Item 8.01. Other Events

Legal Proceedings — Class Action

Set forth below is a supplement to the description of the class action lawsuit contained in Note 12. “Commitments and Contingencies” under the heading “Legal Proceedings — Class Action” of the condensed consolidated financial statements included in the Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q filed by First Solar, Inc. (the “Company”) with the Securities and Exchange Commission on November 9, 2015.

On March 15, 2012, a purported class action lawsuit titled Smilovits v. First Solar, Inc., et al., Case No. 2:12-cv-00555-DGC, was filed in the United States District Court for the District of Arizona (the “Arizona District Court”) against the Company and certain of our current and former directors and officers (the “Defendants”). The complaint was filed on behalf of persons who purchased or otherwise acquired the Company’s publicly traded securities between April 30, 2008 and February 28, 2012 (the “Class Action”). The complaint generally alleges that the Defendants violated Sections 10(b) and 20(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 by making false and misleading statements regarding the Company’s financial performance and prospects. The action includes claims for damages, including interest, and an award of reasonable costs and attorneys’ fees to the putative class.

On August 11, 2015, the Arizona District Court granted Defendants’ motion for summary judgment in part and denied it in part, and certified an issue for immediate appeal to the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit (the “Court of Appeals”). The plaintiffs’ motion for summary judgment was denied. On August 20, 2015, the Company filed a petition for interlocutory appeal with the Court of Appeals. Upon the filing of this petition, the Arizona District Court entered a stay until the Court of Appeals decided whether to take the appeal and, if it did, until the appeal is decided. On November 18, 2015, the Court of Appeals issued an order granting permission to proceed with the appeal and setting a briefing schedule.
