of the Merger. If the Bank Board has effected a Bank Adverse Recommendation Change, then the Bank Board may submit this Agreement to the Bank's stockholders without recommendation (although the resolutions adopting this Agreement as of the date hereof may not be rescinded or amended), in which event the Bank Board may communicate the basis for its lack of a recommendation to Bank's stockholders in the Proxy Statement or an appropriate amendment or supplement thereto to the extent required by applicable Law.

Section 5.5 Access to Information: Confidentiality.

(a) Subject to applicable Law, the Bank shall, and shall cause its Subsidiaries to, afford to Purchaser and its Representatives reasonable access during normal business hours and upon reasonable prior notice, during the period prior to the Effective Time or the termination of this Agreement in accordance with its terms, to all its properties, assets, books, contracts, commitments, personnel and records and, during such period, the Bank shall, and shall cause its Subsidiaries to, furnish promptly to Purchaser: (i) a copy of each report, schedule, registration statement and other document filed, furnished or received by it during such period pursuant to the requirements of federal or state securities Laws and (ii) all other information concerning its and its Subsidiaries' business, properties and personnel as the other party may reasonably request (including all work papers of its auditors and all Tax Returns filed and those in preparation); provided, that neither the Bank nor any of its Subsidiaries shall be required to provide access to or to disclose information where such access or disclosure would, in the reasonable judgment of such party, (A) breach any agreement with any third party in effect on the date of this Agreement, (B) constitute a waiver of the attorney-client or other privilege held by such party or (C) otherwise violate any applicable Law. In the event any of the restrictions in clauses (A) through (C) of the foregoing sentence shall apply, the parties will make appropriate alternate disclosure arrangements (including, as the case may be, the Bank using reasonable best efforts to provide appropriate consents, waivers, decrees and approvals necessary to satisfy any confidentiality issues relating to documents prepared or held by third parties (including work papers), and by the parties adopting additional specific procedures to protect the confidentiality of sensitive material and to ensure compliance with applicable Laws, including antitrust Laws). As soon as reasonably practicable after they become available, but in no event more than thirty (30) days after the end of each calendar month ending after the date hereof, the Bank will furnish to Purchaser (x) consolidated financial statements (including balance sheets, statements of operations and stockholders' equity) of the Bank and its Subsidiaries as of and for such month then ended, (y) internal management financial control reports showing actual financial performance against plan and previous period and (z) any reports provided to the Bank Board or any committee thereof relating to the financial performance and risk management of the Bank. In addition, the Bank will furnish Purchaser with a copy of each report filed by it or any of its Subsidiaries with a Governmental Entity (other than portions thereof relating to confidential supervisory or examination materials) within three (3) Business Days following the filing thereof.

(b) All such information shall be held confidential in accordance with the terms of the amended and restated letter agreement regarding confidentiality, dated as of October 11, 2017, between Purchaser and the Bank (the Confidentiality Agreement).

(c) No investigation pursuant to this Section 5.4 or information provided, made available or delivered to the Bank or Purchaser pursuant to this Agreement (other than the Bank Disclosure Letter and the Purchaser Disclosure Letter to the extent explicitly provided therein) shall affect any of the representations, warranties, covenants, rights or remedies, or the conditions to the obligations of, the parties hereunder.

Section 5.6 Reasonable Best Efforts.

(a) Upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement, each of the parties agrees to use reasonable best efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all actions that are necessary, proper or advisable under this Agreement and applicable Laws to consummate and make effective the Transactions as promptly as practicable, including using reasonable best efforts to resist, contest or defend any Actions (including administrative Actions) challenging the Transactions or the completion of the Transactions, and using reasonable best efforts to seek to have vacated, lifted, reversed or overturned any decree, judgment, injunction or other order (whether temporary, preliminary or permanent) that is in effect and that could restrict, prevent or prohibit consummation of the Transactions; provided, that nothing contained herein shall preclude any party from exercising its rights under this Agreement; provided, further, that notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 5.6, neither Purchaser nor its Affiliates shall be required to take any action, or commit to take any action, or agree to any condition or restriction, in connection with obtaining or complying with any Requisite Regulatory Approvals (as defined below) that would reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a material adverse effect on the business, financial condition, properties, assets, liabilities or results of operations of (x) the Bank and its Subsidiaries, taken as a whole, or (y) Purchaser and its Subsidiaries, taken as a whole, following the Closing (either of clauses (x) or (y), a Burdensome Condition). Subject to applicable Law and the instructions of any Governmental Entity, Purchaser shall inform Bank in writing if any Governmental Entity with jurisdiction over Purchaser or its Subsidiaries has advised or notified any of Purchaser or its Subsidiaries of such Governmental Entity's determination to impose a restriction or requirement in connection with or as a result of the Transactions, which upon compliance therewith would constitute a Burdensome Condition, including reasonable detail regarding the restriction or requirement imposed by the Governmental Entity; provided, that, for the avoidance of doubt, in no event shall Purchaser be obligated to provide the Bank with any information relating to or containing any confidential supervisory or regulatory examination materials or information.

(b) The parties shall, and shall cause their respective Subsidiaries to, cooperate and use all reasonable best efforts to prepare as promptly as possible all documentation, to effect all filings and to obtain all permits, consents, approvals and authorizations of Governmental Entities necessary to consummate the Transactions (the Requisite Regulatory Approvals), and will make all necessary filings in respect of those Requisite Regulatory Approvals as soon as practicable but in any event no later than thirty (30) days following the date of this Agreement. Each party will have the right to review in advance, and to the extent practicable each party will consult with the other party, in each case subject to applicable Laws relating to the confidentiality of information, all information relating to it and any of its Subsidiaries that appear in any filing made with or written materials submitted to any Governmental Entity in connection with the Requisite Regulatory Approvals; provided, that, for the avoidance of doubt, in no event shall either party or any of its respective Affiliates be obligated to provide the other party with any information relating to or containing any confidential supervisory or regulatory examination materials or information. In exercising the foregoing right, each of the parties will act reasonably and as promptly as practicable. Each party agrees that it will consult with the other party with respect to obtaining all material permits, consents, approvals and authorizations of all Governmental Entities necessary or advisable to consummate the Transactions, and each party will keep the other party apprised of the status of material matters relating to completion of the Transactions. The parties shall promptly deliver to each other copies of all filings, correspondence and orders to and from all Governmental Entities in connection with the Transactions, including seeking the Requisite Regulatory Approvals; provided, that Purchaser and its Subsidiaries may redact such information as may reasonably be considered proprietary, sensitive or confidential (including financial projections, business plans or personal information).

(c) Each of the parties hereto shall, upon request, furnish to each other party such necessary information and reasonable assistance as such other party may reasonably request in connection with the foregoing. In exercising the foregoing rights, each party shall act reasonably and as promptly as practicable. Subject to applicable Law and the instructions of any Governmental Entity, each party shall keep the other party reasonably apprised of the status of matters relating to the completion of the Transactions, including promptly furnishing the other party with copies of notices or other written communications received by it or any of its Subsidiaries from any Governmental Entity with respect to the Transactions; provided, that, for the avoidance of doubt, in no event shall Purchaser or its Subsidiaries be obligated to provide the Bank with any information relating to or containing any confidential supervisory or regulatory examination materials or information.

