On April 23, 2013, Ms. Ping Yu, a director, and the member and Chair of the audit committee and the member of the compensation committee and the corporate governance committee of eFuture Information Technology Inc. (the “Company”) resigned as the member and Chair of the audit committee and the member of the compensation committee and the corporate governance committee since she did not meet the independence requirements under the NASDAQ Listing Rules. Previously, Ms. Yu officially resigned as the Chief Financial Officer of the Company on July 16, 2010, which was less than three year period for being deemed to be independent under the NASDAQ Listing Rules. She, however, will continue to serve as the director. Ms. Yu’s resignation from the above committee positions was not the result of any disagreement with the Company on any matter relating to the Company’s operations, policies or practices.

Effective on April 23, 2013, to fill the vacancies created by Ms. Yu’s resignation, the board of directors of the Company, appointed Mr. Weiquan Ren, an existing director, to serve as the member and Chairman of the audit committee (and financial expert) and the member of the compensation committee and the corporate governance committee after assessing Mr. Ren’s independence, experience and qualifications.
