Item 2.01. Completion of Acquisition or Disposition of Assets

On September 27, 2007, TeleTech Holdings, Inc. (TeleTech), a Delaware corporation, Newgen Results Corporation (Newgen), a Delaware corporation and wholly-owned subsidiary of TeleTech, Carabunga.com, Inc. (Carabunga), a Delaware corporation and wholly-owned subsidiary of Newgen and Newgen Results Canada, Ltd. (Newgen Canada), a Canadian Corporation and wholly-owned subsidiary of Newgen (Newgen, Carabunga and Newgen Canada are hereinafter collectively referred to as Newgen) entered into an Asset Purchase Agreement (Purchase Agreement) with Aspen Acquisition Holdings, L.L.C., a Delaware limited liability company (Aspen Acquisition) and Aspen Marketing Services, Inc., a Delaware corporation (Aspen), and wholly-owned subsidiary of Aspen Acquisition and closed the transactions contemplated thereby on September 28, 2007. As provided in the Purchase Agreement, Newgen sold substantially all of its assets and certain of its liabilities to Aspen for total cash consideration of $3.243 million. In addition to customary closing conditions, the transaction was subject to the execution of (i) a Software and Intellectual Property License Agreement between TeleTech and Aspen which provides for exclusive and non-exclusive licenses in certain territories to certain software known as Identify! and Identify! Plus; (ii) a Trademark License Agreement between TeleTech and Aspen which provides for certain licensed intellectual property rights to Identify! and Identify! Plus, and (iii) a Master Services Agreement and accompanying Statement of Work between TeleTech Services Corp. (TeleTech Services), a wholly-owned subsidiary of TeleTech, and Aspen whereby TeleTech Services will provide customer care management services on behalf of Aspen s customers estimated based on current head count to generate revenue of approximately $6 million per year. The Master Services Agreement has a three year term cancellable upon ninety days notice. Pursuant to the terms of the Software and Intellectual Property License Agreement and Trademark License Agreement, Aspen paid TeleTech $225,000 at closing and is obligated to pay TeleTech $2 million twelve months from the date of the closing for a two year exclusive license in certain territories. This agreement also provides for ongoing royalties. (The Purchase Agreement, the Software and Intellectual Property License Agreement, the Trademark License Agreement, Master Services Agreement and accompanying Statement of Work are collectively referred to as the Agreements).

The Purchase Agreement, Software and Intellectual Property License Agreement and the Trademark License Agreement were filed as Exhibits 2.1, 10.1 and 10.2 to the Company s Report on Form 8-K filed on October 3, 2007 and are incorporated into this report by reference. The Master Services Agreement and accompanying Statement of Work are agreements made in the ordinary course of business and therefore TeleTech determined it was not required to file such agreements as exhibits to this report or the report filed on Form 8-K on October 3, 2007.

Item 9.01. Financial Statements and Exhibits.

The accompanying unaudited financial information has been furnished pursuant to Article 11 of Regulation S-X (Article 11). In accordance with Article 11, the unaudited pro forma balance sheet as of June 30, 2007, the last day of our most recent fiscal second quarter, presents TeleTech's financial position as if Newgen sold substantially all of its assets and certain of its liabilities. The unaudited pro forma consolidated statements of operations for the six months ended June 30, 2007 and the year ended December 31, 2006 present TeleTech's operating results as if Newgen sold substantially all of its assets and certain of its liabilities as of January 1, 2006. Pro forma adjustments to reflect the sale have been applied to the historical balance sheet and statements of operations. These adjustments are based upon available information and certain assumptions that management believes are reasonable under the circumstances. The adjustments are described in the notes to the pro forma financial information and are set forth in the Pro Forma Adjustments of Disposition of Newgen columns.

The unaudited pro forma consolidated financial information is presented for informational purposes only. They do not purport to represent what our results of operations or financial position would have been had this transaction occurred on the dates indicated, and do not necessarily project our financial position at any future date or our results of operations for any future period. This unaudited pro forma financial information is derived from the historical financial information of TeleTech and presented on a stand-alone basis not including or incorporating any pro forma adjustments from any other transactions.

This pro forma financial information should be read in conjunction with TeleTech's 2006 Annual Report on Form 10-K, filed on February 7, 2007.

NOTE 1: PRO FORMA ADJUSTMENTS

Pro forma adjustments are necessary to reflect the condensed consolidated statement of operations as if the disposition was consummated on January 1, 2006 and are as follows:

- a. The Statement of Operations has been adjusted for the revenues and expenses of Newgen that were eliminated from the consolidated result of TeleTech as a result of the transaction which management believes are directly attributable to the transaction and will not continue after the transaction. The estimated loss on the sale of substantially all the assets of Newgen (hereafter "sale of Newgen") has not been included in the pro forma Statement of Operations but will be reflected in the historical statement of operations when the transaction is consummated.
- b. Pro Forma tax adjustments have been made at an effective tax rate of 39%.

Pro forma adjustments are necessary to reflect the consolidated balance sheet as if the disposition was consummated on June 30, 2007 and are as follows:

- a. To record the consideration received for the sale of Newgen and the software license, net of cash sold as a part of the transaction.
- b. To eliminate the assets and liabilities sold as a part of the Newgen transaction.
- c. To record $2 million receivable on the software license, net of prepaid assets sold as a part of the transaction.
- d. To eliminate accrued employee liabilities sold as a part of the transaction net of costs accrued related to the transaction including severance costs, costs associated with accelerated vesting of certain employee stock option grants, legal and other professional fees. In addition, the Company has accrued a liability to appropriately account for the fair value of certain transition services provided by Newgen and TeleTech to Aspen.
- e. To record preliminary loss on the disposal of the transaction, net of the software license with the tax impact recorded at an effective tax rate of 39%.

The Pro Forma Consolidated Statement of Operations for the year ended December 31, 2006 and the six months ended June 30, 2007 do not include any adjustments related to the Master Services Agreement and accompanying Statement of Work between TeleTech Services and Aspen whereby TeleTech Services will provide customer care management services on behalf of Aspen's customers. As disclosed in Item 2.01 above, based on the current headcount this would have been expected to generate approximately $6.3 million and $3.2 million in revenue for the year ended December 31, 2006 and the six months ended June 30, 2007, respectively.