Section 5.7 Takeover Laws. Each of the Bank and Purchaser and their respective Boards of Directors shall (a) take no action to cause any moratorium, fair price, affiliate transaction, business combination, control share acquisition, interested stockholder or similar provision of any anti-takeover Law (collectively, Takeover Laws) to become applicable to this Agreement or the Transactions and (b) if any Takeover Law is or becomes applicable to this Agreement or the Transactions, use reasonable best efforts to take all action necessary to ensure that the Transactions may be consummated as promptly as practicable on the terms contemplated by this Agreement and otherwise to minimize the effect of such Takeover Law with respect to this Agreement and the Transactions.

Section 5.8 Notification of Certain Matters. The Bank, on the one hand, and Purchaser and Purchaser Bank, on the other hand, shall promptly notify each other of (a) any notice or other communication received by such party from any Governmental Entity in connection with the Transactions by or from any Person alleging that the consent of such Person is or may be required in connection with the Transactions, (b) any Action commenced or, to such party's knowledge, threatened against, relating to or involving or otherwise affecting such party or any of its Subsidiaries which, in any such case, relate to the Transactions or (c) any change, condition or event (i) that renders or would reasonably be expected to render any representation or warranty of such party set forth in this Agreement to be untrue or inaccurate to an extent such that the condition set forth in Section 6.2(a) or Section 6.3(a), as applicable, would not be satisfied if the Closing were to then occur or (ii) that results or would reasonably be expected to result in any failure of such party to comply with or satisfy in any material respect any covenant, condition or agreement (including any condition set forth in Article VI) to be complied with or satisfied by such party hereunder; provided, that no such notification, nor any failure to make such notification, shall affect any of the representations, warranties, covenants, rights or remedies, or the conditions to the obligations of, the parties hereunder.

Section 5.9 Indemnification, Exculpation and Insurance.

(a) Subject to any limitations that may be imposed by applicable Law, for a period of six (6) years from and after the Effective Time, Purchaser shall indemnify and hold harmless each of the current or former directors, officers or employees of the Bank or any of its Subsidiaries (collectively, the D&O Indemnified Parties) to the fullest extent permitted by the current provisions regarding indemnification of D&O Indemnified Parties contained in the Bank Articles and the Bank Bylaws (or comparable organizational documents of each of the Bank's Subsidiaries), arising out of matters existing or occurring at or prior to the Effective Time, whether asserted or claimed prior to, at or after the Effective Time based in whole or in part on, or arising in whole or in part out of, or pertaining to (i) the fact that he or she is or was a director or officer of the Bank, any of its Subsidiaries or any of their respective predecessors or (ii) any matters arising in connection with the Transactions, and Purchaser shall also advance expenses as incurred in each case, upon receipt of an undertaking, from such D&O Indemnified Party to repay such advanced expenses if it is determined by a final and nonappealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction that such D&O Indemnified Party was not entitled to indemnification hereunder. In the event any claim is asserted within such six (6)-year period, all such rights in respect of any such claim shall continue until disposition thereof.

(b) For a period of six (6) years after the Effective Time, Purchaser shall maintain in effect the Bank's current directors and officers' liability insurance covering each Person currently covered by the Bank's directors' and officers' liability insurance policy (a correct and complete copy of which has been heretofore made available to Purchaser) for acts or omissions occurring prior to the Effective Time; provided, that in no event shall Purchaser be required to expend annually in the aggregate an amount in excess of 150% of the amount of the aggregate premiums paid by the Bank for fiscal year 2016 for such purpose (which fiscal year 2016 premiums are hereby represented and warranted by the Bank to be as set forth in Section 5.9(b) of the Bank Disclosure Letter (the Insurance Amount)) and, if Purchaser is unable to maintain such policy (or substitute policy) as a result of this proviso, Purchaser shall obtain as much comparable insurance as is available for a period of six years following the Effective Time by payment of such amount; provided, further, that (i) Purchaser may substitute therefor tail policies the material terms of which, including coverage and amount, are no less favorable in any material respect to such directors and officers than the Bank's existing policies as of the date hereof or (ii) Purchaser may request that the Bank obtain such extended reporting period coverage under the Bank's existing insurance programs (to be effective as of the Effective Time).

(c) In the event that Purchaser or any of its successors or assigns shall (i) consolidate with or merge into any other Person and shall not be the continuing or surviving corporation or entity of such consolidation or merger or (ii) transfer all or substantially all its properties and assets to any Person, then, and in each such case, Purchaser shall cause proper provision to be made so that the successor and assign of Purchaser assumes the obligations set forth in this Section 5.9.

(d) The provisions of this Section 5.9 shall survive consummation of the Merger and are intended to be for the benefit of, and will be enforceable by, each D&O Indemnified Party, his or her heirs and his or her legal representatives.

Section 5.10 Employees.

(a) Immediately following the Effective Time, Purchaser shall cause the individuals employed by the Bank or any of its Subsidiaries immediately prior to the Closing who continue in the employment of Purchaser or any of its Affiliates (each a Continuing Employee) to receive aggregate target cash compensation opportunities and employee benefits (other than with respect to equity-based, change in control, or transaction-based compensation or benefits, defined benefit pension benefits or retiree health or welfare benefits) that are substantially comparable to those provided to such employees as of immediately prior to the Effective Time. Nothing contained in this Section 5.10 shall (A) be construed to create (x) any third-party beneficiary rights in any current or former employee of the Bank, Purchaser or their Affiliates (including any dependent or beneficiary thereof) or any Person other than the parties to this Agreement (including any participant in any Bank Plan, or any dependent or beneficiary thereof) or (y) any right to employment or continued employment for any specified period or to a particular term or condition of employment with Purchaser or its Affiliates, or (B) except as set forth in this Section 5.10, limit the ability of Purchaser or its Affiliates to amend, modify or terminate any Bank Plan, Purchaser Plan or other benefit plan, program, agreement or arrangement at any time assumed, established, sponsored or maintained by any of them.

(b) For all purposes under the employee benefit plans of Purchaser and its Affiliates (including, after the Closing, the Bank and its Subsidiaries) other than defined benefit pension plans (such employee benefit plans shall be referred to hereinafter as the Purchaser Plans) providing benefits to any Continuing Employee, each Continuing Employee shall be credited with his or her years of service with Bank and its Affiliates and their respective predecessors to the same extent as such Continuing Employee was entitled to credit for such service under any applicable similar Bank Plan in which such Continuing Employee participated or was eligible to participate immediately prior to the Closing Date; provided, that the foregoing shall not apply to the extent that its application would result in a duplication of benefits with respect to the same period of service.

(c) In addition, and without limiting the generality of the foregoing, as of the Closing Date, Purchaser shall use commercially reasonable efforts to provide that (i) each Continuing Employee shall be immediately eligible to participate, without any waiting time, in any and all Purchaser Plans to the extent coverage under such Purchaser Plan is similar in type to an applicable Bank Plan in which such Continuing Employee was participating immediately prior to the Closing Date; and (ii) for purposes of each Purchaser Plan providing medical, dental, pharmaceutical, vision or similar benefits to any Continuing Employee, all pre-existing condition exclusions and actively-at-work requirements of such Purchaser Plan to be waived for such Continuing Employee and his or her covered dependents, unless such conditions would not have been waived under the similar plans of Bank or its Affiliates in which such Continuing Employee, as applicable, participated or was eligible to participate immediately prior to the Closing Date.

