(1) This Registration Statement relates to the common shares of beneficial interest, $.01 par value per share ("Brandywine common shares"), of the Registrant issuable upon the completion of the merger (the "REIT Merger") of Brandywine Cognac I, LLC, a Maryland limited liability company and an indirect subsidiary of Brandywine Realty Trust, a Maryland real estate investment trust ("Brandywine"), with Prentiss Properties Trust, a Maryland real estate investment trust ("Prentiss"). This Registration Statement also relates to the Brandywine common shares issuable upon exchange of Class A units of limited partnership interest ("Brandywine Operating Partnership Class A common units") in Brandywine Operating Partnership, L.P., a Delaware limited partnership ("Brandywine Operating Partnership"), to be issued to the holders of common units ("Prentiss Operating Partnership common units") in Prentiss Properties Acquisition Partners, L. P. ("Prentiss Operating Partnership") upon completion of the merger (the "Partnership Merger") of Brandywine Cognac II, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company and a wholly owned subsidiary of Brandywine Operating Partnership, with and into Prentiss Operating Partnership.

(2) The number of Brandywine common shares to be registered pursuant to this Registration Statement is based on (x) the maximum number of Brandywine common shares issuable to holders of Prentiss common shares of beneficial interest, par value $.01 per share ("Prentiss common shares"), in the REIT Merger at the exchange ratio of 0.69 of a Brandywine common share in exchange for each Prentiss common share (based on 52,114,578 Prentiss common shares outstanding on October 27, 2005, assuming the exercise prior to the REIT Merger of all outstanding options to acquire Prentiss common shares, the conversion prior to the REIT Merger of all outstanding Prentiss Series D Cumulative Convertible Redeemable Preferred Shares of beneficial interest ("Series D preferred shares") into Prentiss common shares and the redemption prior to the REIT Merger of all Prentiss Operating Partnership common units for Prentiss common shares) and (y) the maximum number of Brandywine common shares issuable in redemption of Brandywine Operating Partnership Class A common units issuable in the Partnership Merger at the exchange ratio of 1.3799 of a Brandywine Operating Partnership Class A common unit in exchange for each Prentiss Operating Partnership common unit (based on 1,794,979 Prentiss Operating Partnership common units outstanding on October 27, 2005).

(3) Pursuant to Rules 457(c) and 457(f)(1) under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"), and solely for the purpose of calculating the registration fee, the proposed maximum aggregate offering price of the Brandywine common shares is equal to (1) (x) the estimated number of Prentiss common shares to be exchanged in the REIT Merger (assuming the exercise prior to the REIT Merger of all outstanding options to acquire Prentiss common shares, the conversion prior to the REIT Merger of all outstanding Series D preferred shares into Prentiss common shares and the redemption prior to the REIT Merger of all Prentiss Operating Partnership common units for Prentiss common shares) multiplied by (y) $39.54, the average of the high and low reported sales prices per Prentiss common share on the New York Stock Exchange on October 26, 2005 plus (2) (x) 2,476,892 Brandywine common shares issuable in redemption of Brandywine Operating Partnership Class A common units issued in the Partnership Merger multiplied by (y) $27.63, the average of the high and low reported sales prices per Brandywine common share on the New York Stock Exchange on October 26, 2005 less (3) $1,120,463,427, the aggregate amount of cash to be payable to the Prentiss common shareholders in the REIT Merger per the above described assumptions.

The Registrant hereby amends this registration statement on such date or dates as may be necessary to delay its effective date until the Registrant shall file a further amendment which specifically states that this registration statement shall thereafter become effective in accordance with Section 8(a) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or until this registration statement shall become effective on such date as the Securities Exchange Commission, acting pursuant to said Section 8(a), may determine.

PROPOSED MERGER—YOUR VOTE IS VERY IMPORTANT

Dear Shareholders:

On October 3, 2005, Brandywine Realty Trust, a Maryland real estate investment trust, and Prentiss Properties Trust, a Maryland real estate investment trust, agreed to combine their businesses by merging Prentiss and a subsidiary of Brandywine under the terms of the merger agreement described in this joint proxy statement/prospectus. Both of our boards of trustees have unanimously approved the merger, which we refer to as the REIT Merger. We are proposing the REIT Merger because we believe that it will benefit the shareholders of our respective companies by creating more shareholder value than either company could create individually and by allowing shareholders to participate in a larger, more diversified company. We expect our combined company to have significantly increased equity market capitalization, which we expect will provide greater financial flexibility and liquidity. We further believe that our combined resources will create opportunities for long-term growth and value-creation.

Upon completion of the REIT Merger, each Prentiss common share will be converted into the right to receive $21.50 in cash, subject to reduction by the amount of a special pre-closing cash dividend if the special pre-closing cash dividend is paid as described below, and 0.69 of a Brandywine common share. Cash will be paid in lieu of fractional shares. Because the portion of the merger consideration to be received in Brandywine common shares is fixed, the value of the consideration to be received by Prentiss common shareholders in the REIT Merger will depend upon the market price of Brandywine common shares at the time of the REIT Merger. You should obtain current market quotations for both Brandywine common shares and Prentiss common shares.

Brandywine common shares are traded on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol “BDN.” On ______ ___, 2005, Brandywine common shares closed at $___ per share. Assuming the exercise prior to the REIT Merger of all outstanding options to acquire Prentiss common shares, all Prentiss Operating Partnership common units are converted into Brandywine Operating Partnership Class A Units in the Partnership Merger described below and the conversion prior to the REIT Merger of all outstanding Prentiss Series D Cumulative Convertible Redeemable Preferred Shares of Beneficial Interest into Prentiss common shares, we estimate that immediately after completion of the REIT Merger, ___% of the then-outstanding Brandywine common shares on a fully diluted basis will be held by former Prentiss common shareholders, based on the number of Brandywine common shares and Prentiss common shares outstanding on ______ __, 2005. Brandywine common shareholders will continue to hold their existing shares, which will not be affected by the REIT Merger.

Prentiss common shareholders will recognize gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes on the Brandywine common shares and the cash they receive in the REIT Merger.

In addition, if any Prentiss Series D Cumulative Convertible Redeemable Preferred Shares of Beneficial Interest remain outstanding at the effective time of the REIT Merger, they will be converted into an equal number of newly created Brandywine Series E Cumulative Convertible Redeemable Preferred Shares of Beneficial Interest with terms that will be identical in all material respects to the terms of the Series D preferred shares.

As part of the merger transaction, Brandywine and Prentiss have entered into separate agreements with The Prudential Insurance Company of America (which, together with the insurance company separate accounts and other funds managed by The Prudential Insurance Company of America, we sometimes refer to as Prudential). These agreements provide for the acquisition by Prudential (either on the day prior to, or the day of, the closing of the REIT Merger) of Prentiss properties that contain up to an aggregate of approximately 4.32 million net rentable square feet for total consideration of up to approximately $747.7 million. We refer to the Prudential acquisition as the Prudential Acquisition and we refer to the properties that Prudential will acquire as the Prudential Properties. Please see "The Prudential Acquisition and Related Agreements" on page 5 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus for a discussion of the Prudential Acquisition.

If Prudential acquires the Prudential Properties on the day prior to the closing of the REIT Merger, Prentiss will cause Prentiss Operating Partnership to authorize a distribution payable to holders of Prentiss Operating Partnership common units on such date and then the Prentiss board of trustees would declare a special cash dividend (which we refer to as the Special Dividend) that would be payable to holders of record of Prentiss common shares on such date and the cash portion of the REIT Merger consideration would be reduced by the per share amount of the Special Dividend. The Prentiss Operating Partnership distribution, and the Special Dividend, if declared, would be funded from net cash proceeds of the Prudential Acquisition. If Prudential acquires the Prudential Properties on the closing date of the REIT Merger then the Special Dividend will not be declared and the cash portion of the REIT Merger consideration would not be reduced. Whether or not the Special Dividend is declared, the total cash that each Prentiss shareholder will receive in connection with the consummation of the REIT Merger (either solely from the cash portion of the REIT Merger consideration or from a combination of the Special Dividend and the cash portion of the REIT Merger consideration) will equal the same aggregate amount and will be payable at the same time.

We cannot complete the REIT Merger unless Prentiss common shareholders approve the merger agreement, the REIT Merger and the related transactions at the special meeting to be held by Prentiss, and the Brandywine common shareholders approve the issuance of Brandywine common shares under and as contemplated by the merger agreement at the special meeting to be held by Brandywine. Each of Brandywine and Prentiss has scheduled a special meeting of its common shareholders at ____ a.m. Eastern time on ________ ___, 2005 to vote on these matters. Regardless of the number of shares that you own or whether you plan to attend your special meeting, it is important that your shares be represented and voted at the meeting. Voting instructions are provided inside.

The Brandywine board of trustees has unanimously approved the merger agreement, the REIT Merger and the related transactions and declared that the merger agreement, the REIT Merger and the related transactions are advisable and fair to, and in the best interests of, Brandywine and its shareholders. Brandywine's board of trustees unanimously recommends that Brandywine common shareholders vote "FOR" approval of the issuance of Brandywine common shares under and as contemplated by the merger agreement.

The Prentiss board of trustees has unanimously approved the merger agreement, the REIT Merger and the related transactions and declared that the merger agreement, the REIT Merger and the related transactions are advisable and fair to, and in the best interests of, Prentiss and its shareholders. The Prentiss board of trustees unanimously recommends that Prentiss common shareholders vote "FOR" approval of the merger agreement, the REIT Merger and the related transactions.

This joint proxy statement/prospectus provides you with detailed information about the proposed REIT Merger. We encourage you to read the entire document carefully, including "Risk Factors" beginning on page 5 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus for a discussion of risks relevant to the REIT Merger.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE MERGERS

About the Mergers

Q: Why am I receiving this document?

A: The Brandywine board of trustees and the Prentiss board of trustees have each approved a merger agreement among Brandywine Realty Trust (which we refer to as Brandywine), Brandywine Operating Partnership, L.P. (which we refer to as the Brandywine Operating Partnership), Brandywine Cognac I, LLC, Brandywine Cognac II, LLC, Prentiss Properties Trust (which we refer to as Prentiss) and Prentiss Properties Acquisition Partners, L.P. (which we refer to as the Prentiss Operating Partnership). The merger agreement provides for either the merger of Brandywine Cognac I, LLC with and into Prentiss, with Brandywine Cognac I, LLC surviving as a subsidiary of the Brandywine Operating Partnership (which we refer to as the Forward REIT Merger) or the merger of Prentiss with and into Brandywine Cognac I, LLC, with Prentiss surviving (which we refer to as the Reverse REIT Merger).

If Brandywine obtains a private letter ruling from the Internal Revenue Service, as described in more detail in "Material Federal Income Tax Consequences of the MergersTax Consequences of the REIT Merger General The Private Letter Ruling" and if the other conditions to closing set forth in the merger agreement are satisfied or waived, then the REIT Merger would take the form of the Forward REIT Merger. If Brandywine does not obtain a private letter ruling, and if the other conditions to closing set forth in the merger agreement are satisfied or waived, then the REIT Merger would take the form of the Reverse REIT Merger. We refer to either the Forward REIT Merger or the Reverse REIT Merger, whichever is consummated pursuant to the merger agreement, as the REIT Merger.

As part of the merger transaction, Brandywine and Prentiss have entered into separate agreements with The Prudential Insurance Company of America (which, together with the insurance company separate accounts and other funds managed by The Prudential Insurance Company of America, we sometimes refer to as Prudential). These agreements provide for the acquisition by Prudential (either on the day prior to, or the day of, the closing of the REIT Merger) of identified Prentiss properties that contain up to an aggregate of approximately 4.32 million net rentable square feet for total consideration of up to approximately $747.7 million. The master agreement between Prudential and Brandywine provides Prudential with a limited right to change the composition of the portfolio of Prudential Properties. Generally, Prudential's right to change the composition of the portfolio, either by electing not to purchase a property, or to substitute a property for another Prentiss property, is subject to the occurrence of an uncured adverse change at a property and is limited to properties that have, in aggregate, an agreed upon value of $150 million. We refer to this acquisition as the Prudential Acquisition and we refer to the properties that Prudential will acquire as the Prudential Properties.

If Brandywine does not obtain a private letter ruling from the Internal Revenue Service, Prudential will acquire the Prudential Properties on the day prior to the closing of the REIT Merger, Prentiss will cause Prentiss Operating Partnership to authorize a distribution payable to holders of Prentiss Operating Partnership common units on such date and the Prentiss board of trustees will declare a special cash dividend (which we refer to as the Special Dividend) that will be payable to holders of record of Prentiss common shares on such date. In that case, the cash portion of the REIT Merger consideration would be reduced by the per share amount of the Special Dividend and the conversion ratio applicable to the Partnership Merger would be reduced. If Brandywine does obtain the private letter ruling from the Internal Revenue Service, Prudential will acquire the Prudential Properties on the closing date of the REIT Merger. In that case, the Special Dividend will not be declared and the cash portion of the REIT Merger consideration will not be reduced and the conversion ratio applicable to the Partnership Merger will not be reduced. The amount of the Prentiss Operating Partnership distribution, if authorized, and the Special Dividend, if declared, will be funded from net cash proceeds of the Prudential Acquisition.

Back to Contents

The Brandywine common shares to be issued in connection with the REIT Merger cannot be issued without the approval of Brandywine common shareholders, and the REIT Merger and the Prudential Acquisition cannot be completed without the approval of the Prentiss common shareholders. Brandywine and Prentiss will hold separate special meetings of their respective common shareholders to obtain these approvals. This document is the joint proxy statement for Brandywine and Prentiss to solicit proxies for their respective special meetings. It is also the prospectus of Brandywine regarding the Brandywine common shares of beneficial interest (which we refer to as Brandywine common shares) to be issued under and as contemplated by the merger agreement.

This joint proxy statement/prospectus contains important information about the proposed merger, the Prudential Acquisition and the special meetings of Brandywine and Prentiss, and you should read it carefully.

Q: Why are Brandywine and Prentiss proposing the REIT Merger?

A: The boards of trustees of both companies believe that the REIT Merger represents a strategic combination that will be in the best interests of their respective shareholders and will achieve key elements of Brandywine’s strategic business plan to expand its operations and become a more diversified company while retaining a disciplined focus in each of its geographic markets. The boards expect that the combined company will have significantly increased equity market capitalization, which the boards expect will provide greater financial flexibility and liquidity. The boards of trustees of both companies believe that the combined resources of our companies will create additional and more significant opportunities for long-term growth and value-creation than either company could achieve independently. To review the reasons of the companies for the REIT Merger in greater detail, please see “The Mergers—Recommendation of Brandywine’s Board of Trustees and Brandywine’s Reasons for the REIT Merger” and “The Mergers—Recommendation of the Prentiss Board of Trustees and Reasons of Prentiss for the REIT Merger.”

Q: What will Prentiss common shareholders receive in the REIT Merger?

A: Prentiss common shareholders will receive $21.50 in cash, without interest, subject to reduction by the per share amount of the Special Dividend if the Special Dividend is declared as described below, and 0.69 of a Brandywine common share for each outstanding common share of beneficial interest of Prentiss (which we refer to as Prentiss common shares) they own immediately prior to the REIT Merger. Cash will be paid instead of issuing fractional shares. In this joint proxy statement/prospectus, we refer to the cash and Brandywine common shares to be issued in the REIT Merger as the REIT Merger consideration.

Back to Contents

Q: What will Brandywine common shareholders receive in the REIT Merger?

A: Brandywine common shareholders will not receive any additional shares in connection with the REIT Merger. Each Brandywine common share held by Brandywine common shareholders will continue to represent one Brandywine common share after the REIT Merger.

Q: What happens if the market price of Brandywine common shares or Prentiss common shares changes before the closing of the REIT Merger?

A: No change will be made to the 0.69 exchange ratio for the exchange of Prentiss common shares for Brandywine common shares in the REIT Merger. Because the exchange ratio is fixed, the value of the consideration to be received by Prentiss common shareholders in the REIT Merger will depend upon the market price of Brandywine common shares at the time of the REIT Merger.

Q: How many Brandywine common shares will be owned after the REIT Merger by former Prentiss common shareholders?

A: Based on the number of Brandywine common shares and Prentiss common shares outstanding as of ________ __, 2005, the record date for the special meetings, immediately after the REIT Merger, former Prentiss common shareholders will own approximately ____% of the then-outstanding Brandywine common shares, on a fully-diluted basis (assuming that all options to purchase Prentiss common shares are exercised prior to the REIT Merger, all Prentiss Operating Partnership common units are converted into Brandywine Operating Partnership Class A Units in the Partnership Merger described below and the conversion prior to the REIT Merger of all outstanding Prentiss Series D Cumulative Convertible Redeemable Preferred Shares of Beneficial Interest, which we refer to as Prentiss Series D preferred shares, into Prentiss common shares).

Q: On what am I being asked to vote?

A: Prentiss common shareholders. Holders of Prentiss common shares are being asked to vote to approve the merger agreement, the REIT Merger and the related transactions. Your approval of the REIT Merger will constitute your approval of both the Forward REIT Merger and the Reverse REIT Merger. Please see “The Merger Agreement—Structure of the REIT Merger” for a discussion of whether the REIT Merger will be completed through the Forward REIT Merger or the Reverse REIT Merger.

The merger agreement also provides for the merger of Brandywine Cognac II, LLC, a wholly owned subsidiary of Brandywine Operating Partnership, with and into the Prentiss Operating Partnership. We refer to this merger as the Partnership Merger and we refer to the REIT Merger and the Partnership Merger collectively as the Mergers. You are not being asked to vote on the Partnership Merger, which does not require the vote or consent of the holders of Prentiss Operating Partnership common units and can be consummated upon the sole approval of the general partner of the Prentiss Operating Partnership.

Back to Contents

Holders of Prentiss Series D preferred shares are not entitled to vote on the REIT Merger or the Partnership Merger.

The Prentiss board of trustees has unanimously approved the merger agreement, the REIT Merger and the related transactions and declared that the merger agreement, the REIT Merger and the related transactions are advisable and fair to, and in the best interests of, Prentiss and its shareholders. The Prentiss board of trustees unanimously recommends that Prentiss common shareholders vote "FOR" the approval of the merger agreement, the REIT Merger and the related transactions.

Brandywine common shareholders. You are being asked to approve the issuance of Brandywine common shares under and as contemplated by the merger agreement.

Brandywine's board of trustees has unanimously approved the merger agreement, the REIT Merger and the related transactions and declared that the merger agreement, the REIT Merger and the related transactions are advisable and fair to, and in the best interests of, Brandywine and its shareholders. Brandywine's board of trustees unanimously recommends that Brandywine common shareholders vote "FOR" approval of the issuance of the Brandywine common shares to be issued under and as contemplated by the merger agreement.

Q. What is the Partnership Merger?

A: Immediately after the consummation of the REIT Merger, Brandywine Cognac II, LLC will merge with and into the Prentiss Operating Partnership. In the Partnership Merger, each common unit of the Prentiss Operating Partnership (excluding common units owned by Prentiss, the Prentiss Operating Partnership, Brandywine, the Brandywine Operating Partnership or their direct or indirect wholly owned subsidiaries, which shall be cancelled in the Partnership Merger) will be converted into 1.3799 Brandywine Operating Partnership Class A units (subject to reduction if the Special Dividend is declared). However, the holders of Prentiss Operating Partnership common units have the right to convert their Prentiss Operating Partnership common units into Prentiss common shares prior to the REIT Merger, and any such Prentiss common shares that are issued upon conversion shall then be converted into the right to receive the REIT Merger consideration in the REIT Merger.

The Brandywine Operating Partnership Class A units to be issued in the Partnership Merger will, at any time and from time to time after the Partnership Merger, be exchangeable, at the request of the holder of such units, for cash or, at Brandywine's option, for Brandywine common shares on a one-for-one basis.

We refer to the Brandywine Operating Partnership Class A units issued in the Partnership Merger as the Partnership Merger Consideration.

The Partnership Merger will be completed immediately after the closing of the REIT Merger, with the Prentiss Operating Partnership surviving the Partnership Merger as a subsidiary of Brandywine Operating Partnership.

Back to Contents

Prentiss is not required to obtain the approval of the holders of Prentiss units of Prentiss Operating Partnership with respect to the REIT Merger, the Partnership Merger, the merger agreement or the related transactions.

Q: What is the Prudential Acquisition?

A: As part of the merger transaction, Brandywine and Prentiss have entered into separate agreements with The Prudential Insurance Company of America (which we refer to as Prudential). These agreements provide for the acquisition by Prudential (either on the day prior to, or the day of, the closing of the REIT Merger) of identified Prentiss properties that contain up to an aggregate of approximately 4.32 million net rentable square feet for total consideration of up to approximately $747.7 million. The master agreement between Prudential and Brandywine provides Prudential with a limited right to change the composition of the portfolio of Prudential Properties. Generally, Prudential’s right to change the composition of the portfolio, either by electing not to purchase a property, or to substitute a property for another Prentiss property, is subject to the occurrence of an uncured adverse change at a property and is limited to properties that have, in aggregate, an agreed upon value of $150 million.

If Brandywine does not obtain a private letter ruling from the Internal Revenue Service, Prudential will acquire the Prudential Properties on the day prior to the closing of the REIT Merger, Prentiss will cause Prentiss Operating Partnership to authorize a distribution payable to holders of Prentiss Operating Partnership common units on such date and the Prentiss board of trustees will declare the Special Dividend that will be payable to holders of record of Prentiss common shares on such date. In that case, the cash portion of the REIT Merger consideration would be reduced by the per share amount of the Special Dividend and the 1.3799 conversion ratio applicable in the Partnership Merger would be reduced in accordance with a formula to reflect the amount of cash that would be distributed to holders of Prentiss common units in connection with the Special Dividend. If Brandywine does obtain the private letter ruling from the Internal Revenue Service, Prudential will acquire the Prudential Properties on the closing date of the REIT Merger. In that case, the Special Dividend will not be declared and the cash portion of the REIT Merger consideration will not be reduced and the conversion ratio applicable to the Partnership Merger will not be reduced.

Q: How soon after the special meetings will the Mergers occur?

A: We are working to complete the Mergers as soon as possible. A number of conditions must be satisfied before we can do so, including approval of the Brandywine common shareholders and the Prentiss common shareholders. Although we cannot be sure when all of the conditions to the Mergers will be satisfied, we hope to complete the Mergers as soon as practicable after the special meetings.

Q: Who will manage Brandywine after the Mergers?

A: Brandywine’s board of trustees will be increased from eight to 10 members at the effective time of the Mergers and will include the eight current Brandywine trustees, in addition to Michael V. Prentiss, who is currently the Chairman of the Prentiss board of trustees, and Thomas F. August, who is currently the President and Chief Executive Officer of Prentiss. Brandywine’s existing management team will be joined by several Prentiss executives who collectively will manage the operations of Brandywine after the REIT Merger. It is expected that the Prentiss regional operations will be incorporated into Brandywine’s operating platform.

Q: What will my dividends be before and after the REIT Merger?

A: Until the REIT Merger is completed, Prentiss common shareholders will continue to receive regular dividends as authorized by the Prentiss board of trustees and declared by Prentiss. Other than the Special Dividend that may be declared in connection with the Prudential Acquisition, the merger agreement permits Prentiss to pay a regular quarterly cash dividend in an amount not to exceed $0.56 per Prentiss common share. Prentiss currently intends to continue to pay regular quarterly dividends for any quarterly period that ends before the closing of the REIT Merger. In addition, Prentiss may declare and pay, if necessary, a dividend in an amount equal to the minimum amount necessary to maintain the REIT status of Prentiss under the Internal Revenue Code. If any such dividend is declared and is in addition to the regular $0.56 per share quarterly dividend, then the cash portion of the REIT Merger consideration would be reduced by the per share amount of such additional dividend.

Brandywine common shareholders will continue to receive regular dividends as authorized by the Brandywine board of trustees and declared by Brandywine. The merger agreement permits Brandywine to pay regular quarterly cash dividends consistent with past practice. Brandywine currently intends to continue to pay regular quarterly dividends.

The merger agreement provides that Brandywine and Prentiss will coordinate the declaration, record and payment dates of any dividends in respect of their respective common shares. This coordination reflects the intention of Brandywine and Prentiss that the holders of Brandywine common shares and Prentiss common shares not receive more than one dividend, or fail to receive one dividend, for any single calendar quarter with respect to the shares they currently own and any Brandywine common shares received in the REIT Merger.

After the closing of the REIT Merger, former holders of Prentiss common shares that receive Brandywine common shares in the REIT Merger will receive the dividends payable to all holders of Brandywine common shares with a record date after the closing. Upon the closing of the REIT Merger, former holders of Prentiss common shares will cease receiving any distributions or dividends on all Prentiss common shares held before the REIT Merger, other than any unpaid distributions or dividends declared by Prentiss before the closing of the REIT Merger.

For additional discussion of dividends, please see “The Merger Agreement Coordination of Dividends.”

Q: Do Brandywine common shareholders and Prentiss common shareholders have appraisal rights in connection with the REIT Merger?

A: No. Brandywine and Prentiss are both formed under Maryland law. Under Maryland law, because the companies’ common shares are each listed on a national securities exchange, Brandywine common shareholders and Prentiss common shareholders do not have dissenters’ rights of appraisal in connection with the REIT Merger.

Q: What will be the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the REIT Merger?

A: The exchange of Prentiss common shares for the applicable REIT Merger consideration will be a taxable transaction for U.S. federal income tax purposes. In general, a Prentiss shareholder will recognize capital gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes equal to the difference, if any, between the value of the applicable REIT Merger consideration the shareholder receives and the shareholder's adjusted tax basis in the Prentiss common shares exchanged in the REIT Merger. Generally, if a Prentiss shareholder has held its shares for more than one year, the shareholder will recognize any gain as long-term capital gain. The deducibility of capital losses is subject to limitations.

If the REIT Merger takes the form of the Reverse REIT Merger, a Prentiss shareholder will recognize taxable dividend income with respect to the Special Dividend. For further information concerning the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the REIT Merger, please see "Material Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Mergers." Because the tax consequences of the REIT Merger are complex and may vary depending on the particular circumstances of a Prentiss shareholder, each Prentiss shareholder is urged to consult its own tax advisors for a full understanding of the tax consequences of the REIT Merger.

The Special Meetings

Brandywine Special Meeting; Quorum and Required Vote (see page 52)

The Brandywine special meeting will be held at [The Four Seasons Hotel, One Logan Square], Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, [19103] at ______ a.m., Eastern time on_______ __, 2005. At the Brandywine special meeting, holders of Brandywine common shares will consider and vote on a proposal to approve the issuance of Brandywine common shares under and as contemplated by the merger agreement.

In accordance with the listing requirements of the New York Stock Exchange, or the NYSE, approval of the issuance of the Brandywine common shares requires the affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of the Brandywine common shares cast in person or by proxy on such proposal at the Brandywine special meeting, provided that the total votes cast on the proposal represents over 50% of the outstanding Brandywine common shares entitled to vote on the proposal.

The holders of a majority of the outstanding common shares entitled to vote at the Brandywine special meeting must be present in person or by proxy to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at the Brandywine special meeting. All Brandywine common shares represented at the Brandywine special meeting, including abstentions and "broker non-votes," will be treated as shares that are present and entitled to vote for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum.

Abstentions by holders of Brandywine common shares will be counted as votes cast and will have the effect of a vote against the proposal.

Under the listing requirements of the NYSE, brokers who hold Brandywine common shares in "street name" for a beneficial owner of those shares typically have the authority to vote in their discretion on "routine" proposals when they have not received instructions from beneficial owners. However, brokers are not allowed to exercise their voting discretion with respect to the approval of matters that the NYSE determines to be "non-routine," such as approval of the issuance of Brandywine common shares under and as contemplated by the merger agreement, without specific instructions from the beneficial owner. These non-voted shares are referred to as "broker non-votes." If your broker holds your Brandywine common shares in "street name," your broker will vote your shares only if you provide instructions on how to vote by filling out the voter instruction form sent to you by your broker with this joint proxy statement/prospectus. Broker non-votes will not affect the outcome of the vote with respect to the issuance of Brandywine common shares unless the holders of less than a majority of the votes entitled to be cast of the Brandywine common shares vote, in which case broker non-votes will have the effect of a vote against the proposal.

Prentiss Special Meeting; Quorum and Required Vote (see page 55)

The Prentiss special meeting will be held at 3890 West Northwest Highway, Dallas, Texas, 75220 at _____ a.m., local time, on _______ __, 2005. At the Prentiss special meeting, holders of Prentiss common shares will consider and vote on a proposal to approve the merger agreement, the REIT Merger and the related transactions.

Approval of the merger agreement, the REIT Merger and the related transactions requires the affirmative vote in person or by proxy of the holders of at least a majority of the Prentiss common shares outstanding and entitled to vote at the Prentiss special meeting.

The holders of a majority of the Prentiss common shares outstanding and entitled to vote at the Prentiss special meeting must be present in person or by proxy to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at the Prentiss special meeting. All Prentiss common shares represented at the Prentiss special meeting, including abstentions and "broker non-votes," will be treated as shares that are present and entitled to vote for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum.

Abstentions by holders of Prentiss common shares will not be counted as votes cast and will have the effect of a vote against the proposal.

Broker non-votes, as discussed above, will not be counted as votes cast at the Prentiss special meeting and will have the effect of a vote against the proposal.

The REIT Merger

The merger agreement provides for the REIT Merger to be completed either through the Forward REIT Merger or Reverse REIT Merger, with the actual form dependent on whether Brandywine receives the private letter ruling as described in more detail in "Material Federal Income Tax Consequences of the MergersTax Consequences of the REIT Merger General The Private Letter Ruling" prior to the closing of the REIT Merger. If Brandywine receives the private letter ruling then the REIT Merger will be completed through the Forward REIT Merger in which Prentiss is merged with and into Brandywine Cognac I, LLC, with Brandywine Cognac I, LLC surviving in the REIT Merger and the Prudential Acquisition will occur on the closing date of the Forward REIT Merger. If Brandywine does not receive the private letter ruling prior to the closing of the REIT Merger then the Prudential Acquisition will occur on the day prior to the closing of the REIT Merger and the Special Dividend will be declared and would be payable to holders of record of Prentiss common shares on such date and the REIT Merger will be completed through the Reverse REIT Merger in which Brandywine Cognac I, LLC is merged with and into Prentiss, with Prentiss surviving the REIT Merger as a subsidiary of the Brandywine Operating Partnership. If the Reverse REIT Merger is completed, with Prentiss as the survivor, then Prentiss will continue to be operated in conformity with the requirements for qualification as a REIT until such time as it has been liquidated for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

Treatment of Prentiss Common Shares (see page 97)

In the REIT Merger, each Prentiss common share (including shares held by Prentiss in trust or otherwise designated for participants in and beneficiaries of the Prentiss deferred compensation plan, but excluding any other shares owned by Prentiss, Brandywine or their direct or indirect wholly owned subsidiaries) shall be converted into the right to receive:

- $21.50 in cash, subject to reduction by the per share amount of a Special Dividend if the Special Dividend is declared and paid prior to the REIT Merger, as discussed below; and
- 0.69 of a Brandywine common share.

No change will be made to the 0.69 exchange ratio for the exchange of Prentiss common shares for Brandywine common shares in the REIT Merger. Because the exchange ratio is fixed, the value of the consideration to be received by Prentiss common shareholders in the REIT Merger will depend upon the market price of Brandywine common shares at the time of the REIT Merger.

You will not receive any fractional Brandywine common shares in the REIT Merger. After taking into account all Brandywine common shares delivered by you, Brandywine will pay you cash in lieu of any fraction of a Brandywine common share in an amount equal to such fraction multiplied by the average closing prices of Brandywine common shares quoted on the NYSE for the ten trading day period ending on the trading date immediately prior to the closing date of the REIT Merger.

As part of the merger transaction, Brandywine and Prentiss have entered into separate agreements with Prudential. These agreements provide for the acquisition by Prudential (either on the day prior to, or the day of, the closing of the REIT Merger) of identified Prentiss properties, the Prudential Properties, that contain up to an aggregate of approximately 4.32 million net rentable square feet for total consideration of up to approximately $747.7 million. The master agreement between Prudential and Brandywine provides Prudential with a limited right to change the composition of the portfolio of Prudential Properties. Generally, Prudential’s right to change the composition of the portfolio, either by electing not to purchase a property, or to substitute a property for another Prentiss property, is subject to the occurrence of an uncured adverse change at a property and is limited to properties that have, in aggregate, an agreed upon value of $150 million.

If Brandywine does not obtain a private letter ruling from the Internal Revenue Service, Prudential will acquire the Prudential Properties on the day prior to the closing of the REIT Merger, and the Prentiss board of trustees will declare a special cash dividend (which we refer to as the Special Dividend) that will be payable to holders of record of Prentiss common shares on such date. In that case, the cash portion of the REIT Merger consideration would be reduced by the per share amount of the Special Dividend and the conversion ratio applicable to the Partnership Merger would be reduced. If Brandywine does obtain the private letter ruling from the Internal Revenue Service, Prudential will acquire the Prudential Properties on the closing date of the REIT Merger. In that case, the Special Dividend will not be declared and the cash portion of the REIT Merger consideration will not be reduced and the conversion ratio applicable to the Partnership Merger will not be reduced.

Until the REIT Merger is completed, Prentiss common shareholders will continue to receive regular dividends as authorized by the Prentiss board of trustees. Other than the Special Dividend, the merger agreement permits Prentiss to pay a regular quarterly cash dividend in an amount not to exceed $0.56 per Prentiss common share. In addition, Prentiss may pay, if necessary, a dividend in an amount equal to the minimum amount necessary to maintain the REIT status of Prentiss under the Internal Revenue Code. If any such dividend is declared and is in addition to the regular $0.56 per share quarterly dividend, then the cash portion of the REIT Merger consideration would be reduced by the per share amount of such additional dividend.

Brandywine common shareholders will continue to receive regular dividends as authorized by the Brandywine board of trustees. The merger agreement permits Brandywine to pay regular quarterly cash dividends consistent with past practice.

The merger agreement provides that Brandywine and Prentiss will coordinate the declaration, record and payment dates of any dividends in respect of their respective common shares. This coordination reflects the intention of Brandywine and Prentiss that the holders of Brandywine common shares and Prentiss common shares not receive more than one dividend, or fail to receive one dividend, for any single calendar quarter with respect to the shares they currently own and any Brandywine common shares received in the REIT Merger.

After the closing of the REIT Merger, former Prentiss common shareholders that receive Brandywine common shares in the REIT Merger will receive the dividends payable to all holders of Brandywine common shares with a record date after the closing. Upon the closing of the REIT Merger, you will cease receiving any distributions or dividends on all Prentiss common shares you held before the REIT Merger, other than any distributions or dividends declared by Prentiss before the closing of the REIT Merger but not yet paid.

See “Questions and Answers About the Mergers” for a description of the dividends anticipated to be paid by Brandywine and Prentiss to holders of Brandywine common shares and Prentiss common shares, respectively, for periods prior to the effective date of the REIT Merger.

Treatment of Prentiss Series D Preferred Shares (see page 98)

If any shares of Prentiss Series D Cumulative Convertible Redeemable Preferred Shares of Beneficial Interest remain outstanding at the effective time of the REIT Merger, they will be converted into an equal number of newly created Brandywine Series E Cumulative Convertible Redeemable Preferred Shares of Beneficial Interest with terms that will be identical in all material respects to the terms of the Series D preferred shares.

Treatment of Prentiss Options (see page 101)

Each outstanding and unexercised option to purchase Prentiss common shares granted under any Prentiss incentive plan, whether or not exercisable or vested, will be converted at the REIT Merger into a replacement option to purchase Brandywine common shares on the same terms and conditions under which it was originally issued (but taking into account any changes thereto, including the acceleration thereof, provided for in, or required or permitted by, the Prentiss incentive plans and applicable award agreements). Each new Brandywine option will be exercisable for a number of Brandywine common shares equal to (i) the number of Prentiss common shares subject to the Prentiss option to which such new Brandywine option relates multiplied by (ii) the Option Exchange Ratio (as defined below), rounded to the nearest share. The per share exercise price of each new Brandywine option shall equal (A) the per share exercise price of the Prentiss option to which such new Brandywine option relates divided by (B) the Option Exchange Ratio, rounded to the nearest one-hundredth of a cent. The “Option Exchange Ratio” is equal to a fraction, the numerator of which is the per share dollar value of the REIT Merger consideration on the closing date of the REIT Merger, and the denominator of which is the average closing prices of Brandywine common shares for the ten trading day period ending on the trading date immediately prior to the closing date of the REIT Merger. That portion of the REIT Merger consideration that consists of Brandywine common shares will be valued to equal the average closing prices of Brandywine common shares for the ten trading day period ending on the trading date immediately prior to the closing date of the REIT Merger. If a Special Dividend is declared, the Option Exchange Ratio will be increased by an amount equal to the per share amount of the Special Dividend divided by the average of the closing prices of Brandywine common shares for the ten trading day period ending on the trading date immediately prior to the closing date of the REIT Merger.

Prior to the REIT Merger and subject to the terms of the Prentiss option plans, Prentiss may, in its sole discretion, take all actions necessary and appropriate to allow each holder of a Prentiss option (whether or not exercisable or vested) to elect, in lieu of the treatment provided above, to convert each Prentiss option so held into the right to receive an amount of cash at the effective time of the REIT Merger equal to the product of (i) the excess, if any, of the sum of (1) the per share dollar value of the REIT Merger consideration (computed as described in the preceding paragraph) on the closing date of the REIT Merger and (2) the amount of any Special Dividend over the per share exercise price of such Prentiss option and (ii) the number of Prentiss common shares subject to such Prentiss option (such payment to be net of all applicable withholding taxes).

Brandywine's board of trustees has unanimously approved the merger agreement, the REIT Merger and the related transactions and declared that the merger agreement, the REIT Merger and the related transactions are advisable and in the best interests of Brandywine and its shareholders.

The Brandywine board of trustees unanimously recommends that Brandywine common shareholders vote "FOR" approval of the issuance of Brandywine common shares under and as contemplated by the merger agreement.

You should refer to the factors considered by Brandywine's board of trustees in making its decision to approve the merger agreement, the REIT Merger and the related transactions and to recommend to Brandywine's shareholders the approval of the issuance of the Brandywine common shares under and as contemplated by the merger agreement.

On the record date for the Brandywine special meeting, a total of _____, or approximately ____%, of the outstanding Brandywine common shares entitled to vote at the Brandywine special meeting were held by Brandywine trustees, executive officers and their respective affiliates, all of whom Brandywine expects will vote their shares for the approval of the issuance of the Brandywine common shares to be issued under and as contemplated by the merger agreement.

Recommendation of the Prentiss Board of Trustees and reasons of Prentiss for the REIT Merger* (see page 68)

The Prentiss board of trustees has unanimously approved the merger agreement, the REIT Merger and the related transactions and declared that the merger agreement, the REIT Merger and the related transactions are advisable and fair to, and in the best interests of, Prentiss and its shareholders.

The Prentiss board of trustees unanimously recommends that Prentiss common shareholders vote “FOR” approval of the merger agreement, the REIT Merger and the related transactions.

You should refer to the factors considered by the Prentiss board of trustees in making its decision to approve the merger agreement, the REIT Merger and the related transactions and to recommend to the Prentiss common shareholders the approval of the merger agreement, the REIT Merger and the related transactions.

On the record date for the Prentiss special meeting, a total of _____, or approximately __%, of the outstanding Prentiss common shares entitled to vote at the Prentiss special meeting were held by Prentiss trustees, executive officers and their respective affiliates.

As of the record date, Michael V. Prentiss, the Chairman of the Prentiss board of trustees, and Thomas F. August, the President and Chief Executive Officer of Prentiss, held a total of 2,015,201 or approximately 3.9%, of the outstanding Prentiss common shares entitled to vote at the Prentiss special meeting and have agreed to vote all Prentiss common shares held by them in favor of the REIT Merger. Prentiss expects that all of its other trustees, executive officers and their respective affiliates will also vote their shares in favor of the merger agreement, the REIT Merger and the related transactions.

The Partnership Merger

Treatment of Prentiss Operating Partnership Common Units (see page 99)

At the effective time of the Partnership Merger, each issued and outstanding Prentiss Operating Partnership common unit (excluding common units owned or held by Brandywine, Brandywine Operating Partnership, Brandywine Cognac I, LLC, Brandywine Cognac II, LLC, Parent, the general partner of Prentiss Operating Partnership or Prentiss Operating Partnership or any of their respective direct or indirect wholly owned subsidiaries which shall remain issued and outstanding and unchanged by the Partnership Merger) shall be converted into the right to receive Brandywine Operating Partnership Class A units. If the cash portion of the REIT Merger consideration is not reduced, each Prentiss common unit will be converted into the right to receive 1.3799 Brandywine Operating Partnership Class A units. If the cash portion of the REIT Merger consideration is reduced because the Prentiss board of trustees declares either the Special Dividend, or a pre-closing dividend to maintain the REIT status of Prentiss that is in excess of the $0.56 per share quarterly dividend, then the 1.3799 exchange ratio will be adjusted to equal the sum of (i) 0.69 plus (ii) the quotient obtained by dividing the per share amount of the cash consideration payable in the REIT Merger by $31.1594. We refer to the exchange ratio, as it may be adjusted, as the Common Interest Exchange Ratio.

The Brandywine Operating Partnership Class A units to be issued in the Partnership Merger will, at any time and from time to time after the Partnership Merger, be exchangeable, at the request of the holder of such units, for Brandywine common shares, or for cash, at Brandywine’s option, on a one-for-one basis.

Prentiss is not required to obtain the approval of the holders of Prentiss units of Prentiss Operating Partnership with respect to the REIT Merger, the Partnership Merger, the merger agreement or the related transactions.

The Optional Partnership Election (see page 99)

In lieu of receiving Brandywine Operating Partnership Class A units in the Partnership Merger, holders of Prentiss Operating Partnership common units may elect to receive the REIT Merger consideration by converting their Prentiss Operating Partnership common units into Prentiss common shares immediately prior to the REIT Merger. Each Prentiss common share issued upon such conversion would then be converted in the REIT Merger into the right to receive the consideration payable to holders of Prentiss common shares in the REIT Merger.

Interests of the Prentiss Executive Officers and Trustees in the Mergers (see page 89)

In considering the recommendation of the Prentiss board of trustees with respect to the merger agreement, the REIT Merger and the related transactions, you should be aware that some of the Prentiss executive officers and trustees have interests in the Mergers that are different from, or in addition to, the interests of other Prentiss common shareholders. These interests include:

- the appointment of Mr. Prentiss and Mr. August, both of whom are current members of the Prentiss board of trustees, to the Brandywine board of trustees upon completion of the Mergers;

Back to Contents

- the receipt of change in control payments of approximately $12.1 million in the aggregate (excluding gross-up payments, if any) by Prentiss executive officers under existing employment arrangements;

- the acceleration and conversion of all vested and unvested Prentiss options into the right to receive a payment in the form Brandywine common shares;

- the ability of Prentiss to allow each holder of a Prentiss option (whether or not exercisable or vested) to elect, in lieu of receiving Brandywine options, to convert each Prentiss option so held into the right to receive an amount of cash at the effective time of the REIT Merger;

- the vesting of restricted shares under Prentiss' incentive plans and the impact of the Mergers on amounts held in Prentiss' deferred compensation plans;

- on October 3, 2005, Prentiss entered into two separate change of control severance protection plans in connection with the REIT Merger, one with respect to Prentiss hourly and salaried non-officer employees and the other with respect to Prentiss key employees;

- in connection with the REIT Merger, the Prentiss compensation committee created a bonus pool of up to $10 million to provide incentives to Prentiss employees (other than the Chief Executive Officer) with respect to the consummation of the Mergers. Of the total bonus pool, $8 million has been allocated to specific Prentiss executive officers, payable upon closing of the REIT Merger if such officers remain employed by Prentiss at the closing of the REIT Merger unless previously decided otherwise by Prentiss' compensation committee or the President of Prentiss;

- the continued indemnification of current trustees and officers of Prentiss under the merger agreement and the provision of trustees' and officers' liability insurance to these individuals; and

- the entry into the voting agreements and registration rights agreement described below.

In addition, certain trustees and officers of Prentiss who own Prentiss Operating Partnership common units will be able to defer their taxable gains in their Prentiss Operating Partnership common units by receiving Brandywine Operating Partnership Class A units in exchange for their Prentiss Operating Partnership common units. The REIT Merger, in contrast, is a taxable transaction and, as a result, holders of Prentiss common shares other than certain tax-exempt holders will be required to pay tax on gains arising from exchanging their Prentiss common shares for the REIT Merger consideration.

The Prentiss board of trustees was aware of these interests and considered them, among other matters, in approving the merger agreement, the REIT Merger and the related transactions and in making their recommendation.

Voting Agreements (see page 125)

Michael V. Prentiss and Thomas F. August have each entered into a voting agreement with Brandywine and the Brandywine Operating Partnership which require each of them to vote all Prentiss common shares beneficially owned by each of them as of the record date for the Prentiss special meeting in favor of the merger proposal (and against competing proposals).

As of the record date for the Prentiss special meeting, Michael V. Prentiss and Thomas F. August owned a total of 2,015,201 Prentiss common shares, representing approximately 3.9% of the outstanding Prentiss common shares.

Registration Rights Agreement (see page 127)

Brandywine has agreed to assume identified registration rights obligations of Prentiss after consummation of the REIT Merger, including the registration right of holders of Prentiss Operating Partnership common units. Brandywine has agreed that holders of registration rights under such agreements shall have substantially the same rights with respect to the registration of the Brandywine common shares that such holders may receive in the REIT Merger or upon conversion of securities received in the Mergers.

Brandywine, Brandywine Operating Partnership and Michael V. Prentiss entered into a registration rights agreement pursuant to which Brandywine agreed to register the Brandywine common shares that Mr. Prentiss receives in the REIT Merger and upon conversion of Brandywine Operating Partnership Class A units received in the Partnership Merger. See “The Merger AgreementMichael V. Prentiss Registration Rights Agreement.”

Brandywine also agreed to use good faith commercially reasonable efforts to file, on or within thirty (30) days following the consummation of the REIT Merger, a shelf registration statement to register the resale of Brandywine common shares issuable by Brandywine upon the conversion or redemption of any Brandywine Operating Partnership Class A units received in the Partnership Merger.

Opinions of Financial Advisors

Opinion of Brandywine’s Financial Advisor (see page 71)

J.P. Morgan Securities Inc., which we refer to as JPMorgan, has provided its opinion to Brandywine’s board of trustees dated as of October 2, 2005 that, as of that date, and subject to and based on the qualifications and assumptions set forth in its opinion, the Brandywine Consideration (as defined on page 72) to be paid by Brandywine in the proposed Transactions (as defined on page 72) for the Pro Forma Company (as defined on page 72) was fair, from a financial point of view, to Brandywine. The full text of JPMorgan’s opinion is attached as Annex D to this joint proxy statement/prospectus. Brandywine urges its shareholders to read that opinion in its entirety. JPMorgan’s opinion is addressed to the board of trustees of Brandywine, is directed only to the Brandywine Consideration to be paid in the proposed Transactions for the Pro Forma Company and does not constitute a recommendation to any shareholder of Brandywine as to how that shareholder should vote at the Brandywine special meeting and should not be relied upon by any Brandywine shareholder as such. The summary of the opinion of JPMorgan set forth in this joint proxy statement/prospectus is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of that opinion. Pursuant to an engagement letter between Brandywine and JPMorgan, Brandywine has agreed to pay JPMorgan a fee a substantial portion of which is payable upon completion of the Transactions. Please see “The Mergers Opinion of Brandywine’s Financial Advisor, JPMorgan.”

Opinion of Prentiss' Financial Advisor (see page 82)

The Prentiss board of trustees received an opinion from Lazard Frères & Co. LLC, its financial advisor, that based on, and subject to the various assumptions and qualifications set forth in such opinion, as of the date of such opinion, the per share consideration of $21.50 in cash, plus 0.69 Brandywine shares to be paid to Prentiss' common shareholders pursuant to the merger agreement (including, if the Reverse REIT Merger is to be consummated pursuant to the merger agreement, the payment of the Special Dividend) is fair from a financial point of view to the public holders of Prentiss common shares. The full text of Lazard's written opinion dated October 3, 2005 is attached to this joint proxy statement/prospectus as Annex E. Prentiss common shareholders are encouraged to read the opinion carefully in its entirety, as well as the description of the analyses and assumptions on which the opinion was based and the limitations on the reviews undertaken in connection with the opinion. Lazard provided its opinion to the Prentiss board of trustees to assist the board in its evaluation of the merger consideration to be received by Prentiss common shareholders pursuant to the merger agreement. The opinion does not address any other aspect of the REIT Merger and does not constitute a recommendation to any shareholder as to how to vote at the Prentiss' special meeting and should not be relied upon by any Prentiss shareholder as such. Pursuant to an engagement letter between Prentiss and Lazard, Prentiss has agreed to pay Lazard a fee which is payable upon completion of the REIT merger. Please see "The Mergers—Opinion of Prentiss' Financial Advisor, Lazard Frères & Co. LLC."

The Merger Agreement

The merger agreement is attached to this joint proxy statement/prospectus as Annex A. We encourage you to read the merger agreement because it is the legal document that governs the Mergers. The merger agreement has been included in this joint proxy statement/prospectus to provide you with information regarding its terms. It is not intended to provide you with any factual information about Brandywine or Prentiss.

What We Need to Do to Complete the Mergers (see page 116)

Brandywine and Prentiss will complete the Mergers only if the conditions set forth in the merger agreement are satisfied or, in some cases, waived. These conditions include:

- the approval by Prentiss common shareholders of the merger agreement, the REIT Merger and the related transactions;
- the approval by Brandywine common shareholders of the issuance of Brandywine common shares under and as contemplated by the merger agreement;
- the approval for listing on the New York Stock Exchange of the Brandywine common shares to be issued under and as contemplated by the merger agreement;
- the absence of legal prohibitions to the Mergers;
- the continued effectiveness of the registration statement of which this joint proxy statement/prospectus is a part;
- the accuracy of each company's representations and warranties;
- the performance by each company of its obligations under the merger agreement;

Back to Contents

- the absence of any material adverse effect on Brandywine or Prentiss between October 3, 2005 and the date on which the Mergers are completed; and

- the receipt of legal opinions from counsel to each company as to each company's qualification as a REIT under the Internal Revenue Code.

Prentiss Prohibited from Soliciting Other Offers (see page 110)

Prentiss has agreed not to solicit, initiate encourage or knowingly take any other action to facilitate any inquiries or other action by a third party that could reasonably be expected to lead to a competing transaction, including:

- any merger or business combination (other than the REIT Merger discussed in this joint proxy statement/prospectus) involving Prentiss;

- any sale of 30% or more of the assets of Prentiss; or

- any tender offer or exchange offer for 30% or more of the voting power of outstanding equity securities of Prentiss.

Termination of the Merger Agreement (see page 118)

Brandywine and Prentiss can agree to terminate the merger agreement at any time, even after shareholder approvals have been obtained. In addition, either Brandywine or Prentiss can terminate the merger agreement if any of the following occurs:

- the REIT Merger is not completed on or before April 1, 2006, other than due to a breach of the merger agreement by the party seeking to terminate the merger agreement;

- a legal prohibition to the REIT Merger has become final and non-appealable;

- a breach by the other party of any of its representations, warranties or agreements under the merger agreement such that a condition to completing the REIT Merger cannot be satisfied by April 1, 2006; or

- the necessary approval of the other party's shareholders is not obtained at the other party's special meeting.

Prentiss can also terminate the merger agreement if Prentiss receives an offer for a superior competing transaction as long as (i) Prentiss has complied fully with its non-solicitation obligations under the merger agreement, (ii) within three business days after Prentiss notifies Brandywine of a superior competing transaction, Brandywine has not made a counter proposal that the Prentiss board of trustees determines in good faith is more favorable to Prentiss common shareholders than the superior competing transaction and (iii) the Prentiss board of trustees approves or recommends the superior competing transaction and determines that such action would be reasonably likely to cause a breach of the duties of the trustees of Prentiss to Prentiss and its shareholders under law. In such case, Prentiss must pay Brandywine a $60 million termination fee plus expenses of up to $6 million. Prentiss can also terminate the merger agreement if Brandywine fails to call or hold the special meeting of its shareholders to approve the issuance of the Brandywine common shares to be issued under and as contemplated by the merger agreement.

Brandywine can also terminate the merger agreement if (i) the Prentiss board of trustees withdraws or modifies its recommendation of the REIT Merger to Prentiss common shareholders in a manner adverse to Brandywine or approves, recommends or enters into a superior competing transaction, as defined in the merger agreement, (ii) Prentiss shall have failed to call or hold the special meeting of its shareholders to vote on the REIT Merger and the merger agreement or (iii) Prentiss shall have intentionally and materially breached any of its obligations under the no solicitation covenant contained in the merger agreement.

Back to Contents

Termination Fees and Expenses (see page 120)

If the merger agreement is terminated under specified circumstances involving a competing transaction, Prentiss will be required to pay Brandywine a termination fee of $60 million plus transaction expenses of up to $6 million.

If the merger agreement is terminated under other specified circumstances not associated with the termination fee of $60 million, either Prentiss or Brandywine may be required to pay the other a termination fee of $12.5 million plus expenses of up to $6 million and in certain circumstances Brandywine would additionally be required to reimburse Prentiss for unrecoverable out-of-pocket expenses and any lost deposits related to Prentiss' termination of a proposed loan related to its Barton Skyway property.

The $12.5 million fee would be payable by Brandywine to Prentiss if (x) the Brandywine shareholders do not approve the issuance of Brandywine common shares under and as contemplated by the merger agreement and the Prentiss shareholders approve the REIT Merger and the merger agreement, (y) Brandywine fails to hold the Brandywine special meeting or (z) the REIT Merger has not been consummated by April 1, 2006 and Brandywine's failure to comply with its obligations under the merger agreement is the primary cause of the REIT Merger not having been consummated by such date.

Similarly, the $12.5 million fee would be payable by Prentiss to Brandywine if (x) the Prentiss shareholders do not approve the REIT Merger and the merger agreement and the Brandywine shareholders approve the issuance of Brandywine common shares under and as contemplated by the merger agreement or (y) the REIT Merger has not been consummated by April 1, 2006 and the failure of Prentiss to comply with its obligations under the merger agreement is the primary cause of the REIT Merger not having been consummated by such date. Prentiss would not be obligated to pay to Brandywine the $12.5 million fee in any circumstances in which Prentiss is also obligated to pay to Brandywine the $60 million termination fee.

Other Information

The Prudential Acquisition (see page 128)

As part of the merger transaction, Brandywine and Prentiss have entered into separate agreements with Prudential. These agreements provide for the acquisition by Prudential (either on the day prior to, or the day of, the closing of the REIT Merger) of the Prudential Properties.

If Brandywine does not obtain a private letter ruling from the Internal Revenue Service, Prudential will acquire the Prudential Properties on the day prior to the closing of the REIT Merger, Prentiss will cause Prentiss Operating Partnership to authorize a distribution payable to holders of Prentiss Operating Partnership common units on such date and the Prentiss board of trustees will declare the Special Dividend and the cash portion of the REIT Merger consideration would be reduced by the per share amount of the Special Dividend and the conversion ratio applicable to the Partnership Merger would be reduced. If Brandywine does obtain the private letter ruling from the Internal Revenue Service, Prudential will acquire the Prudential Properties on the closing date of the REIT Merger. In that case, the Special Dividend will not be declared and the cash portion of the REIT Merger consideration will not be reduced and the conversion ratio applicable to the Partnership Merger would not be reduced. The amount of the Prentiss Operating Partnership distribution, if authorized, and the Special Dividend, if declared, will be funded from net cash proceeds of the Prudential Acquisition.

Material Federal Income Tax Consequences (see page 132)

The exchange of Prentiss common shares for the applicable REIT Merger consideration will be a taxable transaction for U.S. federal income tax purposes. In general, a Prentiss shareholder will recognize capital gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes equal to the difference, if any, between the value of the applicable REIT Merger consideration the shareholder receives and the shareholder’s adjusted tax basis in the Prentiss common shares exchanged in the REIT Merger. Generally, if a Prentiss shareholder has held its shares for more than one year, the shareholder will recognize any gain as long-term capital gain. The deducibility of capital losses is subject to limitations.

The exchange of Prentiss Operating Partnership common units for Brandywine Operating Partnership Class A units in the Partnership Merger is intended to be a tax-deferred transaction for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

If the REIT Merger takes the form of the Reverse REIT Merger, a Prentiss shareholder will recognize taxable dividend income with respect to the Special Dividend. For further information concerning the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the REIT Merger, please see “Material Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Mergers.” Because the tax consequences of the REIT Merger are complex and may vary depending on the particular circumstances of a Prentiss shareholder, each Prentiss shareholder is urged to consult its own tax advisors for a full understanding of the tax consequences of the REIT Merger.

Merger Financing (see page 93)

Brandywine has received a commitment from affiliates of JPMorgan for (i) a 364-day term loan in the amount of $750 million, (ii) an interim term loan in the amount of $240 million, and (iii) a back-stop revolving credit facility in the amount of $600 million. Brandywine expects to use the net proceeds from borrowings under the 364-day term loan to fund a portion of the cash component of the REIT Merger consideration. The interim term loan will only be drawn if (i) certain properties located in the Mid-west anticipated to be sold by Prentiss are not sold prior to the consummation of the REIT Merger, or (ii) if a portion of the Prudential Properties are not sold to Prudential. The interim term loan will be subject to mandatory pre-payment out of the proceeds of any sale of the Mid-west properties. The interim term loan will have a term of 60 days. The back-stop revolving credit facility will only be put into place if Brandywine is not successful in completing, prior to the consummation of the REIT Merger, an amendment and restatement of Brandywine’s existing revolving credit facility on terms which allow for the consummation of the REIT Merger and are otherwise satisfactory to Brandywine. The back-stop revolving credit facility will have a term of 60 days from the closing of the REIT Merger.

Dissenters Rights of Appraisal (see page 94)

Brandywine common shareholders do not have dissenters’ rights of appraisal in connection with the Mergers.

Prentiss common shareholders do not have dissenters’ rights of appraisal in connection with the Mergers.

Regulatory Matters (see page 94)

Neither Brandywine or Prentiss is aware of any material federal or state regulatory requirements that must be complied with or approvals that must be obtained by Brandywine, Brandywine Operating Partnership, Prentiss, or Prentiss Operating Partnership in connection with either the REIT Merger or the Partnership Merger.

Stock Exchange Listing and Related Matters (see page 95)

Brandywine will list the Brandywine common shares to be issued to holders of shares of Prentiss common shares in connection with the REIT Merger on the NYSE. After the closing of the REIT Merger, there will be no further trading in shares of Prentiss common shares and Prentiss will delist its common shares from the NYSE and deregister it for purposes of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

Accounting Treatment (see page 95)

The Mergers will be treated as a purchase for financial accounting purposes. This means that Brandywine will record the assets acquired and the liabilities assumed at their estimated fair values at the time the Mergers are completed.

Differences in Rights of Brandywine and Prentiss Common Shareholders (see page 166)

The rights of Prentiss common shareholders are currently governed by Maryland law and Prentiss’ Declaration of Trust and Bylaws. Following the REIT Merger, the rights of former Prentiss common shareholders who receive Brandywine common shares will be governed by Maryland law and Brandywine’s Declaration of Trust and Bylaws. There are important differences in the rights of Prentiss common shareholders and Brandywine common shareholders with respect to voting requirements and various other matters.

For the REIT Merger and the Prudential Acquisition

For more detail concerning the adjustments relating to these transactions see “Unaudited Pro Forma Consolidated Financial Statements.” The historical consolidated financial statements of Brandywine and Prentiss used to prepare these pro forma financial statements are contained in each company’s respective annual reports on Form 10-K and/or Form 10-K/A, quarterly reports on Form 10-Q and/or Form 10-Q/A, current reports on Form 8-K and other information on file with the Securities and Exchange Commission and incorporated by reference into this document. The unaudited pro forma consolidated financial statements should be read in conjunction with, and are qualified in their entirety by, the notes thereto and the historical consolidated financial statements of both Brandywine and Prentiss, including the respective notes thereto, which are incorporated by reference in this document.

