The amounts in this column for 1999 include the following: Mr. Strandberg - $50,442 for automobile expenses, club membership dues and fees and premiums on enhanced life and disability policies; Mr. West - $70,000 for sign-on bonus and other amounts for automobile expenses and premiums on enhanced life and disability policies; Mr. Davis - $30,366 for automobile expenses and premiums on enhanced life and disability policies.

- (3) Restricted stock awards are valued in the table above at their fair market value based on the closing price for the Company's Common Shares as reported by The Nasdaq Stock Market(R) on the date of award. On March 25, 1998, Mr. Strandberg was awarded 37,500 restricted shares. The closing price of the Company's Common Shares on that date was $10.75. At the end of the 1998 fiscal year, the fair market value of Mr. Strandberg's restricted stock holdings was $356,250, based upon the closing price of the Company's Common Shares on December 31, 1998 of $9.50. As set forth in the original award, the restrictions on 50% of such shares would lapse in four equal annual installments on March 25, 1999, March 25, 2000, March 25, 2001 and March 25, 2002 so long as Mr. Strandberg was an officer on such dates. The restrictions on the other 50% of the shares would not lapse unless and until certain performance levels for the Company's shares were attained - with respect to 6,250 shares, at such time as the trading price of the Company's Common Shares equals or exceeds $14.30 per share for seven consecutive days at any time prior to March 25, 2002; with respect to 6,250 shares, at such time as the trading price of the Company's Common Shares equals or exceeds $16.87 per share for seven consecutive days at any time prior to March 25, 2002; and with respect to 6,250 shares, at such time as the trading price of the Company's Common Shares equals or exceeds $19.57 per share for seven consecutive days at any time prior to March 25, 2002. If the trading price of the shares did not reach the specified performance levels by March 25, 2002, all shares still subject to the restrictions would be returned to or cancelled by the Company. In connection with Mr. Strandberg's resignation, the Board, as of August 22, 2000, waived all restrictions still remaining on the shares and all of the restrictions were deemed to have lapsed. See "EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION - Employment Contracts and Severance and Change-in-Control Agreements - Robert C. Strandberg."

- (7) The amounts set forth as salary for 1998 represents the cash payment to Mr. Strandberg for the period June 1, 1998 through December 31, 1998. Pursuant to his Employment Agreement, Mr. Strandberg elected to receive all of his base salary ($240,000) for the period between June 1, 1997 and May 31, 1998 in the form of stock options. Accordingly, on June 2, 1997, Mr. Strandberg received a stock option to purchase 73,846 shares at an exercise price of $6.50 per share (the fair market value of the Company's Common Shares on the date of grant). Said option vested in four equal quarterly installments on August 31, 1997, November 30, 1997, February 28, 1998 and May 31, 1998 and, as amended, expires on December 31, 2000.

Options and Stock Appreciation Rights

The following tables summarize option grants to, and exercises by, the Named Executive Officers in fiscal 2000, and the value of the options held by such persons at the end of fiscal 2000. No stock appreciation rights have ever been granted by the Company.

Bert W. Wasserman (8)	50,000	4.9%	$3.594	8/25/01

- (1) The potential realizable value portion of the table illustrates the value that might be realized upon exercise of the options immediately prior to the expiration of their term, assuming the specified compounded rates of appreciation on the Company's Common Shares over the term of the options. This hypothetical value is based entirely on assumed annual growth rates of 5% and 10% in the Company's stock price over the term of the options granted in 2000. The assumed rates of growth were selected by the Securities and Exchange Commission for illustration purposes only, and are not intended to predict future performance and prospects. These numbers do not take into account provisions of certain options providing for termination of the option following termination of employment, nontransferability or vesting over various periods.
- (2) Percentages indicated are based on a total of 1,025,000 options granted to 21 individuals (13 employees and 8 directors) during 2000.
- (3) The exercise price per share is 100% of fair market value of the Company's Common Shares on the date of grant.
- (4) All stock options expire five years from the date of grant.
- (5) See "EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION - Employment Contracts and Severance and Change-in-Control Arrangements - Edward J. Borey".

