FORM 10-K

PART I

In addition to historical information, this Annual Report on Form 10-K contains "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, which represent the Company's expectations or beliefs. When used in this report, the words "may," "could," "should," "would," "believe," "anticipate," "estimate," "expect," "intend," "plan" and similar expressions are intended to identify forward-looking statements. These statements by their nature involve substantial risks and uncertainties, certain of which are beyond the Company's control. The Company cautions that various factors, including the factors described in the Company's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, as well as general economic conditions, changes in applicable laws and regulations, industry trends, a dependence upon and/or loss of key employees, vendors or customers, the loss of strategic product shipping relationships, customer demand, product availability, competition (including pricing and availability), concentrations of credit risks, distribution efficiencies, capacity constraints and technological difficulties could cause actual results or outcomes to differ materially from those expressed in any forward-looking statements of the Company. Any forward-looking statement speaks only as of the date of this report and the Company undertakes no obligation to update any forward-looking statement or statements to reflect events or circumstances after the date on which such statements are made or to reflect the occurrence of an unanticipated event. New factors emerge from time to time, and it is not possible for the Company to predict all of such factors. Further, the Company cannot assess the impact of each such factor on its business or the extent to which any factor, or combination of factors, may cause actual results to differ materially from those contained in any forward-looking statements.

Edgar Filing: SCHERER HEALTHCARE INC - Form 10-K

ITEM 1. BUSINESS

Overview

Scherer Healthcare, Inc. (the "Company") was incorporated under the laws of the State of Delaware on December 18, 1981, as the successor to Aloe Creme Laboratories, Inc., incorporated on February 7, 1953. The Company's Common Stock is listed on The Nasdaq National Market under the symbol "SCHR".

The Company, through its subsidiaries, operates in two business segments. The Company's waste management services segment assists hospitals, clinics, doctors, and other health care facilities with the containment, control, collection and processing of sharp-edged medical waste such as needles, syringes, razors, scissors and scalpels. The consumer healthcare products segment distributes brand name and generic over-the-counter health care products. At March 31, 2001, the following wholly-owned subsidiaries operated within the Company's two business segments:

Waste Management Services Segment:

- (a) BioWaste Systems, Inc., a Georgia corporation.
- (b) Medical Waste Systems, Inc., a Delaware corporation.

Consumer Healthcare Products Segment:

Scherer Laboratories Inc., a Texas corporation.

As used herein, the term "Company" includes Scherer Healthcare, Inc. and, where appropriate, its subsidiaries.

Waste Management Services Segment

Overview. The Company operates its waste management services segment through Bio Waste Systems, Inc. and Medical Waste Systems, Inc. (collectively, "Bio Systems"). Each of these companies is wholly-owned by the Company.

Services. Bio Systems provides special waste handling and logistical services to hospitals, doctors' offices, clinics and other health care facilities including the biotechnology industry. These services are principally focused on assisting these facilities with the proper containment, control, collection and processing of sharp-edged medial waste or "sharps". Bio Systems provides its services in ten Northeastern and Mid-Atlantic, states, plus the District of Columbia.

The risk of AIDS and other blood borne disease such as hepatitis, coupled with public concerns regarding the safe packaging, transportation and disposal of medical waste, has for many years been mandated by federal, state and local governmental regulatory agencies. Sharps medical waste poses a threat to health care workers and the public because of its potential to transmit disease. Consequently, health care facilities have worked to improve the safety of their sharps waste management systems, however, many have found that an in-house system may not be the most cost effective method for their sharps disposal.

Bio Systems' sharps management programs are designed to reduce a medical facility's costs and risks associated with sharps disposal. Bio Systems incorporates reusable containers of various sizes and designs in its systems, which are installed by Bio Systems' personnel at the locations within a medical facility where sharps are discarded. These reusable containers provide a medical facility with a cost effective and environmentally friendly alternative to traditional disposable plastic containers. Bio Systems' personnel periodically collect and replace the containers at the point of use and then transport the full containers to Bio Systems' processing facility where they are emptied and decontaminated for reuse.

Bio Systems maintains a fleet of licensed trucks and trailers to transport medical waste to its processing facility, where the waste is sterilized, pulverized and made available for recycling or disposal via landfill or incineration. Bio Systems' medical waste processing operations are located at its processing facility in Farmingdale, New York. Bio Systems uses its facility located near Philadelphia, Pennsylvania to assemble, manage and store its reusable medical waste containers. Bio Systems operates a transfer station in Haverhill, Massachusetts.

Bio Systems also provides medical waste management services designed for medical clinics, physicians' offices and other facilities that generate relatively small quantities of regulated medical waste (small quantity generators). Bio Systems provides these customers with both a reusable container for sharps and a specially designed corrugated box for non-sharp regulated medical waste. This service for small quantity generators includes pick-up, removal and disposal of the medical waste.

