Safe Harbor Provisions

Certain statements contained in this presentation, such as statements concerning AirGate PCS', iPCS' or the combined company's anticipated performance, plans for growth and anticipated financial results and other factors that could affect future operations or performance and other non-historical facts, are forward looking statements made pursuant to the "safe-harbor" provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Since these forward looking statements are based on factors that involve risks and uncertainties, actual results may differ materially from those expressed or implied by such forward looking statements. Such factors include: the ability to successfully integrate the two businesses, the competitiveness and financial impact of Sprint PCS pricing plans, products and services; the ability of Sprint PCS to provide back office, customer care and other services; consumer purchasing patterns; potential fluctuations in quarterly results; an adequate supply of subscriber equipment; risks related to our ability to compete with larger, more established businesses; rapid technological and market change; risks related to future growth and expansion; the ability to successfully complete the build-out of the iPCS network, the potential need for additional capital, anticipated future losses; the significant level of indebtedness of the combined companies and volatility of AirGate PCS's stock price. For a detailed discussion of these and other cautionary statements and factors that could cause actual results to differ from those contained in this presentation, please refer to AirGate PCS's and iPCS' filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"), especially in the "investment considerations" section of AirGate PCS's Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2000, AirGate PCS's Form 10-Q for the fiscal quarter ended June 30, 2001, iPCS' Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2000, iPCS' Form 10-Q for the fiscal quarter ended June 30, 2001, and in subsequent filings with the SEC. In addition, EBITDA is a financial measure used in the financial community. It is not, however, a measure of financial performance under generally accepted accounting principles in the United States. Neither company will undertake to update or revise any forward-looking statement contained herein.

Edgar Filing: IPCS INC - Form 425

On January 8, 2001, the SEC declared effective iPCS' registration statement relating to the resale of up to 300,000 warrants to purchase shares of its common stock and the offer and sale of 2,929,699 shares of its common stock. iPCS has filed a registration statement with the SEC for an initial public offering of 8,333,333 shares of its common stock. This press release shall not constitute an offer to sell or the solicitation of an offer to buy nor shall there be any sale of these securities in any state in which such offer, solicitation or sale would be unlawful prior to registration or qualification under the securities laws of any state. Offers to sell these securities will be made only by means of a prospectus.