(d) Unless otherwise requested by Purchaser prior to the Closing, the Bank and each of its Subsidiaries shall terminate, effective as of the Closing Date, any Bank Plan that is intended to constitute a tax-qualified defined contribution plan under Code Section 401(k) (a 401(k) Plan).

(e) To the extent that any Continuing Employee becomes eligible to receive severance pursuant to the terms of the Purchaser's Severance Pay Plan (the Purchaser Severance Plan) prior to the first anniversary of the Closing, then such terminated Continuing Employee shall be entitled to receive (x) a severance payment equal to two (2) weeks of such Continuing Employee's then-current base salary for each completed year of service to the Bank, its Affiliates and Purchaser, with a minimum of four (4) weeks of base salary and a maximum of twenty-six (26) weeks of base salary plus (y) subsidized COBRA benefits, on such terms provided by the Purchaser Severance Plan, for a period of three (3) months.

(f) Prior to the Closing, the Bank shall use its reasonable best efforts to take such actions that are intended to ensure that the payment of any amounts or benefits (whether or not accelerated) to a disqualified individual (as defined in Section 280G(c) of the Code) in connection with the Transactions, would not, separately or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to result in the disallowance of a deduction to the Bank or its Subsidiaries, as applicable, under Section 280G of the Code, including, as necessary, (i) soliciting the requisite approval of the Bank's direct or indirect stockholders of all or a portion of any such payments or benefits, in a manner that meets the shareholder approval requirements of Section 280G(b)(5) of the Code and Treasury Regulation Section 1.280G-1, Q/A-7 (including providing such members adequate disclosure of all material facts concerning any such payments or benefit as provided in, and otherwise conducting such solicitation in conformity with, Section 280G(b)(5)(B) of the Code) and (ii) to the extent necessary, attempting to obtain a waiver from each such disqualified individual entitled to receive any payments or benefits which would reasonably be expected, individually or when aggregated with other payments or benefits, to cause or trigger any parachute payment (as defined in Section 280G(b) of the Code) in connection with the Transactions of such disqualified individual's right to receive the portion of such payments or benefits that would reasonably be expected to, individually or when aggregated with other payments or benefits, cause or trigger any excess parachute payments (within the meaning of Section 280G of the Code). The Bank shall provide Purchaser with drafts of all such solicitation materials and consents for review and comment prior to delivery to stockholders or disqualified individuals, as applicable. Prior to the Closing, the Bank shall deliver to Purchaser, reasonably satisfactory evidence that a vote of the Bank's stockholders was solicited in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this Section 5.10 and whether or not the requisite number of stockholder votes consenting to such benefits and payments was obtained with respect to such benefits and payments.

(g) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary and without limiting the generality of this Section 5.10, all provisions contained in this Section 5.10 are included for the sole benefit of the parties to this Agreement, and nothing in this Agreement, whether express or implied, (i) shall be treated as an amendment or other modification of any Bank Plan or other employee benefit plan, agreement or other arrangement, (ii) shall limit the right of Purchaser or the Bank or their respective Subsidiaries or affiliates to amend, terminate or otherwise modify any Bank Plan or other employee benefit plan, agreement or other arrangement following the Closing Date or (iii) shall confer upon any other Person who is not a party to this Agreement (including any stockholder, any service provider, Continuing Employee or any participant in any Bank Plan or other employee benefit plan, agreement or other arrangement (or any dependent or beneficiary thereof)) any right to continued or resumed employment or recall, any right to specific compensation or benefits, or any third-party beneficiary or other right of any kind or nature whatsoever.

Section 5.11 Public Announcements. Purchaser and Purchaser Bank, on the one hand, and the Bank, on the other hand, shall cooperate with each other with respect to the issuing of any press release or other public statements with respect to this Agreement and the Transactions and, without the prior consent of Purchaser, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, the Bank shall not issue any such press release or make any public announcement, except as may be required by applicable Law, court process or by obligations pursuant to any listing agreement with any national securities exchange or national securities quotation system. It is understood that Purchaser shall assume primary responsibility for the preparation of joint press releases relating to this Agreement and the Transactions.

Section 5.12 Stock Exchange Listing. Prior to the Closing, Purchaser shall file a Notification of Listing of Additional Shares (or such other form as may be required by NASDAQ) with NASDAQ with respect to the shares of Purchaser Common Stock to be issued in the Merger and shall use its reasonable best efforts to cause such shares to be approved for listing on NASDAQ, subject to official notice of issuance, prior to the Closing.

Section 5.13 No Control of Other Party's Business. Nothing contained in this Agreement shall give Purchaser, directly or indirectly, the right to control or direct the operations of the Bank or its Subsidiaries prior to the Effective Time, and nothing contained in this Agreement shall give the Bank, directly or indirectly, the right to control or direct the operations of Purchaser or its Subsidiaries prior to the Effective Time. Prior to the Effective Time, each of the Bank and Purchaser shall exercise, consistent with the terms and conditions of this Agreement, complete control and supervision over its and its Subsidiaries' respective operations.

Section 5.14 Operating Functions. The Bank and its Subsidiaries shall cooperate with Purchaser and its Subsidiaries in connection with planning for the efficient and orderly combination of the parties and their respective operations after the Merger, and in preparing for the consolidation of appropriate operating functions to be effective at the Effective Time or such later date as Purchaser may decide. The Bank shall take any action Purchaser may reasonably request prior to the Effective Time to facilitate the combination of the operations of the Bank with Purchaser Bank. Without limiting the foregoing, the Bank shall provide office space and support services (and other reasonably requested support and assistance) in connection with the foregoing, and senior officers of the Bank and Purchaser shall meet from time to time as Purchaser may reasonably request, to review the financial and operational affairs of the Bank and its Subsidiaries, and the Bank shall give due consideration to Purchaser's input on such matters, with the understanding that neither the Bank nor any of its Subsidiaries shall be required to agree to any material Contractual obligation that is not contingent upon the consummation of the Closing.

Section 5.15 Advisory Board. Following the Closing, Purchaser shall invite members of the Bank Board to join Purchaser's Miami-Dade Advisory Board.

Section 5.16 Stockholder Litigation. Bank shall promptly advise Purchaser orally and in writing of any actual or threatened stockholder litigation against the Bank or its directors and officers relating to this Agreement, the Merger or the other Transactions and shall promptly provide Purchaser with a copy of the complaint or other writing threatening or commencing such stockholder litigation. Bank shall: (i) permit Purchaser to review and discuss in advance, and consider in good faith the views of the Purchaser in connection with, any proposed written or oral response to such stockholder litigation; (ii) furnish Purchaser's outside legal counsel with all non-privileged information and documents which outside counsel may reasonably request in connection with such stockholder litigation; (iii) consult with Purchaser regarding the defense or settlement of any such stockholder litigation, shall give due consideration to Purchaser's advice with respect to such stockholder litigation and shall not settle any such litigation prior to such consultation and consideration; provided, however, that Bank shall not settle any such stockholder litigation if such settlement requires the payment of money damages unless the payment of any such damages by Bank is reasonably expected by Bank, following consultation with outside counsel, to be fully covered (disregarding any deductible to be paid by the Bank) under the Bank's existing director and officer insurance policies, including any tail policy, without the written consent of Purchaser (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld).

