Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Merger Agreement

On September 20, 2009, Perot Systems Corporation, a Delaware corporation (the Company), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement) by and among the Company, Dell Inc., a Delaware corporation (Dell), and DII - Holdings Inc., a Delaware corporation and an indirect wholly owned subsidiary of Dell (Purchaser).

Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, subject to the terms and conditions thereof, Purchaser will commence a tender offer (the Offer) to purchase all of the outstanding shares of Class A common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of the Company (the Shares) at a purchase price of $30.00 per share in cash, without interest thereon (the Offer Price). Upon successful completion of the Offer, and subject to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, Purchaser will be merged with and into the Company (the Merger), and the Company will survive the Merger as an indirect wholly owned subsidiary of Dell.

Purchaser has agreed to commence the Offer by no later than October 2, 2009, and the Offer shall remain open for at least 20 business days. Consummation of the Offer and the Merger is subject to the satisfaction or waiver of a number of customary closing conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement, including, among others, that (i) there is validly tendered (and not withdrawn) at least 66 2/3% of the Shares determined on a fully-diluted basis, (ii) certain regulatory clearances have been obtained by the parties, including the expiration of the waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended, and clearances under antitrust laws of other countries, (iii) a material adverse effect to the Company shall not have occurred, and (iv) the other conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement have been satisfied or waived.

Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, the Company granted Dell and Purchaser, subject to certain conditions and limitations, an irrevocable option to purchase, following completion of the Offer and at the Offer Price, a number of Shares that, when added to the number of Shares owned by Dell or Purchaser at the time of exercise of the option, constitutes one share more than 90% of the fully-diluted Shares (the Top-Up Option). The Top-Up Option is intended to expedite the timing of the completion of the Merger by effecting the Merger pursuant to Delaware s short form merger statute. Following the Offer and, if necessary, the exercise of the Top-Up Option, if Purchaser does not own at least 90% of the outstanding Shares, a Company stockholder vote is required to consummate the Merger. In such case, the approval of the Merger at a meeting of the Company s stockholders would be assured because of Purchaser s ownership of at least 66 2/3% of the Shares following completion of the Offer.

At the effective time of the Merger (the Effective Time), each outstanding Share, other than Shares owned by Dell or its subsidiaries immediately prior to the Effective Time, or which have been cashed out or settled pursuant to the Company s equity based compensation plans (Stock Plans) as described in the following sentence, will automatically be converted into the right to receive the Offer Price on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement. The Merger Agreement provides that options to purchase Shares and stock appreciation rights settleable in Shares (collectively, Company Stock Option Awards) granted under any of the Company s Stock Plans immediately prior to the time that Dell owns at least 80% of the outstanding Shares for purposes of section 1504 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Threshold Time), will vest and be cancelled immediately following the Threshold Time, and the holder of such Company Stock Option Award will receive from Dell or Purchaser an amount (subject to any applicable withholding tax) in cash equal to the product of (x) the excess, if any, of the Offer Price over the exercise or base price, as applicable, per share of each such Company Stock Option Award, multiplied by (y) the total number of Shares subject to such Company Stock Option Award. The Merger Agreement further provides that each restricted stock unit award and restricted stock award (a Restricted Stock Award) that is outstanding under any Stock Plan immediately before the Threshold Time, will vest and be cancelled immediately following the Threshold Time and converted into the right to receive an amount (subject to any applicable withholding tax) in cash equal to the product of (x) the Offer Price multiplied by (y) the total number of Shares subject to such Restricted Stock Award. Purchaser shall pay the foregoing consideration to the holders of Company Stock Option Awards and Restricted Stock Awards as soon as administratively practicable following the Threshold Time. Certain executive officers of the Company may elect to convert a percentage of the consideration otherwise payable in the Merger with respect to their Company Stock Option Awards or Restricted Stock Awards into restricted stock unit awards of Dell.

