Item 1.03 Bankruptcy or Receivership.

On June 2, 2015, Ivanhoe Energy Inc. announced that, despite considerable efforts by the company, the Proposal Trustee (Ernst & Young Inc.) and major creditors of the company, the parties have been unable to reach a viable restructuring proposal under the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act (Canada) (BIA).

As previously disclosed on February 20, 2015, the company filed a Notice of Intention to Make a Proposal (Notice of Intention) pursuant to the provisions of Part III of the BIA. Pursuant to the Notice of Intention, Ernst & Young (EY) was appointed as the trustee in the company's proposal proceedings and in that capacity, EY has been assisting the company in its efforts to restructure its outstanding debt.

Ivanhoe announced on May 4, 2015, that the Court of Queen's Bench of Alberta approved an application for an extension for the company to file its restructuring proposal with the Official Receiver under the BIA from May 5, 2015 to June 1, 2015.

Since filing the Notice of Intention, the company has been working diligently with EY and major creditors to create a proposal for presentation to all of its creditors. Court materials and other information about the BIA proceedings are available on the Proposal Trustee's website at www.ey.com/ca/ivanhoeenergy.

As the efforts by the company and the Proposal Trustee to reach a viable restructuring proposal have not been successful, by operation of the law under the BIA, the company was deemed bankrupt as of 11:59pm MDT on June 1, 2015.
