Item 8.01 Other Events

As previously announced, ESB Financial Corporation (“ESB”) and Wesbanco, Inc. (“WesBanco”) entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of October 29, 2014 (the “Merger Agreement”), providing for the merger of ESB with and into WesBanco, with WesBanco as the surviving corporation (the “Proposed Merger”). Each of ESB (SEC File No. 0-19345) and WesBanco (SEC File No. 333-200391) filed a definitive joint proxy statement/prospectus, dated as of December 11, 2014 (the “Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus”), with the Securities and Exchange Commission in connection with the Proposed Merger.

As previously reported by each of ESB and WesBanco on Current Reports on Form 8-K, each dated December 15, 2014 and filed on December 19, 2014, two putative class action complaints were filed by purported shareholders of ESB with respect to the Proposed Merger. One complaint was filed in the United States District Court for the Western District of Pennsylvania (the “Federal District Court”), and is captioned and numbered James Elliott vs. ESB Financial, Inc., et al., Case No. 2:14-cv-01689-MRH (the “Federal Lawsuit”). The other complaint was filed in the Court of Common Pleas of Lawrence County, Pennsylvania, and is captioned and numbered Randall Kress v. ESB Bank, Case No. 11185/14 CA (the “Lawrence County Lawsuit”). Both complaints alleged generally, among other things, that each member of ESB’s board of directors (the “Director Defendants”) breached their fiduciary duties in approving the Merger Agreement, that ESB and WesBanco aided and abetted such breaches of fiduciary duty and that the disclosure regarding the Proposed Merger contained in the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus was materially deficient.

On January 15, 2015, solely to avoid the costs, risks and uncertainties inherent in litigation, ESB, ESB Bank, WesBanco and the Director Defendants (ESB, ESB Bank, WesBanco and the Director Defendants, collectively the “Defendants”) entered into a Memorandum of Settlement (the “MOS”) with the respective plaintiffs (collectively, the “Plaintiffs”) regarding the settlement of both the Federal Lawsuit and the Lawrence County Lawsuit. Pursuant to the MOS, ESB and WesBanco have agreed to file with the SEC and make publicly available to shareholders of ESB and WesBanco the supplemental disclosures provided below in this Current Report on Form 8-K and the Plaintiffs have agreed to release ESB, ESB Bank, WesBanco and the Director Defendants from all claims related to the Merger Agreement and the Proposed Merger, subject to approval of the Federal District Court. If the court approves the settlement contemplated in the MOS, both the Federal Lawsuit and the Lawrence County Lawsuit will be dismissed with prejudice, and all claims that were or could have been brought challenging any aspect of the Proposed Merger, the Merger Agreement, and any disclosure made in connection therewith will be released and barred. Under the terms of the MOS, counsel for the Plaintiffs reserved the right to seek an award of attorneys’ fees and expenses. The Defendants have reserved the right to contest the fee and expense petition. The amount of any fees and expense awarded will ultimately be determined and approved by the court, and will not affect the amount of merger consideration to be paid by WesBanco. ESB or its successor or insurer will pay any fees and expenses awarded by the court. In the MOS, the parties have agreed to negotiate in good faith to prepare a stipulation of settlement to be filed with the court and other documentation as may be required to effectuate the settlement. There can be no assurance that the parties ultimately will enter into a stipulation of settlement or that the court will approve the settlement even if the parties were to enter into such stipulation. The proposed settlement contemplated by the MOS will become void in the event that the parties do not enter into such stipulation or the court does not approve the settlement.

The settlement will not affect the timing of the special meeting of shareholders of ESB scheduled for January 22, 2015 in Ellwood City, Pennsylvania to vote upon a proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement. Similarly, the settlement will not affect the timing of the special meeting of shareholders of WesBanco scheduled for January 22, 2015 in Wheeling, West Virginia to vote on a proposal to approve the issuance of shares of WesBanco common stock in connection with the Proposed Merger. ESB and the other Defendants deny all of the allegations in the lawsuits and believe the disclosures previously included in the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus are appropriate under the law. Nevertheless, ESB and the other Defendants have agreed to settle the putative class action lawsuits in order to avoid the costs, disruptions and distraction of further litigation.

