The meeting will begin promptly at 1:30 p.m. on September 27, 2001. Stockholders of record at the close of business on July 31, 2001 will be entitled to vote at the meeting.

PROXIES

Your vote is very important. For this reason, the Board of Directors is requesting that you use the enclosed proxy card to vote your shares. If the accompanying proxy is executed, the shares represented by the proxy will be voted as specified. You may also vote your shares by delivering your proxy by telephone or via the Internet. The Company may retain a proxy solicitor to assist in the solicitation of proxies, for which the Company would pay usual and customary fees. This Proxy Statement is being mailed to stockholders on or about August 24, 2001.

If a broker, bank or other nominee holds your Common Stock, you will receive instructions from them that you must follow in order to have your shares voted. If you hold certificate(s) in your own name as a holder of record, you may vote your Common Stock by signing, dating and mailing the proxy card in the postage paid envelope provided. Of course, you can always come to the meeting and vote your shares in person.

You may revoke the proxy before the meeting, whether delivered by telephone, Internet or through the mail, by using the telephone voting procedures, the Internet voting procedures or by mailing a signed instrument revoking the proxy to: James P. O'Donnell, Corporate Secretary, ConAgra Foods, Inc., One ConAgra Drive, Omaha, Nebraska, 68102; to be effective, a mailed revocation must be received by the Secretary on or before September 26, 2001. A stockholder may attend the meeting in person, withdraw the proxy and vote in person.

VOTING SECURITIES

The Company at July 31, 2001 had issued and outstanding 537,298,994 voting shares of Common Stock. Each share of Common Stock is entitled to one vote. There were no shares of Preferred Stock outstanding at July 31, 2001.

The presence of a majority of the outstanding Common Stock represented in person or by proxy at the meeting will constitute a quorum. Shares represented by proxies that are marked "abstain" will be counted as shares present for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum. Proxies relating to "street name" shares that are voted by brokers on some matters will be treated as shares present for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum, but will not be treated as shares entitled to vote at the annual meeting on those matters as to which authority to vote is withheld by the broker ("broker non-votes").

The three nominees receiving the highest vote totals will be elected as Directors of ConAgra Foods, Inc. Accordingly, abstentions and broker non-votes will not affect the outcome of the election of Directors.

All other matters to be voted on will be decided by the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares present or represented at the meeting and entitled to vote. On any such matter, an abstention will have the same effect as a negative vote. A broker non-vote will not be counted as an affirmative vote or a negative vote because shares held by brokers will not be considered entitled to vote on matters as to which the brokers withhold authority.

As of May 27, 2001, the named executive officers who participate in the defined benefit pension plan had the following credited years of service: Mr. Rohde, 12 years; Mr. O'Donnell, 23 years; Mr. Johnson, 2 years; Mr. Goslee, 16 years; and Mr. Gerhardt, 3 years.

ConAgra Foods, Inc. has conditional employment agreements with certain officers, including all executive officers named in the summary compensation table. The employment agreements require the individuals to support the position of the Board of Directors with respect to any event by which another entity would acquire effective control of ConAgra Foods, Inc. (as defined in the agreements) through a tender offer or otherwise. In consideration of this promise, ConAgra Foods, Inc. agrees to employ the individual for three years after the event by which another entity acquires effective control of ConAgra Foods, Inc. During that three-year period, the individual would receive annually an amount not less than the individual's current annual compensation, plus the greater of (i) the individual's maximum allowable short-term incentive compensation (as defined in the agreement) or (ii) the individual's highest short-term incentive award during the prior three fiscal years, plus an amount equal to the individual's highest per unit award under the long-term compensation plan made during the three fiscal years immediately preceding such acquisition of control multiplied by the number of participation units for the current fiscal year. In addition, the individual would be entitled to those retirement benefits receivable had the individual worked to normal retirement age.