The accompanying unaudited pro forma consolidated balance sheet data as of June 30, 2005 has been prepared as if the completed or proposed transactions described above occurred as of that date. The accompanying unaudited pro forma consolidated statements of operations for the six months ended June 30, 2005 and for the year ended December 31, 2004 have been prepared as if the completed or proposed transactions described above had occurred as of January 1, 2004. The unaudited pro forma consolidated financial statements do not purport to be indicative of the financial position or results of operations that would actually have been achieved had the completed or proposed transactions described above occurred on the dates indicated or which may be achieved in the future.

In the opinion of Brandywine's management, all significant adjustments necessary to reflect the effects of the completed or proposed transactions described above that can be factually supported within the Securities and Exchange Commission regulations covering the preparation of pro forma financial statements have been made. The pro forma adjustments and the purchase price allocation as presented are based on estimates and certain information that is currently available to Brandywine's management. Such pro forma adjustments and the purchase price allocation could change as additional information becomes available, as estimates are refined or as additional events occur. Brandywine's management does not anticipate that there will be any significant changes in the total purchase price as presented in these unaudited pro forma consolidated financial statements.

The unaudited pro forma consolidated financial statements are not necessarily indicative of what the actual combined financial position or results of operations would have been had the completed or proposed transactions described above been completed on the dates indicated above, nor do they give effect to (i) any transaction other than those described above (ii) the results of operations of Brandywine or Prentiss since June 30, 2005, (iii) certain cost savings and one-time charges expected to result from the transactions described above which have not already been completed and whose effects reflected in the historical financial statements of Brandywine or Prentiss (iv) the results of final valuations of the assets and liabilities of Prentiss, including property and intangible assets. We are currently developing plans to integrate the operations of the companies, which may involve various costs and other charges that may be material. We will also revise the allocation of the purchase price when additional information becomes available. Accordingly, the pro forma consolidated financial information do not purport to be indicative of the financial position or results of operations as of the date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus, as of the effective date of the Mergers and the Prudential Acquisition, any period ending at the effective date of the Mergers and the Prudential Acquisition or as of any other future date or period. The foregoing matters could cause both Brandywine's pro forma financial position and results of operations, and Brandywine's actual future financial position and results of operations, to differ materially from those presented in the following unaudited pro forma consolidated financial statements.

Dividend Policies

Brandywine’s board of trustees determines the time and amount of dividends to shareholders. Future Brandywine dividends will be authorized at the discretion of the Brandywine board of trustees and will depend on Brandywine’s actual cash flow, its financial condition, its capital requirements, the annual distribution requirements under the REIT provisions of the Internal Revenue Code and such other factors as the Brandywine board of trustees may deem relevant.

Until the Mergers are completed, Prentiss common shareholders will continue to receive regular dividends as authorized by the Prentiss board of trustees and declared by Prentiss. The merger agreement permits Prentiss to pay a regular quarterly cash dividend in an amount not to exceed $0.56 per Prentiss common share. Prentiss currently intends to continue to pay regular quarterly dividends for any quarterly periods that end before the closing of the Mergers. In addition, Prentiss will pay, if necessary, a dividend in an amount equal to the minimum amount necessary for Prentiss to maintain its REIT status under the Internal Revenue Code. If any such dividend is declared and is in addition to the regular $0.56 per share quarterly dividend, then the cash portion of the REIT Merger consideration would be reduced by the per share amount of such additional dividend.

Brandywine common shareholders will continue to receive regular dividends as authorized by the Brandywine board of trustees and declared by Brandywine. Brandywine’s most recent quarterly dividend was $0.44 per share. Brandywine currently intends to continue to pay regular quarterly dividends as authorized by the Brandywine board of trustees.

The merger agreement provides that Brandywine and Prentiss will coordinate the declaration, record and payment dates of any dividends in respect of their respective common shares. This coordination reflects the intention of Brandywine and Prentiss that the holders of Brandywine common shares and Prentiss common shares not receive more than one dividend, or fail to receive one dividend, for any single calendar quarter with respect to the shares they currently own and any Brandywine common shares received in the Mergers.

After the closing of the REIT Merger, former holders of Prentiss common shares that receive Brandywine common shares in the REIT Merger will receive the dividends payable to holders of Brandywine common shares with a record date after the closing of the REIT Merger.

RISK FACTORS

In addition to the risks relating to the businesses of Brandywine and Prentiss, which risks will also affect the combined entity, and which are incorporated by reference in this joint proxy statement/prospectus from other filings of Brandywine and Prentiss with the SEC and the other information included in this joint proxy statement/prospectus, including the matters addressed in “Warning About Forward-Looking Statements,” you should carefully consider the following risk factors.

Risks Relating to the Mergers

The operations of Brandywine and Prentiss may not be integrated successfully, and the intended benefits of the Mergers may not be realized.

The Mergers will present challenges to management, including the integration of the operations, properties and personnel of Brandywine and Prentiss. The Mergers will also pose other risks commonly associated with similar transactions, including unanticipated liabilities, unexpected costs and the diversion of management’s attention to the integration of the operations of Brandywine and Prentiss. Any difficulties that the combined company encounters in the transition and integration processes, and any level of integration that is not successfully achieved, could have an adverse effect on the revenue, level of expenses and operating results of the combined company. The combined company may also experience operational interruptions or the loss of key employees, tenants and customers. As a result, notwithstanding our expectations, the combined company may not realize any of the anticipated benefits or cost savings of the Mergers.

The market value of the Brandywine common shares that Prentiss common shareholders will receive depends on what the market price of Brandywine common shares will be at the effective time of the REIT Merger and will decrease if the market value of Brandywine common shares decreases.

The market value of the Brandywine common shares that Prentiss common shareholders will receive as part of the REIT Merger consideration depends on what the trading price of Brandywine common shares will be at the effective time of the REIT Merger. The 0.69 exchange ratio that determines the number of Brandywine common shares that Prentiss common shareholders are entitled to receive in the REIT Merger is fixed. This means that there is no “price protection” mechanism in the merger agreement that would adjust the number of Brandywine common shares that Prentiss common shareholders may receive in the REIT Merger as a result of increases or decreases in the trading price of Brandywine common shares. If Brandywine’s common share price decreases, then the market value of the REIT Merger consideration payable to Prentiss common shareholders will also decrease. For historical and current market prices of Brandywine common shares and Prentiss common shares, please see “Market Prices and Dividend Information.”

Brandywine and Prentiss expect to incur significant costs and expenses in connection with the Mergers, which could result in the combined company not realizing some or all of the anticipated benefits of the Mergers.

Brandywine and Prentiss are expected to incur one-time, pre-tax closing costs of approximately $55.5 million in connection with the Mergers and one-time pre-tax expenses of approximately $40.4 million related to change in control provisions triggered by the Mergers and severance expenses related to headcount reductions after the Mergers are completed. These costs and expenses include investment banking expenses, severance, legal and accounting fees, printing expenses and other related charges incurred and expected to be incurred by Brandywine and Prentiss. Completion of the Mergers could trigger a mandatory prepayment (including a penalty in some cases) of Prentiss debt unless appropriate lender consents or waivers are received. If those consents and waivers cannot be obtained prior to completion of the REIT Merger, the existing Prentiss debt might need to be prepaid and/or refinanced. Brandywine also expects to incur one-time cash and non-cash costs related to the integration of Brandywine and Prentiss, which cannot be estimated at this time. There can be no assurance that the costs incurred by Brandywine and Prentiss in connection with the Mergers will not be higher than expected or that the combined company will not incur additional unanticipated costs and expenses in connection with the Mergers.

Back to Contents

Trustees and officers of Prentiss have interests in the Mergers that may be different from, or in addition to, the interests of Prentiss common shareholders generally.

Trustees and officers of Prentiss have interests in the Mergers that may be different from, or in addition to, the interests of Prentiss common shareholders generally. The Prentiss board of trustees was aware of these interests and considered them, among other matters, in approving the merger agreement, the REIT Merger and the related transactions and making their recommendations. These interests include:

- the appointment of Mr. Prentiss and Mr. August, both of whom are current members of the Prentiss board of trustees, to Brandywine's board of trustees upon completion of the Mergers;

- the receipt of change in control payments of approximately $12.1 million in the aggregate (excluding gross-up payments, if any) by Prentiss' executive officers under existing employment arrangements;

- the acceleration and conversion of all vested and unvested Prentiss options into the right to receive a payment in the form Brandywine common shares;

- the ability of Prentiss to allow each holder of a Prentiss option (whether or not exercisable or vested) to elect, in lieu of receiving Brandywine options, to convert each Prentiss option so held into the right to receive an amount of cash at the effective time of the REIT Merger based on the positive spread of the REIT Merger consideration over the exercise price per share in the options;

- the vesting of restricted shares under Prentiss' incentive plans and the impact of the Mergers on amounts held in Prentiss' deferred compensation plans;

- on October 3, 2005, Prentiss entered into two separate change of control severance protection plans in connection with the REIT Merger, one with respect to Prentiss hourly and salaried non-officer employees and the other with respect to Prentiss key employees;

- in connection with the REIT Merger, the Prentiss compensation committee created a bonus pool of up to $10 million to provide incentives to Prentiss employees (other than the Chief Executive Officer) with respect to the consummation of the Mergers. Of the total bonus pool, $8 million has been allocated to certain of Prentiss' executive officers, payable upon closing of the REIT Merger if such officers are employed by Prentiss at the time of closing unless previously decided otherwise by Prentiss' compensation committee or the President of Prentiss;

- the continued indemnification of current trustees and officers of Prentiss under the merger agreement and the provision of trustees' and officers' insurance to these individuals;

- the entry into the voting agreements and registration rights agreement described in this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

In addition, certain trustees and officers of Prentiss who own Prentiss Operating Partnership common units will be able to defer their taxable gains in their Prentiss Operating Partnership common units by receiving Brandywine Operating Partnership Class A units in exchange for their Prentiss Operating Partnership common units. The REIT Merger, in contrast, is a taxable transaction and, as a result, holders of Prentiss common shares other than certain tax-exempt holders will be required to pay tax on gains arising from exchanging their Prentiss common shares for the REIT Merger consideration.

For the above reasons, the trustees and officers of Prentiss are more likely to vote to approve the merger agreement, the REIT Merger and the related transactions than if they did not have these interests. Prentiss common shareholders should consider whether these interests may have influenced these trustees and officers to support or recommend approval of the merger agreement, the REIT Merger and the related transactions. See “The Mergers—Interests of Prentiss Executive Officers and Trustees in the Mergers.”

Brandywine will need to replace, at or before maturity, any bridge facility that will be used to finance a portion of the cash component of the REIT Merger consideration and transaction costs.

Brandywine has received a commitment from affiliates of JPMorgan for (i) a 364-day term loan in the amount of $750 million, (ii) an interim term loan in the amount of $240 million, and (iii) a back-stop revolving credit facility in the amount of $600 million. Brandywine may incur increased interest costs on indebtedness that replaces these facilities due to higher interest costs of longer-term debt. The interest rate on the replacement indebtedness will depend on prevailing market conditions at the time.

Failure to complete the Mergers could negatively impact the price of Prentiss common shares and future business and operations.

It is possible that the Mergers may not be completed. The parties’ obligations to complete the REIT Merger are subject to the satisfaction or waiver of specified conditions, some of which are beyond the control of Brandywine and Prentiss. For example, the REIT Merger is conditioned on the receipt of the required approvals of Brandywine shareholders and Prentiss shareholders. If these approvals are not received, the Mergers cannot be completed even if all of the other conditions to the REIT Merger are satisfied or waived. If the Mergers are not completed for any reason, Prentiss may be subject to a number of material risks, including the following:

- Prentiss may be required under certain circumstances to pay Brandywine a termination fee of either $12.5 million or $60 million, depending upon the circumstances of the termination, and reimburse Brandywine for up to $6 million of expenses;

- the price of Prentiss common shares may decline to the extent that the current market price of Prentiss common shares reflects a market assumption that the Mergers will be completed;

Back to Contents

- Prentiss will have incurred substantial costs related to the Mergers, such as legal, accounting and financial advisor fees, which must be paid even if the Mergers are not completed; and

- Prentiss may be unable to retain its key employees.

Further, if the Mergers are terminated and the Prentiss board of trustees determines to seek another merger or business combination, there can be no assurance that it will be able to find a party willing to pay an equivalent or more attractive price than the price to be paid in the Mergers. In addition, while the merger agreement is in effect and subject to specified exceptions, Prentiss is prohibited from soliciting, initiating or encouraging or entering into certain extraordinary transactions, such as a merger, sale of assets or other business combination, with any party other than Brandywine. See “The Merger Agreement—Conduct of Business Pending the Mergers—No Solicitation.”

Failure to complete the Mergers could negatively impact the price of Brandywine common shares and future business and operations.

If the Mergers are not completed for any reason, Brandywine may be subject to a number of material risks, including the following:

- Brandywine may be required under certain circumstances to pay Prentiss a termination fee of $12.5 million and reimburse Brandywine for up to $6 million of expenses and in certain circumstances Brandywine would additionally be required to reimburse Prentiss for unrecoverable out-of-pocket expenses and any lost deposits related to the termination by Prentiss of a proposed loan related to its Barton Skyway property;

- the price of Brandywine’s common shares may decline to the extent that the current market price of Prentiss common shares reflects a market assumption that the Mergers will be completed; and

- Brandywine will have incurred substantial costs related to the Mergers, such as legal, accounting and financial advisor fees, which must be paid even if the Mergers are not completed.

The termination fee may discourage other companies from trying to acquire Prentiss.

In the merger agreement, Prentiss agreed to pay a termination fee of $60 million in specified circumstances, including some circumstances where a third party acquires or seeks to acquire Prentiss. Prentiss also agreed to pay an alternate termination fee of $12.5 million in certain other specified circumstances not associated with the termination fee of $60 million and reimburse Brandywine for up to $6 million of expenses. These provisions could discourage other parties from trying to acquire Prentiss, even if those companies might be willing to offer a greater amount of consideration to Prentiss common shareholders than Brandywine has offered in the merger agreement. Payment of the termination fee could have a material adverse effect on Prentiss’ financial condition. See “The Merger Agreement— Termination Fees; Other Expenses.”

After the REIT Merger is completed, Prentiss common shareholders will become shareholders of Brandywine and will have different rights that may be less advantageous than their current rights.

After the closing of the REIT Merger, Prentiss common shareholders will become Brandywine common shareholders. Brandywine and Prentiss are each Maryland real estate investment trusts. Differences in Brandywine’s and the Prentiss Declaration of Trust and Bylaws will result in changes to the rights of Prentiss common shareholders when they become Brandywine common shareholders. A Prentiss common shareholder may conclude that its current rights under the Prentiss Declaration of Trust and Bylaws are more advantageous than the rights they may have under Brandywine’s Declaration of Trust and Bylaws. See “Comparison of The Rights of Brandywine Common Shareholders and Prentiss Common Shareholders.”

The merger agreement does not require that the financial advisors’ fairness opinions be updated as a condition to closing the Mergers.

The merger agreement does not require that the financial advisors’ fairness opinions be updated as a condition to closing the Mergers and neither Brandywine nor Prentiss currently intends to request that those opinions be updated. As such, the fairness opinions do not reflect any changes in the relative values of Brandywine or Prentiss subsequent to the date of the merger agreement. The market price of Brandywine common shares and Prentiss common shares at the closing of the Mergers may vary significantly from the market price as of the date of the fairness opinions.

Risks Relating to the Combined Company

The combined company’s performance is subject to risks associated with its properties and with the real estate industry.

The combined company’s economic performance and the value of its real estate assets, and consequently the value of its securities, will be subject to the risk that if its properties do not generate revenues sufficient to meet its operating expenses, including debt service and capital expenditures, its cash flow and ability to pay distributions to its shareholders will be adversely affected. Events or conditions beyond its control that may adversely affect its operations or the value of its properties include:

- downturns in the national, regional and local economic climate;
- competition from other office, industrial and commercial buildings;
- local real estate market conditions, such as oversupply or reduction in demand for office, or other commercial or industrial space;
- changes in interest rates and availability of financing;
- vacancies, changes in market rental rates and the need to periodically repair, renovate and re-lease space;
- increased operating costs, including insurance expense, utilities, real estate taxes, state and local taxes and heightened security costs;

Back to Contents

- civil disturbances, earthquakes and other natural disasters, or terrorist acts or acts of war which may result in uninsured or underinsured losses;

- significant expenditures associated with each investment, such as debt service payments, real estate taxes, insurance and maintenance costs which are generally not reduced when circumstances cause a reduction in revenues from a property; and

- declines in the financial condition of its tenants and its ability to collect rents from its tenants.

The combined company may experience increased operating costs, which might reduce its profitability.

The combined company's properties will be subject to increases in operating expenses such as for cleaning, electricity, heating, ventilation and air conditioning, administrative costs and other costs associated with security, landscaping and repairs and maintenance of its properties. In general, under its leases with tenants, the combined company will pass on all or a portion of these costs to them. Brandywine cannot assure you, however, that tenants will actually bear the full burden of these higher costs, or that such increased costs will not lead them, or other prospective tenants, to seek office space elsewhere. If operating expenses increase, the availability of other comparable office space in its core geographic markets might limit the combined company's ability to increase rents; if operating expenses increase without a corresponding increase in revenues, its profitability could diminish and limit its ability to make distributions to shareholders.

The combined company's investment in property development or redevelopment may be more costly than it anticipates.

The combined company intends to continue to develop properties where market conditions warrant such investment. Once made, these investments may not produce results in accordance with its expectations. Risks associated with the combined company's current and future development and construction activities include:

- the unavailability of favorable financing alternatives in the private and public debt markets;

- construction costs exceeding original estimates due to rising interest rates and increases in the costs of materials and labor;

- construction and lease-up delays resulting in increased debt service, fixed expenses and construction or renovation costs;

- expenditure of funds and devotion of management's time to projects that the combined company does not complete;

- occupancy rates and rents at newly completed properties may fluctuate depending on a number of factors, including market and economic conditions, resulting in lower than projected rental rates and a corresponding lower return on our investment; and

- complications (including building moratoriums and anti-growth legislation) in obtaining necessary zoning, occupancy and other governmental permits.

The combined company faces risks associated with property acquisitions.

Brandywine has in the past acquired, and intends in the future to acquire, properties and portfolios of properties, including large portfolios, such as the Prentiss properties, that would increase its size and potentially alter its capital structure. Although Brandywine believes that the acquisitions that it has completed in the past and that it expects to undertake in the future have and will enhance its future financial performance, the success of such transactions is subject to a number of factors, including the risk that:

- Brandywine may not be able to obtain financing for acquisitions on favorable terms;
- acquired properties may fail to perform as expected;
- the actual costs of repositioning or redeveloping acquired properties may be higher than its estimates;
- acquired properties may be located in new markets where Brandywine may have limited knowledge and understanding of the local economy, an absence of business relationships in the area or unfamiliarity with local governmental and permitting procedures; and
- Brandywine may not be able to efficiently integrate acquired properties, particularly portfolios of properties, into its organization and to manage new properties in a way that allows it to realize cost savings and synergies.

Acquired properties may subject the combined company to unknown liabilities.

Properties that the combined company acquires may be subject to unknown liabilities for which it would have no recourse, or only limited recourse, to the former owners of such properties. As a result, if a liability were asserted against the combined company based upon ownership of an acquired property, it might be required to pay significant sums to settle it, which could adversely affect the combined company’s financial results and cash flow. Unknown liabilities relating to acquired properties could include:

- liabilities for clean-up of undisclosed environmental contamination;
- claims by tenants, vendors or other persons arising on account of actions or omissions of the former owners of the properties; and
- liabilities incurred in the ordinary course of business.

Brandywine has agreed not to sell certain of its properties.

Brandywine has agreed not to sell several of its properties, and has agreed to assume certain obligations of Prentiss not to sell certain of its properties, for varying periods of time, in transactions that would trigger taxable income to its former owners, and the combined company may enter into similar arrangements as a part of future property acquisitions. Some of these tax protection agreements are with affiliates of one of Brandywine’s current trustees. These agreements generally provide that Brandywine may dispose of the subject properties only in transactions that qualify as tax-free exchanges under Section 1031 of the Internal Revenue Code or in other tax deferred transactions. Such transactions can be difficult to complete and can result in the property acquired in exchange for the disposed of property inheriting the tax attributes (including tax protection covenants) of the disposed of property. Violation of these tax protection agreements would impose significant costs on Brandywine. As a result, the combined company will be restricted with respect to decisions such as financing, encumbering, expanding or selling these Properties.

The combined company may be unable to renew leases or re-lease space as leases expire.

If tenants do not renew their leases upon expiration, the combined company may be unable to re-lease the space. Even if the tenants do renew their leases or if the combined company can re-lease the space, the terms of renewal or re-leasing (including the cost of required renovations) may be less favorable than current lease terms. Certain leases grant the tenants an early termination right upon payment of a termination penalty.

The combined company faces significant competition from other real estate developers.

The combined company will compete with real estate developers, operators and institutions for tenants and acquisition and development opportunities. Some of these competitors have significantly greater financial resources than the combined company will have. Such competition may reduce the number of suitable investment opportunities offered to the combined company, may interfere with its ability to attract and retain tenants and may increase vacancies, which could result in increased supply and lower market rental rates, reducing its bargaining leverage and adversely affecting the combined company’s ability to improve its operating leverage. In addition, some of the combined company’s competitors may be willing, because their properties may have vacancy rates higher than those for the combined company’s properties, to make space available at lower prices than available space in the combined company’s properties. The combined company will not be able to assure you that this competition will not adversely affect its cash flow and ability to make distributions to shareholders.

Property ownership through joint ventures may limit the combined company’s ability to act exclusively in its interests.

The combined company intends to develop and acquire properties in joint ventures with other persons or entities when it believes circumstances warrant the use of such structures. Brandywine currently has investments in nine unconsolidated real estate ventures and two additional real estate ventures that are consolidated in its financial statements. Its investments in the nine unconsolidated real estate ventures aggregated approximately $13.3 million (net of returns of investment amounts) as of June 30, 2005. As a result of the Mergers, Brandywine is expected to succeed to Prentiss’ investments in one unconsolidated real estate venture and two additional real estate ventures that will be consolidated in its financial statements after the Mergers. The combined company could become engaged in a dispute with one or more of its joint venture partners that might affect its ability to operate a jointly-owned property. Moreover, the combined company’s joint venture partners may, at any time, have business, economic or other objectives that are inconsistent with its objectives, including objectives that relate to the appropriate timing and terms of any sale or refinancing of a property. In some instances, its joint venture partners may have competing interests in the combined company’s markets that could create conflicts of interest. If the objectives of the combined company’s joint venture partners are inconsistent with its own objections, it will not be able to act exclusively in its interests.

Because real estate is illiquid, the combined company may not be able to sell properties when appropriate.

Real estate investments generally, and in particular large office and industrial properties like those that the combined company will own, often cannot be sold quickly. Consequently, the combined company may not be able to alter its portfolio promptly in response to changes in economic or other conditions. In addition, the Internal Revenue Code limits the combined company's ability to sell properties that it has held for fewer than four years without resulting in adverse consequences to its shareholders. Furthermore, properties that either Brandywine or Prentiss have developed and have owned for a significant period of time or that either acquired in exchange for partnership interests in their respective operating partnership often have a low tax basis. If the combined company were to dispose of any of these properties in a taxable transaction, it may be required under provisions of the Internal Revenue Code applicable to REITs to distribute a significant amount of the taxable gain to its shareholders and this could, in turn, impact its cash flow. In some cases, tax protection agreements will prevent the combined company from selling certain properties without incurring substantial costs. In addition, purchase options and rights of first refusal held by tenants or partners in joint ventures may also limit the combined company's ability to sell certain properties. All of these factors reduce the combined company's ability to respond to changes in the performance of its investments and could adversely affect the combined company's cash flow and ability to make distributions to shareholders as well as the ability of someone to purchase the combined company, even if a purchase were in its shareholders' best interests.

The combined company may suffer adverse consequences due to the financial difficulties, bankruptcy or insolvency of its tenants.

If one or more of the combined company's tenants were to experience financial difficulties, including bankruptcy, insolvency or a general downturn of business, there could be an adverse effect on its financial performance and distributions to shareholders. The combined company will not be able to assure you that any tenant that files for bankruptcy protection will continue to pay its rent. A bankruptcy filing by or relating to one of the combined company's tenants or a lease guarantor would bar all efforts by the combined company to collect pre-bankruptcy debts from that tenant or lease guarantor, or its property, unless the combined company receives an order permitting it to do so from the bankruptcy court. In addition, the combined company cannot evict a tenant solely because of bankruptcy. The bankruptcy of a tenant or lease guarantor could delay the combined company's efforts to collect past due balances under the relevant leases, and could ultimately preclude collection of these sums. If a lease is assumed by the tenant in bankruptcy, all pre-bankruptcy balances due under the lease must be paid to the combined company in full. If, however, a lease is rejected by a tenant in bankruptcy, the combined company would have only a general unsecured claim for damages. Any such unsecured claim would only be paid only to the extent that funds are available and only in the same percentage as is paid to all other holders of unsecured claims; restrictions under the bankruptcy laws further limit the amount of any other claims that it can make if a lease is rejected. As a result, it is likely that the combined company would recover substantially less than the full value of any such unsecured claims that it might hold.

Some potential losses are not covered by insurance.

Brandywine and Prentiss currently carry comprehensive liability, fire, extended coverage and rental loss insurance on all of its properties. Each believes the policy specifications and insured limits of these policies are adequate and appropriate.

There are, however, types of losses, such as lease and other contract claims and terrorism and acts of war, that generally are not insured. The combined company cannot assure you that it will be able to renew insurance coverage in an adequate amount or at reasonable prices. In addition, insurance companies may no longer offer coverage against certain types of losses, such as losses due to terrorist acts and mold, or, if offered, these types of insurance may be prohibitively expensive. Should an uninsured loss or a loss in excess of insured limits occur, the combined company could lose all or a portion of the capital it has invested in a property, as well as the anticipated future revenue from the property. In such an event, it might nevertheless remain obligated for any mortgage debt or other financial obligations related to the property. The combined company cannot assure you that material losses in excess of insurance proceeds will not occur in the future. If any of its properties were to experience a catastrophic loss, the combined company could seriously disrupt its operations, delay revenue and result in large expenses to repair or rebuild the property. Such events could adversely affect its cash flow and ability to make distributions to shareholders.

Terrorist attacks and other acts of violence or war may adversely impact the combined company's performance and may affect the markets on which the combined company's securities are traded.

Terrorist attacks against the combined company's properties, or against the United States or its interests, may negatively impact the combined company's operations and the value of the combined company's securities. Attacks or armed conflicts could result in increased operating costs; for example, it might cost more in the future for building security, property/casualty and liability insurance, and property maintenance. Following the September 11, 2001 terrorist attacks, Brandywine and Prentiss each increased the level of security at its properties and each continues to reevaluate its security infrastructure. As a result of terrorist activities and other market conditions, the cost of insurance coverage for the combined company's properties could also increase. The combined company might not be able to pass along the increased costs associated with such increased security measures and insurance to its tenants, which could reduce its profitability and cash flow. Furthermore, any terrorist attacks or armed conflicts could result in increased volatility in or damage to the United States and worldwide financial markets and economy. Such adverse economic conditions could affect the ability of the combined company's tenants to pay rent, which could have a negative impact on its results.

The combined company's ability to make distributions will be subject to various risks.

Historically, Brandywine has paid quarterly distributions to its shareholders. The combined company's ability to make distributions in the future will depend upon:

- the operational and financial performance of the combined company's properties;
- capital expenditures with respect to existing and newly acquired properties;
- general and administrative costs associated with Brandywine's operation as a publicly-held REIT;

Back to Contents

 the amount of, and the interest rates on, the combined company’s debt; and the absence of significant expenditures relating to environmental and other regulatory matters.

Certain of these matters are beyond the combined company’s control and any significant difference between the combined company’s expectations and actual results could have a material adverse effect on its cash flow and its ability to make distributions to shareholders.

Changes in the law may adversely affect the combined company’s cash flow.

Because increases in income and service taxes are generally not passed through to tenants under leases, such increases may adversely affect the combined company’s cash flow and ability to make expected distributions to shareholders. The combined company’s properties are also subject to various regulatory requirements, such as those relating to the environment, fire and safety. The combined company’s failure to comply with these requirements could result in the imposition of fines and damage awards and default under some of its tenant leases. Moreover, the costs to comply with any new or different regulations could adversely affect the combined company’s cash flow and its ability to make distributions. Although Brandywine believes that the properties of the combined company will be in material compliance with all such requirements, it cannot assure you that these requirements will not change or that newly imposed requirements will not require significant unanticipated expenditures.

The terms and covenants relating to the combined company’s indebtedness could adversely impact its economic performance.

Like other real estate companies which incur debt, the combined company will be subject to risks normally associated with debt financing, such as the insufficiency of cash flow to meet required debt service payment obligations and the inability to refinance existing indebtedness. If the combined company’s debt cannot be paid, refinanced or extended at maturity, in addition to its failure to repay its debt, the combined company may not be able to make distributions to shareholders at expected levels or at all. Furthermore, an increase in the combined company’s interest expense could adversely affect its cash flow and ability to make distributions to shareholders. If the combined company does not meet its debt service obligations, any properties securing such indebtedness could be foreclosed on, which would have a material adverse effect on the combined company’s cash flow and ability to make distributions and, depending on the number of properties foreclosed on, could threaten its continued viability.

The combined company’s credit facility and the indenture governing the unsecured debt securities contain (and any new or amended facility entered into in connection with or after the Mergers will contain) customary restrictions, requirements and other limitations on the combined company’s ability to incur indebtedness, including total debt to asset ratios, secured debt to total asset ratios, debt service coverage ratios and minimum ratios of unencumbered assets to unsecured debt which we must maintain. The combined company’s continued ability to borrow under the credit facility is (and any new or amended facility will be) subject to compliance with such financial and other covenants. In the event that the combined company would fail to satisfy these covenants, the combined company would be in default under the credit facility and indenture, and may be required to repay such debt with capital from other sources. Under such circumstances, other sources of capital may not be available to the combined company, or be available only on unattractive terms.

Back to Contents

Increases in interest rates on variable rate indebtedness would increase the combined company's interest expense, which could adversely affect its cash flow and ability to make distributions to shareholders. Rising interest rates could also restrict the combined company's ability to refinance existing debt when it matures. In addition, an increase in interest rates could decrease the amounts that third parties are willing to pay for the combined company's assets, thereby limiting the combined company's ability to alter its portfolio promptly in relation to economic or other conditions. The combined company may, from time to time, enter into agreements such as interest rate hedges, swaps, floors, caps and other interest rate hedging contracts with respect to a portion of its variable rate debt. Although these agreements may lessen the impact of rising interest rates on the combined company, they also expose the combined company to the risk that other parties to the agreements will not perform or that the combined company cannot enforce the agreements.

The combined company's degree of leverage could limit its ability to obtain additional financing or affect the market price of its common shares or debt securities.

Brandywine's long-term debt as of June 30, 2005 was approximately $1.5 billion, or 46% of its total assets, of which $10.1 million matures during 2006. Prentiss' long-term debt as of June 30, 2005 was approximately $1.4 billion, or 56% of its total capitalization, of which $10 million matures during 2006. The combined company's anticipated long-term debt on a pro forma basis giving effect to the sale of Prentiss' Midwestern portfolio as of June 30, 2005, will be approximately 56.1% of its total assets. The combined company's degree of leverage could affect its ability to obtain additional financing for working capital expenditures, development, acquisitions or other general corporate purposes. Brandywine's senior unsecured debt is currently rated investment grade by the three major rating agencies. Brandywine cannot, however, assure you that the combined company will be able to maintain this rating. In the event that the combined company's senior unsecured debt is downgraded from the current rating, the combined company would likely incur higher borrowing costs and the market prices of its common shares and debt securities might decline. The combined company's degree of leverage could also make it more vulnerable to a downturn in business or the economy generally.

Additional issuances of equity securities may be dilutive to shareholders.

The interests of the combined company's shareholders could be diluted if it issues additional equity securities to finance future developments or acquisitions or to repay indebtedness. The combined company's board of trustees will be able to issue additional equity securities without shareholder approval. The combined company's ability to execute its business strategy will depend upon its access to an appropriate blend of debt financing, including unsecured lines of credit and other forms of secured and unsecured debt, and equity financing, including the issuance of common and preferred equity.

Potential liability for environmental contamination could result in substantial costs.

Under various federal, state and local laws, ordinances and regulations, the combined company may be liable for the costs to investigate and remove or remediate hazardous or toxic substances on or in its properties, often regardless of whether it knows of or is responsible for the presence of these substances. These costs may be substantial. Also, if hazardous or toxic substances are present on a property, or if the combined company fails to properly remediate such substances, its ability to sell or rent the property or to borrow using that property as collateral may be adversely affected.

Back to Contents

Additionally, the combined company will develop, manage, lease and/or operate various properties for third parties. Consequently, the combined company may be considered to have been or to be an operator of these properties and, therefore, potentially liable for removal or remediation costs or other potential costs that could relate to hazardous or toxic substances.

Americans with Disabilities Act compliance could be costly.

The Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (“ADA”) requires that all public accommodations and commercial facilities, including office buildings, meet certain federal requirements related to access and use by disabled persons. Compliance with ADA requirements could involve the removal of structural barriers from certain disabled persons’ entrances which could adversely affect our financial condition and results of operations. Other federal, state and local laws may require modifications to or restrict further renovations of the combined company’s properties with respect to such accesses. Although Brandywine believes that the combined company’s properties will be in material compliance with present requirements, noncompliance with the ADA or similar or related laws or regulations could result in the United States government imposing fines or private litigants being awarded damages against the combined company. In addition, Brandywine does not know whether existing requirements will change or whether compliance with future requirements will require significant unanticipated expenditures. Such costs may adversely affect the combined company’s cash flow and ability to make distributions to shareholders.

The status of the combined company (or a REIT subsidiary) as a REIT is dependent on compliance with federal income tax requirements.

If the combined company (or a REIT subsidiary) fails to qualify as a REIT, they would be subject to federal income tax at regular corporate rates. Also, unless the IRS granted the combined company or REIT subsidiary, as the case may be, relief under certain statutory provisions, the combined company or REIT subsidiary would remain disqualified as a REIT for four years following the year it first failed to qualify. If the combined company or REIT subsidiary fails to qualify as a REIT, it would be required to pay significant income taxes and would, therefore, have less money available for investments or for distributions to shareholders. This would likely have a material adverse effect on the value of the combined company’s securities. In addition, the combined company or REIT subsidiary would no longer be required to make any distributions to shareholders.

Failure of the Brandywine Operating Partnership (or a subsidiary partnership) to be treated as a partnership would have serious adverse consequences to the combined company’s shareholders. If the IRS were to successfully challenge the tax status of the Brandywine Operating Partnership or any of its subsidiary partnerships for federal income tax purposes, the Brandywine Operating Partnership or the affected subsidiary partnership would be taxable as a corporation. In such event, the combined company would cease to qualify as a REIT and the imposition of a corporate tax on the Brandywine Operating Partnership or a subsidiary partnership would reduce the amount of cash available for distribution from the Brandywine Operating Partnership to the combined company and ultimately to its shareholders.

Even if the combined company qualifies as a REIT, it will be required to pay certain federal, state and local taxes on its income and properties. In addition, the combined company’s taxable REIT subsidiaries will be subject to federal, state and local income tax at regular corporate rates on their net taxable income derived from management, leasing and related service business. If the combined company has net income from a prohibited transaction, such income will be subject to a 100% tax.

The combined company will be dependent upon its key personnel.

The combined company will be dependent upon key personnel whose continued service is not guaranteed. The combined company will be dependent on its executive officers for strategic business direction and real estate experience. Brandywine intends to enter into employment agreements with Robert K. Wiberg, Prentiss’ Executive Vice President and Managing Director, Mid-Atlantic Region, Christopher M. Hipps, Prentiss’ Executive Vice President and Managing Director, Southwest Region, Daniel K. Cushing, Prentiss’ Senior Vice President and Managing Director, Northern California Region, and Michael J. Cooper, Prentiss Senior Vice President, Development. In addition, Brandywine expects to implement to the following changes to Brandywine’s executive management rank at the effective time of the Mergers: Gregory S. Imhoff, currently Senior Vice President, General Counsel and Secretary of Prentiss, will become Senior Vice President and Chief Administrative Officer of Brandywine and Scott W. Fordham, currently Senior Vice President and Chief Accounting Officer of Prentiss, will become Vice President and Chief Accounting Officer of Brandywine. Brandywine’s inability to retain the services of any of these executives or the combined company’s loss of any of their services after the Mergers could adversely impact the operations of the combined company. Although Brandywine has an employment agreement with Gerard H. Sweeney, its President and Chief Executive Officer, for a term extending to May 7, 2008, this agreement does not restrict his ability to become employed by a competitor following the termination of his employment. The combined company will not have key man life insurance coverage on its executive officers upon completion of the Mergers.

Certain limitations will exist with respect to a third party’s ability to acquire the combined company or effectuate a change in control.

Limitations imposed to protect the combined company’s REIT status. In order to protect the combined company against the loss of its REIT status, its Declaration of Trust will limit any shareholder from owning more than 9.8% in value of the combined company’s outstanding shares, subject to certain exceptions. The ownership limit may have the effect of precluding acquisition of control of the combined company.

Limitation due to the combined company’s ability to issue preferred shares. The combined company’s Declaration of Trust will authorize the board of trustees to issue preferred shares, without limitation as to amount. The board of trustees will be able establish the preferences and rights of any preferred shares issued which could have the effect of delaying or preventing someone from taking control of the combined company, even if a change in control were in its shareholders’ best interests.

Limitation imposed by the Maryland Business Combination Law. The Maryland General Corporation Law, as applicable to Maryland REITs, establishes special restrictions against “business combinations” between a Maryland REIT and “interested shareholders” or their affiliates unless an exemption is applicable. An interested shareholder includes a person who beneficially owns, and an affiliate or associate of the trust who, at any time within the two-year period prior to the date in question, was the beneficial owner of, ten percent or more of the voting power of Brandywine’s then-outstanding voting shares. Among other things, Maryland law prohibits (for a period of five years) a merger and certain other transactions between a Maryland REIT and an interested shareholder unless the board of trustees had approved the transaction before the party became an interested shareholder. The five-year period runs from the most recent date on which the interested shareholder became an interested shareholder. Thereafter, any such business combination must be recommended by the board of trustees and approved by two super-majority shareholder votes unless, among other conditions, the common shareholders receive a minimum price for their shares and the consideration is received in cash or in the same form as previously paid by the interested shareholder for its shares or unless the board of trustees approved the transaction before the party in question became an interested shareholder. The business combination statute could have the effect of discouraging offers to acquire the combined company and of increasing the difficulty of consummating any such offers, even if the combined company’s acquisition would be in its shareholders’ best interests.

Maryland Control Share Acquisition Act. Maryland law provides that “control shares” of a REIT acquired in a “control share acquisition” shall have no voting rights except to the extent approved by a vote of two-thirds of the vote eligible to be cast on the matter under the Maryland Control Share Acquisition Act. “Control Shares” means shares that, if aggregated with all other shares previously acquired by the acquirer or in respect of which the acquirer is able to exercise or direct the exercise of voting power (except solely by virtue of a revocable proxy), would entitle the acquirer to exercise voting power in electing trustees within one of the following ranges of voting power: one-tenth or more but less than one-third, one-third or more but less than a majority or a majority or more of all voting power. Control shares do not include shares the acquiring person is then entitled to vote as a result of having previously obtained shareholder approval. A “control share acquisition” means the acquisition of control shares, subject to certain exceptions. If voting rights or control shares acquired in a control share acquisition are not approved at a shareholder’s meeting, then subject to certain conditions and limitations the issuer may redeem any or all of the control shares for fair value. If voting rights of such control shares are approved at a shareholder’s meeting and the acquirer becomes entitled to vote a majority of the shares entitled to vote, all other shareholders may exercise appraisal rights. Any control shares acquired in a control share acquisition which are not exempt under the combined company’s Bylaws will be subject to the Maryland Control Share Acquisition Act. The combined company’s Bylaws will contain a provision exempting from the control share acquisition statute any and all acquisitions by any person of its shares. Brandywine cannot assure you that this provision will not be amended or eliminated at any time in the future.

Many factors can have an adverse effect on the market value of the combined company’s securities.

A number of factors might adversely affect the price of the combined company’s securities, many of which are beyond its control. These factors include:

- increases in market interest rates, relative to the dividend yield on the combined company’s shares. If market interest rates go up, prospective purchasers of the combined company’s securities may require a higher yield. Higher market interest rates would not, however, result in more funds for the combined company to distribute and, to the contrary, would likely increase its borrowing costs and potentially decrease funds available for distribution. Thus, higher market interest rates could cause the market price of Brandywine’s common shares to go down;

Back to Contents

- anticipated benefit of an investment in the combined company’s securities as compared to investment in securities of companies in other industries (including benefits associated with tax treatment of dividends and distributions);

- perception by market professionals of REITs generally and REITs comparable to Brandywine in particular;

- level of institutional investor interest in the combined company’s securities;

- relatively low trading volumes in securities of REITs;

- the combined company’s result of operations and financial condition; and

- investor confidence in the stock market generally.

The market value of Brandywine’s common shares is based primarily upon the market’s perception of Brandywine’s growth potential and its current and potential future earnings and cash distributions. Consequently, Brandywine’s common shares may trade at prices that are higher or lower than its net asset value per common share. If Brandywine’s future earnings or cash distributions are less than expected, it is likely that the market price of Brandywine’s common shares will diminish.

The issuance of preferred securities may adversely affect the rights of holders of the combined company’s common shares.

Because the combined company’s board of trustees will have the power to establish the preferences and rights of each class or series of preferred shares, the combined company may afford the holders in any series or class of preferred shares preferences, distributions, powers and rights, voting or otherwise, senior to the rights of holders of common shares. The board of trustees of the combined company will also have the power to establish the preferences and rights of each class or series of units in the Brandywine Operating Partnership, and may afford the holders in any series or class of preferred units preferences, distributions, powers and rights, voting or otherwise, senior to the rights of holders of common units.

The acquisition of new properties which lack operating history with the combined company will give rise to difficulties in predicting revenue potential.

The combined company will acquire office properties. These acquisitions could fail to perform in accordance with expectations. If the combined company fails to accurately estimate occupancy levels, operating costs or costs of improvements to bring an acquired property up to the standards established for its intended market position, the operating performance of the property may be below expectations. Acquired properties may have characteristics or deficiencies affecting their valuation or revenue potential that we have not yet discovered. Brandywine cannot assure you that the operating performance of properties acquired by the combined company will increase or be maintained under the combined company’s management.

The combined company’s performance will be dependent upon the economic conditions of the markets in which its properties are located.

Properties of the combined company will be located in the Mid-Atlantic, Southwest, Northern California and Southern California markets. Like other real estate markets, these commercial real estate markets have experienced economic downturns in the past, and future declines in any of these economies or real estate markets could adversely affect cash available for distribution. The combined company’s financial performance and ability to make distributions to its shareholders will be, therefore, particularly sensitive to the economic conditions in these markets. The local economic climate, which may be adversely impacted by business layoffs or downsizing, industry slowdowns, changing demographics and other factors, and local real estate conditions, such as oversupply of or reduced demand for office, industrial and other competing commercial properties, may affect revenues and the value of properties, including properties to be acquired or developed. Brandywine cannot assure you that these local economies will grow in the future.

Changes in market conditions including capitalization rates applied in real estate acquisitions could impact the combined company's ability to grow through acquisitions.

The combined company will selectively pursue acquisitions in its core markets when long-term yields make acquisitions attractive. The combined company will compete with numerous property owners for the acquisition of real estate properties. Some of these competitors may be willing to accept lower yields on their investments impacting the combined company's ability to acquire real estate assets and thus limit its external growth.

The Brandywine common shareholders also might be asked to vote on a proposal to adjourn the Brandywine special meeting for the purpose of allowing additional time for the solicitation of additional votes to approve the issuance of Brandywine common shares under and as contemplated by the merger agreement.

Who Can Vote

You are entitled to vote your Brandywine common shares if Brandywine's shareholder records showed that you held your Brandywine common shares as of the close of business on __________ ___, 2005. At the close of business on that date, a total of ______ Brandywine common shares were outstanding and entitled to vote. Each Brandywine common share has one vote. The enclosed proxy card shows the number of Brandywine common shares that you are entitled to vote.

Voting by Proxy Holders

If you hold your Brandywine common shares in your name as a holder of record, you may instruct the proxy holders how to vote your Brandywine common shares by signing, dating and mailing the proxy card in the postage-paid envelope that we have provided to you. The proxy holders will vote your Brandywine common shares as provided by those instructions. If you give Brandywine a signed proxy without giving specific voting instructions, your Brandywine common shares will be voted by the proxy holders in favor of approving the issuance of Brandywine common shares under and as contemplated by the merger agreement. If your Brandywine common shares are held by a broker, bank or other nominee, you will receive instructions from your broker, bank or nominee that you must follow to have your Brandywine common shares voted.

Quorum and Required Vote

A quorum of common shareholders is required to hold a valid meeting. The holders of a majority of the outstanding common shares entitled to vote at the Brandywine special meeting must be present in person or by proxy to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at the Brandywine special meeting. All Brandywine common shares represented at the Brandywine special meeting, including abstentions and "broker non-votes," will be treated as shares that are present and entitled to vote for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum.

In accordance with the listing requirements of the New York Stock Exchange, or the NYSE, approval of the issuance of the Brandywine common shares requires the affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of the Brandywine common shares cast in person or by proxy on such proposal at the Brandywine special meeting, provided that the total votes cast on the proposal represents over 50% of the outstanding Brandywine common shares entitled to vote on the proposal.

Back to Contents

As of the record date for the Brandywine special meeting, Brandywine trustees, executive officers and their affiliates beneficially owned _____ Brandywine common shares (excluding share options and Brandywine Operating Partnership units held by them), representing approximately _____% of the outstanding Brandywine common shares entitled to vote at the Brandywine special meeting.

Abstentions and Broker Non-Votes

Abstentions by holders of Brandywine common shares will be counted as votes cast and will have the effect of a vote against the proposal.

Under the listing requirements of the NYSE, brokers who hold Brandywine common shares in “street name” for a beneficial owner of those shares typically have the authority to vote in their discretion on “routine” proposals when they have not received instructions from beneficial owners. However, brokers are not allowed to exercise their voting discretion with respect to the approval of matters that the NYSE determines to be “non-routine,” such as approval of the issuance of Brandywine common shares under and as contemplated by the merger agreement, without specific instructions from the beneficial owner. These non-voted shares are referred to as “broker non-votes.” If your broker holds your Brandywine common shares in “street name,” your broker will vote your shares only if you provide instructions on how to vote by filling out the voter instruction form sent to you by your broker with this joint proxy statement/prospectus. Broker non-votes will not affect the outcome of the vote with respect to the issuance of Brandywine common shares unless the holders of less than a majority of the votes entitled to be cast of the Brandywine common shares vote, in which case broker non-votes will have the effect of a vote against the proposal.

Voting on Other Matters

We are not now aware of any matters to be presented at the Brandywine special meeting except for those described in this joint proxy statement/prospectus. If any other matter not described in this joint proxy statement/prospectus is properly presented at the meeting, the proxy holders will use their own judgment to determine how to vote your Brandywine common shares. If the meeting is adjourned or postponed, your Brandywine common shares may be voted by the proxy holders on the new meeting date as well, unless you have revoked your proxy instructions before that date.

If you hold shares in “street name” and you would like to revoke an earlier vote, please check with your broker and follow the voting procedures your broker provides.

THE MERGERS

Background of the Mergers

In pursuing strategies for enhancing shareholder value, each of Brandywine and Prentiss from time to time has considered opportunities for acquisitions, joint ventures and other strategic alliances.

Prentiss and Lazard, its financial advisor, have from time to time explored the strategic options available to Prentiss. This included discussions with a number of other prospective public buyers and their advisors throughout Lazard's engagement.

Brandywine's board has from time to time assessed strategic alternatives available to Brandywine. In its assessment of alternatives to enhance shareholder value, the Brandywine board has considered opportunities to replicate Brandywine's regional focus in select high-growth markets outside the greater Philadelphia region through association with strong local owners and operators of commercial real estate; operating efficiencies and growth opportunities associated with an increased asset base; and enhancement of Brandywine's credit profile through a larger and more diverse tenant base.

Brandywine has premised its growth strategy on acquiring and developing high quality office and industrial properties in selected markets that it expects will experience increased rental rates, increased demand for high quality office and industrial space and overall economic growth. As part of its regional focus, Brandywine dedicates to each of its markets a team of professionals having a deep and extensive knowledge of the real estate dynamics within the team's market, including leasing and construction activity, population growth, capital costs and other factors that bear on profitability and growth prospects.

Through relationships that pre-dated a 2001 transaction involving an exchange of properties and continued thereafter, Brandywine and Prentiss have recognized the complementary nature of their businesses and the quality of their respective operations. The boards believe that the combination of the Brandywine and Prentiss property portfolios and management groups will (i) enhance the growth prospects and the quality of the combined company, (ii) increase the diversity of the tenant and asset base of the combined company and (iii) deepen the management expertise of the combined company. The boards further believe that the cash infusion from Prudential for a portion of the Prentiss assets will enable the combination to be completed on financial terms that maintain Brandywine's investment grade ratings and financial metrics.

In April 2001, Brandywine and Prentiss completed an exchange of properties. As part of that transaction, Brandywine acquired from Prentiss 30 properties, located in Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware, that contain an aggregate of approximately 1.6 million net rentable square feet and conveyed to Prentiss four office properties located in Northern Virginia that contain an aggregate of approximately 657,000 net rentable square feet and its 25% interest in a real estate joint venture that owned two office properties that contain an aggregate of approximately 452,000 net rentable square feet.

Subsequent to the April 2001 transaction, Gerard H. Sweeney, President and Chief Executive Officer of Brandywine, had occasional conversations with Michael V. Prentiss, Chairman of the board of trustees of Prentiss, and Thomas F. August, President and Chief Executive Officer of Prentiss. These conversations were general in nature and primarily related to the competitive dynamics in the REIT industry.

Back to Contents

In Winter and Spring 2003 and the Summer 2004, Prentiss held substantive discussions with two other public REITs, concerning a potential merger transaction. However, each of these discussions was terminated before an agreement was reached due to differences in pricing expectations.

On February 1, 2005, the Prentiss board of trustees called a special meeting to discuss strategic alternatives of Prentiss and to assess the possibility of a strategic business combination in light of previous contacts that Prentiss had had with other REITs on this topic. At the direction of the Prentiss board of trustees, Mr. Prentiss contacted Matthew Lustig of Lazard to explore the possibility of a strategic business combination.

On March 16, 2005, Brandywine's board of trustees met with representatives of JPMorgan to discuss in broad terms capital and investment activity in the REIT market, Brandywine's competitive position within the REIT market and possible strategic alternatives available to Brandywine. Part of the discussion addressed the rationale for a combination with Prentiss, among other companies, and JPMorgan presented a preliminary analysis of the financial and strategic implications of a business combination between Brandywine and Prentiss.

On April 18, 2005 Prentiss publicly announced in its earnings release for the first quarter of 2005 that it had engaged Holliday Fenoglio Fowler, L.P. to actively pursue the sale of its Midwest portfolio, comprised of 17 office and four industrial properties.

Brandywine viewed the April 18th announcement by Prentiss, and the migration of Prentiss towards a more regionally focused owner of office and industrial properties, as complementary of its operating strategy. Working with JPMorgan, Brandywine approached several institutional investors, including Prudential, to discuss their interest in teaming up with Brandywine to develop a framework whereby the institutional investor would acquire a portion of the Prentiss assets and submarkets concurrently with Brandywine's overall acquisition of Prentiss. Brandywine believed this team approach would assist it in replicating its strategy of regional focus and submarket concentration and allow it to consummate a combination with Prentiss on terms that would maintain its credit profile and allow for future acquisition and development activity.

In May through June of 2005, senior executives of Prentiss held several separate preliminary discussions with senior executives of each of Brandywine and another public REIT to discuss a potential transaction with each of them.

On May 2, 2005, Mr. Sweeney updated the board of trustees on the status of discussions with representatives of Prentiss.

On May 10, 2005, Mr. Sweeney, together with representatives of JPMorgan, and Gary Kauffman, a Managing Director of Prudential, held a conference call. The participants on the call discussed Prudential's interest in acquiring assets as a participant with Brandywine in a strategic business combination between Brandywine and Prentiss. Although general in nature, the discussion related to Prudential's willingness to acquire a portion of the Prentiss property portfolio in conjunction with the consummation of Brandywine's acquisition of Prentiss.

Following the May 10, 2005 conference call, Mr. Sweeney, other members of senior management, representatives of JPMorgan and of Prudential continued to discuss the framework for a Brandywine acquisition of Prentiss, coupled with a concurrent acquisition by Prudential of a portion of the Prentiss portfolio. In these discussions, Mr. Sweeney and Mr. Kauffman agreed to defer any decision on which Prentiss assets Prudential would acquire until each of Brandywine and Prudential had independently completed its underwriting, due diligence and valuation of each of the Prentiss properties.

Back to Contents

On June 8, 2005, Messrs. Sweeney and August met for dinner at a NAREIT conference in New York. At this dinner, they discussed the framework of a potential business combination between Brandywine and Prentiss in conjunction with an acquisition by Prudential of a portion of the Prentiss portfolio. Mr. August indicated that he would review the discussion with Mr. Prentiss and would expect to continue discussions with Mr. Sweeney.

On June 15, 2005, Brandywine's board met with senior management, representatives of JPMorgan and Brandywine's legal advisors to address financial and legal issues associated with a business combination with Prentiss. In this meeting JPMorgan updated its analysis of the financial and strategic implications of a business combination between Brandywine and Prentiss. Mr. Sweeney also reviewed with the board the discussions with Prudential.

On June 16, 2005, Mr. Prentiss met with Mr. Sweeney in Baltimore to review aspects of a proposed business combination and consider the merits and assess alternate structures for the transaction, including the proposed acquisition by Prudential of a portion of the Prentiss portfolio.

On June 24, 2005, Prentiss and the other public REIT each executed a confidentiality agreement to enable them to discuss potential combinations in greater detail.

On June 27, 2005, Messrs. Sweeney, Prentiss, August and Kauffman, together with James Walker, a Prudential executive, met in Boston to further review the framework of a transaction among Prentiss, Brandywine and Prudential. At the meeting they addressed the strategic rationale for a combination between Brandywine and Prentiss and discussed alternate structures for the transaction, including an acquisition by Prudential of a portion of the Prentiss portfolio.

Following the June 27, 2005 meeting in Boston, Mr. Prentiss individually contacted the members of the Prentiss board of trustees to inform them of the discussions at the Boston meeting.

On July 5, 2005, Brandywine and Prentiss entered into a confidentiality agreement to enable Brandywine and Prentiss to conduct additional due diligence in connection with the possible business combination. A series of meetings and conference calls were held thereafter, during which materials relating to Prentiss were provided to Brandywine and its representatives and advisors for evaluation. In addition, materials relating to the Prentiss assets and related debt were provided to Prudential and its representatives.

During June through August 2005, Prentiss held various discussions with Lazard and another REIT regarding a potential business combination. At a meeting on July 18, 2005, the Prentiss board of trustees met with representatives of Lazard and Prentiss' legal advisors and discussed the strategic rationale for a combination with each of the REITs and Brandywine. In this meeting, the Prentiss board reviewed with its financial and legal advisors the potential benefits and risks of the combinations. The Prentiss board considered the retention of management and the employees of Prentiss as an important aspect of successful integration in a merger context.

Back to Contents

Following the July 18 Prentiss board meeting, with authorization from Prentiss, Lazard approached Brandywine and the other public REIT that had executed a confidentiality agreement with Prentiss, as well as their respective advisors.

On July 21, 2005, Mr. August advised Mr. Sweeney that the Prentiss board was receptive to receiving an acquisition proposal from Brandywine. Later on July 21, 2005, Mr. Sweeney updated the Brandywine board on the communication from Mr. August. Mr. Sweeney also indicated that he would coordinate with JPMorgan and Prudential a schedule for due diligence and valuation analyses related to the Prentiss portfolio that would form the basis for a Brandywine acquisition offer, coupled with a concurrent acquisition by Prudential of a portion of the Prentiss properties.

During July and August 2005, representatives of Brandywine, Prentiss and Prudential held numerous meetings and conference calls that addressed financial, legal and tax due diligence. In addition, representatives of Prentiss and Brandywine held meetings and conference calls during this period.

Also during July and August 2005, Brandywine and Prudential conducted a significant portion of their respective due diligence activities relating to Prentiss. These activities included lease reviews, tenant credit reviews, analyses of anticipated capital costs within the Prentiss portfolio, site tours of all of the Prentiss properties, market studies, including studies containing information on population trends, rental rates, occupancy levels and zoning and other barriers to additional supply of new properties, Prentiss’ capitalization methodology, general and administrative costs, the status of the sale of the Prentiss Midwest portfolio and the Prentiss organizational structure. Brandywine also reviewed with Prudential its experiences in each of the Prentiss submarkets.

On August 11, 2005, Mr. August met with Mr. Sweeney in Dallas to discuss progress on the structure of the transaction and also discuss the Dallas portfolio.

On August 24, 2005, together with their advisors, Prentiss met with Brandywine senior management and Prudential senior investment officers at Lazard’s offices to discuss in greater detail the Midwest disposition, capital, joint venture arrangements, personnel and other diligence topics.

On August 26, 2005, Mr. Sweeney held a conference call with the Brandywine board of trustees to update the board on management’s due diligence activities and discussions with Prentiss and Prudential.

In late August, and following several discussions between Prentiss and the other public REIT, Lazard had valuation discussions with the other public REIT’s advisors, who indicated that their client was not in a position at that time to make a proposal that would satisfy Prentiss’ financial and strategic objectives.

On August 31, 2005, the Brandywine board of trustees held a meeting at which Mr. Sweeney, together with representatives of JPMorgan and Pepper Hamilton LLP, Brandywine’s legal counsel, provided an update on the proposed combination with Prentiss. As part of this meeting, the board reviewed the status of the discussions with Prentiss and Prudential, preliminary asset valuations and asset allocations between Brandywine and Prudential, and the financial and strategic implications of the transaction for Brandywine. The board also discussed the treatment of Prentiss employees and post-acquisition integration activities.

On September 8, 2005, the Brandywine board again met with Mr. Sweeney, together with other members of executive management of Brandywine and representatives of JPMorgan and Pepper Hamilton LLP. In this meeting, the Board again addressed the financial and strategic implications of the proposed combination, including: (i) Brandywine’s due diligence of Prentiss and its properties, (ii) the preliminary range of potential terms of the Mergers (including the amount and form of merger consideration), (iii) tax aspects of the Mergers, (iv) Prudential’s involvement as a purchaser of a portion of the Prentiss assets and the status of discussions between Brandywine and Prudential relative to asset valuations, asset splits and due diligence, (v) sources and uses of funds, (vi) expected handling of Prentiss employees and post-acquisition integration activities, (vii) anticipated transaction costs and (viii) terms of a proposed merger agreement. Following discussion, the Board unanimously authorized the submission of a non-binding offer letter to Prentiss, together with a draft merger agreement.

Back to Contents

On September 9, 2005, Brandywine submitted to Prentiss a non-binding proposal for an acquisition by Brandywine of Prentiss. The proposal indicated that both the Brandywine board and Prudential had authorized the submission of the proposal. The letter contemplated that Brandywine would acquire each outstanding Prentiss common share for $21.25 in cash and $21.25 in Brandywine common shares. The letter addressed the integration of the Prentiss regional offices within the combined company, including Brandywine’s plans for integrating senior Prentiss executives with the combined company. Brandywine’s letter identified the confirmatory due diligence it and Prudential would expect to complete prior to entering into definitive agreements. Included with the letter was a draft merger agreement.

Prior to submitting the offer letter on September 9, 2005, Brandywine and Prudential had reached an understanding of the properties that Prudential would likely acquire as part of the transaction. This understanding, reached after each party had independently completed its property-by-property underwriting and valuation, reflected a variety of considerations, including the submarket preferences of the parties, anticipated operating efficiencies associated with property allocations, and the ease of assimilation of the Prentiss joint ventures and debt financings.

