Part III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Forms 10-K, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

U.S. RealTel, Inc. (the "Company") is unable to file its Annual Report for the year ended December 31, 2001 without unreasonable effort and expense because the Company requires additional time to prepare financial statements and other information for the period in light of its acquisition of Cypress Communications, Inc. after year-end and the impact of the acquisition of Cypress Communications on the Company's current business operations and on the preparation of the Company's financial statements with respect to subsequent changes to the Company's pre-existing operations. The Company will complete and file the report as soon as possible, and in any event prior to the expiration of the extension period. The Company expects to report material declines in total assets and revenues compared to the previous fiscal year, continued operating losses, including an operating loss for the year and a significant net loss for the year ended December 31, 2001 compared to the prior year.