Sales and Marketing. Bio Systems markets its services, which are not seasonal and are not subject to backlog, via a direct sales force and supports its programs with experienced account managers and field operations managers. In addition, it has refined its presence on the Internet and plans to use this channel as an additional marketing tool. Bio Systems operates 365 days a year.

Bio Systems' management believes that the trend toward consolidation of hospitals, medical clinics and physicians' offices into managed health care networks provides companies with existing medical facility contracts, such as Bio Systems, an advantage in securing contracts with newly affiliated network members.

Customers. Bio Systems' customers include hospitals, nursing homes, medical clinics, physicians and laboratories. Services to hospitals are typically provided under contracts with a term of at least one year. As of March 31, 2001, Bio Systems had contracts with 265 hospitals including agreements with the Greater New York Hospital Association, New Jersey Hospital Association, and seven of the largest hospital networks in the Northeast. Additionally, Bio Systems provides medical services to over 3,500 small quantity generators, including medical clinics, laboratories, and physicians' offices.

No single customer accounted for over 10% of Bio Systems' net sales during the years ending March 31, 2001, 2000, and 1999.

Competition. Bio Systems' principal competition comes from in-house management of sharps wherein the hospital purchases disposable containers from one of several manufacturers, uses hospital personnel to collect and replace containers when full, and disposes of the containers and waste with on-site equipment or through a third party medical waste hauler. Additionally, Bio Systems has two direct competitors which offer similar full-service programs.

With regard to its small quantity generator services, Bio Systems competes with several national and local medical waste service providers.

Though Bio Systems faces significant competition in its market areas, it believes it has a strong competitive position because of its reusable sharps containers, specialized service infrastructure and strategically located transfer and processing facilities.

Regulation. The medical waste industry is subject to a variety of federal, state and local regulations regarding its collection, transport, processing, and disposal. Bio Systems has obtained licenses or authorizations from the appropriate governmental regulatory agencies to operate its processing and transfer facilities in Farmingdale, New York and Haverhill, Massachusetts.

New regulations are frequently promulgated, compliance with which could have a material adverse effect on Bio Systems' business. Management is not aware of any pending regulations in Bio Systems' market areas that would have such a material adverse effect.

Employees. At March 31, 2001, Bio Systems had 172 employees. Drivers, technicians and processing personnel in New York and drivers and warehouse personnel in Pennsylvania are covered by collective bargaining agreements representing approximately 82% of Bio Systems' employees. Bio Systems entered into a three-year collective bargaining agreement in June 1999 with the union for its New York employees, a three-year agreement in October 1999 with the union for its Pennsylvania employees, and a two-year agreement in August 1999 with a union for its Massachusetts employer.

Consumer Healthcare Products Segment

Overview. In 1981, the Company acquired Scherer Laboratories, Inc. ("Scherer Labs"), a Texas corporation originally incorporated in 1903. Scherer Labs distributes its own brand name over-the-counter healthcare products. These products are primarily used for treatment of colds and coughs, eye and ear irritations and insect bites. Scherer Labs' products are manufactured by third party contractors using Scherer Labs' formulas. Scherer Labs carries an inventory sufficient to cover planned sales requirements. Scherer Labs' return policy is consistent with the drug industry, with annual returns during the last three years of less than 1.5% of total annual sales.

Scherer Labs shares office and warehouse space with the Company at the Company's corporate headquarters in Atlanta, Georgia and has a sales and marketing office located in Dallas, Texas. At March 31, 2001, Scherer Labs had three full-time employees. One employee, who works from the Dallas, Texas office, administers all sales, marketing, and purchasing. The other employees, who work from the Atlanta, Georgia facility, administer all customer service, warehouse and distribution functions and also perform certain accounting functions, including order processing, accounts receivable, and inventory control.

Seasonality. The sales of most of Scherer Labs' products are evenly distributed throughout the year. However, the majority of three of Scherer Labs' products are purchased by consumers during the summer months. As a result of this seasonal activity, approximately 30% of Scherer Labs' sales occur during the first fiscal quarter (April through June) of each fiscal year.

Customers. Scherer Labs markets its products primarily to drug and food stores, mass-market retailers, drug wholesalers, and government agencies. Sales to Wal-Mart Stores, Inc. represented approximately 58%, 50%, and 37% of total sales for the years ending March 31, 2001, 2000, and 1999, respectively. These sales were through McKesson HBOC, Wal-Mart's primary wholesaler, and account for over 80% of McKesson HBOC's total purchases from Scherer Labs. The loss of Wal-Mart's business would have a material adverse effect on Scherer Labs' ability to continue to operate profitably.

In total, sales to McKesson HBOC represented approximately 68% of Scherer Labs' total sales in the year ended March 31, 2001. In the years ending March 31, 2000 and 1999, sales to Albertsons, Inc. represented approximately 10% and 13% of Scherer Labs' total sales, respectively.

