Item 8.01 Other Events.

As previously disclosed, including most recently on November 13, 2017 in its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q (the November 2017 10-Q), the Motors Liquidation Company GUC Trust (the GUC Trust) is involved in litigation concerning purported economic losses, personal injuries and/or death suffered by certain lessees and owners of vehicles (such persons, Potential Plaintiffs) manufactured by General Motors Corporation prior to its sale of substantially all of its assets to NGMCO, Inc., n/k/a General Motors LLC (New GM). Certain of the Potential Plaintiffs have filed lawsuits against New GM, filed motions seeking authority from the Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York (the Bankruptcy Court) to file claims against the GUC Trust (the Late Claims Motions), or are members of a putative class covered by those actions.

As previously disclosed, including most recently in its November 2017 10-Q, the GUC Trust was previously engaged in discussions with certain of the Potential Plaintiffs regarding a potential settlement of the Late Claims Motions and various related issues (the Potential Plaintiff Settlement), and such discussions had meaningfully progressed. The GUC Trust ultimately did not execute the Potential Plaintiff Settlement. Instead, after careful consideration and negotiations, the GUC Trust entered into a Forbearance Agreement (the Forbearance Agreement) with New GM by which (i) the GUC Trust agreed not to seek an order estimating the claims of the Potential Plaintiffs or seek the issuance of additional Adjustment Shares from New GM until the final resolution of certain litigation, (ii) New GM agreed to pay the costs of the GUC Trust's litigation in connection with the Late Claims Motions and related litigation, and (iii) New GM and the GUC Trust agreed to negotiate an appropriate rate of return from New GM should any GUC Trust distributions be held up solely due to the Late Claims Motions litigation.

On September 11, 2017, the Potential Plaintiffs filed a motion with the Bankruptcy Court seeking an order that the Potential Plaintiff Settlement was binding on the GUC Trust notwithstanding the fact that no party executed the Potential Plaintiff Settlement (the Motion to Enforce). On September 12, 2017, the GUC Trust filed a motion seeking approval of the Forbearance Agreement (the Forbearance Motion).

On January 18, 2018, the Bankruptcy Court entered a Memorandum Opinion and Order (the Enforcement Decision) denying the Potential Plaintiffs Motion to Enforce. In denying the Motion to Enforce, the Bankruptcy Court found that the unexecuted Potential Plaintiff Settlement was not enforceable because it contained an unambiguous provision that it would not become enforceable until executed. In so finding, however, the Bankruptcy Court also found, among other things, that the GUC Trust's decision to abandon the Potential Plaintiff Settlement in lieu of the Forbearance Agreement was a flouting of the spirit of the law and founded in bad faith. The GUC Trust disagrees with these findings by the Bankruptcy Court and is determining whether to appeal or otherwise formally contest them.

The Bankruptcy Court further directed in the Enforcement Decision that counsel for all relevant parties promptly meet and confer to draft a proposed schedule for completing discovery, briefing and hearings of the Late Claims Motions. Counsel were directed to file an agreed proposed schedule, or separate proposed schedules if no agreement can be reached, on or before February 9, 2018. Counsel for the GUC Trust has taken steps to comply with the Bankruptcy Court's direction. The Bankruptcy Court will conduct a scheduling conference on February 21, 2018 at 10 a.m.

The Bankruptcy Court also cautioned in the Enforcement Decision that approval of the Forbearance Agreement may not be forthcoming. As of the date hereof, no hearing with respect to the Forbearance Motion has been scheduled by the Bankruptcy Court.

A copy of the Enforcement Decision is filed as Exhibit 99.1 to this Form 8-K and the full text thereof is incorporated by reference herein in full.