(1) An individual, upon exercise of an option, does not receive cash equal to the amount contained in the Value Realized column of this table. Instead, the amounts contained in the Value Realized column reflect the increase in the price of the Company's Common Shares from the option grant date to the option exercise date. Value is calculated based on the difference between the option price and the closing market price of the Common Shares on the date of exercise multiplied by the number of shares to which the exercise relates. No cash is realized until the shares received upon exercise of an option are sold.

(2) The closing price for the Company's Common Shares as reported by The Nasdaq Stock Market(R) on December 31, 2000 was $0.75. Value is calculated on the basis of the difference between the option price and $0.75 multiplied by the number of Common Shares underlying the option. An option is in-the-money if the market value of the Common Shares subject to the option exceeds the option price.

Employment Contracts and Severance and Change-in-Control Arrangements

Edward J. Borey

On December 4, 2000, the Company and Edward J. Borey entered into an Employment Agreement (the "Borey Agreement") pursuant to which Mr. Borey was employed as President and Chief Executive Officer. The "Initial Term" under the Borey Agreement will expire on December 31, 2003. However, unless written notice is given to the contrary by either the Company or Mr. Borey at least four months prior to the expiration date, the employment period will automatically be extended for an additional one-year term (each an "Additional Term"). Under the Borey Agreement, Mr. Borey will receive a base salary at the annual rate of $360,000. In addition, under the Borey Agreement, for 2001 Mr. Borey will receive a performance bonus in an amount not less than $360,000, and for calendar years thereafter, if certain performance goals and targets determined by the Company's Board of Directors for the Company's Management Incentive Plan ("MIP") are met, he will be entitled to receive a performance bonus ranging from 30% to 150% of his base salary with no performance bonus if the performance goal is not achieved. Mr. Borey is eligible to participate in employee benefit plans generally made available by the Company to its executive officers and to receive reimbursement for reasonable relocation expenses.

Edgar Filing: PSC INC - Form 10-K/A

Pursuant to his Agreement, on December 4, 2000, Mr. Borey received a stock option for 500,000 Common Shares at an exercise price of $1.75, the Fair Market Value of the Company's Common Shares on the Date of Grant. In January 2001, the options were repriced to $1.1875. The options vest in three equal annual installments commencing one year from the Date of Grant, but no options may be exercised unless and until the trading price of the Company's Common Shares equals or exceeds $3.00 per share for twenty consecutive days. If the trading price does not reach the specified goal, the options may nevertheless be fully exercisable after June 4, 2005. The options expire on December 4, 2005.

In the event the Company is adjudicated insolvent, Mr. Borey will be entitled to additional compensation to offset the decrease in the likelihood that there will be any value to his equity potential and bonus potential; accordingly, he will be entitled to a twofold increase in base salary and payment of 2% of the total gross sales of the Company assets in lieu of the bonus payments. Also, in the event the Company is adjudicated insolvent, Mr. Borey will be entitled, at his discretion, to terminate his employment relationship with the Company upon sixty (60) days written notice. If such termination option is exercised and occurs prior to December 4, 2001, he will be entitled to a severance payment equal to his base salary for one year and his bonus for one year at 100% of target. If such termination option is exercised and occurs after December 4, 2001, he will be entitled to a severance payment equal to the greater of (a) his base salary and bonuses for the unexpired portion of the term or (b) his base salary for one year and his bonus for one year at 100% of target.

The Borey Agreement contains provisions relating to confidentiality, non-competition and Change-in-Control (as defined below).

In the event of the termination of Mr. Borey's services by the Company for any reason other than Cause (as defined below) or a Change-in-Control (as defined below) or upon the resignation of Mr. Borey for Good Reason (as defined below), the Company will pay Mr. Borey an amount equal to the greater of (a) Mr. Borey's base salary and bonuses at 100% of target for the unexpired portion of the term or (b) Mr. Borey's base salary for one year and his bonus for one year at 100% of target, and all benefits will continue for a period equal to the greater of the periods set forth in (a) or (b) above. Under certain circumstances, the severance payments to Mr. Borey may be offset if he receives compensation from a third party.