On September 11, 2005, representatives from Pepper Hamilton LLP, KPMG LLP and JPMorgan, on behalf of Brandywine, representatives from Akin Gump Strauss Hauer & Feld LLP, Ernst & Young LLP and Lazard, on behalf of Prentiss, and representatives from Goodwin Proctor LLP, on behalf of Prudential, addressed tax issues associated with different approaches to Brandywine’s proposed acquisition of Prentiss, coupled with a concurrent disposition of selected assets and markets to Prudential.

During the week of September 12, 2005, Prentiss raised issues with the initial offer of $42.50 and countered with $43.50.

On September 12, 2005, Brandywine and Prentiss and their respective representatives held conference calls to discuss the initial draft of the merger agreement. Representatives of the parties addressed several issues, including the desirability of a fixed exchange ratio, the implications of a cash-share election feature versus a pre-established split of cash and shares as part of the merger consideration, break-up fees and an alternative termination fee payable by either party upon satisfaction of certain conditions. Prentiss also requested that it be entitled to appoint two members to Brandywine’s board of trustees following the REIT Merger.

From September 13 through September 16, 2005, the parties continued to negotiate the terms of the merger agreement and perform due diligence. Brandywine and its financial, legal and tax representatives engaged in several discussions with Prentiss regarding the benefits and feasibility of a tax deferred transaction.

On September 16, 2005, Akin, Gump Strauss Hauer & Feld LLP, counsel to Prentiss, distributed a revised draft of the proposed merger agreement to Pepper Hamilton LLP, counsel to Brandywine.

On September 19, 2005, Brandywine and Prentiss and their respective representatives held a conference call to discuss the merger agreement.

On September 20, 2005, Pepper Hamilton LLP distributed a revised draft of the proposed merger agreement to Akin Gump Strauss Hauer & Feld LLP.

Recommendation of the Brandywine Board of Trustees and Brandywine's Reasons for the REIT Merger

Recommendation of Brandywine's Board of Trustees.

Brandywine's board of trustees has unanimously approved the merger agreement, the REIT Merger and the related transactions and declared that the merger agreement, the REIT Merger and the related transactions are advisable and fair to, and in the best interests of, Brandywine and its shareholders. Brandywine's board of trustees unanimously recommends that Brandywine common shareholders vote "FOR" approval of the issuance of Brandywine common shares to be issued under and as contemplated by the merger agreement.

Brandywine's Reasons for the REIT Merger.

In determining whether to approve the merger agreement, the REIT Merger and the related transactions, Brandywine's board of trustees considered a variety of factors that might impact the short-term and long-term interests of Brandywine and its shareholders. As part of its deliberations, Brandywine's board of trustees took into consideration the support of the Mergers by Brandywine's senior management and considered the historical, recent and prospective financial condition, results of operations, property holdings, share price, capitalization, and operating, strategic and financial risks of Brandywine and Prentiss, considered separately for each entity and on a combined basis for the combined company.

In its determination, Brandywine's board consulted with Brandywine senior management, as well as its financial and legal advisors, and considered a number of factors, including, among others, the following positive factors (the order does not reflect the relative significance):

- Strategic Expansion in Select Markets. The opportunity for the combined company to replicate Brandywine's regional approach to owning and managing real estate in three dynamic markets where Prentiss has a strong presence: Metro Washington, D.C., Oakland, California and Austin, Texas, each of which is projected to have higher rental rate and job growth characteristics than Brandywine's current markets.

- Continuity of Operations Through Experienced Management Teams. The continuation, with the combined company, of key Prentiss executives having a deep and extensive knowledge of the markets where Brandywine will concentrate its post-merger activities, and the expectation that the continuation will promote an efficient integration of Brandywine and Prentiss.

Back to Contents

- Efficiency of a Portfolio Acquisition. The opportunity to acquire through a single transaction a portfolio of high-quality properties, together with an experienced management team, that could not be easily replicated through acquisitions of individual assets.

- Increased Development Pipeline. The value-added development opportunities in high growth markets afforded to Brandywine by the developable land owned by Prentiss.

- Diversification of Property Portfolio. The benefit to Brandywine's credit profile from its ownership of properties having a larger and more diverse tenant base.

- Additional Capital Deployment Opportunities. The ability of the combined company to generate internal capital and to deploy its capital in an increased number of core-targeted markets, affording the combined company more consistent avenues of growth.

- Capital Recycling Opportunities. The reinvestment opportunities that result from dispositions of, or joint venture arrangements in, select properties within the combined portfolio which will provide the combined company internal capital to grow its asset base in core targeted markets.

- Expansion of Relationships with Third Parties including Prudential Properties and Stichting Pensioenfond ABP. The expectation that the relationships formed in the REIT Merger, including through Brandywine's engagement to manage and lease Prudential Properties following the REIT Merger and Prentiss' joint venture relationship with Stichting Pensioenfond ABP, will generate additional investment opportunities.

- Positive Rating Agency Reaction. The report of Brandywine's management based on conversations with the rating agencies to the effect that the rating agencies viewed the transaction favorably and would likely affirm Brandywine's ratings, giving effect to the REIT Merger.

- Per Share Accretion. The anticipated accretion to Brandywine's per share funds from operations beginning in 2006.

- Greater Financial Flexibility and Liquidity. The expected increased access to debt and equity capital and acquisition opportunities, and greater liquidity for Brandywine's shareholders, resulting from the geographic diversity and additional balance sheet capacity that the REIT Merger will provide.

- Opinion of Financial Advisor. JPMorgan's opinion dated October 2, 2005 that, as of that date and based upon and subject to the factors and assumptions set forth in its opinion, the Brandywine Consideration to be paid by Brandywine in the proposed Transactions for the Pro Forma Company was fair, from a financial point of view, to Brandywine, and the related financial presentation presented to the board of trustees of Brandywine in connection therewith.

Brandywine's board of trustees recognized that there are risks associated with the Mergers and the merger agreement, including the following risks (the order does not reflect the relative significance):

- Integration Risks. The operations, technologies and personnel of the two companies may not be successfully integrated. The Mergers will include risks commonly associated with similar transactions, including unanticipated liabilities, unanticipated costs and diversion of management's attention. The combined company may also experience operational interruptions or the loss of key employees or customers.

- Uncertainty as to Accretion. The combined company may not realize the accretion to per share funds from operations that Brandywine expects from the Mergers. It is possible that the Mergers may be dilutive to per share funds from operations or one or more other measures of the combined company's financial performance in the future. Future events that could reduce or eliminate such accretion or cause such dilution include adverse changes in:

  - the expected costs of the Mergers and the expected costs of integrating the Prentiss business with Brandywine's business;

  - the combined company's ability to achieve anticipated cost savings from the Mergers; and

- general economic conditions and their effect on the REIT industry, including the combined company.

- Expenses of the Mergers. Brandywine and Prentiss are expected to incur one-time, pre-tax closing costs of approximately $55.5 million in connection with the Mergers and one-time pre-tax expenses of approximately $40.4 million related to change in control payments to Prentiss executive officers under existing employment agreements that are triggered by the REIT Merger. Brandywine also expects to incur one-time, pre-tax cash and non-cash costs related to the integration of Brandywine and Prentiss, which cannot be estimated at this time. The combined company may incur additional unanticipated costs and expenses in connection with the Mergers.

- Possible Repayment/ Refinancing of Debt of Prentiss. Consummation of the Mergers could trigger a mandatory prepayment (including a penalty in some cases) of Prentiss' debt unless appropriate lender consents or waivers are received. If those consents and waivers cannot be obtained prior to consummation of the Mergers, the existing debt of Prentiss might need to be repaid and/or refinanced. This may result in higher than-anticipated transaction expenses to Brandywine.

- Fixed Merger Consideration. The exchange ratio is fixed and will not fluctuate as a result of changes in the price of Brandywine common shares or Prentiss common shares. Changes in the price of Brandywine common shares and/or Prentiss common shares could cause the premium being paid by Brandywine to acquire Prentiss to increase.

Back to Contents

- Termination Fee. Brandywine may be required to pay a termination fee of $12.5 million and up to $6 million in termination expenses to Prentiss plus reimbursement for unrecoverable out-of-pocket expenses and any lost deposits related to Prentiss' termination of a proposed loan related to its Barton Skyway property if the merger agreement is terminated because Brandywine fails to fulfill its obligations under the merger agreement, including calling or holding a special meeting of its shareholders, or Brandywine's common shareholders do not approve the proposal for the issuance of Brandywine common shares at the Brandywine special meeting. See "The Merger Agreement—Termination."

- Other Negative Factors. The Brandywine board of trustees also considered the other risks of the Mergers described in "Risk Factors—Risks Relating to the Mergers."

The above discussion of the factors considered by Brandywine's board of trustees is not intended to be exhaustive, but does set forth the principal positive and negative factors considered by the board. Brandywine's board of trustees approved the merger agreement, the Mergers and the related transactions and recommended approval by Brandywine's shareholders of the issuance of Brandywine common shares to be issued under and as contemplated by the merger agreement in light of the various factors described above and other factors that each member of Brandywine's board of trustees believed to be appropriate.

In view of the wide variety of factors considered by Brandywine's board of trustees with its evaluation of the REIT Merger and the complexity of these matters, Brandywine's board of trustees did not consider it practical and did not attempt to quantify, rank or otherwise assign relative weights to the specific factors it considered in reaching its decision. Rather, Brandywine's board of trustees made its recommendation based on the totality of information presented to and the investigation conducted by it. In considering the factors discussed above, individual trustees may have given different weights to different factors.

Recommendation of the Prentiss Board of Trustees and the Reasons of Prentiss for the REIT Merger

Recommendation of the Prentiss Board of Trustees.

The Prentiss board of trustees has unanimously approved the merger agreement, the REIT Merger and the related transactions and declared that the merger agreement, the REIT Merger and the related transactions are advisable and fair to, and in the best interests of, Prentiss and its shareholders. The Prentiss board of trustees unanimously recommends that Prentiss common shareholders vote "FOR" the approval of the merger agreement, the REIT Merger and the related transactions.

In determining whether to vote "FOR" the approval of the merger agreement, the REIT Merger and the related transactions, Prentiss common shareholders should be aware that some members of the Prentiss board of trustees, as well as some Prentiss executive officers, have or may have interests in the Mergers that may differ from, or are in addition to, the interests of Prentiss common shareholders generally. See "—Interests of the Prentiss Executive Officers and Trustees in the Mergers."

Prentiss' Reasons for the REIT Merger.

In determining whether to approve the merger agreement, the REIT Merger and the related transactions, the Prentiss board of trustees considered a variety of factors that might impact the long-term as well as short-term interests of Prentiss and its shareholders. As part of its deliberations, the Prentiss board of trustees took into consideration the support of the REIT Merger by senior management of Prentiss and considered the historical, recent and prospective financial condition, results of operations, property holdings, share price, capitalization, and operating, strategic and financial risks of Prentiss and Brandywine, considered separately for each entity and on a combined basis for the combined company.

In making the determination described above, the Prentiss board of trustees consulted with Prentiss' senior management, as well as its financial and legal advisors, and considered a number of factors, including, among others, the following positive factors (the order does not reflect the relative significance):

- Strength of Combined Company. The Prentiss board of trustees' belief that the combination of Prentiss and Brandywine allows Prentiss common shareholders to participate in a stronger combined company based on the anticipated greater operational and financial flexibility of the combined company. The Prentiss board of trustees also considered the scale, scope, strength and diversification of markets and expected synergies that could be achieved by combining Prentiss and Brandywine.

- Exchange Ratio; Cash Consideration. Prentiss believes it is beneficial that the exchange ratio is fixed and that it will not fluctuate as a result of changes in the price of Brandywine common shares or Prentiss common shares.

- Premium. The premium, which was approximately 5.8% based on the closing sales price per Prentiss common share on September 30, 2005 (the last full trading day before the proposed REIT Merger was announced), that Prentiss common shareholders would receive for their Prentiss common shares in the REIT Merger.

- Terms of the Merger Agreement. The terms of the merger agreement, including:

  - that each Prentiss common share will be converted into the right to receive $21.50 in cash and 0.69 of a Brandywine common share;

  - that the Prentiss board of trustees has the right to respond to, and engage in discussions or negotiations regarding, unsolicited third party proposals for competing transactions under specified circumstances if the Prentiss board of trustees concludes in good faith that the proposal is reasonably likely to result in a superior proposal;

  - the fact that the completion of the REIT Merger is not conditioned on Brandywine or Prentiss obtaining third party consents, governmental approvals or financing; and

  - The requirement for Brandywine to pay a $12.5 million termination fee and up to $6 million in termination expenses to Prentiss plus reimbursement for unrecoverable out-of-pocket expenses and any lost deposits related to Prentiss' termination of a proposed loan related to its Barton Skyway property if the merger agreement is terminated because Brandywine fails to fulfill its obligations under the merger agreement, including calling or holding a special meeting of its shareholders, or Brandywine's common shareholders do not approve the proposal for the issuance of Brandywine common shares at the Brandywine special meeting. See "The Merger Agreement—Termination."

Back to Contents

- Board Representation. Two current members of the Prentiss board of trustees, Michael V. Prentiss and Thomas F. August, will serve for a period of time on the board of trustees of the combined company.

- Due Diligence Review. The results of the due diligence review of, among other things, Brandywine’s business and operations, financial condition and management practices and procedures, conducted on behalf of Prentiss by Prentiss’ financial, accounting and legal advisors, as well as senior management.

- Opinion of Financial Advisor. The Prentiss board of trustees also considered the financial presentation of Lazard, including its opinion, dated October 3, 2005, that the per share consideration of $21.50 in cash, plus 0.69 Brandywine shares to be paid to Prentiss’ common shareholders pursuant to the merger agreement (including, if the Reverse REIT Merger is to be consummated pursuant to the merger agreement, the payment of the Special Dividend) is fair from a financial point of view to the Prentiss’ public holders of Prentiss common shares, as more fully described elsewhere in this joint proxy statement/prospectus. Please see “The Mergers Opinion of Prentiss’ Financial Advisor, Lazard Frères & Co. LLC.”

The Prentiss board of trustees also considered the following potentially negative factors, among others, in determining whether to approve the merger agreement, the REIT Merger and the related transactions (the order does not reflect the relative significance):

- Exchange Ratio. A significant portion of the consideration to be received by Prentiss common shareholders will be in the form of Brandywine common shares at a conversion rate that does not adjust to account for fluctuations in the market price of Brandywine common shares between signing and closing.

- Effect on Retaining Employees. The potential negative effect on the ability of Prentiss to retain key employees as a result of the public announcement of the Mergers or, possibly, the termination of the merger agreement.

- Integration Risks. The operations, technologies and personnel of the two companies may not be successfully integrated. The Mergers will include risks commonly associated with similar transactions, including unanticipated liabilities, unanticipated costs and diversion of management’s attention. The combined company may also experience operational interruptions or the loss of key employees or customers.

- Geographic Risk. The Mergers will expose the combined company to the general economic conditions of new markets in which Brandywine was not previously involved. The Mergers will result in significant expansion of Brandywine’s market focus from Philadelphia, Pennsylvania; Wilmington, Delaware; Southern and Central New Jersey; and Richmond, Virginia to include Metropolitan Washington, D.C., Dallas/Fort Worth, Austin, Oakland, Silicon Valley, San Diego and Los Angeles.

Back to Contents

- Risk That the Mergers Will not be Completed. The potential for significant loss of value by Prentiss common shareholders, as well as the potential negative impact upon the operations and prospects of an independent Prentiss, in the event that the Mergers are not completed, resulting from, among other things:
  - the significant costs and substantial management time and effort devoted to negotiation and consummation of the Mergers;
  - the requirement for Prentiss to pay a termination fee of $12.5 million or $60 million to Brandywine under certain specified circumstances; and
  - the requirement for Prentiss to pay termination expenses of up to $6 million to Brandywine under certain specified circumstances.
- Interests of Certain Prentiss Trustees and Executive Officers. The Prentiss board of trustees considered the potential benefits to certain of Prentiss' trustees and executive officers, including severance payments and acceleration of vesting of options. See "Interests of Prentiss' Executive Officers and Trustees in the Mergers".

The above discussion of the factors considered by the Prentiss board of trustees is not intended to be exhaustive, but does set forth the principal positive and negative factors considered by the Prentiss board of trustees. The Prentiss board of trustees unanimously approved the merger agreement, the REIT Merger and the related transactions and recommended the approval of the merger agreement, the REIT Merger and the related transactions by the Prentiss common shareholders in light of the various factors described above and other factors that each member of the Prentiss board of trustees felt were appropriate.

In view of the wide variety of factors considered by the Prentiss board of trustees in connection with its evaluation of the REIT Merger and the complexity of these matters, the Prentiss board of trustees did not consider it practical and did not attempt to quantify, rank or otherwise assign relative weights to the specific factors it considered in reaching its decision. Rather, the Prentiss board of trustees made its recommendation based on the totality of information presented to and the investigation conducted by it. In considering the factors discussed above, individual trustees may have given different weights to different factors.

Opinion of Brandywine's Financial Advisor, JPMorgan

At a meeting of the board of trustees of Brandywine on October 2, 2005, JPMorgan rendered its oral opinion to the Brandywine board of trustees that, as of that date and based upon and subject to the factors and assumptions set forth in its opinion, the Brandywine Consideration to be paid by Brandywine in the proposed Transactions (as defined in the next paragraph) for the Pro Forma Company (as defined in the next paragraph) was fair, from a financial point of view, to Brandywine. JPMorgan confirmed its oral opinion by delivering a written opinion dated October 2, 2005.

Back to Contents

For purposes of JPMorgan's opinion "Transactions" means one of two alternative structures provided for by the merger agreement and master agreement (collectively, the "Agreements"), each including a series of mergers and other transactions, pursuant to and after giving effect to which: (i) Prudential will acquire, directly or indirectly, the Prentiss Properties (the "Prudential Transaction") for $747.7 million in cash and assumed debt, subject to a potential $150.0 million reduction to as low as $597.7 million in cash and assumed debt (the "Prudential Adjustment") if Prudential elects to "drop properties" (as referred to in the master agreement) and not to acquire certain of the Prentiss Properties as contemplated in the Agreements (Prentiss, after giving effect to such series of transactions including the Prudential Transaction and Prudential Adjustment, if applicable, and any related dividends, distributions or exchanges, and including all the outstanding equity interests of Prentiss Operating Partnership, hereinafter referred to as the "Pro Forma Company"); and (ii) Brandywine and/or Brandywine Operating Partnership will acquire, directly or indirectly, all of the outstanding equity interest of the Pro Forma Company. Also, for purposes of JPMorgan's opinion "Brandywine Consideration" means the consideration to be paid by Brandywine and/or Brandywine Operating Partnership to the shareholders of Prentiss and the holders of Prentiss Operating Partnership common units in the Transactions for the acquisition of the Pro Forma Company which will consist of, in the aggregate, up to $424 million in cash and 35.5 million Brandywine common shares, subject to (i) increases or decreases in the number of outstanding Prentiss common shares and Prentiss Operating Partnership common units permitted under the Agreements, if any, and adjustments for any share splits or similar events with respect to Prentiss common shares and Brandywine common shares as contemplated in the Agreements; and (ii) a potential increase of the cash amount of $424 million to be paid by Brandywine to the shareholders of Prentiss and the holders of Prentiss Operating Partnership common units in the event of the Prudential Adjustment, if applicable, to the extent of the cash portion of such adjustment.

The full text of the written opinion of JPMorgan, which sets forth, among other things, the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken by JPMorgan in connection with the opinion, is attached to this joint proxy statement/prospectus as Annex D and is incorporated in this joint proxy statement/prospectus by reference. Holders of Brandywine common shares are urged to, and should, read JPMorgan's opinion carefully and in its entirety. The summary of JPMorgan's opinion set forth in this joint proxy statement/prospectus is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the written opinion attached to this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

JPMorgan's opinion is limited to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to Brandywine of the Brandywine Consideration to be paid in the proposed Transactions for the Pro Forma Company as contemplated by the Agreements. JPMorgan's opinion does not address any other aspect of the Transactions and does not constitute an opinion as to the fairness of the Transactions (or any consideration paid therein) to holders of any class of securities, creditors or other constituencies of Brandywine or Brandywine Operating Partnership or as to the underlying decision by Brandywine or Brandywine Operating Partnership to engage in the Transactions. Moreover, JPMorgan expressed no opinion as to the price at which Brandywine common shares or Prentiss common shares will trade at any future time. The JPMorgan opinion is not a recommendation as to how any holder of Brandywine common shares should vote with respect to the Transactions or any other matter.

Back to Contents

In arriving at its opinion, JPMorgan, among other things:

- reviewed drafts dated September 30, 2005 of the Agreements,

- reviewed certain publicly available business and financial information concerning Prentiss, the Pro Forma Company and Brandywine and the industries in which they operate,

- compared the proposed financial terms of the Transactions with the publicly available financial terms of certain transactions involving companies JPMorgan deemed relevant and the consideration received for such companies,

- compared the financial and operating performance of the Pro Forma Company and Brandywine with publicly available information concerning certain other companies JPMorgan deemed relevant and reviewed the current and historical market prices of Prentiss common shares and Brandywine common shares and certain publicly traded securities of such other companies,

- reviewed certain internal financial analyses and forecasts prepared and/or reviewed by the managements of Prentiss and Brandywine relating to the businesses of the Pro Forma Company and prepared by the management of Brandywine relating to the business of Brandywine, including the estimated amount and timing of the cost savings and related expenses and synergies expected to result from the Transactions (the "Synergies"), and

- performed such other financial studies and analyses and considered such other information as JPMorgan deemed appropriate for the purposes of its opinion.

JPMorgan also held discussions with certain members of the management of Prentiss and Brandywine with respect to certain aspects of the Transactions, and the past and current business operations of Prentiss, the Pro Forma Company and Brandywine, the financial condition and future prospects and operations of Prentiss, the Pro Forma Company and Brandywine, the effects of the Transactions on the financial condition and future prospects of the Pro Forma Company and Brandywine, and certain other matters that JPMorgan believed necessary or appropriate to its inquiry.

JPMorgan relied upon and assumed, without assuming responsibility or liability for independent verification, the accuracy and completeness of all information that was publicly available or was furnished to or discussed with it by Prentiss and Brandywine or otherwise reviewed by or for it. JPMorgan did not conduct, nor was it provided with, any valuation or appraisal of any assets or liabilities, nor did it evaluate the solvency of Prentiss, the Pro Forma Company or Brandywine under any state or federal laws relating to bankruptcy, insolvency or similar matters. In relying on financial analyses and forecasts provided to it, including the Synergies, JPMorgan assumed that they were reasonably prepared based on assumptions reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments by management as to the expected future results of operations and financial condition of the Pro Forma Company and Brandywine to which such analyses or forecasts relate. JPMorgan expressed no view as to such analyses or forecasts (including the Synergies) or the assumptions on which they were based. JPMorgan also assumed that the Transactions will have the tax consequences as specified to it by the management of Brandywine and its counsel, and that the Transactions contemplated by the Agreements, including the Prudential Transaction, will be consummated as described in the Agreements (without there occurring any swaps, exchanges or substitutions of properties constituting the Prentiss Properties potentially contemplated by the merger agreement and without Brandywine having elected to pay to Prudential any excess amounts for Eligible Remediation Costs (as defined in the master agreement), in each case, to the extent that could be material to its analysis), and that the definitive Agreements will not differ in any material respects from the drafts thereof furnished to it. JPMorgan also assumed that (i) in all aspects which could be material to its analysis, the previously announced dispositions by Prentiss of its properties in the Chicago area and Detroit area, or substantial equivalents thereof, would be consummated prior to the acquisition of the Pro Forma Company by Brandywine; (ii) as Brandywine instructed JPMorgan, for purposes of its analysis, the impact on the Pro Forma Company of any of the Prentiss Properties being "dropped" as part of a Prudential Adjustment shall be deemed to be an increase to reflect the relevant financial contribution of the "dropped" Prentiss Properties equaling the product of (x) the percentage amount of the Prentiss Properties "dropped" and (y) the blended aggregate of the relevant financial contribution of the Prentiss Properties taken as a whole; (iii) any cash or Brandywine common shares that may be provided by Brandywine to Brandywine Operating Partnership for purposes of the Transactions will not result in any dilution of Brandywine's equity interest in Brandywine Operating Partnership; and (iv) JPMorgan assumed for purposes of its analysis that all Series D preferred shares will be converted into Prentiss common shares. JPMorgan relied as to all legal matters relevant to rendering its opinion upon the advice of counsel. JPMorgan further assumed that all material governmental, regulatory or other consents and approvals necessary for the consummation of the Transactions would be obtained without any adverse effect on the Pro Forma Company or Brandywine or on the contemplated benefits of the Transactions.

These companies were selected, among other reasons, because of their specialization in the office REIT sector, geographic location, asset quality, market capitalization and capital structure. For each comparable company, JPMorgan analyzed financial performance data that was publicly available through September 29, 2005. JPMorgan calculated the multiples of stock price as of September 29, 2005 to Wall Street equity analysts' estimates for 2006 consensus funds from operations ("FFO") as reported by First Call for each of these companies to determine estimated 2006 FFO trading multiples. The following table presents the summary results of this analysis:

	Price/FFO
Average	13.0x
High	17.1x
Low	9.6x

JPMorgan selected a range of multiples around the 2006 FFO median value for each multiple, resulting in a range of 12.0x to 14.0x. These multiples were then applied to the Pro Forma Company's 2006 FFO per fully diluted share estimate based on Prentiss management's projections yielding an estimated range of implied equity values for the Pro Forma Company fully diluted shares (assuming in all cases completion of the Prudential Transaction, the "Pro Forma Company shares") of approximately $28.49 to $33.24 per share, which represented an estimated range of implied firm values for the Pro Forma Company of approximately $2,422 million to $2,666 million. For purposes of calculating firm values for the Pro Forma Company ("Pro Forma Company firm value"), based on estimates provided by Prentiss management, JPMorgan assumed 51.4 million Prentiss fully diluted shares ("Prentiss shares"). For purposes of calculating firm values for the Pro Forma Company ("Pro Forma Company firm value"), based on estimates provided by Prentiss management, JPMorgan assumed 51.4 million Prentiss shares, $984.1 million of debt, $52.3 million of minority interest, $11.6 million in cash, $67.1 million of Prentiss assumed debt and excluded $104.1 million of transaction costs. The same analysis was done assuming a Prudential Adjustment of $150 million yielding an estimated range of implied equity values for the Pro Forma Company shares of approximately $30.75 to $35.88 per share, which represented an estimated range of implied Pro Forma Company firm values of approximately $2,511 million to $2,814 million.

	Offer Price/ Forward FFO per share

Pro Forma Company Discounted Cash Flow Analysis.

JPMorgan conducted a discounted cash flow analysis based on projections provided by Prentiss management, and reviewed by Brandywine management, for the purpose of determining an estimated range of implied equity values for the Pro Forma Company shares based on a valuation date of January 1, 2006. JPMorgan calculated the unlevered free cash flows that the Pro Forma Company is projected by Prentiss management to generate during the years ended 2006 through 2014. JPMorgan calculated an implied range of terminal values for the Pro Forma Company using a range of growth rates in perpetuity for free cash flows from 2.0% to 2.5% and a range of discount rates from 8.5% to 9.5%. The unlevered free cash flows and the range of terminal values were then discounted to present value using a range of discount rates from 8.5% to 9.5%. This analysis indicated an estimated range of implied equity values for the Pro Forma Company shares of approximately $27.46 to $37.37 per share, which represented an estimated range of implied Pro Forma Company firm values of approximately $2,264 million to $2,773 million. The same analysis was done assuming a Prudential Adjustment of $150 million and JPMorgan arrived at an estimated range of implied equity values for the Pro Forma Company shares of approximately $30.31 to $40.91 per share, which represented an estimated range of implied Pro Forma Company firm values of approximately $2,424 million to $2,968 million.

Pro Forma Company Gross NAV/ Share Analysis.

JPMorgan arrived at an estimated gross equity net asset value (“NAV”) by calculating a gross real estate value by applying capitalization rates of 7.2% and 7.6% to Prentiss management’s projections for the Pro Forma Company’s estimated 2006 real estate net operating income (“NOI”), adjusted by adding development assets, value from land, value of the management company, other assets and cash, less the Pro Forma Company’s total debt, preferred stock, mark-to market of secured debt, and other liabilities. The same analysis was done assuming a Prudential Adjustment of $150 million and JPMorgan arrived at an estimated range of implied equity values for the Pro Forma Company shares of approximately $31.81 to $34.52 per share, which represented an estimated range of implied Pro Forma Company firm values of approximately $2,605 million to $2,745 million. JPMorgan’s capitalization rate range was based on the weighted average capitalization rate for the stabilized portfolio based on a median of comparable asset sale transaction capitalization rates by relevant markets.

Pro Forma Company Liquidation NAV/ Share Analysis.

JPMorgan arrived at an estimated liquidation equity NAV by taking the estimated gross equity NAV less certain estimated transactions costs provided by Brandywine and Prentiss management and taking the present value of the estimated gross equity NAV assuming an average of twelve months to liquidate assets at a 12% discount rate. This analysis indicated an estimated range of implied equity values for the Pro Forma Company shares of approximately $28.03 to $30.59 per share, which represented an estimated range of implied Pro Forma Company firm values of approximately $2,398 million to $2,530 million. Pro Forma Combination Analysis.

Although the following analysis was not a basis for its opinion, JPMorgan also analyzed the pro forma impact of the Transactions on Brandywine's earnings per share, consolidated capitalization and financial ratios utilizing the projections for FFO and estimates provided by both Brandywine management and Prentiss management. Incorporating assumptions provided by Brandywine management including, with respect to various structural considerations, transaction and financing costs and Brandywine's estimated Synergies from the Transactions, the Transactions would be expected to be accretive to Brandywine's estimated FFO per share in 2006.

The foregoing summary of certain material financial analyses does not purport to be a complete description of the analyses or data presented by JPMorgan. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex process and is not necessarily susceptible to partial analysis or summary description. JPMorgan believes that the foregoing summary and its analyses must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of the foregoing summary and these analyses, without considering all of its analyses as a whole, could create an incomplete view of the processes underlying the analyses and its opinion. In arriving at its opinion, JPMorgan did not attribute any particular weight to any analyses or factors considered by it and did not form an opinion as to whether any individual analysis or factor (positive or negative), considered in isolation, supported or failed to support its opinion. Rather, JPMorgan considered the totality of the factors and analyses performed in determining its opinion. Analyses based upon forecasts of future results are inherently uncertain, as they are subject to numerous factors or events beyond the control of the parties and their advisors. Accordingly, forecasts and analyses used or made by JPMorgan are not necessarily indicative of actual future results, which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by those analyses. Moreover, JPMorgan's analyses are not and do not purport to be appraisals or otherwise reflective of the prices at which businesses actually could be bought or sold. None of the selected companies reviewed as described in the above summary is identical to Brandywine or the Pro Forma Company, and none of the selected transactions reviewed was identical to the Transactions. However, the companies selected were chosen because they are publicly traded companies with operations and businesses that, for purposes of JPMorgan's analysis, may be considered similar to those of Brandywine and the Pro Forma Company. The transactions selected were similarly chosen because their participants, size and other factors, for purposes of JPMorgan's analysis, may be considered similar to the Transactions. The analyses necessarily involve complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in financial and operational characteristics of the companies involved and other factors that could affect the companies compared to Brandywine and the Pro Forma Company and the transactions compared to the Transactions.

Back to Contents

JPMorgan’s opinion and financial analyses were only one of many factors considered by Brandywine’s board of trustees in its evaluation of the Transactions and should not be viewed as determinative of the views of Brandywine’s board of trustees or management with respect to the Transactions or the Brandywine Consideration.

As a part of its investment banking business, JPMorgan and its affiliates are continually engaged in the valuation of businesses and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions, investments for passive and control purposes, negotiated underwritings, secondary distributions of listed and unlisted securities, private placements, and valuations for estate, corporate and other purposes. JPMorgan and its affiliates have in the past provided investment banking and commercial banking services to Brandywine, Prudential and Prentiss Operating Partnership and their respective affiliates. Specifically, JPMorgan acted as private placement agent for Brandywine in connection with the placement of its debt securities in November 2004, as joint lead managing underwriter of Brandywine’s public offering of its debt securities in October 2004, and as joint arranger for Brandywine’s term loans in August 2004. JPMorgan’s commercial bank affiliate is a lender to Brandywine. In addition, JPMorgan and its commercial bank affiliate expect to arrange and/or provide a significant portion of Brandywine’s financing of the cash consideration to be paid by it in the Transactions. Specifically, with respect to Prentiss Operating Partnership, JPMorgan’s commercial bank affiliate is the administrative agent for Prentiss Operating Partnership’s revolving credit facility and a lender thereunder. In the ordinary course of its businesses, JPMorgan and its affiliates may actively trade the debt and equity securities of Brandywine, Prentiss or Prudential for its own account or for the accounts of customers and, accordingly, it may at any time hold long or short positions in such securities.

Brandywine selected JPMorgan to advise it and deliver a fairness opinion with respect to the Transactions on the basis of its experience and its familiarity with Brandywine. Pursuant to its engagement letter with JPMorgan, Brandywine has agreed to pay JPMorgan a fee of $8,250,000, a substantial portion of which is payable upon completion of the Transactions. In addition, Brandywine has agreed to reimburse JPMorgan for its expenses incurred in connection with its services, including the fees and disbursements of counsel, and will indemnify JPMorgan against certain liabilities, including liabilities arising under federal securities laws.

Opinion of Prentiss’ Financial Advisor, Lazard Frères & Co. LLC

Under a letter agreement dated December 14, 1998, which was reconfirmed on July 15, 2005, the board of trustees of Prentiss retained Lazard Frères & Co. LLC to act as its exclusive investment banker. As part of this engagement, the Prentiss board requested that Lazard evaluate the fairness, from a financial point of view, to the holders of Prentiss common shares (other than Brandywine and any affiliates of Brandywine, the “Prentiss Public Shareholders”) of the per share consideration of $21.50 in cash, plus 0.69 Brandywine common shares to be paid to the Prentiss public shareholders pursuant to the merger agreement (including, if the Reverse REIT Merger is to be consummated, the payment of the Special Dividend), which Lazard referred to as the REIT Merger Consideration. Lazard has delivered to the Prentiss board a written opinion dated October 3, 2005, that, as of that date, the REIT Merger Consideration to be paid to the Prentiss Public Shareholders pursuant to the merger agreement was fair to such Prentiss Public Shareholders from a financial point of view.

The full text of the Lazard opinion is attached as Annex E to this joint proxy statement/prospectus and is incorporated herein by reference. The description of the Lazard opinion set forth herein is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Lazard opinion set forth in Annex E. Prentiss shareholders are urged to read the Lazard opinion in its entirety for a description of the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken by Lazard in connection therewith. Lazard’s written opinion is directed to the Prentiss board of trustees and only addresses the fairness to the Prentiss Public Shareholders of the REIT Merger Consideration to be paid pursuant to the merger agreement from a financial point of view as of the date of the opinion. Lazard’s written opinion does not address any other aspect of the REIT Merger or any related transactions and does not constitute a recommendation to any Prentiss shareholder as to how the shareholder should vote on any matter relating to the REIT Merger. The following is only a summary of the Lazard opinion. Shareholders are urged to read the entire opinion.

In preparing its opinion, Lazard recognized that the merger agreement contemplated that the REIT Merger Consideration could result from either

- a single step merger transaction, which Lazard referred to as the One Step Merger, in which Prentiss is merged with and into Brandywine Cognac I, LLC pursuant to which Prentiss common shares held by Prentiss Public Shareholders would be converted into the right to receive aggregate per share consideration equal to $21.50 in cash plus .69 of a Brandywine common share, or

- a two step transaction, which Lazard refers to as the Two Step Merger, in which Prentiss sells the Prudential Properties to Prudential and declares a Special Dividend on its common shares to distribute a portion of the proceeds from the Prudential Acquisition, followed by the REIT Merger of Brandywine Cognac I, LLC with and into Prentiss pursuant to which Prentiss common shares held by Prentiss Public Shareholders would be converted into the right to receive Second Step Merger Consideration per share of an amount in cash equal to the excess of $21.50 over the per share amount of the Special Dividend declared on the Prentiss common shares, plus .69 of a Brandywine common share.

In the course of performing its review and analysis for rendering its opinion, Lazard:

- reviewed the financial terms and conditions of the merger agreement;
- analyzed certain historical business and financial information relating to Prentiss and Brandywine;
- reviewed various financial forecasts and other data provided to Lazard by Prentiss and Brandywine as to the future financial performance of Prentiss and Brandywine, respectively, and of Brandywine with respect to the combined entity;
- held discussions with members of the senior managements of Prentiss and Brandywine with respect to the business and prospects of Prentiss and Brandywine, respectively, and the strategic objectives of each;
- reviewed public information with respect to certain other companies in lines of businesses Lazard believed to be generally comparable to the businesses of Prentiss and Brandywine;
- reviewed the financial terms of certain business combinations involving companies in lines of businesses Lazard believed to be generally comparable to those of Prentiss and Brandywine;
- reviewed the historical stock prices and trading volumes of the Prentiss common shares and Brandywine common shares; and
- conducted such other financial studies, analyses and investigations as Lazard deemed appropriate.

Lazard relied upon the accuracy and completeness of the foregoing information and did not assume any responsibility for any independent verification of such information or an independent valuation or appraisal of any of the assets or liabilities of Prentiss or Brandywine, or concerning the solvency of, or issues relating to solvency concerning, Prentiss or Brandywine. With respect to financial forecasts, Lazard assumed that they were reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the best then currently available estimates and judgments of management of Prentiss and Brandywine as to the future financial performance of Prentiss and of Brandywine, respectively, and of Brandywine with respect to the combined entity. Lazard assumed no responsibility for and expressed no view as to the forecasts provided to Lazard or as to the assumptions on which they were based.

Lazard was not asked to consider, and Lazard’s opinion did not address, the relative merits of the REIT Merger as compared to any alternative potential transaction or Prentiss’ underlying decision to effect the transaction. Lazard also noted that its opinion was necessarily based on economic, monetary, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to Lazard as of, the date of its opinion. Lazard assumed no responsibility for updating or revising its opinion based on circumstances or events occurring after the date of its opinion.

Lazard also assumed that the REIT Merger would be consummated on the terms and subject to the conditions described in the merger agreement, without any waiver or modification of any material terms or conditions by Prentiss, and that obtaining the necessary regulatory approvals for the proposed transaction would not have an adverse effect on Prentiss, Brandywine or the combined entity. Lazard also assumed that (i) based on information provided by Brandywine’s financial advisors, the sale of the Prudential Properties will result in gross sale proceeds of approximately $750 million, and (ii) if the REIT Merger is accomplished as a One Step Merger, the Prudential Acquisition will be consummated by Brandywine at the effective time of the REIT Merger. Furthermore, with respect to its analysis of a potential Two Step Merger, Lazard, with the consent of the Prentiss board of trustees, viewed all of the steps of the Two Step Merger as a single transaction and assumed that there will be no difference between the holders of Prentiss common shares entitled to receive the Special Dividend and those entitled to receive the Second Step Merger Consideration.

Back to Contents

Lazard did not express any opinion as to the price at which the common shares of Prentiss or the Brandywine common shares may trade subsequent to the announcement of the merger agreement or as to the price at which the Brandywine common shares may trade subsequent to the consummation of the REIT Merger. Furthermore, Lazard did not express any opinion as to the terms of the Partnership Merger, the Prudential Acquisition or the consideration to be received by a holder of shares of Prentiss Series D preferred shares, and noted that they were not involved in any way in advising on or negotiating the financial terms of the Prudential Acquisition. Additionally, Lazard did not express any opinion as to any tax or other consequences that might result from the contemplated transactions, nor did its opinion address any legal, tax, regulatory or accounting matters, it being Lazard's understanding that the Prentiss' board of trustees obtained such advice on these areas as it deemed necessary from qualified professionals.

The following is a brief summary of the material financial and comparative analyses which Lazard deemed to be appropriate for this type of transaction and that were performed by Lazard in connection with rendering its opinion.

The dividend discount analysis was based on financial forecasts for Prentiss provided by the management of Prentiss. This analysis was based on a range of discount rates from 8.0% to 10.0% and a terminal value of Prentiss common shares based on a price to FFO multiple range of 10.0x to 13.0x to 2011 projected FFO. Using this analysis, Lazard derived a range of implied per share values of $32.63 to $43.26 for the Prentiss common shares.

Stock Price Analysis

Lazard reviewed the per share prices of the Prentiss common shares on September 30, 2005, the high and low trading prices for the Prentiss common shares for the 52-week period ending September 30, 2005, and the average closing price for the 60-day period ending September 30, 2005. The following table illustrates such stock prices during such periods:

As of September 30, 2005 52 Week		60 Day Average Closing Price as of September 30, 2005	Closing Price on September 30, 2005
High	Low

Miscellaneous

Lazard performed a variety of financial and comparative analyses solely for the purpose of providing its opinion to the Prentiss board of trustees that the REIT Merger Consideration to be paid to the Prentiss Public Shareholders pursuant to the merger agreement was fair to the Prentiss Public Shareholders from a financial point of view. The preparation of a fairness opinion involves various determinations as to the most appropriate and relevant methods of financial analysis and the application of these methods to the particular circumstances and, therefore, such an opinion is not readily susceptible to a partial analysis or summary description. Accordingly, notwithstanding the separate analyses summarized above, Lazard believes that its analyses must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of the analyses or factors considered by it, without considering all such factors or analyses, or attempting to ascribe relative weights to some or all such analyses and factors could create an incomplete view of the evaluation process underlying the Lazard opinion.

Back to Contents

In its analyses, Lazard made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, general business, economic, market and financial conditions and other matters, many of which are beyond the control of Prentiss. The estimates contained in these analyses and the valuation ranges resulting from any particular analysis do not necessarily indicate actual values or predict future results or values, which may be significantly more or less favorable than those suggested by these analyses. Lazard did not assign any specific weight to any of the analyses described above and did not draw any specific conclusions from or with regard to any one method of analysis. In addition, analyses relating to the value of the businesses or securities are not appraisals and do not reflect the prices at which the businesses or securities may actually be sold or the prices at which their securities may trade. As a result, these analyses and estimates are inherently subject to substantial uncertainty.

No company or transaction used in any of the analyses is identical to Prentiss or the REIT Merger. Accordingly, an analysis of the results of the foregoing necessarily involves complex considerations and judgments concerning financial and operating characteristics of Prentiss and other factors that could affect the public trading values or the announced transaction values, as the case may be, of Prentiss and Brandywine and the companies to which the comparison is being made. Mathematical analysis (such as determining the mean or median) is not in itself a meaningful method of using comparable transaction data or comparable company data.

Lazard's opinion and financial analyses were not the only factors considered by the Prentiss board of trustees in its evaluation of the REIT Merger and should not be viewed as determinative of the views of the board of trustees or Prentiss' management. Lazard has consented to the inclusion of and references to its opinion in this joint proxy statement.

Under the terms of Lazard's engagement, Prentiss has agreed to pay Lazard an advisory fee of $7.5 million, all of which is payable when REIT Merger is completed. The amount of the advisory fee may be adjusted depending on the closing price of the Brandywine common shares on the closing date of the REIT Merger and on the principal amount of indebtedness for borrowed money of Prentiss on the closing date of the REIT Merger. Prentiss has agreed to reimburse Lazard for travel and other out-of-pocket expenses incurred in performing its services, including the fees and expenses of its legal counsel. In addition, Prentiss agreed to indemnify Lazard against certain liabilities, including liabilities under the federal securities laws relating to or arising out of Lazard's engagement. In the past, Lazard has provided investment banking services to Prentiss and Brandywine for which Lazard has been paid customary fees. Managing Directors of Lazard have been members of Brandywine's board of trustees in the past and a private equity fund that was managed and sponsored by Lazard (which is currently managed by an affiliate of LFCM Holdings LLC, which is owned in large part by managing directors of Lazard) previously held preferred shares in Brandywine and preferred units in the Brandywine Operating Partnership and continues to hold a small number of Brandywine common shares.

Lazard is an internationally recognized investment banking firm and is continually engaged in the valuation of businesses and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions, private placements, leveraged buyouts, and valuations for real estate, corporate and other purposes. Lazard was selected to act as investment banker to the Prentiss board of trustees because of its expertise and its reputation in investment banking and mergers and acquisitions. In the ordinary course of its business, affiliates of Lazard and LFCM Holdings LLC may from time to time effect transactions and hold securities of Prentiss and Brandywine for their own accounts and for the accounts of their customers, and, accordingly, may at any time hold a long or short position in such securities.

Interests of Prentiss Executive Officers and Trustees in the Mergers

In considering the recommendation of the Prentiss board of trustees with respect to the REIT Merger, you should be aware that, as described below, certain executive officers and trustees of Prentiss have interests in the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement that may be different from, or in addition to, the interests of Prentiss common shareholders generally. The Prentiss board of trustees were aware of these interests and considered them, among other matters, in making its recommendation.

Representation on Brandywine's Board of Trustees

In the merger agreement, Brandywine agreed to use its best efforts to cause Michael V. Prentiss, the Chairman of the Board of Prentiss, and Thomas F. August, President and Chief Executive Officer of Prentiss and a current member of the Prentiss board of trustees, to be elected to Brandywine's board of trustees upon consummation of the REIT Merger. Brandywine agreed to use its best efforts to cause the Brandywine board of trustees to re-nominate each of Messrs. Prentiss and August as a trustee for election at Brandywine's annual meeting of shareholders for each of 2006 and 2007.

Prentiss Employment Agreements

Certain of Prentiss trustees and executive officers are parties to employment agreements with Prentiss that entitle them to payments in the case of a change in control and certain other benefits if their employment terminates following a change in control. The completion of the REIT Merger will qualify as change in control under these employment agreements. Brandywine will honor each of the employment agreements in accordance with their respective terms.

Employment Agreement with Michael V. Prentiss. Prentiss has an employment agreement with Michael V. Prentiss, which provides that within 15 days of a change of control (as defined in the employment agreement) of Prentiss, he will receive a payment equal to $3,000,000. In addition, any time after a change in control, he may resign and, for a period of three years after the date of his resignation, he and his dependants will remain entitled to health insurance and other benefits, and Mr. Prentiss will be entitled to the services of his secretary, an accountant and office space comparable to that which he is presently assigned. If Mr. Prentiss incurs an excise tax under Section 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code (relating to "excess parachute payments") with respect to any payments he receives from Prentiss, he is entitled to a "gross-up" payment to reimburse him for this excise tax and any income and employment taxes which apply to the gross-up payment. The employment agreement of Mr. Prentiss was amended in October 2005 to clarify the benefits Mr. Prentiss will be entitled to receive upon a change in control. In addition to clarifying the terms of Mr. Prentiss' employment agreement, Mr. Prentiss was granted an option to purchase all of the rights of Prentiss related to its contract with FlexJet for use of a corporate jet. The option is exercisable at the end of the three year period after his termination following a change in control. The closing of this purchase is conditioned upon Mr. Prentiss' payment of the $100,000 exercise price and the consent of FlexJet, if necessary, for the transfer of Prentiss' contract with them. Mr. Prentiss will resign at the effective time of the REIT Merger and Mr. Prentiss will no longer receive an annual salary or bonus.

Employment Agreement with Thomas F. August. Prentiss has an employment agreement with Thomas F. August, which provides that within 15 days of a change of control (as defined in the employment agreement) of Prentiss, he will receive a payment equal to three times the sum of his current annual base salary plus pro forma two prior years cash bonus and value of long-term incentives. The payment amount is estimated to be approximately $9,056,550. In addition, any time after a change in control, he may resign and, for a period of three years after the date of his resignation, he and his dependants will remain entitled to health insurance and other benefits, and Mr. August will be entitled to the services of his secretary and office space comparable to that which he is presently assigned. If Mr. August incurs an excise tax under Section 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code (relating to "excess parachute payments") with respect to any payments he receives from Prentiss, Mr. August is entitled to a "gross-up" payment to reimburse him for this excise tax and any income and employment taxes which apply to the gross-up payment. Mr. August's employment agreement was amended in October 2005 to clarify the benefits to which Mr. August will be entitled to receive upon a change in control. Mr. August will resign at the effective time of the REIT Merger and Mr. August will no longer receive an annual salary or bonus. Brandywine intends to enter into a two-year consulting agreement with Mr. August at the effective time of the REIT Merger.

Employment of other Prentiss Executive Level Employees

Brandywine has agreed to interview select Prentiss executive employees with the goal of offering each such Prentiss executive employee a position with Brandywine reasonably comparable to the position such Prentiss executive employee held with Prentiss. Offers, if made, would include compensation and bonus no less favorable than those under which Prentiss executive employees were employed prior to the REIT Merger and with other benefits in line with similar positions at Brandywine.

Equity Compensation Awards

Stock Options. The merger agreement provides that, as of the effective time of the REIT Merger, all unexercised vested and unvested Prentiss share options outstanding immediately prior to the REIT Merger, including those held by Prentiss' trustees and executive officers, will be assumed by Brandywine and each such option will be automatically converted into options to purchase on the same terms and conditions as were applicable under the relevant Prentiss option (taking into account any changes thereto, including the acceleration thereof) a number of Brandywine common shares equal to (i) the number of Prentiss common shares subject to the Prentiss option to which such new Brandywine option relates multiplied by (ii) the Option Exchange Ratio, rounded to the nearest share. The per share exercise price of each new Brandywine option will equal (A) the per share exercise price of the Prentiss option to which such new Brandywine option relates divided by (B) the Option Exchange Ratio, rounded to the nearest one-hundredth of a cent. See "The Merger Agreement—REIT Merger Consideration."

Prior to the REIT Merger and subject to the terms of the Prentiss option plans, Prentiss may, in its sole discretion, take all actions necessary and appropriate to allow each holder of a Prentiss option (whether or not exercisable or vested) to elect, in lieu of the treatment provided above, to convert each Prentiss option so held into the right to receive an amount of cash at the effective time of the REIT Merger equal to the product of (i) the excess, if any, of the sum of (1) the per share dollar value of the REIT Merger consideration (with the portion of the REIT Merger consideration that consists of Brandywine common shares valued at the ten day average trading price) on the closing date of the REIT Merger and (2) the per share amount of any Special Dividend over the per share exercise price of such Prentiss option and (ii) the number of Prentiss common shares subject to such Prentiss option (such payment to be net of all applicable withholding taxes).

Restricted Shares. Each restricted Prentiss common share outstanding immediately prior to the REIT Merger, including those held by Prentiss trustees and executive officers, will become unrestricted and will be converted into the right to receive the REIT Merger consideration pursuant to the terms of such restricted shares.

Change of Control Severance Plans

On October 3, 2005, Prentiss entered into two separate change of control severance protection plans in connection with the REIT Merger, one with Prentiss hourly and salaried non-officer employees and the other with Prentiss key employees.

The Change of Control Severance Protection Plan for Key Employees relates to Prentiss' Chief Financial Officer, any Regional Managing Director, Senior Vice President and any other of Prentiss' other officers and excludes certain officers specified in the plan. Upon an officer being terminated by Prentiss for any reason other than cause or termination by the officer for good reason within one year or two years, depending on the type of officer, after a "change in control" (as defined in the severance plan), severance benefits will be provided to such officer in an amount equal to the sum of such officer's salary and such officer's 2004 annual bonus multiplied by the appropriate multiple which is 2 for Regional Managing Directors and the Prentiss Chief Financial Officer and 1.5 for Senior Vice Presidents. Other officers would receive an amount equal to the greater of (1) the sum of such officer's salary and such officer's 2004 annual bonus or (2) the product of one-twelfth of such officer's base salary and the number of years such officer had been employed with Prentiss prior to such termination. Such terminated employee would be entitled to a continuation of benefits (medical, health, dental, prescription drug benefits, life insurance, long-term disability) for the period ranging from one year to two years. For purposes of this Plan, a change in control includes the completion of the REIT Merger described in this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

Back to Contents

All severance benefits will be net of any federal and/or state taxes imposed in excess of, or in addition to, general income taxes, e.g., excise taxes, golden parachute taxes, etc. In this respect, any officers entitled to severance benefits will receive a "gross-up" payment calculated to pay the excess taxes (and excise taxes and income taxes on the gross-up) so that the participant receives the same net level of benefit he or she would have received without the imposition of the excess taxes (or the income and excise taxes imposed upon the gross up payment).

The Change in Control Severance Protection Plan for Hourly and Salaried Non-Officer Employees relates to all hourly and non-officer salaried employees who were employed as of October 3, 2005. Upon the termination of a non-officer employee for any reason other than cause or termination by such employee for good reason within six months of a change of control, severance benefits will be provided to such terminated employee in an amount equal to one month of compensation for each full and partial year of employment with a minimum of three months of compensation, provided that property level employees who are terminated in connection with (1) property dispositions or exchanges in the ordinary course of business, or Prentiss' properties in Colorado, Illinois or Michigan, or (2) the loss of third party management or leasing contracts will not be entitled to these benefits. Such terminated employee would be entitled to a continuation of benefits (medical, health, dental, prescription drug benefits, life insurance, long-term disability) for the period of severance benefits. For purposes of this Plan, a change in control includes the completion of the REIT Merger.

Bonus Pool

The Prentiss compensation committee created a bonus pool of up to $10 million to provide incentives to Prentiss employees (other than the Chief Executive Officer) with respect to the consummation of the Mergers. Of the total bonus pool, an aggregate of $8 million was allocated as of October 3, 2005 to specified executive officers including the following named executive officers, payable upon closing of the REIT Merger if such officers remain employed by Prentiss at the REIT Merger unless previously decided otherwise by Prentiss' compensation committee or the President of Prentiss.

Executive Officers		Bonus Pool Allocation
Michael V. Prentiss	$	6,000,000
Michael A. Ernst		350,000
Totals	$	6,350,000

Prentiss' board of trustees intends to pay out the balance of the $10 million bonus pool to employees identified by the Chief Executive Officer with the advice and consent of the Compensation Committee.

Tax Deferral for Unitholders

Certain trustees and officers of Prentiss who own Prentiss Operating Partnership common units will be able to defer their taxable gains in their Prentiss Operating Partnership common units by receiving Brandywine Operating Partnership Class A units in exchange for their Prentiss Operating Partnership common units. The REIT Merger, in contrast, is a taxable transaction and, as a result, holders of Prentiss common shares other than certain tax-exempt holders will be required to pay tax on gains arising from exchanging their Prentiss common shares for the REIT Merger consideration.

Additional Agreements

Each of Michael V. Prentiss and Thomas F. August entered into a voting agreement with Brandywine and the Brandywine Operating Partnership which requires him to vote all Prentiss common shares beneficially owned by him as of the record date for the Prentiss special meeting in favor of the merger proposal (and against competing proposals). See "The Merger Agreement Michael V. Prentiss and Thomas F. August Voting Agreements."

Brandywine, Brandywine Operating Partnership and Michael V. Prentiss entered into a registration rights agreement in which Brandywine agreed to register the Brandywine common shares that Mr. Prentiss receives in the REIT Merger or upon conversion of Brandywine Operating Partnership Class A units received in the Partnership Merger. See "The Merger Agreement Michael V. Prentiss Registration Rights Agreement."

Limitation of Liability, Indemnification and Insurance

The merger agreement provides that, following completion of the REIT Merger, all past and present trustees and officers of Prentiss will be indemnified to the same extent these individuals were indemnified as of the date of the merger agreement pursuant to indemnification agreements with Prentiss and the Declaration of Trust and Bylaws of Prentiss for acts or omissions occurring at or prior to the completion of the REIT Merger. In addition, for six years after the REIT Merger, Brandywine will maintain in effect provisions regarding elimination of liability of trustees, indemnification of officers, trustees and employees and advancement of expenses which are no less advantageous to the intended beneficiaries than those currently contained in the Declaration of Trust and Bylaws of Prentiss.

The merger agreement obligates Brandywine to maintain trustees' and officers' liability insurance for six years after completion of the REIT Merger with respect to claims arising from facts or events that occurred on or before completion of the REIT Merger, including events that are related to the merger agreement. However, Brandywine will not be required to expend more than 200% of annual premiums currently paid by Prentiss for such insurance. If the annual premiums exceed this amount, then Brandywine will be obligated to obtain a policy with the greatest coverage available subject to the above limit.

Merger Financing

Brandywine expects to use the net proceeds from borrowings under the 364-day term loan to fund a portion of the cash component of the REIT Merger consideration. Brandywine expects that the 364-day term loan will be guaranteed by the same subsidiaries that are guarantors under its revolving credit facility. Brandywine anticipates that the 364-day term loan will bear interest, at its option, at (A) a "base rate" equal to the higher of (1) the prime lending rate or (2) the federal funds effective rate from time to time plus 0.50%, plus a margin of 0.25%, or (B) the London interbank offered rate for terms of one, two or three months, as selected by Brandywine, plus a margin that varies between 1.00% and 1.40% per annum depending on its credit ratings.

The interim term loan will only be drawn if (i) certain properties located in the Mid-west anticipated to be sold by Prentiss are not sold prior to the consummation of the REIT Merger, or (ii) if a portion of the Prudential Properties are not sold to Prudential. The interim term loan will be subject to mandatory pre-payment out of the proceeds of any sale of the Mid-west properties. The interim term loan will have a term of 60 days. Brandywine expects that the interim term loan will be guaranteed by the same subsidiaries that are guarantors under its revolving credit facility. Brandywine anticipates that the interim term loan will bear interest, at its option, at (A) a "base rate" equal to the higher of (1) the prime lending rate or (2) the federal funds effective rate from time to time plus 0.50%, plus a margin of 0.25%, or (B) the London interbank offered rate for a term of one month, plus a margin that varies between 1.00% and 1.40% per annum depending on its credit ratings.

Back to Contents

The back-stop revolving credit facility will only be put into place if Brandywine is not successful in completing, prior to the consummation of the REIT Merger, an amendment and restatement of its existing revolving credit facility on terms which allow for the consummation of the REIT Merger and are otherwise satisfactory to Brandywine. The back-stop revolving credit facility will have a term of 60 days from the closing of the REIT Merger. Brandywine expects that Brandywine Operating Partnership and the same subsidiaries that are guarantors under its revolving credit agreement will provide guarantees of the payment obligations under the facility. Brandywine anticipates that the back-stop revolving credit facility will bear interest, at its option, at (A) a "base rate" equal to the higher of (1) the prime lending rate or (2) the federal funds effective rate from time to time plus 0.50%, plus a margin of 0.25%, or (B) the London interbank offered rate for a term of one month, plus a margin that varies between 1.00% and 1.40% per annum depending on its credit ratings.

No Dissenters' Rights of Appraisal

Maryland law provides that in some mergers shareholders who do not vote in favor of a merger and who comply with a series of statutory requirements have the right to receive, instead of the merger consideration, the fair value of their shares as appraised by appraisers appointed by a Maryland court or, in certain circumstances, by the court itself, payable in cash. However, this right to appraisal is not available under the Maryland law to holders of Prentiss common shares or Brandywine common shares in connection with the REIT Merger.

Regulatory Matters

Neither Brandywine or Prentiss is aware of any material federal or state regulatory requirements that must be complied with or approvals that must be obtained by Brandywine, Brandywine Operating Partnership, Prentiss, or Prentiss Operating Partnership in connection with either the REIT Merger or the Partnership Merger.

Stock Exchange Listing and Related Matters

Brandywine has agreed to use its reasonable best efforts to cause the Brandywine common shares to be issued in the REIT Merger, to be reserved for issuance upon the exercise of Brandywine options issued in exchange for Prentiss options and to be reserved for issuance upon conversion of Brandywine Operating Partnership Class A common units issued in the Partnership Merger, to be approved for listing, upon official notice of issuance, on the New York Stock Exchange. Brandywine will file a supplemental listing application with the New York Stock Exchange.

If the REIT Merger is completed, Prentiss common shares will be delisted from the New York Stock Exchange and will be deregistered under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

Accounting Treatment

The Mergers will be treated as a purchase for financial accounting purposes. This means that Brandywine will record the assets acquired and the liabilities assumed at their estimated fair values at the time the Mergers are completed.

Back to Contents

Merger Fees, Costs and Expenses

All expenses incurred in connection with the merger agreement, the REIT Merger and the related transactions will be paid by the party incurring those expenses, except that Brandywine and Prentiss have agreed to share equally the fees, costs and expenses related to filing, printing and mailing Brandywine's registration statement on Form S-4 and this joint proxy statement/prospectus. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Brandywine and Prentiss have agreed to pay certain of the other party's fees in specified circumstances if the merger agreement is terminated. See "The Merger AgreementTermination Fees; Other Expenses."

