Note Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

Statements in this Current Report on Form 8-K that are forward-looking statements are based upon current expectations and assumptions, and involve certain risks and uncertainties within the meaning of the U.S. Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Words or expressions such as seeking, expected, believe, hope, plan, intends, expects, anticipates or variations of such words and similar expressions are intended to identify such forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements by their nature address matters that are, to different degrees, uncertain, such as statements about expected income; shareholder value; revenues; and growth. Key risks are described in our reports filed with the SEC including in our annual report on Form 10-K and quarterly reports on Form 10-Q. Readers should note that forward-looking statements are subject to change and to inherent risks and uncertainties and may be impacted by several factors, including:

external economic forces that could have a material adverse impact on our advertising revenues and results of operations;

the ability of our radio stations to compete effectively in their respective markets for advertising revenues;

our ability to respond to changes in technology, standards and services that affect the radio industry; audience acceptance of our content, particularly our radio programs;

our substantial debt levels and the potential effect of restrictive debt covenants on our operational flexibility and ability to pay dividends;

our dependence on federally issued licenses subject to extensive federal regulation;

the risk that our FCC broadcasting licenses and/or goodwill could become impaired;

the failure or destruction of the internet, satellite systems and transmitter facilities that we depend upon to distribute its programming;

disruptions or security breaches of our information technology infrastructure; actions by the FCC or new legislation affecting the radio industry;

the loss of key personnel;

the fact that we are controlled by the Beasley family, which creates difficulties for any attempt to gain control of us;