Section 5.17 WARN Act. The Bank agrees that, upon Purchaser's written request, it shall provide a notification under the WARN Act for any Bank or its Subsidiaries' employee terminations or layoffs following the Closing.

Section 7.1 Termination. This Agreement may be terminated and the Transactions may be abandoned at any time prior to the Effective Time, notwithstanding the approval thereof by the stockholders of the Bank:

(a) by mutual written consent of Purchaser and the Bank;

(b) by either the Bank or Purchaser:

(i) if the Merger shall not have been consummated on or before October 19, 2018 (the Outside Date); provided, that the right to terminate this Agreement under this Section 7.1(b)(i) shall not be available to (A) Purchaser if its or Purchaser Bank's failure to comply with any provision of this Agreement has been the cause of the failure of the Effective Time to occur on or before such date or (B) the Bank if its failure to comply with any provisions of this Agreement has been the cause of the failure of the Effective Time to occur on or before such date;

(ii) if any court of competent jurisdiction or other Governmental Entity shall have issued a judgment, order, injunction, rule or decree, or taken any other action restraining, enjoining or otherwise prohibiting any of the Transactions and such judgment, order, injunction, rule, decree or other action shall have become final and nonappealable;

(iii) if the Bank Stockholder Approval shall not have been obtained at the Bank Stockholders' Meeting or at any adjournment or postponement thereof at which a vote on the approval and adoption of this Agreement was taken; or

(iv) if any Governmental Entity that must grant a Requisite Regulatory Approval has denied approval of the consummation of the Merger or the other Transactions by final, nonappealable action of such Governmental Entity;

(c) by Purchaser:

(i) if the Bank shall have breached or failed to perform any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements set forth in this Agreement, which breach or failure to perform, either individually or in the aggregate, (A) would result in the failure of any of the conditions set forth in Sections 6.1 or 6.2 and (B) cannot be or has not been cured or has not been waived by the earlier of (i) the second (2nd) Business Day prior to the Outside Date and (ii) thirty (30) days after the giving of written notice to the Bank of such breach or failure;

(ii) if the Bank or the Bank Board (or any committee thereof) has (A) effected a Bank Adverse Recommendation Change, (B) failed to recommend the Merger and the approval and adoption of this Agreement by the stockholders of the Bank, (C) materially breached the terms of Section 5.3 in any respect adverse to Purchaser or (D) materially breached its obligations under Section 5.4 by failing to call, give notice of, convene and hold the Bank Stockholders Meeting in accordance with Section 5.4;

(iv) if there shall be any action taken, or any Law enacted, entered, enforced or deemed applicable to the Transactions, by any Governmental Entity, in connection with the grant of a Requisite Regulatory Approval or otherwise, which imposes any Burdensome Condition, or if any Governmental Entity with jurisdiction over Purchaser or its Subsidiaries have advised any of them of its determination to impose a restriction or requirement in the future, in connection with or as a result of the Transactions, which upon compliance therewith would constitute a Burdensome Condition, in either case notwithstanding Purchaser's compliance with Section 5.2, and so long as the time periods for appeals and request for reconsideration has run;

(v) if the Bank has experienced, or is reasonably likely to experience, a Bank Material Adverse Effect, which is not remedied or cured within thirty (30) days after notice of intention to terminate is given by Purchaser, which notice shall specify the nature of the matter or matters constituting such Bank Material Adverse Effect and which are the basis of such intention; provided, however, that the right to terminate that is specified in such notice of intention shall itself terminate unless notice of termination is given by Purchaser within fifteen (15) days following the end of such remedial or curative period; or

(vi) if the Measurement Price is below $61.88 on the trading day immediately prior to the Closing Date; or

(d) by the Bank:

(i) if Purchaser shall have breached or failed to perform any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements set forth in this Agreement, which breach or failure to perform, either individually or in the aggregate, (A) would result in the failure of any of the conditions set forth in Sections 6.1 or 6.3 and (B) cannot be or has not been cured or has not been waived by the earlier of (1) the second (2nd) Business Day prior to the Outside Date and (2) thirty (30) days after the giving of written notice to Purchaser of such breach or failure; or

(ii) if Purchaser has experienced, or is reasonably likely to experience, a Purchaser Material Adverse Effect, which is not remedied or cured within thirty (30) days after notice of intention to terminate is given by the Bank, which notice shall specify the nature of the matter or matters constituting such Purchaser Material Adverse Effect and which are the basis of such intention; provided, however, that the right to terminate that is specified in such notice of intention shall itself terminate unless notice of termination is given by the Bank within fifteen (15) days following the end of such remedial or curative period.

Section 7.2 Effect of Termination. In the event of termination of the Agreement, this Agreement shall forthwith become void and have no effect, without any liability or obligation on the part of Purchaser or the Bank, except that the Confidentiality Agreement, this Section 7.2, Section 7.3 (Fees and Expenses), and Article VIII (General Provisions) of this Agreement shall survive the termination hereof; provided, that no such termination shall relieve any party hereto from any liability or damages resulting from any Intentional Breach prior to such termination of any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements set forth in this Agreement.

Section 7.3 Fees and Expenses.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in this Section 7.3, all fees and expenses incurred in connection with this Agreement, the Merger and the other Transactions shall be paid by the party incurring such fees or expenses, whether or not the Merger is consummated. For the avoidance of doubt, the expenses incurred in connection with the filing, printing and mailing of the Proxy Statement shall be paid by the Bank, and all filing and other fees paid to the SEC, shall be paid by Purchaser. Each party shall be responsible for its own attorneys' fees, accountants' fees and related expenses in connection with the Merger.

(b) In the event that:

(i) (A) a Bank Acquisition Proposal (whether or not conditional) or intention to make a Bank Acquisition Proposal (whether or not conditional) shall have been made directly to the Bank's stockholders or otherwise publicly disclosed or otherwise communicated or made known to senior management of the Bank or the Bank Board, (B) this Agreement is thereafter terminated by the Bank or Purchaser pursuant to Section 7.1(b)(i), Section 7.1(b)(iii) or Section 7.1(c)(i), and (C) within fifteen (15) months after such termination the Bank or any of its Subsidiaries enters into a definitive agreement with respect to, or consummates a transaction contemplated by, any Bank Acquisition Proposal (which, in each case, need not be the same Bank Acquisition Proposal that shall have been made, publicly disclosed or communicated prior to termination hereof), then the Bank shall pay a termination fee of $9.2 million (the Bank Termination Fee) on the earlier of (i) the date of execution of such agreement or (ii) consummation of such transaction; or

(ii) this Agreement is terminated by Purchaser pursuant to Section 7.1(c)(ii) or Section 7.1(c)(iii) then, in any such event, the Bank shall pay to Purchaser the Bank Termination Fee, it being understood that in no event shall the Bank be required to pay an aggregate amount exceeding the Bank Termination Fee.