Restrictions on Resale of Brandywine Common Shares Issued in the REIT Merger

Brandywine common shares issued to Prentiss common shareholders in the REIT Merger will be freely transferable under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, except for shares issued to any person who may be deemed to be an "affiliate" of Prentiss within the meaning of Rule 145 under the Securities Act or who will become an "affiliate" of Brandywine within the meaning of Rule 144 under the Securities Act after the REIT Merger. Brandywine common shares received by persons who are deemed to be Prentiss affiliates or who become Brandywine affiliates may be resold by these persons only in transactions permitted by the limited resale provisions of Rule 145 or as otherwise permitted under the Securities Act. Persons who may be deemed to be affiliates of Prentiss generally include individuals or entities that, directly or indirectly through one or more intermediaries, control, are controlled by or are under common control with Prentiss and may include officers, trustees and principal shareholders of Prentiss.

Prentiss has agreed to use its reasonable efforts to obtain prior to the closing of the REIT Merger an affiliate agreement from each affiliate of Prentiss, pursuant to which each Prentiss affiliate will agree not to sell, transfer, pledge or otherwise dispose of any of the Brandywine common shares received in the Mergers in violation of the Securities Act or the rules and regulations promulgated under the Securities Act. Generally, this will require that all sales be made in accordance with Rule 145 under the Securities Act.

Trustees and Executive Officers of the Combined Company

Board of Trustees

Brandywine's board of trustees will be increased from eight to ten trustees as of the effective time of the Mergers. Michael V. Prentiss and Thomas F. August, each of whom is currently a member of the Prentiss board of trustees, will be joining the Brandywine board.

Executive Officers

Brandywine's current executive officers are generally expected to continue to hold office after the effective time of the Mergers in their current capacities, until their successors are duly elected and qualified or until their earlier resignations or removals. Brandywine expects to implement the following changes within Brandywine's executive management ranks at the effective time of the Mergers: (i) Robert K. Wiberg (age 49), currently an Executive Vice President and Managing Director with Prentiss, will become Executive Vice President and Managing Director of Operations of Brandywine; (ii) Gregory S. Imhoff (age 48), currently Senior Vice President, General Counsel and Secretary of Prentiss, will become Senior Vice President and Chief Administrative Officer of Brandywine; (iii) Timothy M. Martin (age 34), currently Brandywine's Vice President and Chief Accounting Officer, will become Vice President Finance; (iv) Scott W. Fordham (age 37), currently Senior Vice President and Chief Accounting Officer of Prentiss, will become Vice President and Chief Accounting Officer of Brandywine; (v) Christopher M. Hipps (age 44), currently Executive Vice President and Managing Director, Southwest Region of Prentiss, will become Executive Vice President and Managing Director Southwest Region of Brandywine; (vi) Daniel K. Cushing, (age 44), currently Senior Vice President and Managing Director, Northern California Region, of Prentiss, will become Senior Vice President and Managing Director Western Region of Brandywine; and (vii) Michael J. Cooper (age 47), currently Senior Vice President, Development of Prentiss, will become Senior Vice President Midatlantic Region of Brandywine.

THE MERGER AGREEMENT

The following is a summary of the material terms of the merger agreement but does not describe each of the provisions of the merger agreement. The merger agreement has been included as Annex A in this joint proxy statement/prospectus and is incorporated herein by reference to provide you with information regarding its terms. It is not intended to provide any other factual information about Brandywine and Prentiss. That information can be found elsewhere in this joint proxy statement/prospectus and in the other public filings each of Brandywine and Prentiss makes with the Securities and Exchange Commission. See "Where You Can Find More Information" on page 175. You should read the merger agreement because it, and not this joint proxy statement/prospectus, is the legal document that governs the terms of the Mergers.

Structure of the REIT Merger

The merger agreement provides for either the merger of Prentiss with and into Brandywine Cognac I, LLC, with Brandywine Cognac I, LLC surviving as a subsidiary of the Brandywine Operating Partnership (which we refer to as the Forward REIT Merger) or the merger of Brandywine Cognac I with and into Prentiss, with Prentiss surviving (which we refer to as the Reverse REIT Merger).

If Brandywine obtains the private letter ruling, as described in more detail in "Material Federal Income Tax Consequences of the MergersTax Consequences of the REIT Merger General The Private Letter Ruling" and if the other conditions to closing set forth in the merger agreement are satisfied or waived, then the REIT Merger would take the form of the Forward REIT Merger. If Brandywine does not obtain the private letter ruling, and if the other conditions to closing set forth in the merger agreement are satisfied or waived, then the REIT Merger would take the form of the Reverse REIT Merger. We refer to either the Forward REIT Merger or the Reverse REIT Merger, whichever is consummated pursuant to the merger agreement, as the REIT Merger.

REIT Merger Consideration

Conversion of Prentiss Common Shares

At the effective time of the REIT Merger, each issued and outstanding Prentiss common share (other than common shares owned or held by Brandywine, Brandywine Operating Partnership, Prentiss or any of their respective direct or indirect wholly owned subsidiaries) shall be converted into the right to receive:

- $21.50 in cash (as this amount may be reduced, the "Cash Consideration"); and
- 0.69 of a Brandywine common share (the "Common Exchange Ratio").

If, between the date of the merger agreement and the REIT Merger, Brandywine or Prentiss should split, combine or otherwise reclassify the Brandywine common shares or the Prentiss common shares, or pay a share dividend or other share distribution in Brandywine common shares or Prentiss common shares, as applicable, or otherwise change the Brandywine common shares or Prentiss common shares into any other securities, or make any other such share dividend or distribution in capital shares of Brandywine or Prentiss in respect of the Brandywine common shares or the Prentiss common shares, respectively, then any number or amount contained in the merger agreement which is based upon the price of the Brandywine common shares or the number of Prentiss common shares or Brandywine common shares, as the case may be (including but not limited to the Cash Consideration or the Common Exchange Ratio), will be appropriately adjusted to reflect such split, combination, dividend or other distribution or change.

Back to Contents

Conversion of Prentiss Series D Preferred Shares

At the effective time of the REIT Merger, each Prentiss Series D preferred share that remains outstanding shall be converted into the right to receive one fully paid nonassessable Brandywine Series E preferred share.

Redemption of Prentiss Series D Preferred Shares

Prentiss will redeem, prior to the REIT Merger any outstanding Series D preferred shares that becomes subject to redemption prior to the REIT Merger.

Closing and Effective Time of the REIT Merger

Unless Brandywine and Prentiss agree otherwise, the closing of the REIT Merger will occur on the second business day following the satisfaction or waiver of the closing conditions. See "Conditions to Completion of the REIT Merger." The REIT Merger will become effective at such time as the articles of merger are accepted for record by the State Department of Assessments and Taxation of Maryland, or at such later time as Brandywine and Prentiss shall agree and specify in the articles of merger. Brandywine and Prentiss will file the articles of merger prior to the closing of the REIT Merger.

If Brandywine does not obtain the private letter ruling described in "Material Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Mergers Tax Consequences of the REIT Merger General The Private Letter Ruling" the closing of the REIT Merger shall occur on the first business day following the sale of the Prudential Properties to Prudential as described in "The Prudential Acquisition and Related Agreements."

Structure of the Partnership Merger

Immediately following the REIT Merger, Brandywine Cognac II, LLC, a wholly owned subsidiary of Brandywine Operating Partnership, will merge with and into Prentiss Operating Partnership, with Prentiss Operating Partnership continuing as the surviving entity. Immediately after consummation of the Partnership Merger, the limited partners of the Prentiss Operating Partnership will be Brandywine Operating Partnership and Brandywine Cognac I (which at that point will be a subsidiary of Brandywine Operating Partnership).

Partnership Merger Consideration

Conversion of the Prentiss Operating Partnership Common Units

At the effective time of the Partnership Merger, each issued and outstanding Prentiss Operating Partnership common unit (excluding common units owned or held by Brandywine, Brandywine Operating Partnership, Brandywine Cognac I, Brandywine Cognac II, Parent, the general partner of Prentiss Operating Partnership or Prentiss Operating Partnership or any of their respective direct or indirect wholly owned subsidiaries which shall which shall remain issued and outstanding and unchanged by the Partnership Merger) shall be converted into the right to receive 1.3799 Brandywine Operating Partnership Class A units. If the cash portion of the REIT Merger consideration is reduced because the Prentiss board of trustees declares either the Special Dividend, or a pre-closing dividend to maintain the REIT status of Prentiss that is in excess of the $0.56 per share quarterly dividend, then the 1.3799 exchange ratio will be adjusted to equal the sum of (i) 0.69 plus (ii) the quotient obtained by dividing the per share amount of the cash consideration payable in the REIT Merger by $31.1594. We refer to the exchange ratio, as it may be adjusted, as the Common Interest Exchange Ratio.

Back to Contents

The Brandywine Operating Partnership Class A units to be issued in the Partnership Merger will, at any time and from time to time after the Partnership Merger, be exchangeable, at the request of the holder of such units, for Brandywine common shares, or for cash, at Brandywine's option, on a one-for-one basis.

Closing and Effective Time of the Partnership Merger

The closing of the Partnership Merger shall take place immediately after the effectiveness of the REIT Merger. The Partnership Merger shall become effective at such time as the merger certificate is duly filed with the office of the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware, or at such later time as Brandywine and Prentiss shall agree and specify in the merger certificate.

The Optional Partnership Election

Holders of Prentiss Operating Partnership common units may elect to receive the REIT Merger consideration described above in "REIT Merger considerationConversion of Prentiss Common Shares" if they convert their Prentiss Operating Partnership common units into Prentiss common share prior to the effective time of the REIT Merger instead of Brandywine Operating Partnership Class A units.

Exchange of Securities; No Fractional Shares; Lost, Stolen or Destroyed Certificates; Withholding Rights

Exchange of Securities

Brandywine will deposit with Computershare Limited or another bank or trust company, cash and certificates evidencing Brandywine common shares to be paid to the holders of Prentiss common shares under and as contemplated by the merger agreement and certificates evidencing shares of Brandywine Series E preferred shares to be paid to the holders of outstanding Prentiss Series D Preferred Shares pursuant to the merger agreement. Promptly after the REIT Merger, each record holder of a certificate evidencing common shares and preferred shares of Prentiss shall be sent a letter of transmittal and instructions on how to surrender such certificate. Thereafter, each holder of Prentiss common shares who returns a duly executed transmittal letter and such other documents as are reasonably required by the exchange agent and surrenders any certificates evidencing such holder's Prentiss common shares shall receive a certificate or certificates evidencing the number of full Brandywine common shares into which the aggregate number of Prentiss common shares owned by such holder have been converted pursuant to the merger agreement and the cash consideration, plus any cash that such holder is entitled to in lieu of fractional Brandywine common shares and in respect of any dividends or other distributions to which such holder is entitled. Each holder of Prentiss Series D Preferred Shares who returns a duly executed transmittal letter, the certificate evidencing such holders' Series D Preferred Shares and such other documents as are reasonably required by the exchange agent shall receive a certificate or certificates evidencing the number of Brandywine Series E preferred shares into which the aggregate number of Prentiss Series D Preferred Shares have been converted pursuant to the merger agreement and the amount of cash that such holder is entitled to in respect of any dividends or other distributions to which such holder is entitled.

Holders of unexchanged Prentiss common shares or Prentiss Series D Preferred Shares will not be entitled to receive any dividends or other distributions payable by Brandywine with respect to those Brandywine common shares or Brandywine Series E preferred shares (as the case may be) into which such Prentiss common shares or Prentiss Series D Preferred Shares is to be converted pursuant to the merger agreement or cash in lieu of fractional Brandywine common shares (to the extent applicable) until the applicable Prentiss certificate is surrendered. Upon surrender or transfer, those holders will receive, without interest, any accumulated dividends and distributions together with any cash in lieu of fractional shares.

Back to Contents

No Fractional Shares

Each holder of Prentiss common shares exchanged in the REIT Merger who would otherwise have been entitled to receive a fraction of a Brandywine common share shall receive, in lieu thereof, cash in an amount equal to the product of (i) such fractional part of a Brandywine common share multiplied by (ii) the average closing prices of Brandywine common shares quoted on the New York Stock Exchange for the ten trading day period ending on the trading date immediately prior to the closing date of the REIT Merger. As promptly as practicable after the determination of the amount of cash, if any, to be paid to holders of fractional interests, the exchange agent shall so notify Brandywine, and Brandywine shall cause the exchange agent to forward payments to such holders of fractional interests.

Lost, Stolen or Destroyed Certificates

Upon the making of an affidavit that a certificate evidencing Prentiss common shares has been lost, stolen or destroyed, and at Brandywine's option upon the delivery of an indemnity bond, the exchange agent will issue the Brandywine common shares, any cash in lieu of fractional Brandywine common shares (to the extent applicable) and any unpaid dividends or other distributions in respect of the Brandywine common shares represented by the lost, stolen or destroyed certificate to which the holder is entitled.

Withholding Rights

Brandywine and the Brandywine Operating Partnership generally shall be entitled to deduct and withhold from the consideration otherwise payable pursuant to the merger agreement to any holder of Prentiss common shares, Prentiss Series D preferred shares, Prentiss Operating Partnership common units or Prentiss options such amounts as they are required to deduct and withhold with respect to the making of such payment under the Internal Revenue Code and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, or any provision of state, local or foreign tax law.

Prentiss Options

The merger agreement provides that, as of the effective time of the REIT Merger, all unexercised vested and unvested Prentiss share options outstanding immediately prior to the REIT Merger, including those held by Prentiss' trustees and executive officers, will be assumed by Brandywine and all such options will be automatically converted into options to purchase on the same terms and conditions as were applicable under the relevant Prentiss option (taking into account any changes thereto) a number of Brandywine common shares equal to the number of Brandywine common shares subject to the options multiplied by the option exchange ratio, rounded to the nearest share. The per share exercise price would equal the exercise price in the original option divided by the option exchange ratio, rounded to the nearest one-hundredth of a cent.

For purposes of the share option calculation described above, "option exchange ratio" equals a fraction, the numerator of which is the per share dollar value of the REIT Merger consideration on the REIT Merger closing date (with the portion of the REIT Merger consideration that consists of Brandywine common shares valued at the average of the closing prices of the Brandywine common shares for the ten trading day period ending on the trading day prior to the REIT Merger) and the denominator of which is such ten-day average closing price; adjusted for the per share amount of the Special Dividend (if any) declared on Prentiss common shares prior to the REIT Merger closing date. See "REIT Merger Consideration."

Back to Contents

The merger agreement provides that Prentiss may, in its sole discretion, allow each holder of a Prentiss share option (whether or not exercisable or vested) to elect, in lieu of the treatment described above, to convert the option into the right to receive an amount of cash at the REIT Merger effective time equal to the product of (i) the excess, if any, of the sum of the per share dollar value of the REIT Merger consideration on the REIT Merger closing date (with the portion of the REIT Merger consideration that consists of Brandywine common shares valued at the ten-day average trading price referred to in the preceding paragraph) and the per share amount of the Special Dividend (if any) declared prior to the REIT Merger closing date, over the per share exercise price of such option and (ii) the number of Prentiss common shares subject to the option (such payment to be net of all applicable withholding taxes).

Certain of these representations and warranties are qualified as to “materiality” or “material adverse effect.” For purposes of the merger agreement, “material adverse effect” means with respect to Prentiss or Brandywine a material adverse effect on the business, properties, liabilities, financial condition or results of operations of Prentiss or Brandywine (as the case may be) and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, or which materially impairs or materially delays the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, other than any change resulting from or attributable to: (i) general national or international economic conditions or securities markets in general, (ii) the announcement, execution or consummation of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, or (iii) conditions generally affecting the industry in which Prentiss or Brandywine (as the case may be) and its subsidiaries operate (except to the extent disproportionately affecting such person relative to other industry participants).

The representations and warranties in the merger agreement do not survive the effective time of the Mergers and, except as described below under “Termination Fees; Other Expenses” if the agreement is validly terminated, neither party will have any liability or obligation for its representations and warranties, or otherwise under the merger agreement, unless the party has willfully breached any representation, warranty or covenant contained therein.

Conduct of Business Pending the Mergers.

Each of Brandywine and Prentiss have made covenants in the merger agreement concerning the conduct of its respective businesses between the date the merger agreement was signed and the completion of the Mergers. The following summarizes the more significant of these covenants.

Interim Operations of Prentiss

Prentiss has also agreed that it and its subsidiaries shall not authorize, commit or agree to do the following, subject to certain exceptions, without the prior written consent of Brandywine:

Access to Information

Prentiss and Brandywine have agreed to provide each other with reasonable and prompt access to its and its subsidiaries' respective properties, books, contracts, commitments, representatives and records, subject to applicable law and confidentiality obligations.

Prentiss Shareholder Meeting and Prentiss Board of Trustees' Covenant to Recommend

The merger agreement requires Prentiss to call and hold a meeting of its shareholders to approve the merger agreement, the REIT Merger and the related transactions. Prentiss, however, is not required to hold a special meeting if the merger agreement is terminated. Additionally, subject to specified conditions related to its duties discussed below, the board of trustees of Prentiss has agreed to recommend that Prentiss' common shareholders vote in favor of approval of the merger agreement, the REIT Merger and the related transactions. Prentiss has agreed, subject to certain exceptions, to give Brandywine three business days' prior written notice of any withdrawal of its recommendation to its shareholders to approve the merger agreement, the REIT Merger and the related transactions.

Brandywine Shareholder Meeting and Brandywine Board of Trustees' Covenant to Recommend

The merger agreement requires Brandywine to call and hold a meeting of its shareholders to approve the issuance of Brandywine common shares to be issued under and as contemplated by the merger agreement.

Back to Contents

No Solicitation

The merger agreement precludes Prentiss and any of its subsidiaries from, directly or indirectly (through its officers, trustees, employees, investment bankers, attorneys, accountants, auditors or other advisors or representatives):

- soliciting, initiating, encouraging or taking any other action to facilitate (including by the furnishing of information) the submission of any inquiry, proposal or offer from any person (other than Brandywine or its affiliates) relating to, or that could reasonably be expected to lead to, any Takeover Proposal;
- agreeing to, approving or recommending any Takeover Proposal or entering into any agreement with respect to any Takeover Proposal; or
- entering into, continuing or otherwise participating in any discussions or negotiations regarding, or furnishing to any person any information with respect to, or taking any other action to facilitate any inquiries or the making of any proposal that constitutes, or could reasonably be expected to lead to, any Takeover Proposal.

"Takeover Proposal" means any offer or proposal for any direct or indirect acquisition or purchase, in one transaction or a series of transactions, of 30% or more of the assets of Prentiss and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, or 30% or more in voting power of the outstanding Prentiss common shares or any class or series of equity or voting securities of Prentiss or any significant subsidiary (including without limitation the partnership units in the Prentiss Operating Partnership), any tender offer or exchange offer that if consummated would result in any person beneficially owning 30% or more in voting power of the outstanding Prentiss common shares, or any merger, consolidation, business combination, recapitalization, reclassification, share exchange, liquidation, dissolution or similar transaction or series of transactions involving Prentiss or any significant subsidiary.

The merger agreement also requires Prentiss to notify Brandywine promptly after receipt or occurrence of (i) any Takeover Proposal, (ii) any request for information with respect to any Takeover Proposal or (iii) any inquiry, proposal, discussions or negotiation with respect to any Takeover Proposal. Such notice shall include the material terms and conditions of any such Takeover Proposal, request for information, inquiry, proposal, discussion or negotiation and the identity of the person making any such Takeover Proposal, request for information, inquiry or proposal or with whom discussions or negotiations are taking place. Prentiss must inform Brandywine in all material respects of the status and details (including amendments or proposed amendments) of any such inquiry, request or Takeover Proposal.

Nothing in the merger agreement prohibits Prentiss and the Prentiss board of trustees from making any disclosure to Prentiss' common shareholders if, in the good faith judgment of the Prentiss board of trustees (after having obtained sufficient preliminary information upon which to make such judgment), after consultation with outside counsel, failure to disclose would be reasonably likely to cause a breach of its duties under applicable law; except that, other than as permitted in the merger agreement, Prentiss, the Prentiss board of trustees or any committee of the Prentiss board of trustees may not withdraw (or modify in a manner adverse to Brandywine), or propose to withdraw (or modify in a manner adverse to Brandywine), its position with respect to the merger agreement, the related agreements or the Mergers or adopt, approve or recommend, or propose to adopt, approve or recommend, a Takeover Proposal.

Back to Contents

Before the REIT Merger becomes effective, Prentiss may negotiate and participate in discussions and negotiations with a person that has made an unsolicited written Takeover Proposal that has not resulted from a breach of the "No Solicitation" provision described above. In such a situation, Prentiss may furnish information concerning its business, properties or assets to such person pursuant to appropriate confidentiality agreements (on terms not less favorable to Prentiss than the confidentiality agreement between Brandywine and Prentiss); except that the Prentiss board of trustees is allowed to take any such action if, and only if, prior to taking such action, the Prentiss board of trustees has determined (after having obtained sufficient preliminary information upon which to make such determination) by the affirmative vote of a majority of all of the members of the Prentiss board of trustees or any committee of the board to which the power to consider such matters has been delegated that (i) such Takeover Proposal would result in, or would be reasonably likely to result in, a Superior Proposal and (ii) after receiving advice from outside legal counsel, the failure to provide information or access or to engage in discussions or negotiations with such person would be reasonably likely to cause the Prentiss board of trustees to breach its statutory duties to Prentiss under applicable law.

"Superior Proposal" means a Takeover Proposal (as defined above, except that the references to "30%" in such definition shall be deemed to be a reference to "50%") whereby the person making such proposal has on an unsolicited basis submitted a bona fide written proposal to Prentiss on terms that the Prentiss board of trustees determines in its good faith judgment (after consultation with a nationally recognized financial advisor, taking into account all the terms and conditions of the Takeover Proposal, including any break-up fees, expense reimbursement provisions and conditions to consummation) are more favorable to the Prentiss common shareholders, from a financial point of view, than the merger agreement and the REIT Merger, taken as a whole, and that is reasonably capable of being completed.

If the Prentiss board of trustees, after consultation with outside legal counsel, determines that failure to accept a Superior Proposal would be reasonably likely to cause a breach of the statutory duties of the Prentiss board of trustees to Prentiss under applicable law, the Prentiss board of trustees may inform the holders of Prentiss common shares that it no longer believes that the REIT Merger is advisable and no longer recommends approval. However, the Prentiss board of trustees may only withdraw its recommendation before the Prentiss common shareholders meeting to vote on the merger agreement and three business days after specifying the terms, conditions and identity of the Superior Proposal to Brandywine. In addition, the Prentiss board of trustees may only withdraw its recommendation if (i) during the three business day period Brandywine does not make an offer that the Prentiss board of trustees reasonably concludes in good faith (following consultation with its nationally recognized financial advisors and outside counsel) is more favorable to the Prentiss common shareholders than such Superior Proposal and (ii) at the end of the three business day period, the Takeover Proposal continues to be a Superior Proposal. If Prentiss complies with these provisions, at any time after the three business day period following notification to Brandywine of the consideration by Prentiss to do so (but in no event following approval of the merger agreement, the REIT Merger and the related transactions at the Prentiss special meeting), Prentiss may terminate the merger agreement and enter into an agreement with respect to the Superior Proposal; provided that prior to such termination Prentiss must pay to Brandywine the full amounts, if any, required under the section below entitled "Termination Fees; Other Expenses" to be paid at that time.

Reasonable Best Efforts Covenant

Each of the parties to the merger agreement has agreed to use its reasonable best efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all actions, and do, or cause to be done, and to assist and cooperate with the other parties in doing, all things necessary, proper or advisable to complete the REIT Merger, the Partnership Merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement in the most expeditious manner practicable, including using reasonable best efforts to obtain all necessary actions or nonactions, waivers, consents, approvals, orders and authorizations from governmental entities and to make all necessary registrations, declarations and filings (including filings with governmental entities, if any) and to take all steps as may be necessary to obtain an approval or waiver from, or to avoid an action or proceeding by, any governmental entity. However, in connection with using its reasonable best efforts, Brandywine will not be required to (i) divest or hold separate or enter into any licensing or similar arrangement with respect to any assets (whether tangible or intangible) or any of the businesses of Brandywine, Prentiss or any of their respective affiliates or (ii) cease to conduct business or operations in any jurisdiction in which Brandywine, Prentiss or any of their respective affiliates conducts business or operations as of the date of the merger agreement.

Each of the parties to the merger agreement has also agreed to use its reasonable best efforts to obtain all consents of third parties necessary, advisable to consummate the REIT Merger and the related transactions.

Employee Matters

In the merger agreement, Brandywine has agreed that following the REIT Merger, Brandywine will or will cause the surviving company, as applicable, or any subsidiary of either of them:

- Interview Prentiss employees and may in its discretion (taking into account the views of Prentiss) offer employment as of the closing date of the REIT Merger to Prentiss field level employees on terms and conditions, including salary and bonus, which are no less favorable than those under which such employees are currently employed, and with benefits that are no less favorable in the aggregate to those applicable to similarly situated employees of Brandywine as in effect from time to time. Brandywine has agreed to continue such salary, benefits and bonuses of each such employee who accepts such offer of employment for a period of one year from the closing date of the REIT Merger, unless such employee voluntarily resigns or is terminated for cause.
- Interview Prentiss corporate level employees with the goal of offering each such employee a position with Brandywine reasonably comparable to the position such employee currently holds with Prentiss. Offers of employment, if made, shall include compensation and bonus, which are no less favorable than those under which such employee is currently employed and with other benefits in line with similar positions at Brandywine Operating Partnership or any of its Affiliates. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no legal obligation shall be created on Brandywine Operating Partnership or any of its affiliates to hire any such executive employees of Prentiss.

- Honor all Prentiss employment agreements, in accordance with their respective terms, as in effect on the date of the Mergers;
- Honor in accordance with their terms all vested accrued benefit obligations to, and contractual rights of, current and former employees of Prentiss and its subsidiaries, including Prentiss' recently instituted severance policy. Prentiss may make any required employee matching contributions under the 401(k) Plan in a manner consistent with historical practices;
- To waive any pre-existing exclusions and waiting periods under welfare plans maintained by Brandywine and its affiliates with respect to participant and coverage requirements applicable to Prentiss employees (except to the extent that any pre-existing condition or waiting period would have been applicable under the comparable Prentiss plan immediately prior to the Mergers). Brandywine shall also recognize under its plans any co-payments or deductibles paid by the Prentiss employees under Prentiss plans during the calendar year in which the Mergers occur;
- To grant the Prentiss employees, after the Mergers, full service credit for all purposes in any Brandywine employee benefit plan, to the extent that such a plan is made available to an employee of Prentiss, but only to such extent that the recognition of such service does not result in the duplication of benefits.

Prior to December 31, 2005, or at such later time as may be permitted under Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code and the regulations and guidance issued thereunder (referred to as Section 409A), and in accordance with, and to the extent permitted under Section 409A, the participants in the Prentiss deferred compensation plans shall be permitted to amend the timing and form of payments to be made under the Prentiss deferred compensation plans, and thereafter, that Prentiss shall amend the Prentiss deferred compensation plans to the extent necessary to conform to Section 409A. All amounts currently deferred under the Prentiss deferred compensation plans shall become vested at the Effective Time except to the extent otherwise provided in the Disclosure Letter. Subject to Section 409A, Parent shall assume the Prentiss deferred compensation plans and maintain the Prentiss deferred compensation plans in accordance with their respective terms for the benefit of the participants thereunder to the extent that such participants maintain account balances after the REIT Merger.

Prentiss employees as of October 3, 2005, with certain exceptions, participate in the Company's recently enacted and disclosed severance policy that provides benefits in the event they are not offered comparable positions by either Brandywine, Prudential, or Prudential's third-party management companies. Under defined conditions in both the Prentiss severance policy and in the merger agreement, covered participants may also receive severance protection in the event they are hired, but subsequently discharged, by either Brandywine, Prudential, or Prudential's third-party management companies. Benefit levels and benefit eligibility periods vary according to factors that include a participant's position, location, title, and length of service. Prentiss employees who become Brandywine employees also will be credited for prior service for purposes of determining severance benefits under Brandywine's general severance practices.

Limitation of Liability, Indemnification and Insurance

The merger agreement provides that, following completion of the REIT Merger, all past and present trustees and officers of Prentiss will be indemnified to the same extent these individuals were indemnified as of the date of the merger agreement pursuant to the Declaration of Trust and Bylaws of Prentiss for acts or omissions occurring at or prior to the completion of the REIT Merger and that certain indemnification agreements between Prentiss and trustees and officers will be assumed by Brandywine. In addition, for six years after the REIT Merger, Brandywine will maintain in effect provisions regarding elimination of liability of trustees, indemnification of officers, trustees and employees and advancement of expenses which are no less advantageous to the intended beneficiaries than those currently contained in the Declaration of Trust and Bylaws of Prentiss.

The merger agreement further provides for the maintenance of trustees' and officers' liability insurance for six years after completion of the REIT Merger with respect to claims arising from facts or events that occurred on or before completion of the REIT Merger, including events that are related to the merger agreement. However, Brandywine will not be required to expend more than 200% of annual premiums currently paid by Prentiss for such insurance. If the annual premiums exceed this amount, then Brandywine will be obligated to obtain a policy with the greatest coverage available subject to the above limit.

Listing of Shares

Brandywine has agreed to use its reasonable best efforts to cause the Brandywine common shares to be issued in the REIT Merger, the Brandywine common shares to be reserved for issuance upon the exercise of Brandywine options issued in exchange for Prentiss options and the Brandywine common shares to be reserved for issuance upon the conversion of the Brandywine Operating Partnership Class A units, to be issued upon exchange of the Prentiss Operating Partnership common units in the Partnership Merger, to be approved for listing, upon official notice of issuance, on the New York Stock Exchange.

Coordination of Dividends

The merger agreement prohibits Prentiss and the Prentiss Operating Partnership from making any distribution or dividend without the prior written consent of Brandywine. Permission is not required, however, for (i) distributions required for Prentiss to maintain its REIT status, (ii) quarterly distributions of up to $0.56 per Prentiss common share, (iii) a distribution per common unit of the Prentiss Operating Partnership in the same amount as any dividend Prentiss common share permitted under the merger agreement, and (iv) regular quarterly dividends of up to $0.56 per Prentiss Series D Preferred Share.

Brandywine and Prentiss have agreed to coordinate setting the record and payment dates for each distribution with respect to the Prentiss common shares with the record and payment dates for quarterly dividends on the Brandywine common shares. However, this does not apply to Prentiss' regular third quarter 2005 dividend. Brandywine and Prentiss have agreed that the record date for the fourth quarter dividend for 2005 shall be on or before the date which is ten days prior to the closing date of the REIT Merger and the record date for the first quarter dividend for 2006 (if the closing of the REIT Merger shall not have occurred on or prior to December 31, 2005) shall be on or before the date which is ten days prior to the closing date of the REIT Merger.

Back to Contents

The merger agreement provides that if a permitted distribution with respect to Prentiss common shares has a record date prior to the REIT Merger and has not been paid as of such effective time, the holders of the Prentiss common shares shall be entitled to receive such distribution at the time such shares are exchanged pursuant to the merger agreement.

Registration Rights

Brandywine has agreed to assume identified registration rights obligations of Prentiss after consummation of the REIT Merger, including the registration right of holders of Prentiss Operating Partnership common units. Brandywine has agreed that holders of registration rights under such agreements shall have substantially the same rights with respect to the registration of the Brandywine common shares that such holders may receive in the REIT Merger or upon conversion of securities received in the Mergers.

Brandywine, Brandywine Operating Partnership and Michael V. Prentiss entered into a registration rights agreement pursuant to which Brandywine agreed to register the Brandywine common shares that Mr. Prentiss receives in the REIT Merger or upon conversion of Brandywine Operating Partnership Class A units received in the Partnership Merger. See "Michael V. Prentiss Registration Rights Agreement."

Brandywine also agreed to use good faith commercially reasonable efforts to file, on or within thirty (30) days following the consummation of the REIT Merger, a shelf registration statement pursuant to Rule 415 under the Securities Act registering the resale of Brandywine common shares issuable by Brandywine upon the conversion or redemption of any Brandywine Operating Partnership Class A units received in the Partnership Merger. Brandywine agreed to use the recently approved automatic shelf registration process under Rule 415 and Rule 462 as promulgated under the Securities Act and use its best efforts to maintain its status as a "well known seasoned issuer."

Brandywine Board of Trustees

Brandywine has agreed to use its best efforts to cause each of Michael V. Prentiss and Thomas F. August to be elected as members of the Brandywine board of trustees. The merger agreement provides that each nominee will serve as a trustee for a term expiring at Brandywine's next annual meeting of shareholders. Brandywine has agreed to use its best efforts to cause the Brandywine board of trustees to re-nominate each nominee as a trustee for election at Brandywine's annual meeting of shareholders for each of 2006 and 2007.

Private Letter Ruling

Brandywine agreed to apply for, and use its reasonable best efforts to obtain, a private letter ruling from the IRS that confirms that the REIT Merger will (i) be treated for Federal income taxes as (x) a taxable sale of assets by Prentiss, immediately followed by (y) a taxable liquidation of Prentiss under Section 331 of the Internal Revenue Code, or (ii) that the Transactions do not constitute a reorganization as defined in Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code. See "Material Federal Income Tax Consequences of The REIT Merger and The Partnership Merger Tax Consequences of the Merger-General-The Private Letter Ruling."

Waiver of Conditions to Closing of the REIT Merger

Where the law permits, a party to the merger agreement may elect to waive a condition to its obligation to complete the REIT Merger that has not been satisfied. We cannot be certain when (or if) the conditions to the REIT Merger will be satisfied or waived or that the REIT Merger will be completed. We expect to complete the REIT Merger as promptly as practicable after all of the conditions have been satisfied or waived.

However, each of Prentiss and Brandywine will pay 50% of any fees and expenses (other than attorneys' and accounting fees and expenses) incurred in connection with the printing, filing and mailing of the registration statement, this joint proxy statement/prospectus and the Prentiss Operating Partnership common unitholder election materials.

Maximum Fee Amount

The termination fee or alternate termination fee shall not exceed the sum of (A) the maximum amount that can be paid to the party receiving the termination payment without causing the party receiving the termination payment to fail to meet the requirements of Sections 856(c)(2) and (3) of the Internal Revenue Code determined as if the payment of such amount did not constitute income described in Sections 856(c)(2)(A)-(H) and 856(c)(3)(A)-(I) of the Internal Revenue Code ("Qualifying Income"), as determined by independent accountants to the party receiving the termination payment, and (B) in the event the party receiving the termination payment receives and, prior to the date the termination fee is due to be paid to the party receiving the termination payment, provides a copy to the other party of, an opinion or a letter from outside counsel (the "Termination Fee Tax Opinion") indicating that the party receiving the termination payment has received an opinion of counsel or a ruling from the Internal Revenue Service holding that such party's receipt of the termination fee or alternate termination fee would either constitute Qualifying Income or would be excluded from gross income of Brandywine within the meaning of Sections 856(c)(2) and (3) of the Internal Revenue Code (the "REIT Requirements"), the termination fee or alternate terminate fee less the amount payable under clause (A) above.

In the event that the party receiving the termination payment is not able to receive the full payment on the date the termination fee is due, the other party shall place the amount by which the termination fee or alternate termination fee exceeds the amount paid under clause (y)(A) of the preceding sentence above (the "Unpaid Amount") in escrow and shall not release any portion thereof to the party receiving the termination payment unless and until such party provides the other with either one of the following: (A) a letter from the party receiving the termination payment independent accountants indicating the maximum portion of the Unpaid Amount that can be paid at that time to the party receiving the termination payment without causing such party to fail to meet the REIT Requirements or (B) a Termination Fee Tax Opinion, in either of which events Prentiss shall pay to Brandywine from the escrow the lesser of the Unpaid Amount and, if applicable, the maximum amount stated in the accountants' letter referred to in clause (A) of this sentence. Prentiss' obligation to pay any portion of the Unpaid Amount shall terminate three years from the date of the merger agreement. Amounts remaining in escrow after such obligation terminates shall be released to Prentiss.

Amendments; Waivers

Any provision of the merger agreement may be amended before the effective time of the REIT Merger if, but only if, the amendment or waiver is in writing and signed by each party to the merger agreement. However, no amendment may be made after the Prentiss common shareholders have approved the merger agreement, the REIT Merger and the related transactions that requires the approval of the Prentiss common shareholders unless such required approval is obtained.

Back to Contents

At any time prior to the effective time of the REIT Merger, the parties to the merger agreement, by action taken or authorized by their respective boards of trustees (or other similar entity, as the case may be), may, to the extent legally allowed, (i) extend the time for the performance of any of the obligations or other acts of the other parties, (ii) waive any inaccuracies in the representations and warranties contained in the merger agreement or in any document delivered pursuant thereto and (iii) waive compliance with any of the agreements or conditions contained in the merger agreement. Any agreement on the part of a party to any such extension or waiver shall be valid only if set forth in a written instrument signed on behalf of such party. The failure of any party to assert any of its rights under the merger agreement or otherwise shall not constitute a waiver of those rights.

Michael V. Prentiss and Thomas F. August Voting Agreements

Each of Michael V. Prentiss, Chairman of the Prentiss board of trustees, and Thomas F. August, President and Chief Executive Officer of Prentiss, have entered into a voting agreement with Brandywine and Brandywine Operating Partnership pursuant to which each of Messrs. Prentiss and August has agreed to vote all Prentiss common shares beneficially owned by such Prentiss common shareholder in favor of:

- approval of the merger agreement, the REIT Merger and the related transactions; and
- any incidental matter reasonably determined by Brandywine and Brandywine Operating Partnership to be necessary in order to facilitate consummation of the REIT Merger.

At any meeting of the Prentiss common shareholders, or at any adjournment thereof, or in any other circumstances upon which their vote, consent or other approval is sought, Messrs. Prentiss and August have each agreed to vote (or cause to be voted) all Prentiss common shares that such Prentiss common shareholder beneficially owns against:

- any Takeover Proposal or any action which is a component of any Takeover Proposal;
- any merger agreement or merger (other than the merger agreement with Brandywine or the Mergers), reorganization, recapitalization, dissolution, liquidation or winding up of or by Prentiss;
- any amendment of the Prentiss organizational documents, which amendment would result in a breach of a representation, warranty or covenant of Prentiss under the merger agreement or would in any manner prevent or materially impede, interfere with or delay the merger agreement, the REIT Merger or any of the other transactions contemplated thereby; or
- any other matter that is inconsistent with the prompt consummation of the REIT Merger, the Partnership Merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Each of Messrs. Prentiss and August granted and appointed Gerard H. Sweeney and Walter D'Alessio as each holder's sole and exclusive attorneys and proxies, with full power of substitution and re-substitution to vote the Prentiss common shares beneficially owned by Messrs. Prentiss and August at every respective annual, special or adjourned meeting of the Prentiss common shareholders and in every written consent in lieu of such meeting, as to the matters described in the immediately preceding two paragraphs.

Each of Messrs. Prentiss and August has agreed that, other than by operation of law as part of the REIT Merger or the Partnership Merger or in any offer to exchange Prentiss common units, such holder shall not cause or permit any Transfer (as defined below) of any of Prentiss common shares or common units in the Prentiss Operating Partnership to be effected without Brandywine's prior written consent to such Transfer and unless each person to which any of such Prentiss common shares or common units in the Prentiss Operating Partnership, or any interest in any of such Prentiss common shares or common units in the Prentiss Operating Partnership, is or may be Transferred shall have: (a) executed a counterpart of the voting agreement and (b) agreed in writing to hold such Prentiss common shares or common units in the Prentiss Operating Partnership (or interest in such Prentiss common shares or common units in the Prentiss Operating Partnership) subject to all of the terms and provisions of the voting agreement, except that the consent of Brandywine shall not be required for a Transfer to an immediate family member (or trust for the benefit of an immediate family member). A person shall be deemed to have effected a "Transfer" of a security for purposes of the voting agreements if such person directly or indirectly: (i) sells, pledges, encumbers, grants an option with respect to, transfers or disposes of such security or any interest in such security; or (ii) enters into an agreement or commitment providing for the sale of, pledge of, encumbrance of, grant of an option with respect to, transfer of or disposition of such security or any interest therein.

Each of Messrs. Prentiss and August has agreed that such holder shall not, and shall use its reasonable best efforts to cause its affiliates or representatives not to, directly or indirectly (i) solicit, initiate, encourage or take any other action to facilitate (including by the furnishing of information) the submission of any inquiry, proposal or offer from any person (other than Brandywine or its affiliates) relating to, or that could reasonably be expected to lead to, any Takeover Proposal, (ii) agree to, approve or recommend any Takeover Proposal or enter into any agreement with respect to any Takeover Proposal or (iii) enter into, continue or otherwise participate in any discussions or negotiations regarding, or furnish to any person any information with respect to, or take any other action to facilitate any inquiries or the making of any proposal that constitutes, or could reasonably be expected to lead to, any Takeover Proposal; provided, however, that the foregoing prohibitions shall not restrict any holder that is a member of the Prentiss board of trustees or an officer of Prentiss from taking any actions in such capacity to the extent permitted by the merger agreement. Each such holder also agreed to notify Brandywine promptly (but in any event within 24 hours) after receipt or occurrence of (i) any Takeover Proposal, (ii) any request for information with respect to any Takeover Proposal, (iii) any inquiry, proposal, discussions or negotiation with respect to any Takeover Proposal and (iv) the material terms and conditions of any such Takeover Proposal, request for information, inquiry, proposal, discussion or negotiation and the identity of the Person making any such Takeover Proposal, request for information, inquiry or proposal or with whom discussions or negotiations are taking place.

The voting agreements also contain provisions relating to, among other things, representations and warranties by each unitholder a party thereto and specific enforcement of the voting agreements. The voting agreements terminate upon termination of the merger agreement in accordance with its terms.

Michael V. Prentiss Registration Rights Agreement

Brandywine, Brandywine Operating Partnership and Michael V. Prentiss entered into a registration rights agreement, effective at the effective time of the REIT Merger, which provides Mr. Prentiss with certain specified rights with respect to the registration under the Securities Act of the securities acquired by him in connection with the Mergers and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. Under the terms of the registration rights agreement:

At any time after the closing date of the REIT Merger, Mr. Prentiss may require Brandywine to file a registration statement on Form S-1 or Form S-3 (including a shelf registration statement under Rule 415), and use its reasonable best efforts to cause to become effective as soon thereafter as practicable, with respect to the registrable securities held by Mr. Prentiss or a permitted assignee.

Brandywine also has agreed to use good faith commercially reasonable efforts to file, on or within thirty days following the closing date of the REIT Merger, a shelf registration statement pursuant to Rule 415 under the Securities Act to enable the resale of the registrable securities by Mr. Prentiss or a permitted assignee from time to time on a delayed or continuous basis.

The shelf registration statement shall be filed on Form S-3 and, if Brandywine is eligible, the shelf registration statement shall utilize the newly adopted automatic shelf registration process. Brandywine has agreed to use its reasonable best efforts to maintain its status as a “well known seasoned issuer” as defined in the recent release describing the newly adopted automatic shelf registration process. If Brandywine is not a “well known seasoned issuer” or is otherwise ineligible to utilize the automatic shelf registration process, then Parent shall use its reasonable best efforts to have the Shelf Registration Statement declared effective under the Securities Act as expeditiously as practicable. Brandywine will use its reasonable best efforts to maintain the effectiveness of the Shelf Registration Statement, including by filing any necessary post-effective amendments and prospectus supplements, or, alternatively, by filing new registration statements relating to the registrable Prentiss common shares as required by Rule 415 under the Securities Act to permit the disposition of all registrable Prentiss common shares pursuant hereto until the earliest date on which (i) all registrable Prentiss common shares registered pursuant to the shelf registration statement or any successors thereto have been sold or (ii) all registrable Prentiss common shares may be sold pursuant to Rule 144(k) under the Securities Act (“Effectiveness Period”). If Brandywine registers all of the registrable Prentiss common shares on a shelf registration statement and maintains the effectiveness of the shelf registration, and otherwise satisfies its obligations under registration rights agreement in all material respects, neither Mr. Prentiss nor any permitted assignee will be permitted to exercise ay demand registration rights provided in the registration rights agreement. All of these registration rights are subject to customary conditions and limitations.

THE PRUDENTIAL ACQUISITION AND RELATED AGREEMENTS

The merger agreement and related Prudential Acquisition transaction documents (which includes a master agreement by and between Brandywine Operating Partnership and Prudential and a Prudential asset purchase agreement by and among Prentiss, Prentiss Operating Partnership and Prudential which are summarized below) provide for the acquisition by Prudential (either on the day prior to, or the day of, the closing of the REIT Merger) of the Prudential Properties. The Prudential Properties contain an aggregate of approximately 4.32 million net rentable square feet for total consideration, payable in cash and through assumption of debt, of approximately $747.7 million.

Whether Prudential acquires the Prudential Properties on the closing date of the REIT Merger or on the day prior to the closing date depends on whether Brandywine has received a private letter ruling from the IRS, on or before the business day which is ten business days prior to the special meetings, that confirms that the REIT Merger will (i) be treated for Federal income taxes as a taxable sale of assets by Prentiss, immediately followed by a taxable liquidation of Prentiss under Section 331 of the Internal Revenue Code or (ii) that the REIT Merger and the related transactions do not constitute a reorganization as defined in Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code.

If the private letter ruling described above is not obtained, Prudential will acquire the Prudential Properties on the day prior to the closing of the REIT Merger, Prentiss will cause Prentiss Operating Partnership to authorize a distribution payable to holders of Prentiss Operating Partnership common units on such date and the Prentiss board of trustees would, on such date, declare the Special Dividend that would be payable to holders of Prentiss common shares of record on such date and the cash portion of the per share REIT Merger consideration would be reduced by the per share amount of the Special Dividend and the conversion ratio applicable to the Partnership Merger would be reduced. The amount of the Prentiss Operating Partnership distribution, if authorized, and the Special Divided, if declared, will be funded from net cash proceeds of the Prudential Acquisition.

If the private letter ruling described above is obtained, Prudential will acquire the Prudential Properties on the closing date of the REIT Merger, no Special Dividend will be declare and the cash portion of the per share REIT Merger consideration will not be reduced and the conversion ratio applicable to the Partnership Merger will not be reduced. Under this scenario, prior to the closing date, Prudential will contribute approximately $747.7 million to Brandywine Cognac I, LLC in exchange for an interest in such entity. This cash will be used to fund a portion of the cash consideration payable in the REIT Merger. After the Mergers are consummated, Prudential’s interest in Brandywine Cognac I, LLC will be exchanged for the Prudential Properties.

The Master Agreement and the Prudential Purchase Agreement

The following is a summary description of the material provisions of the master agreement and the Prudential purchase agreement. This summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of the master agreement and the Prudential purchase agreement which are attached as Annex B and Annex C, respectively, to this joint proxy statement/prospectus which are incorporated by reference herein.

Concurrently with the execution and delivery of the merger agreement, Brandywine entered into the master agreement with Prudential and Prentiss entered into the Prudential purchase agreement with Prudential. The master agreement provides for the acquisition by Prudential of the Prudential Properties if Brandywine receives the private letter ruling, and the Prudential purchase agreement provides for the acquisition by Prudential of the Prudential Properties if Brandywine does not receive the private letter ruling. Prudential will pay the same purchase price, and will acquire the same assets, whether Prudential's acquisition occurs pursuant to the master agreement or the Prudential purchase agreement

The master agreement also provides for:

- Prudential's payment of state and local transfer taxes associated with the transfer of the Prudential Properties up to the amount that Prudential would have paid if it acquired the Prudential Properties from Prentiss pursuant to the Prudential purchase agreement;
- Prudential's engagement of Brandywine to lease and manage all of the Prudential Properties (other than Denver) after the Mergers;
- Prudential's payment to Brandywine of $5 million on account of transaction costs of the Mergers;
- Prudential's approval rights over waivers under the merger agreement pending consummation of the closings of the Mergers;
- supplemental title, survey and other property-level due diligence on the Prentiss portfolio and the sharing by Brandywine and Prudential of eligible remediation costs relating to matters identified through this diligence; and
- the sharing by Brandywine and Prudential of termination fees and expenses pursuant to the merger agreement.

The master agreement also provides Prudential with a limited right to change the composition of the portfolio of Prudential Properties. Generally, Prudential's right to change the composition of the portfolio, either by electing not to purchase a property, or to substitute a property for another Prentiss property, is subject to the occurrence of an uncured adverse change at a property and is limited to properties that have, in aggregate, an agreed upon value of $150 million.

The master agreement also provides for representations and warranties in favor of Prudential regarding the Prudential Properties and closing pro rations.

The Prudential purchase agreement will become effective only if the private letter ruling is not obtained and all conditions to the REIT Merger have been satisfied or waived. If the Prudential purchase agreement becomes effective then Prentiss will transfer the Prudential Properties to Prudential on the day prior to the closing of the REIT Merger, with the rights and obligations otherwise applicable to Prudential in the master agreement continuing to be applicable.

MATERIAL FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGERS

The following is a general discussion of certain material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the REIT Merger and the Partnership Merger. The portion of this discussion pertaining to the REIT Merger is limited to "U.S. Shareholders" and "Non-U.S. Shareholders" who hold their Prentiss common shares and Prentiss Series D Cumulative Convertible Redeemable Preferred Shares, and who will hold their Brandywine common shares and Brandywine Series E Cumulative Convertible Redeemable Preferred Shares received in the REIT Merger, as capital assets for U.S. federal income tax purposes (in general, as an asset held for investment). The portion of this discussion pertaining to the Partnership Merger is limited to "U.S. Unitholders."

For the purpose of this discussion, a "U.S. Shareholder" is a Prentiss shareholder that participates in the REIT Merger and that is (i) an individual who is a citizen or resident of the United States for U.S. federal income tax purposes; (ii) a corporation (or other entity taxable as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes) created or organized in or under the laws of the United States or any state thereof or the District of Columbia; (iii) an estate, the income of which is subject to U.S. federal income taxation regardless of its source; or (iv) any trust if a court within the United States is able to exercise primary supervision over the administration of such trust and one or more U.S. fiduciaries have the authority to control all substantial decisions relating to the trust or a trust that has a valid election in effect under application U.S. federal income tax law to be treated as a United States person. A "Non-U.S. Shareholder" is a Prentiss shareholder that participates in the REIT Merger other than a U.S. Shareholder. A "U.S. Unitholder" is a holder of common units in the Prentiss Operating Partnership that participates in the Partnership Merger and that is described in one of the categories of persons set forth above in clauses (i), (ii), (iii) or (iv) of the definition of U.S. Shareholder.

This discussion considers neither the specific facts and circumstances that may be relevant to a particular shareholder or unitholder nor any U.S. state and local or non-U.S. tax consequences of the REIT Merger or the Partnership Merger. Moreover, except as provided herein, this discussion does not address special situations, such as the following:

- tax consequences to shareholders or unitholders who may be subject to special tax treatment, such as tax-exempt entities, dealers in securities or currencies, banks, other financial institutions or "financial services entities," insurance companies, regulated investment companies, traders in securities that elect to use a mark-to-market method of accounting for their securities holdings, certain expatriates or former long-term residents of the United States or corporations that accumulate earnings to avoid U.S. federal income tax;
- tax consequences to persons holding Prentiss common shares, Prentiss Series D Cumulative Convertible Redeemable Preferred Shares or common units in the Prentiss Operating Partnership as part of a hedging, integrated, constructive sale or conversion transaction or a straddle or other risk reduction transaction; and

- tax consequences to partnerships or similar pass-through entities or to persons who hold Prentiss common shares, Prentiss Series D Cumulative Convertible Redeemable Preferred Shares or common units in the Prentiss Operating Partnership through a partnership or similar pass-through entity.

If a partnership or other entity taxable as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes holds Prentiss common shares, Prentiss Series D Cumulative Convertible Redeemable Preferred Shares or common units in the Prentiss Operating Partnership, the U.S. federal income tax treatment of a partner will generally depend on the status of the partner and the activities of the partnership. Such partners are urged to consult their tax advisors. This discussion is based upon current provisions of the Internal Revenue Code, existing and proposed regulations thereunder and current administrative rulings and court decisions, all as in effect on the date hereof. All of the foregoing are subject to change, possibly on a retroactive basis, and any such change could affect the continuing validity of this discussion.

Tax Consequences of the REIT Merger General

The Private Letter Ruling

Pursuant to the merger agreement, Brandywine agreed to apply for, and use its reasonable best efforts to obtain, a private letter ruling from the IRS that (i) confirms that the REIT Merger in the form of the Forward REIT Merger will not be treated as a tax-free reorganization under Section 368 of the Code and (ii) confirms that the REIT Merger in the form of the Forward REIT Merger will be treated for Federal income tax purposes as (x) a taxable sale of assets by Prentiss, immediately followed by (y) a taxable liquidation of Prentiss under Section 331 of the Code.

Brandywine is requesting the ruling in order to provide certainty that the Forward REIT Merger and sale of Prudential Properties to Prudential does not result in multiple layers of tax on the transaction and does not jeopardize the REIT status of Brandywine. If the private letter ruling is received, then the REIT Merger will take the form of the Forward REIT Merger. If the private letter ruling is not received, then the REIT Merger will take the form of the Reverse REIT Merger, and Prentiss will declare the Special Dividend to Prentiss common shareholders on the day prior to the Reverse REIT Merger.

Whether the REIT Merger takes the form of the Forward REIT Merger or the Reverse REIT Merger, the REIT Merger will be a fully taxable transaction. The tax consequences of each alternative are set forth below.

Back to Contents

The Forward REIT Merger

The Forward REIT Merger will be treated for Federal income tax purposes as (x) a taxable sale of assets by Prentiss in exchange for the Merger Consideration, immediately followed by (y) a taxable liquidation of Prentiss under Section 331 of the Code. Prentiss will recognize gain or loss on the taxable sale of its assets. Prentiss will be deemed to liquidate and to distribute the REIT Merger consideration to Prentiss shareholders in liquidation. The liquidating distribution will satisfy Prentiss' requirement to distribute 90% of its REIT taxable income. Brandywine will have a basis in the assets acquired from Prentiss equal to their fair market value and will not recognize gain or loss as a result of the sale of assets to Prudential.

For U.S. Federal income tax purposes, the Forward REIT Merger will be a fully taxable transaction for Prentiss shareholders. U.S. Shareholders of Prentiss will recognize capital gain or loss on the deemed liquidation of Prentiss as described below in "Consequences to U.S. Shareholders of Prentiss of the REIT Merger." Non-U.S. Shareholders of Prentiss will be treated as described below in "Consequences to Non-U.S. Shareholders of Prentiss of the REIT Merger.

The Reverse REIT Merger

For U.S. Federal income tax purposes, the Reverse REIT Merger will be treated as a fully taxable exchange by Prentiss shareholders of Prentiss shares for the REIT Merger consideration. U.S. Shareholders of Prentiss will recognize capital gain or loss on the taxable exchange of their Prentiss shares as described below in "Consequences to U.S. Shareholders of Prentiss of the REIT Merger." Non-U.S. Shareholders will be treated as described below in "Consequences to Non-U.S. Shareholders of Prentiss of the REIT Merger.

In the Reverse REIT Merger, Prentiss will sell the Prudential Properties to Prudential on the day prior to the closing of the Reverse REIT Merger, and Prentiss will declare the Special Dividend to holders of record of Prentiss common shares on such date. The cash portion of the REIT Merger consideration will be reduced by the per share amount of the Special Dividend. The Special Dividend will be includible in the U.S. Shareholder's taxable income in accordance with the normal rules applicable to dividends received from REITs.

Brandywine will have a basis in the Prentiss shares acquired from Prentiss shareholders equal to their fair market value. The basis of Prentiss in its assets will be the same as the basis prior to the Reverse REIT Merger (i.e., the basis of Prentiss assets will not be stepped up to fair market value). The lack of a basis step up in the Reverse REIT Merger may result in Prentiss recognizing additional taxable gain with respect to a subsequent sale of the Prentiss assets, which would likely increase the amount of taxable distributions paid to Brandywine shareholders. The lack of a basis step up will also reduce the amount of depreciation deductions available to Brandywine following the Mergers, which will likely increase the amount of taxable distributions to shareholders.

In the Reverse REIT Merger, Prentiss will remain in existence. In order to maintain the qualification of Prentiss and Brandywine as REITs, the Brandywine Operating Partnership will be required to cause Prentiss to issue additional shares to satisfy the requirement that shares of a REIT be held by 100 or more persons. The Brandywine Operating Partnership will have a period of 30 days following the REIT Merger to cause Prentiss to issue the shares necessary to meet the 100 shareholder requirement.

Consequences to U.S. Shareholders of Prentiss of the REIT Merger

General

In the REIT Merger, which is a fully taxable event for U.S. federal income tax purposes, U.S. Shareholders who own Prentiss common shares will exchange their shares for cash and Brandywine common shares, and U.S. Shareholders who own Prentiss Series D Cumulative Convertible Redeemable Preferred Shares will exchange their shares solely for Brandywine Series E Cumulative Convertible Redeemable Preferred Shares. As a result, each such shareholder will recognize capital gain or loss in the REIT Merger equal to the difference between the fair market value of the consideration received in the REIT Merger and the tax basis in their surrendered Prentiss shares. In general, capital gains and losses arising from the REIT Merger will be long-term if the Prentiss shares surrendered had been held for more than one year as of the effective time of the REIT Merger. U.S. Shareholders who are individuals will generally be subject to a maximum rate of 15% on long-term capital gain arising in the REIT Merger, unless they are subject to the alternative minimum tax, in which case, they may be taxed at a rate of 25% on some or all of their long-term capital gain. A U.S. Shareholder who has held his or her Prentiss common shares for six months or less at the effective time of the REIT Merger, taking into account the holding period rules of Section 246(c)(3) and (4) of the Internal Revenue Code, and who recognizes a capital loss with respect to those shares will be treated as recognizing a long-term, rather than short-term, capital loss to the extent of any capital gain dividends received from Prentiss with respect to those shares. The deductibility of capital losses, in general, is subject to limitations. In the case of shareholders who hold multiple blocks of Prentiss common shares (i.e., the shares were acquired separately at different times and/or different prices), gain or loss must be calculated and accounted for separately for each block of shares.

Basis and Holding Period in Brandywine Shares Received in the REIT Merger

A Prentiss shareholder’s tax basis in the shares of Brandywine received in the REIT Merger (Brandywine common shares or Brandywine Series E Cumulative Convertible Redeemable Preferred Shares, as the case may be) will be equal, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, to the fair market value of such shares on the effective date of the REIT Merger. The holding period with respect to such shares shall commence on the day after the effective date of the REIT Merger. For a discussion of certain material U.S. federal income tax consequences of owning and disposing of shares of such Brandywine common shares, please see “Material Federal Income Tax Consequences Related to the Ownership and Disposition of Brandywine’s Common Shares and Series E Cumulative Convertible Redeemable Preferred Shares.”

If the private letter ruling is not obtained, the REIT Merger will take the form of the Reverse REIT Merger. In such event, Prentiss will sell the Prudential Properties to Prudential on the day prior to the closing of the REIT Merger, and Prentiss will declare the Special Dividend to holders of record of Prentiss common shares on such date. The cash portion of the REIT Merger consideration will be reduced by the per share amount of the Special Dividend. The Special Dividend will be includible in the U.S. Shareholder’s taxable income in accordance with the normal rules applicable to dividends received from REITs. Prentiss expects that the Special Dividend will be designated in part as a long-term capital gain dividend, and in part as a return of capital dividend. The portion of the Special Dividend that is designated as a long-term capital gain dividend will be taxable to the U.S. Shareholder in part at the rate of 15% and in part at a rate of 25%. The portion of the Special Dividend that is treated as a return of capital dividend will not be taxable but will reduce the U.S. Shareholder’s basis in the Prentiss common shares (and to the extent in excess of such basis will be taxable as capital gain). The amount of the basis reduction will increase the amount of capital gain (or reduce the amount of capital loss) recognized by the U.S. shareholder in the Reverse REIT Merger. See “Material Federal Income Tax Consequences Related to the Ownership and Disposition of Brandywine’s Common Shares and Series E Cumulative Convertible Redeemable Preferred SharesTaxation of Taxable U.S. Shareholders.”

