The Moore Letter references the Schedule 13D filed by West Creek Capital on December 5, 2007, and indicates the Reporting Persons support of the request that Issuer retain an investment bank. Messrs. Heyman and Adelson have sole voting and investment power of the Common Stock held by Boston and Yorktown.

CUSIP NO. 140475104

SCHEDULE 13D

Although no Reporting Person has any specific plan or proposal to acquire or dispose of the Common Stock, consistent with its investment purpose, each Reporting Person at any time and from time to time may acquire additional Common Stock or dispose of any or all of its Common Stock depending upon an ongoing evaluation of the investment in the Common Stock, prevailing market conditions, other investment opportunities, liquidity requirements of the Reporting Persons, and/or other investment considerations.

Also, consistent with the investment purpose, the Reporting Persons may engage in communications with one or more shareholders of the Issuer, one or more officers of the Issuer and/or one or more members of the board of directors of the Issuer and/or one or more representatives of the Issuer regarding the Issuer, including but not limited to its operations. The Reporting Persons may discuss ideas that, if effected may result in any of the following: the acquisition by persons of additional Common Stock of the Issuer, an extraordinary corporate transaction involving the Issuer, and/or changes in the board of directors or management of the Issuer.

Except to the extent the foregoing may be deemed a plan or proposal, none of the Reporting Persons has any plans or proposals which relate to, or could result in, any of the matters referred to in paragraphs (a) through (j), inclusive, of the instructions to Item 4 of Schedule 13D. The Reporting Persons may, at any time and from time to time, review or reconsider their position and/or change their purpose and/or formulate plans or proposals with respect thereto.

Heyman and Adelson, as managers of the Capital Senior Living Corporation investment of Boston and Yorktown, may also be deemed to beneficially own the 1,901,000 shares of Common Stock (approximately 7.1%)* of the Issuer held by Boston and Yorktown.

Although Messrs. Heyman and Adelson are joining in this Schedule as Reporting Persons, the filing of this Schedule shall not be construed as an admission that either of them is, for any purpose, the beneficial owner of the Common Stock held by Boston and Yorktown. Similarly, Boston and Yorktown disclaim beneficial ownership of the shares held directly by the other.

c) There have been no transactions in the Shares effected by the Reporting Persons during the past 60 days.

Mr. James A. Moore, Director
Capital Senior Living Corp.
14160 Dallas Parkway, Suite 300
Dallas, Texas 75254

Dear Mr. Moore:

Funds managed by the undersigned own approximately 1.9 million shares of Capital Senior Living.

We are patient, long-term shareholders in a number of companies. We enjoy a good relationship with the management and boards of almost all of the companies we have invested in. We are extremely hesitant to express a public opinion on matters under consideration by our boards of directors. However, recent events at Capital Senior Living leave us no choice but to weigh in.

We are not part of any group and we make our own buy and sell decisions with respect to Capital Senior Living stock. We have read the December 3, 2007 Schedule 13D. We very strongly support the message communicated by West Creek Capital in that 13D. We believe that the majority of the shareholders very strongly support the message in the 13D. We urge the Board to respect the wishes of the shareholders and immediately hire an investment bank.

Sincerely,

/s/ Stephen J. Heyman/pls