ConAgra Foods, Inc. must satisfy this obligation through a trust payable to the employee beginning at retirement age. If the employee is involuntarily terminated or constructively terminated (as defined in the agreements) during the three-year employment period, ConAgra Foods, Inc. is required to pay the individual the amount of annual and incentive compensation described above for any remainder of the three-year period plus a full year's compensation and maximum incentive payments, and shall also be obligated to provide the described retirement benefits through a trust.

In addition, the employee shall receive an amount equal to the difference between the highest tender offer price by the acquiring entity over the closing price of ConAgra Foods, Inc. Common Stock on the date of termination, multiplied by the number of ConAgra Foods, Inc. shares owned by the employee on the date of termination (including for this purpose, options granted under Stock Plans.) If the employee voluntarily terminates during the three-year period, ConAgra Foods, Inc. remains obligated to make the previously described retirement payments and the payments described in the preceding sentence. ConAgra Foods, Inc. is also required to make a gross-up payment to the employee if any payment to the employee is subject to an excise tax under Section 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code.

ConAgra Foods, Inc. adopted in 1989 the ConAgra Foods, Inc. Incentives and Deferred Compensation Change in Control Plan. Under this plan, in the event of a change in control of ConAgra Foods, Inc. (as defined in the plan), all benefits, payments and deferred compensation under ConAgra Foods, Inc.'s various incentive, bonus, deferred compensation and similar arrangements, for all employees participating under the applicable plans, become immediately non-forfeitable. In addition, a participant under any of the plans who is terminated after a change in control shall receive a pro rata benefit based on the portion of the year for which the participant was employed.

ConAgra Foods, Inc. and Mr. Rohde are parties to an employment agreement effective August 26, 1996. Mr. Rohde receives as compensation (1) a base salary of not less than $750,000 per annum, (2) participation in ConAgra Foods, Inc.'s Executive Annual Incentive Plan with a target bonus of not less than 80% of base salary and (3) participation in the Long-Term Senior Management Incentive Program. Mr. Rohde received on August 26, 1996 an award of 200,000 (post-1997 stock split) restricted shares vesting at the rate of 10% per year and an option to acquire 200,000 (post-1997 stock split) shares of stock exercisable at fair market value on the date of grant and vesting at the rate of 20% per annum. If Mr. Rohde is terminated without cause or voluntarily terminates with good reason (all as defined in the employment agreement), his then current base salary continues for a period of 24 months and all options and restricted shares immediately vest. The options and restricted shares also vest upon death or permanent disability. The employment agreement imposes certain noncompetition and confidentiality agreements on Mr. Rohde.

HUMAN RESOURCES COMMITTEE REPORT ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

ConAgra Foods, Inc.'s executive compensation plans are administered by the Human Resources Committee of the Board of Directors (the "Committee"). The Committee is composed of non-employee directors. The Committee has the responsibility to establish, review and change the compensation programs for ConAgra Foods, Inc.'s executive officers.

ConAgra Foods Inc.'s Compensation Philosophy

ConAgra Foods, Inc.'s compensation philosophy has been consistent for many years. The Committee established ConAgra Foods, Inc.'s long-term executive compensation plans with a view that benefits payable under short-term incentive plans are geared to performance in the current fiscal year, while benefits payable under the long-term incentive plans are designed to motivate executives for measured performance over time.

Edgar Filing: CONAGRA FOODS INC /DE/ - Form DEF 14A

The Committee believes that ConAgra Foods, Inc.'s executives should hold a significant ownership in ConAgra Foods, Inc. Common Stock. Such stock ownership is expected to result in executive decision-making which is in the best long-term interests of ConAgra Foods, Inc. and its stockholders. The Committee has structured ConAgra Foods, Inc.'s long-term incentives to be totally stock-based.

ConAgra Foods, Inc.'s executive compensation consists of three components: base salary, short-term incentives and long-term incentives. The Committee approved and administered the executive compensation programs within each of these components during fiscal 2001.