A Portion of the Merger Consideration Consists of Common Shares in Brandywine, Which is a REIT

Brandywine, like Prentiss, has elected to be taxed as a REIT under Sections 856 through 860 of the Internal Revenue Code. As a condition to the consummation of the REIT Merger, Pepper Hamilton LLP will deliver an opinion to Prentiss that Brandywine qualifies as a REIT as of the effective time of the REIT Merger. This opinion, however, will not be binding on the Internal Revenue Service or the courts. This opinion will rely on customary representations. If Brandywine did not qualify as a REIT in any of its prior taxable years, Brandywine would be subject to U.S. federal income tax at regular corporate rates and to potentially significant tax liabilities. For a description of the U.S. federal income tax requirements for qualification as a REIT and a summary of certain material consequences of losing REIT status, please see “Material Federal Income Tax Consequences Relating to Brandywine’s Taxation as a REIT.”

Consequences to Non-U.S. Shareholders of Prentiss of the REIT Merger

Tax Consequences of the REIT Merger

Non-U.S. Shareholders are generally not subject to U.S. federal income tax on gains from disposition of their Prentiss common shares and Prentiss Series D Cumulative Convertible Redeemable Preferred Shares unless such shares are a "U.S. real property interest" in the hands of such shareholder under the Foreign Investment in Real Property Tax Act of 1980, as amended, which Brandywine refer to in this joint proxy statement/prospectus as FIRPTA. Neither Prentiss common shares nor Prentiss Series D Cumulative Convertible Redeemable Preferred Shares constitute U.S. real property interests subject to tax under FIRPTA if Prentiss is a domestically-controlled REIT, that is, if at all times during the five-year period preceding the consummation of the REIT Merger less than 50% in value of the shares of Prentiss has been held directly or indirectly by Non-U.S. Shareholders. Prentiss believes, based on the available public information, that it is a domestically-controlled REIT. Since Prentiss common shares are publicly traded, however, no assurance can be given that Prentiss is a domestically-controlled REIT. Even if Prentiss is not a domestically-controlled REIT, since Prentiss common shares are regularly traded on an established securities exchange, Prentiss common shares are not a U.S. real property interest subject to tax under FIRPTA to a Non-U.S. Shareholder, unless such shareholder owns, actually or constructively under the attribution rules provided in the Internal Revenue Code, more than 5% of all of the shares of Prentiss common shares outstanding at any time during the shorter of the five-year period preceding the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the REIT Merger or such Non-U.S. Shareholder's holding period. However, as the Prentiss Series D Cumulative Convertible Redeemable Preferred Shares are not regularly traded on an established securities exchange, in the event that Prentiss is not a domestically-controlled REIT, each Non-U.S. Shareholder of Prentiss Series D Cumulative Convertible Redeemable Preferred Shares may be subject to tax under FIRPTA. If Brandywine or the exchange agent subsequently determined that Prentiss may, in fact, not be a domestically-controlled REIT, they may withhold 10% of any consideration to be received in the REIT Merger.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, capital gain not subject to FIRPTA will be taxable to a Non-U.S. Shareholder if, among other conditions, the Non-U.S. Shareholder is a nonresident alien individual who is present in the United States for 183 days or more during the taxable year or is a former citizen or long-term resident of the United States subject to special rules that apply to expatriates. Gain from selling the shares may also be taxable to foreign corporations if such gain is effectively connected with their U.S. trade or business. The branch profits tax may also apply to such a foreign corporation's effectively connected income under certain circumstances.

If the private letter ruling is not obtained, the REIT Merger will take the form of the Reverse REIT Merger. In such event, Prentiss will sell the Prudential Properties to Prudential on the day prior to the closing of the REIT Merger, and Prentiss will declare the Special Dividend to holders of record of Prentiss common shares on such date. The cash portion of the REIT Merger consideration will be reduced by the per share amount of the Special Dividend. The Special Dividend will be includible in the Non-U.S. Shareholder’s taxable income in accordance with the normal rules applicable to dividends received from REITs. Accordingly, the Special Dividend will be subject to a 30% U.S. withholding tax (subject to reduction under applicable treaty). See “Material Federal Income Tax Consequences Related to the Ownership and Disposition of Brandywine’s Common Shares and Series E Cumulative Convertible Redeemable Preferred SharesTaxation of Non-U.S. Shareholders.”

Backup Withholding

Under U.S. federal income tax laws, consideration to be received in the REIT Merger may be subject to a 28% backup withholding tax. Backup withholding generally will not apply to payments made to certain exempt recipients, such as a corporation or financial institution or to a shareholder who certifies such shareholder’s taxpayer identification number and certain other required information or provides a certificate of foreign status. Backup withholding is not an additional tax. If backup withholding applies, the amount withheld will be allowed as a refund or a credit against such shareholder’s U.S. federal income tax liability, provided the required information is furnished to the Internal Revenue Service on a timely basis.

Consequences to U.S. Unitholders of the Partnership Merger

General

Generally, gain or loss is not recognized for U.S. federal income tax purposes upon the contribution of property to a partnership in exchange for interests in the partnership. It is intended, and this discussion assumes, that the Partnership Merger will be treated for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a contribution by the U.S. Unitholders of their common units in the Prentiss Operating Partnership to the Brandywine Operating Partnership in exchange for Class A units in the Brandywine Operating Partnership. Accordingly, U.S. Unitholders that receive Class A units in the Brandywine Operating Partnership pursuant to the Partnership Merger should not recognize gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes upon the consummation of the Partnership Merger.

If and to the extent a U.S. Unitholder chooses to exchange its common units in the Prentiss Operating Partnership for Prentiss common shares (the “Prentiss OP Unit Conversion”), such U.S. Unitholder will recognize gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes equal to the excess of the value of the Prentiss common shares received (increased by such U.S. Unitholder’s “share” of liabilities of the Prentiss Operating Partnership, which is discussed below) over its tax basis in the common units exchanged therefor. Such gain or loss generally will constitute long-term capital gain or loss if the holder has held such common units for more than one year, but in certain circumstances (e.g., to the extent of recapture) a portion of any such gain may constitute ordinary income or be taxed at a 25% rate instead of the 15% rate generally applicable to long-term capital gain. Such U.S. Unitholder’s initial tax basis in the Prentiss common shares received in the Prentiss OP Unit Conversion will be equal to the fair market value of such shares on the effective date of the Prentiss OP Unit Conversion and such U.S. Unitholder’s holding period in those Prentiss common shares shall commence the day after the Prentiss OP Unit Conversion. U.S. Unitholders who choose to convert their common units in the Prentiss Operating Partnership for Prentiss common shares may participate in the REIT Merger like the other Prentiss shareholders, the U.S. federal income tax consequences of which are described above.

Basis in Brandywine Operating Partnership Class A Units

Each U.S. Unitholder will have an initial basis in the Brandywine Operating Partnership Class A units it receives in the Partnership Merger equal to its basis in the Prentiss Operating Partnership common units it contributed to the Brandywine Operating Partnership in exchange therefor. Such basis shall be increased by the U.S. Unitholder's allocable share of income of, and any additional capital contributions of money made (or deemed made) by the U.S. Unitholder to, the Brandywine Operating Partnership, and decreased by the U.S. Unitholder's allocable share of losses of and distributions made (or deemed made) to the U.S. Unitholder by the Brandywine Operating Partnership. For purposes of determining the amount of any contributions to or distributions from the Brandywine Operating Partnership, an increase in a U.S. Unitholder's "share" of liabilities of the Brandywine Operating Partnership or the amount of any liabilities which are treated as assumed by a U.S. Unitholder will be treated as a contribution by such U.S. Unitholder of money to the Brandywine Operating Partnership and a reduction in a U.S. Unitholder's "share" of liabilities and the amount of direct or indirect liabilities to which property (including the Prentiss Operating Partnership common units) contributed by a U.S. Unitholder is subject will be treated as a distribution of money to such U.S. Unitholder. A U.S. Unitholder's "share" of liabilities is determined based on the nature of the liabilities and, in certain cases, the application of a three-tier allocation scheme set forth in applicable Treasury Regulations. Certain potentially adverse tax consequences to a U.S. Unitholder resulting from the application of these rules are described in the next paragraph.

Potential for Taxable Gain Resulting from Contributions of Prentiss Operating Partnership Common Units and the Reduction of a U.S. Unitholder's Share of Liabilities

If cash is distributed (including in certain circumstances, distributions of certain "marketable securities" treated as cash distributions) to a partner in any year, including for this purpose any reduction in that partner's share of the liabilities of the partnership, and the distribution exceeds that partner's share of the taxable income of the partnership for that year, the excess will reduce the partner's tax basis in its partnership interests and any distribution, or reduction in liabilities, in excess of such basis will result in taxable gain. To the extent a U.S. Unitholder's net "share" of liabilities is reduced in connection with its contribution of Prentiss Operating Partnership common units to the Brandywine Operating Partnership or is subsequently reduced, such net reductions in liabilities can, depending on the amount of the U.S. Unitholder's other income allocations and remaining tax basis, result in taxable gain to the U.S. Unitholder. Pursuant to a tax protection agreement, Brandywine and the Brandywine Operating Partnership will make available to U.S. Unitholders the opportunity to guaranty indebtedness or enter into similar arrangements providing limited protection from the recognition of such taxable gain. Each U.S. Unitholder is urged to consult with its own tax advisors regarding the potential for recognizing taxable gain as a result of decreases in such U.S. Unitholder's share of liabilities.

Holding Period in Brandywine Operating Partnership Class A Units

Each U.S. Unitholder will have an initial holding period in the Brandywine Operating Partnership Class A units it receives in the Partnership Merger equal to the holding period in the Prentiss Operating Partnership common units it contributed to the Brandywine Operating Partnership in exchange therefor.

Tax Allocations with Respect to Contributed Prentiss Operating Partnership Common Units

Pursuant to Section 704(c) of the Code, income, gain, loss and deduction attributable to appreciated or depreciated property that is contributed to a partnership in exchange for an interest in the partnership must be allocated in a manner such that the contributing partner is charged with, or benefits from, the unrealized gain or unrealized loss inherent in such property at the time of the contribution. Because the U.S. Unitholders will have contributed appreciated property (i.e., their Prentiss Operating Partnership common units) to the Brandywine Operating Partnership, allocations with respect to the contributed Prentiss Operating Partnership common units must be made in a manner consistent with Section 704(c) of the Code.

The special allocation rules under Section 704(c) may cause a U.S. Unitholder to recognize taxable income in excess of the cash distributed to such U.S. Unitholder. Pursuant to a tax protection agreement, Brandywine and the Brandywine Operating Partnership have agreed to take (or refrain from taking) certain designated actions that will ameliorate the potential adverse effects to the U.S. Unitholders of the above described allocations under Section 704(c).

Disposition of Brandywine Operating Partnership Class A Units

A U.S. Unitholder will recognize gain or loss upon a disposition of its Brandywine Operating Partnership Class A units, including a redemption of such interests or exchange of such interests for common shares of Brandywine, equal to the excess of any cash and the value of any Brandywine common shares or other property received (increased by such U.S. Unitholder's "share" of the liabilities of the Brandywine Operating Partnership) over its tax basis in the interests exchanged or otherwise disposed. Such gain or loss generally will constitute long-term capital gain or loss if the holder has held such Brandywine Operating Partnership Class A units for more than one year, but in certain circumstances (e.g., to the extent of recapture) a portion of any such gain may constitute ordinary income or be taxed at a 25% rate instead of the 15% rate generally applicable to long-term capital gain. A U.S. Unitholder's initial tax basis in any Brandywine common shares received in exchange for Brandywine Operating Partnership Class A units will be equal to the fair market value of such shares on the day received and such U.S. Unitholder's holding period in such shares shall commence on the following day.

Backup Withholding

Under U.S. federal income tax laws, consideration to be received in the Partnership Merger and/or the Prentiss OP Unit Conversion may be subject to a backup withholding tax (currently at a rate of 28%). Backup withholding generally will not apply to payments made to certain exempt recipients, such as a corporation or financial institution or to a person who certifies such person's taxpayer identification number and certain other required information or provides a certificate of foreign status. Backup withholding is not an additional tax. If backup withholding applies, the amount withheld will be allowed as a refund or a credit against the U.S. federal income tax liability of the party whose consideration was subject to the backup withholding, provided the required information is furnished to the Internal Revenue Service on a timely basis.

MATERIAL FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES RELATING TO BRANDYWINE'S TAXATION AS A REIT

The following discussion describes the material U.S. federal income tax consequences relating to the taxation of Brandywine as a REIT.

The information in this summary is based on the Code, current, temporary and proposed Treasury regulations, the legislative history of the Code, current administrative interpretations and practices of the Internal Revenue Service, including its practices and policies as endorsed in private letter rulings, which are not binding on the Internal Revenue Service, and existing court decisions. Future legislation, regulations, administrative interpretations and court decisions could change current law or adversely affect existing interpretations of current law. Any change could apply retroactively. Brandywine has not obtained any rulings from the Internal Revenue Service concerning the tax treatment of the matters discussed in this summary. Therefore, it is possible that the Internal Revenue Service could challenge the statements in this summary, which do not bind the Internal Revenue Service or the courts, and that a court could agree with the Internal Revenue Service.

On October 22, 2004, President Bush signed into law the American Jobs Creation Act of 2004 (the "Act"). The Act makes a number of changes to the REIT rules in the Code, generally taking effect in the taxable year beginning January 1, 2005. The following summary includes a discussion of the material changes made by the Act.

Taxation of Brandywine as a REIT

Brandywine first elected to be taxed as a REIT for the taxable year ended December 31, 1986, and has operated and expects to continue to operate in such a manner so as to remain qualified as a REIT for Federal income tax purposes. An entity that qualifies for taxation as a REIT and distributes to its shareholders an amount at least equal to 90% of its REIT taxable income (determined without regard to the deduction for dividends paid and by excluding any net capital gain) plus 90% of its income from foreclosure property (less the tax imposed on such income) is generally not subject to Federal corporate income taxes on net income that it currently distributes to shareholders. This treatment substantially eliminates the "double taxation" (at the corporate and shareholder levels) that generally results from investment in a corporation. However, Brandywine will be subject to Federal income tax as follows:

1. Brandywine will be taxed at regular corporate rates on any undistributed REIT taxable income, including undistributed net capital gains.
2. Under certain circumstances, Brandywine may be subject to the "alternative minimum tax" on its items of tax preference, if any.

3. If Brandywine has net income from prohibited transactions (which are, in general, certain sales or other dispositions of property, other than foreclosure property, held primarily for sale to customers in the ordinary course of business) such income will be subject to a 100% tax. See "Sale of Partnership Property."
4. If Brandywine should fail to satisfy the 75% gross income test or the 95% gross income test (as discussed below), and nonetheless has maintained its qualification as a REIT because certain other requirements have been met, Brandywine will be subject to a 100% tax on the net income attributable to the greater of the amount by which Brandywine fails the 75% or 95% test, multiplied by a fraction intended to reflect its profitability.
5. If Brandywine should fail to distribute during each calendar year at least the sum of (1) 85% of its REIT ordinary income for such year, (2) 95% of its REIT capital gain net income for such year, and (3) any undistributed taxable income from prior years, Brandywine would be subject to a 4% excise tax on the excess of such required distribution over the amounts actually distributed.
6. If Brandywine has (1) net income from the sale or other disposition of "foreclosure property" (which is, in general, property acquired by Brandywine by foreclosure or otherwise or default on a loan secured by the property) which is held primarily for sale to customers in the ordinary course of business or (2) other nonqualifying income from foreclosure property, Brandywine will be subject to tax on such income at the highest corporate rate.
7. If Brandywine were to acquire any asset from a taxable "C" corporation in a carry-over basis transaction, Brandywine could be liable for specified tax liability inherited from that "C" corporation with respect to that corporation's "built-in gain" in its assets. Built-in gain is the amount by which an asset's fair market value exceeds its adjusted tax basis. Brandywine would not be subject to tax on the built in gain, however, if Brandywine does not dispose of the acquired property within the 10-year period following acquisition of such property.

Qualification of Brandywine as a REIT

The Code defines a REIT as a corporation, trust or association:

1. that is managed by one or more trustees or directors;
2. the beneficial ownership of which is evidenced by transferable shares or by transferable certificates of beneficial interest;
3. that would be taxable as a domestic corporation but for Sections 856 through 859 of the Code;
4. that is neither a financial institution nor an insurance company subject to certain provisions of the Code;
5. the beneficial ownership of which is held by 100 or more persons;
6. during the last half of each taxable year not more than 50% in value of the outstanding shares of which is owned, directly or indirectly, by five or fewer individuals (as defined in the Code to include specified entities);

Back to Contents

7. that makes an election to be taxable as a REIT, or has made this election for a previous taxable year which has not been revoked or terminated, and satisfies all relevant filing and other administrative requirements established by the Internal Revenue Service that must be met to elect and maintain REIT status;
8. that uses a calendar year for federal income tax purposes and complies with the record keeping requirements of the Code and the Treasury Regulations; and
9. that meets other applicable tests, described below, regarding the nature of its income and assets and the amount of its distributions.

Conditions (1) through (4) must be satisfied during the entire taxable year, and condition (5) must be satisfied during at least 335 days of a taxable year of 12 months, or during a proportionate part of a taxable year of less than 12 months. Brandywine has previously issued Common Shares in sufficient proportions to allow Brandywine to satisfy requirements (5) and (6) (the “100 Shareholder” and “five-or-fewer” requirements). In addition, its Declaration of Trust provides restrictions regarding the transfer of its shares that are intended to assist Brandywine in continuing to satisfy the requirements described in conditions (5) and (6) above. See “Description of Shares of Beneficial InterestRestrictions on Transfer.” However, these restrictions may not ensure that Brandywine will, in all cases, be able to satisfy the requirements described in conditions (5) and (6) above. In addition, Brandywine has not obtained a ruling from the Internal Revenue Service as to whether the provisions of its Declaration of Trust concerning restrictions on transfer and conversion of Common Shares to “Excess Shares” will allow Brandywine to satisfy conditions (5) and (6). If Brandywine fails to satisfy such share ownership requirements, its status as a REIT will terminate. However, for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2005, the Act provides that if the failure to meet the share ownership requirements is due to reasonable cause and not due to willful neglect, Brandywine may avoid termination of its REIT status by paying a penalty of $50,000.

To monitor compliance with condition (6) above, a REIT is required to send annual letters to its shareholders requesting information regarding the actual ownership of its shares. If Brandywine complies with the annual letters requirement and do not know or, exercising reasonable diligence, would not have known of its failure to meet condition (6) above, then Brandywine will be treated as having met condition (6) above.

Qualified REIT Subsidiaries

Brandywine currently has several wholly-owned subsidiaries which are “qualified REIT subsidiaries” and Brandywine may have additional wholly-owned “qualified REIT subsidiaries” in the future. The Code provides that a corporation that is a “qualified REIT subsidiary” shall not be treated as a separate corporation, and all assets, liabilities and items of income, deduction and credit of a “qualified REIT subsidiary” shall be treated as assets, liabilities and items of income, deduction and credit of the REIT. A “qualified REIT subsidiary” is a corporation, other than a taxable REIT subsidiary (discussed below), all of the capital stock of which is owned by the REIT and that has not elected to be a “Taxable REIT Subsidiary.” In applying the requirements described herein, all of its “qualified REIT subsidiaries” will be ignored, and all assets, liabilities and items of income, deduction and credit of such subsidiaries will be treated as Brandywine’s assets, liabilities and items of income, deduction and credit. These subsidiaries, therefore, will not be subject to federal corporate income taxation, although they may be subject to state and local taxation.

Taxable REIT Subsidiaries

Brandywine currently has several “taxable REIT subsidiaries,” and may have additional taxable REIT subsidiaries in the future. A REIT may hold any direct or indirect interest in a corporation that qualifies as a “taxable REIT subsidiary” as long as the value of the REIT's holdings of taxable REIT subsidiary securities do not exceed 20% of the value of the REIT's total assets. To qualify as a taxable REIT subsidiary, the subsidiary and the REIT must make a joint election to treat the subsidiary as a taxable REIT subsidiary. A taxable REIT subsidiary also includes any corporation (other than a REIT or a qualified REIT subsidiary) in which a taxable REIT subsidiary directly or indirectly owns more than 35% of the total voting power or value. See “Asset Tests” below. A taxable REIT subsidiary will pay tax at regular corporate income rates on any taxable income it earns.

A taxable REIT subsidiary can perform tenant services without causing the REIT to receive impermissible tenant services income under the REIT income tests. However, several provisions regarding the arrangements between a REIT and its taxable REIT subsidiaries ensure that a taxable REIT subsidiary will be subject to an appropriate level of federal income taxation. For example, a taxable REIT subsidiary is limited in its ability to deduct interest payments made to a REIT. In addition, a REIT will be obligated to pay a 100% penalty tax on some payments that it receives or on certain expenses deducted by the taxable REIT subsidiary if the economic arrangements between the REIT, the REIT's tenants and the taxable REIT subsidiary are not comparable to similar arrangements among unrelated parties.

Ownership of Partnership Interests by a REIT

A REIT that is a partner in a partnership is deemed to own its proportionate share of the assets of the partnership and is deemed to receive the income of the partnership attributable to such share. In addition, the character of the assets and gross income of the partnership retains the same character in the hands of the REIT. Accordingly, Brandywine’s proportionate share of the assets, liabilities and items of income of the Brandywine Operating Partnership are treated as assets, liabilities and items of income of Brandywine for purposes of applying the requirements described herein. Brandywine has control over the Brandywine Operating Partnership and most of the partnership and limited liability company subsidiaries of the Brandywine Operating Partnership and intends to operate them in a manner that is consistent with the requirements for qualification of Brandywine as a REIT.

Income Tests

In order to qualify as a REIT, Brandywine must generally satisfy two gross income requirements on an annual basis. First, at least 75% of Brandywine’s gross income (excluding gross income from prohibited transactions) for each taxable year must be derived directly or indirectly from investments relating to real property or mortgages on real property (including “rents from real property” and, in certain circumstances, interest) or from certain types of temporary investments. Second, at least 95% of Brandywine’s gross income (excluding gross income from prohibited transactions) for each taxable year must be derived from the same items which qualify under the 75% gross income test, and from dividends, interest and gain from the sale or disposition of securities.

Back to Contents

Rents received by a REIT will qualify as “rents from real property” in satisfying the gross income requirements described above only if several conditions are met. First, the amount of rent must not be based in whole or in part on the income or profits of any person. However, an amount received or accrued generally will not be excluded from the term “rents from real property” solely by reason of being based on a fixed percentage or percentages of gross receipts or sales. Second, subject to certain limited exceptions, rents received from a tenant will not qualify as “rents from real property” in satisfying the gross income tests if the REIT, or a direct or indirect owner of 10% or more of the REIT, directly or constructively, owns 10% or more of such tenant (a “Related Party Tenant”). Third, if rent attributable to personal property, leased in connection with a lease of real property, is greater than 15% of the total rent received under the lease, then the portion of rent attributable to such personal property will not qualify as “rents from real property.” Finally, in order for rents received with respect to a property to qualify as “rents from real property,” the REIT generally must not operate or manage the property or furnish or render services to tenants, except through an “independent contractor” who is adequately compensated and from whom the REIT derives no income, or through a taxable REIT subsidiary. The “independent contractor” requirement, however, does not apply to the extent the services provided by the REIT are “usually or customarily rendered” in connection with the rental of space for occupancy only, and are not otherwise considered “rendered to the occupant.” In addition, a de minimis rule applies with respect to non-customary services. Specifically, if the value of the non-customary service income with respect to a property (valued at no less than 150% of the direct costs of performing such services) is 1% or less of the total income derived from the property, then all rental income except the non-customary service income will qualify as “rents from real property.” A taxable REIT subsidiary may provide services (including noncustomary services) to a REIT's tenants without “tainting” any of the rental income received by the REIT, and will be able to manage or operate properties for third parties and generally engage in other activities unrelated to real estate.

Brandywine does not anticipate receiving rent that is based in whole or in part on the income or profits of any person (except by reason of being based on a fixed percentage or percentages of gross receipts or sales consistent with the rules described above). Brandywine also does not anticipate receiving more than a de minimis amount of rents from any related party tenant or rents attributable to personal property leased in connection with real property that will exceed 15% of the total rents received with respect to such real property.

Brandywine provides services to the properties that Brandywine owns through the Brandywine Operating Partnership, and Brandywine believes that all of such services will be considered “usually or customarily rendered” in connection with the rental of space for occupancy only so that the provision of such services will not jeopardize the qualification of rent from the properties as “rents from real property.” In the case of any services that are not “usual and customary” under the foregoing rules, Brandywine will employ an “independent contractor” or a taxable REIT subsidiary to provide such services.

The Brandywine Operating Partnership may receive certain types of income that will not qualify under the 75% or 95% gross income tests. In particular, dividends received from a taxable REIT subsidiary will not qualify under the 75% test. Brandywine believes, however, that the aggregate amount of such items and other non-qualifying income in any taxable year will not cause Brandywine to exceed the limits on non-qualifying income under either the 75% or 95% gross income tests.

If Brandywine fails to satisfy one or both of the 75% of 95% gross income tests for any taxable year, Brandywine may nevertheless qualify as a REIT for such year if it is entitled to relief under certain provisions of the Code. These relief provisions will be generally available if (1) the failure to meet such tests was due to reasonable cause and not due to willful neglect, (2) Brandywine has attached a schedule of the sources of its income to its return, and (3) any incorrect information on the schedule was not due to fraud with intent to evade tax. In addition, for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2005, the Act provides that Brandywine must also file a disclosure schedule with the IRS after Brandywine determines that Brandywine has not satisfied one of the gross income tests. It is not possible, however, to state whether in all circumstances Brandywine would be entitled to the benefit of these relief provisions. As discussed above in “Taxation of Brandywine as a REIT,” even if these relief provisions apply, a tax would be imposed based on the excess net income.

Any gain realized by Brandywine on the sale of any property held as inventory or other property held primarily for sale to customers in the ordinary course of business, including Brandywine’s share of this type of gain realized by the Brandywine Operating Partnership, will be treated as income from a prohibited transaction that is subject to a 100% penalty tax. Under existing law, whether property is held as inventory or primarily for sale to customers in the ordinary course of a trade or business is a question of fact that depends on all the facts and circumstances of a particular transaction. Brandywine intends to hold properties for investment with a view to long-term appreciation, to engage in the business of acquiring, developing, owning and operating properties, and to make occasional sales of properties as are consistent with its investment objectives. Brandywine cannot provide any assurance, however, that the Internal Revenue Service might not contend that one or more of these sales are subject to the 100% penalty tax.

Asset Tests

At the close of each quarter of each taxable year, Brandywine must satisfy the following tests relating to the nature of its assets:

First, at least 75% of the value of its total assets must be represented by cash or cash items (which generally include receivables), government securities, “real estate assets” (which generally include interests in real property, interests in mortgages on real property and shares of other REITs), or, in cases where Brandywine receives proceeds from shares of beneficial interest or publicly offered long-term (at least five-year) debt, temporary investments in stock or debt instruments during the one-year period following its receipt of such proceeds.

Second, of the investments not included in the 75% asset class, the value of any one issuer's securities Brandywine owns may not exceed 5% of the value of its total assets (“5% test”); and Brandywine may not own more than 10% of the vote or value of any one issuer's outstanding securities (“10% test”), except for its interests in the Brandywine Operating Partnership, noncorporate subsidiaries, taxable REIT subsidiaries and any qualified REIT subsidiaries, and except (with respect to the 10% value test) certain “straight debt” securities.

Effective for taxable years beginning after December 31, 2000, the Act expands the safe harbor under which certain types of securities are disregarded for purposes of the 10% value limitation to include (i) straight debt securities (including straight debt securities that provides for certain contingent payments); (ii) any loan to an individual or an estate; (iii) any rental agreement described in Section 467 of the Code, other than with a “related person”; (iv) any obligation to pay rents from real property; (v) certain securities issued by a State or any political subdivision thereof, or the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico; (vi) any security issued by a REIT; and (vii) any other arrangement that, as determined by the Secretary of the Treasury, is excepted from the definition of a security. In addition, for purposes of applying the 10% value limitation, (a) a REIT’s interest as a partner in a partnership is not considered a security; (b) any debt instrument issued by a partnership is not treated as a security if at least 75% of the partnership’s gross income is from sources that would qualify for the 75% REIT gross income test, and (c) any debt instrument issued by a partnership is not treated as a security to the extent of the REIT’s interest as a partner in the partnership.

Third, not more than 20% of the value of its assets may be represented by securities of one or more taxable REIT subsidiaries.

For purposes of the 75% asset test, the term “interest in real property” includes an interest in land and improvements thereon, such as buildings or other inherently permanent structures, including items that are structural components of such buildings or structures, a leasehold of real property, and an option to acquire real property, or a leasehold of real property.

For purposes of the asset tests, Brandywine is deemed to own its proportionate share of the assets of the Brandywine Operating Partnership, any qualified REIT subsidiary, and each noncorporate subsidiary, rather than its interests in those entities. At least 75% of the value of its total assets have been and will be represented by real estate assets, cash and cash items, including receivables and government securities. In addition, except for its interests in the Brandywine Operating Partnership, the noncorporate subsidiaries, another REIT, any taxable REIT subsidiary and any qualified REIT subsidiary, Brandywine has not owned, and will not own (1) securities of any one issuer the value of which exceeds 5% of the value of its total assets, or (2) more than 10% of the vote or value of any one issuer's outstanding securities. Brandywine has not owned, and will not own, securities of taxable REIT subsidiaries with an aggregate value in excess of 20% of the value of its assets.

As noted above, one of the requirements for qualification as a REIT is that a REIT not own more than 10% of the vote or value of any corporation other than the stock of a qualified REIT subsidiary (of which the REIT is required to own all of such stock), a taxable REIT subsidiary and stock in another REIT. The Brandywine Operating Partnership owns all or substantially all of the voting securities of several entities that have elected to be taxed as corporations and are taxable REIT subsidiaries. Brandywine and each taxable REIT subsidiary have jointly made a taxable REIT subsidiary election and, therefore, ownership of such subsidiaries will not violate the 10% test.

Brandywine owns 100% of the common shares of Atlantic American Properties Trust, a Maryland business trust that has elected to be treated as a real estate investment trust (“AAPT”). Provided that AAPT continues to qualify as a REIT (including satisfaction of the ownership, income, asset and distribution tests discussed herein) the common shares of AAPT will qualify as real estate assets under the 75% test. However, if AAPT fails to qualify as a REIT in any year, then the common shares of AAPT will not qualify as real estate assets under the 75% test. In addition, because Brandywine owns more than 10% of the common shares of AAPT, Brandywine would not satisfy the 10% test if AAPT were to fail to qualify as a REIT. Accordingly, Brandywine’s qualification as a REIT depends upon the ability of AAPT to continue to qualify as a REIT.

After initially meeting the asset tests at the close of any quarter, Brandywine will not lose its status as a REIT for failure to satisfy the asset tests at the end of a later quarter solely by reason of changes in asset values. If the failure to satisfy the asset tests results from an acquisition of securities or other property during a quarter, the failure can be cured by disposition of sufficient nonqualifying assets within 30 days after the close of that quarter. Brandywine intends to maintain adequate records of the value of its assets to ensure compliance with the asset tests, and to take such other action within 30 days after the close of any quarter as may be required to cure any noncompliance. However, there can be no assurance that such other action will always be successful. If Brandywine fails to cure any noncompliance with the asset tests within such time period, its status as a REIT would be lost.

Back to Contents

For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2005, the Act provides relief from certain failures to satisfy the REIT asset tests. If the failure relates to the 5% test or 10% test, and if the failure is de minimis (does not exceed the lesser of $10 million or 1% of its assets as of the end of the quarter), Brandywine may avoid the loss of its REIT status by disposing of sufficient assets to cure the failure within 6 months after the end of the quarter in which the failure was identified. For failures to meet the asset tests that are more than a de minimis amount, Brandywine may avoid the loss of its REIT status if: the failure was due to reasonable cause, Brandywine files a disclosure schedule at the end of the quarter in which the failure was identified, Brandywine disposes of sufficient assets to cure the failure within 6 months after the end of the quarter, and Brandywine pays a tax equal to the greater of $50,000 or the highest corporate tax rate multiplied by the net income generated by the non-qualifying assets.

Annual Distribution Requirements

In order to qualify as a REIT, Brandywine is required to distribute dividends (other than capital gain dividends) to its shareholders in an amount at least equal to (1) the sum of (a) 90% of its “REIT taxable income” (computed without regard to the dividends paid deduction and the REIT's net capital gain) and (b) 90% of the net income (after tax), if any, from foreclosure property, minus (2) certain “excess” non-cash income. In addition, if Brandywine disposes of a built-in gain asset during the 10 year period following its acquisition, Brandywine will be required to distribute at least 90% of the built-in gain (after tax), if any, recognized on the disposition of such asset. Such distributions must be paid in the taxable year to which they relate, or in the following taxable year if declared before Brandywine timely files its tax return for such year and if paid on or before the first regular dividend payment after such declaration. To the extent that Brandywine does not distribute all of its net capital gain or Brandywine distributes at least 95%, but less than 100%, of its “REIT taxable income,” as adjusted, Brandywine will be subject to tax on the undistributed amount at regular corporate tax rates. Furthermore, if Brandywine should fail to distribute during each calendar year at least the sum of (1) 85% of its REIT ordinary income for such year, (2) 95% of its REIT net capital gain income for such year and (3) any undistributed taxable income from prior periods, Brandywine would be subject to a 4% excise tax on the excess of such required distribution over the amounts actually distributed.

Brandywine intends to make timely distributions sufficient to satisfy the annual distribution requirements. In this regard, the limited partnership agreement of the Brandywine Operating Partnership authorizes Brandywine, as general partner, to operate the partnership in a manner that will enable it to satisfy the REIT requirements and avoid the imposition of any federal income or excise tax liability. It is possible that Brandywine, from time to time, may not have sufficient cash or other liquid assets to meet the 90% distribution requirement due primarily to the expenditure of cash for nondeductible items such as principal amortization or capital expenditures. In order to meet the 90% distribution requirement, Brandywine may borrow or may cause the Brandywine Operating Partnership to arrange for short-term or other borrowing to permit the payment of required distributions or declare a consent dividend, which is a hypothetical distribution to shareholders out of its earnings and profits. The effect of such a consent dividend (which, in conjunction with distributions actually paid, must not be preferential to those shareholders who agree to such treatment) would be that such shareholders would be treated for federal income tax purposes as if they had received such amount in cash, and they then had immediately contributed such amount back to Brandywine as additional paid-in capital. This would result in taxable income to those shareholders without the receipt of any actual cash distribution but would also increase their tax basis in their shares by the amount of the taxable income recognized.

Back to Contents

Under certain circumstances, Brandywine may be able to rectify a failure to meet the distribution requirement for a given year by paying “deficiency dividends” to shareholders in a later year that may be included in Brandywine’s deduction for distributions paid for the earlier year. Thus, Brandywine may be able to avoid being taxed on amounts distributed as deficiency dividends; however, Brandywine will be required to pay to the Internal Revenue Service interest based upon the amount of any deduction taken for deficiency dividends.

Failure to Qualify

For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2005, the Act provides relief for many failures to satisfy the REIT requirements. In addition to the relief provisions for failures to satisfy the income and asset tests (discussed above), the Act provides additional relief for other failures to satisfy REIT requirements. If the failure is due to reasonable cause and not due to willful neglect, and Brandywine elects to pay a penalty of $50,000 for each failure, Brandywine can avoid the loss of its REIT status.

If Brandywine fails to qualify for taxation as a REIT in any taxable year and the relief provisions do not apply, it will be subject to tax (including any applicable corporate alternative minimum tax) on its taxable income at regular corporate rates. Distributions to shareholders in any year in which Brandywine fails to qualify will not be deductible to Brandywine. In such event, to the extent of Brandywine’s current and accumulated earnings and profits, all distributions to shareholders will be taxable to them generally as dividends, and, subject to certain limitations of the Code, corporate distributees may be eligible for the dividends received deduction. Under current law, such dividends should be taxable to individual shareholders at the 15% rate for qualified dividends provided that applicable holding period requirements are met. Unless entitled to relief under specific statutory provisions, Brandywine also will be disqualified from taxation as a REIT for the four taxable years following the year during which qualification was lost. It is not possible to state whether in all circumstances Brandywine would be entitled to such statutory relief.

Income Taxation of the Brandywine Operating Partnership, Subsidiary Partnerships and Their Partners

The following discussion summarizes certain Federal income tax considerations applicable to Brandywine’s investment in the Brandywine Operating Partnership and the Brandywine Operating Partnership's subsidiary partnerships and limited liability companies (referred to as the “Subsidiary Partnerships”).

Classification of the Brandywine Operating Partnership and Subsidiary Partnerships as Partnerships

Brandywine owns all of its Properties or the economic interests therein through the Brandywine Operating Partnership. Brandywine will be entitled to include in its income its distributive share of the income and to deduct its distributive share of the losses of the Brandywine Operating Partnership (including the Brandywine Operating Partnership's share of the income or losses of the Subsidiary Partnerships) only if the Brandywine Operating Partnership and the Subsidiary Partnerships (collectively, the “Partnerships”) are classified for Federal income tax purposes as partnerships rather than as associations taxable as corporations. For taxable periods prior to January 1, 1997, an organization formed as a partnership was treated as a partnership for Federal income tax purposes rather than as a corporation only if it had no more than two of the four corporate characteristics that the Treasury Regulations used to distinguish a partnership from a corporation for tax purposes. These four characteristics were continuity of life, centralization of management, limited liability and free transferability of interests.

Back to Contents

Neither the Brandywine Operating Partnership nor any of the Subsidiary Partnerships requested a ruling from the Internal Revenue Service that it would be treated as a partnership for Federal income tax purposes.

Effective January 1, 1997, Treasury Regulations eliminated the four-factor test described above and, instead, permit partnerships and other non-corporate entities to be taxed as partnerships for federal income tax purposes without regard to the number of corporate characteristics possessed by such entity. Under those Treasury Regulations, both the Brandywine Operating Partnership and each of the Subsidiary Partnerships will be classified as partnerships for federal income tax purposes except for any entity for which an affirmative election is made by the entity to be taxed as a corporation. Under a special transitional rule in the Treasury Regulations, the Internal Revenue Service will not challenge the classification of an existing entity such as the Brandywine Operating Partnership or a Subsidiary Partnership for periods prior to January 1, 1997 if: (1) the entity has a "reasonable basis" for its classification; (2) the entity and each of its members recognized the federal income tax consequences of any change in classification of the entity made within the 60 months prior to January 1, 1997; and (3) neither the entity nor any of its members had been notified in writing on or before May 8, 1996 that its classification was under examination by the Internal Revenue Service. Neither the Brandywine Operating Partnership nor any of the Subsidiary Partnerships changed its classification within the 60 month period preceding May 8, 1996, nor was any one of them notified that its classification as a partnership for federal income tax purposes was under examination by the Internal Revenue Service.

If for any reason the Brandywine Operating Partnership or a Subsidiary Partnership were classified as an association taxable as a corporation rather than as a partnership for Federal income tax purposes, Brandywine would not be able to satisfy the income and asset requirements for REIT status. See "Income Tests" and "Asset Tests." In addition, any change in any such Partnership's status for tax purposes might be treated as a taxable event, in which case Brandywine might incur a tax liability without any related cash distribution. See "Annual Distribution Requirements." Further, items of income and deduction of any such Partnership would not pass through to its partner (e.g., Brandywine), and its partners would be treated as shareholders for tax purposes. Any such Partnership would be required to pay income tax at corporate tax rates on its net income and distributions to its partners would constitute dividends that would not be deductible in computing such Partnership's taxable income.

Partnership Allocations

Although a partnership agreement will generally determine the allocation of income and losses among partners, such allocations will be disregarded for tax purposes if they do not comply with the provisions of Section 704(b) of the Code and the Treasury Regulations promulgated thereunder, which require that partnership allocations respect the economic arrangement of the partners.

If an allocation is not recognized for Federal income tax purposes, the item subject to the allocation will be reallocated in accordance with the partners' interests in the partnership, which will be determined by taking into account all of the facts and circumstances relating to the economic arrangement of the partners with respect to such item. The Brandywine Operating Partnership's allocations of taxable income and loss are intended to comply with the requirements of Section 704(b) of the Code and the Treasury Regulations promulgated thereunder.

Tax Allocations With Respect to Contributed Properties

Brandywine believes that the fair market values of the properties contributed directly or indirectly to the Brandywine Operating Partnership in various transactions were different than the tax basis of such Properties. Pursuant to Section 704(c) of the Code, items of income, gain, loss and deduction attributable to appreciated or depreciated property that is contributed to a partnership in exchange for an interest in the partnership must be allocated for Federal income tax purposes in a manner such that the contributor is charged with or benefits from the unrealized gain or unrealized loss associated with the property at the time of the contribution. The amount of such unrealized gain or unrealized loss is generally equal to the difference between the fair market value of the contributed property at the time of contribution and the adjusted tax basis of such property at the time of contribution (the “Pre-Contribution Gain or Loss”). The partnership agreement of the Brandywine Operating Partnership requires allocations of income, gain, loss and deduction attributable to such contributed property to be made in a manner that is consistent with Section 704(c) of the Code. Thus, if the Brandywine Operating Partnership sells contributed property at a gain or loss, such gain or loss will be allocated to the contributing partners, and away from Brandywine, generally to the extent of the Pre-Contribution Gain or Loss.

The Treasury Department has issued final regulations under Section 704(c) of the Code which give partnerships flexibility in ensuring that a partner contributing property to a partnership receives the tax benefits and burdens of any Pre-Contribution Gain or Loss attributable to the contributed property. These regulations permit partnerships to use any “reasonable method” of accounting for Pre-Contribution Gain or Loss. These regulations specifically describe three reasonable methods, including (1) the “traditional method” under current law, (2) the traditional method with the use of “curative allocations” which would permit distortions caused by Pre-Contribution Gain or Loss to be rectified on an annual basis and (3) the “remedial allocation method” which is similar to the traditional method with “curative allocations.” The partnership agreement of the Brandywine Operating Partnership permits Brandywine, as general partner, to select one of these methods to account for Pre-Contribution Gain or Loss.

Depreciation

The Brandywine Operating Partnership's assets other than cash consist largely of appreciated property contributed by its partners. Assets contributed to a partnership in a tax-free transaction generally retain the same depreciation method and recovery period as they had in the hands of the partner who contributed them to the partnership. Accordingly, the Brandywine Operating Partnership's depreciation deductions for its real property are based largely on the historic tax depreciation schedules for the properties prior to their contribution to the Brandywine Operating Partnership. The properties are being depreciated over a range of 15 to 40 years using various methods of depreciation which were determined at the time that each item of depreciable property was placed in service. Any depreciable real property purchased by the Partnerships is currently depreciated over 40 years. In certain instances where a partnership interest rather than real property is contributed to the Partnership, the real property may not carry over its recovery period but rather may, similarly, be subject to the lengthier recovery period.

Back to Contents

Section 704(c) of the Code requires that depreciation as well as gain and loss be allocated in a manner so as to take into account the variation between the fair market value and tax basis of the property contributed. Thus, because most of the property contributed to the Brandywine Operating Partnership is appreciated, Brandywine will generally receive allocations of tax depreciation in excess of its percentage interest in the Brandywine Operating Partnership. Depreciation with respect to any property purchased by the Brandywine Operating Partnership subsequent to the admission of its partners, however, will be allocated among the partners in accordance with their respective percentage interests in the Brandywine Operating Partnership.

As described previously, Brandywine, as a general partner of the Brandywine Operating Partnership, may select any permissible method to account for Pre-Contribution Gain or Loss. The use of certain of these methods may result in Brandywine being allocated lower depreciation deductions than if a different method were used. The resulting higher taxable income and earnings and profits, as determined for federal income tax purposes, should decrease the portion of distributions which may be treated as a return of capital. See “Taxation of Taxable Domestic Shareholders.”

Basis in Brandywine Operating Partnership Interest

Our adjusted tax basis in each of the partnerships in which Brandywine has an interest generally (1) will be equal to the amount of cash and the basis of any other property contributed to such partnership by Brandywine, (2) will be increased by (a) its allocable share of such partnership's income and (b) its allocable share of any indebtedness of such partnership, and (3) will be reduced, but not below zero, by its allocable share of (a) such partnership's loss and (b) the amount of cash and the tax basis of any property distributed to Brandywine and by constructive distributions resulting from a reduction in its share of indebtedness of such partnership.

If its allocable share of the loss (or portion thereof) of any partnership in which Brandywine has an interest would reduce the adjusted tax basis of its partnership interest in such partnership below zero, the recognition of such loss will be deferred until such time as the recognition of such loss (or portion thereof) would not reduce its adjusted tax basis below zero. To the extent that distributions to Brandywine from a partnership, or any decrease in its share of the nonrecourse indebtedness of a partnership (each such decrease being considered a constructive cash distribution to the partners), would reduce its adjusted tax basis below zero, such distributions (including such constructive distributions) would constitute taxable income to Brandywine. Such distributions and constructive distributions normally would be characterized as long-term capital gain if its interest in such partnership has been held for longer than the long-term capital gain holding period (currently 12 months).

Sale of Partnership Property

Generally, any gain realized by a partnership on the sale of property held by the partnership for more than 12 months will be long-term capital gain, except for any portion of such gain that is treated as depreciation or cost recovery recapture. However, under requirements applicable to REITs under the Code, its share as a partner of any gain realized by the Brandywine Operating Partnership on the sale of any property held as inventory or other property held primarily for sale to customers in the ordinary course of a trade or business will be treated as income from a prohibited transaction that is subject to a 100% penalty tax. See "Taxation of Brandywine as a REIT." Such prohibited transaction income will also have an adverse effect upon its ability to satisfy the income tests for REIT status. See "Income Tests." Whether property is held as inventory or primarily for sale to customers in the ordinary course of a trade or business is a question of fact that depends on all the facts and circumstances with respect to the particular transaction. A safe harbor to avoid classification as a prohibited transaction exists as to real estate assets held for the production of rental income by a REIT if the following requirements are satisfied: (1) the REIT has held the property for at least four years, (2) aggregate expenditures of the REIT during the four-year period preceding the sale which are includible in basis do not exceed 30% of the net selling price of the property, (3) (a) during the taxable year the REIT has made no more than seven sales of property or, in the alternative, (b) the aggregate of the adjusted bases of all properties sold during the year does not exceed 10% of the adjusted bases of all of the REIT's properties during the year, (4) in the case of property, not acquired through foreclosure or lease termination, the REIT has held the property for not less than four years for the production of rental income, and (5) if the requirement of clause (3) (a) is not satisfied, substantially all of the marketing and development expenditures were made through an independent contractor. Brandywine, as general partner of the Brandywine Operating Partnership, believes that the Brandywine Operating Partnership intends to hold its properties for investment with a view to long-term appreciation, to engage in the business of acquiring, developing, owning, operating and leasing properties and to make such occasional sales of the properties as are consistent with its and the Brandywine Operating Partnership's investment objectives. No assurance can be given, however, that every property sale by the Partnerships will constitute a sale of property held for investment.

MATERIAL FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES RELATING TO THE OWNERSHIP AND DISPOSITION OF BRANDYWINE'S COMMON SHARES AND SERIES E CUMULATIVE CONVERTIBLE REDEEMABLE PREFERRED SHARES

The following discussion describes the material U.S. federal income tax consequences relating to the ownership and disposition of Brandywine's common shares and Series E Cumulative Convertible Redeemable Preferred Shares.

For the purpose of the following discussion, a "U.S. Shareholder" is a Brandywine shareholder that is (i) an individual who is a citizen or resident of the United States for U.S. federal income tax purposes; (ii) a corporation (or other entity taxable as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes) created or organized in or under the laws of the United States or any state thereof or the District of Columbia; (iii) an estate, the income of which is subject to U.S. federal income taxation regardless of its source; or (iv) any trust if a court within the United States is able to exercise primary supervision over the administration of such trust and one or more U.S. fiduciaries have the authority to control all substantial decisions relating to the trust or a trust that has a valid election in effect under application U.S. federal income tax law to be treated as a United States person. A "Non-U.S. Shareholder" is a shareholder of Brandywine other than a U.S. Shareholder.

This discussion considers neither the specific facts and circumstances that may be relevant to a particular shareholder or unitholder nor any U.S. state and local or non-U.S. tax consequences of the REIT Merger or the Partnership Merger. Moreover, except as provided herein, this discussion does not address special situations, such as the following:

- tax consequences to shareholders or unitholders who may be subject to special tax treatment, such as tax-exempt entities, dealers in securities or currencies, banks, other financial institutions or "financial services entities," insurance companies, regulated investment companies, traders in securities that elect to use a mark-to-market method of accounting for their securities holdings, certain expatriates or former long-term residents of the United States or corporations that accumulate earnings to avoid U.S. federal income tax;
- tax consequences to persons holding Prentiss common shares, Prentiss Series D Cumulative Convertible Redeemable Preferred Shares or common units in the Prentiss Operating Partnership as part of a hedging, integrated, constructive sale or conversion transaction or a straddle or other risk reduction transaction; and
- tax consequences to partnerships or similar pass-through entities or to persons who hold Prentiss common shares, Prentiss Series D Cumulative Convertible Redeemable Preferred Shares or common units in the Prentiss Operating Partnership through a partnership or similar pass-through entity.

If a partnership or other entity taxable as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes holds Prentiss common shares, Prentiss Series D Cumulative Convertible Redeemable Preferred Shares or common units in the Prentiss Operating Partnership, the U.S. federal income tax treatment of a partner will generally depend on the status of the partner and the activities of the partnership. Such partners are urged to consult their tax advisors. This discussion is based upon current provisions of the Internal Revenue Code, existing and proposed regulations thereunder and current administrative rulings and court decisions, all as in effect on the date hereof. All of the foregoing are subject to change, possibly on a retroactive basis, and any such change could affect the continuing validity of this discussion.

Taxation of Taxable U.S. Shareholders

Taxation of Distributions

As long as Brandywine qualifies as a REIT, distributions made to Brandywine’s taxable U.S. Shareholders out of current or accumulated earnings and profits (and not designated as capital gain dividends or qualified dividend income) will be dividends taxable to such U.S. Shareholders as ordinary income and will not be eligible for the dividends received deduction for corporations. Distributions that are designated as long-term capital gain dividends will be taxed as long-term capital gains (to the extent they do not exceed Brandywine’s actual net capital gain for the taxable year) without regard to the period for which the U.S. Shareholder has held its shares of beneficial interest. However, corporate shareholders may be required to treat up to 20% of certain capital gain dividends as ordinary income. For calendar years 2003 through 2008, distributions that are designated as qualified dividend income will be taxed at the same rate as long-term capital gains. Brandywine may designate a distribution as qualified dividend income to the extent of (1) qualified dividend income Brandywine receives during the current year (for example, dividends received from a taxable REIT subsidiary), and (2) income on which Brandywine has been subject to corporate level tax during the prior year (for example, undistributed REIT taxable income) less the tax paid on that income. Brandywine expects that ordinary dividends paid by Brandywine generally will not be eligible for treatment as qualified dividend income to any significant extent. Distributions in excess of current and accumulated earnings and profits will not be taxable to a U.S. Shareholder to the extent that they do not exceed the adjusted basis of the shareholder's shares, but rather will reduce the adjusted basis of such shares. To the extent that distributions in excess of current and accumulated earnings and profits exceed the adjusted basis of a U.S. Shareholder's shares, such distributions will be included in income as long-term capital gain (or short-term capital gain if the shares have been held for 12 months or less) assuming the shares are a capital asset in the hands of the shareholder. In addition, any distribution declared by Brandywine in October, November or December of any year payable to a shareholder of record on a specified date in any such month shall be treated as both paid by Brandywine and received by the shareholder on December 31 of such year, provided that the distribution is actually paid by Brandywine not later than the end of January of the following calendar year. Shareholders may not include in their individual income tax returns any of Brandywine’s losses.

Disposition of Shares

In general, a U.S. Shareholder will recognize capital gain or loss on the disposition of common shares or Series E Cumulative Convertible Redeemable Preferred Shares equal to the difference between the sales price for such shares and the adjusted tax basis for such shares. Gain or loss recognized upon a sale or exchange of common shares or Series E Cumulative Convertible Redeemable Preferred Shares by a U.S. Shareholder who has held such shares for more than one year will be treated as long-term capital gain or loss, respectively, and otherwise will be treated as short-term capital gain or loss. However, any loss upon a sale or exchange of shares by a U.S. Shareholder who has held such shares for six months or less (after applying certain holding period rules) will be treated as a long-term capital loss to the extent such shareholder has received distributions from Brandywine required to be treated as long-term capital gain. U.S. Shareholders who realize a loss on the sale or exchange of shares may be required to file IRS Form 8886, Reportable Transaction Disclosure Statement, if the loss exceeds certain thresholds (for individual taxpayers, the threshold is $2,000,000 for a loss in a single taxable year). U.S. Shareholders should consult with their tax advisors regarding Form 8886 filing requirements.

Application of Passive Activity Rules

Distributions from Brandywine and gain from the disposition of shares will not be treated as passive activity income and, therefore, U.S. Shareholders will not be able to apply any “passive losses” against such income. Distributions from Brandywine (to the extent they do not constitute a return of capital or capital gain dividends) and, on an elective basis, capital gain dividends and gain from the disposition of shares will generally be treated as investment income for purposes of the investment income limitation.

Tax Considerations With Respect to Ownership and Disposition of Brandywine Series E Cumulative Convertible Redeemable Preferred Shares.

Constructive Dividends With Respect To Brandywine Series E Cumulative Convertible Redeemable Preferred Shares

Any increase in the conversion rate of the Brandywine Series E Cumulative Convertible Redeemable Preferred Shares may, depending upon the circumstances, be deemed to be a distribution to holders of such shares. Any deemed distribution will be taxed in the same manner as an actual distribution, as described in “Taxation of Taxable U.S. Shareholders Taxation of Distributions.”

Redemption of Brandywine Series E Cumulative Convertible Redeemable Preferred Shares

Redemption of all or a portion of a shareholder’s Brandywine Series E Cumulative Convertible Redeemable Preferred Shares for cash will, in general, result in the recognition of capital gain or loss. Except as provided below, the rules set forth above with respect to the taxation of capital gains or losses will apply. See“Taxation of Taxable U.S. Shareholders-Taxation of Distributions Disposition of Shares.”

Back to Contents

The general rule above applies provided that the redemption (i) is not essentially equivalent to a dividend, (ii) results in a complete termination of such shareholder’s interest in Brandywine’s common shares (preferred and common) or (iii) is substantially disproportionate with respect to such shareholder (in each case, as determined under U.S. federal income tax principles). In determining whether this requirement is satisfied, Brandywine common shares considered to be owned by a shareholder by reason of certain attribution rules must be taken into account. A redemption is not essentially equivalent to a dividend if the redemption results in a “meaningful reduction” in the shareholders’ proportionate interest in the corporation. It may be more difficult for a person who owns, actually or constructively by operation of the attribution rules, any shares of Brandywine common shares to satisfy any of the above requirements, including the requirements that there be a meaningful reduction in the holder’s proportionate interest in Brandywine.

If the redemption does not satisfy the above requirements, then the entire amount received (without offset for such shareholder’s tax basis in his or her preferred shares redeemed) will be treated as a distribution taxable as described in the subsection titled “Taxation of Taxable U.S. Shareholders Taxation of Distributions. In such case, such shareholder’s tax basis in his or her redeemed preferred shares will be allocated to his or her remaining common shares in Brandywine, if any.

Conversion of Brandywine Series E Cumulative Convertible Redeemable Preferred Shares

The conversion of Brandywine Series E Cumulative Convertible Redeemable Preferred Shares into Brandywine common shares is generally a tax-free exchange for U.S. federal income tax purposes. A shareholder’s aggregate tax basis in the Brandywine common shares received in the conversion will equal his or her aggregate tax basis in the shares of Brandywine Series E Cumulative Convertible Redeemable Preferred Shares. Also, such shareholder’s holding period in the Brandywine common shares received in the conversion will include the holding period such holder had in his or her shares of Brandywine Series E Cumulative Convertible Redeemable Preferred Shares.

Backup Withholding and Information Reporting

In general, Brandywine will report to its U.S. Shareholders and the Internal Revenue Service the amount of distributions paid (unless the U.S. Shareholder is an exempt recipient such as a corporation) during each calendar year, and the amount of tax withheld, if any. Under the backup withholding rules, a shareholder may be subject to backup withholding at the rate of 28% with respect to distributions paid unless such shareholder (a) is a corporation or comes within certain other exempt categories and, when required, demonstrates this fact, or (b) provides a taxpayer identification number, certifies as to no loss of exemption from backup withholding and otherwise complies with applicable requirements of the backup withholding rules. A shareholder that does not provide Brandywine with his correct taxpayer identification number may also be subject to penalties imposed by the Internal Revenue Service. Any amount paid as backup withholding may be credited against the shareholder's income tax liability. In addition, Brandywine may be required to withhold a portion of capital gain distributions to any shareholders who fail to certify their non-foreign status to Brandywine. See “ Taxation of Foreign Shareholders.”

Taxation of Tax-Exempt Shareholders

Distributions by Brandywine to a shareholder that is a tax-exempt entity should not constitute "unrelated business taxable income" ("UBTI"), as defined in Section 512(a) of the Code provided that the tax-exempt entity has not financed the acquisition of its shares with "acquisition indebtedness" within the meaning of the Code and the shares are not otherwise used in an unrelated trade or business of the tax-exempt entity.

In the case of a "qualified trust" (generally, a pension or profit-sharing trust) holding shares in a REIT, the beneficiaries of the trust are treated as holding shares in the REIT in proportion to their actuarial interests in the qualified trust, instead of treating the qualified trust as a single individual (the "look-through exception"). A qualified trust that holds more than 10% of the shares of a REIT is required to treat a percentage of REIT dividends as UBTI if the REIT incurs debt to acquire or improve real property. This rule applies, however, only if (1) the qualification of the REIT depends upon the application of the "look through" exception (described above) to the restriction on REIT shareholdings by five or fewer individuals, including qualified trusts (please see "Description of Shares of Beneficial Interest�Restrictions on Transfer") and (2) the REIT is "predominantly held" by qualified trusts, i.e., if either (a) a single qualified trust holds more than 25% by value of the interests in the REIT or (b) one or more qualified trusts, each owning more than 10% by value, holds in the aggregate more than 50% of the interests in the REIT. The percentage of any dividend paid (or treated as paid) to such a qualified trust that is treated as UBTI is equal to the amount of modified gross income (gross income less directly connected expenses) from the unrelated trade or business of the REIT (treating the REIT as if it were a qualified trust), divided by the total modified gross income of the REIT. A de minimis exception applies where the percentage is less than 5%.

Taxation of Non-U.S. Shareholders

The rules governing United States Federal income taxation of nonresident alien individuals, foreign corporations, foreign partnerships and other shareholders that are not U.S. Shareholders (collectively, "Non-U.S. Shareholders") are complex and no attempt will be made herein to provide more than a summary of such rules. Prospective Non-U.S. Shareholders should consult with their own tax advisors to determine the impact of Federal, state and local income tax laws with regard to an investment in Brandywine shares, including any reporting requirements.

