Further to our letter No. Sc-15090 dated May 16, 2008 intimating you of the date of the Board meeting, i.e. May 28, 2008 for considering Audited Annual Accounts, dividend, if any, and the book closure date for dividend, we would like to inform that the Board of Directors at the said meeting would also consider various options for raising long term capital funds. This intimation is being sent as required under Clause 19 of the Listing Agreement with the Stock Exchanges.

All statements contained herein that are not statements of historical fact constitute "forward-looking statements". All statements regarding our expected financial condition and results of operations, business, plans and prospects are forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements include but are not limited to statements as to our business strategy, our revenue and profitability, planned projects and other matters discussed herein regarding matters that are not historical fact. These forward-looking statements and any other projections (whether made by us or any third party) involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors that may cause our actual results, performance or achievements to be materially different from any future results, performance or achievements expressed or implied by these forward-looking statements or other projections. Additional risks that could affect our future operating results are more fully described in our filings with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission. These filings are available at www.sec.gov. We may, from time to time, make additional written and oral forward-looking statements, including statements contained in our filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission and our reports to shareholders. We do not undertake to update any forward-looking statement that may be made from time to time by or on our behalf.
