STEALTHGAS INC. REPORTS FOURTH QUARTER

AND FULL YEAR 2006 RESULTS AND ANNOUNCES QUARTERLY CASH DIVIDEND OF $0.1875 PER COMMON SHARE

ATHENS, GREECE, February 23, 2007. STEALTHGAS INC. (NASDAQ: GASS), a ship-owning company serving the liquefied petroleum gas (LPG) sector of the international shipping industry, announced today its unaudited financial and operating results for the fourth quarter and full-year period ended December 31, 2006.

Fourth Quarter 2006 Results

For the fourth quarter ended December 31, 2006, net revenues amounted to $20.4 million and net income was $4.8 million. Earnings per share, basic and diluted, calculated on 14,400,000 weighted average number of shares outstanding, were $0.33. EBITDA for the fourth quarter of 2006 was $10.2 million.

For the fourth quarter of 2006, the Company reported an unrealized, non-cash loss of $28,777 on three previously disclosed interest rate swap arrangements. Before these non-cash charges, net income was $4.8 million, or $0.34 per share, basic and diluted.

An average of 28 vessels were owned and operated in the fourth quarter of 2006, earning an average time-charter-equivalent rate of approximately $7,323 per day.

Full-Year 2006 Results

For the twelve-month period ended December 31, 2006, net revenues amounted to $73.3 million and net income was $18.5 million. Earnings per share, basic and diluted, calculated on 14,161,096 weighted average number of shares outstanding, were $1.31. EBITDA for the twelve-months of 2006 was $36.7 million.

For the full-year period 2006, the non-cash unrealized loss on the above mentioned swap arrangements was $0.2 million. Before these non-cash charges, net income for the year was $18.7 million or $1.32 per share, basic and diluted.

An average of 25.9 vessels were owned and operated in the full-year of 2006 earning an average time-charter-equivalent rate of approximately $7,174 per day.

CEO Harry Vafias commented: "We are very pleased to report an improvement in our financial performance in the fourth quarter of 2006 as compared to the previous two quarters of 2006, mainly due to an improvement in charter rates during the latter part of the fourth quarter and continued tight management of our operating costs. The company's financial performance compared to the previous two quarters also benefited from a lower number of dry dockings. These costs are taken directly to our profit and loss account at the time they are incurred, and are not amortized.

I would also note that currently the outlook in terms of charter rates for the handy size LPG sector has improved dramatically over the past several weeks, particularly in the semi refrigerated sector, where for instance the Gas Crystal is currently trading on a spot basis and is earning very attractive charter hires. About 74% of our fleet days for 2007 are already fixed in terms of their employment for the Fiscal year of 2007, and we expect to derive benefits from this upturn in rates through vessels that are currently trading in the spot market, and from those whose charters are due for renewal in the coming weeks.

In terms of 2006 overall, this proved to perhaps be a more challenging year than we anticipated, as two dull quarters in terms of charter rates, in the second and third quarter, plus a heavy dry docking schedule at the same time, slowed down our performance, however as mentioned previously this has rebounded quite well in the fourth quarter.

We have continued our policy of majority period employment for our vessels and I am pleased that 74% of the fleet's charter days are already fixed for 2007. We have as previously announced been rationalizing the management of our vessels, reducing the number of out sourced third party managers down to the more cost efficient ones, and also bringing more vessels under the management of our affiliate, Stealth Maritime Corp, which I believe will allow us to continue to deliver operating expenses that are below the industry norm. I should add, however that, as with most sectors of shipping, but in particular the gas sector, we are facing intense cost pressures with regard to crewing due to a scarcity of qualified sea farers and this is an area that is some cause for concern in my view going forward, not just from a STEALTHGAS standpoint, but the industry overall.

We have continued our dividend policy during 2006 which I believe is a commendable one from a yield standpoint when we consider how rapidly the company has grown in just the 14 months since we went public in October of 2005. I am also proud to state that all of the strategic developments that were outlined to potential investors at the time that we went public have been met.

We have invested in upgrading our computer and accounting systems and we intend to maintain and develop the highest levels of corporate governance within our organization.

We look forward to our continued development in 2007, and in this context, on February 1st, 2007, we took delivery of our first newbuilding, and expect to take delivery of the second newbuilding in October 2007 .

CFO Andrew Simmons commented: Our rapid growth has not been at the expense of our balance sheet structure and we have remained with a relatively modest level of leverage throughout 2006. We have been able to secure further bank financing from our two main banks at very competitive levels of pricing, and several other lenders have shown a strong interest in assisting us with our financing needs in the future.

