Item 5.03 Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year

At its meeting on October 25, 2007, the registrant's board of directors, pursuant to Article VI of the registrant's first amended and restated certificate of incorporation, amended and restated the registrant's bylaws. The registrant's bylaws as amended and restated on October 25, 2007 are filed as Exhibit 3.1 to this current report. Among other things, the amendments approved on October 25, 2007 provide for:

- sending certain required notices by electronic transmission;
- the ability to conduct business at a special stockholder meeting that is not specified in the notice of the meeting;
  - confidential voting of stockholders;
- certain limitations regarding the setting of stockholder record dates;
  - the ability to maintain meeting minutes in electronic form;
- the removal of the requirement that a person seeking indemnification from the registrant under the bylaws must provide an affirmation, but keeping the requirement that such a person must undertake to repay any amount received under the indemnification provisions of the bylaws if it is later determined that the person was not entitled to the payment;
- the advancement of expenses, rather than reasonable expenses, incurred by a person entitled to indemnification by the registrant;
- the ability of the registrant to reject any claim of indemnification or advancement of expenses if such claim is not permitted by law, provided, however, that the registrant bear the burden of proving such a defense;
  - the requirement that any right to indemnification or advancement of expenses not provided for in the bylaws must be approved in certain instances by a vote of disinterested directors; and
    - the ability of the registrant to issue uncertificated shares.
