Notice to the Market

Banco Bradesco and Banco do Brasil start dealings to explore businesses related to loyalty program by coalition

Banco Bradesco S.A. (“Bradesco”) and Banco do Brasil S.A. (“BB”) hereby inform that Companhia Brasileira de Soluções e Serviços (“CBSS”) initiated, through its wholly-owned subsidiary that already exists, LIVELO S.A. (“LIVELO”), the dealings to explore businesses related to loyalty program by coalition.

The loyalty program by coalition allows the customer to accumulate and rescue points from various partners.

LIVELO is a company with indirect participation of Bradesco, with 50.01% of the capital stock, and of BB, with 49.99% of the capital stock, through CBSS, and has as its main objective:

- (i) to act as an independent and open loyalty program by coalition, having as partners: payment instrument issuers, retailers and other loyalty programs, among others;
- (ii) to bring together a diverse group of relevant and strategic partners, both in the generation of loyalty points as in the possibilities of rescue of benefits;
- (iii) to develop own loyalty points to be offered to partners of generation / accumulation of points and convertible into awards and benefits in the rescue partners.

The start of the operation of the new business is subject to the fulfillment of legal and regulatory formalities applicable.
