Renewal of Employment Agreements

On December 17, 2014, pursuant to the review provided for in each agreement, Northfield Bank, the wholly owned subsidiary of Northfield Bancorp, Inc., (the “Company”) approved amended and restated employment agreements with Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer, John W. Alexander, and Executive Vice President, Michael J. Widmer, effective January 1, 2015. The agreements were extended for an additional year so that the term of the agreements remains three years. The amended and restated agreements are filed as exhibits to this Current Report on Form 8-K.

The agreements were amended to provide for: (i) any payments or benefits payable as a result of an Event of Termination (as defined) to be contingent on execution and non-revocation of a release; (ii) a one-year non-solicitation requirement upon any termination of employment under the agreements if the executive is receiving a severance payment under the employment agreement (a two-year non-solicitation requirement for Mr. Alexander); and (iii) a one-year non-compete requirement (two years in case of Mr. Alexander) if the executive receives a severance payment under the agreement (other than a severance payment following a change in control). Mr. Alexander’s agreement was revised to clarify that a material change in duties or responsibilities excludes Mr. Alexander not being appointed by the board as chairman. Mr. Widmer’s agreement was amended to provide that if his employment is terminated during the term of the agreement by the Bank without Cause (as defined) or Mr. Widmer resigns for Good Reason (as defined), including such a termination following a Change in Control (as defined), Mr. Widmer will receive a severance payment equal to the amount of the remaining payments that Mr. Widmer would have earned as Base Salary (as defined) if he had continued his employment with the Bank for a twenty-four month period following his termination of employment and had earned a bonus and/or incentive award in each year equal in amount to the average bonus and/or incentive award earned by him (or the highest bonus or incentive award earned in the event of a change in control) over the two calendar years preceding the year in which termination occurs.
