

Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

(e) On January 25, 2018, Lake Shore Bancorp, Inc. (the "Company") and Lake Shore Savings Bank (the "Bank"), a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company, entered into one-year change in control agreements with Jeffrey Werdein, Executive Vice President, Commercial Division of the Company and Bank, and Rachel Foley, Chief Financial Officer and Treasurer of the Company and the Bank (collectively, the "Agreements").

The Agreements for each executive contain substantially similar terms and the agreement for Ms. Foley replaces and supersedes the change in control agreement that she previously entered into with the Company and the Bank. The term of each Agreement is for one year and the Board of Directors may extend the term on an annual basis.

Under the Agreements, if the executive's employment is terminated for "cause," as such term is defined in the Agreements, the executive will not receive any compensation or benefits after the termination date. If, within twenty-four months following a "change in control," as such term is defined in the Agreements, the executive's employment is terminated for a reason other than cause or if the executive voluntarily terminates employment for "good reason," as such term is defined in the Agreements, the executive will receive a lump sum payment in an amount equal to the salary and bonus that the executive received in the calendar year preceding the year of such termination. In addition, the Bank will provide continued insurance coverage for twelve months. If payments under the Agreements constitute an "excess parachute payment" within the meaning of Section 280G of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended ("Section 280G"), such payments will be reduced to the extent necessary to avoid the imposition of an excise tax under Section 280G.

The foregoing description of the Agreements does not purport to be complete and it is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Agreements attached hereto as Exhibits 10.1 and 10.2, respectively, of this Current Report on Form 8-K, and are incorporated by reference into this Item 5.02.

Item 9.01. Financial Statements and Exhibits.