(c) For purposes of this Section 7.3, Bank Acquisition Proposal shall have the meaning ascribed thereto in Section 5.3(e)(i) except that references to 20% shall be replaced by 50% .

(d) Payment of the Bank Termination Fee shall be made by wire transfer of same day funds to the account or accounts designated by Purchaser (i) at the time or times provided in Section 7.3(b)(i), in the case of a Bank Termination Fee payable pursuant to Section 7.3(b)(i), and (ii) as promptly as reasonably practicable after termination (and, in any event, within two Business Days thereof), in the case of termination by Purchaser pursuant to Section 7.1(c)(ii) or Section 7.1(c)(iii). The right to receive and the payment of the Bank Termination Fee to Purchaser shall be Purchaser's sole and exclusive remedy and shall be deemed to be liquidated damages.

(e) Each of Bank and Purchaser acknowledges that the agreements contained in this Section 7.3 are an integral part of the Transactions, and that, without these agreements, the other party would not enter into this Agreement; accordingly, if either the Bank or Purchaser fails promptly to pay any amounts due pursuant to this Section 7.3, and, in order to obtain such payment, the other party commences a suit that results in a judgment against the non-paying party for the amounts set forth in this Section 7.3, the non-paying party shall pay to other party its costs and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses) in connection with such suit, together with interest on the amounts set forth in this Section 7.3 from the date of termination of this Agreement at a rate per annum equal to the prime rate published in The Wall Street Journal on the date such payment was required to be made.

Section 7.4 Amendment or Supplement. This Agreement may be amended, modified or supplemented by the parties by action taken or authorized by their respective Boards of Directors at any time prior to the Effective Time, whether before or after the Bank Stockholder Approval has been obtained; provided, that after the Bank Stockholder Approval has been obtained, no amendment shall be made that pursuant to applicable Law requires further approval or adoption by the stockholders of Bank without such further approval or adoption. This Agreement may not be amended, modified or supplemented in any manner, whether by course of conduct or otherwise, except by an instrument in writing specifically designated as an amendment hereto, signed on behalf of each of the parties in interest at the time of the amendment.

Section 7.5 Extension of Time; Waiver. At any time prior to the Effective Time, the parties may, by action taken or authorized by their respective Boards of Directors, to the extent permitted by applicable Law, (a) extend the time for the performance of any of the obligations or acts of the other parties, (b) waive any inaccuracies in the representations and warranties of the other parties set forth in this Agreement or any document delivered pursuant hereto or (c) subject to applicable Law, waive compliance with any of the agreements or conditions of the other parties contained herein. Any agreement on the part of a party to any such waiver shall be valid only if set forth in a written instrument executed and delivered by a duly authorized officer on behalf of such party. No failure or delay of any party in exercising any right or remedy hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any such right or power, or any abandonment or discontinuance of steps to enforce such right or power, or any course of conduct, preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right or power. Except as otherwise expressly set forth herein, the rights and remedies of the parties hereunder are cumulative and are not exclusive of any rights or remedies which they would otherwise have hereunder.

ARTICLE VIII

GENERAL PROVISIONS

(a) Representations and Warranties. The Stockholder represents and warrants to Purchaser as follows:

(i) Capacity. The Stockholder has all requisite capacity, power and authority to enter into and perform its obligations under this Agreement. No filing with, and no permit, authorization, consent or approval of, a Governmental Entity is necessary on the part of the Stockholder for the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement by the Stockholder or the consummation by the Stockholder of the transactions contemplated hereby, except where the failure to make or obtain such filing, permit, authorization, consent or approval would not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to impair the Stockholder's ability to perform its obligations under this Agreement in any material respect.

(ii) Due Authorization. This Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by the Stockholder and, if the Stockholder is not a natural person, the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement by the Stockholder and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby have been duly authorized by all necessary action on the part of the Stockholder.

Except as contemplated by this Agreement, the Stockholder has not (a) entered into any voting agreement or voting trust with respect to any Shares or entered into any other contract relating to the voting of the Shares or (b) appointed or granted a proxy or power of attorney with respect to any Shares in any manner which is inconsistent with this Agreement. Neither the execution and delivery of this Agreement by the Stockholder nor the consummation by the Stockholder of the transactions contemplated hereby or compliance by the Stockholder with any of the provisions hereof shall (1) if the Stockholder is not a natural person, conflict with or violate any provision of the organizational documents of the Stockholder, (2) result in any breach or violation of, or constitute a default (or an event which, with notice or lapse of time or both, would become a default) under, or give to others any rights of termination, amendment, acceleration or cancellation of, or result in the creation of a Lien on any property or asset of the Stockholder pursuant to any Contract to which the Stockholder is a party or by which the Stockholder or any property or asset of the Stockholder is bound or affected, or (3) violate any Law or judgment, order, injunction, ruling or decree of any Governmental Entity applicable to the Stockholder or any of its properties or assets, except in the case of clauses (2) or (3) for violations, breaches or defaults that would not, individually or in the aggregate, impair the Stockholder's ability to perform its obligations hereunder on a timely basis.

(v) Ownership of Shares. Except for restrictions in favor of Purchaser and Purchaser Bank pursuant to this Agreement, and except for such transfer restrictions of general applicability as may be provided under the Securities Act and the blue sky laws of the various States of the United States, the Stockholder is the sole record and beneficial owner of all of the Shares, in each case free and clear of Liens, and has the power to vote or direct the vote with respect to the Shares. (vi) Absence of Litigation. As of the date hereof, there is no Action pending or, to the knowledge of the Stockholder, threatened against or affecting the Stockholder before or by any Governmental Entity, except, as would not reasonably be expected, either individually or in the aggregate, to impair the ability of the Stockholder to perform its obligations hereunder in any material respect.

(vii) Reliance. The Stockholder understands and acknowledges that Purchaser and Purchaser Bank are entering into the Merger Agreement in reliance upon the Stockholder's execution and delivery of this Agreement and the representations, warranties, covenants and agreements of the Stockholder contained herein.

(b) Covenants. The Stockholder hereby further covenants and agrees as follows:

(i) The Stockholder agrees not to take any action that would make any representation or warranty of the Stockholder contained herein untrue or incorrect in any material respect.

(ii) The Stockholder hereby authorizes Purchaser and the Bank to publish and disclose in any announcement or disclosure in connection with the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, including the Registration Statement filed in connection with the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement and any other applicable filings under the Exchange Act or the Securities Act, the Stockholder's identity and ownership of the Shares and the nature of the Stockholder's obligations under this Agreement.

(iii) The Stockholder hereby waives and agrees not to exercise any appraisal or dissenter's rights which may arise with respect to the Shares in connection with Merger or under the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement.

