The Reporting Persons received the shares of Preferred Stock when the Issuer acquired Deerfield & Company LLC ("Deerfield") pursuant to a merger that involved the payment of a combination of the Issuer's Preferred Stock and notes in exchange for the Reporting Persons' interest in Deerfield (the "Merger").

Item 4. Purpose of Transaction.

On March 12, 2008, Triarc announced that its Board of Directors has approved the distribution of all of the Common Stock it owns to holders of its outstanding Class A Common Stock, par value $0.10 per share, and Class B Common Stock, par value $0.10 per share, through a special dividend as soon as practicable (the "Dividend"). On March 19, 2008, Triarc announced that the Dividend will be paid on April 4, 2008 to holders of record of the Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock on March 29, 2008.

With respect to the Common Stock, each of the Reporting Persons expects to evaluate on an ongoing basis the Issuer's financial condition and prospects and their interest in, and intentions with respect to, the Issuer. Accordingly, each of the Reporting Persons reserves the right to change their plans and intentions at any time, as they deem appropriate. In particular, each of the Reporting Persons may at any time and from time to time, in privately negotiated transactions or otherwise, acquire additional securities of the Issuer, including additional shares of Common Stock; dispose of all or a portion of the securities of the Issuer, including the shares of Common Stock that they now own or may hereafter acquire; and/or enter into derivative transactions with institutional counterparties to hedge the market risk of some or all of its positions in such securities.

As a result of these activities each of the Reporting Persons may suggest or take a position (including by contacting management and other shareholders of the Issuer) with respect to potential changes in the operations, management, or capital structure of the Issuer as a means of enhancing shareholder value. Such suggestions or positions may include one or more plans or proposals that relate to or would result in any of the actions required to be reported herein. Mr. May currently sits on the board of directors of the Issuer. Under the terms of the Agreement and Plan of Merger by and among the Issuer, DFR Merger Company, LLC, Deerfield and Triarc, as Sellers' Representative, dated as of December 17, 2007 (the "Merger Agreement"), for so long as Triarc and its affiliates own shares of the Issuer, subject to certain thresholds, Triarc shall have the power to nominate one director to serve on the Issuer's board of directors. After the completion of any distribution by Triarc to its stockholders of all of its shares of Common Stock Messrs. Peltz and May will have the power to nominate one director to serve on the Issuer's board of directors for so long as they own at least 2/3 of the Common Stock they receive in such distribution.

Item 5. Interest in Securities of the Issuer.

- (i) By virtue of the relationship disclosed in Item 6 below, which is incorporated herein by reference, Triarc is the indirect beneficial owner of 9,835,010 shares of Common Stock, which represent 14.7% of the issued and outstanding shares of Common Stock;
- (ii) By virtue of the relationships disclosed in Item 6 below, which is incorporated herein by reference, Mr. Peltz may be deemed to be the indirect beneficial owner of 10,503,177 shares of Common Stock, which represent 15.7% of the issued and outstanding shares of Common Stock; and
- (iii) By virtue of the relationships disclosed in Item 6 below, which is incorporated herein by reference, Mr. May may be deemed to be the indirect beneficial owner of 10,178,343 shares of Common Stock, which represent 15.3% of the issued and outstanding shares of Common Stock.

This report shall not be deemed an admission that the Reporting Persons are the beneficial owners of such securities.

The percentage of the Common Stock beneficially owned or deemed to be beneficially owned by each of the Reporting Persons as set forth above is based on the Issuer's Current Report on Form 8-K filed March 13, 2008.

Triarc

As of March 20, 2008, by virtue of the relationships disclosed in Item 6 below, which is incorporated herein by reference, Triarc has or may be deemed to have shared voting and investment power with respect to 9,835,010 shares of Common Stock.

Peltz

As of March 20, 2008, Mr. Peltz has or may be deemed to have sole voting and investment power with respect to 666,667 shares of Common Stock, and, by virtue of the relationships disclosed in Item 6 below, which is incorporated herein by reference, has or may be deemed to have shared voting and investment power with respect to 9,836,510 shares of Common Stock.