Competition. Scherer Labs' products are subject to competition from national, regional, and store brands of similar or identical formulations. Emphasis is placed on Scherer Labs' long history, product quality and pricing at or near the pricing levels of generic products. Marketing activities focus on in-store price specials and other promotional allowances.

Regulation. Scherer Labs' products are regulated by the U.S. Food and Drug Administration. Also, licensing and product registration is required by certain states where product sales occur and are renewed annually. There have been no government inspections of Scherer Labs in the last three years and there are no pending matters between Scherer Labs and any federal, state or local governmental regulatory agency.

Discontinued Medical Device and Surgical/Safety Disposables Segment

The operations of Marquest Medical Products, Inc. ("Marquest") and Scherer Healthcare, Ltd. ("Scherer Ltd.") previously were included in the Company's medical device and surgical/safety disposables segment. The assets and businesses of Scherer Ltd., a limited partnership that was 65% owned by the Company, were sold in two separate transactions in October 1995 and October 1996. In July 1997, the Company and Marquest, which was a majority owned subsidiary of the Company, completed certain transactions with Vital Signs, Inc. ("VSI") whereby Marquest became a wholly-owned subsidiary of VSI. Effective with the sale of Marquest to VSI, the operations of the medical device and surgical/safety segment have been accounted for as a discontinued segment.

Discontinued Pharmaceutical Research and Development Segment

Biofor, Inc. ("Biofor"), a majority owned subsidiary of the Company which had been operating the Company's pharmaceutical research and development segment, was engaged in research to identify and develop new drug compounds. In July 1995, after attempts by the Company to locate a purchaser for Biofor, Biofor ceased further drug design efforts and concentrated solely on the compound research contract it had with Ono Pharmaceutical Company, Ltd. ("Ono"). When the Ono contract expired in March 1996, Biofor discontinued all operations and the Company abandoned all operations of Biofor.

The remaining property and equipment of Biofor primarily consists of 29 acres of vacant land, a 30,000 square foot building on 5.5 acres of land owned by Biofor, and computer and laboratory equipment. The Company intends to sell the remaining assets of Biofor, which have been written down to their estimated net realistic value, but it anticipates that it may take several years to sell all of the assets.

ITEM 7. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

The following discussion contains, in addition to historical information, "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, which represent the Company's expectations or beliefs. When used in this report, the words "may," "could," "should," "would," "believe," "anticipate," "estimate," "expect," "intend," "plan" and similar expressions are intended to identify forward-looking statements. These statements by their nature involve substantial risks and uncertainties, certain of which are beyond the Company's control. The Company cautions that various factors, including the factors described in the Company's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, as well as general economic conditions, changes in applicable laws and regulations, industry trends, a dependence upon and/or loss of key employees, vendors or customers, the loss of strategic product shipping relationships, customer demand, product availability, competition (including pricing and availability), concentrations of credit risks, distribution efficiencies, capacity constraints and technological difficulties could cause actual results or outcomes to differ materially from those expressed in any forward-looking statements of the Company. Any forward-looking statement speaks only as of the date of this report and the Company undertakes no obligation to update any forward-looking statement or statements to reflect events or circumstances after the date on which such statements are made or to reflect the occurrence of an unanticipated event. New factors emerge from time to time, and it is not possible for the Company to predict all of such factors. Further, the Company cannot assess the impact of each such factor on its business or the extent to which any factor, or combination of factors, may cause actual results to differ materially from those contained in any forward-looking statements.

Fiscal 2001 vs. Fiscal 2000

The Company's net sales increased by 12% to $18,738,000 for the year ended March 31, 2001, from $16,788,000 for the year ended March 31, 2000. The Company's operating income increased 1% to $1,430,000 for the year ended March 31, 2001, from $1,418,000 for the year ended March 31, 2000. The Company's cost of goods sold increased to 63% of net sales for the year ended March 31, 2001, from 61% of net sales for the year ended March 31, 2000. The Company's selling, general, and administrative expenses increased to 30% of net sales for the year ended March 31, 2001, from 29% of net sales for the year ended March 31, 2000.

The results of operations of the Company are dependent upon the results of operations of each of its subsidiaries operating in the individual business segments. Set forth below is a discussion of the results of operations of each of these segments.

Waste Management Services Segment

Net sales in the Company's waste management services segment, which operates through Bio Systems, increased 12% to $17,278,000 for the year ended March 31, 2001, from $15,435,000 for the year ended March 31, 2000. The sales growth is primarily due to securing new hospital contracts for Bio Systems' core business of providing "sharps" (sharp-edged medical waste such as scalpels, syringes, and needles) disposal services which utilize cost effective reusable containers and price increases initiated for contract renewals. Additionally, the industry trend toward the formation of hospital networks and Bio Systems' success in marketing its services to these networks have enhanced Bio Systems' sales and market share growth.