Distributions made by Brandywine that are not attributable to gain from sales or exchanges by Brandywine of United States real property interests and not designated by Brandywine as capital gains dividends will be treated as dividends of ordinary income to the extent that they are made out of current or accumulated earnings and profits of Brandywine. Such distributions will ordinarily be subject to a withholding tax equal to 30% of the gross amount of the distribution unless an applicable tax treaty reduces or eliminates that tax. However, if income from the investment in Brandywine shares is treated as effectively connected with the Non-U.S. Shareholder's conduct of a United States trade or business, the Non-U.S. Shareholder generally will be subject to a tax at graduated rates, in the same manner as U.S. Shareholders are taxed with respect to such distributions (and may also be subject to the 30% branch profits tax in the case of a shareholder that is a foreign corporation). Brandywine expects to withhold United States income tax at the rate of 30% on the gross amount of any such distributions made to a Non-U.S. Shareholder unless (1) a lower treaty rate applies and the Non-U.S. Shareholder files a W-8BEN (or applicable substitute form) or (2) the Non-U.S. Shareholder files an IRS Form W-8ECI with Brandywine claiming that the distribution is effectively connected income. Distributions in excess of Brandywine's current and accumulated earnings and profits will not be taxable to a shareholder to the extent that such distributions do not exceed the adjusted basis of the shareholder's shares, but rather will reduce the adjusted basis of the shareholder in such shares. To the extent that distributions in excess of current and accumulated earnings and profits exceed the adjusted basis of a Non-Shareholder's shares, such distributions will give rise to tax liability if the Non-U.S. Shareholder would otherwise be subject to tax on any gain from the sale or disposition of its shares, as described below. If it cannot be determined at the time a distribution is made whether or not such distribution will be in excess of current and accumulated earnings and profits, the distributions will be subject to withholding at the same rate as dividends. However, amounts thus withheld are refundable to the shareholder if it is subsequently determined that such distribution was, in fact, in excess of current and accumulated earnings and profits.

Back to Contents

For any year in which Brandywine qualifies as a REIT, except as provided below for certain distributions after January 1, 2005, distributions that are attributable to gain from sales or exchanges by Brandywine of United States real property interests will be taxed to a Non-U.S. Shareholder under the provisions of the Foreign Investment in Real Property Tax Act of 1980 ("FIRPTA"). Under FIRPTA, distributions attributable to gain from sales of United States real property interests are taxed to a Non-U.S. Shareholder as if such gain were effectively connected with a United States business. Individuals who are Non-U.S. Shareholders will be required to report such gain on a U.S. federal income tax return and such gain will taxed at the normal capital gain rates applicable to U.S. individual shareholders (subject to applicable alternative minimum tax and a special alternative minimum tax in the case of nonresident alien individuals). Also, distributions subject to FIRPTA may be subject to a 30% branch profits tax in the hands of a foreign corporate shareholder not entitled to treaty relief. Brandywine is required by applicable Treasury Regulations to withhold 35% of any distribution that could be designated by Brandywine as a capital gains dividend. The amount is creditable against the Non-U.S. Shareholder's U.S. tax liability.

For distributions after January 1, 2005, the Act provides that distributions attributable to gain from sales or exchanges by Brandywine of United States real property interests are treated as ordinary dividends (not subject to FIRPTA) if the distribution is made to a Non-U.S. Shareholder with respect to any class of stock which is "regularly traded" on an established securities market located in the United States and if the Non-U.S. Shareholder did not own more than 5% of such class of stock at any time during the taxable year. Accordingly, such distributions will generally be subject to a 30% U.S. withholding tax (subject to reduction under applicable treaty) and a Non-U.S. Shareholder will not be required to report the distribution on a U.S. tax return. In addition, the branch profits tax will not apply to such distributions.

Gain recognized by a Non-U.S. Shareholder upon a sale of shares generally will not be taxed under FIRPTA if Brandywine is a "domestically controlled REIT," defined generally as a REIT in which at all times during a specified testing period less than 50% in value of the shares of beneficial interest was held directly or indirectly by foreign persons. It is currently anticipated that Brandywine will be a "domestically controlled REIT," and therefore the sale of shares by a Non-U.S. Shareholder will not be subject to taxation under FIRPTA. However, because the shares may be traded, Brandywine cannot be sure that Brandywine will continue to be a "domestically controlled REIT." Gain not subject to FIRPTA will be taxable to a Non-U.S. Shareholder if (1) investment in the shares is effectively connected with the Non-U.S. Shareholder's United States trade or business, in which case the Non-U.S. Shareholder will be subject to the same treatment as U.S. Shareholders with respect to such gain or (2) the Non-U.S. Shareholder is a nonresident alien individual who was present in the United States for 183 days or more during the taxable year, in which case the nonresident alien individual will be subject to a 30% tax on the individual's capital gains. If the gain on the sale of shares were to be subject to taxation under FIRPTA, the Non-U.S. Shareholder would be subject to the same treatment as U.S. Shareholders with respect to such gain (subject to applicable alternative minimum tax and a special alternative minimum tax in the case of nonresident alien individuals).

If Brandywine were not a domestically controlled REIT, a sale of common shares by a Non-U.S. Shareholder would not be subject to taxation under FIRPTA as a sale of a U.S. real property interest if (1) Brandywine's preferred shares or common shares were "regularly traded" on an established securities market within the meaning of applicable Treasury regulations and (2) the Non-U.S. Shareholder did not actually, or constructively under specified attribution rules under the Code, own more than 5% of Brandywine's preferred shares or common shares at any time during the shorter of the five-year period preceding the disposition or the holder's holding period.

Back to Contents

Even if Brandywine’s common shares were not regularly traded on an established securities market, a Non-U.S. Shareholder would not be subject to taxation under FIRPTA as a sale of a U.S. real property interest if such Non-U.S. Shareholder’s common shares had a fair market value on the date of acquisition that was equal to or less than 5% of Brandywine’s regularly traded class of shares with the lowest fair market value. For purposes of this test, if a Non-U.S. Shareholder acquired shares of common shares and subsequently acquired additional shares at a later date, then all such shares would be aggregated and valued as of the date of the subsequent acquisition.

Statement of Share Ownership

Brandywine is required to demand annual written statements from the record holders of designated percentages of Brandywine’s shares disclosing the actual owners of the shares. Brandywine must also maintain, within the Internal Revenue District in which it is required to file its federal income tax return, permanent records showing the information Brandywine has received as to the actual ownership of such shares and a list of those persons failing or refusing to comply with such demand.

Other Tax Consequences

Brandywine, the Brandywine Operating Partnership, the Subsidiary Partnerships and Brandywine’s shareholders may be subject to state or local taxation in various state or local jurisdictions, including those in which it or they transact business or reside. The state and local tax treatment of Brandywine, the Brandywine Operating Partnership, the Subsidiary Partnerships and Brandywine’s shareholders may not conform to the Federal income tax consequences discussed above. Consequently, prospective shareholders should consult their own tax advisors regarding the effect of state and local tax laws on an investment in Brandywine’s securities.

DESCRIPTION OF BRANDYWINE SHARES OF BENEFICIAL INTEREST

The following paragraphs summarize provisions of Brandywine's shares of beneficial interest. This summary does not completely describe Brandywine's shares of beneficial interest. For a complete description of Brandywine's shares of beneficial interest, we refer you to Brandywine's Declaration of Trust and Bylaws, each of which is incorporated by reference in this joint proxy statement/prospectus. See "Where You Can Find More Information" on page 5.

General

Brandywine's Declaration of Trust provides that it is authorized to issue up to 220,000,000 shares of beneficial interest (which we refer to as shares) consisting of 200,000,000 common shares, par value $.01 per share, which are referred to in this joint proxy statement/prospectus as Brandywine's "common shares," and 20,000,000 preferred shares, par value $.01 per share, which are referred to in this joint proxy statement/prospectus as Brandywine's "preferred shares." Of the preferred shares, 2,000,000 preferred shares, designated as 7.50% Series C Cumulative Redeemable Preferred Shares, are issued and outstanding and are referred to in this joint proxy statement/prospectus as the Series C Preferred Shares, and an additional 2,300,000 preferred shares, designated as 7.375% Series D Cumulative Redeemable Preferred Shares, are issued and outstanding and are referred to in this joint proxy statement/prospectus as the Series D Preferred Shares.

In addition, if any Prentiss Series D preferred shares remain outstanding at the effective time of the REIT Merger, Brandywine intends to designate a class of preferred shares as Series E Cumulative Redeemable Preferred Shares (referred to as Brandywine Series E preferred shares) into which each such Prentiss Series D Preferred Share shall be converted. The Brandywine Series E preferred shares will have preferences, conversion or other rights, voting powers, restrictions, limitations as to dividends, qualifications and terms or conditions of redemption thereof identical to those of the Prentiss Series D Preferred Shares in all material respects. It is currently anticipated that Series E preferred shares will only be designated by Brandywine if the REIT Merger closing date is after December 26, 2005, the date on which Prentiss may redeem the Series D Preferred Shares.

As of the date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus, 56,179,075 common shares, 2,000,000 Series C Preferred Shares and 2,300,000 Series D Preferred Shares are issued and outstanding.

Brandywine's Declaration of Trust generally may be amended by its board of trustees, without shareholder approval, to increase or decrease the aggregate number of authorized shares or the number of shares of any class. The authorized common shares and undesignated preferred shares are generally available for future issuance without further action by Brandywine's shareholders, unless such action is required by applicable law, the rules of any stock exchange or automated quotation system on which Brandywine's securities may be listed or traded or pursuant to the preferential rights of the Series C Preferred Shares or the Series D Preferred Shares. Holders of Series C Preferred Shares and Series D Preferred Shares have the right to approve certain additional issuances of preferred shares, such as shares that would rank senior to the Series C Preferred Shares or the Series D Preferred Shares as to distributions or upon liquidation.

Both Maryland statutory law governing real estate investment trusts formed under Maryland law (the "Maryland REIT Law") and Brandywine's Declaration of Trust provide that none of its shareholders will be personally liable, by reason of status as a shareholder, for any of its obligations. Brandywine's Bylaws further provide that it will indemnify any shareholder or former shareholder against any claim or liability to which such shareholder may become subject by reason of being or having been a shareholder, and that Brandywine shall reimburse each shareholder who has been successful, on the merits or otherwise, in the defense of a proceeding to which the shareholder has been made a party by reason of status as such for all reasonable expenses incurred by the shareholder in connection with any such claim or liability.

Brandywine's Declaration of Trust provides that, subject to the provisions of any class or series of preferred shares then outstanding and to the mandatory provisions of applicable law, its shareholders are entitled to vote only on the following matters:

- election or removal of trustees;
- amendment of the Declaration of Trust (other than an amendment to increase or decrease the number of authorized shares or the number of shares of any class);
- a determination by the board of trustees to cause Brandywine to invest in commodities contracts (other than interest rate futures intended to hedge against interest rate risk), engage in securities trading (as compared to investment) activities or hold properties primarily for sale to customers in the ordinary course of business; and
- Brandywine's merger with another entity.

Shares

Common Shares of Beneficial Interest

Each outstanding Brandywine common share entitles the holder to one vote on all matters submitted to a vote of shareholders, including the election of trustees. There is no cumulative voting in the election of trustees. The Brandywine common shareholders vote as single class. In the future, Brandywine may issue a series of preferred shares that votes together with the Brandywine common shares as a single class. Holders of Brandywine's outstanding preferred shares have voting rights only under limited circumstances and, in such circumstances, vote in a class separate from the Brandywine common shareholders. See "—Preferred Shares of Beneficial Interest." Subject to (1) the preferential rights of the Series C Preferred Shares and the Series D Preferred Shares and (2) such preferential rights as may be granted by the Brandywine board of trustees in future issuances of additional series of preferred shares, holders of Brandywine common shares are entitled to such distributions as may be authorized from time to time by the Brandywine board of trustees and declared by Brandywine out of funds legally available therefor.

Back to Contents

Holders of Brandywine common shares have no conversion, exchange or redemption rights or preemptive rights to subscribe to any Brandywine securities. All outstanding Brandywine common shares are fully paid and nonassessable. In the event of any liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of Brandywine's affairs, subject to (1) the preferential rights of the Brandywine Series C Preferred Shares and the Brandywine Series D Preferred Shares and (2) such preferential rights as may be granted by the board of trustees in future issuances of additional series of preferred shares, holders of Brandywine common shares will be entitled to share ratably in any of Brandywine's assets remaining after provision for payment of liabilities to creditors. All Brandywine common shares have equal dividend, distribution, liquidation and other rights.

Brandywine's common shares are listed on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol "BDN." The transfer agent and registrar for the common shares is currently Computershare Limited.

Preferred Shares of Beneficial Interest

Brandywine's Declaration of Trust authorizes it to issue up to 20,000,000 preferred shares, par value $0.01 per share. The Declaration of Trust generally may be amended by the board of trustees, without shareholder approval, to increase or decrease the aggregate number of authorized shares or the number of shares of any class.

The holders of the Series C Preferred Shares and Series D Preferred Shares do not have voting rights, except (1) with respect to actions which would have a material adverse effect on holders of such shares, or (2) in the event that Brandywine fails to pay quarterly distributions for six or more quarters to the holders of Series C Preferred Shares or Series D Preferred Shares. If the conditions specified in clause (2) exist, then those holders will have the right, voting together as a single class with any other series of Brandywine's preferred shares ranking on a parity with the Series C Preferred Shares and Series D Preferred Shares and upon which like voting rights have been conferred, to elect two additional members to Brandywine's board of trustees.

If Brandywine issues preferred shares, the shares will be fully paid and non-assessable. Prior to the issuance of a new series of preferred shares, Brandywine will file, with the State Department of Assessments and Taxation of Maryland, Articles Supplementary that will become part of Brandywine's Declaration of Trust and that will set forth the terms of the new series.

Restrictions on Transfer

In order for Brandywine to qualify as a REIT under the Internal Revenue Code, not more than 50% in value of its outstanding shares may be owned, directly or indirectly, by five or fewer individuals (defined in the Internal Revenue Code to include certain entities such as qualified pension plans) during the last half of a taxable year and shares must be beneficially owned by 100 or more persons during at least 335 days of a taxable year of twelve months (or during a proportionate part of a shorter taxable year).

Because Brandywine's board of trustees believes it is at present important for it to continue to qualify as a REIT, the Declaration of Trust, subject to certain exceptions, contains provisions that restrict the number of shares that a person may own and that are designed to safeguard Brandywine against an inadvertent loss of REIT status. In order to prevent any shareholder from owning shares in an amount that would cause more than 50% in value of the outstanding shares to be held by five or fewer individuals, the board of trustees, pursuant to authority granted in Brandywine's Declaration of Trust, has passed a resolution that, subject to certain exceptions, provides that no person may own, or be deemed to own by virtue of the attribution provisions of the Internal Revenue Code, more than 9.8% in value of the outstanding shares. This limitation is referred to in this joint proxy statement/prospectus as the "ownership limit." Brandywine's board of trustees, subject to limitations, retains the authority to effect additional increases to, or establish exemptions from, the ownership limit.

Back to Contents

In addition, pursuant to Brandywine's Declaration of Trust, no purported transfer of shares may be given effect if it would result in ownership of all of the outstanding shares by fewer than 100 persons (determined without any reference to the rules of attribution) or result in Brandywine being "closely held" within the meaning of Section 856(h) of the Internal Revenue Code. These restrictions are referred to in this joint proxy statement/prospectus as the "ownership restrictions." In the event of a purported transfer or other event that would, if effective, result in the ownership of shares in violation of the ownership limit or the ownership restrictions, such transfer would be deemed void and such shares automatically would be exchanged for "excess shares" authorized by the Declaration of Trust, according to rules set forth in the Declaration of Trust, to the extent necessary to ensure that the purported transfer or other event does not result in the ownership of shares in violation of the ownership limit or the ownership restrictions.

Holders of excess shares are not entitled to voting rights (except to the extent required by law), dividends or distributions. If, after the purported transfer or other event resulting in an exchange of shares for excess shares and prior to the discovery by Brandywine of such exchange, dividends or distributions are paid with respect to shares that were exchanged for excess shares, then such dividends or distributions would be repayable to Brandywine upon demand. While outstanding, excess shares would be held in trust by Brandywine for the benefit of the ultimate transferee of an interest in such trust, as described below. While excess shares are held in trust, an interest in that trust may be transferred by the purported transferee or other purported holder with respect to such excess shares only to a person whose ownership of the shares would not violate the ownership limit or the ownership restrictions, at which time the excess shares would be exchanged automatically for shares of the same type and class as the shares for which the excess shares were originally exchanged. Brandywine's Declaration of Trust contains provisions that are designed to ensure that the purported transferee or other purported holder of the excess shares may not receive in return for such a transfer an amount that reflects any appreciation in the shares for which such excess shares were exchanged during the period that such excess shares were outstanding. Any amount received by a purported transferee or other purported holder in excess of the amount permitted to be received would be required to be turned over to Brandywine.

Brandywine's Declaration of Trust also provides that excess shares shall be deemed to have been offered for sale to Brandywine, or its designee, which shall have the right to accept such offer for a period of 90 days after the later of: (1) the date of the purported transfer or event which resulted in an exchange of shares for such excess shares; and (2) the date the board of trustees determines that a purported transfer or other event resulting in an exchange of shares for such excess shares has occurred if Brandywine does not receive notice of any such transfer. The price at which Brandywine may purchase such excess shares would be equal to the lesser of: (1) in the case of excess shares resulting from a purported transfer for value, the price per share in the purported transfer that caused the automatic exchange for such excess shares or, in the case of excess shares resulting from some other event, the market price of such shares on the date of the automatic exchange for excess shares; or (2) the market price of such shares on the date that Brandywine accepts the excess shares. Any dividend or distribution paid to a proposed transferee on excess shares prior to the discovery by Brandywine that such shares have been transferred in violation of the provisions of the Declaration of Trust shall be repaid to Brandywine upon its demand. If the foregoing restrictions are determined to be void or invalid by virtue of any legal decision, statute, rule or regulation, then the intended transferee or holder of any excess shares may be deemed, at Brandywine's option, to have acted as Brandywine's agent and on Brandywine's behalf in acquiring or holding such excess shares and to hold such excess shares on Brandywine's behalf.

Brandywine's trustees may waive the ownership restrictions if evidence satisfactory to the trustees and its tax counsel or tax accountants is presented showing that such waiver will not jeopardize Brandywine's status as a REIT under the Internal Revenue Code. As a condition of such waiver, Brandywine's trustees may require that an intended transferee give written notice to Brandywine, furnish such undertakings, agreements and information as may be required by Brandywine's trustees and/or an undertaking from the applicant with respect to preserving Brandywine's status. Any transfer of shares or any security convertible into shares that would create a direct or indirect ownership of shares in excess of the ownership limit or result in the violation of the ownership restrictions will be void with respect to the intended transferee and will result in excess shares as described above.

Neither the ownership restrictions nor the ownership limit will be removed automatically even if the REIT provisions of the Internal Revenue Code are changed so as no longer to contain any ownership concentration limitation or if the ownership concentration limitation is increased. Except as described above, any change in the ownership restrictions would require an amendment to Brandywine's Declaration of the Trust. Amendments to Brandywine's Declaration of Trust generally require the affirmative vote of holders owning not less than a majority of the outstanding shares entitled to vote thereon. In addition to preserving Brandywine's status as a REIT, the ownership restrictions and the ownership limit may have the effect of precluding an acquisition of control of Brandywine without the approval of its board of trustees.

All persons who own, directly or by virtue of the applicable attribution provisions of the Internal Revenue Code, more than 4.0% of the value of any class of outstanding shares, must file an affidavit with Brandywine containing the information specified in the Declaration of Trust by January 31 of each year. In addition, each shareholder shall upon demand be required to disclose to Brandywine in writing such information with respect to the direct, indirect and constructive ownership of shares as Brandywine's trustees deem necessary to comply with the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code applicable to REITs, to comply with the requirements of any taxing authority or governmental agency or to determine any such compliance.

The ownership limit could have the effect of delaying, deferring or preventing a transaction or a change in control of Brandywine that might involve a premium price for the common shares or otherwise be in the best interest of Brandywine's shareholders.

COMPARISON OF THE RIGHTS OF BRANDYWINE COMMON SHAREHOLDERS AND PRENTISS COMMON SHAREHOLDERS

Upon the completion of the REIT Merger, the shareholders of Prentiss will become shareholders of Brandywine. The rights of Prentiss common shareholders are currently governed by Title 8 of the Corporations and Associations Article of the Annotated Code of Maryland, the Prentiss Declaration of Trust and the Prentiss Bylaws. The rights of Brandywine's shareholders are presently governed by Title 8, the Brandywine Declaration of Trust and the Brandywine Bylaws. After the REIT Merger, the rights of former Prentiss common shareholders will be governed by Title 8, the Brandywine Declaration of Trust and the Brandywine Bylaws.

The following discussion summarizes certain significant differences between the rights of Prentiss common shareholders and the rights of Brandywine common shareholders. It is not a complete summary of the provisions affecting, and the differences between, the rights of Prentiss common shareholders and Brandywine common shareholders and is subject to and qualified in its entirety by reference to Title 8, the Brandywine Declaration of Trust and Bylaws and the Prentiss Declaration of Trust and Bylaws.

Authorized and Issued Shares of Beneficial Interest

Brandywine	Prentiss
Brandywine's Declaration of Trust provides that it is authorized to issue up to 220,000,000 shares of beneficial interest, consisting of 200,000,000 common shares, par value $.01 per share, and 20,000,000 preferred shares, par value $.01 per share. Of the preferred shares, 2,000,000 preferred shares, designated as 7.50% Series C Cumulative Redeemable Preferred Shares, and an additional 2,300,000 preferred shares, designated as 7.375% Series D Cumulative Redeemable Preferred Shares, are issued and outstanding. In addition, if any Prentiss Series D preferred shares remain outstanding at effective time of the REIT Merger, Brandywine will designate a new class of preferred shares as Series E Cumulative Redeemable Preferred Shares into which each such Prentiss Series D preferred share shall be converted. The Brandywine Series E preferred shares will have preferences, conversion or other rights, voting powers, restrictions, limitations as to dividends, qualifications and terms or conditions of redemption thereof identical in all material respects to those of the Prentiss Series D Preferred Shares.	Prentiss is authorized to issue 120,000,000 shares of beneficial interest, consisting of 100,000,000 Company Common Shares and 20,000,000 preferred shares of beneficial interest, par value of $.01 per share, of which 1,000,000 have been designated Junior Participating Cumulative Preferred Shares of Beneficial Interest and 3,773,585 shares have been designated as Series D Cumulative Convertible Redeemable Preferred Shares of Beneficial Interest.

Amendments to Declaration of Trust

Brandywine

Brandywine's Declaration of Trust may be amended only by the affirmative vote of the holders of not less than a majority of the shares then outstanding and entitled to vote thereon, except for the provisions of Brandywine's Declaration of Trust relating to (1) increases or decreases in the aggregate number of shares of any class, which may generally be made by the board of trustees without shareholder approval subject to approval rights of holders of Series C Preferred Shares and Series D Preferred Shares with respect to issuances of preferred shares that would rank senior as to distributions or in liquidation and (2) the removal of the inclusion by reference in the Brandywine Declaration of Trust of the provisions of the Maryland Business Combination Statute as in effect on June 4, 1986, amendment of which requires the affirmative vote of the holders of not less than 80% of the shares then outstanding and entitled to vote. In addition, if Brandywine's board of trustees determines, with the advice of counsel, that any one or more of the provisions of its Declaration of Trust conflict with the Maryland REIT Law, the Code or other applicable Federal or state law(s), the conflicting provisions of Brandywine's Declaration of Trust shall be deemed never to have constituted a part of its Declaration of Trust, even without any amendment thereof.

Prentiss

Prentiss reserves the right from time to time to make any amendment to the Declaration of Trust, including any amendment altering the terms or contract rights, as expressly set forth in the Declaration of Trust, of any Prentiss shares of beneficial interest. All rights and powers conferred by the Declaration of Trust on shareholders, trustees and officers are granted subject to this reservation.

The trustees may amend the Declaration of Trust by a two-thirds vote, in the manner provided by Title 8, without any action by the shareholders, to qualify as a REIT under the Code or under Title 8. The Prentiss board of trustees may amend the Declaration of Trust to increase or decrease the aggregate number of shares of any class which Prentiss may issue.

Other than amendments pursuant to the paragraph above, any amendment to the Declaration of Trust shall be valid only if approved by the affirmative vote of at least a majority of all the votes entitled to be cast on the matter, except that any amendment to articles relating the board of trustees, restrictions on transfer and shares-in-trust, amendments by trustees and shareholders and termination of Prentiss shall be valid only if approved by the affirmative vote of two-thirds of all the votes entitled to be cast on the matter.

Any written requests of shareholders for special meetings must state the purpose of the special meeting and the matters proposed to be acted on at the special meeting.

Prentiss

The Prentiss Bylaws provide that special meetings of shareholders may be called by the one-third of the board trustees, the president, or by the chairman of Prentiss and shall be called by the secretary upon written request of shareholders holding in the aggregate not less than a majority of the outstanding shares of Prentiss entitled to cast votes at such meeting. Any written requests of shareholders for special meetings must state the purpose of the special meeting and the matters proposed to be acted on at the special meeting.

Business Combinations

Brandywine	Prentiss
Under Maryland law, as applicable to Maryland real estate investment trusts, certain “business combinations” (including certain mergers, consolidations, share exchanges, or, in certain circumstances, asset transfers or issuances or reclassifications of equity securities) between a Maryland real estate investment trust and an “interested shareholder” or an affiliate of the interested shareholder are prohibited for five years after the most recent date on which the interested shareholder becomes an interested shareholder. Thereafter, any such business combination must be recommended by the trustees of such trust and approved by the affirmative vote of at least: (1) 80% of the votes entitled to be cast by holders of outstanding voting shares of beneficial interest of the trust, voting together as a single voting group; and (2) two-thirds of the votes entitled to be cast by holders of outstanding voting shares of beneficial interest other than shares held by the interested shareholder with whom or with whose affiliate the business combination is to be effected or by the interested shareholder’s affiliates or associates, voting together as a single voting group. The Maryland business combination statute permits various exemptions from its provisions, including business combinations that are exempted by a trust’s board of trustees before an interested shareholder becomes an interested shareholder. Brandywine remains subject to the Maryland business combination statute except that the Brandywine board of trustees, pursuant to provisions of the Maryland business combination statute, exempted business combinations involving a number of entities prior to their becoming interested shareholders. As such, the provisions of the Maryland business combinations statute do not apply to those entities.	The Prentiss board of trustees resolved to opt out of the provisions of the Maryland business combination statute in October 1996. As a result, the provisions of the Maryland business combinations statute do not apply to any Prentiss interested shareholder who became an interested shareholder after October 1996. The Prentiss board of trustees also resolved that the board of trustees shall not resolve to opt back in to the Maryland business combination statute unless the opt in resolution is conditioned upon Prentiss shareholder approval by a majority of the votes entitled to be cast.

Independent Trustees

Brandywine	Prentiss
The Brandywine Declaration of Trust has no requirements relating to the independence of the members of the board of trustees.	The Prentiss Declaration of Trust provides that a majority of the board of trustees must be composed of persons who are not affiliated with any member of the Prentiss family or officers or employees of Prentiss or affiliates of Prentiss or its subsidiaries.

Termination of Trust

Brandywine	Prentiss
Subject to the rights of any outstanding Brandywine preferred shares and the provisions of Maryland REIT law, Brandywine's Declaration of Trust permits its board of trustees to terminate Brandywine's existence and to discontinue its election to be taxed as a REIT.	Subject to the provision of any class or series of shares at the time outstanding, the Prentiss Declaration of Trust provides that the dissolution of Prentiss must be approved by the affirmative vote of the holders of not less than two-thirds of all of the votes entitled to be cast on the matter.

Restrictions on the Ownership, Transfer or Issuance of Shares

Brandywine	Prentiss
Pursuant to Brandywine's Declaration of Trust, the board of trustees has passed a resolution that, subject to certain exceptions, provides that no person may own, or be deemed to own by virtue of the attribution provisions of the Internal Revenue Code, more than 9.8% in value of the outstanding Brandywine shares (the "Brandywine ownership limit"). Brandywine's board of trustees, subject to limitations, retains the authority to effect additional increases to, or establish exemptions from, the Brandywine ownership limit.	The Prentiss Declaration of Trust contains an ownership limitation that provides that no person may own more than 8.5% of the number of outstanding Prentiss common shares, other than Michael V. Prentiss, who currently may own up to 15% of the number of outstanding Prentiss common shares, or more than 9.8% of the number of outstanding Prentiss preferred shares of any series, other than Security Capital, which may own all of the Prentiss Series D Preferred Shares (the "Prentiss ownership limitation").
In addition, no purported transfer of shares may be given effect if it would result in ownership of all of the outstanding Brandywine shares by fewer than 100 persons (determined without any reference to the rules of attribution) or result in Brandywine being "closely held" within the meaning of Section 856(h) of the Internal Revenue Code. These restrictions are referred to in this joint proxy statement/prospectus as the "Brandywine ownership restrictions." In the event of a purported transfer or other event that would, if effective, result in the ownership of Brandywine shares in violation of the Brandywine ownership limit or the Brandywine ownership restrictions, such transfer would be deemed void and such shares automatically would be exchanged for "excess shares" authorized by the Declaration of Trust, to the extent necessary to ensure that the purported transfer or other event does not result in the ownership of Brandywine shares in violation of the Brandywine ownership limit or the Brandywine ownership restrictions.	As long as the Prentiss board of trustees receives evidence that Prentiss' REIT status will not be lost, the board of trustees may exempt a recipient of common shares from the Prentiss ownership limitation upon receipt of the following: (1) a ruling from the Internal Revenue Service, or (2) an opinion of counsel. The Prentiss board of trustees has exempted Security Capital from the Prentiss ownership limitation on the condition that Security Capital not own more than 11% of the number of outstanding Prentiss common shares. The Prentiss board of trustees may monitor, modify, suspend or revoke Security Capital's 11% Prentiss ownership limitation as may be required to maintain Prentiss' REIT status. The board of trustees may not grant an exemption from the Prentiss ownership limitation to any proposed transferee if such exemption would result in the termination of Prentiss' status as a REIT.
Holders of excess shares are not entitled to voting rights (except to the extent required by law), dividends or distributions. If, after the purported transfer or other event resulting in an exchange of shares for excess shares and prior to the discovery by Brandywine of such exchange, dividends or distributions are paid with respect to shares that were exchanged for excess shares, then such dividends or distributions would be	Any transfer of Prentiss common shares or Prentiss preferred shares that causes any one of the following conditions to exist will be null and void, and the intended transferee will acquire no rights in such Prentiss common shares or Prentiss preferred shares: (1) any person owning, directly or indirectly, Prentiss common shares or Prentiss preferred shares in excess of the Prentiss ownership limitation; (2) Prentiss' outstanding shares being owned by fewer than 100 repayable to Brandywine upon demand. While outstanding, excess shares would be held in trust by Brandywine for the benefit of the ultimate transferee of an interest in such trust, as described below. While excess shares are held in trust, an interest in that trust may be transferred by the purported transferee or other purported holder with respect to such excess shares only to a person whose ownership of the shares would not violate the Brandywine ownership limit or the Brandywine ownership restrictions, at which time the excess shares would be exchanged automatically for shares of the same type and class as the shares for which the excess shares were originally exchanged. Brandywine's Declaration of Trust contains provisions that are designed to ensure that the purported transferee or other purported holder of the excess shares may not receive in return for such a transfer an amount that reflects any appreciation in the shares for which such excess shares were exchanged during the period that such excess shares were outstanding. Any amount received by a purported transferee or other purported holder in excess of the amount permitted to be received would be required to be turned over to Brandywine.

Brandywine's Declaration of Trust also provides that excess shares shall be deemed to have been offered for sale to Brandywine, or its designee, which shall have the right to accept such offer for a period of 90 days after the later of: (1) the date of the purported transfer or event which resulted in an exchange of shares for such excess shares; and (2) the date the Brandywine board of trustees determines that a purported transfer or other event resulting in an exchange of shares for such excess shares has occurred if Brandywine does not receive notice of any such transfer. Any dividend or distribution paid to a proposed transferee on excess shares prior to the discovery by Brandywine that such shares have been transferred in violation of the provisions of the Declaration of Trust shall be repaid to Brandywine upon its demand. If the foregoing restrictions are determined to be void or invalid by virtue of any legal decision, statute, rule or regulation, then the intended transferee or holder of any excess shares may be deemed, at Brandywine's option, to have acted as Brandywine's agent and on Brandywine's behalf in acquiring or holding such excess shares and to hold such excess shares on Brandywine's behalf.

Brandywine's trustees may waive the Brandywine ownership restrictions if evidence satisfactory to the trustees and its tax counsel or tax accountants is presented showing that such waiver will not jeopardize Brandywine's status as a REIT under the Internal Revenue Code. Any transfer of shares or any security convertible into shares that would create a direct or indirect ownership of shares in excess of the Brandywine ownership limit or result in the violation of the Brandywine ownership restrictions will be void with respect to the intended transferee and will result in excess shares as described above.

persons, as determined without reference to any rules of attribution; (3) Prentiss' being "closely held" within the meaning of Section 856(h) of the Internal Revenue Code; or (4) Prentiss' owning, directly or constructively, 10% or more of the ownership interests in one of Prentiss' tenants or the operating partnership's real property within the meaning of Section 856(d)(2)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code.

If any purported transfer of Prentiss common shares or Prentiss preferred shares results in any of the four above conditions, the Prentiss common shares or Prentiss preferred shares in excess of the applicable Prentiss ownership limitation will be designated as "shares-in-trust" and transferred automatically to a share trust effective on the day before the purported transfer of such Prentiss common shares or Prentiss preferred shares. The record holder of the Prentiss common shares or Prentiss preferred shares that are designated as shares-in-trust will be required to submit such number of Prentiss common shares or Prentiss preferred shares to Prentiss for registration in the name of the share trust. Prentiss will designate the trustee of the share trust, but the trustee of the share trust will not be affiliated with Prentiss. Prentiss will name one or more charitable organizations as the share trust's beneficiary.

Shares-in-trust will remain issued and outstanding Prentiss common shares or Prentiss preferred shares and will be entitled to the same rights and privileges as all other shares of the same class or series. The share trust will receive all dividends and distributions on the shares-in-trust and will hold such dividends and distributions in trust for the benefit of the share trust's beneficiary. The share trustee will vote all shares-in-trust. The trustee of the share trust may transfer the shares-in-trust, provided the transferee: (1) purchases such shares-in-trust for valuable consideration, and (2) acquires such shares-in-trust without such acquisition resulting in a transfer to another share trust and resulting in the redesignation of such Prentiss common shares or Prentiss preferred shares as shares-in-trust.

The prohibited owner with respect to shares-in-trust: (1) will be required to repay to the share trust the amount of any dividends or distributions received by the prohibited owner that are attributable to any shares-in-trust, and (2) will generally receive from the share trustee the lower of (a) the amount paid by the prohibited owner for the common shares designated as shares-in-trust, or, in the case of a gift or devise, the "market price," as defined in the Prentiss Declaration of Trust, per share on the date of such transfer, or (b) the amount received by the share trustee from the sale of such shares-in-trust. Any amounts received by the trustee of the share trust in excess of the amounts to be paid to the prohibited owner will be distributed to the share trust's beneficiary.

The shares-in-trust will be deemed to have been offered for sale to Prentiss, or Prentiss' designee, at a price per share equal to the lesser of the following: (1) the price per share in the transaction that created such shares-in-trust, or, in the case of a gift or devise, the market price per share on the date of such transfer, or (2) the market price per share on the date that Prentiss, or Prentiss' designee, accepts such offer.

Any person who acquires or attempts to acquire Prentiss common shares or Prentiss preferred shares in violation of the above restrictions, or any person who owned Prentiss common shares or Prentiss preferred shares that were transferred to a share trust, is required to immediately give written notice to Prentiss and to provide such other information to Prentiss as may be requested in order to determine the effect, if any, of such transfer on Prentiss' status as a REIT.

BRANDYWINE REALTY TRUST

UNAUDITED PRO FORMA CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

On October 3, 2005, Brandywine Realty Trust (Brandywine) and Prentiss Properties Trust (Prentiss) agreed to combine their businesses by merging Prentiss and a subsidiary of Brandywine under the terms of the merger agreement described in this joint proxy statement/prospectus and attached as Annex A. We encourage you to read the merger agreement carefully and in its entirety.

Upon completion of the REIT Merger, each Prentiss common share will be converted into the right to receive $21.50 in cash, subject to reduction by the amount of a special pre-closing cash dividend if the special pre-closing cash dividend is paid, and 0.69 of a Brandywine common share. Cash will be paid in lieu of fractional shares. Because the portion of the merger consideration to be received in Brandywine common shares is fixed, the value of the consideration to be received by Prentiss common shareholders in the merger will depend upon the market price of Brandywine common shares at the time of the REIT Merger. The REIT Merger will be accounted for using the purchase method of accounting in accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 141, Business Combinations.

As part of the merger transaction, Brandywine and Prentiss have entered into agreements with The Prudential Insurance Company of America (Prudential). These agreements provide for the acquisition by Prudential (either on the day prior to, or the day of, the closing of the REIT Merger) of Prentiss properties that contain up to an aggregate of approximately 4.32 million net rentable square feet for total consideration of up to approximately $747.7 million (including assumption of certain related secured debt obligations) (the Prudential Acquisition). Consummation of the Prudential Acquisition is contingent upon the approval of the REIT Merger.

The accompanying unaudited pro forma consolidated financial statements have been prepared based on certain pro forma adjustments to the historical consolidated financial statements of Brandywine and Prentiss as of June 30, 2005 and for the six months then ended and for the year ended December 31, 2004 to give effect for certain material transactions already completed or contemplated by Brandywine and Prentiss separately or as part of the REIT Merger/Prudential Acquisition including the following:

Brandywine

- Impact of material acquisitions completed in 2004 the acquisition of the Rubenstein portfolio in September of 2004
- Financing and capital transactions (including equity offerings) completed in connection with financing these acquisitions
- Redemption of Brandywine preferred securities in 2004

Prentiss

- Impact of material acquisitions completed in 2004/2005
- Completed or planned dispositions of properties including those properties in Chicago and Detroit to which Prentiss had committed to a plan to sell in September 2005
- Financing and capital transactions completed in connection with financing these acquisitions or the use of proceeds from sales
- Certain reclassifications to Prentiss s historical financial statement presentations to conform with Brandywine s financial statement presentation
- Redemption of Prentiss preferred securities in 2004

REIT Merger/Prudential Acquisition

- Impact of Prudential Acquisition
- Effects of REIT Merger including financing transactions, issuance of shares by Brandywine, issuance of Class A units by Brandywine Operating Partnership, assumption of debt and application of purchase accounting.

The historical consolidated financial statements of Brandywine and Prentiss are contained in each company s respective annual reports on Form 10-K and/or Form 10-K/A, quarterly reports on Form 10-Q and/or Form 10-Q/A, current reports on Form 8-K and other information on file with the Securities and Exchange Commission and incorporated by reference into this document. The unaudited pro forma consolidated financial statements should be read in conjunction with, and are qualified in their entirety by, the notes thereto and the historical consolidated financial statements of both Brandywine and Prentiss, including the respective notes thereto, which are incorporated by reference in this document.

The accompanying unaudited pro forma consolidated balance sheet as of June 30, 2005 has been prepared as if the completed or proposed transactions described above occurred as of that date. The accompanying unaudited pro forma consolidated statements of operations for the six months ended June 30, 2005 and for the year ended December 31, 2004 have been prepared as if the completed or proposed transactions described above had occurred as of January 1, 2004. The unaudited pro forma consolidated financial statements do not purport to be indicative of the financial position or results of operations that would actually have been achieved had the completed or proposed transactions described above occurred on the dates indicated or which may be achieved in the future.

In the opinion of Brandywine s management, all significant adjustments necessary to reflect the effects of the completed or proposed transactions described above that can be factually supported within the Securities and Exchange Commission regulations covering the preparation of pro forma financial statements have been made. The pro forma adjustments and the purchase price allocation as presented are based on estimates and certain information that is currently available to Brandywine s management. Such pro forma adjustments and the purchase price allocation could change as additional information becomes available, as estimates are refined or as additional events occur. Brandywine s management does not anticipate that there will be any significant changes in the total purchase price as presented in these unaudited pro forma consolidated financial statements.

The unaudited pro forma consolidated financial statements do not give effect to (i) any transaction other than those described above, (ii) the results of operations of Brandywine or Prentiss since June 30, 2005, (iii) certain cost savings and one-time charges expected to result from the transactions described above which have not already been completed and whose effects are not reflected in the historical financial statements of Brandywine or Prentiss and (iv) the results of final valuations of the assets and liabilities of Prentiss, including property and intangible assets. We are currently developing plans to integrate the operations of the companies, which may involve various costs and other charges that may be material. We will also revise the allocation of the purchase price when additional information becomes available. Accordingly, the pro forma consolidated financial information does not purport to be indicative of the financial position or results of operations as of the date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus, as of the effective date of the Mergers and the Prudential Acquisition, any period ending at the effective date of the Mergers and the Prudential Acquisition or as of any other future date or period. The foregoing matters could cause both Brandywine s pro forma financial position and results of operations, and Brandywine s actual future financial position and results of operations, to differ materially from those presented in the following unaudited pro forma consolidated financial statements.

(B) Subsequent Acquisitions and Dispositions / Sale Properties

Subsequent Acquisitions

The following properties which are referred to herein as the Subsequent Acquisitions were acquired by Prentiss subsequent to June 30, 2005, and thus are not included in the June 30, 2005 Prentiss historical consolidated balance sheet. 1333 Broadway was acquired by Prentiss through a subsidiary, Prentiss Office Investors, L.P. which is owned 51% by Prentiss s Operating Partnership and its affiliates and 49% by Stichting Pensioenfond ABP. Aggregate consideration for the Subsequent Acquisitions was paid with borrowings under Prentiss s revolving credit facility of approximately $12.6 million, debt assumed of approximately $68.3 million, the issuance of Prentiss operating partnership units valued at $21.2 million and a capital contribution of $7.4 million from a joint venture partner. The value of the debt assumed was based on prevailing market rates at the time of acquisition. The value of the operating partnership units was based on the closing price of Prentiss common shares on the acquisition date. The Subsequent Acquisitions are comprised of three office buildings containing approximately 588,000 net rentable square feet as further detailed below:

Subsequent Acquisitions	Market	Month of Acquisition	Number of Buildings	Net Rentable Square Feet (in thousands)	Acquisition Price (in thousands)

Dispositions / Sale Properties

Subsequent to June 30, 2005, Prentiss sold five properties (the Dispositions) with a June 30, 2005 net book value of $117.1 million as detailed below. Prentiss recorded gains from the sale of the Dispositions totaling approximately $80.5 million. A portion of the sale proceeds totaling $160.4 million along with additional borrowings of $56.1 million from Prentiss s revolving credit facility were used to defease two separate mortgage loans with a combined principal balance of $204.2 million and to fund $12.2 million of debt extinguishment costs. Proceeds totaling $37.2 million from the sale of 123 North Wacker were placed in escrow pending the completion of a Sec. 1030 like-kind asset exchange.

The pro forma consolidated balance sheet is presented as if each of the Subsequent Acquisitions, Dispositions and Sale Properties were acquired, sold or classified as held for sale, respectively, as of June 30, 2005. The properties related to the Prudential Acquisition have not been reclassified because the Prudential Acquisition is contingent upon the approval of the REIT Merger.

(C) In the merger, each Prentiss common share (including shares held by Prentiss in trust or otherwise designated for participants in and beneficiaries of the Prentiss deferred compensation plan, but excluding any other shares owned by Prentiss, Brandywine or their direct or indirect wholly owned subsidiaries) shall be converted into the right to receive:

$21.50 in cash, subject to reduction by the amount of a Special Dividend if the Special Dividend is declared prior to the merger, as discussed below; and

0.69 of a Brandywine common share.

No change will be made to the 0.69 exchange ratio for the exchange of Prentiss common shares for Brandywine common shares in the REIT Merger. Because the market value of Brandywine common shares will fluctuate before and after the closing of the REIT Merger, the value of the consideration that holders of Prentiss common shares will receive in the REIT Merger will fluctuate as well.

For purposes of the unaudited pro forma consolidated balance sheet presentation, the total purchase price is based on the number of outstanding Prentiss common shares, Prentiss Operating Partnership common units, restricted shares and share options outstanding at June 30, 2005, as adjusted below, and an average trading price per Brandywine common share of $29.54. The average trading price is based on the average of the high and low trading prices for each of the two trading days before, the day, and the two trading days after the merger was announced (September 29, September 30, October 3, October 4, and October 5, 2005).

The calculation of the pro forma outstanding Prentiss common shares and Prentiss Operating Partnership units included in the calculation of the merger consideration is as follows:

	Shares	Units
Issued and outstanding common Prentiss shares and operating partnership units at June 30, 2005 (excluding treasury)	45,174,605	1,297,198
Common shares in treasury at June 30, 2005 to be issued as part of Prentiss s deferred compensation plan	63,439
Series D Convertible Preferred Shares converted to common on July 20, 2005	950,000

Units converted to shares by Unitholders subsequent to June 30, 2005	46,981	(46,981)
Shares expected to be issued prior to the merger relating to Prentiss employee share ownership plan, incentive share grants and Trustee share grants	234,986
Units issued as partial consideration for the acquisition of Concord Airport Plaza		547,262
Total shares/units to be outstanding as of merger date expected to participate in merger	49,294,011	1,797,479

Prentiss has outstanding options that had been granted to its employees and trustees. The terms of the REIT Merger provide for a cash settlement or exchange of these options for Brandywine options. It is anticipated that the majority of holders will elect cash settlement and, accordingly, these pro forma financial statements reflect assume the cash settlement is elected for all options and such amounts are financed with additional borrowings. As such neither shares nor related options are reflected relating to these grants in the outstanding basic or diluted shares.

Prentiss currently has outstanding 2,824,000 shares of Series D preferred shares which are convertible into Prentiss common shares at a rate of $26.50 per share. Prentiss may redeem these securities at $26.50 per share plus accrued and unpaid dividends anytime after December 29, 2005. Based on the implied transaction value, it is anticipated that these securities would either be converted prior to or shortly after the consummation of the REIT Merger upon call for redemption. Accordingly, for purposes of these pro forma financial statements, this conversion has been assumed.

Prudential Acquisition closes after completion of merger and no Special Dividend/distribution is made

If the Private Letter Ruling (PLR) is obtained, the Prudential Acquisition will close immediately after the merger and no Special Dividend would be declared. Accordingly, the Prentiss shareholders/unitholders would receive their respective transaction consideration as follows:

Scenario 2-

Prudential Acquisition closes day before merger and Special Dividend/distribution is made

If the PLR is not obtained, the Prudential Acquisition will close the business day prior to the REIT Merger and a Special Dividend/distribution will be declared and the appropriate adjustments made to total transaction consideration to be received by the Prentiss shareholders/unitholders as follows:

Total proceeds from Prudential Acquisition potentially to be distributed	$	679,831
Ratio to be distributed		95.0%

Total issued to holders	$ 1,441,443	$ 51,734	$ 1,493,177

(a) using implied conversion value of $31.1594 per Brandywine share

(b) using 0.69 shares per unit plus merger cash consideration to shareholders using an implied conversion value of $31.1594

(c) Represents the exchange ratio for Prentiss units to Brandywine units if no Special Dividend

(d) Represents the adjusted conversion amount of (i) 0.69 plus (ii) the quotient obtained from dividing the per share amount of the cash consideration payable to the shareholders by $31.1594 per share

(e) Valued at $29.54 per Brandywine share/unit for accounting purposes, representing the average trading price based on average of the high and low trading prices for each of the two trading days before, the day of, and the two trading days after the merger was announced (October 3, 2005).

For purposes of the pro forma financial statements, it was considered more conservative to show the effects of the merger as if the PLR is not obtained, the Prudential Acquisition is closed on the day prior to the completion of the REITMerger, and the required 95% portion of the net cash proceeds distributed as a Special Dividend/distribution to the then outstanding Prentissshareholders/unitholders (i.e., Scenario 2 above).

The effect of this assumption on the pro forma balance sheet is to increase borrowings to consummate thetransaction by the amount of the additional cash distribution to the unit holders and reduce the number of units outstanding subsequent to thetransaction. The common shareholders are unaffected as they receive the same total cash and same number of Brandywine common shares undereither scenario. The impact of this assumption on the pro forma statement of operations would be to increase interest expense and lowerminority interest allocation. The net impact is not considered material to the pro forma earnings per common share.

C-3 Adjustment to eliminate Prentiss s historical accumulated depreciation.

C-4 As previously indicated, for purposes of these pro forma financial statements, it has been assumed that the Prudential Acquisition is consummated on the day prior to the REIT Merger and a Special Dividend/Distribution is declared to the Prentiss common shareholders and unitholders in the aggregate amount of 95% of the net cash proceeds of the Prudential Acquisition.

C-5 Adjustment to eliminate Prentiss s straight-line rent balance.

C-6 Prentiss s investments in operating joint ventures have been adjusted to their estimated fair value as of June 30, 2005. The same valuation methods used for the direct owned real estate assets of Prentiss were used in calculating this adjustment.

C-7 Adjustment to eliminate Prentiss s capitalized debt issuance costs and capitalized leasing costs totalling $48.0 million and to reflect the capitalization of issuance costs associated with debt issued and assumed in the merger of $5.8 million.

C-8 Adjustment to Prentiss s historical balance of intangible assets are as follows:

Elimination of historical Prentiss fair value adjustment on mortgage notes payable		(3,910)
Reflects the estimated fair value adjustment based on Brandywine s estimates of the interest rates that would be available to Brandywine for the issuance of debt with similar terms and remaining maturities. The interest rates on the assumed debt are considered to be above market.		11,572
	$	(42,194)

C-10 Net borrowings under lines of credit are assumed to: (i) fund the aggregate cash merger consideration of $436.7 million; (ii) other estimated fees and other expenses of the merger aggregating $95.8 million; (iii) fund the assumed payment of Prentiss s accrued dividend payable as of June 30, 2005 of $28.2 million; (iv) fund the assumed cash redemption of outstanding Prentiss options of approximately $9.4 million; and (v) fund the repayment of mortgage notes payable of $149.9 million, reduced by the application of proceeds from additional mortgage notes payable of $100.0 million. Brandywine expects to: (i) borrow $750 million on an unsecured facility with a term of 364 days from the closing of the merger; (ii) borrow $175 million on an unsecured short-term bridge financing; and (iii) use its existing revolving line of credit. The bridge financing is expected to be repaid using the proceeds from the sale of the assets and the $750 million unsecured facility is expected to be repaid from the proceeds of long term financings.

Number of shares assumed to be issued	34,012,868

(D) On September 21, 2004, Brandywine completed the acquisition of 100% of the partnership interests in The Rubenstein Company, L.P. (the Rubenstein Acquisition). Pro forma information relating to the Rubenstein Acquisition is presented as if the acquisition and the related financing transactions occurred on January 1, 2004. Through the acquisition, Brandywine acquired 14 office properties (the TRC Properties) located in Pennsylvania and Delaware that contain approximately 3.5 million net rentable square feet. The results of TRC s operations have been included in Brandywine s consolidated financial statements since that date.

The aggregate consideration for the Rubenstein Acquisition was $631.3 million including $29.3 million of closing costs, debt prepayment penalties and debt premiums that are included in the basis of the assets acquired. The consideration was paid with $540.4 million of cash, $79.3 million of debt assumed, $1.6 million of other liabilities assumed, and 343,006 Brandywine Operating Partnership Class A Units valued at $10.0 million. The value of the debt assumed was based on prevailing market rates at the time of acquisition. The value of the Brandywine Operating Partnership Class A Units was based on the average trading price of the Brandywine s common shares immediately prior to closing.

The Rubenstein Acquisition;
Brandywine s September 2004 issuance of 7,750,000 common shares used to fund the Rubenstein Acquisition

Brandywine Operating Partnership s repayment of an existing $100 million term loan facility in September 2004

Brandywine Operating Partnership s issuance in October 2004, of $275.0 million of its 2009 4.5% unsecured notes (the 2009 Notes) and $250.0 million of its 2014 5.4% unsecured notes (the 2014 Notes) in an underwritten public offering. The Operating Partnership received net proceeds, after discounts, of approximately $520.1 million. Brandywine and certain of the wholly-owned subsidiaries of the Operating Partnership fully and unconditionally guaranteed the payment of principal and interest on the Notes. In anticipation of the issuance of the Notes, Brandywine entered into treasury lock agreements with notional amounts totaling $194.8 million with an expiration of 5 years at an all-in rate of 4.8% and with notional amounts totaling $188.0 million with an expiration of 10 years at an all-in rate of 5.6%. Upon issuance of the Notes, Brandywine terminated the treasury lock agreements at a total cost of $3.2 million that will be amortized to interest expense over the life of the respective Notes.

Brandywine Operating Partnership s sale in December 2004 of $113.0 million aggregate principal amount of its 2008 unsecured notes (the 2008 Notes) to a group of institutional investors. The 2008 Notes bear interest from their date of issuance at the fixed rate of 4.34% per annum and mature on December 14, 2008.

Actual repayments on Brandywine s revolving credit facility of $200.0 million in October 2004 as a result of the above transactions to decrease interest expense.

Elimination of a preferred share redemption/conversion benefit of $4.5 million relating to the redemption of previously outstanding preferred shares of Brandywine in 2004.

(E) During the year ended December 31, 2004, Prentiss acquired eight office buildings totaling approximately 2.3 million net rentable square feet (collectively, the 2004 Acquired Properties). During 2005, Prentiss acquired seven office buildings totaling approximately 1.2 million net rentable square feet (collectively, the 2005 Acquired Properties, and together with the 2004 Acquired Properties, the Acquired Properties). prevailing market rates at the time of acquisition. The value of the Prentiss Operating Partnership common units was based on the closing price of Prentiss common shares on the acquisition date.

The operating results for the 2004 Acquired Properties since the date of acquisition are already included in Prentiss s historical results from operations. The pro forma amounts below represent the additional amounts necessary to reflect the results of the Acquired Properties for the period from January 1, 2004 through the acquisition date for the 2004 Acquired Properties and for the entire year ended December 31, 2004 for the 2005 Acquired Properties.

E-1	Reflects adjustments to revenue resulting from the new lease executed with 7-Eleven, Inc. upon Prentiss s acquisition of Cityplace Center. Cityplace Center was 100% leased by 7-Eleven, Inc. under a master lease agreement with the previous owner, an affiliate of 7-Eleven, Inc. 7-Eleven, Inc. sublet approximately 42% of the building s net rentable feet. Concurrent with the acquisition of Cityplace, 7-Eleven, Inc. executed a three year lease for annual rental revenues of approximately $10.3 million and Prentiss assumed the subleases. The historical revenues of Cityplace Center reflect 100% occupancy under the master lease agreement.	$ (6,437)
	Reflects the adjustment necessary to record rental income for in-place leases on a straight-line basis beginning January 1, 2004 and amortization of the above and below market lease values from the Acquired Properties over the remaining noncancelable term of the leases ranging from 1 to 11 years.	1,905

E-2 Reflects adjustments to exclude historical property management fees paid to third parties (through the dates of acquisition) because the Acquired Properties subsequent to acquisition are managed by an entity affiliated with Prentiss.

E-3 Reflects adjustments to reflect depreciation and amortization related to the Acquired Properties. Purchase price allocated to buildings and improvements is amortized over their estimated useful lives of 40 years. Purchase price allocated to other tangible and intangible real estate related assets is amortized over the estimated useful lives ranging from 1 to 11 years.

E-4 Reflects the additional interest costs for the year ended December 31, 2004 that would have been incurred had the Acquired Properties been acquired on January 1, 2004. The increased interest cost results from $116.0 million of debt assumed with the Acquired Properties and $401.4 million of borrowings under Prentiss s revolving credit facility. The increase in interest cost from the debt assumptions is partially offset in the pro forma adjustments by the amortization of the fair value adjustment to the debt assumed. Interest costs from additional borrowings under Prentiss s revolving credit facility are based on 30-day LIBOR of 3.85% plus 95 basis points. Each 1/8 of 1% increase in the annual interest rate of the revolving credit facility will increase interest expense by approximately $0.3 million.

E-5 On May 2, 2005, Prentiss completed a transaction in which it acquired the remaining 75% interest in the properties owned by Tysons International Partners, a joint venture that prior to the transaction was owned 25% by Prentiss and 75% by an unrelated third party. Concurrent with the acquisition of the remaining 75%, the results of operations were consolidated with and into the accounts of Prentiss. The adjustment reflects the elimination of equity in income from Tyson International Partners that was recognized by Prentiss prior to the acquisition.

E-6 Reflects the allocation of earnings to the minority interests in the Prentiss Operating Partnership and subsidiaries of the Operating Partnership as a result of the pro forma adjustments based on weighted average minority interest ownership percentages for the period.

(F) As previously described in footnote (B) to the consolidated pro forma balance sheet, subsequent to June 30, 2005, Prentiss sold five properties with a net book value of $117.1 million and reclassified 17 properties, with a net book value of $302.6 million, to assets and liabilities held for sale. The pro forma consolidated statement of operations for the year ended December 31, 2004 is presented as if the Dispositions had occurred on January 1, 2004 and the Sale Properties had been reclassified to discontinued operations on January 1, 2004; the Dispositions and the Sale Properties are excluded from income from continuing operations in the pro forma consolidated statement of operations for the year ended December 31, 2004.

F-1 The pro forma interest adjustments represent the use of the proceeds from the Dispositions totaling $160.4 million to repay a portion of certain of Prentiss s other borrowings with a fixed rate of 7.69% per annum in October 2005 as part of a larger loan defeasance with a combined amount of $204.2 million. The incremental portion of the defeasance was financed with additional borrowings under Prentiss s credit facility and its net impact was not considered significant.

F-2 Reflects the allocation of earnings to the minority interests in the Prentiss Operating Partnership and subsidiaries of the Operating Partnership as a result of the pro forma adjustments based on weighted average minority interest ownership percentages for the period.

The following table reflects the pro forma impact of Prentiss s consolidated statements of operations for the years ended December 31, 2003 and 2002 for the reclassification of the Disposition Properties and Sale Properties to discontinued operations. The statements also reflect the reclassification of certain items to conform to Brandywine s financial statement presentation.

G-1 Reflects the adjustment necessary to record rental income for in-place leases on a straight-line basis beginning January 1, 2004 and amortization of the above and below market lease values from the 2005 Acquired Properties over the remaining noncancelable term of the leases ranging from 1 to 9 years.

G-2 Reflects adjustments to exclude historical property management fees paid to third parties (through the dates of acquisition) as the 2005 Acquired Properties will be managed by an entity affiliated with Prentiss.

G-3 Reflects depreciation and amortization related to the 2005 Acquired Properties. Purchase price allocated to buildings and improvements is amortized over their estimated useful lives of 40 years. Purchase price allocated to other real estate assets is amortized over the estimated useful lives ranging from 1 to 9 years.

G-4 Reflects the additional interest costs for the six month period ended June 30, 2005 that would have been incurred by the Company had the properties been acquired on January 1, 2005, offset by an adjustment to remove an $8.8 million non-recurring charge resulting from early prepayment of debt in connection with the acquisition of Tysons International Properties. The increased interest cost results from $68.3 million of debt assumed with the Acquired Properties and $156.9 million of borrowings under Prentiss s revolving credit facility. The increase in interest cost from the debt assumptions is partially offset in the pro forma adjustments by the amortization of the fair value adjustment to the debt assumed. Interest costs from additional borrowings under Prentiss s revolving credit facility are based on 30-day LIBOR of 3.85% plus 95 basis points. Each 1/8th of 1% increase in the annual interest rate of the revolving credit facility will increase interest expense by approximately $0.1 million.

G-5 Reflects the equity in income of Tysons International Properties before the acquisition.

G-6 Reflects the 49% minority interest in pro forma net income of the President s Plaza Properties and the 1333 Broadway Property. Also reflects the adjustment to minority interest due to holders of Prentiss Operating Partnership common units based on the pro forma net income change and the additional Operating Partnerships common units issued in the Concord Airport Plaza acquisition.

(H) As previously described in footnote (B) to the consolidated pro forma balance sheet, subsequent to June 30, 2005, Prentiss sold five properties with a net book value of $117.1 million and reclassified 17 properties, with a net book value of $302.6 million, to assets held for sale. The pro forma consolidated statement of operations for the six months ended June 30, 2005 is presented as if the Dispositions had occurred on January 1, 2005 and the Sale Properties had been reclassified to discontinued operations on January 1, 2005; the Dispositions and the Sale Properties are excluded from income from continuing operations in the pro forma consolidated statement of operations for the six months ended June 30, 2005.

H-1 The pro forma interest adjustments represent the use of the proceeds from the Dispositions totaling $160.4 million to repay a portion of certain of Prentiss s other borrowings with a fixed rate of 7.69% per annum in October 2005 as part of a larger loan defeasance with a combined amount of $204.2 million. The incremental portion of the defeasance was financed with additional borrowings under Prentiss s credit facility and its net impact was not considered significant.