ESB and the other Defendants have vigorously denied, and continue to vigorously deny, that they have committed or aided and abetted in the commission of any violation of law or engaged in any of the wrongful acts that were alleged in the lawsuits, and expressly maintain that, to the extent applicable, they diligently and scrupulously complied with their fiduciary and other legal burdens and entered into the MOS solely to eliminate the burden and expense of further litigation and to put the claims that were or could have been asserted to rest. Nothing in this Current Report on Form 8-K, the MOS or any stipulation of settlement shall be deemed an admission of the legal necessity or materiality under applicable laws of any of the disclosures set forth herein.

SUPPLEMENT TO DEFINITIVE JOINT PROXY STATEMENT/PROSPECTUS

In the settlement of the outstanding Federal Lawsuit and the Lawrence County Lawsuit, as set forth in this Current Report on Form 8-K, ESB agreed to make these supplemental disclosures to the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus. These disclosures should be read in connection with the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus, which should be read in its entirety. Defined terms used but not defined herein have the meanings set forth in the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus. Without admitting in any way that the disclosures below are material or otherwise required by law, ESB makes the following supplemental disclosures:

The following supplements the disclosure under the heading “-Background of the Merger,” and is added at the end of the fourth paragraph on page 48 of the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus.

The list of 12 institutions was developed by MHH based on its extensive knowledge and experience concerning ESB’s market area and the current market for business combination transactions involving financial institutions in such market area, MHH’s discussions with ESB’s senior management, and analysis of publicly available information about other financial institutions and their acquisition histories.

The following supplements the discussion on page 48 of the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus and is added at the end of the fifth paragraph on page 48.

In January 2013, ESB borrowed $10 million from WesBanco pursuant to a five year term loan in order to repay certain trust preferred securities. At the same time, WesBanco issued ESB a $10 million line of credit, which has never been drawn upon. Previously, in 2004, ESB’s Employee Stock Ownership Plan borrowed $5.7 million from WesBanco to fund the purchase of shares for the plan. The loan was collateralized by the ESOP shares and was repaid in full upon its maturity in 2010.

The following supplements the disclosure in the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus and is added immediately following the fourth sentence of the first paragraph on page 49.

The NDAs included customary provisions which, among other things, restricted the ability of the institutions signing the NDAs to make unsolicited proposals to acquire, or to acquire, any securities of ESB or propose a business combination transaction with ESB or propose any tender or exchange offer for ESB’s securities (commonly referred to as a “standstill provision”). None of the parties that signed the NDAs requested waivers from the standstill provisions.

The following is added immediately after the table appearing on the top of page 70.

The median values of the medians for the groups of transactions described above were as follows: price to prior market price (premium), 18.0%; price to tangible book value, 164.2%; price to LTM EPS, 19.6%; price to assets, 16.9%; and, tangible book premium to core deposits, 10.8%.

The following disclosure supplements the discussion on page 70 of the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus. The penultimate sentence in the paragraph under the sub-heading “-Financial Impact Analysis” is revised and replaced in its entirety with the following.

The analysis also indicated that the merger is expected to be dilutive to tangible book value per share for WesBanco and that WesBanco is expected to maintain well-capitalized capital ratios (as defined in the prompt corrective action provision of Part 325, Subpart B of the Rules and Regulations of the FDIC).

The following disclosure supplements the discussion on page 70 of the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus under the sub-heading “-Discounted Dividends Analysis.” The second sentence in the first paragraph of that sub-section is revised and replaced in its entirety with the following.

In performing this analysis, MHH used management’s earnings estimates for ESB for 2015 and 2016 and, after discussions with ESB’s senior management, applied an earnings growth rate of 5.0% thereafter, and assumed discount rates ranging from 10.0% to 16.0%.

The fourth sentence in the first paragraph of the “-Discounted Dividends Analysis” subsection on page 70 of the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus is revised and replaced in its entirety with the following.

