Item 5.02 - Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers

New Employment Agreements for CEO Murphy and CFO Goodemote. At a meeting held on January 30, 2013 (the "January Meeting"), the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors (the "Committee") of Arrow Financial Corporation (the "Company") approved new three-year employment agreements between the Company and each of (i) Thomas J. Murphy, President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company and also the President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company's lead subsidiary bank, Glens Falls National Bank and Trust Company ("GFNB"), and (ii) Terry R. Goodemote, Executive Vice President, Treasurer and Chief Financial Officer of the Company and Senior Executive Vice President, Treasurer and Chief Financial Officer of GFNB. The new agreements, which will become effective on February 1, 2013, replace existing three-year employment agreements entered into by the Company with Mr. Murphy in June 2012 and Mr. Goodemote in January 2012.

Under the new agreement, Mr. Murphy's annual base salary will be $300,000, an increase of $100,000 from his current annual base salary, and Mr. Goodemote's annual base salary will be $230,000, an increase of $41,300 from his current annual base salary. Thereafter, each of their respective annual base salaries may be increased but may not be decreased during the term of their agreements. The agreements also provide that the executive is eligible to participate in certain other benefit programs, including medical, dental and life insurance benefits, compensation plans including the annual incentive (bonus) plan and equity incentive plans, and various retirement and supplemental retirement plans.

Each agreement provides that in the event the executive terminates his own employment for good reason (as defined), or is terminated by the Board of Directors without cause (as defined), he will receive a lump-sum payment equal to the greater of (a) the amount of base salary payable to him during the remaining term of his agreement, or (b) one year's base salary.

Also under each agreement, if there is a change of control (as defined) of the Company and, within 12 months after such change of control, either (a) the Company or GFNB terminates the employment of the executive for any reason (other than a termination of employment for cause), or (b) such executive terminates his own employment with the Company or GFNB for good reason, the executive will be entitled to receive an amount payable in installments (or in a lump-sum, in the event of unforeseeable emergency) equal to approximately three times his average annual taxable compensation for the five years preceding the change of control, subject to downward adjustment to reflect the value of any other “change of control” payment or benefits he might receive following such change of control. Additionally, the executive shall receive for a period of two years following the change of control, medical, dental and life insurance coverage that is generally equivalent to the coverage then held, subject to employee cost sharing. However, under no circumstances will the executive receive any payment under the agreement if such payment would constitute an “excess parachute payment” under the tax laws.

Each agreement also contains non-competition provisions that may be triggered upon termination of employment. Each employment agreement provides that on or before January 31 of each of 2014, 2015 and 2016, the Committee will consider and vote upon a proposal to replace the executive's existing agreement with a new three-year employment agreement containing provisions at least as favorable to the executive as his current agreement. New Employment Agreement for SVP DeMarco. At the January Meeting, the Committee also approved a new two-year employment agreement for David S. DeMarco, a Company Senior Vice President. Mr. De Marco also serves as President and Chief Executive Officer of Saratoga National Bank and Trust Company, the Company's other banking subsidiary (“Saratoga”). The new agreement, which will become effective on February 1, 2013, replaced an existing two-year employment agreement previously entered into by the Company and Mr. DeMarco in June 2012.

Under the new agreement, Mr. DeMarco will receive an annual base salary of $210,000, an increase of $31,500 from his current annual base salary. Thereafter, Mr. DeMarco's annual base salary may be increased but may not be decreased during the term of the agreement. The agreement also provides that Mr. DeMarco is eligible to participate in certain other benefit programs, including medical, dental and life insurance benefits, compensation plans including the annual incentive (bonus) plan and equity incentive plans, and various retirement and supplemental retirement plans. Mr. DeMarco's agreement provides in the event he terminates his own employment for good reason (as defined) or is terminated by the Board of Directors without cause (as defined), he will receive a lump-sum payment equal to the greater of (a) the amount of base salary payable to him during the remaining term of his agreement, or (b) one year's base salary.

The agreement also provides that if there is a change of control (as defined) of the Company and, within 12 months after such change of control, either (a) the Company or Saratoga terminates Mr. DeMarco's employment for any reason (other than a termination of employment for cause), or (b) Mr. DeMarco terminates his own employment with the Company or Saratoga for good reason, Mr. DeMarco will be entitled to receive an amount payable in installments (or in a lump-sum, in the event of unforeseeable emergency) equal to approximately two times his average annual taxable compensation for the five years preceding the change of control, subject to downward adjustment to reflect the value of any other "change of control" payment or benefits he might receive following such change of control. Additionally, Mr. DeMarco shall receive for a period of two years following the change of control, medical, dental and life insurance coverage that is generally equivalent to the coverage then held, subject to employee cost sharing. However, under no circumstances will Mr. DeMarco receive any payment under the agreement if such payment would constitute an "excess parachute payment" under the tax laws.

The agreement, like those of Messrs. Murphy and Goodemote, also contains a non-competition provision that may be triggered upon termination of employment.

The agreement also provides that on or before January 31 of each of 2014 and 2015, the Committee will consider and vote upon a proposal to replace the existing agreement with a new two-year employment agreement containing provisions at least as favorable to Mr. DeMarco as his current agreement.
