LUCENT - ALCATEL MERGER MILESTONES MAY 9

When we announced our proposed merger with Alcatel on April 2, we estimated it would take six to 12 months to obtain various approvals and complete the transaction. Today, Lucent and Alcatel announced the filing of a Registration Statement with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) as part of this process. The filing contains important information about the pending merger between Alcatel and Lucent.

There are a number of additional milestones that must be achieved before the merger is complete, and they fall into four main areas from a U.S. perspective:

- 1) LEGAL FILINGS - A registration statement/ related to the issuance of new securities for the merger were filed today. These legal filings with the SEC provide more details on the merger transaction.
- 2) ANTITRUST FILINGS - Initial filings with the Department of Justice relative to a Hart-Scott Rodino antitrust review have been made.
- 3) APPROVAL BY CFIUS (COMMITTEE ON FOREIGN INVESTMENT IN THE UNITED STATES) -- This filing initiates a U.S. government review that is customary in transactions involving foreign ownership of a U.S.

- 4) SHAREHOLDER APPROVAL - Both companies will conduct special shareholder meetings and vote on the merger transaction on Sept. 7.

In addition to U.S. filings, similar filings and approvals are required in France and with the European Union (EU).

Please keep in mind that this is a snapshot of some of the filings and major milestones that must be crossed for this merger to be completed. The timing and duration of these activities may vary and are subject to change. We will keep employees updated on filings, approvals and other developments as they occur.