(c) Until the Expiration Time, the Stockholder shall not, and shall use its reasonable best efforts to cause its Representative not to, directly or indirectly: (i) solicit, initiate, endorse, or knowingly encourage or facilitate (including by way of furnishing non-public information) any inquiry, proposal or offer with respect to, or the making or completion of, any Bank Acquisition Proposal, or any inquiry, proposal or offer that is reasonably likely to lead to any Bank Acquisition Proposal, (ii) enter into, continue or otherwise participate in any discussions or negotiations regarding, or furnish to any Person any nonpublic information or data or afford access to the business, directors, officers, employees, properties, facilities, assets, contracts, books or records of the Bank or any of its Subsidiaries to any Person in connection with any Bank Acquisition Proposal, (iii) approve or recommend any Bank Acquisition Proposal or (iv) approve or recommend, or propose publicly to approve or recommend, or execute or enter into any Bank Alternative Acquisition Agreement constituting or related to, or which is intended to or is reasonably likely to result in, any Bank Acquisition Proposal (other than a confidentiality agreement permitted by the terms of Section 5.3(a) of the Merger Agreement).

(d) The Stockholder agrees, while this Agreement is in effect, to promptly (and in any event within twenty-four (24) hours of receipt) notify Purchaser of (i) any fact, event or circumstance that would constitute a breach of the representations and warranties of the Stockholder under this Agreement, (ii) the receipt by the Stockholder of any notice or other communication from any Person alleging that the consent of such Person is or may be required in connection with this Agreement and (iii) the number of any new shares of Bank Common Stock, if any, acquired by such Stockholder or any of its Affiliates after the date hereof.

Section 4. Termination. Other than this Section 4, Section 2(b)(ii) and Section 5, which shall survive any termination of this Agreement, this Agreement and all obligations of the Stockholder hereunder will automatically terminate and cease to be of any further force and effect upon the earlier of (a) the Effective Time and (b) the termination of the Merger Agreement in accordance with its terms (such earlier time, the Expiration Time). (k) Severability. The provisions of this Agreement shall be deemed severable and the invalidity or unenforceability of any provision shall not affect the validity or enforceability of the other provisions hereof. If any provision of this Agreement, or the application thereof to any Person or any circumstance, is determined by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid or unenforceable, (i) a suitable and equitable provision shall be substituted therefor in order to carry out, so far as may be valid and enforceable, the intent and purpose of such invalid or unenforceable provision and (ii) the remainder of this Agreement and the application of such provision to other Persons or circumstances shall not be affected by such invalidity or unenforceability.

Ladies and Gentlemen:

Gibraltar Private Bank & Trust Co. (Bank), IBERIABANK Corporation (Purchaser) and IBERIABANK, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Purchaser (Purchaser Bank), are proposing to enter into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Agreement) pursuant to which Bank will merge with and into Purchaser Bank with Purchaser Bank being the surviving corporation (the Merger). Pursuant to the terms and conditions of the Agreement, at the Effective Time, each share of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of Bank (Bank Common Stock) issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time, except for certain shares of Bank Common Stock as specified in the Agreement, will be converted automatically into and shall thereafter represent the right to receive 1.9749 shares (the Exchange Ratio) of common stock of Purchaser, par value $1.00 per share (Purchaser Common Stock); provided, however, (i) if the Measurement Price is greater than $94.88 per share, then the Exchange Ratio shall be adjusted to equal the quotient (rounded to the nearest ten-thousandth of a share) obtained by dividing $187.3785 by the Measurement Price, or (ii) if the Measurement Price is less than $70.13 per share, then the Exchange Ratio shall be adjusted to equal the quotient (rounded to the nearest ten-thousandth of a share) obtained by dividing $138.4997 by the Measurement Price. As defined in the Agreement, the term Measurement Price means the arithmetic mean of the daily volume weighted average trading prices of Purchaser Common Stock on the NASDAQ Global Select Market on each of the ten (10) trading days ending one (1) Business Day immediately prior to the day of the Effective Time. Capitalized terms used herein without definition have the meanings assigned to them in the Agreement. The terms and conditions of the Merger are more fully set forth in the Agreement. You have requested our opinion as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the Exchange Ratio to the holders of Bank Common Stock.

Sandler O Neill & Partners, L.P. (Sandler O Neill , we or our), as part of its investment banking business, is regularly engaged in the valuation of financial institutions and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions and other corporate transactions. In connection with this opinion, we have reviewed and considered, among other things: (i) a draft of the Agreement, dated October 14, 2017; (ii) certain publicly available financial statements and other historical financial information of Bank that we deemed relevant; (iii) certain publicly available financial statements and other historical financial information of Purchaser that we deemed relevant; (iv) certain internal financial projections for Bank for the years ending December 31, 2017 through December 31, 2021, as provided by the senior management of Bank; (v) publicly available consensus mean analyst net income estimates for Purchaser for the year ending December 31, 2017 and mean analyst consensus earnings per share and balance sheet estimates for Purchaser for the years ending December 31, 2018 and December 31, 2019, as confirmed by the senior management of Purchaser, as well as estimated long-term earnings per share and balance sheet growth rates for the years ending December 31, 2020 and December 31, 2021 and estimated dividends per share for the years ending December 31, 2017 through December 31, 2021, as provided by the senior management of Purchaser; (vi) the pro forma financial impact of the Merger on Purchaser based on certain assumptions relating to purchase accounting adjustments, cost savings and transaction expenses, as well as net income estimates for Bank for the three quarters ending December 31, 2018 and the years ending December 31, 2019 and December 31, 2020 with a long term estimated earnings growth rate for the years thereafter, as provided by the senior management of Purchaser; (vii) the publicly reported historical price and trading activity for Purchaser Common Stock, including a comparison of certain stock market information for Purchaser Common Stock and certain stock indices as well as publicly available information for certain other similar companies, the securities of which are publicly traded; (viii) a comparison of certain financial information for Bank and Purchaser with similar financial institutions for which information is publicly available; (ix) the financial terms of certain recent business combinations in the bank industry (on a nationwide and statewide basis), to the extent publicly available; (x) the current market environment generally and the banking environment in particular; and (xi) such other information, financial studies, analyses and investigations and financial, economic and market criteria as we considered relevant. We also discussed with certain members of the management of Bank and its representatives the business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects of Bank and held similar discussions with certain members of the management of Purchaser and its representatives regarding the business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects of Purchaser.

In performing our review, we have relied upon the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial and other information that was available to and reviewed by us from public sources, that was provided to us by Bank or Purchaser or their respective representatives, or that was otherwise reviewed by us, and we have assumed such accuracy and completeness for purposes of rendering this opinion without any independent verification or investigation. We have relied on the assurances of the respective managements of Bank and Purchaser that they are not aware of any facts or circumstances that would make any of such information inaccurate or misleading.

We have not been asked to and have not undertaken an independent verification of any of such information and we do not assume any responsibility or liability for the accuracy or completeness thereof. We did not make an independent evaluation or perform an appraisal of the specific assets, the collateral securing assets or the liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of Bank or Purchaser or any of their respective subsidiaries, nor have we been furnished with any such evaluations or appraisals. We render no opinion or evaluation on the collectability of any assets or the future performance of any loans of Bank or Purchaser. We did not make an independent evaluation of the adequacy of the allowance for loan losses of Bank or Purchaser, or of the combined entity after the Merger, and we have not reviewed any individual credit files relating to Bank or Purchaser. We have assumed, with your consent, that the respective allowances for loan losses for both Bank and Purchaser are adequate to cover such losses and will be adequate on a pro forma basis for the combined entity.