H-2 Reflects the allocation of earnings to the minority interests in the Prentiss Operating Partnership and subsidiaries of the Prentiss Operating Partnership as a result of the pro forma adjustments based on weighted average minority interest ownership percentages for the period.

(I) Rents are adjusted to: (i) remove Prentiss s historical straight-line rent adjustment; (ii) recognize the total minimum lease payments provided under the acquired leases on a straight-line basis over the remaining term as if the merger had occurred on January 1, 2004; and (iii) include amortization of the asset and liability created at the merger date associated with acquired leases where the net present value was assumed to be favorable or unfavorable to relative estimated market rates as if the merger had occurred on January 1, 2004.

(J) Represents the increase in depreciation and amortization expense as a result of the step-up in basis to record Prentiss s real estate at the estimated fair value as if the merger had occurred on January 1, 2004 and the increase in amortization expense related to intangible assets associated with acquired leases that were recognized under purchase accounting. Allocations of the step-up to fair value were estimated between depreciable and non-depreciable components based on the asset type and market conditions. An estimated useful life of 40 years was assumed to compute the adjustment to real estate depreciation. For assets and liabilities associated with the value of in place leases, the amortization expense was calculated over the remaining terms of the leases.

(K) Management of Brandywine expects that the merger will create operational and general and administrative cost savings, including property management costs, costs associated with corporate administrative functions and executive compensation. There can be no assurance that Brandywine will be successful in achieving these anticipated cost savings. No estimate of these expected future cost savings has been included in the pro forma financial statements. Such adjustments cannot be factually supported within the Securities and Exchange Commission regulations governing the preparation of pro forma financial statements until such time as the operations of the two companies have been fully integrated.

(L) Adjustments to interest expense are as follows (in thousands):

			Impact on Pro forma Interest Expense
	Principal Balance	Weighted Average Interest Rate	Year ended December 31,2004	Six Months ended June 30, 2005
Estimated incremental unsecured borrowing at LIBOR plus spread	$ 623,701	4.75%	$ 29,626	$ 14,813
Impact of secured loans to be prepaid after June 30, 2005	(149,856)	5.58%	(8,369)	(4,184)
Impact of new secured borrowings after June 30, 2005	100,000	4.91%	4,907	2,454
Eliminate historical premium amortization on assumed debt			601	300
Add amortization of new debt premium in purchase accounting			(2,731)	(1,366)
			$ 24,034	$ 12,017

The pro forma increase in interest expense as a result of the assumed issuance of new debt in the merger is calculated using current market rates (LIBOR of 3.85%) as if the borrowings had been outstanding as of January 1, 2004. Each 1/8 of 1% increase in the annual interest rate assumed with respect to the debt will increase the pro forma interest expense by $0.8 million for the year ended December 31, 2004 and $0.4 million for the six months ended June 30, 2005.

(M) Adjustment to reflect the pro forma impact of the minority interest attributable to continuing operations assuming all Prentiss Operating Partnership units to be converted to Brandywine Operating Partnerhsip units had been outstanding as of January 1, 2004.

(N) During the year ended December 31, 2004 and the six months ended June 30, 2005, Prentiss had outstanding Series D preferred shares which are convertible into Prentiss common shares at a rate of $26.50 per share. Prentiss may redeem these securities at $26.50 per share plus accrued and unpaid dividends anytime after December 29, 2005. Based on the implied transaction value, it is anticipated that these securities would either be converted prior to, or shortly after, the consummation of the REIT Merger upon call for redemption. Accordingly, for purposes of these pro forma financial statements, this conversion has been assumed to occur effective January 1, 2004 and the related preferred distributions have been removed. Also eliminated from the income allocated to preferred shares is a charge of approximately $1.6 million relating to the redemption of previously outstanding preferred shares of Prentiss in 2004.

(O) The calculations of basic and diluted earnings from continuing operations attributable to common shares per share are as follows:

RECITALS:

WHEREAS, the board of trustees of the Company (the Company Board) has approved and declared the merger (the REIT Merger) of the Company with and into Merger Sub, with Merger Sub to be the surviving entity (except as provided in Article X), on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement, whereby each issued and outstanding common share of beneficial interest, par value $.01 per share, of the Company (Company Common Shares) (except for shares owned or held by Parent, Parent L.P., the Company or any of their respective direct or indirect wholly owned Subsidiaries) shall be converted into the right to receive the REIT Merger Consideration in accordance with this Agreement, advisable and fair to, and in the best interests of, the Company and its shareholders and desires to provide herein, in accordance with Title 8 of the Corporations and Associations Article of the Annotated Code of Maryland, as amended (Maryland REIT Law) and the Maryland Limited Liability Company Act (the MLLCA);

WHEREAS, the Company, as sole general partner (through a wholly-owned direct Subsidiary) of Company L.P., has approved and declared this Agreement advisable and fair to, and in the best interests of, Company L.P. and its partners and desires to provide herein, in accordance with the Delaware Revised Uniform Limited Partnership Act (DRULPA) and the Delaware Limited Liability Company Act (DLLCA), for the merger (the OP Merger) of L.P. Merger Sub with and into Company L.P. immediately following the REIT Merger, with Company L.P. to be the surviving entity, on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement, whereby each Company Common Unit owned by the limited partners of Company L.P. (except for Company Common Units owned or held by Parent, Parent L.P., Merger Sub, L.P. Merger Sub, Company G.P., Company L.P. or any of their respective direct or indirect wholly owned Subsidiaries) shall be converted automatically into the right to receive the OP Merger Consideration;

WHEREAS, as an alternative to receiving the OP Merger Consideration in connection with the OP Merger, each holder of Company L.P. Units (other than the Company) shall have the right to elect, effective immediately prior to the OP Merger, to exercise their exchange right under the Company L.P. Partnership Agreement, regardless of whether or not they would otherwise be entitled to exercise that exchange right under the Company L.P. Partnership Agreement, and the Company shall issue Company Common Shares in satisfaction of that right, thereby allowing former limited partners in Company L.P. (other than the Company) to participate in the REIT Merger as holders of the Company Common Shares;

WHEREAS, simultaneously with the execution and delivery of this Agreement, Parent, Parent L.P. and certain limited partners of Company L.P. set forth in Schedule I hereto (the Principal Company Limited Partners) have entered into voting agreements in the form of Exhibit A attached hereto (the Voting Agreements) pursuant to which the Principal Company Limited Partners have agreed to take specified actions in furtherance of the REIT Merger; and

WHEREAS Parent, Parent L.P., Merger Sub, L.P. Merger Sub, the Company and Company L.P. desire to make certain representations, warranties, covenants and agreements in connection with the REIT Merger and the OP Merger and also to prescribe various conditions to the REIT Merger and the OP Merger.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the representations, warranties, covenants and agreements contained in this Agreement, and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and adequacy of which are hereby acknowledged, and intending to be legally bound hereby, the parties hereto agree as follows:

ARTICLE I
The Mergers

Section 1.01. The Mergers.

(a) REIT Merger. Except as provided in Section 10.5, on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement, at the REIT Effective Time, the Company shall be merged with and into Merger Sub. Except as provided in Section 10.5, at the REIT Effective Time, the separate existence of the Company shall cease and Merger Sub shall continue as the surviving company (the Surviving Company).

(b) OP Merger. On the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement, immediately following the REIT Merger, L.P. Merger Sub shall be merged with and into Company L.P. At such time, the separate existence of L.P. Merger Sub shall cease and Company L.P. shall continue as the surviving partnership (the Surviving L.P.).

Section 1.02. Closings.

(a) Unless this Agreement has been earlier terminated in accordance with its terms or the REIT Merger has been abandoned pursuant to Section 10.05(a), the closing (the REIT Closing) of the REIT Merger shall take place at the offices of Pepper Hamilton LLP, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania at 10:00 a.m. on the second business day following the satisfaction (or, to the extent permitted by Law, waiver by the party or parties entitled to the benefits thereof) of the conditions set forth in Article VII if Parent shall have received the Private Letter Ruling that confirms the matters referred to in Section 6.22 prior to the Final Condition Notice Date, or such other place, time and date as shall be agreed in writing between Parent and the Company.

(b) Unless this Agreement has been earlier terminated in accordance with its terms or the REIT Merger has been consummated pursuant to Section 1.02(a), the REIT Closing of the Reverse REIT Merger shall take place at the offices of Pepper Hamilton LLP, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania at 10:00 a.m. on the first business day following the Final Condition Satisfaction Date if Parent shall not have received the Private Letter Ruling that confirms the matters referred to in Section 6.22 before the Final Condition Satisfaction Date, or such other place, time and date as shall be agreed in writing between Parent and the Company.

(c) The closing of the OP Merger (the OP Closing and, together with the REIT Closing, the Closing) shall take place immediately after the effectiveness of the REIT Merger at the offices identified above. The date on which the Closing occurs is referred to in this Agreement as the Closing Date. If the REIT Closing and the OP Closing occur on different dates, then the term Closing Date shall mean, with respect to the REIT Merger, the date on which the REIT Closing occurs and, with respect to the OP Merger, the date on which the OP Closing occurs.

Section 1.03. Effective Times.

(a) Prior to the REIT Closing, Parent L.P., Merger Sub and the Company shall prepare, and, on the Closing Date, the Company shall file with the State Department of Assessments and Taxation of Maryland articles of merger and/or such other appropriate documents (the Articles of Merger) executed in accordance with the applicable provisions of the Maryland REIT Law and the MLLCA and shall make all other filings or recordings required under the Maryland REIT Law and the MLLCA to effect the REIT Merger. The REIT Merger shall become effective at such time as the Articles of Merger are accepted for record by the State Department of Assessments and Taxation of Maryland, or at such later time as Parent L.P. and the Company shall agree and specify in the Articles of Merger; provided, however, that if Parent shall not have received the Private Letter Ruling that confirms the matters referred to in Section 6.22 before the Final Condition Satisfaction Date, the Company shall file the Articles of Merger with the State Department of Assessment and Taxation of Maryland on the Final Condition Satisfaction Date to be effective on the following business day at 10:00 a.m. Eastern Time (the time at which the REIT Merger becomes effective being the REIT Effective Time).

(b) Prior to the OP Closing, Parent L.P., L.P. Merger Sub and Company L.P. shall prepare, and, immediately after the REIT Effective Time or as soon thereafter as reasonably practicable, Company L.P.

The OP Merger shall become effective at such time as the OP Merger Certificate is duly filed with the office of the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware, or at such later time as Parent L.P. and Company L.P. shall agree and specify in the OP Merger Certificate; provided, however, that if Parent shall not have received the Private Letter Ruling that confirms the matters referred to in Section 6.22 before the Final Condition Satisfaction Date, Company L.P. shall file the OP Merger Certificate with the of Secretary of State of the State of Delaware on the Final Condition Satisfaction Date to be effective on the following business day at 10:00 a.m. Eastern Time (the time at which the OP Merger becomes effective being the OP Effective Time and, together with the REIT Effective Time, the Effective Time).

Section 1.04. Legal Effects of Mergers. The REIT Merger shall have the effects set forth in Section 8-501.1 of the Maryland REIT Law and Section 4A-709 of the MLLCA. The OP Merger shall have the effects set forth in Section 17-211 of the DRULPA and Section 18-209 of the DLLCA.

Section 1.05. Effect of the REIT Merger on the Organizational Documents and Management of the Surviving Company.

(a) Organizational Documents. Except as provided in Section 10.5, from and after the REIT Effective Time, the operating agreement of Merger Sub shall be the operating agreement of the Surviving Company until thereafter changed or amended as provided therein or by applicable Law.

(b) Management. The officers of Merger Sub as of the REIT Effective Time shall be the officers of the Surviving Company until the earlier of their resignation or removal or otherwise ceasing to be an officer or until their respective successors are duly elected and qualified, as the case may be.

Section 1.06. Effect of the OP Merger on the Company L.P. Partnership Agreement. The Company L.P. Partnership Agreement shall be amended and restated as of the OP Effective Time in accordance with the instructions of Parent and, as so amended, shall be the Agreement of Limited Partnership of the Surviving L.P. until thereafter changed or amended as provided therein or by applicable Law.

(a) Each Company Common Share issued and outstanding immediately prior to the REIT Effective Time (other than Company Common Shares owned or held by Parent, Parent L.P., the Company or any of their respective direct or indirect wholly owned Subsidiaries, all of which shall be canceled as provided in Section 1.07(d)) shall be converted into the right to receive (i) $21.50 in cash minus the Cash Adjustment Amount (as the same may be adjusted pursuant to Section 10.5 the Cash Consideration) and (ii) a fraction of a fully paid and nonassessable Parent Common Share equal to the Common Exchange Ratio (which Common Exchange Ratio is subject to adjustment as set forth below), subject to Section 2.05 with respect to fractional shares (collectively, the REIT Merger Consideration). For purposes of this Agreement, the Common Exchange Ratio means 0.69, appropriately adjusted for any share splits, reverse share splits, share dividends, recapitalizations or other similar transactions.

(b) Each Company Series D Preferred Share issued and outstanding on the date hereof shall be redeemed, if subject to redemption, by the Company as provided in Section 6.13 unless earlier converted by the holder into a Company Common Share prior to such time; provided, however, that any Company Series D Preferred Share, which is not subject to redemption on or prior to the Closing Date, issued and outstanding immediately prior to the REIT Effective Time (other than Company Series D Preferred Shares owned or held by Parent, Parent L.P., the Company or any of their respective direct or indirect wholly owned Subsidiaries, all of which shall be canceled as provided in Section 1.07(d)), shall be converted into the right to receive one fully paid and nonassessable Parent Series E Cumulative Convertible Redeemable Preferred Share (the Parent Series E Preferred Shares). As a result of the REIT Merger and without any action on the part of the holders thereof, at the REIT Effective Time, all Company Series D Preferred Shares shall cease to be outstanding and shall be canceled and retired and shall cease to exist, and each holder of a certificate which immediately prior to the REIT Effective Time evidenced any such Company Series D Preferred Share (a Series D Certificate) shall thereafter cease to have any rights with respect to such Company Series D Preferred Shares, except (i) the right to receive Parent Series E Preferred Shares, and (ii) any dividends or other distributions to which holders of Company Series D Preferred Shares become entitled, all in accordance with Article II upon the surrender of such Series D Certificate. If the Closing Date occurs prior to the date that the Company Series D Preferred Shares may be redeemed and any such shares remain issued and outstanding, prior to the REIT Effective Time, the Declaration of Trust of Parent shall be amended in accordance with Maryland law in order to create the Parent Series E Preferred Shares, which will have the same preferences, conversion or other rights, voting powers, restrictions, limitations as to dividends, qualifications and terms or conditions of redemption thereof identical to that of a Company Series D Preferred Share (except for changes that do not materially and adversely affect the holders of the Company Series D Preferred Shares).

(c) As a result of the REIT Merger and without any action on the part of the holders thereof, at the REIT Effective Time, all Company Common Shares and Company Series D Preferred Shares, including those Company Common Shares held by the Company in trust, or otherwise designated, for the participants in and beneficiaries of the Company Deferred Compensation Plans (other than shares referred to in Section 1.07(d)) shall cease to be outstanding and shall be canceled and retired and shall cease to exist, and each holder of a certificate which immediately prior to the REIT Effective Time evidenced any such shares (a Certificate) shall thereafter cease to have any rights with respect to such Company Common Shares or Company Series D Preferred Shares except (i) the right to receive the REIT Merger Consideration or Parent Series E Preferred Shares, as the case may be, (ii) any cash in lieu of fractional Parent Common Shares to be issued or paid in consideration for Company Common Shares and (iii) any dividends or other distributions to which holders become entitled, all in accordance with Article II upon the surrender of such Certificate.

(d) Each Company Common Share and Company Series D Preferred Share owned or held by Parent, Parent L.P., the Company or any of their respective direct or indirect wholly owned Subsidiaries at the REIT Effective Time (other than those Company Common Shares held by the Company in trust, or otherwise designated, for the participants in and beneficiaries of the Company Deferred Compensation Plans) shall, by virtue of the REIT Merger, cease to be outstanding and shall be canceled and retired and shall cease to exist and no REIT Merger Consideration or other consideration shall be delivered in exchange therefor.

(e) Each Company Common Share held by the Company in trust, or otherwise designated, for participants in and beneficiaries of the Company Deferred Compensation Plans shall be converted into a number of fully paid and non-assessable Parent Common Shares equal to the Option Exchange Ratio.

(f) Except as provided in Section 10.5, the membership interests of Merger Sub issued and outstanding immediately prior to the REIT Effective Time shall remain issued and outstanding and unchanged by the REIT Merger.

(g) If prior to the REIT Effective Time, Parent or the Company, as the case may be, should split, combine or otherwise reclassify the Parent Common Shares or the Company Common Shares, or make a distribution in Parent Common Shares or Company Common Shares, as applicable, or otherwise change the Parent Common Shares or Company Common Shares into any other securities, or make any other such share dividend or distribution in shares of beneficial interest of Parent or the Company in respect of the Parent Common Shares or the Company Common Shares, respectively, then any number or amount contained herein which is based upon the price of the Parent Common Shares or the number of Company Common Shares or Parent Common Shares, as the case may be (including but not limited to the Cash Consideration and the Common Exchange Ratio), will be appropriately adjusted to reflect such split, combination, dividend or other distribution or change.

Section 1.08. Company Options.

(a) Except as otherwise set forth in Section 1.08(c), the Company shall take all actions necessary and appropriate to provide that at the REIT Effective Time each outstanding and unexercised option to purchase Company Common Shares granted under any of the Company Incentive Plans (each, a Company Option), whether or not exercisable or vested, shall be converted into an option to purchase Parent Common Shares (each, a New Parent Option), on the same terms and conditions as were applicable under the Company Option (but taking into account any changes thereto, including the acceleration thereof, provided for in the Company Incentive Plans or other agreement set forth on the Company Disclosure Letter). Each New Parent Option shall be exercisable for a number of Parent Common Shares equal to (i) the number of Company Common Shares subject to the Company Option to which such New Parent Option relates multiplied by (ii) the Option Exchange Ratio, rounded to the nearest share. The per share exercise price of each New Parent Option shall equal (A) the per share exercise price of the Company Option to which such New Parent Option relates divided by (B) the Option Exchange Ratio, rounded to the nearest one-hundredth of a cent. For this purpose, the Option Exchange Ratio shall be equal to a fraction, the numerator of which is the per share dollar value of the REIT Merger Consideration on the Closing Date (with the portion of the REIT Merger Consideration that consists of Parent Common Shares valued at the Closing Date Market Price) and the denominator of which is the Closing Date Market Price; provided, however, that if a Special Dividend is declared pursuant to Section 10.3, the Option Exchange Ratio shall be an amount equal to the foregoing plus an amount equal to the quotient that results from dividing the Special Dividend Amount by the Closing Date Market Price.

Back to Contents

(b) Subject to Section 1.08(c) and the terms of the Company Incentive Plans and applicable Laws, the Company and Parent shall take any actions necessary and appropriate to cause the Company Incentive Plans to be assumed by Parent at the REIT Effective Time, and from and after the REIT Effective Time, except as otherwise set forth herein, the terms of each Company Option and the Company Incentive Plan under which such Company Option was initially granted, in each case, as in effect immediately prior to the REIT Effective Time, shall continue to apply to the corresponding New Parent Option.

(c) Prior to the REIT Effective Time and subject to the terms of the Company Incentive Plans, the Company may, in its sole discretion, take all actions necessary and appropriate to allow each holder of a Company Option (whether or not exercisable or vested) to elect, in lieu of the treatment provided in Section 1.08(a), to convert each Company Option so held into the right to receive an amount of cash at the REIT Effective Time equal to the product of (i) the excess, if any, of the sum of the per share dollar value of the REIT Merger Consideration on the Closing Date (with the portion of the REIT Merger Consideration that consists of Parent Common Shares valued at the Closing Date Market Price) and the Special Dividend Amount, if any, over the per share exercise price of such Company Option and (ii) the number of Company Common Shares subject to such Company Option (such payment to be net of all applicable withholding taxes). The Company shall notify Parent not later than five days prior to the REIT Effective Time of the number of Company Options for which the treatment provided in this Section 1.08(c) has been elected and the total amount of cash payable pursuant to such elections.

(d) Prior to the REIT Effective Time, the Company shall take all necessary action for the adjustment of the Company Options under this Section 1.08. Parent shall reserve for issuance a number of Parent Common Shares at least equal to the number of Parent Common Shares that will be subject to the Company Options that are to be converted into New Parent Options pursuant to this Section 1.08. As soon as reasonably practicable following the REIT Effective Time, Parent shall file an amendment to the Form S-4 on Form S-8 or shall file a registration statement on Form S-8 (or any successor, or if Form S-8 is not available, other appropriate forms) with respect to the Parent Common Shares issuable upon exercise of the New Parent Options and shall maintain the effectiveness of such registration statement or registration statements (and maintain the current status of the prospectus or prospectuses contained therein) for so long as such options remain outstanding.

(a) As of the OP Effective Time, without any further action on the part of any holder of Company L.P. Units or any other party hereto:

(i) The Company GP Units issued and outstanding immediately prior to the OP Effective Time shall remain issued and outstanding and unchanged by the OP Merger.

(ii) Each Company Common Unit (other than any Company Common Units owned or held by Parent, Parent L.P., Merger Sub, L.P. Merger Sub, Company G.P., Company L.P. or any of their respective direct or indirect wholly owned Subsidiaries which shall remain issued and outstanding and unchanged by the OP Merger) owned or held by the limited partners of Company L.P. immediately prior to the effectiveness of the OP Merger shall be converted into the right to receive a number of Parent Class A Units equal to the Common Interest Exchange Ratio (the OP Merger Consideration). For purposes of this Agreement, the Common Interest Exchange Ratio means the sum of (x) the Common Exchange Ratio plus (y) the quotient that results from dividing the Cash Consideration (giving effect to any decrease thereto as provided in Section 1.07(a)) by $31.1594. As a result of the OP Merger and without any action on the part of the holders thereof, at the OP Effective Time, all Company Common Units converted as provided in the preceding sentence shall cease to be outstanding and shall be canceled and retired and shall cease to exist, and each holder of such Company Common Units shall thereafter cease to have any rights with respect to such Company Common Units, except the right to receive the OP Merger Consideration and any dividends or other distributions to which such holder becomes entitled, all in accordance with Article II upon the exchange of such Company Common Unit; and

(iii) The limited liability company interests in L.P. Merger Sub outstanding immediately prior to the effectiveness of the OP Merger shall be converted into a limited partnership interest in the Surviving L.P. representing 3% of the partnership interests therein, entitling the holder thereof to such rights, duties and obligations as are more fully set forth in the Agreement of Limited Partnership of the Surviving L.P. All limited liability company interests in L.P. Merger Sub so converted shall cease to be outstanding and shall be canceled and retired and shall cease to exist.

(b) If prior to the OP Effective Time, Parent L.P. or Company L.P., as the case may be, should split, combine or otherwise reclassify the Parent Class A Units or the Company L.P. Units, or pay a non-cash dividend or other non-cash distribution in Parent Class A Units, Parent Preferred Units or Company L.P. Units, as applicable, or make any other such non-cash dividend or non-cash distribution in interests of Parent L.P. or Company L.P. in respect of the Parent Class A Units or the Company L.P. Units, respectively, then any number or amount contained herein which is based upon the number of Parent Class A Units or Company L.P. Units, as the case may be, will be appropriately adjusted to reflect such split, combination, dividend or other distribution or change.

Section 1.10. Structure. The Company shall cooperate with Parent and agree to any reasonable changes requested by Parent regarding the structure of the transactions contemplated herein (such cooperation shall include entering into appropriate amendments to this Agreement) in order to enable Parent, Parent L.P. or Merger Sub to obtain a step up in the tax basis of the assets of the Company or any Company Subsidiary; provided that any such changes do not have an adverse effect on either the holders of the Company Common Shares or Company Common Units or jeopardize the intended qualifications of the REIT Merger as a taxable sale by the Company of all of the Companys assets to Merger Sub in exchange for the REIT Merger Consideration to be received by the shareholders of the Company and the assumption of all of the Companys liabilities, and the treatment of this Agreement as a plan of liquidation of the Company for federal income tax purposes pursuant to Section 331 of the Code. If the Closing occurs pursuant to Section 1.02(a), the execution of this Agreement shall constitute the adoption of a plan of liquidation of the Company pursuant to Section 331 of the Code.

Section 1.11. Election by Limited Partners in Company L.P. to Exercise the Exchange Right; The OP Merger. Notwithstanding any limitation or restriction contained in the Company L.P. Partnership Agreement with respect to the right of a Limited Partner (as defined in the Company L.P. Partnership Agreement) to exercise the Exchange Right (as defined in the Company L.P. Partnership Agreement) (including, without limitation, any limitation or restriction contained in Section 8.05 of the Company L.P. Partnership Agreement), every Limited Partner shall have the right to exercise the Exchange Right by submitting to Company L.P. (with a copy to the Company) during the period between the mailing date of the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus for the Company Shareholders Meeting and 5:00 p.m., Eastern time, on the second business day prior to the date of the Company Shareholders Meeting a Notice of Exchange (as defined in the Company L.P. Partnership Agreement) specifying the number of Company Common Units which such Limited Partner desires to have exchanged pursuant to Section 8.05 of the Company L.P. Partnership Agreement (as modified by this Section 1.11), which Notice of Exchange shall be conditioned upon the closing of the OP Merger and which Notice of Exchange may be conditioned on whether the REIT Merger occurs as contemplated by Section 1.01(a) or occurs as contemplated by Section 10.5; provided, that,

(a) with respect to each Notice of Exchange (a copy of the form of which shall accompany or form a part of the form of election) properly submitted by a Limited Partner in accordance with this Section 1.11 (an Exercise), the Company shall elect in accordance with Section 8.05(b) of the Company L.P. Partnership Agreement to purchase the Company Common Units relating to such Exercise by paying the REIT Shares Amount (as defined in the Company L.P. Partnership Agreement) and not the Cash Amount (as defined in the Company L.P. Partnership Agreement);

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 8.05(b) of the Company L.P. Partnership Agreement, the Company shall not be required to notify the Exchanging Partner (as defined in the Company L.P. Partnership Agreement) of the Companys election to purchase the Company Common Units as described in the foregoing clause (a);

(c) The Specified Exchange Date (as defined in the Company L.P. Partnership Agreement) shall be the Closing Date (as defined herein) at a time prior to the consummation of the OP Merger; and

(d) Each Exchanging Partner shall be treated as an owner of the Company Common Shares issued pursuant to this Agreement at the REIT Effective Time.

ARTICLE II
Exchange of Securities

Section 2.01. Exchange Fund. On or prior to the Closing Date, Parent shall deposit with Computershare Limited or such other bank or trust company as Parent shall determine and which shall be reasonably satisfactory to the Company (the Exchange Agent), (i) in trust for the benefit of holders of Company Common Shares, for exchange in accordance with Section 1.07(a), all the cash and certificates evidencing Parent Common Shares to be paid or issued pursuant to this Agreement in exchange for outstanding Company Common Shares and cash sufficient to pay cash in lieu of fractional shares pursuant to Section 2.05, (ii) in trust for the benefit of holders of Company Series D Preferred Shares, for exchange in accordance with Section 1.07(e) all the certificates representing Parent Series E Preferred Shares, if any, to be issued pursuant to this Agreement in exchange for outstanding Company Series D Preferred Shares. Parent agrees to make available to the Exchange Agent from time to time as needed, cash sufficient to pay any dividends and other distributions pursuant to Section 2.03. Any cash and certificates of Parent Common Shares or Parent Series E Preferred Shares deposited with the Exchange Agent shall hereinafter be referred to as the Exchange Fund.

Section 2.02. Exchange Procedures.

As promptly as practicable after the REIT Effective Time, the Exchange Agent will send to each record holder of Certificates other than Certificates to be canceled pursuant to Section 1.07(d): (i) a letter of transmittal (which shall specify that delivery shall be effected, and risk of loss and title to the Certificates shall pass, only upon delivery of the Certificates to the Exchange Agent and shall be in a form and have such other provisions as Parent may reasonably specify, subject to the Companys approval not to be unreasonably withheld) and (ii) instructions for use in effecting the surrender of the Certificates in exchange for the REIT Merger Consideration or the Parent Series E Preferred Shares, as the case may be. As soon as reasonably practicable after the REIT Effective Time: (i) each holder of a Certificate evidencing Company Common Shares, upon surrender of a Certificate to the Exchange Agent together with such letter of transmittal, duly executed, and such other documents as may reasonably be required by the Exchange Agent, shall be entitled to receive in exchange therefor a certificate or certificates evidencing the number of full Parent Common Shares into which the aggregate number of Company Common Shares previously represented by such Certificate shall have been converted pursuant to this Agreement and the amount of cash that such holder is entitled to hereunder (including amounts to be paid pursuant to Section 1.07(a), in lieu of fractional Parent Common Shares pursuant to Section 2.05 and in respect of any dividends or other distributions to which holders are entitled pursuant to Section 2.03), and (ii) each holder of a Certificate evidencing Company Series D Preferred Shares, upon surrender of a Certificate to the Exchange Agent together with such letter of transmittal, duly executed, and such other documents as may reasonably be required by the Exchange Agent, shall be entitled to receive in exchange therefor a certificate or certificates evidencing the number of full Parent Series E Preferred Shares into which the aggregate number of Company Series D Common Shares previously represented by such Certificate shall have been converted pursuant to this Agreement. The Exchange Agent shall accept such Certificates upon compliance with such reasonable terms and conditions as the Exchange Agent may impose to effect an orderly exchange thereof in accordance with normal exchange practices. No interest will be paid or will accrue on any cash payable pursuant to Section 1.07, Section 2.03 or Section 2.05. In the event of a transfer of ownership of Company Common Shares which is not registered in the transfer records of the Company, one or more certificates of Parent Common Shares evidencing, in the aggregate, the proper number of Parent Common Shares, a check in the proper amount of cash pursuant to Section 1.07(a) and cash in lieu of any fractional Parent Common Shares pursuant to Section 2.05 and any dividends or other distributions to which such holder is entitled pursuant to Section 2.03, may be issued with respect to such Company Common Shares to such a transferee if the Certificate representing such Company Common Shares is presented to the Exchange Agent, accompanied by all documents required to evidence and effect such transfer and to evidence that any applicable stock transfer taxes have been paid. In the event of a transfer of ownership of Company Series D Preferred Shares which is not registered in the transfer records of the Company, one or more certificates of Parent Series E Preferred Shares evidencing, in the aggregate, the proper number of Parent Series E Preferred Shares and any dividends or other distributions to which such holder is entitled pursuant to Section 2.03 may be issued with respect to such Company Series D Preferred Share to such a transferee if the Certificate representing such Company Series D Preferred Shares is presented to the Exchange Agent, accompanied by all documents required to evidence and effect such transfer and to evidence that any applicable stock transfer taxes have been paid. Provision shall be made for holders of Certificates to procure in person immediately after the Effective Time a letter of transmittal and instructions and to deliver in person immediately after the Effective Time such letter of transmittal and Company Common Shares or Company Series D Preferred Shares, as the case may be, in exchange for the REIT Merger Consideration or the Parent Series E Preferred Shares, as applicable, and cash in lieu of fractional Parent Common Shares and dividends and distributions, if any, pursuant to Section 2.03.

(a) No dividends or other distributions declared or made with respect to Parent Common Shares or Parent Series E Preferred Shares with a record date after the REIT Effective Time shall be paid to the holder of any unsurrendered Certificate with respect to the Parent Common Shares or Parent Series E Preferred Shares that such holder would be entitled to receive upon surrender of such Certificate and no cash payment in lieu of fractional Parent Common Shares shall be paid to any such holder pursuant to Section 2.05 until such holder shall surrender such Certificate in accordance with Section 2.02.

(b) Subject to the effect of applicable Laws, following surrender of any such Certificate, there shall be paid to such holder of Parent Common Shares or Parent Series E Preferred Shares issuable in exchange therefor, without interest, (a) promptly after the time of such surrender, the amount of any cash payable in lieu of fractional Parent Common Shares to which such holder is entitled pursuant to Section 2.05 and the amount of dividends or other distributions with a record date after the REIT Effective Time theretofore paid with respect to such whole Parent Common Shares or Parent Series E Preferred Shares, and (b) at the appropriate payment date, the amount of dividends or other distributions with a record date after the REIT Effective Time but prior to such surrender and a payment date subsequent to such surrender payable with respect to such Parent Common Shares or Parent Series E Preferred Shares.

Section 2.04. No Further Ownership Rights in Company Common Shares, Company Series D Preferred Shares and Company Common Units.

(a) All Parent Common Shares issued and cash paid upon conversion of Company Common Shares in accordance with the terms of Article I and this Article II (including any cash paid pursuant to Section 1.07(a), 2.03 or 2.05) shall be deemed to have been issued or paid in full satisfaction of all rights pertaining to the Company Common Shares.

In addition, upon reasonable notice the Company and the Company Subsidiaries shall afford to each of Parent, Merger Sub and Prudential and to their respective Affiliates and Representatives, reasonable and prompt access, during normal business hours during the period prior to the Effective Time or the termination of this Agreement to tenants at Company Owned Properties. Each of the parties will hold any such information that is non-public in confidence to the extent required by, and in accordance with, the provisions of the confidentiality agreement between the Company and Parent entered into in 2005 (the Confidentiality Agreement). Any investigation by the parties shall not affect the representations and warranties or the conditions to the obligations of the Company or Parent, as the case may be.

Section 6.03. Reasonable Best Efforts; Notification.

(a) Upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement, each of the parties agrees to use reasonable best efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all actions, and do, or cause to be done, and to assist and cooperate with the other parties in doing, all things necessary, proper or advisable to consummate and make effective, in the most expeditious manner practicable, the REIT Merger and the other Transactions, including using reasonable best efforts to obtain all necessary actions or nonactions, waivers, consents, approvals, orders and authorizations from Governmental Entities and to make all necessary registrations, declarations and filings (including filings with Governmental Entities, if any) and to take all steps as may be necessary to obtain an approval or waiver from, or to avoid an action or proceeding by, any Governmental Entity; provided, however, that Parent will not be required to agree to, or proffer to, (A) divest or hold separate, or enter into any licensing or similar arrangement with respect to, any assets (whether tangible or intangible) or any of Parents, the Companys or any of their respective Affiliates businesses or (B) cease to conduct business or operations in any jurisdiction in which Parent, the Company or any of their respective Affiliates conducts business or operations as of the date of this Agreement. Each party shall use its reasonable best efforts (i) to obtain consents of all third parties necessary, proper or advisable for the consummation by such party or any of its Affiliates of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement (including without limitation obtaining the consents required under the agreements set forth on Section 3.03(b) of the Company Disclosure Letter or Section 4.03(b) of Parent Disclosure Letter, as the case may be); provided that, without the prior written consent of Parent, the Company shall not agree to any significant modification to any contractual arrangement to obtain such consents or certificates; (ii) to provide any material notices to third parties required to be provided by the Company or any of its Affiliates prior to the Effective Time, including under any leases or insurance policies; and (iii) to comply in all material respects with the terms of the insurance policies.

(b) In connection with and without limiting the foregoing, the Company, Company L.P. and the Company Board shall (i) take all action necessary to ensure that no state takeover statute or similar statute or regulation is or becomes applicable to this Agreement, the Voting Agreements, the REIT Merger, the OP Merger or any of the other Transactions and (ii) if any state takeover statute or similar statute or regulation becomes applicable to this Agreement, the Voting Agreements, the REIT Merger, the OP Merger or any of the other Transactions, take all action necessary to ensure that the REIT Merger, the OP Merger and the other Transactions may be consummated as promptly as practicable on the terms contemplated by this Agreement and the Voting Agreements and otherwise to minimize the effect of such statute or regulation on the REIT Merger, the OP Merger and the other Transactions.

(c) The Company shall give notice to Parent within 48 hours of becoming aware of any representation or warranty made by it and contained in this Agreement becoming untrue or inaccurate such that the condition set forth in Section 7.02(a) would not be satisfied; provided that no such notification shall affect the representations, warranties, covenants or agreements of the parties or the conditions to the obligations of the parties under this Agreement.

(d) Parent shall give notice to the Company within 48 hours of becoming aware of any representation or warranty made by it or Merger Sub contained in this Agreement becoming untrue or inaccurate such that the condition set forth in Section 7.03(a) would not be satisfied; provided that no such notification shall affect the representations, warranties, covenants or agreements of the parties or the conditions to the obligations of the parties under this Agreement.

Section 6.04. No Solicitation.

(a) Neither the Company or any of its Subsidiaries shall, nor shall the Company or any of its Subsidiaries authorize or permit any of their Representatives to, directly or indirectly, (i) solicit, initiate, encourage or knowingly take any other action to facilitate (including by the furnishing of non-public information) the submission of any inquiry, proposal or offer from any Person (other than Parent, Merger Sub or their Affiliates) relating to, or that could reasonably be expected to lead to, any Takeover Proposal, (ii) agree to, approve or recommend any Takeover Proposal or enter into any agreement with respect to any Takeover Proposal or (iii) enter into, continue or otherwise participate in any discussions or negotiations regarding, or furnish to any Person any non-public information with respect to, or take any other action to facilitate any inquiries or the making of any proposal that constitutes, or could reasonably be expected to lead to, any Takeover Proposal. Takeover Proposal means any offer or proposal for any direct or indirect acquisition or purchase, in one transaction or a series of transactions, of (i) 30% or more of the assets of the Company and the Subsidiaries of the Company, taken as a whole, or (ii) 30% or more in voting power of the outstanding Company Common Shares, (iii) any tender offer or exchange offer that if consummated would result in any Person beneficially owning 30% or more in voting power of the outstanding Company Common Shares, or (iv) any merger, consolidation, business combination, recapitalization, reclassification, share exchange, liquidation, dissolution or similar transaction or series of transactions involving the Company or any Significant Subsidiary; provided, however, the sale of the Subject Properties shall not be a Takeover Proposal.

(b) In addition to the obligations of the Company set forth in paragraph (a) of this Section 6.04, the Company shall notify Parent promptly (but in any event within two business days) after receipt or occurrence of (i) any Takeover Proposal, (ii) any request for information with respect to any Takeover Proposal or (iii) any inquiry, proposal, discussions or negotiation with respect to any Takeover Proposal, and such notice shall include the material terms and conditions of any such Takeover Proposal, request for information, inquiry, proposal, discussion or negotiation and the identity of the Person making any such Takeover Proposal, request for information, inquiry or proposal or with whom discussions or negotiations are taking place. The Company shall keep Parent informed in all material respects of the status and details (including amendments or proposed amendments) of any such inquiry, request or Takeover Proposal.

(c) Nothing contained in this Section 6.04 shall prohibit the Company and the Company Board from (i) taking and disclosing to its shareholders a position contemplated by Rule 14d-9 or Rule 14e-2 promulgated under the Exchange Act or (ii) making any disclosure to the Company's shareholders if, in the good faith judgment of the Company Board (after having obtained sufficient preliminary information upon which to make such judgment), after consultation with outside counsel, failure so to disclose would be reasonably likely to cause a breach of its duties under applicable Law. Subject to Sections 6.04(e) and 8.01(d), in no event shall the Company, the Company Board or any committee thereof withdraw (or modify in a manner adverse to Parent), or propose publicly to withdraw (or modify in a manner adverse to Parent), its position with respect to this Agreement, the Voting Agreements, the REIT Merger, the OP Merger or the other Transactions or adopt, approve or recommend, or propose to adopt, approve or recommend, a Takeover Proposal.

(d) Notwithstanding anything in this Section 6.04 to the contrary, prior to the REIT Effective Time, the Company may negotiate and participate in discussions and negotiations with such Person that has made an unsolicited bona fide written Takeover Proposal not resulting from or arising out of a breach of Section 6.04(a) (provided that the Company shall not agree to any exclusive right to negotiate with such Person) and may furnish information concerning its business, properties or assets to such Person pursuant to appropriate confidentiality agreements (on terms not less favorable to the Company than the terms (including standstill terms) of the Confidentiality Agreement, as such may be waived in accordance with Section 5.01(a)(xii)); provided that the Company Board shall be permitted to take any such action if, and only if, prior to taking such action, the Company Board (after having obtained sufficient preliminary information upon which to make such determination) has determined by the affirmative vote of a majority of all of the members of the Company Board or any committee thereof to which the power to consider such matters has been delegated that (i) such Takeover Proposal would result in, or would be reasonably likely to result in, a Superior Proposal and (ii) after consultation with outside legal counsel, the failure to provide information to such Person or access or to engage in discussions or negotiations with such Person would be reasonably likely to cause a breach of the duties of the Company Board under applicable Law. "Superior Proposal" means a Takeover Proposal (as defined in Section 6.04(a), except that the reference to "30%" in such definition shall be deemed to be a reference to "50%") whereby the Person making such proposal has on an unsolicited basis submitted a bona fide written proposal to the Company relating to any such transaction on terms that the Company Board determines in its good faith judgment (after consultation with a nationally recognized financial advisor, taking into account all the terms and conditions of the Takeover Proposal, including any break-up fees, expense reimbursement provisions and conditions to consummation) is more favorable to the Company's shareholders, from a financial point of view, than this Agreement and the REIT Merger, taken as a whole, and that is reasonably capable of being completed. The Company shall not provide any nonpublic information, which was not previously provided to Parent, regarding the Company to any other Person pursuant to this Section 6.04(d) unless such information is simultaneously provided to Parent.

(e) If the Company Board, after consultation with outside legal counsel, determines that failure to accept a Superior Proposal would be reasonably likely to cause a breach of the duties of the trustees of the Company to the Company and its shareholders under applicable Law, the Company Board may inform the holders of Company Common Shares that it no longer believes that the REIT Merger is advisable and no longer recommends approval (a "Subsequent Determination"), but only at a time that is prior to the Company Shareholders Meeting and after the third business day following Parent's receipt of written notice advising Parent that the Company has received a Superior Proposal specifying the terms and conditions of such Superior Proposal (and including a copy thereof with all accompanying documentation), identifying the person making the Superior Proposal and stating that it is considering a Subsequent Determination; provided, that (i) during such three business day period Parent does not make an offer that the Company Board shall have reasonably concluded in good faith (following consultation with its nationally recognized financial advisors and outside counsel) is more favorable to the shareholders of the Company than such Superior Proposal and (ii) at the end of such three business day period such Takeover Proposal continues to be a Superior Proposal. At any time after the three business day period following notification to Parent of the Company's consideration to do so and if the Company has otherwise complied with the terms of this Section 6.04 (but in no event following approval of the REIT Merger pursuant to this Agreement at the Company Shareholders Meeting), the Company may terminate this Agreement pursuant to Section 8.01(e) and enter into an agreement with respect to the Superior Proposal; provided that prior to such termination the Company shall have made payment to Parent of the full amounts, if any, required under Sections 8.03(c) and (d) to be paid at that time.

Section 6.05. Employees and Benefit Plans.

(a) Parent L.P. intends to interview Company employees and may in its discretion (taking into account the views of the Company) offer employment as of the Closing Date to employees of the Company (the "Company Employees") on terms and conditions, including salary and bonus, which are no less favorable than those under which the Company Employees are currently employed, and with benefits that are no less favorable in the aggregate to those applicable to similarly situated employees of Parent L.P. as in effect from time to time. Parent L.P. shall continue such salary, benefits and bonuses of each Company Employee who accepts such offer of employment for a period of one year from the Closing Date, unless such Company Employee voluntarily resigns or is terminated for cause.

(b) Parent L.P. agrees that it shall interview Company executive employees (the "Corporate Employees") with the goal of offering each such Corporate Employee a position with Parent L.P. or any of its Affiliates reasonably comparable to the position such Corporate Employee currently holds with the Company or any of its Affiliates. Parent L.P. shall act in good faith taking into account the staffing needs of Parent L.P. or any of its Affiliates and the qualifications of the applicable Corporate Employee. Parent L.P. shall use reasonable efforts to complete such interviews and make the offers contemplated by this Section 6.05(b) no later than ten days prior to the Closing and, at such time, shall provide a written notice to the Company identifying the Corporate Employees that have received offers of employment. Offers, if made, shall include compensation and bonus, which are no less favorable than those under which Corporate Employees are currently employed and with other benefits in line with similar positions at Parent L.P. or any of its Affiliates. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no legal obligation shall be created on Parent L.P. or any of its Affiliates to hire any such Corporate Employees.

(c) From and after the Effective Time, Parent shall, and shall cause the Surviving Company to, honor in accordance with their respective terms (as in effect on the date of this Agreement) the Company Employment Agreements and the Company's obligations under the change of control arrangements and Company employee severance policies identified, listed or described in Section 3.15(c) of the Company Disclosure Letter.

(d) Parent will honor in accordance with their terms, all vested accrued benefit obligations to, and contractual rights of, current and former employees of the Company and its Subsidiaries which are disclosed in Section 3.15(c) of the Company Disclosure Letter. To the extent such agreements and policies were adopted or executed on or before the date of this Agreement, Parent acknowledges that a "change of control" within the meaning of the Company Incentive Plans will occur on the Effective Time and as a result, except as provided in Section 6.05(d) of the Company Disclosure Letter, all vesting of unvested options will be accelerated and all of them will vest. The Company may make any required employee matching contributions under its 401(k) Plan in a manner consistent with historical practices.

(e) With respect to any "employee benefit plan", as defined in Section 3(3) of ERISA, maintained by Parent or any of its Subsidiaries, to the extent such plan is made available to an employee of the Company, for all purposes (other than benefit accrual), service with the Company, its Subsidiaries or their predecessors shall be treated as service with Parent or any of its Subsidiaries as applicable.

(f) Parent shall waive or cause to be waived any pre-existing condition limitation under any welfare benefit plan maintained by Parent or any of its Affiliates (other than the Company) in which employees of the Company (and their eligible dependents) will be eligible to participate from and after the Effective Time, except to the extent that such preexisting condition limitation would have been applicable under the comparable Company welfare benefit plan immediately prior to the Effective Time. Parent shall recognize, or cause to be recognized, the dollar amount of all expenses incurred by each Company employee

(and his or her eligible dependents) during the calendar year in which the Effective Time occurs for purposes of satisfying such year's deductible and co-payment limitations under the relevant welfare benefit plans in which they will be eligible to participate from and after the Effective Time.

(g) Without limiting the Company's obligations in Section 6.21, the Company shall take all actions necessary and appropriate to ensure that (i) the Amended and Restated Share Purchase Plan is terminated prior to the REIT Effective Time, and that no Company employee shall thereafter have any rights under the Amended and Restated Share Purchase Plan and (ii) participation in the Amended and Restated Share Purchase Plan is suspended as of the end of the first "Option Period" (as defined in the Amended and Restated Share Purchase Plan) that occurs following the date of this Agreement.

(h) Subject to Section 6.05(a), nothing contained in this Section 6.05 or elsewhere in this Agreement shall be construed to prevent, from and after the Effective Time, the termination of employment of any individual employee of the Company or any change in the employee benefits available to any such individual employee or the amendment or termination of any particular Company Employee Benefit Plan or other employee benefit plan, program, policy or arrangement.

(i) Parent acknowledges that, prior to December 31, 2005, or at such later time as may be permitted under Section 409A of the Code and the regulations and guidance issued thereunder (collectively "Section 409A"), and in accordance with, and to the extent permitted under Section 409A, the participants in the Company Deferred Compensation Plans shall be permitted to amend the timing and form of payments to be made under the Company Deferred Compensation Plans, and thereafter, that the Company shall amend the Company Deferred Compensation Plans to the extent necessary to conform to Section 409A. To the extent not already vested, the parties acknowledge that all amounts currently deferred under the Company Deferred Compensation Plans shall become vested at the Effective Time except to the extent otherwise provided in Section 6.05(i) of the Company Disclosure Letter. Subject to Section 409A, Parent shall assume the Company Deferred Compensation Plans and maintain the Company Deferred Compensation Plans in accordance with their respective terms for the benefit of the participants thereunder to the extent that such participants maintain account balances after the Effective Time.

Section 6.06. Indemnification.

(a) Parent and Merger Sub agree that all rights to indemnification and exculpation from liabilities for acts or omissions occurring at or prior to the Effective Time now existing in favor of the current or former trustees or officers of the Company as provided in the Company Organizational Documents and indemnification agreements of the Company identified in Section 6.06 of the Company Disclosure Letter shall be assumed by the Surviving Company in the REIT Merger, without further action, at the REIT Effective Time and shall survive the REIT Merger and shall continue in full force and effect in accordance with their terms.

(b) The Surviving Company shall (i) for a period of six years after the REIT Effective Time cause to be maintained in effect in the Surviving Company's (or any successor) charter and by-laws (or similar governing documents), provisions regarding elimination of liability of trustees, indemnification of officers, trustees and employees and advancement of expenses which are no less advantageous to the intended beneficiaries as those currently contained in the declaration of trust and by-laws of the Company and (ii) maintain for a period of at least six years the current policies of trustees' and officers' liability insurance maintained by the Company (provided that the Surviving Company may substitute therefor policies of at least the same coverage and amounts containing terms and conditions which are, in the aggregate, no less advantageous to the insured, provided that such substitution shall not result in gaps or lapses of coverage with respect to matters occurring before the REIT Effective Time) with respect to claims arising from facts or events that occurred on or before the REIT Effective Time; including, without limitation, in respect of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement; provided, however, that in no event shall the Surviving Company be required to expend in excess of 200% of the annual premiums currently paid by the Company for such insurance; and, provided, further, that if the aggregate premiums of such insurance coverage would exceed such amount, the Surviving Company shall be obligated to obtain a policy with the greatest coverage available for a cost not exceeding such amount. The provisions of this subsection (b) shall be deemed to have been satisfied if prepaid policies have been obtained by the Surviving Company for purposes of this Section

(c) If the Surviving Company or any of its successors or assigns (i) consolidates with or merges with or into any other Person and shall not be the continuing or surviving corporation or entity of such consolidation or merger or (ii) transfers or conveys all or substantially all of its properties and assets to any Person, then, and in each such case, to the extent necessary, proper provision shall be made so that the successors and assigns of the Surviving Company assume the obligations set forth in this Section 6.06. The parties acknowledge and agree that Parent guarantees the payment and performance of the Surviving Company's obligations pursuant to this Section 6.06.

(d) The provisions of this Section 6.06 shall not be terminated or modified in such a manner as to adversely affect any indemnitee to whom this Section 6.06 applies without the consent of such affected indemnitee and are intended to be for the benefit of, and will be enforceable by, each indemnified party, his or her heirs and his or her legal representatives.

Section 6.07. Public Announcements. Each of Parent, on the one hand, and the Company, on the other hand, shall consult with each other before issuing, and provide each other a reasonable opportunity to review and comment upon, any press release or other public statements with respect to this Agreement, the OP Merger, the REIT Merger and the other Transactions and shall not issue any such press release or make any such public statement prior to such consultation, except as may be required by applicable Law, court process or by obligations pursuant to any listing agreement with any national securities exchange, in which case the party required to make the release or announcement shall use its reasonable best efforts to allow each other party reasonable time to comment on such release or announcement in advance of such issuance, it being understood that the final form and content of any such release or announcement, to the extent so required, shall be at the final discretion of the disclosing party.

Section 6.08. Transfer Taxes. Parent and the Company shall cooperate in the preparation, execution and filing of all returns, questionnaires, applications or other documents regarding any real property transfer or gains, sales, use, transfer, value added, stock transfer or stamp taxes, any transfer, recording, registration and other fees and any similar taxes that become payable in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement (together with any related interests, penalties or additions to Tax, "Transfer Taxes"), and shall cooperate in attempting to minimize the amount of Transfer Taxes. From and after the Effective Time, the Surviving Company shall pay or cause to be paid, without deduction or withholding from any consideration or amounts payable to holders of the Company Common Shares, Company Series D Preferred Shares, Company L.P. Units and/or Company Options, all Transfer Taxes.

Notwithstanding any provisions contained herein to the contrary, if Parent qualifies to receive payment of both the Termination Fee and the Alternate Fee, it shall receive only the Termination Fee and shall not be entitled to the Alternate Fee. The Alternate Fee shall be an amount equal to $12,500,000. In addition to any amounts payable to the Company pursuant to Section 8.03(b), in the event that this Agreement is terminated (x) by the Company or Parent pursuant to Section 8.01(f)(ii) and the approval by the shareholders of the Company required for the consummation of the REIT Merger was obtained at the Company Shareholders Meeting (or any adjournment or postponement hereof), (y) by Company pursuant to Section 8.01(i) or (z) by the Company or Parent pursuant to Section 8.01(c) and Parents failure to comply with any obligation under this Agreement has been the primary cause of, or resulted in, the failure of the REIT Effective Time to occur on or before the Drop-Dead Date, then Parent shall pay the Company an amount equal to the Alternate Fee (in addition to the prior or concurrent payment of Companys Expenses (other than the Barton Skyway Loan Expenses) and/or the Barton Skyway Loan Expenses, as applicable, pursuant to Section 8.03(b)), by wire transfer of immediately available funds to an account designated by Company, promptly, but in no event later than three business days after the date of such termination.

(f) The Termination Fee or the Alternate Fee, as the case may be, which is required to be paid pursuant to this Section 8.03 shall not exceed the sum of (A) the maximum amount that can be paid to a party (the Payee) without causing Payee to fail to meet the requirements of Sections 856(c)(2) and (3) of the Code determined as if the payment of such amount did not constitute income described in Sections 856(c)(2)(A)-(H) and 856(c)(3)(A)-(I) of the Code (Qualifying Income), as determined by independent accountants to Payee, and (B) in the event Payee receives and, prior to the date the Termination Fee or the Alternate Fee, as the case may be, is due to be paid to Payee as described above, provides a copy to the paying party (the Payor) of, an opinion or a letter from outside counsel (the Fee Tax Opinion) indicating that Payee has received an opinion of counsel or a ruling from the IRS holding that Payees receipt of the Termination Fee or Alternate Fee, as the case may be, would either constitute Qualifying Income or would be excluded from gross income of Payee within the meaning of Sections 856(c)(2) and (3) of the Code (the REIT Requirements), the amount of the Termination Fee or Alternate Fee, as the case may be, less the amount payable under clause (A) above. The Payors obligation to pay any portion of the Unpaid Fee Amount shall terminate three (3) years from the date of this Agreement. Amounts remaining in escrow after such obligation terminates shall be released to the Payor.

(g) The Company and Parent agree that the agreements contained in Section 8.03 above are an integral part of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, and that the payments to be made thereunder shall be compensation for the loss suffered by the applicable party as a result of the failure of the REIT Merger to be consummated and constitute liquidated damages and not a penalty.

Section 8.04. Amendment. This Agreement may be amended by the parties hereto, by action taken or authorized by their respective boards of trustees or managers (or other similar entity, as the case may be), at any time before or after approval of the matters presented in connection with the REIT Merger by the shareholders of the Company or Parent, but, after any such approval, no amendment shall be made which by law or in accordance with the rules of the relevant stock exchange requires further approval by such shareholders, partners or members without such further approval. This Agreement may not be amended except by an instrument in writing signed on behalf of each of the parties hereto.

Section 8.05. Extension; Waiver. At any time prior to the Effective Time, the parties hereto, by action taken or authorized by their respective boards of trustees or managers (or other similar entity, as the case may be), may, to the extent legally allowed, (i) extend the time for the performance of any of the obligations or other acts of the other parties hereto, (ii) waive any inaccuracies in the representations and warranties contained herein or in any document delivered pursuant hereto and (iii) waive compliance with any of the agreements or conditions contained herein. Any agreement on the part of a party hereto to any such extension or waiver shall be valid only if set forth in a written instrument signed on behalf of such party. The failure of any party to this Agreement to assert any of its rights under this Agreement or otherwise shall not constitute a waiver of those rights.

Section 10.04. Payment of Special Dividend. The Special Company L.P. Distribution and Special Dividend shall be payable on the first business day following the Final Condition Satisfaction Date. ANNEX B

MASTER AGREEMENT

Master Agreement, dated as of October 3, 2005 (this Agreement), by and between Brandywine Operating Partnership, L.P., a Delaware limited partnership (Brandywine), and The Prudential Insurance Company of America, a New Jersey corporation (Prudential).

Background

On the date hereof, Brandywine, Brandywine Realty Trust, a Maryland real estate investment trust (Parent), Brandywine Cognac I, LLC, a Maryland limited liability company (Merger Sub), Brandywine Cognac II, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (L.P. Merger Sub), Prentiss Properties Trust, a Maryland real estate investment trust (the Company), and Prentiss Properties Acquisition Partners, L.P., a Delaware limited partnership (Company L.P.), have executed and delivered an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement). Terms used herein as defined terms but not defined herein have the meanings assigned to them in the Merger Agreement.

On the date hereof, Prudential, the Company and Company L.P. have executed and delivered the Prudential Asset Purchase Agreement attached hereto as Exhibit A (the Prudential Asset Purchase Agreement).

Brandywine and Prudential desire to enter into this agreement to, among other things, set forth the terms under which Prudential will acquire the Specified Assets (x) from Company L.P. or one or more Company Subsidiaries pursuant to the Prudential Asset Purchase Agreement on the business day prior to the Closing Date as more particularly provided herein and in the Merger Agreement or (y) from Merger Sub pursuant to the Alternative Asset Purchase Agreement (as defined herein) immediately following the OP Effective Time as more particularly provided herein and in the Merger Agreement. The terms Specified Assets and Joint Venture Owned Property shall have the meanings given to them in the Prudential Asset Purchase Agreement.

NOW, THEREFORE, intending to be legally bound, the parties agree as follows:

1. Acquisition of Specified Assets.

a. In the event that Prudential is obligated to consummate the Prudential Asset Purchase Agreement pursuant to Article X of the Merger Agreement, then Prudential agrees to perform or cause to be performed all of its and the Transferees (defined below) obligations thereunder.

b. In the event that the Closing is scheduled to occur under the Merger Agreement and Prudential, Company L.P. and Prentiss Properties Real Estate Fund I, L.P. are not required to consummate the transactions described in the Prudential Asset Purchase Agreement pursuant to Article X of the Merger Agreement, then (1) Prudential shall cause the Transferees to make a capital contribution to Merger Sub in immediately available funds in the aggregate amount of the Specified Assets Purchase Price by noon Eastern Time on the Closing Date, (2) Brandywine and Prudential shall enter into an asset purchase agreement, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit B (the Alternative Asset Purchase Agreement), and (3) simultaneously with the Closing, Brandywine will cause the Specified Assets to be transferred and conveyed to Prudential or the Transferees in exchange for the transfer to Company L.P. of the interest of Prudential and the Transferees in Merger Sub. The term Specified Assets Purchase Price means $747,650,417, subject to adjustment as provided herein and less the outstanding balance of any indebtedness on any of the Specified Assets (including the Joint Venture Owned Property) that is not repaid in full on or before the Closing date.

c. Prudential shall pay all state and local transfer and similar taxes and fees (the Transfer Taxes) associated with the transfer of the Specified Assets pursuant to the Merger Agreement, the Prudential Purchase Agreement, the Alternative Asset Purchase Agreement and this Agreement, as applicable; provided, however, that in the event that Prudential and/or a Transferee acquires the Specified Assets pursuant to Paragraph 1.b and the Transfer Taxes associated therewith are higher than they would have been if Prudential had acquired the Specified Assets pursuant to the Prudential Asset Purchase Agreement, then Brandywine shall pay Prudential at Closing the amount of the excess.

d. Brandywine acknowledges that Prudential shall have the right to assign all or any portion of the rights and obligations of Prudential under this Agreement to one (1) or more entities designated by it (each, a Transferee). No such assignment shall release Prudential from its obligations under this Agreement.

e. Without limiting the terms of Section 16, Prudential, on behalf of each Transferee, agrees that neither Brandywine nor any Affiliate of Brandywine shall have any liability to Prudential or to any Transferee for any of the representations, warranties or covenants of the Company or Company L.P. contained in the Merger Agreement. However, Brandywine agrees, if requested by Prudential and at Prudential s cost and expense, to enforce Brandywine s rights under the Merger Agreement with respect to any misrepresentations or breaches of covenants that have resulted in loss, cost or expense to Prudential and to cooperate with Prudential in all reasonable respects with respect to any such enforcement.