The Committee has reviewed ConAgra Foods, Inc.'s compensation plans in light of Internal Revenue Code provisions relating to the disallowance of deductions for nonperformance-based remuneration in excess of $1,000,000 to certain executive officers. The Committee intends to structure ConAgra Foods, Inc.'s executive compensation plans so that payments thereunder will generally be fully deductible. However, ConAgra Foods, Inc. may occasionally grant restricted shares or compensation in excess of $1,000,000 for specific reasons which would not qualify as deductible performance-based remuneration.

Base Salary

The Committee establishes the salary ranges for executive positions in relation to the median pay for similar positions in the food industry. The base salary for each executive officer is established based on individual performance and contribution to the profitability of ConAgra Foods, Inc., considering the competitiveness of the total compensation package. The Committee periodically uses outside consultants and published compensation survey data to review competitive rates of pay and establish salary ranges. There was no change in Mr. Rohde's base salary in fiscal 2001.

Short-Term Incentives

The Committee believes that an executive's contribution toward achieving ConAgra Foods, Inc.'s growth in earnings per share, annual operating profit plans, and annual return on equity performance should form the basis for short-term incentives. The Committee establishes performance goals at the beginning of each fiscal year tied to the attainment of annual company-wide or business unit profit plans. Executive officers are assigned threshold and target short-term bonus award opportunities. The short-term incentive target, plus base salary, is intended to provide a fully competitive annual cash compensation program for ConAgra Foods, Inc.'s executives when business and individual goals are met. The short-term incentive for ConAgra Foods, Inc.'s executive officers in fiscal 2001 was established under the Executive Annual Incentive Plan, which stockholders approved in 2000.

The target goals for fiscal 2001 were based on achievement of earnings per share objectives and return on equity objectives for ConAgra Foods, Inc. The target goals were not attained and no short-term incentives were paid for fiscal 2001 performance.

Long-Term Incentives

ConAgra Foods, Inc.'s long-term incentives for executive officers are provided through a long-term senior management incentive program and stock plans adopted in 1985, 1990, 1995 and 2000.

The long-term senior management incentive program rewards participants, including executive officers, based on ConAgra Foods, Inc.'s ability to increase earnings per share, with awards at target levels. The Committee selects participants, including executive officers, on an annual basis, and the participants are eligible to share in an award pool capped at 8% of ConAgra Foods, Inc.'s excess after-tax earnings over and above a minimum 5% compound growth rate from a five-year average earnings base. The award is issued in the form of restricted share equivalent units, vesting generally on the fifth anniversary of issuance, and stock options. The Chief Executive Officer participated in the long-term senior management incentive program during fiscal 2001 at an award level generally equal to three times the award level of the next highest executive officer named in the Summary Compensation Table. This higher level of participation reflects the Committee's judgment as to the duties and responsibilities required of the Chief Executive Officer position and his expected contributions to the Company's profitability. There were no payments under the long-term senior management incentive program for fiscal 2001 performance.

The Committee also administers ConAgra Foods, Inc.'s stock plans, which authorize various stock-based incentives, including grants of stock options and restricted stock. The Committee generally grants options on an annual basis representing up to 1.25% of ConAgra Foods, Inc.'s outstanding Common Stock. During fiscal 2001, options were granted to 1,978 ConAgra Foods, Inc. employees, including all of ConAgra Foods, Inc.'s executive officers. The Committee grants stock options at the prevailing market price of ConAgra Foods, Inc.'s Common Stock and such options therefore have value only if ConAgra Foods, Inc.'s stock price increases. Most option grants for executive officers vest in 20% annual installments beginning on the last day of the fiscal year following the date of grant, and the executive officer must be employed by ConAgra Foods, Inc. at the time of vesting at the end of the fiscal year in order to exercise the options. The Committee granted 300,000 non-qualified options to the Chief Executive Officer in July 2001 following its review of an independent compensation consultant's report on competitive equity based compensation.

