Attention: Mr. Stephen V. Maroney

Dear Mr. Maroney:

We appreciate your attempt to respond to our concerns in your letter to shareholders of February 18, 2005. However, we are troubled by your misconceptions about your fiduciary duty. You describe the increase in the Company's market value and conclude "We [Management] continue to believe that our strategy to unlock the value of the Company's real estate holdings has been successful and is supported by the foregoing results." We believe however, that this increase in market capitalization is primarily attributable, not to any management action, but to the Company's underlying real estate value and the marketplace's recognition of such. In fact, we believe management has and continues to adversely impact shareholder value.

As you know, we met with Messrs. Lamb, Pitsiokos and yourself in late 2004 in an open dialogue to explore ways to enhance shareholder value. A primary topic of that meeting was the concept of a sale of the Company or its assets as well as excessive compensation. At that time you claimed that no legitimate buyers existed. We disagreed and we received what we thought was your warm blessing to seek potential buyers for the board's review. We were of course disappointed with the Board's unwillingness to actively seek a buyer for the Company.

As a result of our efforts, a potential buyer showed up at your doorstep. To then characterize our actions in your letter as that of a "corporate raider" or as a "veiled attempt to destabilize the Company for our own short-term benefit" is disingenuous and misleading. Our goal has and remains clear: to maximize shareholder value.

While we were not privy to your interaction with the recent offer, your description sounds as if no meaningful negotiation or dialogue took place. In any event, the Company does not exude a welcoming demeanor towards potential suitors.

Let us be clear that we are not trying to force a sale. Only a shareholder vote can make that decision. Nor are we saying to cease your action against possible condemnation. We are, however, aware of the complexity, controversy and longevity involved in the eminent domain process. It may be in the best interest of all shareholders for an exit at the right price today versus the long term uncertainty provided by condemnation, as there is a wide margin between winning and losing. A light industrial valuation ruling would adversely impair the estate's value and could very well leave the non-subject 68 acres still at risk of eminent domain by SUNY. We believe the Board cannot fulfill its fiduciary duties without, in good faith, exploring this opportunity. The only certainty in condemnation would be continued executive compensation, option grants and general corporate burn.

Gyrodyne Company of America, Inc.

March 2, 2005

Based on your defensive, aggressive and secretive behavior and the unwillingness in good faith to explore strategic alternatives, we now believe that management's main goal is to stay employed by Gyrodyne for as long as possible. Gyrodyne is and has been for a very long time a classic entrenchment story.

For a company of such limited scope, the Company's management is, in our opinion, overpaid. Since 1999 you have extracted $1,064,068 from the Company in salary. You have been granted approximately 71,000 options with an approximate average weighted strike price of $16.00. Based on GYRO's current stock price of $40, this would represent $1,704,000 of value transferred to you. Similarly, Mr. Pitsiokos has extracted $681,880 in salary since 2000 and he has been granted approximately 53,000 options representing roughly $1,270,000 in value. These numbers which total $4,719,948 (10% of today's market cap) are, in our opinion, egregious.

In addition, the Company's "Incentive Compensation Plan" (change of control clause) calls "for a cash payment equal to the difference between the plan's "establishment date" price of $15.39 per share and the per share price of the Common Stock on the closing date, equivalent to 100,000 shares of common stock." So assuming a closing date price of $40, the Company's executives and board members would be entitled to a $2,461,000 bonus pool on top of generous severance (Maroney: $628,500, Pitsiokos: $457,500), etc., etc. This collective amount of dilution is staggering and excessive, particularly in the context of the Company's 1,179,000 shares outstanding.

The following table summarizes some of the value transfers and potential transfers from the shareholders to management. (Note: these figures assume $40 per share - we believe the shares have the potential to be more valuable than that.)

|---------------------------------------|---|
| Maroney: salary, options, severance | $3,396,568 |
| Pitsiokos: salary, options, severance | $2,409,380 |
| "Incentive Compensation Plan": | $2,461,000 |
| | $8,266,948 (17% of today's market cap) |

It is worth noting from the 2004 Proxy statement that the Executive Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors (Philip F. Palmedo - Chairman, Robert H. Beyer, Ronald J. Macklin) states the following: "it is the Committee's opinion that Company's level of overall compensation is competitive and in the low to mid range on a comparative basis".

It is hard for us to see anything that management has accomplished during this period (besides completely depleting all gross profits) yet the Company's annual General & Administrative expense rose steadily from $960,000 in 1999 to $1,628,344 in 2004. Over the last six years G & A has totaled $7,830,000! Gyrodyne is barely even a real operating company - it is merely the custodian of several sleepy assets. Gyrodyne, in our opinion does not need 10 employees to run its business.

We have encouraged shareholders to study the "fine print" at Gyrodyne - to do their own homework. Any astute analysis of the Company's bylaws, employment agreements and incentive programs (which management has clearly spent great time and expense altering in the recent past) tell a story focused on your own personal interest, not shareholder protection.

In your letter you conclude, "Your Board and Management remain committed to fulfilling their fiduciary obligations to preserve and maximize shareholder value." If this statement is true, we urge the Company to immediately institute the following initiatives:

- 1) Reduce the Company's headcount
- 2) Permanently cease granting options
- 3) Eliminate the "Incentive Compensation Plan"
- 4) Reduce severance program for management from 3 years salary to 1 week of salary for each year of service to the Company
- 5) Engage an investment banker to find the highest and best bidder for the Company
- 6) If we are right and the Company obtains a bid at an appropriate premium to the current market, present that bid to your shareholders in the form of a proxy, then shareholders would have their choice:
 - a) Vote to sell or
 - b) Wait and see how condemnation plays out

We remain committed to increasing value for Gyrodyne shareholders. The real question is, do you?

Yours truly,
