On November 29, 2004, Corning Incorporated decided extend the time for its voluntary odd-lot program for eligible small shareholders, allowing shareholders owning fewer than 100 shares of Corning Common Stock to either sell all of their shares or to purchase additional shares to increase their holdings to 100 shares. The program will continue to be in effect from November 30, 2004 through December 29, 2004 ("Program Extension Period") unless extended or earlier terminated.
