CLINTON GROUP AND CAMPUS EVOLUTION VILLAGES FILE DETAILED PRESENTATION ON CAMPUS CREST COMMUNITIES

NEW YORK, March 13, 2015 /PRNewswire/ -- Clinton Group, Inc. ("Clinton Group" or "CGI"), a stockholder of Campus Crest Communities, Inc. ("Campus Crest", "CCG" or the "Company") (NYSE:CCG), and Campus Evolution Villages, LLC ("Campus Evolution Villages" or "CEV" and together with CGI, the "Clinton/Campus Evolution Group"), a leading private owner and operator of student housing assets, filed a presentation earlier today describing their perspectives on the Company.

"We wanted to detail our case for change and plans for the future for the benefit of all existing and potential shareholders in advance of the Company's record date on March 20th. As I have stated previously, notwithstanding our plan, our nominees will not stand in the way of a bona fide change of control transaction at a market clearing price," stated Joseph A. De Perio, Senior Portfolio Manager at Clinton Group. De Perio continued "The Company has been without a permanent CEO for five months and there is virtually no student housing expertise at the Board and executive level. It is imperative to get student housing management expertise into the C-suite immediately, as this will help stabilize the operations in the near term and make the Company more attractive for a potential sale."

"As set forth in detail in the presentation, Campus Evolution Villages will bring much needed student housing leadership, sector specific operating expertise and culture that we believe are sorely needed at the Company to restore shareholder value," noted Andrew Stark, Chief Executive Officer of Campus Evolution Villages.

"We have the ability to come in, work with and empower employees by providing them the tools and strategies that will allow the Company to achieve a greater level of success," added Evan Denner, Chief Investment Officer at Campus Evolution Villages.
