On April 21, 2017, the board of directors (the “Board”) of Cleveland BioLabs, Inc. (the “Company”) appointed John Szydlo, previously the Company’s Finance Director, as Principal Financial Officer of the Company.

Mr. Szydlo, age 32, joined the Company as a Finance Manager in May 2012 and was promoted to the position of Finance Director in April 2014. During his tenure, Mr. Szydlo was a key contributor to the Company’s financial reporting compliance, which included the preparation of the Company’s consolidated financial statements in accordance with Generally Accepted Accounting Principles and Securities and Exchange Commission requirements, oversaw corporate tax preparation, and ensured compliance with the Federal Acquisition Regulations for the Company’s government contracts with the Department of Defense (DoD). Mr. Szydlo also prepared financial models and cost proposals to obtain growth capital, effect restructuring efforts, and capture government contracts and grants and, most recently, led the negotiation efforts for the Company’s active DoD awards. Mr. Szydlo worked directly with the Company’s executive management and operational leadership teams to develop annual operating plans congruent with long-term strategic objectives and oversaw general operational functions such as treasury management, facilities management, and human resource management. Prior to joining the Company, from 2008 through 2012, Mr. Szydlo worked for the Northrop Grumman Corporation, a major DoD contractor, where he served in various capacities such as financial planning and analysis, government cost proposal preparation and bid defense, and supply chain management.
