MARKET ANNOUNCEMENT

Ultrapar enters into an agreement to acquire the fuel distribution company
DNP and expands its operations in the North of Brazil

São Paulo, October 26th, 2010 – Ultrapar Participações S.A. (“Ultrapar”) hereby announces that it signed in this date, through its subsidiary Ipiranga Produtos de Petróleo S.A. (“Ipiranga”), a sale and purchase agreement for the acquisition of 100% of the shares of Distribuidora Nacional de Petróleo Ltda. (“DNP”). The total value of the acquisition is R$ 85 million, subject to working capital and indebtedness adjustments on the closing date, expected to occur in November 2010.

DNP distributes fuels in the states of Amazonas, Rondônia, Roraima, Acre, Pará and Mato Grosso through a network of 110 service stations. The acquired company has 4% market share in the Northern region of Brazil, being the fourth largest fuels distributor in this area. In 2009, the combined volume of diesel, gasoline and ethanol sold by DNP totaled approximately 260 thousand cubic meters, with EBITDA of R$ 17 million.

The acquisition of DNP reinforces the strategy of expansion, initiated with the acquisition of Texaco, to the Midwest, Northeast and North, regions where the consumption growth has been above the national average and the market share of Ipiranga is lower than that in the South and Southeast. The addition of DNP will increase the volume of Ipiranga by 40% in the region and will result in a regional market share of 14%, allowing a better positioning to capture the fast-paced growth in the region and additional benefits on the back of the larger operating scale, enabling significant gains for the company, resellers, customers and consumers.

This transaction will be properly submitted to the competent regulatory authorities.