AUDIT COMMITTEE REPORT

The Audit Committee is composed of three directors, each of whom meets the independence and experience requirements of the New York Stock Exchange. The Committee acts under a written charter, adopted by the Board of Directors, a copy of which is included in this proxy statement as Appendix A.

ConAgra Foods, Inc.'s management is responsible for the Company's financial reporting process and internal controls. The independent auditors are responsible for performing an independent audit of the Company's consolidated financial statements and issuing an opinion on the conformity of those audited financial statements with generally accepted accounting principles. The Audit Committee oversees the Company's financial reporting process and internal controls on behalf of the Board of Directors.

Pursuant to the Audit Committee charter, the Committee has the authority to conduct investigations within the scope of its responsibilities and to retain legal, accounting and other advisors to assist the Committee in its functions. During fiscal 2001, the Committee undertook an investigation of certain accounting practices at the Company's United Agri Products subsidiary, and retained special counsel in connection with such investigation. The investigation resulted in a restatement of the Company's financial statements for fiscal years 1997-2000.

During the last fiscal year, the Audit Committee met and held discussions with representatives of ConAgra Foods, Inc.'s management, its internal audit staff, and Deloitte & Touche, independent auditors. Representatives of financial management, the internal audit staff, and the independent auditors have unrestricted access to the Audit Committee and periodically meet privately with the Audit Committee. The Audit Committee reviewed and discussed with ConAgra Foods, Inc.'s management and Deloitte & Touche the audited financial statements contained in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended May 27, 2001.

The Committee also discussed with the independent auditors other matters required to be discussed by the auditors with the Committee under the Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61 (communication with audit committees). The Committee received and discussed with the independent auditors their written report on their independence from the Company and its management, which is made under Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 (independence discussions with audit committees). The Committee also considered whether the provision of financial information systems design and implementation services and other non-audit services provided by Deloitte & Touche to the Company during fiscal 2001 was compatible with the auditors' independence.

Based on these reviews and discussions, and the report of the independent auditors, the Audit Committee has recommended to the Board of Directors, and the Board has approved, that the audited financial statements be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended May 27, 2001 for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

The same firm conducted the fiscal 2000 and 2001 audits. Fees billed by Deloitte & Touche to the Company for services during the fiscal year ended May 27, 2001 were:

Audit Fees. Deloitte & Touche billed the Company an aggregate of $3,805,800 for professional services rendered in connection with the audit of the Company's fiscal 2001 annual financial statements and Deloitte & Touche's review of the Company's quarterly financial statements during fiscal 2001.

Financial Information Systems Design and Implementation Fees. Deloitte & Touche billed the Company an aggregate of $3,732,300 for information technology services during fiscal 2001.

All Other Fees. Deloitte & Touche billed the Company an aggregate of $14,289,300 for all other non-audit services during fiscal 2001. Such services included work by the Deloitte & Touche Forensic Unit in connection with the Audit Committee's investigation of certain accounting practices at the Company's United Agri Products subsidiary. Deloitte & Touche's Forensic Unit was hired by special counsel to the Audit Committee to perform such services.

The Board of Directors requests that stockholders ratify the appointment of Deloitte & Touche as independent auditors to conduct the 2002 audit of the Company's financial statements. Representatives from Deloitte & Touche will be present at the annual Stockholder's meeting. The representatives will have the opportunity to make a statement if they so desire and will also be available to respond to appropriate questions.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS A VOTE "FOR" ITEM 2.