As such with the existing structure of the business both financially and commercially we believe we are well placed to move forward over the course of 2007 and beyond".

Quarterly Dividend

At its latest meeting held today, the Company's Board of Directors declared a quarterly cash dividend of $0.1875 per common share, payable on March 12, 2007 to shareholders of record on March 5, 2007.

This is the fifth consecutive quarterly dividend since the company went public in October 2005 and since then STEALTHGAS has declared quarterly dividends aggregating $0.9375 per common share.

1) Average number of vessels is the number of vessels that constituted our fleet for the relevant period, as measured by the sum of the number of days each vessel was a part of our fleet during the period divided by the number of calendar days in that period.

- 2) Total calendar days are the total days the vessels were in our possession for the relevant period including off-hire days associated with major repairs, drydockings or special or intermediate surveys.
- 3) Total voyage days for fleet reflect the total days the vessels were in our possession for the relevant period net of off-hire days associated with major repairs, drydocks or special or intermediate surveys.
- 4) Fleet utilization is the percentage of time that our vessels were available for revenue generating voyage days, and is determined by dividing voyage days by fleet calendar days for the relevant period.
- 5) Total time charter days for fleet are the number of voyage days the vessels in our fleet operated on time charters for the relevant period.
- 6) Total spot market charter days for fleet are the number of voyage days the vessels in our fleet operated on spot market charters for the relevant period.
- 7) Time charter equivalent, or TCE, is a measure of the average daily revenue performance of a vessel on a per voyage basis. Our method of calculating TCE is consistent with industry standards and is determined by dividing voyage revenues (net of voyage expenses) by voyage days for the relevant time period. Voyage expenses primarily consist of port, canal and fuel costs that are unique to a particular voyage, which would otherwise be paid by the charterer under a time charter contract, as well as commissions. TCE is a standard shipping industry performance measure used primarily to compare period-to-period changes in a shipping company's performance despite changes in the mix of charter types (i.e., spot charters, time charters and bareboat charters) under which the vessels may be employed between the periods.
- 8) Vessel operating expenses, which include crew costs, provisions, deck and engine stores, lubricating oil, insurance, maintenance and repairs is calculated by dividing vessel operating expenses by fleet calendar days for the relevant time period.
- 9) Total vessel operating expenses, or TVOE, is a measurement of our total expenses associated with operating our vessels. TVOE is the sum of vessel operating expenses and general and administrative expenses. Daily TVOE is calculated by dividing TVOE by fleet calendar days for the relevant time period.

EBITDA Reconciliation

EBITDA represents net earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization. EBITDA does not represent and should not be considered as an alternative to net income or cash flow from operations, as determined by United States generally accepted accounting principles, or U.S. GAAP, and our calculation of EBITDA may not be comparable to that reported by other companies.

EBITDA is included herein because it is a basis upon which we assess our liquidity position and because we believe that it presents useful information to investors regarding a company's ability to service and/or incur indebtedness. The Company's definition of EBITDA may not be the same as that used by other companies in the shipping or other industries.

Forward-Looking Statement

Matters discussed in this release may constitute forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements reflect our current views with respect to future events and financial performance and may include statements concerning plans, objectives, goals, strategies, future events or performance, and underlying assumptions and other statements, which are other than statements of historical facts. The forward-looking statements in this release are based upon various assumptions, many of which are based, in turn, upon further assumptions, including without limitation, management's examination of historical operating trends, data contained in our records and other data available from third parties. Although STEALTHGAS INC. believes that these assumptions were reasonable when made, because these assumptions are inherently subject to significant uncertainties and contingencies which are difficult or impossible to predict and are beyond our control, STEALTHGAS INC. cannot assure you that it will achieve or accomplish these expectations, beliefs or projections. Important factors that, in our view, could cause actual results to differ materially from those discussed in the forward-looking statements include the strength of world economies and currencies, general market conditions, including changes in charterhire rates and vessel values, changes in demand that may affect attitudes of time charterers to scheduled and unscheduled drydocking, changes in STEALTHGAS INC.'s operating expenses, including bunker prices, dry-docking and insurance costs, or actions taken by regulatory authorities, potential liability from pending or future litigation, domestic and international political conditions, potential disruption of shipping routes due to accidents and political events or acts by terrorists.

Risks and uncertainties are further described in reports filed by STEALTHGAS INC. with the US Securities and Exchange Commission.