Bio Systems' operating income increased 3% to $1,712,000 for the year ended March 31, 2001, from $1,656,000 for the year ended March 31, 2000. Bio Systems' cost of goods sold increased to 65% of its net sales for the year ended March 31, 2001, from 63% of net sales for the year ended March 31, 2000. Cost of goods sold is primarily comprised of: direct labor and related costs and benefits to collect and process waste amounting to 31% of net sales; vehicle and equipment maintenance, repair, capital lease financing, and depreciation amounting to 5% of net sales; waste disposal costs amounting to 12% of net sales; and warehouse expenses amounting to 6% of net sales. Selling, general, and administrative expenses as a percentage of Bio Systems' net sales increased to 25% for the year ended March 31, 2001, from 24% for the year ended March 31, 2000. Selling, general, and administrative expenses are primarily comprised of: management, administrative and office compensation, related costs and benefits; and utilities, insurance, property taxes, depreciation, bad debt, professional fees, rent, amortization, advertising promotion, travel and miscellaneous other expenses. Starting early in the year ended March 31, 1999, and continuing through the year ended March 31, 2001, Bio Systems has had substantial new hospital activity. Preparing new accounts for service requires, among other things, installation of Bio Systems' reusable containers and sometimes considerable operational follow-up which causes temporary increases in certain costs and expenses with respect to those accounts. Additionally, Bio Systems' operating payroll and transportation costs and expenses have increased due to the addition of personnel and medical waste transportation vehicles needed to service the new hospital accounts.

Consumer Healthcare Products Segment

Net sales for Scherer Labs, which operates in the Company's consumer healthcare products segment, increased 8% to $1,460,000 for the year ended March 31, 2001, from $1,353,000 for the year ended March 31, 2000. The increase in Scherer Labs' net sales is due primarily to the following factors: (i) the general increase in the level of business for the year ended March 31, 2001, (ii) extension of the contract with Wal-Mart, and (iii) the addition of CVS Corporation's southeastern stores initially selling just one of Scherer Lab's products.

Scherer Labs' operating income increased to $507,000 for the year ended March 31, 2001, from $460,000 for the year ended March 31, 2000. Scherer Labs' cost of goods sold increased slightly to 40% of its net sales for the year ended March 31, 2001, from 39% for the year ended March 31, 2000. Cost of goods sold is primarily comprised of the cost of materials for products the Company distributes and the related shipping expenses. Selling, general, and administrative expenses increased to 29% of net sales for the year ended March 31, 2001, from 27% for the year ended March 31, 2000. Selling, general, and administrative expenses are primarily comprised of: management, administrative and office compensation, related costs and benefits; and utilities, insurance, property taxes, depreciation, bad debt, professional fees, rent, amortization, advertising promotion, travel and miscellaneous other expenses.

Corporate

The Company's operating expenses at the corporate level increased to $789,000 for the year ended March 31, 2001, from $698,000 for the year ended March 31, 2000. Certain administrative, accounting, management oversight, and payroll services are performed by the Company's Corporate office for its subsidiaries. The Corporate operating expenses primarily include the salaries, wages and related benefits of the personnel who perform these functions (including the Company's executive officers), rent expense, professional, accounting and legal fees. Salaries and wages decreased from $440,000 for the year ended March 31, 2000, to $361,000 for the year ended March 31, 2001. This decrease was partially due to one fewer employee and offset by the increase of $34,000 for outside clerical services. The Company did not incur any lawsuit settlement expenses in the year ended March 31, 2001, versus $298,000 for the year ended March 31, 2000, $255,00 of which was accounted for in Bio Systems. Professional, accounting and legal fees increased from $113,000 for the year ended March 31, 2000, to $204,000 for the year ended March 31, 2001.

Fiscal 2000 vs. Fiscal 1999

The Company's net sales increased by 12% to $16,788,000 for the year ended March 31, 2000, from $14,995,000 for the year ended March 31, 1999. The Company's operating income decreased 13% to $1,418,000 for the year ended March 31, 2000, from $1,626,000 for the year ended March 31, 1999. The Company's cost of goods sold increased slightly to 61% of net sales for the year ended March 31, 2000, from 60% of net sales for the year ended March 31, 1999. The Company's selling, general, and administrative expenses, including litigation settlements, were unchanged at 31% of net sales for the years ending March 31, 2000 and 1999.

The results of operations of the Company are dependent upon the results of operations of each of its subsidiaries operating in the individual business segments. Set forth below is a discussion of the results of operations of each of these segments.

Waste Management Services Segment

Net sales in the Company's waste management services segment, which operates through Bio Systems, increased 9% to $15,435,000 for the year ended March 31, 2000, from $14,123,000 for the year ended March 31, 1999. As in the past few years, the sales growth is primarily due to securing new hospital contracts for Bio Systems' core business of providing sharps disposal services which utilize cost effective reusable containers.