2. Management and Leasing Agreement. On the Final Condition Satisfaction Date (in the event that Prudential and/or a transferee acquires the Specified Assets pursuant to Paragraph 1(a)) and otherwise on the Closing Date, each Transferee and BTRS, Inc., an Affiliate of Brandywine, shall execute and deliver a Leasing and Management Agreement in substantially the form attached hereto as Exhibit C and Brandywine shall cause the existing property management agreements for the Specified Assets to be terminated.

3. Prudential Payments.

a. At the REIT Effective Time, Prudential agrees to pay to Brandywine, or its assignee, One Million Dollars ($1,000,000) in immediately available funds to be used to pay a portion of the fees owing by Brandywine to J.P. Morgan Securities Inc. in connection with the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement.

b. At the REIT Effective Time, Prudential agrees to pay to Brandywine Four Million Dollars ($4,000,000) in immediately available funds on account of severance costs that Brandywine will incur in connection with the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement.

4. Authority Under Merger Agreement.

a. None of Brandywine, Parent, Merger Sub, L.P. Merger Sub or any Affiliate of any of them (collectively, the BDN Parties) shall amend the Merger Agreement in any way without in each instance obtaining the prior written consent of Prudential, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed.

b. None of the BDN Parties shall grant or withhold any consent or approval under or in connection with the Merger Agreement, or authorize, commit to or agree to any matter in connection with the Merger Agreement, without in each instance obtaining the prior written consent of Prudential, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed. Without limiting the foregoing, the terms of this Paragraph 4.b shall apply to (i) any changes in the structure of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement requested pursuant to Section 1.10 of the Merger Agreement and (ii) any matters for which consent of Parent is required under Section 5.01 of the Merger Agreement.

c. None of the BDN Parties shall waive any of its conditions to Closing without in each instance obtaining the prior written consent of Prudential, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed.

d. No BDN Party shall exercise any right or remedy under the Merger Agreement, including, without limitation, any termination or extension right, without in each instance obtaining the prior written consent of Prudential, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed.

e. In any instance where the consent or approval of Prudential is requested under this Agreement, Prudential will use commercially reasonable efforts to respond to Brandywine within two (2) business days after Brandywine s request for consent or approval has been submitted to Prudential.

5. Property Diligence and Sharing of Remediation Expenses.

a. Each of Brandywine and Prudential will have until October 20, 2005 (the Due Diligence Period) to conduct, at its sole cost and expense (subject to the other terms of this Agreement) diligence on the Company Properties allocated to it (i.e., the Specified Assets, in the case of Prudential, and the other Company Properties, in the case of Brandywine). For purposes of this Paragraph 5, the diligence of Brandywine and Prudential will be limited to title, survey, zoning, permitting and land use, structural and environmental diligence (i.e., leases, rent rolls and tenant credit would not be subject to diligence for purposes of this Paragraph 5) (such permitted due diligence matters, collectively, the Permitted Due Diligence). Any such diligence or activities shall be conducted in the manner permitted by Section 6.02 of the Merger Agreement.

b. Each of Brandywine and Prudential, on behalf of the Transferees, agrees to fund a portion of the Eligible Remediation Costs (defined below) for the Company Properties to be acquired by the other. The aggregate maximum amount that Brandywine shall be obligated to pay to Prudential on account of Eligible Remediation Costs (net of any payments made by Prudential to Brandywine on account of Eligible Remediation Costs) is $18,750,000. The aggregate maximum amount that Prudential shall be obligated to pay to Brandywine on account of Eligible Remediation Costs (net of any payments made by Brandywine to Prudential on account of Eligible Remediation Costs) is $6,250,000.

c. Neither Brandywine nor Prudential shall have any obligation to make a payment to the other on account of Eligible Remediation Costs for a Company Property to be acquired by the other unless the aggregate amount of Eligible Remediation Costs for such Company Property exceeds ten percent (10%) of the Allocated Value (defined below) of such Company Property. If the aggregate amount of Eligible Remediation Costs for such Company Property exceeds ten percent (10%) of the Allocated Value of such Company Property, then (i) if such Company Property is to be acquired by Brandywine, Prudential will pay to Brandywine an amount equal to the Prudential Percentage multiplied by the amount of such excess over ten percent (10%) of the Allocated Value (subject to the above aggregate $6,250,000 cap) and (ii) if such Company Property is to be acquired by a Transferee, Brandywine will pay to Prudential an amount equal to the Brandywine Percentage (as defined below) multiplied by the amount of such excess over ten percent (10%) of the Allocated Value (subject to the above aggregate $18,750,000 cap). The Allocated Value of a Company Property is the dollar amount allocated to such Company Property as set forth on Exhibit D hereto.

d. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the aggregate amount of Eligible Remediation Costs for a Company Property to be acquired by a Transferee exceeds ten percent (10%) of the Allocated Value of such Company Property, then, if such Company Property is not an Excluded Property (defined below), Prudential shall have the right, on behalf of the applicable Transferee, in Prudentials sole and absolute discretion, to elect either (i) to drop such Company Property (i.e., not acquire such Company Property), or (ii) to cause the applicable Transferee to acquire a Substitute Property (defined below) in lieu of such Company Property. If Prudential elects to drop a Company Property (such Company Property, a Dropped Property), it shall receive a credit against the Specified Assets Purchase Price in an amount equal to (x) the Allocated Value for such Dropped Property minus (y) the Prudential Percentage of all of the Eligible Remediation Costs for such Dropped Property. Any such election must be made by Prudential within fifteen (15) days following expiration of the Due Diligence Period. In no event may Prudential elect to drop or substitute Company Properties that have an aggregate Allocated Value in excess of $150,000,000 (the $150,000,000 Limit). In addition, in no event may Prudential elect to drop or substitute a Company Property if Brandywine elects to pay to Prudential the amount by which Eligible Remediation Costs for such Company Property exceed ten percent (10%) of the Allocated Value of such Company Property. Any such election must be made by Brandywine no later than the later of (x) the fifteenth (15th) day after expiration of the fifteen (15) day period referred to above in this Paragraph 5.d and (y) the fifteenth (15th) day after agreement of Brandywine and Prudential as to, or other determination as provided in Paragraph 6 below of, the Eligible Remediation Costs of the applicable Company Property, and all such Eligible Remediation Costs shall be paid to Prudential on the Closing Date. Each of the Company Properties identified on Exhibit E-1 is an Excluded Property. In addition to the right of Prudential to elect to drop or cause a substitution of a Company Property that is not an Excluded Property, as provided in this Paragraph 5.d, Prudential may elect to drop any development property identified on Exhibit E-2 if Prudential, in its reasonable discretion, is not satisfied with the development potential or the status of land use permits and approvals for such development property. In order to exercise this right with respect to a development property, Prudential must make such an election on or before 5:00 p.m. on October 20, 2005, and in the event that Prudential makes such an election, it will receive a credit against the Specified Assets Purchase Price in an amount equal to the Allocated Value for such dropped development property or properties, and the Allocated Value attributable to such dropped development property or properties shall not count against the $150,000,000 Limit.

e. Within fifteen (15) days after the date of this Agreement, Brandywine and Prudential will act in good faith to identify a group of Company Properties which are eligible for exchange in accordance with, and subject to, Section 5(d)(ii) each, a Substitute Property); provided that in the event that Prudential, during the thirty (30)-day period (the Substitute Property Due Diligence Period) that commences at the expiration of the foregoing fifteen day period, identifies, through Permitted Due Diligence, Eligible Remediation Costs in respect of any of such Substitute Properties in an amount that exceeds, in respect of any given Substitute Property, ten percent (10%) of the Allocated Value of such Substitute Property, then Prudential may remove such Substitute Property from the pool of Substitute Properties. Prudential may exercise its right to acquire a Substitute Property in lieu of a Company Property only if the Company Property has an Allocated Value that is within 10% of the Allocated Value of the Substitute Property. Any such election by Prudential must be made by Prudential within fifteen (15) days following expiration of the Substitute Due Diligence Period, and, for clarity, will be subject to the right of Brandywine to override such election, as provided in Paragraph 5.d, if Brandywine elects to pay to Prudential the amount by which Eligible Remediation Costs for such Company Property exceeds ten percent (10%) of the Allocated Value of such Company Property. Any such election must be made by Brandywine no later than the later of (x) the fifteenth (15th) day after expiration of the fifteen (15) day period referred to in the immediately preceding sentence and (y) the fifteenth (15th) day after agreement of Brandywine and Prudential as to, or other determination as provided in Paragraph 6 below of, the Eligible Remediation Costs of the applicable Company Property. If all of the Substitute Properties exchanged pursuant to this Section 5.e have a lower Allocated Value in the aggregate than the Company Properties for which they were exchanged, the Contribution Amount will be decreased by an amount equal to the difference between the aggregate Allocated Values of such Company Properties and the Substitute Properties. If all of Substitute Properties exchanged pursuant to this Section 5.e have a higher Allocated Value in the aggregate than the Company Properties for which they were exchanged, the Contribution Amount will be increased by an amount equal to the difference between the aggregate Allocated Values of such Company Properties and the Substitute Properties.

f. If either Brandywine or Prudential identifies costs that it believes qualify as Eligible Remediation Costs, Brandywine or Prudential, as applicable, will provide to the other, no later than five (5) days following expiration of the Due Diligence Period, a reasonably detailed description of the cost and reason why Brandywine or Prudential, as applicable, believes the cost so qualifies. The parties will cooperate reasonably and in good faith to resolve any disagreements as to the amount and qualification of any such costs, and any disagreements that are not resolved by the parties by the fifteenth (15th) day following expiration of the Due Diligence Period shall be determined in accordance with Paragraph 6 below.

g. A cost will constitute an Eligible Remediation Cost only if (i) the cost relates to removal of, or diminution in the value of a Company Property on account of, an Encumbrance, any other title exception, or any other matter shown on a survey, including, without limitation, any encroachment, in each case that would have a material adverse effect on either (x) the value of the applicable Company Property or (y) its ability to be used for its intended purposes, or (ii) the cost relates to a structural problem at a Company Property that is not in the nature of preventative maintenance and that an owner of a property of a comparable quality would, in the exercise of reasonable and prudent judgment, repair within one year following the date of this Agreement, or (iii) the cost would reasonably be incurred to remediate an environmental condition in, on or about a Company Property that an institutional lender would reasonably require to be remediated, including, without limitation, any such condition posing a threat to the well-being, value or safety of any person or property, or (iv) the cost relates to the curing of any zoning or land use violation affecting a Company Property, or to obtaining any permit, license or approval from a governmental agency relating to the land use, construction or occupancy of a Company Property, which, in each case, if not cured or obtained, would have an adverse effect on (x) the value of the applicable Company Property or (y) its ability to be used for its intended purposes.

h. Brandywine and Prudential, on behalf of the Transferees, shall each defend, indemnify, and hold the other harmless on account of any claims, actions, losses, liabilities, damages, costs and expenses, whether arising out of injury or death to persons or damage to any real or personal property, including any property of tenants at Company Properties or otherwise and including but not limited to, reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs incurred, suffered by, or claimed against the other caused by the entry by Brandywine or Prudential (as applicable) or any of its respective representatives upon a Company Property or in carrying out any of its due diligence activities.

6. The parties shall attempt in good faith to resolve any dispute over the amount or qualification of a cost as an Eligible Remediation Cost (a “Dispute”) within ten (10) days from the date that one party notifies the other in writing of the Dispute. In the event that the parties are unable to resolve such Dispute within this ten day period, either party may, within ten (10) days of the expiration of the initial ten (10) day period, notify the other party that the Dispute shall be finally settled under the Commercial Arbitration Rules of the AAA (or any similar successor rules thereto) as are in force on the date when a notice of arbitration is received and such party may initiate such process. The AAA shall propose arbitrator(s) that are, to the extent reasonably possible, experts in the subject matter of the Dispute. The number of arbitrators shall be three (3) unless Brandywine and Prudential agree to one (1) within five (5) days within the receipt of the written notice of the Dispute. The AAA shall provide, upon a party’s request, a list of ten (10) proposed arbitrators, and each of Brandywine and Prudential shall pick one (1) arbitrator from such list within five (5) days within the receipt of such list and the arbitrators so selected shall pick a third arbitrator from such list within five (5) days of the selection of these two arbitrators. The arbitration proceedings shall be conducted in New York, New York. For clarity, the pendency of an arbitration proceeding shall not limit the obligations of Brandywine or Prudential to proceed with the consummation of the transactions provided for in this Agreement or in the Prudential Asset Purchase Agreement; provided, however, that Prudential at its election shall not be obligated to take or cause a Transferee to take title to any Company Property that is subject to a Dispute.

7. Material Adverse Change Following Due Diligence Period. If, following the expiration of the Due Diligence Period and prior to the Final Notice Date (defined below), a change occurs to a Specified Asset and such post-Due Diligence Period change relates to a subject matter of the Permitted Due Diligence and the post-Due Diligence change (if it had occurred prior to the expiration of the Due Diligence Period) would have given rise to an Eligible Remediation Cost, then the terms of Paragraph 5 of this Agreement shall apply just as if such change had occurred and been known and objected to by Prudential during the Due Diligence Period in accordance with the terms of this Agreement; provided that any Eligible Remediation Cost attributable to such post-Due Diligence Period change shall be subject to a new ten percent (10%) threshold that is separate and apart from (and not aggregated with) the ten percent (10%) threshold applicable to Eligible Remediation Costs identified in the Due Diligence Period; and provided further that the right of Prudential in Paragraph 5.d and this Paragraph 7 to elect to drop a Specified Asset or substitute a Company Property, on and subject to the terms and conditions set forth therein and herein, may not be exercised after the Final Notice Date. The “Final Notice Date” is the fifteenth (15th) day prior to the scheduled date of the Parent Shareholders Meeting. For clarity, any Specified Asset or Company Properties that Prudential may elect to drop or substitute, as the case may be, under this paragraph 7 or under Paragraph 5.d shall be subject to the single (aggregate) $150,000,000 Limit except as otherwise expressly provided with respect to dropped development properties and the Membership Interest (defined below).

8. Expenses and Expense Recoveries; Other Receipts Under Merger Agreement.

a. The parties agree to be solely responsible for their respective legal and other expenses attributable to the negotiation and preparation of this Agreement and the Prudential Asset Purchase Agreement.

b. In the event that the Merger Agreement is terminated and Brandywine receives payment of the Termination Fee or the Alternate Fee, then the Termination Fee or the Alternate Fee received by Brandywine, minus any portion of the Termination Fee or the Alternate Fee that Brandywine is obligated to pay to Parent

Financial Advisor, shall be split between Brandywine and Prudential as follows: Brandywine shall be entitled to the Brandywine Percentage (defined below) and Prudential shall be entitled to the Prudential Percentage (defined below). The Brandywine Percentage shall equal (i) the aggregate of all of the Allocated Values for the Company Properties, minus the aggregate of all of the Allocated Values of all of the Specified Assets (excluding any Dropped Properties), divided by (ii) the aggregate of all of the Allocated Values for the Company Properties. The Prudential Percentage shall equal 1.0 minus the Brandywine Percentage (the Prudential Percentage). If Brandywine is entitled to be reimbursed for its Expenses pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement, any amount of such Expenses that remains after Brandywine pays any and all required fees to Parent Financial Advisor shall be allocated between Brandywine and Prudential in accordance with the Prudential Percentage and Brandywine Percentage; provided, however, that neither Brandywine nor Prudential shall be entitled to a portion of the Expenses that exceeds such partys out of pocket expenses.

c. Brandywine hereby agrees to indemnify, defend and hold Prudential and the Transferees harmless from and against any and all loss, liability, cost, claim, damage and expense (each, a Loss), including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys fees, suffered or incurred by Prudential or any Transferee at any time in connection with the existence and terms of any Tax Protection Arrangements, but this agreement (except as provided in Paragraph 8(e)) shall not be construed to apply to any tax matters that arise under the joint venture asset included in the Specified Assets known as Prentiss/Collins del Mar Heights, LLC. This provision 9.c shall survive Closing and not be merged therein.

d. Brandywine hereby agrees to indemnify, defend and hold Prudential and the Transferees harmless from and against any and all Loss suffered or incurred by Prudential or any Transferee on account of its having held in interest in Merger Sub or any other subsidiary or Affiliate of Brandywine. This provision 9.d shall survive Closing and not be merged therein.

e. Brandywine hereby agrees to indemnify, defend and hold Prudential and the Transferees harmless from and against any and all Loss suffered or incurred by Prudential or any Transferee pursuant to Section 8.6 of the Operating Agreement of Prentiss/Collins Del Mar Heights, LLC. and this agreement shall survive Closing and not be merged therein.

f. Brandywine hereby agrees to indemnify and hold harmless Prudential and the Transferees from and against all liability and cost (including reasonable attorneys fees) incurred by reason of claims against Prudential and the Transferees relating to Space Leases or the proceeds under Space Leases arising from or relating to the period prior to the date of Closing in respect of Company Properties acquired by Prudential or a Transferee. Prudential hereby agrees to indemnify and hold harmless Brandywine and Company L.P. from and against all liability and cost (including reasonable attorneys fees) incurred by reason of claims against Brandywine or Company L.P. relating to the Space Leases or the proceeds under Space Leases arising from or relating to the period from and after the date of Closing in respect of Company Properties acquired by Prudential or a Transferee. The agreements in this Paragraph 8(f) shall survive Closing and not be merged therein.

9. Company Property Substitutions. In the event Prudential elects to acquire a Substitute Property pursuant to Paragraphs 5 and 7 above, such Substitute Property shall become a Specified Asset under the Merger Agreement, the Prudential Asset Purchase Agreement, the Alternative Asset Purchase Agreement and this Agreement for all purposes thereunder and hereunder.

10. Consent. In the event that Collins Corporate Center, LLC does not consent in writing, prior to the fifth (5th) day prior to the scheduled Closing Date, to the acquisition by Prudential or a Transferee of the membership interest (the Membership Interest) of Company L.P. in the limited liability company known as Prentiss/Collins Del Mar Heights, LLC (the Del Mar LLC), and acknowledge the right of Prudential or such Transferee to hold the position of Managing Member under the Operating Agreement dated as of December 17, 2001 of Del Mar LLC (the Del Mar Operating Agreement), then Prudential may, by 5:00 p.m. on the day prior to the Final Condition Satisfaction Date or Closing Date, as applicable, elect to drop its acquisition of the Membership Interest, in which case neither Prudential nor any Transferee shall acquire the Membership Interest and Prudential will receive a credit against the Specified Assets Purchase Price in an amount equal to the Allocated Value for the Membership Interest. The Allocated Value attributable to such dropped Membership Interest shall not count against the $150,000,000 Limit.

If the Specified Assets Closing occurs before the tax rate or assessed valuation for a Specified Asset or the Joint Venture Owned Property, as the case may be, is fixed for the then current tax year, apportionment of taxes and other amounts hereunder shall be made on the basis of the tax rate for the preceding year applied to the latest assessed respective valuation of the applicable Specified Asset or the Joint Venture Owned Property, as applicable, and when the tax rate and assessed valuations are fixed for the tax year in which the Specified Assets Closing occurs, Company L.P. and the applicable Transferee hereby agree to adjust the proration of taxes hereunder and, if necessary, to refund or pay such sums to the other party as shall be necessary to effect such adjustment.

Each Transferee of a Fee Owned Property shall be entitled to all rents, charges and other revenue of any kind attributable to any period under the Space Leases affecting its Specified Assets on and after the Specified Assets Closing Date. The owner of the Joint Venture Interest and the Transferee thereof shall prorate such rent, charges and other revenue attributable to the Joint Venture Owned Property on a similar basis in accordance with their interests. Rents or other reimbursements due landlord under the Space Leases affecting Specified Assets not collected as of the Specified Assets Closing Date shall not be prorated at the time of the Specified Assets Closing, but each applicable Transferee shall make a good faith effort (which shall not include bringing legal action against a tenant) to collect the same on the applicable Owner's behalf and to tender the same to Company L.P. upon receipt (which obligation of such Transferee shall survive the Closing and not be merged therein for a period of four (4) months); provided, however, that all rents, escalations and other reimbursements due landlord under the Space Leases affecting its Specified Assets collected by a Transferee on or after the Specified Assets Closing Date, less the reasonable costs of collection, shall first be applied to all amounts due under the Space Leases affecting its Specified Assets at the time of collection (i.e., current rents and sums due such Transferee as the current owner and landlord) with the balance (if any) payable to Company L.P., but only to the extent of amounts delinquent and actually due to Company L.P. The owner of the Joint Venture Interest and the Transferee thereof shall treat rents and other reimbursements due landlord under the Space Leases affecting the Joint Venture Owned Property on a similar basis in accordance with their interests. To the extent that the amount of actual consumption of any utility services is not determined prior to the Specified Assets Closing Date, a proration shall be made at the Specified Assets Closing based on the last available reading and post-closing adjustments between each Owner or the Joint Venture Interest Owner and the applicable Transferee and thereafter a final proration shall be made within twenty (20) days following the date that actual consumption for such pre-closing period is determined, which obligation shall survive the Closing and not be merged therein. No Property Owner shall assign to any Transferee any deposits which such Property Owner has with any of the utility services or companies servicing the Specified Assets. Each Transferee shall arrange with such services and companies to have accounts opened in its name beginning at 12:01 a.m. on the Specified Assets Closing Date.

14. Notices and Information under Merger Agreement. Brandywine agrees to provide Prudential promptly with a copy of each notice received from or given to any BDN Party under or pertaining to the Merger Agreement. Brandywine agrees to keep Prudential fully informed as to the status of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, the status of satisfaction of all conditions to Closing, any Takeover Proposal and all information the BDN Parties obtain with respect to the Specified Assets or the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement or this Agreement. Brandywine agrees to consult with Prudential with respect to portions of the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus that relate to Prudential or the Specified Assets. Without limiting the foregoing or any other term of this Agreement, Brandywine shall provide Prudential with copies of all Partner Exchange Materials and all other correspondence related to the foregoing and all notices given or received under Sections 6.03(c) or (d) of the Merger Agreement.

efforts to afford Prudential an opportunity to review and comment on press releases and public filings that reference Prudential or the transactions contemplated by this Agreement prior to the public disclosure thereof.

16. Default or Failure of Condition Under Merger Agreement. If any BDN Party breaches any term of the Merger Agreement (or fails to perform any obligation of a BDN Party under the Merger Agreement required to be performed prior to Closing, the performance of which is within any BDN Partys exclusive control, which, for the sake of clarity, does not include the failure to obtain the Required Parent Vote), or if Parent fails to call or hold the Parent Shareholders Meeting in accordance with Section 6.01 of the Merger Agreement and as a result Prudential does not acquire the Specified Assets as contemplated by this Agreement or the Prudential Asset Purchase Agreement, then each BDN Party shall be jointly and severally liable to, and hereby agrees to indemnify, Prudential for all of its actual out-of- pocket costs and expenses incurred in connection with the Merger Agreement, the Prudential Asset Purchase Agreement, this Agreement and the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement and this Agreement, plus liquidated damages of $5,000,000. The parties hereto acknowledge and agree that the damages suffered by Prudential as a result of such a breach are difficult to determine and that the above-referenced amount as a result is a reasonable approximation thereof. If Closing does not occur because the Parent does not obtain the Required Parent Vote, then each BDN Party shall be jointly and severally liable to, and hereby agrees to indemnify, Prudential for all of its actual out-of-pocket costs and expenses incurred in connection with the Merger Agreement, the Prudential Asset Purchase Agreement, this Agreement and the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement and this Agreement.

17. Breach of Representation or Warranty under Merger Agreement. If there exists any breach by Company or Company L.P. of any representation or warranty in the Merger Agreement that pertains to any Specified Asset (other than as to matter(s) that could reasonably have been identified by Prudential in the course of its due diligence activities conducted prior to the Closing Date), then, at any time within six (6) months following the Closing Date and assuming the Closing is consummated, Prudential shall have the right to recover from Brandywine its direct out of pocket expenses resulting from such breach, up to an aggregate recovery of $5,000,000.

18. Loan Guarantees. If any guarantees of the Company or Company L.P. or a Company Subsidiary of any loan that is secured by any of the Specified Assets is not released on the Closing Date or Final Condition Satisfaction Date, as applicable, then Prudential will indemnify the guarantor against any claims that the applicable lender may assert under any such guaranty with respect to any matter first arising after Closing.

19. Notices. All notices, requests and other communications required or permitted to be given under this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be delivered to a party either personally or by sending a copy thereof by first class or express mail, postage prepaid, or by courier services, charges prepaid, or by telecopier (with a copy sent by first class mail), to such partys address (or to such partys telecopier number) as set forth below. Any such notice, request or communication shall be deemed to be delivered, given and received for all purposes of this Agreement (i) as of the date so delivered, if delivered personally or by telecopy to the person entitled thereto, (ii) three (3) business days after being deposited in the United States mail, if delivered by first class or express mail, postage prepaid or (iii) one (1) business day after being deposited with a telegraph office or courier service for delivery if notice is sent by telegraph or courier services.

Reference is made to the Agreement and Plan of Merger dated as of the date hereof by and among Brandywine Realty Trust, Brandywine Operating Partnership, L.P., Brandywine Cognac I, LLC, Brandywine Cognac II, LLC, Prentiss Properties Trust and Company L.P. (as it may be amended, the Merger Agreement) and the Master Agreement dated as of the date hereof between Brandywine Operating Partnership, L.P. and Prudential (the Master Agreement). This Agreement is referred to in the Merger Agreement as the Prudential Asset Purchase Agreement and is being delivered in connection with the Merger Agreement and the Master Agreement, in each case subject to the terms and conditions hereof.

In consideration of the foregoing, and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby mutually acknowledged, the parties hereto hereby agree as follows:

case may be. Upon each such modification and substitution, Specified Assets as used in this Agreement shall be deemed to include the then-current list of Specified Assets, as so modified and Joint Venture Interest shall be dropped from this Agreement or modified, as the case may be, in accordance with the terms hereof. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, no Seller shall be required to convey any real property interest in a Specified Asset other than those listed in Exhibit A and Exhibit B as of the date of this Agreement unless and until either (a) any tenant or other party having a right to purchase such property or having another purchase-related right (such as to approve the property purchaser) has waived such partys rights, such rights have expired or Seller can otherwise convey the real property without violating such tenants or other partys rights, or (b) Prudential shall have agreed to indemnify Seller for any loss, cost or damages relating to the applicable matter set forth in item (a) of this sentence.

Section 6. Delivery of Documents by Company L.P. On the Specified Assets Closing Date, Company L.P. and Other Seller shall, notwithstanding anything to the contrary, deliver or cause to be delivered to Prudential the following:

(a) The Deeds and the Assignment of Interest, duly executed and delivered by the applicable Property Owner or the Joint Venture Interest Owner, as the case may be;

(b) All transfer, recordation and similar tax forms required in connection with the Deeds and the Assignment of Interest, in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to Prudential, duly executed and delivered by the applicable Property Owner or the Joint Venture Interest Owner, as the case may be;

(f) All on-site books, records, files and keys related to each Specified Asset and the Joint Venture Owned Property;

(g) Such affidavits and indemnities as are customarily required by the title insurance company issuing the title insurance policies on the Specified Assets or the Joint Venture Owned Property, including, without limitation, as to parties in possession, mechanics liens, a gap closing, if applicable, contest of encumbrances and no transfer of the Specified Assets or Joint Venture Owned Property or grant of any option or similar matter, and evidence of each Property Owners and the Joint Venture Interest Owners authority to convey the Specified Assets, which affidavits and indemnities are reasonably satisfactory to Prudential and such title insurance company. Notwithstanding the foregoing, with respect to Specified Assets located in Virginia, no Property Owner of any such Specified Asset shall be required to deliver an affidavit covering mechanics liens on such Specified Asset to the extent resulting from work of a tenant under a lease affecting such Specified Asset;

(h) A non-foreign affidavit in the form of Exhibit I hereto, duly executed and delivered by each Property Owner and the Joint Venture Interest Owner;

(i) To the extent obtained by Company L.P. or its affiliates, the Debt Assignment and Assumption Documents (as defined below) duly executed and delivered by Company L.P. and all parties thereto other than the applicable Transferee, it being acknowledged by Prudential, however, that it shall not be a condition to Prudentials obligation to close under this Agreement that Company L.P. deliver any Debt Assignment and Assumption documents Company L.P. has not been able to obtain despite the efforts required under the Merger Agreement;

(j) Notices to all tenants under the Space Leases affecting the Specified Properties in the form of Exhibit J hereto, duly executed by or on behalf of each respective Property Owner;

(k) Such other documents and instruments as are customary for real property sales of comparable property in the applicable jurisdiction and may be reasonably required by Prudential or the title company in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

(a) The Assignment of Interest, duly executed and delivered by the applicable Transferee;

(b) All transfer, recordation and similar tax forms required in connection with the Deeds and the Assignment of Interest, in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to Prudential, duly executed and delivered by the applicable Transferee;

Upon any such assignment, each applicable Transferee shall succeed to all applicable right, title and interest of Prudential under this Agreement, and each applicable Transferee shall assume all applicable obligations of Prudential under this Article first arising from and after the date of such assignment. No such assignment by Prudential shall release Prudential from its obligations under this Agreement.

Section 9. Termination; Remedies. If the Merger Agreement is terminated in accordance with its terms, this Agreement shall be deemed terminated and of no further force or effect, except for any provisions which by their terms are to survive Closing. Without limiting any other term of this Agreement or any rights at law or in equity, Company L.P. and Other Seller acknowledge and agree that the terms of this Agreement shall be enforceable by one (1) or more actions in specific performance.

Section 10. Representations and Warranties. Company L.P. and Other Seller hereby jointly and severally represent and warrant to Prudential, as of the date on which this Agreement becomes effective and as of the Closing Date, as follows:

(a) Neither Company L.P. nor Other Seller is, and is not an affiliate (as defined in Section V(c) of Prohibited Transaction Class Exemption 84-14 (PTE 84-14)) of, any of the Trustees of the Western Conference of Teamsters Pension Trust Fund. None of Company L.P., Other Seller or any affiliate (within the meaning of Part V(c) of PTE 84-14) of either of them has the authority to appoint or terminate Prudential as investment manager of any assets of the Western Conference of Teamsters Pension Trust Fund or to negotiate the terms of any management agreement with Prudential on behalf of the Western Conference of Teamsters Pension Trust Fund, and neither Company L.P. nor Other Seller is a participating employer in the Western Conference of Teamsters Pension Trust Fund. The transaction contemplated by this Agreement (the Transaction) is not specifically excluded by Part I(b) of PTE 84-14. Neither Company L.P. nor Other Seller is a related party of Prudential (as defined by Part V(h) of PTE 84-14). The terms of the Transaction have been negotiated and determined at arms length, as such terms would be negotiated and determined by unrelated parties.

(b) Neither Company L.P. nor Other Seller is a party in interest (as defined in Section 3(14) of ERISA) with respect to the Virginia Retirement System, the PRISA II 10% Plan or any of the PRISA III 10% Plans (all as defined below), other than by reason of providing services to the Virginia Retirement System, a PRISA II 10% Plan or a PRISA III 10% Plan, as the case may be, or by reason of a relationship to such a service provider described in Section 3(14)(F), (G), (H) or (I) of ERISA. Further, neither Company L.P. nor Other Seller exercises discretionary authority, control, responsibility or influence with respect to the investment of assets of the Virginia Retirement System, the PRISA II 10% Plan in Prudential Property Investment Separate Account II (PRISA II) or a PRISA III 10% Plan in Prudential Property Investment Separate Account III (PRISA III) or has discretionary authority, control, responsibility or influence with respect to the management or disposition of the assets of the Virginia Retirement System, the PRISA II 10% Plan held in PRISA II or a PRISA III 10% Plan held in PRISA III. For purposes hereof, (i) PRISA II 10% Plan shall mean the Virginia Supplemental Retirement System, and (ii) PRISA III 10% Plans shall mean (A) the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits of the United Methodists Church incorporated in Missouri as trustee of certain benefit and pension plans of the United Methodists Church, (B) STA-ILA of Baltimore Pension Fund, and (C) the New York State Teachers Retirement System.

(c) Neither Company L.P. nor Other Seller is an employee pension benefit plan subject to the provisions of Title IV of ERISA or subject to the minimum funding standards under Part 3, Subtitle B, Title I of ERISA or Section 412 of the Internal Revenue Code or Section 302 of ERISA. None of Company L.P.s or Other Sellers assets constitute assets of any employee benefit plan subject to Part 4 of Subtitle B of Title I of ERISA and/or Section 4975 of the Code. Neither Company L.P nor Other Seller is a governmental plan within the meaning of Section 3(32) of ERISA and none of the Specified Assets or the Joint Venture Owned Property is subject to State statutes regulating the investments of and fiduciary obligations with respect to governmental plans.

(d) The transactions contemplated by this Agreement, the Merger Agreement and the Master Agreement are exempt from any requirement to make any filings under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended, and the implementing regulations thereto, 16 C.F.R. parts 801-803, because Company L.P. and Other Seller have determined that the aggregate fair market value of the non-exempt assets constituting a portion of the Specified Assets of Company L.P. and Other Seller and the entities controlled by Company L.P. or Other Seller is less than $53,100,000.

Section 11. Consent Required Outstanding Indebtedness. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, at all times prior to the Specified Assets Closing Date, Company L.P. and Other Seller shall use commercially reasonable efforts to obtain the consent to the assumption of each Consent Required Outstanding Indebtedness by the applicable Transferee from each holder thereof and any other necessary party thereto (each, a Required Debt Consent). Neither Company L.P. nor Other Seller shall have any obligation to pay any assumption fee or other amount due to any holder of any Consent Required Outstanding Indebtedness in order to obtain a Required Debt Consent. Each Required Debt Consent so obtained shall be in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to Prudential. Company L.P. and Other Seller agree that they shall not modify or permit to be modified any term of the Consent Required Outstanding Indebtedness without Prudentials prior consent. If Company L.P. or Other Seller is not released from any obligations under a non-recourse carve-outs guaranty pursuant to a Required Debt Consent, Prudential shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless Company L.P. and/or Other Seller from any and all liability under such guaranty first arising from and after such time as Prudential or the applicable Transferee becomes the borrower thereunder.

Section 12. Closing Costs. Prudential shall pay or cause to be paid all transfer and similar taxes and fees associated with the direct one(1) time transfer of the Fee Owned Properties and Joint Venture Interest to each Transferee pursuant to the terms of this Article, and each of Company L.P., Other Seller and Prudential shall pay their own legal fees and expenses associated with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

Section 13. Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of Maryland, regardless of the laws that might otherwise govern under applicable conflict or choice or law rules.

Section 14. Severability. If any term or other provision of this Agreement is invalid, illegal or incapable of being enforced by any rule or law, or public policy, all other terms and provisions of this Agreement shall nevertheless remain in full force and effect so long as the economic or legal substance of the transactions contemplated hereby is not affected in any manner materially adverse to any party. Upon such determination that any term or other provision is invalid, illegal or incapable of being enforced, the parties hereto shall negotiate in good faith to modify this Agreement so as to effect the original intent of the parties as closely as possible in an acceptable manner to the end that such transactions are fulfilled to the fullest extent possible.

Section 15. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, all of which shall be considered one and the same agreement and shall become effective when one or more counterparts have been signed by each of the parties and delivered to the other parties.

Section 16. Entire Agreement; No Third Party Counterparts. This Agreement (including any exhibits and schedules hereto), taken together with the Merger Agreement and the Master Agreement (a) constitutes the entire agreement, and supersedse all prior agreements and understandings, both written and oral, among the parties with respect to the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure solely to the benefit of each party hereto, and nothing in this Agreement, express or implied, is intended to or shall confer upon any other Person any right, benefit or remedy of any nature whatsoever under or by reason of this Agreement.

Section 17. Assignment. Neither this Agreement nor any of the rights, interests or obligations under this Agreement shall be assigned, in whole or in part, by operation of law or otherwise by any of the parties without the prior written consent of the other parties, except as expressly permitted herein. Any purported assignment without such consent shall be void. Subject to the preceding sentences, this Agreement will be binding upon, inure to the benefit of, and be enforceable by, the parties and their respective successors and assigns.

Section 18. Amendment. This Agreement may not be amended except in writing by all parties hereto.

ANNEX D

October 2, 2005

The Board of Trustees
Brandywine Realty Trust
401 Plymouth Rd., Ste 500
Plymouth Meeting, PA 19462

Members of the Board of Trustees:

You have informed us that Brandywine Realty Trust ("Brandywine") is considering entering into an Agreement and Plan of Merger, to be dated as of October 3, 2005, (the "Merger Agreement") among Brandywine, Brandywine Operating Partnership, L.P. ("Brandywine L.P."), Brandywine Cognac I, LLC, Brandywine Cognac, II LLC, Prentiss Properties Trust ("Prentiss") and Prentiss Properties Acquisition Partners ("Prentiss L.P."), in connection with which Brandywine L.P. and Prudential Insurance Company of America ("Prudential") would enter into a related Master Agreement, to be dated as of the same date, (the "Master Agreement") and Prudential, Prentiss and Prentiss L.P. would enter into a related agreement, to be dated as of the same date, (together with the Master Agreement and the Merger Agreement, the "Agreements"). The Agreements provide for one of two alternative structures each including a series of mergers and other transactions (collectively, the "Transactions"), pursuant to and after giving effect to which:

(i) Prudential will acquire, directly or indirectly, Specified Assets (as defined in an exhibit to the Agreements) of Prentiss (the "Prudential Acquisition") for $747.7 million in cash and assumed debt, subject to a potential $150.0 million reduction to as low as $597.7 million in cash and assumed debt (the "Prudential Adjustment") if Prudential elects to "drop properties" (as referred to in the Master Agreement) and not to acquire certain of the Specified Assets of Prentiss as contemplated in the Agreements (Prentiss, after giving effect to such series of transactions including the Prudential Acquisition and Prudential Adjustment, if applicable, and any related dividends, distributions or exchanges, and including all the outstanding equity interests of Prentiss L.P., hereinafter referred to as the "Pro Forma Company"); and

(ii) Brandywine and/or Brandywine L.P. will acquire, directly or indirectly, all of the outstanding equity interest of the Pro Forma Company.

You have also informed us that pursuant to the Agreements, the consideration (the "Brandywine Consideration") to be paid by Brandywine and/or Brandywine L.P. to the shareholders of Prentiss and the holders of limited partnership units of Prentiss L.P. in the Transactions for the acquisition of the Pro Forma Prentiss will consist of, in the aggregate, up to $424 million in cash and 35.5 million shares of Brandywine's common shares of beneficial interest, par value $.01 per share (the "Brandywine Common Shares"), subject to (i) increases or decreases in the number of outstanding common shares of beneficial interest, par value $.01 per share, of Prentiss (the "Prentiss Common Shares") and limited partnership units of Prentiss L.P. permitted under the Agreements, if any, and adjustments for any stock splits or similar events with respect to the Prentiss Common Shares and Brandywine Common Shares as contemplated in the Agreements; and (ii) a potential increase of the cash amount of $424 million to be paid by Brandywine to the shareholders of Prentiss and the holders of limited partnership units of Prentiss L.P. in the event of the Prudential Adjustment, if applicable, to the extent of the cash portion of such adjustment. You have requested our opinion as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to Brandywine of the Brandywine Consideration to be paid by Brandywine in the Transactions for the Pro Forma Prentiss.

In arriving at our opinion, we have (i) reviewed drafts dated September 30, 2005 of the Agreements; (ii) reviewed certain publicly available business and financial information concerning Prentiss, the Pro Forma Company and Brandywine and the industries in which they operate; (iii) compared the proposed financial terms of the Transactions with the publicly available financial terms of certain transactions involving companies we deemed relevant and the consideration received for such companies; (iv) compared the financial and operating performance of the Pro Forma Company and Brandywine with publicly available information concerning certain other companies we deemed relevant and reviewed the current and historical market prices of the Prentiss Common Shares and the Brandywine Common Shares and certain publicly traded securities of such other companies; (v) reviewed certain internal financial analyses and forecasts prepared and/or reviewed by the managements of Prentiss and Brandywine relating to the businesses of the Pro Forma Company and prepared by the management of Brandywine relating to the business of Brandywine, including the estimated amount and timing of the cost savings and related expenses and synergies expected to result from the Transactions (the Synergies); and (vi) performed such other financial studies and analyses and considered such other information as we deemed appropriate for the purposes of this opinion.

In addition, we have held discussions with certain members of the management of Prentiss and Brandywine with respect to certain aspects of the Transactions, and the past and current business operations of Prentiss, the Pro Forma Company and Brandywine, the financial condition and future prospects and operations of Prentiss, the Pro Forma Company and Brandywine, the effects of the Transactions on the financial condition and future prospects of the Pro Forma Prentiss and Brandywine, and certain other matters we believed necessary or appropriate to our inquiry.

In giving our opinion, we have relied upon and assumed, without assuming responsibility or liability for independent verification, the accuracy and completeness of all information that was publicly available or was furnished to or discussed with us by Prentiss and Brandywine or otherwise reviewed by or for us. We have not conducted or been provided with any valuation or appraisal of any assets or liabilities, nor have we evaluated the solvency of Prentiss, the Pro Forma Company or Brandywine under any state or federal laws relating to bankruptcy, insolvency or similar matters. In relying on financial analyses and forecasts provided to us, including the Synergies, we have assumed that they have been reasonably prepared based on assumptions reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments by management as to the expected future results of operations and financial condition of the Pro Forma Company and Brandywine to which such analyses or forecasts relate. We express no view as to such analyses or forecasts (including the Synergies) or the assumptions on which they were based. We have also assumed that the Transactions will have the tax consequences as specified to us by the management of Brandywine and its counsel, and that the Transactions contemplated by the Agreements, including the Prudential Acquisition, will be consummated as described in the Agreements (without there occurring any swaps, exchanges or substitutions of properties constituting Specified Assets potentially contemplated by the Agreement and without Brandywine having elected to pay to Prudential any excess amounts for Eligible Remediation Costs (as defined in the Master Agreement), in each case, to the extent that it could be material to our analysis), and that the definitive Agreements will not differ in any material respects from the drafts thereof furnished to us. We have also assumed that (i) in all aspects which could be material to our analysis, the previously announced dispositions by Prentiss of its properties in the Chicago area and Detroit area, or substantial equivalents thereof, have been consummated prior to the acquisition of the Pro Forma Company by Brandywine; (ii) as you have instructed, for purposes of our analysis, the impact on the Pro Forma Prentiss of any Specified Assets being dropped as part of a Prudential Adjustment shall be deemed to be an increase to reflect the relevant financial contribution of the dropped Specified Assets equaling the product of (x) the percentage amount of Specified Assets dropped and (y) the blended aggregate of the relevant financial contribution of the Specified Assets taken as a whole; (iii) any cash or Brandywine Common Shares that may be provided by Brandywine to Brandywine L.P. for purposes of the Transactions will not result in any dilution of Brandywines equity interest in Brandywine L.P.; and (iv) we have assumed for purposes of our analysis that all Prentiss Series D Preferred Shares (as defined in the Master Agreement) will be converted into Prentiss Common Shares. We have relied as to all legal matters relevant to rendering our opinion upon the advice of counsel. We have further assumed that all material governmental, regulatory or other consents and approvals necessary for the consummation of the Transactions will be obtained without any adverse effect on the Pro Forma Company or Brandywine or on the contemplated benefits of the Transactions.

Our opinion is necessarily based on economic, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to us as of, the date hereof. It should be understood that subsequent developments may affect this opinion and that we do not have any obligation to update, revise, or reaffirm this opinion. Our opinion is limited to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to Brandywine of the Brandywine Consideration to be paid in the proposed Transactions for the Pro Forma Company as contemplated by the Agreements, and we express no opinion as to the fairness of the Transactions (or any consideration paid therein) to the holders of any class of securities, creditors or other constituencies of Brandywine or Brandywine L.P. or as to the underlying decision by Brandywine or Brandywine L.P. to engage in the Transactions. We are expressing no opinion herein as to the price at which the Brandywine Common Shares will trade at any future time.

We have acted as financial advisor to Brandywine with respect to the proposed Transactions and will receive a fee from Brandywine for our services, a substantial portion of which will become payable only if the proposed Transactions are consummated. In addition, Brandywine has agreed to indemnify us for certain liabilities arising out of our engagement. We and our affiliates have in the past provided investment banking and commercial banking services to Brandywine, Prudential and Prentiss L.P. and their respective affiliates. Specifically, we acted as private placement agent for Brandywine in connection with the placement of its debt securities in November 2004, as joint lead managing underwriter of Brandywine's public offering of its debt securities in October 2004, and as joint arranger for Brandywine's term loans in August 2004. Our commercial bank affiliate is a lender to Brandywine. In addition, we and our commercial bank affiliate expect to arrange and/or provide a significant portion of Brandywine's financing of the cash Consideration to be paid by it in the Transactions. Specifically, with respect to Prentiss L.P., our commercial bank affiliate is the administrative agent for Prentiss L.P.'s revolving credit facility and a lender thereunder. In the ordinary course of our businesses, we and our affiliates may actively trade the debt and equity securities of Brandywine, Prentiss or Prudential for our own account or for the accounts of customers and, accordingly, we may at any time hold long or short positions in such securities.

On the basis of and subject to the foregoing, it is our opinion as of the date hereof that the Brandywine Consideration to be paid by Brandywine in the proposed Transactions for the Pro Forma Company is fair, from a financial point of view, to Brandywine.

This letter is provided to the Board of Trustees of Brandywine in connection with and for the purposes of its evaluation of the Transactions. This opinion does not constitute a recommendation to any shareholder of Brandywine as to how such shareholder should vote with respect to the Transactions or any other matter. This opinion may not be disclosed, referred to, or communicated (in whole or in part) to any third party for any purpose whatsoever except with our prior written approval. This opinion may be reproduced in full in any proxy or information statement mailed to shareholders of Brandywine in connection with the Transactions but may not otherwise be disclosed publicly in any manner without our prior written approval.

Very truly yours,

ANNEX E

October 3, 2005

The Board of Trustees
Prentiss Properties Trust
3890 West Northwest Hwy, Suite 400
Dallas, Texas 75220

Dear Members of the Board:

We understand that Brandywine Realty Trust, a Maryland real estate investment trust ("Parent"), Brandywine Operating Partnership, L.P., a Delaware limited partnership of which Parent is the sole general partner ("Parent L.P."), Brandywine Cognac I LLC, a Maryland limited liability company of which Parent L.P. is the sole member ("Merger Sub"), Brandywine Cognac II LLC, a Delaware limited liability company of which Parent L.P. is the sole member ("L.P. Merger Sub"), Prentiss Properties Trust, a Maryland real estate investment trust (the "Company"), and Prentiss Properties Acquisition Partners, L.P., a Delaware limited partnership of which the Company is the sole general partner ("Company L.P."), have entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger dated as of October 3, 2005 (the "Merger Agreement"). All capitalized terms used herein and not otherwise defined shall have the same meanings ascribed to such terms in the Merger Agreement.

Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, holders of the Company's common shares, par value $.01 per share (the "Company Common Shares"), issued and outstanding immediately prior to the closing of the REIT Merger Transaction (as defined below) (other than those shares that are owned by the Company, Parent or their respective subsidiaries) will have their Company Common Shares converted into the right to receive aggregate consideration (the "REIT Merger Consideration") equal to: (a) $21.50 in cash, (the "Cash Consideration") and (b) .69 of a Parent Common Share (the "Share Consideration"). Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, the Company will either:

(x) merge with and into Merger Sub, and as a result thereof each Company Common Share issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (other than those shares that are owned by the Company, Parent or their respective subsidiaries) will be converted into the right to receive the REIT Merger Consideration (the transaction described in this clause (x) being referred to as the "One Step REIT Merger"), or

(y) (i) sell a portion of the Company's property portfolio (the "Prudential Allocated Assets") to Prudential Real Estate Investors or one or more of its Affiliates ("Prudential") in a transaction negotiated by Parent (the "Prudential Sale Transaction"), (ii) declare and pay a special dividend (the amount per share of any such special dividend being referred to as the "Special Dividend") on the Company Common Shares outstanding on the closing date of the Prudential Sale Transaction from a portion of the proceeds of the Prudential Sale Transaction, and (iii) merge with Merger Sub with the Company surviving such merger, and as a result thereof each Company Common Share issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (other than those shares that are owned by the Company, Parent or their respective subsidiaries) will be converted into the right to receive: (a) in cash, the excess of $21.50 over the amount of the Special Dividend, (the "Second Step Cash Consideration") and (b) the Share Consideration (the "Second Step REIT Merger Consideration;" the transaction described in this clause (y) being referred to as the "Two Step REIT Merger," and together with the One Step REIT Merger, the "REIT Merger Transaction")

The Merger Agreement also contemplates that L.P. Merger Sub will merge with and into Company (the "OP Merger") with Company L.P. resulting as the surviving entity. Each Company Common Unit (other than units held by Parent or the Company or their respective subsidiaries) will be converted into the right to receive a number of Parent Class A Units equal to the Common Interest Exchange Ratio.

We understand that if the REIT Merger Transaction is consummated as a One Step Merger, Parent proposes to consummate the Prudential Sale Transaction at or shortly following the Effective Time of the One Step Merger.

You have requested our opinion as of the date hereof as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to the holders of the Company Common Shares (other than the Parent and any affiliates of the Parent) (the Public Shareholders) of the REIT Merger Consideration to be paid to such Public Shareholders in the REIT Merger Transaction. In connection with this opinion, we have:

i. Reviewed the financial terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement;

ii. Analyzed certain historical business and financial information relating to the Company and the Parent;

iii. Reviewed various financial forecasts and other data provided to us by the Company and the Parent as to the future financial performance of the Company and of the Parent, respectively, and of the Parent with respect to the combined entity;

iv. Held discussions with members of the senior managements of the Company and the Parent with respect to the business and prospects of the Company and the Parent, respectively, and the strategic objectives of each;

v. Reviewed public information with respect to certain other companies in lines of businesses we believe to be generally comparable to the businesses of the Company and the Parent;

vi. Reviewed the financial terms of certain business combinations involving companies in lines of businesses we believe to be generally comparable to those of the Company and the Parent;

vii. Reviewed the historical stock prices and trading volumes of the Company Common Shares and Parent Common Shares; and viii. Conducted such other financial studies, analyses and investigations as we deemed appropriate.

We have relied upon the accuracy and completeness of the foregoing information and have not assumed any responsibility for any independent verification of such information or an independent valuation or appraisal of any of the assets or liabilities of the Company or the Parent, or concerning the solvency of, or issues relating to solvency concerning, the Company or the Parent. With respect to financial forecasts, we have assumed that they have been reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of management of the Company and of the Parent as to the future financial performance of the Company and of the Parent, respectively, and of the Parent with respect to the combined entity. We assume no responsibility for and express no view as to such forecasts or the assumptions on which they are based.

In rendering our opinion, we did not address the relative merits of the REIT Merger Transaction as compared to any alternative potential transaction or the Companys underlying decision to effect the REIT Merger Transaction. Further, our opinion is necessarily based on economic, monetary, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to us as of, the date hereof. We assume no responsibility for updating or revising our opinion based on circumstances or events occurring after the date hereof.

In rendering our opinion, we have assumed that the REIT Merger Transaction will be consummated on the terms and subject to the conditions described in the Merger Agreement without any waiver or modification of any material terms or conditions by the Company, and that obtaining the necessary regulatory approvals for the Proposed Transaction will not have an adverse effect on the Company, the Parent or the combined entity. We have assumed for purposes of our analysis that (i) based on information provided by Parents advisors, the Prudential Allocated Assets will result in gross sale proceeds of approximately $750 million, and (ii) if the REIT Merger Transaction is accomplished as a One Step Merger, the Prudential Sale Transaction will be consummated by Parent at the Effective Time. In addition, with respect to our analysis of a potential Two Step Merger, with your consent we have viewed all of the steps of the Two Step Merger as a single transaction and assumed that there will be no difference between the holders of Company Common Shares entitled to receive the Special Dividend and those entitled to receive the Second Step Merger Consideration.

Back to Contents

We do not express any opinion as to the price at which Company Common Shares or Parent Common Shares may trade subsequent to the announcement of the proposed REIT Merger Transaction or as to the price at which Parent Common Shares may trade subsequent to the consummation of the REIT Merger Transaction. Furthermore, we do not express any opinion as to the terms of the OP Merger or the Prudential Sale Transaction, and note that we have not been involved in any way in advising on or negotiating the financial terms of the Prudential Sale Transaction. We do not express any opinion as to any tax or other consequences that might result from the contemplated transactions, nor does our opinion address any legal, tax, regulatory or accounting matters, as to which we understand that the Company has obtained such advice as it deemed necessary from qualified professionals.

Lazard Frères & Co. LLC is acting as investment banker to the Company in connection with the REIT Merger Transaction and will receive a fee for our services, which is contingent upon the consummation of the REIT Merger Transaction. In addition, in the past, Lazard Frères & Co. LLC has provided investment banking services to the Company and the Parent for which we have been paid customary fees. In the ordinary course of our respective businesses, affiliates of Lazard Frères & Co. LLC and LFCM Holdings LLC (an entity owned in large part by managing directors of Lazard Frères & Co. LLC), may from time to time effect transactions and hold securities of the Company or Parent or their respective affiliates for our own or their own accounts and for the accounts of customers and, accordingly, may at any time hold a long or short position in such securities. In addition, as you know, managing directors of Lazard Frères & Co. LLC (including Matthew J. Lustig) have been members of Parent's board of directors in the past and a private equity fund that was managed and sponsored by Lazard Frères & Co. LLC (which is currently managed by an affiliate of LFCM Holdings LLC) previously held preferred shares and units in the Parent and an affiliate of the Parent and continues to hold a small number of Parent Common Shares.

Our engagement and the opinion expressed herein are for the benefit of the Company's Board of Trustees and our opinion is rendered to the Company's Board of Trustees in connection with its consideration of the REIT Merger Transaction and is not intended to confer rights or remedies upon Parent, any security holder of Parent or the Company or any other person. This opinion is not intended to and does not constitute a recommendation to any holder of the Company Common Shares as to whether such holder should vote for the REIT Merger Transaction. It is understood that this letter may not be disclosed or otherwise referred to without our prior written consent.

Based on and subject to the foregoing, we are of the opinion that, as of the date hereof, the REIT Merger Consideration to be paid to the Public Shareholders in the REIT Merger Transaction is fair to such Public Shareholders from a financial point of view.

Very truly yours,

LAZARD FRERES & CO. LLC

PART II
INFORMATION NOT REQUIRED IN PROSPECTUS

Item 20. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

Brandywine Realty Trust

The Maryland REIT Law permits a Maryland real estate investment trust to include in its Declaration of Trust a provision limiting the liability of its trustees and officers to the trust and its shareholders for money damages except for liability resulting from (1) actual receipt of an improper benefit or profit in money, property or services or (2) active and deliberate dishonesty established by a final judgment as being material to the cause of action. Brandywine's Declaration of Trust contains a provision which eliminates such liability to the maximum extent permitted by the Maryland REIT Law.

The Maryland REIT Law permits a Maryland REIT to indemnify and advance expenses to its trustees and officers to the same extent as permitted for directors and officers of a Maryland corporation under the Maryland General Corporation Law. In the case of directors and officers of a Maryland corporation, the Maryland General Corporation Law permits a Maryland corporation to indemnify present and former directors and officers against judgments, penalties, fines, settlements and reasonable expenses actually incurred by them in connection with any proceeding to which they may be made a party by reason of such service, unless it is established that either: (1) the act or omission of the director or officer was material to the matter giving rise to the proceeding and either (a) was committed in bad faith or (b) was the result of active and deliberate dishonesty; (2) the director or officer actually received an improper personal benefit in money, property or services; or (3) in the case of any criminal proceeding, the director or officer had reasonable cause to believe that the act or omission was unlawful.

Brandywine's Bylaws require Brandywine to indemnify, without a preliminary determination of the ultimate entitlement to indemnification: (1) any present or former trustee, officer or shareholder who has been successful, on the merits or otherwise, in the defense of a proceeding to which he was made a party by reason of such status, against reasonable expenses incurred by him in connection with the proceeding; (2) any present or former trustee or officer against any claim or liability to which he may become subject by reason of such status unless it is established that (a) his act or omission was committed in bad faith or was the result of active and deliberate dishonesty, (b) he actually received an improper personal benefit in money, property or services or (c) in the case of a criminal proceeding, he had reasonable cause to believe that his act or omission was unlawful; and (3) each shareholder or former shareholder against any claim or liability to which he may be subject by reason of such status as a shareholder or former shareholder.

In addition, Brandywine's Bylaws require Brandywine to pay or reimburse, in advance of final disposition of a proceeding, reasonable expenses incurred by a present or former trustee, officer or shareholder made a party to a proceeding by reason of his status as a trustee, officer or shareholder provided that, in the case of a trustee or officer, Brandywine shall have received (1) a written affirmation by the trustee or officer of his good faith belief that he has met the applicable standard of conduct necessary for indemnification by Brandywine as authorized by the Bylaws and (2) a written undertaking by him or on his behalf to repay the amount paid or reimbursed by Brandywine if it shall ultimately be determined that the applicable standard of conduct was not met. The Bylaws also (1) permit Brandywine, with the approval of its trustees, to provide indemnification and payment or reimbursement of expenses to a present or former trustee, officer or shareholder who served Brandywine's predecessor in such capacity, and to any of Brandywine's employees or agents of its predecessor, (2) provide that any indemnification or payment or reimbursement of the expenses permitted by our Bylaws shall be furnished in accordance with the procedures provided for indemnification and payment or reimbursement of expenses under Section 2-418 of the Maryland General Corporation Law for directors of Maryland corporations and (3) permit Brandywine to provide such other and further indemnification or payment or reimbursement of expenses as may be permitted by the Maryland General Corporation Law for directors of Maryland corporations.

Brandywine Operating Partnership, L.P.

The limited partnership agreement of Brandywine Operating Partnership, L.P., referred to in the prospectus as the Brandywine Operating Partnership, also provides for indemnification by the Brandywine Operating Partnership of Brandywine and its trustees and officers for any costs, expenses or liabilities incurred by them by reason of any act performed by them for or on behalf of the Brandywine Operating Partnership; provided that such person's conduct was taken in good faith and in the belief that such conduct was in the best interests of the Brandywine Operating Partnership and that such person was not guilty of fraud, willful misconduct or gross negligence.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to our trustees and officers pursuant to the foregoing provisions or otherwise, we have been advised that, although the validity and scope of the governing statute has not been tested in court, in the opinion of the SEC, such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In addition, indemnification may be limited by state securities laws.

 Pursuant to Item 601(b)(2) of Regulation S-K, the Exhibits and Schedules to the Merger Agreement have been omitted. Such Exhibits and Schedules will be submitted to the Securities and Exchange Commission upon request.

Item 22. Undertakings.

(a) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

(1) That prior to any public reoffering of the securities registered hereunder through use of a prospectus which is a part of this registration statement, by any person or party who is deemed to be an underwriter within the meaning of Rule 145(c), the issuer undertakes that such reoffering prospectus will contain the information called for by the applicable registration form with respect to reofferings by persons who may be deemed underwriters, in addition to the information called for by the other items of the applicable form.

(2) That every prospectus (i) that is filed pursuant to paragraph (1) immediately preceding, or (ii) that purports to meet the requirements of Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933 and is used in connection with an offering of securities subject to Rule 415, will be filed as a part of an amendment to the registration statement and will not be used until such amendment is effective, and that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time will be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:

(i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in the volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the SEC pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20 percent change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the “Calculation of Registration Fee” table in the effective registration statement;

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement.

(4) That, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(5) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered herein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(6) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(7) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to our directors, officers and controlling persons pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, we have been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. If a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by us of expenses incurred or paid by one of our directors, officers or controlling persons in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the notes being registered, we will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

(b) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to respond to requests for information that is incorporated by reference into the prospectus pursuant to Items 4, 10(b), 11 or 13 of this Form, within one business day of receipt of such request, and to send the incorporated documents by first class mail or other equally prompt means. This includes information contained in documents filed subsequent to the effective date of the registration statement through the date of responding to the request.

(c) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to supply by means of a post-effective amendment all information concerning a transaction, and the company being acquired involved therein, that was not the subject of and included in the registration statement when it became effective.

SIGNATURES

Pursuant to the requirements of the Securities Act, the registrant has duly caused this registration statement to be signed on its behalf by the undersigned, thereunto duly authorized, in the City of Philadelphia, Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, on this 27th day of October, 2005.
