Item 3.01 Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard; Transfer of Listing.

On September 16, 2009, ThermoGenesis Corp. ("Company") received a notice from the Nasdaq Listing Qualifications Department ("NASDAQ") notifying the Company that for 30 consecutive business days, the bid price of the Company's common stock has closed below the minimum $1.00 per share requirement for continued inclusion under Marketplace Rule 5550(a)(2). The Company has been provided with 180 calendar days (until March 15, 2010) to regain compliance. In order to regain compliance, at any time before March 15, 2010, the bid price of the Company's common stock must close at a price of at least $1.00 per share for a minimum of 10 consecutive business days. The notice states that NASDAQ will provide the Company with written notification when it has regained compliance.

If compliance cannot be demonstrated by March 15, 2010, then NASDAQ will decide whether the Company meets all applicable standards for initial listing on the Capital Market (except the bid price requirement) based on the Company's most recent public filings and market information. The notice states that, if the Company meets these standards, then the Company will be granted an additional 180 calendar day compliance period. If the Company is not granted an additional 180 day calendar period, then NASDAQ will provide written notification that the Company's securities will be delisted. At that time, the Company may appeal the determination to delist its securities to a Listing Qualifications Panel. There are no assurances that NASDAQ will continue to grant extensions of time within which to achieve compliance.
