Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On October 15, 2004, Storage Technology Corporation ( StorageTek ) entered into a new unsecured $75 million four-year revolving credit facility (the Revolver ) with a syndicate of commercial lenders led by Bank of America, N. A. and including Citicorp USA, Inc., JPMorgan Chase Bank and Keybank National Association. The Revolver replaces our previous revolving credit facility which expired on October 8, 2004. StorageTek Holding Corporation, a wholly-owned subsidiary of StorageTek, has guaranteed StorageTek's obligations. The Revolver is available for general corporate purposes.

The interest rates for borrowing under the Revolver are based upon our Consolidated Leverage Ratio, which is the ratio of Consolidated Funded Indebtedness to rolling four quarter Consolidated Earnings Before Interest Expense, Taxes, Depreciation, and Amortization (EBITDA). The rate ranges from the applicable LIBOR plus 1.00% to 2.00% or the agent bank's base rate plus 0.00% to 1.00%. We pay a per annum commitment fee of 0.175% or 0.200% on any unused borrowings based upon the Consolidated Leverage Ratio.

We must comply with certain financial covenants, including a minimum consolidated tangible net worth, a minimum consolidated EBITDA, and a maximum consolidated leverage ratio.

The Revolver contains customary covenants that will, subject to certain baskets, limit our ability to, among other things, (i) create liens; (ii) make certain investments; (iii) create contingent obligations; (iv) merge or consolidate with another company; and (v) transfer and sell assets.

The Revolver provides for customary events of default, including nonpayment, breach of the covenants in the Revolver, payment defaults or acceleration of other indebtedness, a failure to pay certain judgments, and certain events of bankruptcy, insolvency and reorganization.

Certain of the lenders provide commercial banking services, including custody and cash management services for which they have received customary fees and expenses. We have also entered into foreign exchange hedging transactions with certain of the lenders.