In preparing its analyses, Sandler O'Neill used certain internal financial projections for Bank for the years ending December 31, 2017 through December 31, 2021, as provided by the senior management of Bank. In addition, Sandler O'Neill used publicly available consensus mean analyst net income estimates for Purchaser for the year ending December 31, 2017 and mean analyst consensus earnings per share and balance sheet estimates for Purchaser for the years ending December 31, 2018 and December 31, 2019, as confirmed by the senior management of Purchaser, as well as estimated long-term earnings per share and balance sheet growth rates for the years ending December 31, 2020 and December 31, 2021 and estimated dividends per share for the years ending December 31, 2017 through December 31, 2021, as provided by the senior management of Purchaser. Sandler O'Neill also received and used in its pro forma analyses certain assumptions relating to purchase accounting adjustments, cost savings and transaction expenses as well as net income estimates for Bank for the three quarters ending December 31, 2018 and the years ending December 31, 2019 and December 31, 2020 with a long term estimated earnings growth rate for the years thereafter, as provided by the senior management of Purchaser. With respect to the foregoing information, the respective managements of Bank and Purchaser confirmed to us that such information reflected (or, in the case of the publicly available consensus mean analyst net income, earnings per share and balance sheet estimates referred to above, were consistent with) the best currently available projections, estimates and judgments of those respective managements as to the future financial performance of Bank and Purchaser, respectively, and the other matters covered thereby, and we assumed that the future financial performance reflected in such information would be achieved. We express no opinion as to such information, or the assumptions on which such information is based. We have also assumed that there has been no material change in the respective assets, financial condition, results of operations, business or prospects of Bank or Purchaser since the date of the most recent financial statements made available to us. We have assumed in all respects material to our analysis that Bank and Purchaser will remain as going concerns for all periods relevant to our analysis.

We have also assumed, with your consent, that (i) each of the parties to the Agreement will comply in all material respects with all material terms and conditions of the Agreement and all related agreements, that all of the representations and warranties contained in such agreements are true and correct in all material respects, that each of the parties to such agreements will perform in all material respects all of the covenants and other obligations required to be performed by such party under such agreements and that the conditions precedent in such agreements are not and will not be waived, (ii) in the course of obtaining the necessary regulatory or third party approvals, consents and releases with respect to the Merger, no delay, limitation, restriction or condition will be imposed that would have an adverse effect on Bank, Purchaser or the Merger or any related transaction, (iii) the Merger and any related transactions will be consummated in accordance with the terms of the Agreement without any waiver, modification or amendment of any material term, condition or agreement thereof and in compliance with all applicable laws and other requirements, and (iv) the Merger will qualify as a tax-free reorganization for federal income tax purposes. Finally, with your consent, we have relied upon the advice that Bank has received from its legal, accounting and tax advisors as to all legal, accounting and tax matters relating to the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Agreement. We express no opinion as to any such matters.

Our opinion is necessarily based on financial, economic, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to us as of, the date hereof. Events occurring after the date hereof could materially affect this opinion. We have not undertaken to update, revise, reaffirm or withdraw this opinion or otherwise comment upon events occurring after the date hereof. We express no opinion as to the trading value of Purchaser Common Stock at any time or what the value of Purchaser Common Stock will be once it is actually received by the holders of Bank Common Stock.

We have acted as Bank's financial advisor in connection with the Merger and will receive a fee for our services, a significant portion of which is contingent upon the closing of the Merger. We will also receive a fee for rendering this opinion, which opinion fee will be credited in full towards the portion of the transaction fee which will become payable to Sandler O'Neill on the day of closing of the Merger. Bank has also agreed to indemnify us against certain claims and liabilities arising out of our engagement and to reimburse us for certain of our out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with our engagement. We have not received any compensation for any other investment banking services provided to Bank in the two years preceding the date of this opinion. In the two years preceding the date hereof we have provided certain investment banking services to Purchaser. Most recently, we acted as a co-manager in connection with Purchaser's follow-on offerings of common stock in March 2017 and December 2016. In the ordinary course of our business as a broker-dealer, we may purchase securities from and sell securities to Purchaser and its affiliates. We may also actively trade the equity and debt securities of Purchaser and its affiliates for our own account and for the accounts of our customers.

Our opinion is directed to the Board of Directors of Bank in connection with its consideration of the Agreement and the Merger and does not constitute a recommendation to any shareholder of Bank as to how any such shareholder should vote at any meeting of shareholders called to consider and vote upon the approval of the Agreement and the Merger. Our opinion is directed only to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the Exchange Ratio to the holders of Bank Common Stock and does not address the underlying business decision of Bank to engage in the Merger, the form or structure of the Merger or any other transactions contemplated in the Agreement, the relative merits of the Merger as compared to any other alternative transactions or business strategies that might exist for Bank or the effect of any other transaction in which Bank might engage. We also do not express any opinion as to the fairness of the amount or nature of the compensation to be received in the Merger by any officer, director or employee of Bank or Purchaser, or any class of such persons, if any, relative to the compensation to be received in the Merger by any other shareholder. This opinion has been approved by Sandler O'Neill's fairness opinion committee. This opinion shall not be reproduced without Sandler O'Neill's prior written consent; provided, however, Sandler O'Neill will provide its consent for the opinion to be included in regulatory filings to be completed in connection with the Merger.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing, it is our opinion that, as of the date hereof, the Exchange Ratio is fair to holders of Bank Common Stock from a financial point of view.

Very truly yours,

TITLE 12. BANKS AND BANKING

CHAPTER 2. NATIONAL BANKS

SUBCHAPTER XV. CONVERSION OF NATIONAL BANKS INTO STATE BANKS

12 U.S.C. § 214a. Procedure for conversion, merger, or consolidation; vote of stockholders

A national banking association may, by vote of the holders of at least two-thirds of each class of its capital stock, convert into, or merge or consolidate with, a State bank in the same State in which the national banking association is located, under a State charter, in the following manner:

(a) [Text Omitted]

(b) Rights of dissenting stockholders A shareholder of a national banking association who votes against the conversion, merger, or consolidation, or who has given notice in writing to the bank at or prior to such meeting that he dissents from the plan, shall be entitled to receive in cash the value of the shares held by him, if and when the conversion, merger, or consolidation is consummated, upon written request made to the resulting State bank at any time before thirty days after the date of consummation of such conversion, merger, or consolidation, accompanied by the surrender of his stock certificates. The value of such shares shall be determined as of the date on which the shareholders' meeting was held authorizing the conversion, merger, or consolidation, by a committee of three persons, one to be selected by majority vote of the dissenting shareholders entitled to receive the value of their shares, one by the directors of the resulting State bank, and the third by the two so chosen. The valuation agreed upon by any two of three appraisers thus chosen shall govern; but, if the value so fixed shall not be satisfactory to any dissenting shareholder who has requested payment as provided herein, such shareholder may within five days after being notified of the appraised value of his shares appeal to the Comptroller of the Currency, who shall cause a reappraisal to be made, which shall be final and binding as to the value of the shares of the appellant. If, within ninety days from the date of consummation of the conversion, merger, or consolidation, for any reason one or more of the appraisers is not selected as herein provided, or the appraisers fail to determine the value of such shares, the Comptroller shall upon written request of any interested party, cause an appraisal to be made, which shall be final and binding on all parties. The expenses of the Comptroller in making the reappraisal, or the appraisal as the case may be, shall be paid by the resulting State bank. The plan of conversion, merger, or consolidation shall provide the manner of disposing of the shares of the resulting State bank not taken by the dissenting shareholders of the national banking association.

