PART III — NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

Braskem S.A. (the "Company") is unable to file its Annual Report on Form 20-F (the "Form 20-F") for the period ended December 31, 2018 within the prescribed time period because additional procedures and analysis on its internal processes and controls are still been conducted by the Company in connection with its financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2017 and cannot be completed by the prescribed due date without unreasonable effort or expense.

As previously disclosed by the Company in current reports furnished on Form 6-K, the Company is currently working to complete the filing of its annual report on Form 20-F for the year ended December 31, 2017.

The Company is continuing to use its best efforts to conclude the referred procedures as soon as possible and to completion of the audited consolidated financial statements for the 2017 and 2018 years to be included therein.

As of the date of filing of this Form, the Company does not expect any material change to its audited financial statements as of and for the year ended December 31, 2018 (prepared in accordance with IFRS as issued by the IASB and audited under Brazilian and international standards) that were furnished to the Commission on Form 6-K on March 15, 2019 (the "2018 Brazilian Financial Statements").

This Form 12b-25 contains "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. These forward-looking statements are based on management's current intent, belief, expectations, estimates and projections. These statements are not guarantees of future performance and involve risks, uncertainties, assumptions and other factors that are difficult to predict. Actual results may vary materially from what is expressed in or indicated by the forward-looking statements.
