ITEM 2. ACQUISITION OR DISPOSITION OF ASSETS

On May 31, 2002, Goodrich Corporation (the Company) completed the spin-off of its Engineered Industrial Products business (the EIP Business) to holders of shares of common stock, par value $5 per share, of the Company, by means of the distribution (the Distribution) to such holders of all outstanding shares of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of EnPro Industries, Inc., then a wholly-owned North Carolina subsidiary of the Company (EnPro), including the preferred stock purchase rights associated with such common stock (collectively, EnPro Common Stock). EnPro began operations as an independent, separately traded, publicly-held company on June 1, 2002.

The Distribution was made without the payment of any consideration or the exchange of any shares by the Company s shareholders. In the Distribution, the Company s shareholders received one share of EnPro Common Stock for every five shares of common stock of the Company owned on the record date, May 28, 2002. Ownership of EnPro Common Stock was registered in book-entry form and each shareholder of the Company will receive a direct registration transfer advise indicating the number of full shares of EnPro Common Stock that has been credited to the shareholder. Fractional shares of EnPro Common Stock were not issued to the Company s shareholders as part of the Distribution nor credited to book-entry accounts. Fractional shares of EnPro Common Stock to which the Company s shareholders would otherwise be entitled were aggregated and sold in the public market by the distribution agent. The aggregate cash net proceeds of the sales was distributed ratably to those shareholders who would otherwise have received the fractional shares of EnPro Common Stock.

In connection with the Distribution, EnPro Common Stock was registered pursuant to Section 12(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. When-issued trading in EnPro Common Stock commenced on The New York Stock Exchange (NYSE) on May 27, 2002 under the trading symbol NPO WI . EnPro Common Stock began trading regular way on the NYSE on June 3, 2002 under the trading symbol NPO .

In connection with the Distribution, the Company and EnPro entered into a Distribution Agreement, a Tax Matters Arrangements, a Transition Services Agreement, an Employee Matters Agreement and an Indemnification Agreement, all of which are described in and the forms of which are filed as exhibits to EnPro s Registration Statement on Form 10, as amended (File No. 001-31225) (the EnPro Form 10). The Company is not aware of any material relationship between EnPro and the Company or any of its affiliates, any director or officer of the Company or any associate of any such director or officer that existed at the date of the Distribution, except as disclosed in the EnPro Form 10.

NOTES TO UNAUDITED PRO FORMA CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

(a) Adjustment reflects the distribution of the Company's Engineered Industrial Products business to shareholders. The ultimate amount of cash to be distributed is subject to adjustment under the Distribution Agreement.

(b) The pro forma number of weighted average shares outstanding used to compute pro forma diluted earnings per share excludes 2.9 million potential common shares for assumed conversions of convertible preferred securities as these securities were issued by Coltec Capital Trust (a wholly owned subsidiary of EnPro Industries, Inc.) and will remain obligations of Coltec Capital Trust subsequent to the distribution.