DISSENTING SHAREHOLDER RIGHTS AND THE APPRAISAL PROCESS

Perfecting Dissenters' Rights

A shareholder dissenting from a conversion, consolidation, or merger involving a national bank may be entitled to receive the value of his or her shares from the resulting entity. The specific details of the steps a shareholder must follow to perfect his or her dissenters' rights are detailed in the appropriate statute under which the transaction is authorized. See 12 USC 214a, 215, 215a, 215a-2, 215a-3, or 215c and 12 CFR 5.33. The requirements in each of these sections vary slightly and should be read carefully and followed precisely to ensure dissenters' rights are not erroneously forfeited. In addition, any proxy material distributed to the shareholders should describe the appropriate steps for dissenting shareholders.

Generally, a shareholder must either dissent by voting against the transaction at the shareholders' meeting or notifying the bank in writing at or prior to such meeting that he or she dissents from the plan to convert, consolidate, or merge. Within 30 days after the date of consummation of the transaction, the dissenting shareholder also must confirm in writing his or her dissent to the transaction and surrender his or her stock certificates to the resulting bank. Next, a committee of three is selected to appraise the stock of the dissenting shareholders. The committee would be comprised of one representative that the majority of dissenting shareholders appoints, one representative the resulting entity appoints, and one representative that those two representatives appoint. If two members of the three-member committee agree on the value of the shares, that value will govern. If that value is acceptable to one or more dissenting shareholders, the process is complete for those shareholders who find the value acceptable, and the appraised value of the shares is paid by the resulting entity. If that value is not acceptable to one or more dissenting shareholders, those shareholders may, within five days of being notified of the appraised value, appeal to the OCC, who will then conduct a reappraisal that will be final and binding upon the appellants.

In addition, if, within 90 days of the date of consummation of the transaction, for any reason one or more of the appraisers are not selected, or the appraisers fail to determine a value, any interested party may request in writing an appraisal from the OCC. With two exceptions, the statutes indicate that the OCC's appraisal or reappraisal is final and binding on all parties, and the resulting entity pays the cost of an OCC appraisal or reappraisal.

The exceptions are for transactions in which a national bank is merging or consolidating into a federal savings association or in which an uninsured national bank is merging into a nonbank affiliate. In both of those instances, the regulations require the parties, including the national bank, to agree that the OCC's appraisal will be final and binding and on how the total expenses of the OCC will be divided among the parties and paid to the OCC. See 12 CFR 5.33(g)(3)(iii) and 5.33(g)(5)(iv). Also, see the Licensing Fee Schedule for the OCC's current fee for performing a stock appraisal.

In addition, when dissenters' rights are provided in accordance with 12 USC 215 or 215a, the dissenting shareholder may also be entitled to receive additional compensation. The shares of stock of the receiving entity that would have been delivered to the dissenting shareholder must be sold at public auction. If the shares are sold at public auction at a price greater than the amount paid to the dissenting shareholders, the excess of such sale price must also be paid to such dissenting shareholders.

The rights and appraisal process for dissenting shareholders of a state bank or nonbank affiliate is determined in the manner as prescribed by the law of the state or other jurisdiction, as appropriate.

OCC's Valuation Methodology

Because the statutes that provide for appraisals do not define value nor does the legislative history illuminate congressional intent, the OCC has elected to use valuation methods that ensure that stockholders receive full value for their shares being appraised. The OCC normally will not apply certain minority discounts to the fair valuation of the dissenting shares of stock. After reviewing the particular facts in each case and the available information on a bank's shares, the OCC selects an appropriate valuation method, or combination of methods, to determine a fair estimate of the shares' value.

The OCC values the stock as of the date of consummation of the conversion, consolidation, or merger, with the exception of those transactions that are subject to the requirements of 12 USC 214a, in which case the value is determined as of the date the shareholders meeting was held authorizing the transaction. The OCC also may apply a market discount due to the lack of marketability for stock that is closely held or has a limited trading history. The use of a marketability discount for stock that is not readily marketable is a standard practice in the business valuation industry. The OCC has determined that where the facts warrant the inclusion of this type of discount, such a discount is helpful in reaching the best possible determination of the value.

For banks that are considered going concerns, the OCC typically uses one of three methods or a combination of those methods to determine a reasonable estimate of the shares' value. Each of those methods is described below: market value, investment value, and adjusted book value. If more than one method is used, varying weights are applied in reaching an overall valuation. The weight given to the value by a particular valuation method is based on how accurately the given method is believed to represent a fair price. For example, the OCC may give more weight to a value representing infrequent trading by shareholders than to the value derived from the investment value method when the subject bank's earnings trend is so irregular that it is considered to be a poor predictor of future earnings.

For mergers and consolidations, the OCC recognizes that purchase premiums do exist and may, in some instances, be paid in the purchase of small blocks of shares. However, the payment of purchase premiums depends entirely on the acquisition or control plans of the purchasers, and such payments are not regular or predictable elements of value. Consequently, the OCC's valuation methods do not include consideration of purchase premiums in arriving at the value of shares.

Market Value Method

Market value is the price at which a willing buyer and seller would exchange a share of stock in an arms-length transaction. If sufficient trading in the shares exists and the prices are available from direct quotes from the Wall Street Journal or a market maker, those quotes are considered in determining value. In the event the stock is heavily traded on a major exchange, it is likely the OCC would simply apply that value for the appropriate date. If no value is readily available, or if the value available is not well established, the OCC likely will use other methods of estimating value, such as the investment value and adjusted book value methods.

Investment Value Method

Investment value is a method of valuation that attempts to make a reasonable and informed assessment of earnings capacity at the bank and then applies the market perception of the value of banking organizations with similar earnings potential. This two-step process requires the establishment of a peer group comprised of banking organizations with similar earnings potential for which market data is readily available, and an analysis of historical earnings data for the target bank. In practice, the investment value is calculated by multiplying a selected price to earnings ratio for the peer banks by the earnings capacity per share of the target bank.

The peer banks are selected based on location, size, and earnings patterns. In order to select a reasonable peer group when there are too few comparable independent banks in a location that are comparable to that of the subject bank, the pool of banks from which a peer group is selected may be broadened. For example, the peer group may be broadened to include one-bank holding company banks in a comparable location, or by selecting banks in less comparable locations that are similar in asset size and earnings patterns to the subject bank. Once the peer banks are selected, the selected price to earnings ratio of the peer banks is then applied to the earnings per share estimated for the subject bank to reach a fair estimate of value.

Adjusted Book Value Method

The third method the OCC uses for reaching a fair estimate of value is the adjusted book value method. An adjusted book value is derived by multiplying the book value of the target bank's assets per share times a selected market price to book value ratio for a group of comparable banking organizations. The adjusted book value reflects the premium or discount to a bank's book value that is attributed to the condition and prospects of banking organizations in similar situations. The adjusted book value method is an asset-based method whose value is reflective of a bank in liquidation.