Bio Systems' operating income decreased 13% to $1,656,000 for the year ended March 31, 2000, from $1,907,000 for the year ended March 31, 1999. Bio Systems' cost of goods sold increased to 63% of its net sales for the year ended March 31, 2000, from 60% of net sales for the year ended March 31, 1999. Selling, general, and administrative expenses as a percentage of Bio Systems' net sales were unchanged at 24% of net sales for the years ending March 31, 2000 and 1999. Starting early in the year ended March 31, 1998, and continuing through the year ended March 31, 2000, Bio Systems has had substantial new hospital activity. Preparing new accounts for service requires, among other things, installation of Bio Systems' reusable containers and sometimes considerable operational follow-up which causes temporary increases in certain costs and expenses with respect to those accounts. Additionally, Bio Systems' operating payroll and transportation costs and expenses have increased due to the additions of personnel and medical waste transportation vehicles needed to service the new hospital accounts. As a result of the increase in net sales, Bio Systems has had better absorption of the costs and expenses associated with the new account installations and service for the year ended March 31, 2000, compared to prior years.

Consumer Healthcare Products Segment

Net sales for Scherer Labs, which operates in the Company's consumer healthcare products segment, increased 55% to $1,353,000 for the year ended March 31, 2000, from $872,000 for the year ended March 31, 1999. The increase in Scherer Labs' net sales is due primarily to the following factors: (i) the general increase in the level of business in fiscal year 2000 and (ii) a new contract with Wal-Mart. Through McKesson, its primary distributor, Scherer Labs began selling the ERO earwax removal system to Wal-Mart in the first quarter of the year ended March 31, 2000. Sales of this product to Wal-Mart during the year ended March 31, 2000, were approximately $490,000 or 36% of gross sales for the segment for the year.

As a result of the increase in net sales, Scherer Labs' operating income increased 114% to $460,000 for the year ended March 31, 2000, from $215,000 for the year ended March 31, 1999. Scherer Labs' cost of goods sold increased slightly to 39% of its net sales for the year ended March 31, 2000, from 38% for the year ended March 31, 1999 and its selling, general, and administrative expenses decreased to 27% of net sales

Corporate

The Company's operating expenses in the corporate level increased to $698,000 for the year ended March 31, 2000, from $496,000 for the year ended March 31, 1999. Certain administrative, accounting, management oversight and payroll services are performed by the Company's Corporate office. The Corporate operating expenses include the salaries and wages of the personnel who perform these functions (including the Company's executive officers), rent expense, and professional accounting and legal fees. Payroll expense at the Corporate level decreased for the year ending March 31, 2000, as compared to the year ended March 31, 1999. These payroll reductions will be offset in the year ended March 31, 2000, because as of April 1, 1999, the Company began paying a salary to Robert P. Scherer, Jr., the Company's Chairman of the Board, President and Chief Executive Officer. In the year ended March 31, 1999, and in prior years, the Company did not pay Mr. Scherer any salary or other compensation for his services. The Company also accrued expense of $188,000 in the year ended March 31, 2000, to settle a lawsuit that was pending at the end of the year ended March 31, 1999.

Other Income (Expense). The Company recorded interest income of $806,000, $738,000, and $687,000 in the years ending March 31, 2001, 2000 and 1999, respectively. The increase in interest income is a result of the investment of the Company's cash, principally in marketable securities.

During the year ended March 31, 2001, the Company recognized equity in net losses of unconsolidated companies of $667,000 relating to its equity method investments in Econometrics, Inc., Compliance1, Inc., Protocol, LLC, and MedicareFacts, LLC. In the fourth quarter of the year ended March 31, 2001, the Company wrote off the remaining balance of $181,000 of its investment in Protocol, LLC. The Company also recognized a $380,000 impairment charge in the quarter ended December 31, 2000, relating to a write down of Renaissance Pharmaceuticals, Inc., an investment recorded under the cost method of accounting (see Note 3 of Notes to Consolidation Financial Statement included elsewhere herein).

Income Taxes. The Company recorded an income tax provision (benefit) of $(532,000), $202,000, and $77,000 for the years ending March 31, 2001, 2000 and 1999, respectively. For the year ended March 31, 2001, based on its recent earnings history, no asset valuation allowance is necessary versus $860,000 for the year ended March 31, 2000. This, combined with $328,000 of other taxes, net, resulted in the $(532,000) of income tax benefit at March 31, 2001. For the year ended March 31, 2000, and in prior years, the Company utilized tax loss carryforwards to offset taxable income. Additionally, in the year ended March 31, 2001, the Company eliminated its valuation allowance against deferred tax assets due to the favorable resolution of uncertainties that were outstanding as of March 31, 2000.