The Merger Agreement further provides that, upon payment for the Shares pursuant to the Offer, Dell shall be entitled to designate a number of directors to the Board of Directors of the Company (the Board) in proportion with the percentage of the Shares it owns following the Offer. Between such time and the Effective Time, the Board will have at least three directors who are directors of the Company on the date of the Merger Agreement and who are neither officers of the Company nor designees or affiliates of Dell.

Dell, Purchaser and the Company have made customary representations and warranties in the Merger Agreement and agreed to certain customary covenants, including covenants regarding operation of the business of the Company and its subsidiaries prior to the closing.

In addition, the Company has made certain covenants restricting the Company from soliciting, or providing information or entering into discussions concerning, proposals relating to alternative business combination transactions. However, the Company may take such actions with respect to unsolicited proposals that the Board determines in good faith that (i) such proposals are, or could reasonably be expected to result in a proposal superior to the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, and (ii) such actions are necessary to comply with the Board's fiduciary duties. In such circumstances, and subject to certain obligations to notify Dell and permit Dell to negotiate the adjustment of the Merger Agreement to match the superior proposal, the Board may cause the Company to terminate the Merger Agreement in response to such superior proposal. Upon termination of the Merger Agreement in such circumstances or certain other situations, the Company is obligated to pay Dell a termination fee of $130,000,000. Moreover, if Dell terminates the Merger Agreement as a result of a breach of the Company's representations or warranties or the Company's failure to perform in any material respect under the Merger Agreement, which causes a failure of the Offer conditions and which is not cured, then the Company agrees to pay Dell's reasonable out of pocket fees and expenses up to $40,000,000.

The foregoing description of the Merger Agreement is only a summary, does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Merger Agreement, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 2.1 to this Form 8-K and incorporated herein by reference.

Additional Agreements

As inducement to Dell to enter into the Merger Agreement, certain officers, directors and principal stockholders of the Company (as listed below in the description to Exhibit 2.2 and Exhibit 2.3 of Item 9.01) (the Tendering Stockholders) have agreed to tender their Shares in connection with the Offer and to vote in favor of the Merger pursuant to Tender and Voting Agreements, dated September 20, 2009, entered into with Dell, Purchaser and the Company (the Tender Agreements). In addition, such Tendering Stockholders have agreed, subject to certain exceptions, to refrain from disposing of their Shares and soliciting alternative acquisition proposals to the Merger.

The foregoing description of the Tender Agreements is only a summary, does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Tender Agreements, forms of which are filed as Exhibit 2.2 and Exhibit 2.3 to this Form 8-K and incorporated herein by reference.

Further, in connection with the execution of the Merger Agreement, the Company's executive officers and certain other officers entered into employment arrangements with Dell, effective upon completion of the Merger.

Additionally, in connection with the execution of the Merger Agreement, H. Ross Perot and Ross Perot, Jr. have signed noncompetition and nonsolicitation agreements with Dell and the Company that limit their ability to compete with the Company or solicit its employees or customers for a period ending December 31, 2014. If the Merger Agreement is terminated prior to the closing of the Offer, such agreements will not become effective and will have no force or effect.

Moreover, in connection with the execution of the Merger Agreement, Perot Systems Family Corporation, a Texas corporation, H. Ross Perot, Ross Perot, Jr. (collectively, Licensor) and the Company have entered into the Third Amended and Restated License Agreement, dated September 20, 2009 (the License Agreement), pursuant to which Licensor grants the Company and its affiliates an exclusive, royalty-free license to use Perot Systems and Perot in connection with the Company's current businesses, products, services and charitable activities, and its future operations and activities resulting from the expansion of, and the integration with, Dell's services and businesses. The License Agreement shall terminate automatically and without further action by Licensor or the Company in the event that the Merger Agreement is terminated in accordance with its terms.

The foregoing description of the License Agreement is only a summary, does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the License Agreement, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 10.1 to this Form 8-K and incorporated herein by reference.