ITEM 3: STOCKHOLDER PROPOSAL - DECLASSIFIED BOARD

The Company has been informed that the Amalgamated Bank of New York LongView Collective Investment Fund, 11-15 Union Square, New York, NY 10003, which reports an ownership of 169,764 shares of ConAgra Foods Common Stock, intends to introduce the following resolution at the Annual Meeting:

Edgar Filing: CONAGRA FOODS INC /DE/ - Form DEF 14A

RESOLVED: That the shareholders of ConAgra Foods, Inc. ("ConAgra" or "the Company") urge their Board of Directors to take the necessary steps, in compliance with the state law, to declassify the Board for the purpose of director elections. The Board's declassification shall be completed in a manner that does not affect the unexpired terms of directors previously elected.

Proponent's Statement of Support

The Company's board is divided or "classified" into three classes of directors serving staggered three-year terms. This means an individual director faces election only once every three years, and shareholders only vote on roughly a third of the board each year.

We believe that annual elections can pave the way for improved board sensitivity to important shareholder issues. In particular, it can help speed the diversification of the Company's Board and introduce new perspectives.

In addition, a declassified board allows the company to respond quickly to changes by giving the board the ability to appoint more qualified candidates each year. A declassified board can help give ConAgra the flexibility it needs as it moves into the next century.

The evidence shows that shareholders are increasingly dissatisfied with classified boards. Within the past year, shareholders adopted resolutions recommending board declassification at a number of companies, including Airborne Freight (73% of votes cast), Baxter International (60.4%), Eastman Chemical (70%), Eastman Kodak (60.7%), Lone Star Steakhouse & Saloon, Inc. (79%), Silicon Graphics (81.1%), United Health Group (75.7%), Weyerhaeuser (58%). A bylaw proposal at K Mart received 68.5% of the shares voted, but fell short of the percentage of outstanding shares needed for adoption. In 1999, shareholders recommended declassifying the board at Cendant, Cooper Tire & Rubber, Kaufman & Broad Home, Oregon Steel and Tenneco. In 1998, Walt Disney Company agreed to change its by-laws after a similar resolution passed with 65% of the vote. The same year, over 70% of votes cast favored the same reform at Fleming and Eastman Kodak.

By adopting annual elections, the Company can demonstrate its commitment to fuller accountability to shareholders, accountability that honors shareholder prerogatives.

We urge our fellow shareholders to vote FOR this proposal.

Board Recommendation

Under the Company's Certificate of Incorporation, the Board of Directors is divided into three classes with directors elected to staggered three-year terms. Approximately one-third of the directors stand for election each year. The stockholders of the Company approved this classified board structure in 1977. The Board of Directors believes the Company benefits from a classified board structure for several reasons.

The three-year staggered term is designed to provide stability since a majority of the Company's directors at any given time will have prior experience as directors of the Company. This ensures that the Board of Directors has experience-based knowledge of the Company's business and strategy. A classified board also permits long-term strategic planning by ensuring experienced representation of the long-term interests of the Company and its stockholders.

The current classified board members are accountable to stockholders just like annually elected directors. All directors are required to uphold their fiduciary duties to the Company and its stockholders, regardless of the length of their term of office. In addition, directors of the Company are compensated, in part, with shares of the Company's Common Stock. Stock-based compensation aligns the interests of directors with those of the Company and its stockholders by providing directors with an ownership stake in the Company.

The adoption of this proposal would not declassify the Board of Directors. The proposal requests that the Board of Directors take the necessary steps to declassify. Under Delaware law and the Company's Certificate of Incorporation, declassification could only occur through an amendment to the Certificate of Incorporation approved by (1) 80% of the Company's outstanding voting stock or (2) a majority of the Company's outstanding voting stock and at least 75% of the Board of Directors.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS A VOTE "AGAINST" THIS PROPOSAL. THE PROXY SOLICITED BY THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS WILL BE VOTED AGAINST THE PROPOSAL UNLESS STOCKHOLDERS SPECIFY A CONTRARY VOTE.

FISCAL 2002 STOCKHOLDERS PROPOSALS

Proposals of stockholders intended to be presented in the 2002 Annual Meeting proxy statement must be received by the Company no later than April 26, 2002.