May

As of March 20, 2008, Mr. May has or may be deemed to have sole voting and investment power with respect to 343,333 shares of Common Stock, and, by virtue of the relationships disclosed in Item 6 below, which is incorporated herein by reference, has or may be deemed to have shared voting and investment power with respect to 9,835,010 shares of Common Stock.

(c) During the last 60 days, Triarc has received 9,835,010 shares of Common Stock from its subsidiary Triarc Deerfield Holdings, LLC (“TDH”), which is in the process of being liquidated.

(d) Messrs. May and Peltz are on the board of directors of Triarc. Messrs. Peltz and May are parties to a voting agreement amongst themselves, pursuant to which they have agreed not to vote certain shares of Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock of Triarc held by them or their affiliates without the prior approval of both parties. Accordingly, the information set forth throughout this Schedule 13D aggregates their respective ownership interests in Triarc. Together, Messrs. Peltz and May may be deemed to beneficially own approximately 37.2% of the Class A Common Stock of Triarc, 21.7% of the Class B Common Stock of Triarc and 34.4% of the combined voting power of Triarc and by virtue of such status Messrs. May and Peltz may be deemed to have the power to direct the receipt of dividends from, or the proceeds from the sale of, the shares of Common Stock held by Triarc.

(e) Not applicable.

Item 6. Contracts, Arrangements, Understandings or Relationship with Respect to Securities of the Issuer.

The disclosure under Item 3 and Item 4 hereof is incorporated by reference.

Mr. Peltz is the Chairman of Triarc, and may be deemed to beneficially own approximately 36.7% of the Class A Common Stock of Triarc, 21.6% of the Class B Common Stock of Triarc and 34.0% of the combined voting power of Triarc. Mr. Peltz therefore has significant control over the election of the members of the board of directors of Triarc and other significant matters with respect to the business and affairs of Triarc, including voting and investment decisions with respect to the 9,835,010 shares of Common Stock held by Triarc.

Mr. May is the Vice Chairman of Triarc, and may be deemed to beneficially own approximately 37.2% of the Class A Common Stock of Triarc, 21.3% of the Class B Common Stock of Triarc and 34.3% of the combined voting power of Triarc. Mr. May therefore has significant control over the election of the members of the board of directors of Triarc and other significant matters with respect to the business and affairs of Triarc, including voting and investment decisions with respect to the 9,835,010 shares of Common Stock held by Triarc.

Board Rights. In connection with the Merger, Mr. Peltz resigned from, and Mr. May was appointed to, the board of directors of the Issuer. Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, for so long as Triarc and its affiliates own shares of the Issuer, subject to certain thresholds, Triarc shall have the power to nominate one director to serve on the Issuer's board of directors. After the completion of any distribution by Triarc to its stockholders of all of its shares of Common Stock Messrs. Peltz and May will have the power to nominate one director to serve on the Issuer's board of directors for so long as they own at least 2/3 of the Common Stock they receive in such distribution.

Registration Rights Agreement. In connection with the Merger, Triarc's subsidiary, TDH, entered into a registration rights agreement dated December 21, 2007, (the "Registration Rights Agreement") with the Issuer and the parties identified as stockholders on the signature pages thereto, namely the former members of Deerfield that received the Issuer's shares in connection with or prior to the Merger. Triarc became a party to the Registration Rights Agreement pursuant to a joinder agreement dated as of March 11, 2008. The Registration Rights Agreement provides, among other things, that:

- The Issuer must prepare and file, no later than 30 days after entering into the Registration Rights Agreement, a "shelf" registration statement registering the resale of "registrable securities." The Registration Rights Agreement defines "registrable securities" as shares of the Issuer's Series A Preferred Stock issued pursuant to the Merger, shares of Common Stock previously held by Deerfield or its affiliates that were distributed pursuant to the Merger or prior to the Merger and shares of Common Stock issuable upon conversion of the Issuer's Series A Preferred Stock. The "shelf" registration statement has been filed and declared effective by the SEC, and registers such shares for resale or distribution from time to time, on a continuous basis, at the discretion of the holders of the shares.
  - The Issuer must use commercially reasonable efforts to keep the resale shelf registration statement continuously effective (subject to specified limitations) for a period of two years or until such shares of the Issuer's Series A Preferred Stock, if any, or the Common Stock cease to be "registrable securities."
  - After the expiration of the effectiveness period of the shelf registration statement, in the event holders representing at least 20% of the "registrable securities" then outstanding owned by certain affiliates of Triarc (including Messrs. Peltz and May) or Gregory H. Sachs so demand, the Issuer must prepare and file with the SEC a registration statement registering the shares held by such holders for resale. The Issuer is not obligated to register shares upon such demand more than one time with respect to the Triarc affiliates and one time with respect to the Sachs affiliates.
  - After the expiration of the effectiveness period of the shelf registration statement, in the event the Issuer determines to prepare and file with the SEC a registration statement registering any shares of its Common Stock, the holders of "registrable securities" then outstanding may seek to "piggyback" their shares of the Issuer's Series A Preferred Stock, if any, and the Common Stock onto its registration statement (subject to customary cutbacks due to market conditions).

The registration rights described above are subject to customary blackout and suspension upon the occurrence of certain events.

Series A Notes. In connection with the Merger, notes were issued pursuant to a note purchase agreement by and among DFR Merger Company, LLC and Deerfield (collectively, the “Notes Issuer”), TDH and others, consisting of approximately $49 million in principal amount of series A notes (the “Series A Notes”). Triarc’s subsidiary, TDH, received approximately $48.0 million of the Series A Notes in connection with the Merger. Upon the liquidation of TDH, the Series A Notes will be transferred to Triarc. The Series A Notes will mature in December 2012. The Series A Notes are guaranteed by the Issuer and certain of its subsidiaries and are secured by certain equity interests owned by such guarantors.

The Series A Notes bear interest at a variable rate based upon the LIBOR and an initial margin of 500 basis points per annum. Commencing 24 months after the issuance date, such margin on the Series A Notes will increase by increments of 50 basis points per annum in each three-month period for eighteen months and 25 basis points per annum for each three-month period thereafter.

The Series A Notes were issued in a private placement transaction pursuant to Section 4(2) of the Securities Act of 1933 and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder.

The Series A Notes, the note purchase agreement and the ancillary documents (the “Note Documents”) contain various customary restrictive covenants with respect to the Issuer and its subsidiaries, including incurring additional indebtedness or guarantees, creating liens on their assets and certain other matters and in each case subject to those exceptions specified in such documents.

The Notes Issuer may redeem the Series A Notes before their maturity from time to time, in whole or in part, at a redemption price equal to 100% of the aggregate outstanding principal amount of the Series A Notes to be redeemed plus accrued and unpaid interest. Any redemption of the Series A Notes shall be made on a pro rata basis based on the aggregate principal amount of all outstanding notes as of the date the Notes Issuer provides notice of such redemption.

The Notes Issuer must use a specified portion of the net cash proceeds received by the Issuer or any of its subsidiaries from any of the following transactions to make an offer to each holder to repurchase such holder’s notes at an offer price of 100% of the aggregate outstanding principal amount of the notes to be repurchased plus accrued and unpaid interest to the date of repurchase: (i) an asset sale, as defined in the note purchase agreement, outside the ordinary course of business or an event of loss, as defined in the note purchase agreement, (ii) a debt issuance as defined in the note purchase agreement, (iii) an equity issuance as defined in the note purchase agreement, or (iv) certain exercises of warrants, rights, or options to acquire capital stock as defined in the note purchase agreement of the Issuer or any of its subsidiaries, in each case subject to specified exceptions set forth in the Note Documents.