In performing its discounted dividends analysis, MHH assumed an implied perpetuity growth rate of 5.0%. In determining cash flows available to shareholders, MHH assumed that ESB would maintain a tangible common equity to tangible asset ratio of 6.5% (which MHH deemed a reasonable level of capital for ESB to maintain while permitting a satisfactory return on investment to shareholders) and would retain sufficient earnings to maintain that level.

The following supplements the disclosure under the heading “-Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger,” and is added to the end of the first full paragraph on page 71 of the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus.

While parties who submitted indications of interest were requested to address their plans for ESB’s senior management, retention of ESB’s senior management was not a factor considered by ESB’s board of directors for an indication of interest to be considered.

The following supplements the disclosure under the heading “-Summary of Golden Parachute Arrangements” in the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus. The last sentence of the fourth bullet point on page 75 is revised and replaced in its entirety with the following.

Based on the exchange ratio of 0.502 shares of WesBanco common stock for each share of ESB common stock and the cash merger consideration of $1.76 for each share of ESB common stock, the merger consideration was assumed (based on the average closing market price of WesBanco’s common stock on the first five business days following the first public announcement of the merger on October 29, 2014, in accordance with Item 402(t) of the SEC’s Regulation S-K) to aggregate $19.006 per share of ESB common stock; and

Certain Financial Projections and Forecasts for ESB

ESB does not, as a matter of course, publicly disclose forecasts or internal projections as to its future performance, earnings or other results due to, among other things, the uncertainty of the underlying assumptions and estimates. However, ESB provided certain nonpublic unaudited prospective financial information to WesBanco and other prospective bidders, as well as MHH, in connection with the confidential marketing materials prepared in August 2014.

This nonpublic unaudited prospective financial information was not prepared for the purposes of, or with a view toward, public disclosure or with a view toward complying with the guidelines established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants for preparation and presentation of prospective financial information, published guidelines of the SEC regarding forward-looking statements or GAAP.

This nonpublic unaudited prospective financial information is subject to the limitations set forth under the caption “Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements” in this document and in the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus and should not be regarded as an indication that ESB, WesBanco, their respective boards of directors, or MHH considered, or now consider, this information to be necessarily predictive of actual future results. In addition, this information represents ESB’s evaluation at the time it was prepared of ESB’s future financial performance on a stand-alone basis, and without reference to the proposed merger or transaction-related costs or benefits. No assurances can be given that this information and the underlying assumptions are reasonable or that if it had been prepared as of the date of this document, similar assumptions would be used. In addition, this information may not reflect the manner in which WesBanco would operate the ESB business after the merger.

ESB management's selected prospective financial information follows.

INVESTORS ARE URGED TO READ THE JOINT PROXY STATEMENT/PROSPECTUS CAREFULLY BEFORE MAKING ANY VOTING OR INVESTMENT DECISIONS WITH RESPECT TO THE PROPOSED MERGER.

Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

Matters set forth in this filing contain certain forward-looking statements, including certain plans, expectations, goals, and projections, and including statements about the benefits of the proposed merger between WesBanco and ESB, which are subject to numerous assumptions, risks, and uncertainties. Actual results could differ materially from those contained or implied by such statements for a variety of factors including: the businesses of WesBanco and ESB may not be integrated successfully or such integration may take longer to accomplish than expected; the expected cost savings and any revenue synergies from the proposed Merger may not be fully realized within the expected timeframes; disruption from the proposed Merger may make it more difficult to maintain relationships with clients, associates, or suppliers; the required governmental approvals of the proposed Merger may not be obtained on the expected terms and schedule; ESB's shareholders may not approve the proposed Merger; WesBanco shareholders may not approve the issuance of shares of WesBanco common stock in connection with the merger; changes in economic conditions; movements in interest rates; competitive pressures on product pricing and services; success and timing of other business strategies; the nature, extent, and timing of governmental actions and reforms; and extended disruption of vital infrastructure; and other factors described in the section of the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus titled "Risk Factors" and WesBanco's and ESB's annual and quarterly reports and other filings with the SEC that are incorporated by reference into the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus. See "Where You Can Find More Information About WesBanco and ESB" beginning on page 107 of the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus. All forward-looking statements included in this filing are based on information available at the time of filing. Neither ESB nor WesBanco assumes any obligation to update any forward-looking statement.
