Sales by Southeastern's clients were made in the ordinary course of business through brokers and were primarily a result of the need to rebalance portfolios following an increase in the Issuer's stock price. Sales as a result of this rebalancing are now complete. While facts and circumstances may change, and Southeastern retains flexibility to make additional purchases and/or sales, no further sales are anticipated at this time. In addition to the above transactions, on September 7, 2010, clients of Southeastern terminating their advisory relationship removed 80,000 shares from Southeastern's discretion.