Quarterly Results of Operations

The following table presents certain unaudited quarterly statement of operations data for each of the last 12 quarters through the quarter ended March 31, 2001. The information has been derived from the Company's unaudited consolidated financial statements. In the opinion of management, the unaudited financial statements have been prepared on a basis consistent with the financial statements which appear elsewhere in this Form 10-K and include all adjustments, consisting only of normal recurring adjustments, necessary for a fair statement of the financial position and results of operations for such unaudited periods. Historical results are not necessarily indicative of results to be expected in the future.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

The Company's cash and cash equivalents totaled $4,398,000 at March 31, 2001, an increase of $2,709,000 from March 31, 2000. Since March 31, 2000, the Company has made additional investments of $150,000 in Econometrics, Inc. and $1,115,000 in Compliance1 Inc. In October 2000, the Company made an investment of $400,000 in MedicareFacts, LLC. Also, since March 31, 2000, the Company has sold $2,743,000 of marketable securities which increased cash and cash equivalents. The Company's working capital increased to $7,096,000 at March 31, 2001, from $4,089,000 at March 31, 2000. This increase was primarily for the reasons described below and the result of investment transactions described above.

Cash Flows from Operating Activities.

The Company's cash provided by operating activities from continuing operations totaled $3,040,000 for the year ended March 31, 2001, as compared to $1,963,000 for the year ended March 31, 2000. The increase at March 31, 2001, is primarily due to increased sales of $1,950,000 at Bio Systems and Scherer Labs.

Cash Flows from Investing and Financing Activities.

The Company's investing activities used cash of $596,000, $5,614,000 and $3,833,000 for the years ending March 31, 2001, 2000 and 1999, respectively. During the year ended March 31, 2001, the Company received proceeds of $2,743,000 from the sale of its investments in marketable securities. During the years ending March 31, 2000 and 1999, the Company increased its investment in marketable securities by $1,906,000 and $2,671,000, respectively, when it made additional investments in fixed income government bonds. The Company's marketable securities are composed of municipal bonds, corporate bonds and preferred stocks and mature over periods ranging from 2 years to 29 years (see Note 3 of the Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements included elsewhere herein).

During the year ended March 31, 2001, the Company made additional investments in unconsolidated companies, accounted for using the equity method, of $150,000 in Econometrics, Inc., $1,115,000 in Compliance1, Inc., and $400,000 in MedicareFacts, LLC. During the year ended March 31, 2000, the Company made cash investments of $2,000,000 in Econometrics, Inc., $300,000 in Protocol, LLC, and $50,000 in Compliance1, Inc. (see Note 3 of Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements included elsewhere herein).

As a result of the growth in business, Bio Systems made capital expenditures for vehicles, equipment, and containers of $1,509,000, $1,344,000, and $1,105,000 in the years ending March 31, 2001, 2000, and 1999, respectively.

Cash provided by the Company's financing activities was $265,000 for the year ended March 31, 2001, caused by capital lease financing of new vehicles. Cash flows used in financing activities were $93,000 and $159,000 in the years ending March 31, 2000 and 1999, respectively, when the Company paid off certain capital leases.

Management of the Company believes that its current cash on hand and its current cash flow is sufficient to maintain operations on a short-term and long-term basis. The Company continues to evaluate its long-term options with regard to the use of its remaining cash on hand including possible investment and acquisition opportunities.

PART III

Certain information required by Part III is omitted from this report but is incorporated herein by reference to the Company's definitive Proxy Statement for the 2001 Annual Meeting of Shareholders (the "Proxy Statement"). Such Proxy Statement will be filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission not later than 120 days after March 31, 2001.

ITEM 10. DIRECTORS AND EXECUTIVE OFFICERS OF REGISTRANT

Edgar Filing: SCHERER HEALTHCARE INC - Form 10-K

In accordance with General Instruction G(3) of the Form 10-K, the information relating to the directors of the Company, including directors who are executive officers of the Company, is set forth under the caption "Election of Directors" in the Proxy Statement and is incorporated herein by reference. Pursuant to Instruction 3 of Item 401(b) of Regulation S-K and General Instruction G(3) of Form 10-K, information relating to the executive officers of the Company is set forth under the caption "Executive Officers of the Company" in Part I, Item 4A of this report. Compliance with Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934: Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange of 1934, as amended, and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission thereunder require the Company's directors and executive officers and any persons who own more than 10% of the Company's Common Stock, as well as certain affiliates of such persons, to file reports with the Securities and Exchange Commission and the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. with respect to their ownership of the Company's Common Stock. Directors, executive officers and persons owning more than 10% of the Company's Common Stock are required by Securities and Exchange Commission regulations to furnish the Company with copies of all Section 16(a) reports they file. Based solely on its review of the copies of such reports received by it and written representations that no other reports were required of those persons, the Company believes that during fiscal 1999, all filing requirements applicable to its directors and executive officers were complied with in a timely manner except that Donald P. Zima and Joel M. Segal filed late Form 3s. The Company is not aware of any other persons other than directors and executive officers and their affiliates who own more than 10% of the Company's Common Stock.

ITEM 11. EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

In accordance with General Instruction G(3) of Form 10-K, the information relating to executive compensation set forth under the caption "Compensation of Executive Officers" in the Proxy Statement is incorporated herein by reference; provided, such incorporation by reference shall not be deemed to include or incorporate by reference the information referred to in Item 402 (a)(8) of Regulation S-K.

