Note 1 - Basis of Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements

The condensed consolidated financial information included in this report has been prepared in conformity with the accounting principles and practices reflected in the consolidated financial statements included in the annual report filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission for the preceding calendar year. All adjustments are of a normal recurring nature and are, in the opinion of management, necessary to a fair statement of the consolidated results for the interim periods. This report should be read in conjunction with the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2000.

For the three and nine months ended September 30, 2001, 4,000,398 and 2,564,285 stock options, respectively, were excluded from the computation of diluted earnings per share due to their antidilutive effect.

Note 3 - Business Combinations

In May 2001, the Company acquired Credit Management Solutions, Inc (CMSI), a provider of credit automation software and services in a stock-for-stock transaction. As a result of the acquisition, CMSI shareholders received 0.2841 newly issued shares of the Company's common stock for each CMSI share. The Company issued 2,272,542 shares of common stock and accounted for this transaction under the purchase method of accounting. Goodwill of $46.9 million was recorded and is being amortized on a straight-line basis over its estimated useful life of 25 years. The Company has included CMSI in its consumer information segment.

Edgar Filing: FIRST AMERICAN FINANCIAL CORP - Form 10-Q/A

Assuming the acquisition had occurred on January 1, 2000, pro forma revenues, net income and net income per diluted share would have been $2.69 billion, $112.4 million and $1.48 respectively for the nine months ended September 30, 2001; and $2.19 billion, $47.6 million and $.70, respectively for the nine months ended September 30, 2000. The pro forma results include amortization of goodwill. The pro forma results exclude certain merger-related costs and are not necessarily indicative of the operating results that would have been obtained had the acquisition occurred at the beginning of the period, nor are they indicative of future operating results.

In addition, during the nine months ended September 30, 2001, the Company acquired twelve companies. The purchase method of accounting was used for all of the acquisitions. The twelve acquisitions accounted for under the purchase method of accounting were individually not material and are included in the following business segments: ten in the title insurance segment, one in the real estate information segment and one in the consumer information segment. The aggregate purchase price was $17.4 million in cash, $12.5 million in notes payable and forgiven notes receivable and 976,235 shares of the Company's common stock. The purchase price of each was allocated to the assets acquired and liabilities assumed based on estimated fair values and approximately $44.4 million in goodwill was recorded. Goodwill is being amortized on a straight-line basis over its estimated useful life ranging from 20 to 30 years. The operating results of these acquired entities were included in the Company's consolidated financial statements from their respective acquisition dates.

Assuming all of the current-year acquisitions (including CMSI) had occurred January 1, 2000, pro forma revenues, net income and net income per diluted share would have been $2.71 billion, $111.7 million and $1.46, respectively for the nine months ended September 30, 2001 and $2.21 billion, $48.8 million and $.71, respectively for the nine months ended September 30, 2000. All pro forma results include amortization of goodwill and interest expense on acquisition debt. The pro forma results exclude certain merger-related costs and are not necessarily indicative of the operating results that would have been obtained had the acquisitions occurred at the beginning of the periods presented, nor are they indicative of future operating results.

In February 2001, the Company announced the sale of its subsidiary, Contour Software, Inc., to Ellie Mae(SM), Inc., in exchange for cash, notes and an interest in Ellie Mae. As a result of the transaction, the Company recorded a deferred gain of $14.2 million. Contour had been included in the Company's real estate information segment.

On July 20, 2001, the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("the FASB") issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 141, "Business Combinations" ("SFAS 141"). This statement addresses financial accounting and reporting for business combinations and superseded APB Opinion No. 16, "Business Combinations". All business combinations in the scope of SFAS 141 are to be accounted for using one method, the purchase method. The provisions of SFAS 141 apply to all business combinations initiated or closed after June 30, 2001. Management of the Company anticipates that the adoption of SFAS 141 will not have a significant effect on the Company's earnings or financial position.

Edgar Filing: FIRST AMERICAN FINANCIAL CORP - Form 10-Q/A

On July 20, 2001, the FASB issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 142, "Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets" ("SFAS 142"). This statement addresses financial accounting and reporting for goodwill and other intangible assets and supersedes APB Opinion No. 17, "Intangible Assets". SFAS 142 addresses how goodwill and other intangible assets should be accounted for in the financial statements. Goodwill and intangible assets that have indefinite useful lives will not be amortized, but rather will be tested at least annually for impairment. Intangible assets that have finite useful lives will continue to be amortized over their useful lives, but without the constraint of an arbitrary ceiling. The provisions of SFAS 142 are required to be applied starting with fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2001, and apply to all goodwill and other intangible assets recognized in the financial statements at that date. Goodwill and intangible assets acquired after June 30, 2001, will be subject immediately to the nonamortization and amortization provisions of SFAS 142. Management is in the process of assessing the impact of implementing SFAS 142 on the Company's earnings and financial position. Management estimates the adoption of the nonamortization provision of SFAS 142 will increase income before income taxes and minority interests in 2002 by $18.0 million, or $.20 per diluted share, excluding the effects of impairment, if any.

Note 5 - Senior Convertible Debentures

On April 24, 2001, the Company sold $175 million of 4.5% senior convertible debentures due 2008. The Company also sold an additional $35 million of these debentures in connection with the exercise of an over-allotment option. This transaction was a private placement pursuant to Rule 144A and Regulation S under the Securities Act of 1933. The Company registered the debentures and any common shares issued upon conversion on August 8, 2001. The debentures are convertible into common shares of the Company at $28 per share. The Company may redeem some or all of the senior convertible debentures at any time on or after April 15, 2004. The net proceeds of the offering will be used to finance acquisitions of businesses, repay outstanding indebtedness, buy out minority interests in existing subsidiaries and for general corporate purposes.