In the event Mr. Borey terminates his employment for any reason within ninety days after the occurrence of a Change-in-Control or in the event of the termination of Mr. Borey's services within the two-year period following a Change-in-Control of the Company and such termination is (a) by the Company or its successor for any reason other than Cause or (b) by Mr. Borey for Good Reason (as defined below) following a Change-in-Control, the Company will pay Mr. Borey an amount equal to the product of the sum of (x) his base salary and (y) the highest annual bonus paid to him in the three full fiscal years preceding termination multiplied by 2.9. Said amount will be payable in the manner elected by Mr. Borey (in a lump sum cash payment, in three equal annual installments or in equal bi-weekly installments over a three-year period). All benefits will also continue for a period of three years after such termination.

If any of the payments to Mr. Borey are considered "excess parachute payments" as defined in Section 280G of the Internal Revenue Code, the payments will be reduced to avoid such a characterization.

Robert C. Strandberg

Employment Agreement

Effective June 2, 1998, the Company entered into an Employment Agreement with Mr. Strandberg, which was amended in December 1998 and July 1999 (the Employment Agreement, as amended, is referred to as the "Strandberg Agreement"), and which would have expired on December 31, 2000. However, Mr. Strandberg resigned as President and Chief Executive Officer on August 22, 2000. Under the Strandberg Agreement, Mr. Strandberg received an annual base salary of $336,000. In addition, under the Strandberg Agreement, if certain performance goals and targets determined annually by the Company's Board of Directors for the Company's Management Incentive Plan ("MIP") were met, Mr. Strandberg was entitled to receive a performance bonus for that year ranging from 40% to 170% of his base salary with no performance bonus if the performance goal was not achieved in a particular year. Mr. Strandberg was also eligible to participate in employee benefit plans generally made available by the Company to its executive officers.

The Strandberg Agreement contained provisions relating to confidentiality, non-competition and Change-in-Control (as defined below).

Pursuant to the Strandberg Agreement, in March 1998 Mr. Strandberg received an award of 37,500 restricted shares which could not be sold, transferred or otherwise disposed of until the restrictions lapse. See Footnote (3) to the Summary Compensation Table for further details with respect to the restricted shares. Pursuant to the Strandberg Agreement, on March 25, 1999, Mr. Strandberg received an option for 37,500 Common Shares at an exercise price of $8.625 per share (the Fair Market Value of the Company's Common Shares on the date of grant). This option replaced the award of 37,500 restricted shares which would have been awarded on March 25, 1999 and represented a 50% reduction in the size of the option grant to which he otherwise would have been entitled. Of the 37,500 stock options granted, options for 18,750 shares vested as follows: 4,688 on March 25, 2000; 4,687 on March 25, 2001; 4,688 on March 25, 2002; and 4,687 on March 25, 2003. The options for the remaining 18,750 shares did not vest unless and until certain performance levels for the Company's Common Shares were attained. The options expire on March 25, 2004.

Pursuant to the Strandberg Agreement, effective as of March 25, 2000, Mr. Strandberg received an option for 37,500 Common Shares, at an exercise price of $6.00 per share (the Fair Market Value of the Company's Common Shares on the date of grant). This option represented a 50% reduction in the size of the option grant to which he otherwise would have been entitled pursuant to his Agreement. Of the 37,500 stock options granted, options for 18,750 shares vested as follows: 4,688 on March 25, 2001; 4,687 on March 25, 2002; 4,688 on March 25,

2003; and 4,687 on March 25, 2004. The remaining 18,750 shares did not vest unless and until certain performance levels for the Company's Common Shares were attained -- with respect to 6,250 shares, at such time as the Fair Market Value of the Company's Common Shares equals or exceeds $7.98 per share for seven consecutive days; with respect to 6,250 shares, at such time as the Fair Market Value of the Company's Common Shares equals or exceeds $9.41 per share for seven consecutive days; and with respect to 6,250 shares, at such time as the Fair Market Value of the Company's Common Shares equals or exceeds $10.92 per share for seven consecutive days. If the specified performance goals were not reached, the options would nevertheless become fully exercisable after December 1, 2004 in order to maintain favorable accounting treatment. The options expire on March 25, 2005.