ITEM 12. SECURITY OWNERSHIP OF CERTAIN BENEFICIAL OWNERS AND MANAGEMENT

In accordance with General Instruction G(3) of Form 10-K, the information relating to security ownership by certain persons set forth under the captions "Principal Stockholders" and "Election of Directors" in the Proxy Statement is incorporated herein by reference.

ITEM 13. CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

In accordance with General Instruction G(3) of Form 10-K, the information relating to certain relationships and related transactions set forth under the caption "Related Party Transactions" in the Proxy Statement is incorporated herein by reference.

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS

To Scherer Healthcare, Inc.

We have audited the accompanying consolidated balance sheets of SCHERER HEALTHCARE, INC. (a Delaware corporation) AND SUBSIDIARIES as of March 31, 2001 and 2000, and the related consolidated statements of operations, stockholders' equity, and cash flows for each of the three years in the period ended March 31, 2001. These consolidated financial statements and the schedule referred to below are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements and the schedule based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Scherer Healthcare, Inc. and subsidiaries as of March 31, 2001 and 2000, and the results of their operations and their cash flows for each of the three years in the period ended March 31, 2001, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States.

Our audits were made for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The schedule listed in the index of financial statements and financial statement schedule is presented for purposes of complying with the Securities and Exchange Commission's rules and is not part of the basic financial statements. This information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in our audits of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated, in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

SCHERER HEALTHCARE, INC.

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

MARCH 31, 2001, 2000, AND 1999

NOTE 1. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES AND PRINCIPLES OF CONSOLIDATION

Basis of Presentation

The accompanying consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the parent company, Scherer Healthcare, Inc., and its subsidiaries (the "Company" or "Scherer Healthcare"). All significant intercompany accounts and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation.

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Certain prior year amounts have been reclassified to conform with the current year presentation.

Cash Equivalents

Edgar Filing: SCHERER HEALTHCARE INC - Form 10-K

The Company considers all highly liquid investments with an original maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

As of March 31, 2001 and 2000, the carrying value of financial instruments such as cash, short-term investments, trade receivables and payables and short-term debt approximated their fair values based on the short-term maturities of these instruments. Additionally, the carrying value of both long-term investments and long-term debt approximated fair values.

Inventories

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost or market, using the first-in, first-out ("FIFO") method.

During the fourth quarter of 2001, the Company changed its method of determining the cost of inventories from the last-in, first-out ("LIFO") method to the FIFO method, as it represented a more accurate methodology for costing inventory. The change in accounting principle increased net income by $31,000 and is included in the accompanying consolidated statements of operations.

	As of March 31,
	2001	2000
Finished products	$ 65,000	$ 68,000
Containers, packaging, and raw material	268,000	355,000
LIFO reserve		(49,000)
Total	$ 333,000	$ 374,000

New Accounting Pronouncements

In June 1998, the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards ("SFAS") No. 133, "Accounting for Derivative Instruments and Hedging

F 7

Activities," as amended, which addresses the accounting for derivative instruments. SFAS No. 133 is effective for financial statements for the Company's fiscal quarters beginning on April 1, 2001. SFAS No. 133 did not have a significant impact to the Company upon adoption.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment is stated at cost, and depreciation is computed using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets as follows: automobiles and trucks 5 years, leasehold improvements 3-31 years, and furniture, fixtures, equipment and containers 3-10 years.

	As of March 31,
	2001	2000
Automobiles and trucks	$ 2,246,000	$ 1,713,000
Leasehold improvements	964,000	997,000
Furniture, fixtures, equipment and containers	6,077,000	5,960,000
Total	$ 9,287,000	$ 8,670,000

Depreciation expense for the years ending March 31, 2001, 2000, and 1999 was $1,276,000, $1,117,000, and $1,060,000, respectively.

Intangible Assets

Intangible assets include the cost in excess of net assets acquired ("goodwill") as well as various other intangibles. Intangible assets are amortized over the following estimated useful lives:

	Years
Goodwill	30
Buyout of minority partnership interest	30
Permit acquisition costs	1-5
Acquisition costs for investment in Econometrics	5

Marketable Securities

The Company determines the appropriate classification of its marketable securities at the time of purchase and reevaluates such designation at each balance sheet date. The Company's marketable securities are categorized as available-for-sale securities, as defined by SFAS No. 115, "Accounting for Certain Investments in Debt and Equity Securities," and are carried at fair market value, with unrealized holding gains and losses reported in capital in excess of par value (see Note 3).

Income Taxes

The Company uses the liability method to account for income taxes (see Note 9).

