Re: April 24, 2018 Letter to Board of Directors

Dear Mr. Miller:

Reference is made to your letter addressed to the Board of Directors of Destination Maternity Corporation (the Company), dated April 24, 2018, which, as has become your pattern, purports to express unfounded concerns and misleading characterizations of the Company's actions relative to its 2018 Annual Meeting of Stockholders. Your professed hope for a fair and transparent election contest could best be achieved if you ceased such pejorative and pointless public posturing and, instead, focused on substance and the best interests of our stockholders.

To set the record straight, again, the Company has timely complied with all of its obligations to you respecting your April 9, 2018 letter demanding, pursuant to Section 220 of the Delaware General Corporation Law, to inspect and review the Company's stock ledger, the Company's list of stockholders and certain other books and records of the Company.

To address the specific points in your April 24, 2018 letter, on April 20, 2018, the Company's proxy solicitor provided to your proxy solicitor the registered holder list for the Company, which included the holders of restricted stock granted under the Company's equity incentive plan. Notwithstanding that, the Company's proxy solicitor provided to your proxy solicitor today an updated registered holder list that clearly marked the holders of restricted stock. Moreover, the Company's proxy solicitor has requested a Non-Objecting Beneficial Owners list from Broadridge and will promptly provide that list to your proxy solicitor once it is available.

Very truly yours,

/s/ Barry Erdos
Barry Erdos
Chairman of the Board of Directors
