Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On February 1, 2005, Crawford & Company (the "Company") entered into a Change of Control and Severance Agreement with Thomas W. Crawford, President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company. The agreement provides in the event that Mr. Crawford's employment with the Company is terminated due to the Company being bought or sold such that there is a material change in control, the Company agrees to provide eighteen (18) months of Mr. Crawford's then current base salary. Additionally, all stock options granted to Mr. Crawford will immediately vest and become exercisable for a ninety (90) day period following the date of termination. The agreement also provides that in the event Mr. Crawford is terminated by Crawford in his first year of employment, for reasons other than cause, he will be provided severance compensation equal to six (6) months of his then current base salary. The agreement also provides that, prior to the severance amounts being paid and options vesting, that the Company and Mr. Crawford agree to mutually acceptable terms of confidentiality, non-solicitation, cooperation and other reasonable and customary terms of a severance agreement at the time of his termination of employment. Mr. Crawford became President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company September 1, 2004.

On February 1, 2005, the Board of Directors of Crawford & Company (the "Company") elected James D. Edwards as a Director of the Company increasing the size of the Board to eight (8).