F 8

Revenue Recognition

Revenue for services provided is recorded when the Company has completed the service. Product revenue is recorded by the Company when products are received by customers or independent distributors. The Company's payment terms are the same for all customers, i.e. 1% discount if paid in 10 days net due in 30 days. The Company does not offer price protection. In accordance with SFAS No. 48, "Revenue Recognition When Right of Return Exists," transactions with customers and distributors qualify as sales at shipment. The Company's return and exchange policy is as follows:

The Company will accept for exchange or credit all merchandise returned in the original and unopened packages within one year after the expiration date;

Merchandise will not be accepted for exchange or credit if purchased at sacrifice, fire or bankruptcy sale, or sold on a non-returnable basis or if deteriorated from causes beyond the Company's control;

Merchandise eligible for return may be exchanged for merchandise of equal value, for a return of the purchase price, or for credit to be applied to future orders;

Exchange merchandise is required to be shipped prepaid by the customer; and

The return of merchandise constitutes an authorization without recourse to the Company to destroy without payment any return items deemed unfit for resale.

The Company's returns for the years ending March 31, 2001, 2000, and 1999 were $8,000, $9,000, and $12,000, respectively. The Company's policy is to reduce sales and cost of goods sold when merchandise is returned.

In December 1999, the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") accounting staff published Staff Accounting Bulletin 101 Revenue Recognition in Financial Statements ("SAB 101"). SAB 101 is effective for financial statements for the Company's fiscal quarters beginning on April 1, 2000. The adoption of SAB 101 did not have a significant effect on the Company's financial reporting.

Unearned Revenue

Unearned revenue includes the liability for advance billings to customers for contractual services billed on the first day of monthly billing periods.

Long-Lived Assets

The Company reviews its long-lived assets, such as property and equipment and intangible assets, including goodwill, for impairment at each balance sheet date or whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of an asset should be assessed. Management evaluates the intangible assets related to each acquisition individually to determine whether impairment has occurred. When factors indicate that long-lived assets and intangible assets should be evaluated for possible impairment, the Company will use an estimate of undiscounted cash flows over the remaining life of the asset in measuring whether the asset is recoverable. Management believes the Company's long-lived assets and intangible assets are appropriately valued in the consolidated balance sheets as of March 31, 2001 and 2000.

Net Income Per Common Share

Basic net income per common share is computed by dividing income available to common shareholders by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding for the period. Diluted net income per common share reflects the potential dilution that could occur if securities or other contracts to issue common shares were exercised or converted into common shares.

The following is a reconciliation of the Company's basic weighted average common shares outstanding to diluted weighted average common shares outstanding for the years ending March 31, 2001, 2000, and 1999.

	2001	2000	1999
Weighted average common shares outstanding basic	4,321,367	4,336,383	4,329,568

MedicareFacts, LLC designs and develops reimbursement guides which provide a single source for all coding and coverage information needed to file accurate Medicare claims, thus ensuring optimal reimbursement and compliance with government regulations. These products are used principally by hospitals and clinical laboratories. The Company's investment is in the form of a two-year 10% series B unsecured convertible note in the aggregate principal amount of $400,000 that matures in October 2002, and which converts, at the Company's option, into 20% of the outstanding common stock of MedicareFacts, LLC as of March 31, 2001.

Protocol provides a complete laboratory services solution to group physician practices and other healthcare providers. The Company's investment is in the form of a three-year 10% secured convertible debenture in the aggregate principal amount of $300,000 that matures in February 2003, and which converts, at the Company's option, into 12.4% of the outstanding common stock of Protocol as of March 31, 2001. The Company's debenture is subordinate to existing bank debt. During February 2001, Protocol terminated operations and entered into an assignment for the benefit of creditors. The Company recorded an impairment charge for $181,000 in the accompanying statements of operations for its remaining investment balance in Protocol subsequent to the bankruptcy filing.

Econometrics, Inc. is a database marketing company that manages its own national consumer database of 180 million consumers and links marketers to its national database through the Internet. The Company's investment is in the form of a five-year 8% unsecured convertible debenture in the aggregate principal amount of $2,000,000 that matures in October 2004, a three-year 10% convertible debenture for $100,000, plus warrants to purchase common stock, that matures in June 2003, and an 18% promissory note for $50,000 that matures in April 2001. As of March 31, 2001, the $2,150,000 in debentures convert into 24.5% of the outstanding common stock of Econometrics, Inc.

The Company has an investment in Renaissance Pharmaceuticals, Inc. which is recorded at historical cost under the cost method. Renaissance Pharmaceuticals, Inc. is a development stage drug delivery company. The Company has a direct investment of $650,000 in Renaissance Pharmaceuticals, Inc. for 2.5% of the outstanding common stock as of March 31, 2001. During the quarter ending December 31, 2000, the Company recorded an impairment charge of $380,000 against its investment in Renaissance Pharmaceuticals, Inc. due to a revised valuation by the management of Renaissance Pharmaceuticals, Inc. in connection with Renaissance Pharmaceuticals, Inc.'s $5.2 million convertible preferred stock offering.

NOTE 4. INTANGIBLES AND GOODWILL

Intangible assets and the related accumulated amortization as of March 31, 2001 and 2000 are as follows:
