Your Health Journey

On everyone's health journey, there are sometimes bumps in the road.

Your health services company is there to help you get over those bumps, by connecting you with a health care professional, pharmacist, or health coach when you need it.

But still, there are sometimes detours and disconnects that can make your health journey more difficult.

It's time we pave a better path. And, now we will. By bringing together two health services companies—Cigna and Express Scripts.

These two trusted names are working to combine as one, to help advance health care in a ground-breaking collaboration of ideas, insights, and technology.

We'll be able to offer expanded choice and lower costs in ways that have never been done before.

And by delivering personalized health care that's integrated, we'll help chart a new course to help our customers avoid as many bumps in the road as possible. Let's take a closer look.

Last year, Gloria was hospitalized due to complications from diabetes.

Once released, she struggled to follow her recommended treatment plan and was slow to refill her prescriptions, so she ended up being re-admitted. Cigna and Express Scripts believe that care shouldn't end when a patient leaves the hospital.

Together, we'll enhance the services we offer to more proactively help Gloria address her whole health.

Not only will Gloria be connected with a case management nurse, she'll be able to speak with a specialty pharmacist who'll show her where she can fill her prescriptions for the lowest price and identify any potential gaps in care.

She and her doctor will be able to review her daily blood glucose level results in real time through new connected technology.

And her expanded care team will answer any questions Gloria may have along the way.

We'll be able to help Gloria stay on a healthier course than ever before.

With this coming together of ideas and resources, we'll help pave the way to a smoother health journey for our customers

addressing the whole person and helping to change the health care landscape from disconnected to connected and from complicated to simple.

Cigna and Express Scripts.

Improving care. Expanding choice. And lowering costs.