Severance Arrangements

On August 22, 2000, Mr. Strandberg resigned all his positions and offices, including those of President, Chief Executive Officer and member of the Board of Directors. Pursuant to resolutions adopted by the Board, the Company will continue to pay Mr. Strandberg, for a period of one year, his base salary of $336,000 and all current health, dental, life and accidental death and dismemberment insurance benefits and certain incidental benefits. In addition, all options held by Mr. Strandberg were deemed fully vested as of August 22, 2000 and may be exercised until the earlier of (i) the date on which the option expires by its terms or (ii) August 22, 2003. Also, all restrictions on the restricted shares owned by Mr. Strandberg were waived by the Board and were deemed to have lapsed as of August 22, 2000. Certain obligations in Mr. Strandberg's prior Employment Agreement relating to confidentiality and non-competition remain in effect in accordance with their terms.

George A. Plesko

Following the acquisition of GAP Technologies, Inc. and GEO Labs, Inc., the Company on December 21, 1999 entered into an Employment Agreement and a Non-Competition and Confidentiality Agreement (the "Plesko Agreements") with George A. Plesko, pursuant to which Mr. Plesko was employed as a Senior Vice President. The "Initial Term" under the Plesko Agreements will expire on December 20, 2002. Under the Plesko Agreements, Mr. Plesko will receive a base salary at the annual rate of $200,000. In addition, if certain performance goals and targets determined annually by the Company's Board of Directors are met, Mr. Plesko will be entitled to receive a performance bonus of up to 35% of base salary. Pursuant to the Plesko Agreements, on January 3, 2000 Mr. Plesko received a stock option for 20,000 Common Shares at an exercise price of $7.625, the Fair Market Value of the Company's Common Shares on the Date of Grant. On October 23, 2000, the options were repriced to $2.50 per share. The options vest and are exercisable in four equal annual installments commencing one year from the Date of Grant. Mr. Plesko is also eligible to participate in employee benefit plans generally made available by the Company to its executive officers.

The Plesko Agreements contain provisions relating to confidentiality, non-competition and Change-in-Control (as defined below).

In the event of termination of employment or a Change-in-Control, Mr. Plesko's severance payments will be as described in "Severance/Change-in-Control Agreements" below, except that if Mr. Plesko is terminated by the Company prior to the expiration of the initial three-year term, he will be entitled to severance payments for a period equal to the then remaining portion of the three-year term.

Severance/Change-in-Control Agreements

Edgar Filing: PSC INC - Form 10-K/A

Severance/Change-in-Control Agreements have been entered into with all senior executive officers in order to assure the Company of the continued services of those executives to the Company in an effective manner without distraction by reason of the possibility of a termination of employment by the Company or a change in control of the Company. In general, all provide that in the event of the termination of the executive's employment by the Company, for any reason other than Termination for Cause (as defined below), death, disability or a Change-in-Control (as defined below), the Company will continue to pay the executive for a period of one year (two years in the case of William L. Parnell, Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer) following such termination an amount equal to the executive's salary at the annual rate then in effect. In addition, the Company will provide the executive with the executive's then current health, dental, life and accidental death and dismemberment insurance benefits for a period of one year following such termination. Each agreement also contains a covenant not-to-compete during the one-year period (two year period in the case of Mr. Parnell) in which severance benefits are being paid. In the event of the termination of the executive's employment within the two-year period following a Change-in-Control (as defined below) of the Company, and such termination is (i) by the Company for any reason other than Termination for Cause (as defined below) or (ii) by the executive if the executive terminates such employment for Good Reason (as defined below), or in the case of Mr. Parnell, in addition, if he terminates his employment for any reason within 90 days after the occurrence of a Change-in-Control, the Company will pay the executive either over a period of three years or in a lump sum payment an amount equal to the product of the sum of (x) the executive's salary at the annual rate then in effect and (y) the highest annual bonus paid to the executive under the Company's current Management Incentive Plan or any successor plan in the three full fiscal years preceding termination multiplied by 2.9. In addition, the executive will be immediately vested in any retirement, incentive or option plans then in effect and the Company will continue to provide the executive with his or her then current health, dental, life and accidental death and dismemberment insurance benefits for a period of three years.

If any of the payments to the executive are considered "excess parachute payments" as defined in Section 280G of the Internal Revenue Code, the payments will be reduced to avoid such a characterization.

Certain Definitions. As used in the Borey Agreement, the Plesko Agreement, the Ehrlich Agreement (as defined below) and the Severance/Change-in-Control Agreements:

(a) Change-in-Control generally means the acquisition of 30% of the Company's voting securities, or a change of one-third of the incumbent Board of Directors without the prior approval of the members of the incumbent Board of Directors, or the merger or consolidation of the Company with another corporation where the shareholders of the Company would not, immediately after the merger or consolidation, own at least 50% of the voting securities of the corporation issuing the cash or securities in the merger or consolidation, or the sale of substantially all of the assets of the Company.

(b) Termination for Cause generally means the termination of the employment of an officer because the officer has failed or refused to perform such services as may reasonably be delegated to the officer consistent with the officer's position, or has been grossly negligent in connection with the performance of his or her duties, or has committed acts involving dishonesty, willful misconduct, breach of fiduciary duty, fraud, or any similar offense which materially affects the officer's ability to perform his or her duties for the Company or may materially adversely affect the Company, or has been convicted of a felony.

(c) Good Reason generally means an officer's annual rate of salary is reduced from the annual rate then currently in effect or the officer's other employee benefits are in the aggregate materially reduced from those then currently in effect, (unless such reduction of employee benefits applies to employees of the Company), or the officer's place of employment is moved from its then current location, or the officer is assigned duties that are demeaning or are otherwise materially inconsistent with the duties then currently performed by the officer.

(d) Termination without Cause generally means the termination of the employment of an officer for reasons other than death, disability, termination for cause or termination upon Change-in-Control.

Other Remuneration Arrangements

On August 22, 2000, Messrs. Ehrlich and Wasserman were appointed interim Co-Chief Executive Officers to serve until the appointment of a new President and Chief Executive Officer, which occurred on December 4, 2000. During such interim period, Mr. Wasserman received no fees as an outside director and Mr. Ehrlich received no fees under the Ehrlich Agreement (as defined below), but each received fees at the rate of $18,000 per month for so long as they served as interim Co-Chief Executive Officers.

In addition, Mr. Ehrlich received an option for 25,000 Common Shares and Mr. Wasserman received an option for 50,000 Common Shares. Each option was granted at an exercise price of $3.594 per share and each option vested in five equal monthly installments commencing on September 1, 2000. However, neither option may be exercised until such time as the fair market value of the Company's Common Shares equals or exceeds $5.391 per share for seven consecutive days. If the $5.391 price per share is not reached, the options will nevertheless become fully exercisable after April 1, 2005 in order to maintain favorable accounting treatment. Each option expires on August 25, 2005.

Compensation of Directors

In 2000, each non-employee director was paid $500 for each Board and Committee meeting attended by him, except that no more than $500 was paid if more than one meeting occurred on the same day. Also, each non-employee director received a retainer at the annual rate of $12,500 (the "Director Retainer"), and each Chairman of a Board Committee (except Mr. Ehrlich) received an additional annual retainer of $2,500 (the "Chairman Retainer"). Both the Director Retainer and the Chairman Retainer were paid in four equal installments on the last day of each calendar quarter. For 2000, an aggregate of $147,417 in meeting fees and retainers was paid in cash or in stock to the non-employee directors. Each non-employee director is also reimbursed the reasonable expenses incurred in attending the meeting. As noted above, Mr. Wasserman received no fees as a non-employee director between September 1, 2000 and December 31, 2000.

