Reporting Requirement No. 2: The amount of guarantees issued during the reporting period by National Grid, the name of the beneficiary of the guarantee and the terms and purpose of the guarantee.

Response:

National Grid issued a guarantee to National Australia Bank Ltd as the guarantee trustee for a syndicate of lenders to NG Australia LLP, an indirect subsidiary of National Grid Holdings Limited. This A$630 loan facility was established for the purpose of financing the development and construction of the Basslink electricity interconnector project. Under the terms of this guarantee, National Grid guarantees the payment of all principal monies, interest, commission, liquidated damages, charges, expenses, and other monies which may from time to time become payable by NG Australia LLP under the applicable Finance Contract and related documents; if NG Australia LLP defaults on any guaranteed payment, then National Grid is required to pay the sum in default on demand. The guarantee expires when all guaranteed payments have been made; this loan facility is due for repayment by 6 December 2006.

Guarantees given by National Grid in favor of third parties in relation to ISDA Master Agreements signed between the third party and a subsidiary of National Grid, as follows:

Date of guarantee	Guaranteed party	Subsidiary of National Grid party to relevant ISDA Master Agreement	Amount outstanding under ISDA Master Agreement and guaranteed at 30 September 2003*
18 July 2003	Deutsche Bank AG, London	NGG Finance plc	£Nil
18 July 2003	Fleet National Bank	NGG Finance plc	£Nil
28 July 2003	JPMorgan Chase Bank	NGG Finance plc	£Nil
19 August 2003	Deutsche Bank AG, London	NGG Finance (No 1) Limited	£Nil
19 August 2003	AIG Financial Products Corp	NGG Finance (No 1) Limited	£Nil
19 August 2003	Banque AIG London Branch	NGG Finance (No 1) Limited	£Nil

* During the reporting period, National Grid has given various guarantees to swap counterparties in relation to International Swaps and Derivatives Association, Inc. ("ISDA") agreements signed by two financing subsidiaries (NGG Finance plc and NGG Finance (No 1) Limited). The amounts guaranteed varies according to the number of derivative transactions in existence between the National Grid financing subsidiary and the counterparty, and whether or not the National Grid financing subsidiary owes or is owed money relating to these transactions. At September 30, 2003, the amount guaranteed was £Nil, since the swaps in existence between the relevant parties all reflected money owed to the relevant National Grid financing subsidiary.

Reporting Requirement No. 18: An analysis of National Grid's consolidated earnings that segregates total earnings attributable to FUCOs from those which are attributable to National Grid's other subsidiaries as of the end of the reporting period.

Response:

As described in more detail in the half year results of National Grid filed on Form 6K on 20 November, 2003, SEC File No. 001-14958, National Grid 's consolidated earnings, under UK GAAP, for the six months ended September 30, 2003 before exceptional items and goodwill amortization were £299m ($499m), on revenues of £4,187m ($6,992m).

In the UK, National Grid's electricity and gas transmission business, delivered underlying operating profit of £387m ($646m) compared to £396m ($661m) in the same period last year. Delivery of our planned efficiency and merger savings has largely offset the one off connection-related fee we received last year. We are well on track to reduce UK Transmission Owner controllable costs by 11% real over the three years to March 2006, representing delivery of the Staying Ahead programme and merger benefits. The UK electricity transmission business is owned, indirectly, by National Grid Holdings Limited and the UK gas transmission business is owned, indirectly, by Lattice Group plc; both these companies are FUCOs.

In the UK gas distribution business, underlying operating profit increased by £42m ($70m) to £50m ($84m), primarily as a result of lower controllable costs and timing effects of replacement expenditure, more than offsetting the increased pension charges and the impact of warm weather. The level of controllable costs within the business is now at the level assumed by Ofgem for 2006. The UK gas distribution business is owned, indirectly, by Lattice Group plc.

In the US, underlying operating profit was £291m ($486m), compared to £343m ($573m) in the same period last year. This includes £214m ($357m) from electricity distribution (including £58m ($97m) from stranded cost recovery), £70m ($117m) from transmission and £7m ($12m) from the gas business. In addition to the adverse effect from weather, as expected, underlying operating profit from our US businesses was impacted by the expected reduction in the recovery of stranded costs and the continued weakness of the dollar, partially offset by continued reductions in controllable costs.

National Grid has continued to rationalise its portfolio of non-core businesses. The exit from various non-core businesses has improved underlying operating profit from other activities, including joint ventures and discontinued operations by £32m ($53m) to £87m ($145m). Gridcom UK has aggressively cut its overheads by 36% through a combination of merger and efficiency savings allowing it to break even for the first time, a £9m ($15m) improvement in underlying operating profit.

Under US GAAP National Grid revenues in the six months ended 30 September 2003 were £4,202m ($7,017m) and net income was £216m ($361m). Operating profit for UK gas distribution and UK electricity and gas transmission was £115m ($192m) and £375m ($626m) respectively.

A conversion ratio of 1 GBP to 1.67 US Dollars has been used.

Reporting Requirement No. 19: A statement of National Grid's authorized FUCO investment limit and the amount of unused investment authority based on the aggregate investment as of the end of the semiannual period.

Response: Please see Item C of Reporting Requirement No. 3, above.

Reporting Requirement No. 20: A statement of revenues and net income of each of National Grid's FUCOs for the twelve months (or six months, as applicable) ended as of the end of the semiannual period (such statement to indicate which FUCOs were acquired during the reporting period).

Response:

At October 21, 2002, National Grid completed its merger with Lattice Group plc as contemplated by the October 2002 Order. In connection with this transaction Lattice Group plc became a FUCO within the National Grid system.

- A. National Grid Holdings Limited consolidated revenues calculated in accordance with US GAAP for the six months ended September 30, 2003 were GBP 806,094,400 (USD 1,346,177,600). Lattice Group plc's consolidated revenues calculated in accordance with US GAAP for the six months ended September 30, 2003 were GBP 1,252,358,100 (USD 2,091,438,100).
- B. National Grid Holdings Limited consolidated net income calculated in accordance with US GAAP for the six months ended September 30, 2003 was GBP 156,725,100 (USD 261,730,900). Lattice Group plc's consolidated net loss calculated in accordance with US GAAP for the six months ended September 30, 2003 was GBP (4,605,900) (USD(7,691,900)).