Pursuant to the PSC Inc. Compensation Plan for Non-Employee Directors, non-employee directors have the opportunity to receive payment of their compensation either in cash or in Common Shares. The directors may also elect to receive their compensation either currently or on a deferred basis. During 2000, no director chose to defer his compensation. If the amount to be deferred would have been payable in cash, the Company will credit a Deferral Account maintained for the director with an amount that would otherwise have been payable to the director in cash. If the amount to be deferred would have been payable in stock, the Company will credit units ("Stock Units") to a Unit Account maintained for the director. Directors make separate elections with respect to the manner of the payment of the compensation and the time of the payment of the compensation. The number of Common Shares issued or the number of Stock Units credited to a director's account will equal the cash amount of the compensation divided by the fair market value of one share of stock on the date on which such cash amount would otherwise have been paid. Stock Units and amounts in a Deferral Account are fully vested at all times. Payment of Stock Units (in full Common Shares) and the amounts in a Deferral Account must be deferred at least one year. The director chooses the date of the payment, which may be upon termination of service as a director. The maximum number of Common Shares that may be issued under the Plan is 50,000 shares.

The Company's 1994 Stock Option Plan (the "1994 Plan") provides that each member of the Board of Directors who is not also an employee or consultant of the Company will automatically receive on the date of the Annual Meeting of Shareholders a stock option for 6,500 Common Shares. On the date of the 2000 Annual Meeting of Shareholders, non-employee director stock options ("NEDSOs") to purchase 6,500 shares were granted to each non-employee director, at a purchase price of $1.625 per share, the fair market value on the date of the grant. Said NEDSOs are exercisable in their entirety on December 5, 2001 and terminate on December 5, 2005. No NEDSOs were granted to Messrs. Ehrlich, Strandberg or Borey in 2000.

In May 1998, the Board approved a compensation agreement with Mr. Ehrlich, Chairman of the Board, which was amended in December 1998 and July 1999 (the agreement, as amended, is referred to as the "Ehrlich Agreement") and which expired on December 31, 2000. Pursuant to the Ehrlich Agreement, for all services rendered to the Company as Chairman of the Board and as a consultant in such areas as strategic planning, corporate development, mergers and acquisitions and development of overseas markets, Mr. Ehrlich received compensation at the annual rate of $85,000. In 2000, Mr. Ehrlich received an aggregate of $56,667 pursuant to the Ehrlich Agreement and was also reimbursed for expenses incurred in the performance of his duties. As noted above, Mr. Ehrlich received no compensation under the Ehrlich Agreement between September 1, 2000 and December 31, 2000. The Ehrlich Agreement includes confidentiality and non-compete provisions and provides for a severance payment upon the termination of his position as Chairman of the Board as the result of a change-in-control in an amount equal to 2.9 times his annual rate of compensation to be paid over a period of three years. Pursuant to the Ehrlich Agreement, effective as of March 25, 2000, Mr. Ehrlich received an option for 17,500 Common Shares, at an exercise price of $6.00 per share (the Fair Market Value of the Company's Common Shares on the date of grant). This option represented a 50% reduction in the size of the option grant to which he otherwise would have been entitled. Of the 17,500 stock options granted, options for 8,750 shares will vest as follows: 2,188 on March 25, 2001; 2,187 on March 25, 2002; 2,188 on March 25, 2003; and 2,187 on March 25, 2004. The remaining 8,750 shares will not vest unless and until certain performance levels for the Company's Common Shares are attained - with respect to 2,916 shares, at such time as the Fair Market Value of the Company's Common Shares equals or exceeds $7.98 per share for seven consecutive days; with respect to 2,917 shares, at such as the Fair Market Value of the Company's Common Shares equals or exceeds $9.41 per share for seven consecutive days and with respect to 2,917 shares, at such time as the Fair Market Value of the Company's Common Shares equals or exceeds $10.92 per share for seven consecutive days. If the specified performance goals are not reached, the options will nevertheless become fully exercisable after December 1, 2004 in order to maintain favorable accounting treatment. The options will expire on

Edgar Filing: PSC INC - Form 10-K/A

March 25, 2005. In the event of a change-in-control and if Mr. Ehrlich becomes entitled to receive the severance payment set forth above, all of his options will immediately vest.
